

An Understated Dominance

Chapter 2467

Alloy said sarcastically, "That's true. Master Hadley, you're very ambitious, so why would you care about losing a few useless disciples?"

"However, it is precisely these disciples who have made great progress since joining my Celestial Alliance.

"Perhaps... they simply weren't suited to the environment in Sword Union?"

Cyrus replied coldly, "Master Marshall, you talk a lot, but it doesn't mean much.

"Since this is a martial arts competition, let's see who the real winner is.

"Do you dare to fight me on stage to open the eyes of these juniors?"

"Master Hadley, you're so interested, I will accompany you.

"It just so happens that I also want to see if your swordsmanship is as powerful as the rumors say." Alloy smiled lightly, showing no fear.

One was the second on the Astonishing World List, and the other was the third.

There wasn't much difference between the two, and it was still unknown who would win if they fought.

Seeing that the situation was getting tense, Katy Foster, who was caught in the middle, hurriedly smiled and tried to smooth things over.

"Two sect masters, please be patient. Today is a competition among the younger generations.

"You two, as sect leaders, should not steal the limelight.

"In my opinion, this matter should be discussed at length."

Alloy nodded and said, "Master Foster, you make sense. We old guys shouldn't cause trouble today.

"If Master Hadley really wants to compete, it is better to let the disciples compete."

"Okay," Cyrus said coldly. "But since this is a competition, we need to add some stakes."

“Oh? I wonder how Master Hadley plans to bet?” Alloy raised his eyebrows slightly.

“It’s very simple. If our Sword Union wins, all the swords in your Weapon Storage Pavilion will belong to our Sword Union,” Cyrus said.

Alloy curled his lips, saying, “No problem. But if our Celestial Alliance disciples win, then Master Hadley must hand over your Parry Sword Technique!”

The Parry Sword Technique was a secret of the Sword Union that only the core disciples could learn.

It was also the foundation of the Sword Union.

If Alloy Marshall could obtain the Parry Sword Technique, then with the resources of the Celestial Alliance, he could train a group of sword masters.

“Humph! You have a big appetite. You dare to covet our Parry Sword Technique?” Cyrus’s eyes narrowed.

“What? Is Master Hadley afraid of losing?” Alloy smiled and said, “Master Hadley, if you don’t have the courage to bet, then forget it.

“So others won’t say our Celestial Alliance is bullying others.”

Cyrus said coldly, “Master Marshall, don’t provoke me. I can agree, but I won’t suffer a loss.

“If you want my Parry Sword Technique, in exchange I want your Four Symbols of the Heavenly God Technique!”
