Chapter 4363

David knew that once he started to entangle, the remaining demon cultivators would arrive soon!

As fist shadows hit David, David did not stop at all!

“You can’t run away...”

Another demon cultivator blocked David’s way!

David didn’t waste any words, and directly sacrificed the Dragon Slashing Sword and slashed it out! The sword light in the sky directly cut down the demon cultivator, and even the soul had no chance to escape!

When he died, the demon cultivator widened his eyes, his face full of disbelief. He didn’t expect that he would be killed instantly by a seventh-grade cultivator in the Tribulation Realm!

If it was the Qingyi cultivator and others, they would definitely not face David like this. After all, they had fought with David and knew David’s true strength!

The demon cultivators that Ning Zhi brought later had never seen David’s true strength, so they were careless and were killed instantly by David’s sword!

But this sword also slowed down David’s speed!

At once, more than a dozen demon cultivators from all directions gathered around!

Ning Zhi also flew up from the sea and rushed over here!

David frowned, knowing that it was not easy to escape, so he took Zhu Qingxiu back to the Dead Sea again!

In this way, these demon cultivators could not chase them!

“Mr. Ning, David rushed out of the sea, killed one of us, and ran back into the sea again. We can’t chase him!”

The blue-clothed cultivator said after seeing Ning Zhi!

“Don’t worry, they can’t run away...”

Ning Zhi looked at the sea with a fierce look in his eyes!

He saw his palms slowly raised, and the sky and the earth changed color in an instant. Groups of black fog came from far and near, and finally covered the sea surface within a radius of 100 miles!

Rumble...

David and Zhu Qingxiu had just reached the bottom of the sea when they felt the whole sea shaking!

The

calm sea water began to surge, and the whole sea area was in chaos!

A stream of black air poured into the sea, making the surroundings instantly dark as ink!

The deafening roar resounded through the world!

Zhu Qingxiu was so scared that his face turned pale, and he unconsciously grabbed David’s arm, his body trembling slightly!

The surrounding black air slowly condensed into thick cylinders, and then directly inserted into the seabed!

The cylinders were inserted into the seabed one by one, like a cage, and then lines continued to light up on the black cylinders!

The spiritual light was diffused, the lines flickered, and the black fog was entangled around these cylinders, forming a large net!

This time, David and Zhu Qingxiu were directly surrounded in the middle, as if they were in a prison!

“This...what is this thing, it’s so scary...”

Zhu Qingxiu frowned and said with some trembling!

“It seems that Ning Zhi has learned a lot, but he is still a little immature when it comes to playing magic array with me.”

“You help me protect the law, and I also want to re-carve the formation. I want to see whose formation is more powerful.”

After David finished speaking, he began to continuously carve array patterns on the seabed, but this time the array patterns were a little special. Not only were the shapes extremely complex, but each array pattern emitted a golden light!

If Zhu Qingxiu knew about the formation, she would definitely be able to see that what David carved was not just the array pattern, but the divine pattern!

This was learned from the ancestor of the divine pattern!

Zhu Qingxiu looked around nervously. He wanted to protect David and let David lay the formation with peace of mind!

But she didn't have a sword, but relying on her bare hands, Zhu Qingxiu had no confidence at all!

I saw the strange sound of water around getting louder and louder, and getting closer and closer!

It was like countless figures swimming in the sea water!

If it was before, Zhu Qingxiu would not be afraid, because she didn't believe that anyone could enter this Dead Sea!

But now, she had to be afraid, because some monks didn't care about the temperature in the Dead Sea at all!

Chapter 4364

As the strange sound of water got closer and closer, Zhu Qingxiu saw countless dense wind blades, dividing the sea water. These wind blades were all emitted from the black cylinder!

They were going to use the wind blades to chop the two people trapped inside into meat paste!

Looking at the wind blades getting closer and closer, Zhu Qingxiu's forehead was covered with cold sweat, and she looked at David unconsciously!

She didn't have David's indestructible golden body. With her current strength, she was afraid that she couldn't block these wind blades at all!

But Zhu Qingxiu had no place to escape, because this sea area was shrouded, and there were such wind blades everywhere!

Zhu Qingxiu's only hope was that David would quickly set up the formation to block these wind blades!

Otherwise, they might really be chopped into meat paste by these wind blades!But seeing that David was still concentrating on carving the formation, Zhu Qingxiu could only grit his teeth and plan to fight against these wind blades by himself, helping David to resist for a second!

After all, now the two of them are grasshoppers on a rope, and no one can get rid of the other!

“Master, I’m sorry...”

After Zhu Qingxiu said, he took out a jade slip with nine swords engraved on it!

This is the secret book of the Ten Thousand Swords Sect that the demon cultivator has been looking for!

The nine swords on it are of different shapes and sizes!

Zhu Qingxiu took the jade slip in his hand, and then a spiritual power was injected into it, and the jade slip flashed with spiritual light!

At the same time, behind Zhu Qingxiu, a looming giant sword slowly took shape!

The nine swords on the jade slip flashed with light, and then began to tremble slightly, and then the nine swords broke away from the jade slip and floated in front of Zhu Qingxiu!

These nine swords echoed with the giant sword behind Zhu Qingxiu, confirming each other!

As the nine swords flew out, Zhu Qingxiu's face became ugly, and sweat poured down like rain!

Soon the nine swords kept changing, and finally thousands of sword shadows appeared, and it was impossible to tell which was illusory and which was real!

Zhu Qingxiu swung her sword vigorously, and countless sword shadows flew towards the wind blades, and the giant sword behind her was shaking wildly, as if it couldn't hold back and flew into the sky!The roar continued, and the wind blades continued to explode!

Countless sword shadows temporarily blocked Zhu Qingxiu's area, and all the wind blades were destroyed!

"The secret book of the Wanjian Sect was actually used!"

Above the sea, Ning Zhi looked down at the Dead Sea, and a sneer appeared at the corner of his mouth!

And beside him, more than a dozen demon cultivators also looked at the rolling surface of the Dead Sea with shock on their faces, and their admiration for Ning Zhi deepened a little!

"You follow me down, kill Zhu Qingxiu, and seize the secret book of the Wanjian Sect."

"As for David, leave it to me, I must make him die without a burial place!"

Ning Zhi's eyes condensed slightly, and he said with murderous intent!

"Mr. Ning, I'm afraid we can't get into the Dead Sea..."

The blue-clothed cultivator said a little embarrassedly!

"Don't worry, as long as I'm here, you can get in!"

After Ning Zhi finished speaking, he waved his palm gently, and a ball of red flames roamed around the crowd, and soon formed a barrier around everyone!

Looking from a distance, these people are like people on fire!

"Mr. Ning, can David be spared or left intact? After all, he is worth a hundred years of worship."

Another demon cultivator asked cautiously!

Ning Zhi's eyes glared slightly, and the man was so scared that he dared not speak again!

"I tell you, no one is allowed to have any ideas about David. I must kill him myself."

"It's been so long, and it's time to settle my grudge with him!"

Ning Zhi must kill David himself to avenge his father's murder!

From the secular world to the heavenly world, Ning Zhi followed step by step. How much suffering he suffered, only he himself knew!
