

Chapter 1121 Susannah Prescott

In Shadow Valley.

Liam was out cold, and his dreams were anything but peaceful.

He saw Asher and Julie being dragged away, and they were clearly in trouble.

In his dream, both Julie and Asher looked scared and hopeless, staring at Liam with tears in their eyes.

It crushed Liam to see them like that.

No matter how much he screamed or fought, he couldn't do anything. In the end, Julie and Asher were taken away, and he was left with their desperate cries echoing in his head.

Liam shouted and thrashed around in his dream, but it didn't change anything. He felt desperate.

Suddenly, his scream sounded in Shadow Valley, his voice echoing off the trees.

Then, Liam jolted awake.

As soon as he opened his eyes, he knew something was off.

He realized he was surrounded by strangers.

Liam frowned and became alert instantly.

An elderly man with a scruffy beard and hair as gray as ash looked at him with surprise. "You're awake already? I didn't think you'd recover so fast after such a nasty hit. It's really surprising!" he said.

Liam kept quiet, not wanting to give away his secrets. He knew his quick recovery was due to the Heart of Life shard inside him, constantly healing him.

He wouldn't just tell that to a stranger.

After the old man spoke, a petite girl with big bright eyes and a lively smile peered at Liam. "Hey, you're awake! Finally!" she said, practically bouncing with excitement.

Liam, still getting his bearings and recovering his strength, gave a nod but didn't say much.

Seeing Liam wasn't talking, the girl continued, "I'm Susannah Prescott. What's your name?"

Liam kept silent, still puzzled about how he had ended up in this place.

The elder standing beside the girl frowned and raised his voice. "How dare you ignore her! It's an honor to have our master speak to you! Show some respect! You're asking for trouble!"

The old man's words snapped Liam out of his thoughts.

He glanced at the girl and replied with a steady tone, "My name is Liam Hoffman."

The elder gave him a cold snort, clearly irritated by Liam's attitude. Just as he was about to say something else, the girl spoke up. "Idris, chill out. He's been through a lot. Give him a break."

She then turned to Liam and asked, "How did you get hurt? You were unconscious in Shadow Valley, and that place is teeming with danger. You're lucky I found you and brought you here; otherwise, you'd already be dead."

Liam knew how serious his condition had been when he had collapsed in Shadow Valley.

Even though the Heart of Life shard had been healing him, he had still been at serious risk. These people had probably saved his life.

Realizing this, Liam gave Susannah a grateful nod. "Thank you for saving my life!"

Susannah's face lit up with a smile, making her even prettier. "No problem! You're not fully recovered yet. You should stick with us. Shadow Valley is full of nasty surprises, and it's not safe to be alone. Once you're better, you can go your own way, but until then, stay with us."