

Chapter 1123 Shadows

Just when Idris was about to kill Liam, Susannah stopped him. She frowned and scolded Idris, "Idris, you're being rude! You're bringing shame to the Prescott family! Return Liam's item to him!"

Idris heard this but was unwilling to give it back. The Universe Crystal Dew was a rare treasure for him.

With its help, Idris could possibly even get the opportunity to conquer level six and enter level seven.

So, Idris hurriedly whispered, "Miss, this is the Universe Crystal Dew. Besides, Liam gave this to us to show his gratitude. A drop of Universe Crystal Dew in exchange for his life is a good deal for him!"

Hearing Idris' words, Liam said, "Just take it. You saved my life. I owe you my gratitude!"

After saying that, Liam got to his feet, preparing to leave.

However, the second he stood up, a strange wave of weakness hit him.

With furrowed brows, he surveyed his body carefully. He discovered that his wounds weren't the cause of his weakness. The weakness was emanating from deep within his heart!

Liam scanned his body and discovered a ray of white light coming from the depth of his heart. This white light was responsible for the weird weakness he was feeling.

It appeared it was looking for replenishment!

This discovery reminded Liam of the time he had barely managed to escape from the Zephyr Ape. What was the white light that had streamed out from his body back then?

Liam had never known that his body housed such terrifying energy.

However, he wasn't going to probe the white light's origin in front of the Prescott family's team. Liam intended to consume the Universe Crystal Dew after he left here and use it to find the origin of the white light.

As for Shayla's situation, there was hope since he had gotten the Universe Crystal Dew.

With this plan in place, Liam stood up properly and bid Susannah goodbye before walking away in another direction.

However, before Liam was completely out of sight of the Prescott family's team, a few invisible shadows approached him.

Liam didn't notice anything amiss at all. He was completely oblivious to their presence.

Suddenly, a shadow on the ground launched an attack on him!

Caught off guard, Liam was hit by it.

Fortunately, Liam's body was strong, and this blow didn't result in a fatal injury.

Noting that it was unsuccessful in killing Liam, the shadow quickly retreated, not leaving Liam a chance to counter-attack.

Liam was shocked, his expression grim.

He hadn't expected the Shadow Valley to be so peculiar. He could even be hit with a sneak attack while walking.

Sure enough, this place deserved to be the forbidden area highlighted in red on the map.

At first, Liam assumed everything would be fine after the shadow retreated. However, more shadows began to swarm toward him.

Liam frowned and quickly used his strength to fight the shadows on the ground.

Unfortunately, even when Liam's attack blasted a huge hole in the ground, it was completely ineffective against the shadows.

While Liam was combatting the shadows, he felt he heard a sinister laugh whoosh by as if taunting him.

A little distance away, several people of the Prescott family's members stood with their arms crossed, laughing at Liam.

Only Susannah scowled and ordered Idris, "Idris, go and help him! Liam can't fight all of them off alone!"
