

Chapter 1254 Strength Increased Again

A week passed.

The secret cultivation chamber where Liam was located remained closed, giving the impression he might have already left.

Had Sheldon not checked on Liam during this time, he might have assumed Liam had indeed left.

Sheldon had visited several times to check on Liam but had found no signs of him waking. Instead, Liam had been deep in meditation, so Sheldon had left him undisturbed.

The secret cultivation chamber Liam was in held great significance for the entire Heavenly Dragon College.

The other students at Heavenly Dragon College were aware that Liam had been there for a week, and they were displeased with it.

Yet, any complaints about Liam's prolonged stay were decisively suppressed by Sheldon.

After all, Sheldon had discovered that many of Liam's actions defied common sense.

Sheldon believed Liam's future accomplishments would surpass his own by far.

Seeing such talent, Sheldon would naturally do his best to win Liam over.

Besides, Lindy, his personal disciple, had a good relationship with Liam. Given their relationship, winning over Liam wasn't a challenging task.

Meanwhile, inside the secret cultivation chamber.

Liam's aura had become more contained.

He had made significant progress this week.

His primogem energy had soared, reaching level ten with five stars!

This achievement was just one of many gains Liam had made in the cultivation chamber.

Liam's body had turned bronze, resembling ordinary metal.

Now, even without activating his defenses, no level-ten Primogem Warrior could defeat him.

Furthermore, the special powers of all the elements in Liam's body was significantly enhanced. Among them, the most powerful was the earth element's special power, which had nearly approached the realm of law power!

This so-called law power was a distinctive combat skill exclusive to Primogem Experts.

Just understanding a bit of law power would naturally make someone a Primogem Expert. Once one became a Primogem Expert, one's strength would undergo a dramatic change.

That was why Liam couldn't endure the attack from an enemy at the Primogem Expert level in the test room before—the enemy had comprehended the law power!

Now, Liam had managed to combine the special powers of the five elements into one.

In the future, he would need to first understand the law power of these elements, and then aim to condense them.

Even though it was challenging, Liam knew that once he successfully condensed the law power of the five elements, his strength would undergo a significant improvement. He would surpass the strength of an average Primogem Expert!

Yet, in this secret cultivation chamber, Liam had gained even more than that.

The most astonishing achievement was that the two World Powers within Liam's body had combined.

Furthermore, the two World Powers were no longer fixed in Liam's body but flowed slowly, as if they were alive.

Liam's biggest surprise was how the two World Powers nurtured the special power and the fragment of the Heart of Life within him!

His strength had greatly increased over the week.

This progress filled Liam with the confidence needed for his real mission.

Liam withdrew his aura, got up from the floor, and opened the door of the secret cultivation chamber slowly.

The moment Liam stepped out of the secret cultivation chamber, he found Sheldon guarding by the door.

Seeing Sheldon, Liam expressed his gratitude and said respectfully, "Thank you, sir! I will always be grateful for your support!"

Sheldon dismissed the formalities with a wave. "Don't mention it. You are a friend of Lindy's, so you're like family to me. Looking after you is simply what I ought to do. By the way, now that you have been baptized by the Cosmic realm, it's time for you to carry out a task. I have informed Lindy; she's on her way here now. You can go with her later."

Liam nodded in acknowledgment.

Sheldon had a particular reason for this arrangement.

Impressed by Liam's talent and strength, he instructed Lindy to accompany him on the task.

Once Lindy arrived, Sheldon whispered to her, "Lindy, make sure you maintain a good relationship with Liam. He's destined for great things in the future!"

Lindy nodded in agreement.

She already knew what to do, even without Sheldon's guidance.
