

Chapter 1294 United

Liam watched with misty eyes as more and more comrades gathered to protect him during his breakthrough.

His heart was filled with warmth.

"Thank you," he said.

United, the Cosmic realm's Human Clan stood as a single, unyielding force.

Liam's fighting spirit surged.

He resolved to grow stronger to help the Human Clan more!

He squeezed his eyes shut, channeling all his energy inward.

But Liam's impending breakthrough wasn't unnoticed.

Scattered across the battlefield, the enemies from the Insect Clan also detected it.

They recognized Liam as a genius from the Human Clan.

"Kill him!" they yelled.

Killing a human genius like Liam would be a major victory for their kind.

The small area around Liam soon erupted into a fierce battle.

At the heart of this battle was Liam himself, surrounded by the clash of blades, the spray of blood, and the desperate cries of warriors. The warriors from the Human Clan fought valiantly against the ones from the Insect Clan.

Countless Insect Clan soldiers were killed.

But many Human Clan Primogem Experts also died, leaving behind a horrifying scene of shattered remains.

The nauseating stench of blood hung heavy, transforming the area into a nightmarish battlefield.

Even with his eyes closed, Liam could feel the weight of his fallen comrades.

Even as they fell, they chose to drag the warriors from the Insect Clan, thwarting their enemies' devious schemes.

The pressure in Liam's chest tightened.

He knew he was the heart of this battle. If he failed, his fellow Human Clansmen's sacrifice would be in vain.

"Breakthrough!" Liam roared in his heart, pouring all his energy into amplifying his primogem energy.

Meanwhile, hidden in the shadows of the No. 108 planetary system, Myriad watched the scene, his brow furrowed.

He was the Primogem King Caden had assigned to protect Liam.

After some thought, Myriad contacted Caden.

"Liam is at a crucial stage of a breakthrough. The other Primogem Experts are struggling against the relentless Insect Clan. If this continues, it will disrupt Liam's breakthrough. Should I intervene?"

After a short pause, Caden calmly replied, "No. I have faith in Liam. Stay hidden. Intervene only if absolutely necessary."

"Understood," Myriad responded.

The battle raged on around Liam.

His comrades fell one by one, their blood pooling into a crimson tide. Yet, their voices echoed with resolution.

"Everyone! Hold them off! Give Liam the chance he needs to have a breakthrough!"

"I, Nathan, will not retreat an inch!"

"Wipe out these insects!"

"Fight with all we've got!"

As the Human Clan warriors prepared to fight to the death, Liam achieved his breakthrough!

Liam soared to the first stage of Primogem Expert, grasping 1% of the Five Elements' law power instantly.

His aura surged outward, washing over the battlefield like a tidal wave.

His combat power had skyrocketed.

Now, he believed even eighth-stage Primogem Expert might struggle against him.

Now was the perfect opportunity to test his strength using the warriors from the Insect Clan.

"You can all retreat! I will handle this!" Liam shouted, starting to use his power.

He unleashed his Malicious Aura Domain, engulfing a vast radius.

The Insect Clan army's power immediately waned.

That was the terrifying effect of Liam's Malicious Aura Domain, suppressing the enemy's strength.

Liam pressed his advantage, wielding the law power to activate his Origin Technique, the Power of Five Elements.

A blinding explosion of five-colored light erupted from Liam, consuming every enemy in its path.

Boom!

A section of lower-stage Insect Clan Primogem Experts vanished without a trace, obliterated by the five-colored light!
