

Chapter 1226 Crazy Yolanda

Fortunately, Laura and Maureen intervened just in time to prevent Shayla from acting impulsively.

They stopped Shayla and whispered urgently, "Shayla, calm down! Remember, we're here to save Julie and Asher. We can't jeopardize the mission by alerting the enemy!"

Shayla regained some of her composure upon hearing Laura's and Maureen's words.

As she nodded in agreement and prepared to proceed with them, Tyler's voice came.

He mercilessly insulted Yolanda. "Bitch, still pining for your old flame, Liam? I wonder if he'd feel sorry for you being my lapdog now! Don't you also wonder about that?"

Tyler's words struck a nerve, causing Shayla and the others to pause.

It was clear to them now that Tyler harbored resentment towards Liam, and the woman he degraded so harshly likely had a connection to Liam.

Realizing this, Shayla, Laura, and Maureen immediately changed their minds. They exchanged glances and made a silent decision: the woman Tyler had insulted must be saved.

Meanwhile, Tyler noticed them and barked angrily, "Stop right there! Who are you? Get over here!"

Upon being discovered by Tyler, Shayla and the others wasted no time and launched a fierce attack.

saved.

Meanwhile, Tyler noticed them and barked angrily, "Stop right there! Who are you? Get over here!"

Upon being discovered by Tyler, Shayla and the others wasted no time and launched a fierce attack.

With lightning speed, they activated their special powers, swiftly severing Tyler's head.

Shayla, driven by intense fury, even used her fire elemental special power to scorch Tyler's lower body, a manifestation of her deep-seated hatred towards someone despicable like Tyler.

After killing Tyler, Shayla and the others quickly surveyed the area.

Once they were sure no one else was around, they rescued the half-conscious Yolanda.

Shayla, Laura, and Maureen took Yolanda to a deserted warehouse in the Duncan family estate and treated her wounds.

Soon, Yolanda began to regain consciousness.

Seeing Yolanda awake, Shayla quickly asked, "Are you a friend of Liam's?"

However, Yolanda, having been tormented by Tyler for so long, had descended into a state of madness. So, in response to Shayla's query, a peculiar smile crossed Yolanda's face. "Did Liam send you to rescue me? I know Liam would never abandon me. He's always been there for me!"

Shayla exchanged a bewildered glance with the others.

They didn't know who Yolanda was, but from her words, it was clear she had some connection to Liam.

Shayla and Laura frowned. They hadn't expected Liam to have a relationship with this woman.

Some jealousy and discontent simmered within them, but they knew it wasn't the right time for such feelings.

Maureen then asked Yolanda, "You mentioned knowing Liam. What's your relationship with him?"

Yolanda's smile turned manic as she replied, "I'm Liam's wife! You won't believe how wonderful he is to me. Liam has always cared for me secretly, always thinking of my well-being! By the way, where is my husband? Has he come to see me? It's been so long."
