

Chapter 1350 A Great Opportunity

After explaining the situation, the City Lord swiftly connected to the Network of Human Sovereign to trace the source of the disturbance.

Following an extensive scan, he identified the origin—it is in the Rosefinch Galaxy.

Instantly, both he and Ameer had the same individual in mind: Liam.

Ameer contemplated quietly. Could Liam really be the one stirring the Sea of Death within the Rosefinch Galaxy?

As the City Lord displayed the scene of Rosefinch Galaxy, they saw Liam meditating within the Sea of Laws.

Right now, powerful currents of the law power of death were swirling around Liam.

The sight was both majestic and daunting, causing Ameer to be shocked. He hadn't anticipated that Liam, a young man, would be the person who had caused this.

Witnessing the formidable law power of death enveloping Liam, Ameer was filled with worry. He turned to the City Lord and asked urgently, "Should we assist Liam? The intensity of the law power of death surrounding him poses a grave danger! His life could be at risk!"

However, the City Lord did not reply immediately, his attention fixed on the screen.

After explaining the situation, the City Lord swiftly connected to the Network of Human Sovereign to trace the source of the disturbance.

Following an extensive scan, he identified the origin—it is in the Rosefinch Galaxy.

Instantly, both he and Ameer had the same individual in mind: Liam.

Ameer contemplated quietly. Could Liam really be the one stirring the Sea of Death within the Rosefinch Galaxy?

As the City Lord displayed the scene of Rosefinch Galaxy, they saw Liam meditating within the Sea of Laws.

Right now, powerful currents of the law power of death were swirling around Liam.

The sight was both majestic and daunting, causing Ameer to be shocked. He hadn't anticipated that Liam, a young man, would be the person who had caused this.

Witnessing the formidable law power of death enveloping Liam, Ameer was filled with worry. He turned to the City Lord and asked urgently, "Should we assist Liam? The intensity of the law power of death surrounding him poses a grave danger! His life could be at risk!"

However, the City Lord did not reply immediately, his attention fixed on the screen.

After a brief pause, he said, "No need. It appears we have underestimated Liam's capabilities and luck. I've just verified that the Sea of Death in the Rosefinch Galaxy has recognized him. If he can withstand this trial, he will emerge with immense power!"

Hearing this, Ameer felt reassured. After all, he knew his

He then took his leave.

The City Lord continued to watch Liam's progress through the Network of Human Sovereign.

After a long while, the City Lord's expression grew thoughtful, and he murmured, "Emperor Hoffman, you indeed have an extraordinary son!"

It was clear to the City Lord that the law power in the Sea of Death had specifically sought Liam out.

Liam's acceptance by the Sea of Death highlighted his exceptional potential.

The law power of death was known as one of the most potent forces. If Liam became the master of the Sea of Death in the future, he would become a formidable presence on the interstellar battlefield.

Receiving the Sea of Death's acknowledgment meant Liam could utilize the law power of death to marshal and lead an army of dead souls.

Additionally, the power of this army could continuously increase.

Any negative repercussions from the law power of death were neutralized since the Sea of Death had acknowledged Liam. Liam could even quell any disturbances within the Sea of Death with just a thought.

In essence, earning the Sea of Death's acknowledgment was a privilege that even a Human Sovereign would envy!

Meanwhile, as Liam meditated within the Sea of Laws, the formidable law power of death pressed down on him, causing intense agony. It felt as though his very skin was being stripped away.

This ordeal was a stark departure from his previous experiences with other law powers.

Despite the excruciating pain that almost made him lose consciousness, Liam clenched his teeth and endured.

He was aware of the stakes, knowing that he couldn't give up.

Otherwise, his spiritual power would be extinguished.

If that happened, he would be reduced to an empty shell.

