

Chapter 1351 Achievements

The fear of failure, a fate worse than death, drove Liam to stay focused. He clenched his teeth and pushed through the pain.

In his mind, he kept thinking of the faces of Julie and Asher, their images fueling his determination to press on.

Though it felt as if his body was being torn apart, Liam refused to give up.

The overwhelming death energy far exceeded what his Malicious Aura Domain could cleanse.

It was as if an invisible hand were tightening around his throat, making his every breath a desperate struggle.

Fortunately, the law power of death didn't continuously press down on him. Whenever the torment became too intense to bear, the pressure would momentarily ease, giving him just enough time to recover.

It felt like the Sea of Death was deliberately testing his limits.

For nine grueling days, Liam endured this relentless agony within the Sea of Laws. Each day felt like a battle for survival, but he refused to give up.

Finally, on the tenth day, his spiritual power suddenly felt relieved.

The gray energy of the law power of death, which had been accumulating inside him, expanded rapidly.

Before he could fully grasp the sense of relief, Liam realized that his mastery of the law power of death had skyrocketed from 1% to 5%!

And it didn't stop there, the energy seemed ready to surpass even his understanding of the law power of the earth element and the wood element, pushing towards 6%.

After surviving the Sea of Death's ordeal, Liam wasted no time in deepening his comprehension of the law power of death with the energy infused by the Sea of Death...

Time seemed to slip away unnoticed until, suddenly, Liam's seclusion period ended, pulling him abruptly out of the Sea of Laws.

Back in his training chamber, Liam quickly assessed his newfound strength, eager to gauge the extent of his progress.

He could feel the depth of his aura had significantly deepened, and he was thrilled to discover that he had jumped from the fifth stage to the seventh stage as a Primogem Expert!

His mastery of the law power of death had soared to an impressive 7%, filling him with joy. Yet, a small pang of regret lingered.

If he had known such progress was possible, he would have extended his time in the Sea of Law to absorb even more of its energy of the law power of death.

Despite this, Liam understood that his rapid advancement was the result of entering a rare state of "epiphany".

This was a unique condition. Upon reaching a certain level, a practitioner could enter a state of epiphany. This rare state would amplify one's understanding and training efficiency to their highest potential.

However, achieving it required a unique and fortuitous opportunity.

 +120 Points at most

Pushing aside any lingering dissatisfaction, Liam chose to focus on his accomplishments.

Although he hadn't managed to grasp the law power of the fire element as he had hoped, the significant progress he had made with the law power of death was more than enough to satisfy him.

This newfound power had significantly enhanced his combat abilities, propelling him to the level of a seventh-stage Primogem Expert.

Now, he looked forward to joining the battles on the interstellar battlefield.

Armed with the law power of death, he was confident he could vanquish countless enemies, earning a staggering amount of points in the process.

With this, he knew he would never have to worry about lacking points again.
