

Chapter 1339 A Kind Old Man

Seeing the unfamiliar figure suddenly appear, Liam's and Cecil's expressions shifted. They tensed up and watched the person warily.

If things went wrong, they would leave by the Stellar Cruiser right away!

The figure gradually revealed his true form. He was an old man with gray hair and a face lined with wrinkles.

The old man smiled at Liam.

However, Liam and Cecil remained on high alert.

Even though the old man didn't show his power, his sudden appearance made it clear he was formidable—likely at the level of the Primogem Emperor or higher.

Liam's palms were sweaty, and his nerves were on edge.

Against such a powerful opponent, any attempt to resist would be futile. If the old man intended to kill them, Liam and Cecil would definitely die unless Caden could show up in time to save them!

Luckily, the old man had only been smiling at Liam since he arrived, showing no sign of hostility.

Noticing Liam's fear, the old man said with a reassuring smile, "Don't worry. I mean you no harm."

As the old man spoke, he lowered his hands casually, showing he had no intention to make a move.

Seeing this, Liam finally relaxed.

Relieved to see there was no threat, Liam bowed respectfully and asked, "How can I help you, sir?"

The old man smiled and said, "I'm here to welcome my distinguished guest!"

The distinguished guest the old man had referred to was clearly either Liam or Cecil.

Cecil glanced at Liam in surprise. He was aware of his own strengths and knew he didn't warrant such a title from a powerful old man.

So the distinguished guest the old man was welcoming had to be Liam.

Cecil sighed inwardly. It seemed that wherever a genius went, they were treated with the utmost respect.

After explaining his purpose, the old man approached Liam with a gentle gaze and asked, "Could you come with me? I have something I need to discuss with you."

At that moment, Liam understood that he was the distinguished guest the old man had mentioned.

Liam had no reason to decline the old man's invitation. He quickly nodded, saying, "Of course, it would be my pleasure."

The old man smiled and, with a flick of his sleeve, summoned a soft breeze that lifted Liam and carried him away.

Soon, with the old man's assistance, Liam arrived at a peaceful, secluded courtyard in the mountains.

Liam asked, "Sir, I'm just an average cultivator from the Human Clan, not a distinguished guest. Have you got the wrong person?"

Despite his talent, Liam hadn't reached a powerful level just yet. Moreover, with the Network of Human Sovereign in place, the old man couldn't check his information.

So, Liam wondered if the old man might have made a mistake.

But the old man, looking kind, said, "No. I can sense your World Power. You're a World Lord, just like me."

Hearing the old man's words, Liam understood the situation.

It turned out the old man in front of him was the World Lord of this No. 76 planetary system!
