

Amazing son in law

Chapter 3401

Charlie didn't intentionally scare Lord Banks.

Before today, he originally wanted to kill Wesley and Lord Banks together.

However, after Wesley went up to Wade Mountain, he changed his mind.

He knows that Wesley is too arrogant, but at least he still has filial piety to his parents and the righteousness to his comrades.

Thinking that he will inevitably go to Europe and the United States in the future, he must also have a strong enough team, so he changed his mind to use Wesley and the entire Dragon Hall for his own use.

Now that Wesley has been collected, it doesn't make much sense to kill Lord Banks alone, so it's better to force him to give way to Zara, and from then on completely solve the Banks family's trouble.

Charlie believes in Zara's personality, and also believes in Zara's abilities.

If he can let her sit in the position of Patriarch, she will definitely be able to handle the things inside and outside the Banks family.

At that time, the Banks family will no longer be the enemy of the Wade family, but an ally of Charlie.

Lord Banks also understood what Charlie thought, and calmed down completely.

He looked at Zara and said seriously, "Zara, Mr. Wade is right."

"There is really no one in the entire Banks family that is more suitable to sit in this position than you."

"You will take this position as soon as possible."

"Complete all the formalities and put the Banks family in your hands."

"From now on, you will lead the fate of the Banks family!"

Zara hesitated for a moment, and said, "Grandpa, I understand."

Having said that, she looked at Charlie and said piously and firmly, "Don't worry, Mr. Wade, I will go all out!"

Charlie nodded slightly and said, "In this case, wait for the formalities to be signed later today."

After speaking, Charlie looked at Zayne again, and said, "And you, I said before that I will let you come back, in addition to passing the confession in front of my parents, but also to finish everything with Aunt Deana."

"The divorce procedures, I will also have someone prepare the relevant procedures for you to sign later today."

Zayne knew that this marriage between him and Deana Thorne could no longer be restored.

Moreover, with Charlie exerting pressure here, it is impossible for him to drag it.

So, he nodded sullenly, and said, "Okay...I'll sign..."

After speaking, he asked Charlie expectantly, "Mr. Wade, you said at the beginning that as long as Zara sits in the position of Banks family Patriarch within three years, you let me come back."

"Now Zara will soon inherit the Banks family. Should I come back too?"

Charlie nodded, and said, "I did say this at the beginning."

"It's okay if you want to come back, but in order to avoid any interference with Zara's next decision, even if you come back, I must arrange for someone for residential surveillance, and the location must be determined by me."

Zayne said with a weeping face, "Mr. Wade, you... This is a bit inappropriate...you said clearly before, as long as Zara becomes the master of the house, you let me free..."

Charlie said coldly, "Don't forget who contributed to Zara being the Patriarch."

Chapter 3402

After that, he said again, "Since you want to cheat on me, it doesn't matter."

Charlie looked at Lord Banks at this time and said lightly, "When Lord Banks signed the relevant documents this time, he will change the overall system of the Banks family by the way."

"In the future, Zara will not be the head of the Banks family, but will be the director of the Banks group."

How dare Lord Banks disobey Charlie, and said quickly, “No problem! No problem!”

“Anyway, from a legal perspective, the title of Patriarch is not tenable.”

“What really stands is the chairmanships and voting rights on the board of directors.”

Charlie nodded, looked Zayne, and said, “Then I’m sorry, your daughter is the chairman of the Banks group this time, not the Banks family patriarch, so I can only work hard for you to return to Syria and stay for few years.”

“But don’t worry, I’ll say hello to Commander Hamid and let him give you some special care.”

Zayne trembled in shock, and quickly said, “Mr. Wade, I was wrong! I am willing to be under residential surveillance!”

“Even if you put me under house arrest, I won’t have any problem, but don’t let me go back to Syria...”

Charlie had expected that he would be soft, and said lightly, “Since you are willing to accept, after the ancestors worship ceremony is over, you will return to Aurous Hill with me, and I will arrange you properly.”

When Zayne heard this, he knelt on the ground, crying and begged, “Mr. Wade, please don’t send me to the kennel...”

Charlie didn’t say a word, but casually glanced at Kairi Elms who was standing with Xion.

Seeing Kairi Elms’ expression was very nervous at this time, Charlie knew that she must still care about Zayne.

After all, she could sacrifice an arm for Zayne and gave him a daughter.

She must have true love for him in her heart.

Thinking of this, Charlie sighed softly and said to Zayne, "Okay, I won't send you to the kennel."

After speaking, he looked at Wilfred Elms again and said, "Mr. Elms, after Zayne went to Aurous Hill, let the Elms family arrange for someone to put him under residential surveillance."

Wilfred Elms did not expect that Charlie handed Zayne to him, and hurriedly asked him, "Mr. Wade, I don't know what your requirements are?"

Charlie said calmly, "After all, he is the biological father of Zara and Xion, and since he admits his mistakes in a good manner, I will not deliberately torture him or send him to kennel."

When Zayne heard Charlie talk about this, his whole body took a deep breath, and his tears almost couldn't hold back.

Charlie continued at this time, "Just leave him in the villa where you live!"

"Just leave him an underground room."

"Your family will be responsible for his clothing and food, but I have a few rules."

"He must not have touched the red line."

Wilfred Elms hurriedly handed his hands, "Mr. Wade, despite your instructions, we must absolutely obey it!"

Charlie said, "First, he must not be allowed to leave the villa for half a step; second, he must not be allowed to have any contact with the outside world except for the Elms family, including Zara and Xion."

Wilfred Elms immediately said respectfully, "Please don't worry, Mr. Wade, I personally take guaranteed and will never let him leave the villa or contact the outside world!"

Zayne was also completely relieved at this time.

In fact, his relationship with the Elms family has always been pretty good.

Needless to say, Kairi Elms' love affairs with Zayne back then were also Kairi Elms' initiative, so Zayne can't be talked about as guilty man.

In addition, he is Xion's father and had taken good care of the Elms family before, so his relationship with the Elms family was actually very good.

Charlie did not simply want to give Zayne a little sweetness when he handed him over to the Elms family.

The main thing is that he feels that Kairi Elms is indeed pitiful, and he has paid a lot for Zayne throughout his life.

As a young girl, he became Zayne's personal bodyguard, and later disabled by him, gave birth to a daughter for him, and raised his flesh and blood by him.

This kind of effort has long surpassed ordinary people.

Therefore, Charlie has the heart to create an opportunity for her.

In the future, Zayne can only be supervised by the Elms family, so Kairi Elms will definitely take care of him.

After divorcing Deana Thorne and being under house arrest in Aurous Hill, he should treat Kairi Elms well.

If he figured it out someday and decided to marry Kairi Elms and live the two together, then he would definitely set him free.

Of course, Charlie would never say this, otherwise Zayne might immediately agree to it for freedom.

In this matter, he still has to let him slowly realize it.

When the time comes that he fully understand, then he will be free!

Chapter 3403

Zayne naturally still couldn't figure out what Charlie meant in his heart.

He only knows that he can basically be free.

Even if it is under residential surveillance by the Elms family in Aurous Hill, it is definitely thousand times better than Syria.

Therefore, now he is ecstatic, and he wants to go to Aurous Hill as soon as possible.

Zara was extremely grateful to Charlie at this time.

Secretly sighed in my heart, "I really didn't think that Charlie could actually retaliate with virtue and give the Banks family a good result far beyond my expectations..."

"Grandpa can leave Wade Mountain safely, dad can also return to China, and I can officially take over the Banks family and become the head of the Banks family..."

"When the two kings of Dragon Hall were killed in the hands of Charlie, I was still thinking that today Grandpa would die here too..."

"But I didn't expect that Charlie would still leave him a way out! This is indeed a model of repaying grievances with virtue..."

But Zara also knew very well that Charlie wanted her to take over the Banks family better for herself.

After all, most of the shares of the Banks family belong to the old man, and all the voting rights are also in him. He is the head of the Banks family and the actual controller of all the Banks family's properties.

If he died today, then the Banks family must distribute the inheritance according to the order of inheritance.

Although his father was the eldest son, but Charlie restricted his freedom, and the situation of the second uncle was the same.

In this situation, the Banks family had no mastery, and it would inevitably fall apart.

Once the family is separated, it is difficult for anyone to gather the Banks family together again.

However, Charlie used the condition of forgiving the old man's life in exchange for the old man's willingness, reasonable and legal transfer of all equity and control rights.

In this way, Zara can easily take over the Banks family.

Once Zara is in power, no one can threaten her as the head of the Patriarch.

If anyone in the Banks family dares not accept, Zara can even drive them out of the Banks family and the business system of the Banks Group directly.

The thought that Charlie helped him so much, Zara's inner gratitude has long since been added.

At this moment, there was a pair of eyes in the crowd looking at Charlie with hot eyes.

This person is Helena who has been standing in the crowd behind Charlie.

She didn't expect Charlie to have such a powerful strength, and she didn't even think that Charlie would be able to let Zara sit on the throne of Banks family Patriarch with a few words.

This reminded her of what Charlie had said before, and she can only sighed, "Charlie said that he could let me sit as the Queen of Northern Europe. Originally, I still had some uncertainty in my heart, but now, I am sure that Charlie will be able to do it!"

Chapter 3404

At this moment, her heart was full of revenge. She was already looking forward to the moment when she became the queen and trampled Olivia under her feet.

However, Charlie did not pay attention to Helena at this time.

He said to Zayne and Lord Banks, "You two, one of you organized the anti-leaf alliance back then, and the other rushed to Wade Mountain today to witness the destruction of the Wade family. I already gave you a way out of death and you are going to kneel in front of my parent's grave until tomorrow morning!"

Lord Banks only trembled in his heart, but when he thought of just kneeling for a day and a night without any additional punishment, he felt a lot more at ease.

He also knew very well that Charlie couldn't send himself to Madagascar so quickly, and this kind of punishment was acceptable to him.

Zayne is the same.

Before he came, he was ready to kneel and confess before Bruce Wade and his wife. He already expected that Charlie will let himself kneel for a day and night.

Charlie looked at the Wesley and other Dragon Hall soldiers at this time, and said lightly, "You disturbed the Wade Family's Ancestor Worship Ceremony today."

"So everyone, like Lord Banks and Zayne, must bow down before the grave of my ancestors of the Wade Family until this time tomorrow!"

Wesley said respectfully, "Subordinates obey orders!"

One subordinate is equivalent to Wesley re-characterizing himself.

The other soldiers in the Dragon Hall also said immediately, "Subordinates obey!"

Charlie nodded, looked at Wesley, and said, "Remember, after kneeling is over, I will give you three days off. You can use these three days to choose a treasured place in Eastcliff and re-take your parents. After the funeral is over, take your people to Aurous Hill to see me!"

Wesley, who was kneeling in front of Charlie, was even more grateful to Charlie upon hearing this.

He never knew in his heart what Charlie would do next with his parents' coffin.

Although Charlie made it clear that he would not set his parents down, but Charlie had spared his life after all, so whether he would let his parents into the soil for peace has become the most worrying thing in his heart.

Hearing Charlie's words right now, the last stone in his heart fell to the ground, and he was naturally extremely grateful.

Before he knew it, all his pride, self-confidence and rebelliousness were thoroughly smoothed by Charlie.

He now regards Charlie as the god who saves himself and the blood of the entire Dragon Hall.

However, he said to Charlie with ashamed heart, "Mr. Wade, I will use the rest of my life to repay your great kindness ..."

Speaking of this, Wesley couldn't help sighing and reproaching himself, "Unfortunately, I am now a waste person with exhausted meridians. Even if I go all out, I may not be able to handle many things. Please forgive me!”

Charlie heard these words and said calmly, “The meridians of the mere trivial areas, even if they are completely broken, it is enough to be repaired.”

When Charlie said this, everyone was even more shocked.

What about all the meridians?

You must know that meridians are the most important foundation of martial arts practitioners, and martial arts practitioners have long had a basic consensus that damaged meridians can be repaired slowly, but once a meridian is broken, it is absolutely impossible to repair it again.

However, Charlie said all this so easily.

Hearing this, all the martial arts practitioners at the scene, was like in a fantasy.

Even Wesley himself didn’t believe it.

He looked at Charlie and asked incredulously, “Mr. Wade, my meridians...really can they be restored?”

Charlie said calmly, “Wesley, as my subordinate, you have to remember that from now on, you don’t have to doubt every word I say!”

“Even what I said completely subverted your experience. You don’t have to doubt your cognition, because as long as I say it, I will definitely be able to do it!”

Wesley hurriedly said with fear and sincerity, "I'm sorry Mr. Wade, I shouldn't doubt what you said. Please forgive me!"

At this time, Wesley had already admired Charlie in his heart.

Charlie just smiled, and then stretched out his hand, gently pressed his palm on the kneeling Wesley's head, and said domineeringly, "Since all your eight meridians are broken, then I will help you reshaped these eight meridians."

Having said that, he would infuse the powerful aura from the acupoint above Wesley's head into his body in an instant, and quickly wander along the location of Wesley's meridian!

The first to enter the aura is the Ren channel in the eight channels of Wesley's meridian.

The way that aura enters the Ren Vessel is like a fast-forward version where rivers nourish dry and cracked land, and rejuvenate dry riverbeds and dead plants!

At this moment, Wesley also clearly felt the whole process of Ren Vessel being reshaped!

At this moment, his whole person's worldview was subverted again and at the same time a huge change occurred again!

At this moment, he even regarded Charlie as a god, and even regarded himself as an ant!

Because in his opinion, this kind of strength is no different from the gods!

He felt that he was like a fool who moved the mountain, and Charlie was a god who could easily carry both mountains away.

A height that he could not reach in a few lifetimes, but with Charlie, it was a piece of cake!

All the martial artists present were stunned.

They couldn't see the cultivation base of people with higher strength than themselves, but they could see those with lower strength than themselves.

From the moment Wesley broke his meridian, they could all see that Wesley had become a useless person.

Now, they can also see that Wesley has changed from a useless person to a one-star warrior who has opened up the Ren Vessel!

The crowd was suddenly excited, and someone exclaimed, "The current cultivation base of Wesley is already a one-star warrior!"

"Yeah! I didn't expect... the broken meridians can really be repaired!"

"My God, Mr. Wade's strength is incredible!"

"Look at it, the lord, he is already a two-star warrior!"

"In just ten seconds, Wesley's superintendent has also been repaired!"

"Look! Master Wade has now started to repair his third meridian!"

“The third meridian has also been repaired! This...this is simply a miracle!”

Chapter 3405

When Charlie repaired Wesley’s fourth meridian, Wilfred Elms could no longer see Wesley’s cultivation.

At the scene, it was still possible to see the cultivation base of Wesley, but only a few five-star generals in Dragon Hall can only see it.

As for the two war king wastes, Apollo Wainwright and Calum had completely stopped looking at this time.

When the fifth meridian of Wesley was also repaired, no one besides Charlie was able to see his current true cultivation level.

Immediately afterwards, the remaining meridians of Wesley were also restored one by one.

He feels that the eight meridians that he has just broken have completely recovered.

What made Wesley even more unimaginable was that his eight meridians were a blessing in disguise.

The current Wesley is no longer an eight-star warrior, he has entered the realm of Ming Realm Great Perfection.

His mentor, from the Eight-Star Martial Artist to the Great Perfection of the Ming Realm, took more than ten years.

However, with Charlie's help, he only spent a few minutes!

Such a huge improvement in an instant made him extremely horrified, and even felt like a world away.

If this thing didn't really happen to him, he absolutely couldn't believe that there was such a powerful ability in this world.

He could feel that what Charlie used was a much more powerful and magical energy than his internal force.

This reminded him of what his mentor said back then.

He said that in this world, warriors are only the lowest level power above ordinary people.

Above the martial artist, there are many power systems far beyond martial arts, which for martial arts practitioners, it is very likely that there will be no chance to touch them for a lifetime.

Seeing that Charlie had such supernatural powers, he immediately determined that Charlie's power system was definitely not a martial artist, but a great supernatural power that was one level higher than martial arts.

As if he was reborn, he kowtowed to Charlie again, and said with great gratitude, "Mr. Wade, thank you for your kindness!"

"Now, I have reached the Ming Realm and will do my best for you for the rest of my life!"

The words of Wesley made all martial arts practitioners who were present were struck by lightning.

Who can believe that Charlie not only helped Wesley restore the meridians, but also allowed him to ascend to the sky in one step and become the Great Perfection of the Ming Realm!

Who would dare to believe that there is a chance in this life to see a top martial artist in the Ming Realm with their own eyes!

He thought that Charlie's restoration of Wesley's meridians was already a miracle, but he didn't expect the real miracle to be here!

After breaking and standing to perfection, this is simply a supernatural power that turns decay into a miracle!

Suddenly, countless people admired Charlie more, and at the same time they were very envious of Wesley, feeling that Wesley had simply encountered the most precious opportunity in the world.

In fact, Charlie didn't want to help Wesley improve his cultivation, but although his meridians had already passed eight channels, he basically couldn't enter the fully unblocked Ming realm.

This time it breaks and then stands, directly allowing all meridians to be completely unblocked after repairing.

All the eight meridians were unblocked, and it was natural that Wesley became the top martial artist of the Ming Realm.

However, Charlie was not in vain.

Because from today, Wesley no longer owns his own life.

Because all his time and energy for the rest of his life will be spent on loyalty to Charlie.

Chapter 3406

Therefore, Charlie looked at him, nodded slightly, and said indifferently, "You just need to remember what you said, otherwise, I can give you a chance, and I can beat you back to your original form!"

Wesley blurted out very piously, "Mr. Wade, don't worry! If I violate the oath in the future, I will die without a place to be buried!"

Charlie nodded, then looked at the deposed Apollo Wainwright and Calum, who was imprisoned in consciousness, and said lightly, "You two have also taken time to reflect on these days."

"When you arrive in Aurous Hill, I will give it to you."

"Once you have a chance to reform and rehabilitate, you are all restored to the same level as before, but you must also remember that if you dare to have any unfaithfulness, I will make you better than dead!"

As soon as Apollo Wainwright heard this, he burst into tears and then choked up, "Please rest assured, Mr. Wade! I will definitely go through the fire and water for you in the future..."

Calum's consciousness had already been closed again, and he stood indifferently in place for a while.

But his consciousness, trapped in his body, was already extremely excited at this time!

For him, as long as the days of not being able to survive and death can end, he will have no complaints about what he can do.

Wesley thought that Charlie even let go of his two deep-hearted comrades in arms, and said gratefully, "Mr. Wade, your great kindness, we will definitely not forget!"

Charlie nodded slightly and said, "Listen, what happened today, the Dragon Hall will let out the wind with the Wade family later, saying that the misunderstanding between the two companies has been completely resolved, and the Dragon Hall and Wade family will later release their suspicions."

"There will no longer be any new hatreds and old hatreds."

"As for what happened today, no one in the Dragon Hall shall disclose it to the outside world!"

Wesleysaid immediately, "I will announce it later!"

Charlie nodded, and said, "By then, the outside world will definitely guess how the Wade family escaped this disaster."

"Dragon Hall will let the wind go out at that time, saying that the Wade family has given up half of the equity of the Wade Family Group in exchange for Dragon Hall's understanding!"

The Wesleyand all the soldiers in the Dragon Hall were extremely puzzled.

But Wesleyunderstood that Charlie must have his reason for doing this, and all he had to do was to execute 100% of any instructions he gave, and don't ask too much.

So, he immediately said respectfully, "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I will announce what you said!"

Lord Wade was very puzzled, and hurriedly asked, "Charlie, this is the best chance for you to officially return to the Wade family."

"If you declare to the public that Dragon Hall has been loyal to you, and the Wade family's limelight is absolutely unmatched in China.”

“Why do you want others to think that we, the Wade family, have been softened?”

Charlie said indifferently, “The Dragon Hall will be an unexpected weapon in my hand in the future.”

“If the message of the Dragon Hall is accepted, it will be released directly.”

“On the contrary, it is very likely that other forces will pay attention to or watch it!”

“Instead of this, it’s better to keep a low profile and hide it deeply!”

“Let the outside think that the Wade Family has bowed to the Dragon Hall and has suffered a lot of weakness and vitality.”

“This will not only let the hidden enemies relax if there is a big battle in the future.”

“When the Dragon Hall is required to go out of the way, it can also attack its unpreparedness and surprise!”

Lord Wade understood Charlie’s intentions, and hurriedly asked, “Charlie, aren’t you ready to announce your official return to the Wade family this time?”

Charlie said, “For the time being, when I have to make an announcement, I will first find out the truth about the murders of my parents, and I will also find a chance to touch the roots of the Rothschild family before I can clear my eyebrows.”

“I cannot take the initiative to expose oneself, and cannot take the initiative to surrender the enemy’s strategic advantage of being self-confident.”

Lord Wade nodded lightly and asked him, “Charlie, how do I announce the change of the Wade Family Patriarch?”

Charlie said, “This matter does not need to be announced deliberately.”

“In the future, I will actually take the charge of the Wade family’s major and minor affairs, but on the face of it, you are still the Wade family’s head.”

Lord Wade agreed and said, “Okay! Then I won’t announce it for the time being.”

Charlie looked at the people behind him again, arched his hands, and said seriously, “Everyone! Thank you very much for being able to come to Wade Mountain for me today, but please do me a favor.”

“What happened in the Wade mountain today, please don’t leaked this out!”

Chapter 3407

When everyone heard it, they naturally agreed.

They all knew Charlie and knew his low-key, since Charlie wouldn't let it out, everyone would naturally not reveal.

Charlie looked at Lord Banks, and said:

"The matter of giving way to Zara is still to be announced to the public, otherwise I am worried that she will not be able to establish her prestige in the Banks Family."

Lord Banks nodded quickly and said: "That's that! Today, I am now in front of Mr.Wade's parents confessing before their spirits, and I will officially announce this to the public tomorrow and let Zara take over!"

"Okay." Charlie nodded in satisfaction, and said: "After the agreement is signed, the news is announced, and the transfer of rights is completed, I will arrange for someone to take you to Madagascar. As long as you cooperate, I won't interfere with what you bring or who you take with you as long as it is not exaggerated. You can hurry up and get people prepared."

Lord Banks said with excitement: "Thank you Mr. Wade! Thank you Mr. Wade! I want to bring my housekeeper Adrian Peters, so that he can prepare the supplies and team for Madagascar..."

At this time, Adrian Peters, who was waiting for Lord Banks's triumph at the Banks Family, could not have imagined that his master had made up his mind to take him to Madagascar.

Charlie said to Lord Wade at this time: "The Ten Thousand Dragon Temple and Banks Family people will kneel at first and our ancestor worship ceremony will continue as usual later."

Lord Wade hurriedly said, "Then I will let everyone prepare!"

Charlie nodded as he looked at Helena who was difficult to integrate into the crowd and the surroundings and said to Lord Wade: "By the way, don't forget to arrange the Concorde in the afternoon to send Helena back to Northern Europe."

Lord Wade said immediately: "Don't worry Charlie, I have arranged the plane and can take off at any time."

At this time, Helena plucked up the courage to walk to Charlie, and said respectfully: "Thank you so much about my business, Mr.Wade!"

Seeing that she seemed to have something to say, Charlie said: "Helena, don't worry, since I said to help you regain the throne, I will definitely honor my promise."

Helena breathed a sigh of relief immediately, nodded gratefully and said, "Thank you, Mr.Wade!"

After speaking, Helena hesitated again and again, still speaking: "Mr.Wade...I just received a message from Northern Europe, things may have changed over there..."

Charlie frowned and asked, "What news?"

Helena said: "It is said that yesterday, representatives of Olivia and the Rothschild family talked about it late at night. They have reached a preliminary marriage agreement and are preparing to formally announce the news at 10 am local time today that Olivia will be marrying a member of the Rothschild family, and the wedding time is scheduled for tomorrow night!"

Charlie asked in surprise: "The Rothschild family? Is that Olivia dating someone from the Rothschild family?"

Helena opened her mouth and said: "As far as I know, Olivia has no boyfriend... and the Nordic royal family and the Rothschilds did not have any intersection before... so this thing is a bit sudden."

Charlie couldn't help frowning when he heard the Rothschild family.

Although he always knew that the Rothschild family was a mortal enemy with his father, and believed that the Rothschild family was probably behind the murder of their parents, he never had the opportunity to have any direct contact with Rothschild.

The only people who have a little connection with the Rothschild family are Walter Hogwitz and his father Steve Hogwitz, who were locked up in the kennel.

The Hogwitz family is said to be a distant relative of the Rothschild family.

The distant relatives are so far away that the two of them have been missing in Aurous Hill for so long, and no one from the Rothschild family ever came to look for them.

It can be seen that families like Hogwitz are simply poor relatives who stay away from the Rothschilds.

However, this time Princess Olivia was going to marry a member of the Rothschild family, which interested Charlie a little bit.

Chapter 3408

So he asked: "Why did Olivia suddenly decide to get married at this time? Isn't the queen going to hold on for a few days? Isn't it a bit inappropriate for her to get married at this time?"

Helena hurriedly said: "If Olivia wants to get married in the near future, now is the most suitable time. Once her grandma passes away, she will not be able to get married for a long time."

Charlie asked in surprise: "What? Is it custom in northern European royal families that the members cannot get married within a period of time after their elders have passed away?"

Helena shook her head and said: "Although we don't have such a statement, Olivia has a special status. She is the first heir to the throne. So once grandma dies, she must put aside all private affairs and put the ceremony to the throne. In the first place."

After speaking, Helena said again: "According to the royal tradition, the new emperor shall not be married or divorced within three years after his accession to the throne, because the three years before his accession to the throne is a key stage in the establishment of a personal and royal image. At this time, private individuals are not allowed as it will interfere with the affairs, so Olivia must either hold the wedding as a queen three years after she attains the throne, or she must hold the wedding before our grandma's death."

Charlie asked suspiciously: "According to what you said, she didn't even have a boyfriend before. Now she suddenly announced that she would marry a member of the Rothschild family. It should be an exchange of interests?"

Helena nodded and said, "I guess so! Olivia will always put her interests first. Without strong support from her interests, it is impossible for her to suddenly announce that she is going to get married at this time."

Charlie nodded and said with a smile: "The Rothschild family must have taken a fancy to her as a queen who can get it right away."

Speaking of this, Charlie couldn't help but sneered: "I just didn't expect that the Rothschild family, who covered the sky in Europe and the United States, is also after the generation of reputation. This is a bit different from their usual low-key style."

Wesley spoke respectfully at this time: "Mr.Wade! I still have some understanding of the Rothschild family. Their family structure is extremely large. Regardless of foreign relatives, it is only the branch of the Rothschild family. There are dozens of them all over Europe and America."

After talking, Wesley said again: "Within the huge Rothschild family, they have divided a total of three steps. Among them, the real core of the first step Rothschild family, these core layers are basically in the United States. A small amount is in the United Kingdom. The second tier of the next level is generally in Canada, France and Germany, and the third tier of the next level is in other European countries."

"I guess the one who will marry Princess Olivia is the branch of the third ladder of the Rothschild family."

Charlie nodded lightly, and said with interest: "In this way, this time is a good opportunity to have direct contact with the Rothschild family."

When Lord Wade heard this, he exclaimed: "Charlie...you...you don't want to go to Northern Europe?"

Charlie smiled and said: "I didn't intend to go there in person, but since the Rothschild family is also there, I really want to go and see."

After that, he turned his head and said to Helena, "Helena, after the ancestor worship ceremony is over, I will go to Northern Europe with you!"

Chapter 3409

Charlie's original plan was to bring out a rejuvenating pill to Helena.

Half of it will be treated for Helena, and the other half will be taken back by her to the dying Nordic queen.

As long as she can return to Northern Europe to see the queen, divide the remaining half of the rejuvenating pill into two parts, and give the queen one part first, it will definitely make the queen wake up from a deep coma.

At that time, it is completely possible to use the other half as a condition to let the queen give her the throne.

Seeing the effects of Rejuvenating Pill, the queen will definitely do her best to help her rise to the top.

Charlie believed that for an old woman who was deeply unconscious and dyingly ill, to wake up again would be tantamount to living again.

Therefore, she will definitely cherish this opportunity extremely.

If she can get a second rejuvenation pill, her life can at least last for several years or even longer.

I believe she will not be able to resist this temptation.

But now Charlie suddenly heard that Helena's cousin named Olivia was actually going to marry the Rothschild family.

This is a good opportunity to get in touch with the Rothschild family in advance.

Therefore, he even wanted to visit Northern Europe in person to see what the purpose of the intermarriage between the Rothschild family and the Nordic royal family was, and to touch the line of the Rothschild family by the way.

When Helena heard Charlie say that he wanted to go to Northern Europe with herself, she was naturally ecstatic.

She witnessed Charlie's strength with her own eyes, and knew that if Charlie went out, she would surely be able to successfully ascend to the throne!

At that time, not only will she be able to regain her throne, she will also be able to rescue her mother!

So, she said to Charlie gratefully, "Mr. Wade, thank you!"

Charlie waved his hand, looked at the people around him, and said, "Thank you all for coming to Wade Mountain in spite of the danger."

"Most of you have come from afar."

"It's better to go to the Shangri-La Hotel to rest later today."

"Before we set off to Northern Europe, I would like to host a banquet at Shangri-La Hotel to thank you all, and please show your face to participate!"

Nanako Ito hurriedly said, "Charlie-kun, you don't have to worry about us if you have business matters, and we are not helpful when we come here this time, why can't you afford to host a banquet for us?"

Charlie said very seriously, "Ms. Ito, we Chinese people pay attention to love and justice."

"Although today I am fighting with the Dragon Hall, you are still willing to come at this time."

"The love that helped me is more than a family in my eyes."

Orrin stood up at this time and said with a smile, "Everyone, when you gather here today, you all regard Charlie as a friend, confidant or even family member."

"Since Charlie said that, you might as well stay in Eastcliff."

"After the Wade Family's ancestor worship ceremony, we will have a few drinks with Charlie!"

When Lord Moore heard this, he said, "Since Master Wade has said so, I will wait for Master Wade to finish the ancestor worship ceremony, and drink together!"

Ito Yuhiko also said, "Mr. Wade! Please prepare more Chinese wine tonight and we'll get drunk!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Mr. Ito, don't worry, you will have enough good wine!"

Chapter 3410

Afterwards, Charlie looked at Jasmine Moore again and said, "Jasmine, you have worked hard to arrange the bus full of people to come here to help, please send everyone to Shangri-La Hotel to take a rest."

Jasmine Moore immediately agreed and said softly, "Master Wade can rest assured, I will arrange everyone."

"Okay." Charlie once again arched his hands to everyone, clasped his fists and said, "Everyone, there will be the Wade Family Ancestor Ceremony later, and you will go to the hotel to rest first."

"After the ancestor worship ceremony is over, I will pass as soon as possible!"

Everyone also knows that the Wade Family's Ancestor Worship Ceremony is held only once in twelve years.

It is solemn and not a public ceremony.

It is indeed inappropriate for everyone to stay here and watch.

As a result, everyone bid farewell to Charlie and Lord Wade, and took the bus arranged by Jasmine Moore and Ito Nanako to leave Wade Mountain and went to the Shangri-La Hotel in Eastcliff.

After the buses left, apart from the soldiers of the Dragon Hall who were kneeling on the ground, and Lord Banks and Zayne, all the rest were the Wade family and Stephen Thompson.

The Dragon Hall was headed by Wesley.

Nearly a hundred people bowed in a pyramid shape and bowed their foreheads to the ground.

After all, they are all wearing filial piety clothe, so when everyone bows down, they maintain the same angle and posture, and they look neat and uniform.

Moreover, they knelt on the ground one by one, in an extremely religious state.

Especially Wesley, who was kneeling at the front, was full of shame even with the expression hidden in his arms.

And Lord Banks and Zayne, although they did not dare to neglect, after all, their physical strength could not support them.

After they knelt for a long time, their bodies could not support them, so they could only let their upper bodies lie on the ground.

As a result, the kneeling posture of the two of them is almost the same as that in the old TV series “Water Margin”.

On the Wade Family’s side, Thomas Wade, Franklin Wade and others looked at Charlie anxiously, for fear that he would settle accounts with them at this time.

Charlie watched the bus convoy go down the mountain, slowly turned around, staring at the Wade family with a torch, and said coldly, “Today, in the presence of the ancestors of the Wade family, I officially took over the affairs of the Wade family.”

“The first thing is to supplement the calcium for the cartilage of Wade family!”

After hearing Charlie’s words, the people with guilty conscience couldn’t help but shudder.

They saw Charlie’s posture, and they knew that he was about to start liquidation.

At this time, Lord Wade, who had just taken the power of the Wade family by Charlie, said righteously, “Charlie! The current situation of the Wade family really needs to be rectified!”

“You can do so! Don’t be merciful just because you care about family affection!”

Charlie nodded and said coldly, “Of course! Some of the Wade family’s descendants, in order to steal their lives, do not hesitate to leave the dignity and interests of the Wade family behind, and even willing to give up their ancestral graves and family business.”

“They even prepared to put on hemp and filial piety to pray for forgiveness for those who are not relatives and filial piety.”

“What is the difference between these people and the traitors who surrendered when the nation was in distress?!”

All the Wade family members who carrying filial piety clothes were so nervous that their legs trembled.

Cynthia Wade, who was most worried about Charlie, knelt on the ground with a puff, and choked with tears in her nose, “Charlie...Aunt was wrong...I apologize to the ancestors of the Wade family.”

“You are now the Patriarch of the Wade Family.”

“No matter how you punish me, Auntie will never complain...”

While crying, she took out the filial piety clothes she had hidden in her arms and threw it on the ground.

She regretted crying at the beginning, “Charlie, please see that auntie was the first person who knew the wrong confession. I will never do it again...”

Thomas Wade, Marco Wade and others looked silly instantly.

They also wondered how Cynthia Wade, the strongest character, was the first to admit her mistake today, because she wanted to grab a jackpot so that she could get lighter punishment!

Thomas Wade’s teeth tickled with hatred, and he whispered inwardly, “How did Cynthia’s brain think this way? With her character, she was the first to confess!”

Chapter 3411

Cynthia Wade is indeed very smart.

She knew that when so many people had the same crime, whoever confessed their mistake first would have the upper hand.

Moreover, she knew much more about Charlie's ability than others, and she had experienced more personally.

She had heard of Charlie's way of dealing several masters from the Webb family in Southaven before.

At that time, he asked Don Albert to engrave on the foreheads of those people.

Whoever confessed the punishment first engraved the fewest words.

Every time one person is postponed, the number of words will be increased by one.

In the end, it is said that the engraving on his forehead was not enough.

With these lessons learned, how could Cynthia Wade allow others to kneel in front first?

Charlie didn't expect Cynthia Wade to kneel so fast, so he said, "You are my aunt, and you are still my elder."

"Kneeling to me, also means to kneel to the ancestors of the Wade family!"

Cynthia's brain reacted extremely fast, and she immediately adjusted the direction with his knees while kneeling, looking at Wade family's grave not far away.

Immediately afterwards, she slammed her head to the ground, crying and said, "I, Cynthia Wade, the unscrupulous descendant, failed to put the face of the ancestors and the interests of the Wade family first."

"I almost sold my ancestors for glory and recognized as thief by my father."

"I really feel ashamed to my ancestors, I only asked for my ancestors to forgive my sin!"

Cynthia Wade was completely convinced now.

The dignity, the face, the old princess, the old baby's bad temper, all disappeared at this moment.

She knew that the most important thing at the moment was to obtain Charlie's forgiveness, otherwise, Charlie could make herself kicked out of Wade Family immediately.

In that case, she will be exhausted.

Seeing Cynthia Wade doing this way, Charlie felt a little funny.

However, he nodded approvingly on his face, and said, "You can be the first to admit your mistakes and take the initiative to confess to the ancestors of the Wade family."

"This proves that you really understand and know better than others. You should be dealt with lightly!"

As soon as Charlie said these words, Thomas Wade, Franklin Wade, Marco Wade, Herbert Wade and others rushed to the front of Wade family's grave one by one, rushing to the middle position and knelt on their knees.

On the ground, without saying anything, they began to kowtow desperately to admit their mistakes.

For a while, the rhythm of these people's desperate kowtow was the same as the pumping unit commonly known as the kowtow used for oil extraction, and it seemed quite funny.

Charlie didn't speak, but looked at them expressionless while they kowtow and confess.

Charlie knew very well in his heart that Cynthia Wade really took it.

Since she really took it, she will naturally stay in the Wade family and work for the Wade family in the future.

But the group of people in front of him are full of disgrace, and he must be merciless!

This group of people kowtow for a long time, and the more they kowtow, the more painful they were.

They originally thought that as long as they showed a positive and religious attitude, Charlie would definitely let them off with light punishment like Cynthia Wade.

Unexpectedly, everyone had been knocking for a long time, and Charlie hadn't even said a word until now.

Chapter 3412

None of them dared to stop, they could only knock their heads one after another, one by one, their foreheads turned blue and purple.

But Charlie's Aunt, Claudette Wade, couldn't stand it, and said, "Charlie...If they knock down like this, they will die..."

Charlie shook his head and said faintly, "Don't worry, Aunt, all of these people counts as one, all of them are timid and incompetent rats, otherwise why would they sneak out to buy filial clothes last night?"

"Since all of them are so scared of death, why would you knock yourself to death here? This is not logical."

As he said, he clearly saw that Franklin Wade's kowtow was obviously a lot less powerful.

At first glance, he was refilling the count, so he said coldly, "Aunt, have you seen Franklin Wade?"

"His forehead is just kissing the ground, I can't even see the effort!"

As soon as Franklin Wade heard this, his back was frightened with a cold sweat, and he quickly knocked his head down, grinning with pain!

Charlie turned to look at Lord Wade, and asked, "Grandpa, who is responsible for the various businesses of the Wade Family nowadays?"

Lord Wade said, "The core business of the Wade family is basically the responsibility of the manager team."

"At the beginning, your dad was worried that the members of the family would not be knowledgeable, so he insisted on setting up an elite professional manager team."

"The most common grassroots employees are basically recruited from the business schools of top schools."

“Almost all middle and high-level employees are from 500 companies or top venture capital institutions.”

“In addition, we also have a very professional elite team of lawyers who are responsible for all the legal affairs of the Wade family.”

“Oh yes, in addition to these two sectors, there is also a trust team responsible for putting the cash that the family doesn’t use into the family trust for investment and management.”

Charlie pointed to the row of kneeling kowtows on the ground in surprise, and asked, “Aren’t these people doing anything?”

Lord Wade shook his head and said, “If the Wade family really be handed over to them, I am afraid they will fall long ago!”

“They are all suspended, with a vice chairman, general manager, and director, but in fact they do not need to be responsible for business and decision-making.”

“Small decisions are made internally by the manager team, and big decisions are basically made by me, but you will make the final decisions in the future.”

Charlie nodded and said faintly, “Since these people have no practical use, then just get rid of the Wade Family Group.”

“You don’t bother to see or worry.”

Knocking his head and fainting, Thomas Wade immediately got up and blurted out when he heard this, “Charlie...you...where are you going to get us?!”

Charlie said, "Don't worry, I won't let you go far."

After speaking, Charlie said again, "Don't you like wearing linen and filial piety?"

"Since you are so filial, then I will ask someone to install a few simple board houses for you at the foot of Wade Mountain."

"Among you, all of you are 18 years old and above, or those who are no longer going to school, count as one, and stay here for three years!"

"In the past three years, I will ask people to put electronic shackles on you and monitor your location 24 hours a day."

"No one can leave Wade Mountain for half a step!"

When Franklin Wade heard this, he almost passed out, and wailed feebly, "Charlie...you can't be so vicious! Charlie, I'm your cousin!"

"We are your Wade family! You can't imprison us on Wade Mountain!"

Charlie nodded, and said, "People say that the gun is shot, and your IQ is really a bit worrying."

After speaking, he immediately said to Lord Banks, "It just so happens that you are going to be the local host in Madagascar soon, then bring this guy with you and let him work as a long-term job for you for three years!"

Franklin Wade collapsed on the spot when he heard this, and cried, "Charlie, I am willing to keep filial piety to the ancestors in Wade Mountain!"

"I am the eldest son and grandson, how can you do this to me?"

Charlie waved his hand, "Don't take yourself too seriously. Without you, you will be ashamed and your ancestor's face will look better."

After that, he said coldly, "Franklin Wade, from now on, if you bargain with me again, I will change three years into six years!"

Franklin Wade wailed and collapsed to the ground on the spot.

Thomas Wade loves his son, but he also loves himself, so he quickly asked, "You let us be here to keep our filial piety to our ancestors for three years."

"What about our eating and drinking expenses?"

Charlie said indifferently, "Your food and drink costs, I will ask people to send it to you regularly."

Thomas Wade asked again, "Then...what if we get sick?"

Charlie said blankly, "If you are sick, I will arrange for a doctor from Wade family Hospital to come and treat you!"

"If any of you is seriously ill and needs surgery or hospitalization, I will build a field hospital for you at the foot of Wade Mountain!"

"In short, in the next three years, even if the sky falls, you cannot leave Wade Mountain without my permission!"

Chapter 3413

These Wade family members who were kneeling didn't expect Charlie to be so cruel.

They are all a family member, and they are all grandchildren of the Wade family.

But Charlie actually wants to imprison everyone in Wade Mountain and force them to serve their ancestors for three years!

For these rich people who are accustomed to pampering and enjoyment, even three days are unacceptable, let alone three years!

As a result, everyone hurriedly looked at Lord Wade, looked at him eagerly, and waited for him to say something kind for everyone.

Lord Wade looked at the pitiful eyes of this group of people, and he felt a little compassionate in his heart.

He did support Charlie to punish these spineless children and grandchildren, but he didn't expect Charlie to play so hard as soon as he got started.

So, he couldn't help but said to Charlie, "Charlie, letting them be filial piety for their ancestors is indeed a good punishment, but three years, will it be too long?"

"Long?" Charlie said earnestly, "Don't forget, what ideas they are playing one by one!"

"They secretly buy filial clothes without telling with you, indicating that they want to wait until today you and Wesley to face each other.”

“What is their intention?”

“It is to put you to death.”

“After watching you die, they will step on your body to kneel at the enemy!”

“You think that for such a person, the punishment of three years of filial piety is too long?”

Lord Wade’s expression suddenly stunned.

He also understands this truth.

However, he deliberately didn’t think about this level.

But if you really get to the bottom, the truth is actually what Charlie said.

Thomas Wade cried at this time and said, “Dad, we really don’t mean this, don’t get me wrong!”

Others also pleaded, hoping that the old man would not be affected by Charlie’s words.

Lord Wade sighed, waved his hand, and said to himself, “I am old and my heart has softened, but forget it, I don’t care!”

Having said that, he said to Charlie, “Charlie, whether three years or five years, it’s all up to you!”

Charlie nodded and said faintly to everyone, "If you accept it, don't say a word anymore."

"If you have other opinions, then it will be regarded as not accepting, and I will force to let you go to Madagascar like Franklin Wade!"

As soon as this word came out, everyone immediately closed their mouths.

At this time, no one dared to touch Charlie's mildew.

Because Charlie is not only the Patriarch of the Wade Family, but also the new owner of Dragon Hall.

With his comprehensive strength set here, no one dares to disobey him.

Seeing this group of people are as honest as quail, Charlie nodded in satisfaction and said, "Since you all have no opinions, the three years will start today!"

Chapter 3414

For Charlie, the kneeling group of Wade family members had no value to Wade family.

This group of people has no ability and no contribution, just like the second generation of the prodigal son of the top rich.

The old man used to have a deep affection, even if he knew that this group of people was not capable, he still felt that they were his own blood.

Of course, he had to be spoiled and well-natured.

But in Charlie's view, this group of people are all the worms of the Wade family.

Moreover, it is still a bunch of spineless worms.

After Charlie took over the Wade family, the first thing to do was to think of a way to remove these people from their posts, so as not to make them gluttonous and corpse a vegetarian meal.

However, after all, these people are all of the Wade family's blood, and they are all children and grandchildren.

If they don't make any serious mistakes, it's really not easy to get them down.

If it is very serious, it will cause the rejection of everyone in the Wade family, so that the outside senses will be very poor.

But the wonderful thing is that this group of people took the initiative to give Charlie an excellent opportunity for rectification.

If this group of people didn't secretly buy filial piety clothes last night, Charlie wouldn't be able to abolish them all in such a fair way.

Just when Charlie couldn't find a good way to separate them from the Wade family, they all took the initiative to confess.

This is similar to Wesley's initiative to surrender.

At this moment, Cynthia Wade looked at Charlie with a horror, and nervously asked,

“Charlie..then...what about me...Aunt is the first one to confess anyway.”

“You just said that you have to give auntie a chance with a lighter punishment...”

“Of course.” Charlie nodded lightly and said, “You are the one with the best attitude of admitting mistakes, and the fastest to admit mistakes, so this time I naturally want to open up to you.”

After speaking, Charlie was silent for a moment, and then said, “Well, you stay here to observe filial piety with them for three days.”

“After three days, you will return to Wade’s house to take care of grandfather.”

When Cynthia Wade heard these words, she was really excited and shed two lines of tears.

She really didn’t think that Charlie actually gave herself such a big favor.

Everyone else is three years, but oneself is only three days!

At this time, Cynthia Wade had completely regarded Charlie as the savior, and was a little bit incoherent with excitement, and even said in a trembling voice, “Charlie...thank you... Thank you for opening up to Auntie...”

“Don’t worry... in the future, Auntie will... definitely change her mind and behave!”

Charlie nodded calmly.

It wasn’t that he really wanted to take care of Cynthia Wade, but that at this time, he wanted to create a huge gap for others.

As the saying goes, those who follow me prosper, and those who oppose me perish.

This is also a clear signal to the Wade family.

From now on, in Wade family, they must follow Charlie's own words.

Charlie also knows very well that if he want to ensure that the Wade Family will never have any similar situations in the future, he must use power to firmly control the entire Wade Family!

Therefore, he must thoroughly root this concept in their hearts today!

After everything was done, Charlie said to Lord Wade, "Grandpa, the matter is almost resolved, it's time to start the ancestor worship ceremony!"

Lord Wade nodded his head, "Okay!"

The Wade Family's ancestor worship ceremony was originally very grand.

Before worshipping the ancestors, the four priestly forms of music, singing, dancing, and rituals did not lose the Confucian Temple's ceremony for worshipping Confucius.

And those sacrifices that are ready to be used as sacrifices are also extremely rich in variety.

In order to hold the ceremony of ancestor worship, the Wade family must hire a professional director and a full set of stage art team.

Costumes, props, actors, and speakers are all top-notch.

But today, none of the cast and crew members who have negotiated for a long time have come.

Everyone knew that the Wade family was going to suffer disaster today, and everyone shunned it.

Not to mention the cast and crew who was paid to hire, even the more than 700 members of the Wade family branch all run away, leaving only Lucas Wade alone.

Therefore, this time the ancestor worship ceremony can only helplessly castrate many processes.

Music, songs, dances, and rituals are all omitted, and the only thing left is the memorial ceremony performed by the Wade family.

Lord Wade took the memorial text he had written all night, crying, and sighed, "This memorial text is all about the prosperity of the Wade family, uniting as one, and creating new brilliance."

"It is what I prepared for the ancestors of the Wade family. Debriefing report....."

Speaking of this, Lord Wade sighed in full length, and said with a grimace, "But who would have thought that today, more than 700 collateral members of the Wade family would be absent!"

"And my grandchildren of Lord Wade are filthy and filial for others!"

"I am really ashamed of the ancestors while I read this sacrificial text with a face..."

“Furthermore, the ancestor worship process that was originally prepared has almost ceased now, and I don’t know how to explain it to the ancestors...”

Lord Wade said, suddenly feeling a little agitated, choked up a few times, and couldn’t continue.

He is a person with deep family feelings, at least much stronger than those of the Wade family descendants who kneel on the spot.

The thought of the ancestor worship ceremony held once every twelve years was so shabby and depressed, he felt particularly uncomfortable.

Thinking of the more than a hundred ancestors and ancestors of the Wade family lying here, his mood was even more painful.

He has long passed the age of knowing the destiny.

Old people at this age cherish life more, and are more in awe of the ancestors who have passed away.

No matter how fearless and faithful people are when they are young, when they are about to die, they will also involuntarily think of their parents, of their ancestors, and of whether they will see them in another world after their death.

If they see them, how should they face them.

Seeing the old man’s choking, the Wade family almost bowed their heads in shame.

And Charlie took the sacrificial text he had written, tore it to pieces, and said with a firm face, “Grandpa, since the sacrificial text is not appropriate, then tear it up.”

“Don’t blame yourself too much.”

After speaking, Charlie said again, “As the saying goes, it is difficult to rejuvenate a country, and it is the same for a family!”

“Although this ancestor worship ceremony is a bit shabby and simple, it also allows us to recognize the truth of many so-called relatives real face!”

“In the future, the Wade Family will no longer believe in blood ties, but will only believe in practical actions!”

“All direct members and collateral branches, if they want to benefit from the Wade Family in the future, they must take practical actions!”

“If anyone still thinks about sharing wealth but not sharing hardships, I’m sorry, I will definitely make him pay the price!”

Speaking of this, Charlie looked at Stephen Thompson and asked him, “Stephen, are you still can’t get in touch to those collateral members who ran away overnight?”

Stephen Thompson said embarrassingly, “They are still shutting down their phone or not in the service area.”

“It is estimated that they will not be able to turn on their phone until they a definite message.”

Charlie frowned and said, “So, when the Dragon Hall will release a message later to tell the outside world about the Wade Family’s surrender today, they must have a clear line with the Wade Family, right?”

“It should be.” Stephen Thompson said respectfully, “Young Master, in fact, you don’t need to pay too much attention to most of the collateral branches.”

“They have no actual contribution to the Wade Family.”

“On the contrary, you have to divide a part of the benefits from the Wade Family.”

“In other words, these people are like those small countries when the nations came to the kingdom.”

“Every time they come to worship, they seem to be very religious, but they all want to eat and drink in my heaven, and get some benefits.”

“It’s good for the Wade Family to draw a line with them to be satisfied after leaving.”

Lord Wade also opened his mouth at this time, “Many collaterals have been supported by the resources of our Wade family.”

“The same business can be handed over to others, and it may only cost 100 million to the Wade family’s collateral family.”

“It may cost one hundred and twenty million to do it.”

“It’s better to draw a clear line in the future.”

Charlie said coldly, “It is definitely necessary to draw a clear line, but they must not be allowed to leave without loss.”

As he said, he looked at Wesley and said, "Wesley, let your people speak out later!"

"It will be said that Dragon Hall has already obtained the full list of the Wade Family's ancestor worship ceremony, and all of who were not present today must assemble at the foot of Wade Mountain before 8 o'clock tomorrow morning."

"Who dares not to come is at his own risk!"

Chapter 3415

Hearing Charlie's order, Wesley immediately said loudly, "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I will make arrangements immediately!"

Charlie nodded and sneered, "They thought that the Wade family was over and wanted to separate from the Wade family. If the Wade family asked them to come, they would definitely not come, but if the Dragon Hall asked them to come, I believe they would not dare to make a mistake."

Stephen Thompson asked hurriedly, "Master, what happened after they came? Do you also want them kneel up to Wade Mountain to confess?"

"It's impossible to spare them so easily." Charlie waved his hand and said, "Later today, they will receive a message outside, thinking that the Wade family has lost and accepted the harsh conditions of the Dragon Hall."

"At that time, Dragon Hall will directly asked them to take out half of their property. I believe they dare not disagree!"

Lord Wade raised his eyebrows and exclaimed, "Charlie, you...you are going to drink their blood and eat their meat..."

Charlie said blankly, "I want to drink their blood and eat their meat, but it's not me but for the Dragon Hall!"

After speaking, Charlie said again, "After Dragon Hall gets their assets, they will use the offshore company's channel to pour the money into Wade's house. They can get some money and buy dozens of more freighters. If there are too many people, it should still be a problem to get two or three hundred billion."

Charlie brought Dragon Hall into his command in order to let Dragon Hall do the dirty work for himself.

I have to admit that the deterrence of the Dragon Hall is still very strong.

Among other things, Wesley asked Apollo Wainwright to put forward so many harsh conditions yesterday, including half of the family property and had to give up the entire Wade Mountain, and they had to put on hemp and filial piety and kneel to greet him.

However, Thomas Wade, Marco Wade and a group of timid and incompetent rats, are still rushing to agree?

Now, Charlie wants to let the Dragon Hall make the same request to the other Wade family collaterals, and he knows that they will not dare to disagree.

Lord Wade hesitated for a moment with a complicated expression, but quickly figured it out, and said, "Okay! Just let it go!"

"These ungrateful things are mostly supported by the Wade family to have their scale today, but the Wade family is in trouble. They ran so fast one by one, it should be a price for them!"

Lucas Wade's expression on the side was very nervous, and he said, "Charlie...I forced my son and grandson to leave. I really can't bear them staying to take risks, so please spare them because I stayed by your side."

Charlie nodded and said earnestly, "It is really touching that Second Grandpa stayed. As you wish, I will spare your son and grandson."

After speaking, Charlie said with a cold expression: "But except for them, no one else can be exempted!"

Lucas Wade was completely relieved, and while wiping his sweat, he said, "Charlie, thank you so much..."

Charlie waved his hand and said to Wesley, "Wesley, I am going to Northern Europe tonight. I will definitely not be back at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning..."

"...you will perform a one-man show for them at the foot of Wade Mountain. One by one, they willingly gave half of their assets to the Dragon Hall, and you shouldn't let them go after the money was given, they will also have to kneel until I came back!"

Wesley said, "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I will do it!"

Chapter 3416

After speaking, he hurriedly asked, "Mr. Wade, I know more about the situation in Europe and America. If you are going to Northern Europe this time, do you want me to accompany you?"

Charlie waved his hand, "No, you still have your parents to be buried. Tomorrow let the Wade family's foreign relatives kneel down, and you can take care of the funeral of your parents."

Wesley respectfully said, "I will obey your orders!"

Charlie nodded slightly, "Okay, I'll leave everything to you about the Wade family's relatives."

After speaking, he looked at Lord Wade again and said lightly, "Grandpa, this time the ancestor worship ceremony will save those tedious and exaggerated processes!"

"The ancestor worship is mainly sincere. If the heart is not sincere, what's the point of the ceremony no matter how grand and grandiose it is?"

Lord Wade nodded and said in agreement, "Charlie, you are right. The ancestor worship is not in the scene, but in piousness."

"Before, everyone was eager to engage in ancestor worship, but when they encountered a little danger, most people turned their heads and put them down. The old ancestors are all sold, and the old ancestors now know how to get angry, and what is the point of engaging in those ostentation."

The kneeling Wade family members were ashamed and afraid to raise their heads.

Charlie ignored them, stepped to the front of Wade family's ancestral graves, knelt down on both knees, looked at the tombs of the hundreds of Wade family's ancestors and Charlie's parents, and said loudly, "The Wade family's ancestors are here. I have been wandering outside for the past 20 years and failed to come to worship our ancestors. I hope our ancestors will forgive me!"

After a pause, Charlie said again, "Today, it is a new beginning for the Wade family to be broken in the midst of a crisis!"

"I, Charlie Wade, also officially returns to the Wade family today and takes over the position of the Wade family Patriarch!"

“Here, I promised to the ancestors of the Wade family!”

“From today, no one will be allowed to infringe upon the interests of my Wade family!”

“No one is allowed to blaspheme my ancestors of the Wade family!”

“The Wade family will use the interests of the family for the best interest!”

“I swear an oath in front of the ancestors today! I will do my best to make the Wade family the world’s number one family and stand on top of the world!”

Having said that, Charlie leaned down, facing the ancestors of the Wade family, and bowed respectfully three times.

Lord Wade also came to Charlie, knelt on the ground, facing the tomb of the ancestors, and said, “The ancestors of the Wade family are here. Today, Charlie finally came back!”

“From today on, my Wade family no longer has any direct bloodline flows out, and all direct bloodlines are finally gathered!”

“I can be regarded as fulfilling the promise made to the ancestors in the last ancestor worship ceremony!”

After speaking, Lord Wade said again, “Bruce! Lily! Charlie returns to the Wade family today, and at the same time succeeds to the Wade family Patriarch, I can finally give you and your wife a satisfactory explanation!”

“And you are alive in the sky, you can definitely see that Charlie has achieved extraordinary results!”

“Today, he made the entire Wade family turn into peace!”

“In the future, he will also be able to lead the Wade family to create greater glories! I believe you and your wife are on the other side at this time, and you must be very pleased!”

Charlie stood up at this time, came directly to his parents’ spirits, knelt on the ground, looked at the characters “Bruce Wade” and “Lily Evans” on the tombstone, tears filled his eyes.

He whispered softly, “Dad, Mom, I finally come back to see you in an honest and dignified manner...”

When the Wade family heard these words, they couldn’t help but feel a little surprised. They were not sure what Charlie meant. Could it be that Charlie had been here before?

At this time, Charlie was not concerned about the surprise of the Wade family. He looked at the photo of the young parents on the tombstone and said firmly with an expression, “Dad and Mom, from now on, I will inherit the will of father and lead the Wade family on the top of the world!”

“At the same time, I will find the murderers who killed you, no matter who they are, no matter what their ability and background, I will kill them personally and avenge you!”

Chapter 3417

After Charlie and the Wade family simply paid homage to their ancestors, they came to Shangri-La Hotel together with their grandfather Lord Wade and Aunt Claudette Wade, preparing to entertain the relatives and friends who went to Wade Mountain today.

The outside world who has been paying attention to the movement of Wade Mountain has received news.

Knowing that the Wade family finally compromised with the Dragon Hall, and didn't know the inside story, no one doubted the authenticity of this news.

After all, no matter how powerful these wealthy families are, they cannot rival the Dragon Hall.

This is the basic consensus of everyone.

What's more, the lord of the Dragon Hall has a deep hatred with the Wade Family, and it is bound to be impossible to spare the Wade Family lightly.

And those branches of the Wade family who fled overnight, after receiving this news, they were extremely grateful in their hearts.

Fortunately, they reacted quickly and ran faster, so they escaped.

However, apart from rejoicing that they had escaped, they were also worried about the future.

These collateral families depend on the Wade family for survival, and the main source of income for many branches is the businesses rewarded by the Wade family.

After all, every collateral family was separated step by step from the master's house.

It was as if Lord Wade had become the owner of the family, and his younger brother Lucas Wade would consciously leave the Wade family and go out to stand on his own.

And Lord Wade can't leave his brother alone for compensation or family affection from now on.

On the contrary, he should give him as many resources as possible, so that he does not want to compete for the head of the family, and secondly, he must also maintain family affection, at the same time, these distant relatives can also come to help if there is a need.

The reason is the same as the principle of the prince ascending to the throne in ancient times and arranging other brothers to be kings in various places.

For these collateral families, once they lose the big tree of the Wade Family, their own future development will also be greatly affected.

However, before they could take a sigh of relief, Dragon Hall released another message, "It is required that all the names of the Wade family's side lines appear in the list of the Wade Family Ancestor Ceremony must will kneel at the foot of Wade Mountain before 8 o'clock tomorrow morning."

"Those who will not come will be hunted down by Dragon Hall worldwide!"

As soon as this news came out, these big domestic families were even more shocked.

Everyone had never expected that Dragon Hall had conquered the Wade Family and was still not satisfied, and would not let it go even the collateral branches of the Wade Family.

Chapter 3418

And these collaterals of the Wade Family are also extremely desperate.

The feeling of the rest of their lives didn't last long, and it was immediately replaced by the despair of being a monk and not being able to run to the temple.

The large list of the Wade Family Ancestor Ceremony has already recorded the names and identity information of each of them in great detail.

For example, this person's surname, name, age, generation, family, father, grandfather, and which branch of the Wade family originated from the ancestor.

All these must be clearly written with a brush dipped in cinnabar.

Because this big list, after the ancestor worship ceremony, as long as it is burned for the ancestors, no one dares to make any fools on it.

Now, this list has actually fallen into the hands of the Dragon Hall, which means that everyone's old bottom is firmly controlled by the Dragon Hall, even if they want to run, they can't.

These people knew the strength of the Dragon Hall.

It was easy to assassinate them, so no one dared to disobey the order of the Dragon Hall.

As a result, this group of people had no choice but to bite the bullet and rush back uneasy.

Lucas Wade's son and grandson received the news via the satellite network on a private plane returning to Canada.

Ten minutes after receiving the news, the plane drew a circle directly at an altitude of 10,000 meters and turned back to Eastcliff.

At the same time, Charlie had already filled his glasses, and in the banquet hall of Shangri-La Hotel, he thanked all the relatives and friends present one by one.

And these relatives and friends of his, including his father's former friend Orrin Sun, look at him at this time like they are already looking at God.

The first person Charlie respected was Orrin Sun.

In his eyes, Orrin Sun is most worthy of his respect and an elder who treats himself best.

Today, his family of three went to Wade Mountain and Charlie is very grateful.

Orrin Sun was also excited at this time for a long time and couldn't calm down.

After a few glasses of wine, he couldn't hide his excitement and said to Charlie, "Charlie, now you have also included the Dragon Hall under your command."

"The strength of the Wade family among the many families in the country will be at the first place! Looking at the world, you can at least be among the top ten!"

Charlie said, "The first ten is still a long way away..."

Orrin Sun said seriously, "It doesn't matter if there is a gap. But you must fight steadily and step by step."

With that said, Orrin Sun told Charlie, "Charlie, Rothschild family is too strong."

“At this time, I really don’t recommend that you contact them too early!”

Charlie nodded and smiled, “Uncle Orrin, don’t worry. When I go to Northern Europe this time, I won’t go head-to-head with them.”

“The main thing is to help Helena regain the throne first and get in touch with the Rothschild family by the way.”

“Don’t worry, I will hide my identity.”

Seeing Charlie’s decision to leave, Orrin Sun exhorted, “Rothschild is commonly known as Old Money in Europe and America.”

“It is not like Bill Gates, a new generation of wealthy people.”

“Every property and every stock is on the bright side.”

“It is more like a huge iceberg. What we can see now is just the tip of the iceberg!”

“And what’s really powerful about it is its pervasive penetration in the entire Western society over the past few hundred years!”

“On the surface, they seem to have ten companies, but in fact, there may be as many as thousands of companies actually controlled by them through various means.”

“This power is quite terrifying, even if your grandpa’s family is already one of the three largest families in the world, but the combined assets of your grandfather and the royal family in the Middle East may not be able to rival Rothschild!”

Speaking of this, Orrin Sun exhorted, "Charlie, at any time, you face to face when dealing with the Rothschild family, you must be absolutely careful!"

Charlie nodded solemnly and said, "Uncle Orrin, don't worry, I know it!"

At this time, Stefanie Sun on the side looked at Charlie excitedly, said, "Brother Charlie! With your strength, I believe that even the Rothschild family will be trampled under your feet!"

Stefanie Sun was originally Charlie's little fan, and now she is a fanatic fan look like.

Charlie nodded lightly and smiled, "Stefanie, don't worry, that day will come after all!"

After that, Charlie poured another glass of wine and said, "Uncle Orrin, Aunt Angie, and Stefanie, I respect the three of you, have a glass, thank you again for your love for me!"

The Sun family filled the glass with three mouthfuls and drank it together with Charlie.

Charlie saw the Moore family and the Ito family sitting on the same table not far away, and said to the Sun family three, "There are some other friends over there, I'll go and say hello."

"Go ahead." Orrin Sun said with a smile, "Remember to come back and have a drink with Uncle later!"

"Okay Uncle!"

Charlie bid farewell to the Sun family and took the wine glass to the table where the Moore family and Ito family were.

At this time, Ito Nanako, watching Charlie approach closer and closer, although her face was still gentle as water, the loving eyes could no longer conceal it.

She originally loved Charlie extremely deeply.

Today, when she saw Charlie use her own power to make the entire Dragon Hall kneel in front of him and kowtow for mercy, she only felt that if she could not marry Charlie in this life, or if she can't be his woman, then she can only be alone in her life.

Because she knew that there would be no more man who could completely conquer herself in consciousness like Charlie.

As for the dignified and beautiful Jasmine Moore, she has always demanded herself with the demeanor of everybody, but she has already fallen deep in her heart like a little woman.

As soon as Charlie arrived, the Moore family and Ito family all stood up.

Yuhiko Ito and Hiroshi Tanaka couldn't stand because they lost their legs, but they immediately raised their wine glasses and looked at Charlie with respect.

And the nearly two hundred people brought by the two families all stood up all at once!

Among them, more than a hundred top ninjas who are usually regarded as national treasure masters in Japan.

While standing upright, their hands humbly hung down on their sides, and their necks and heads were respectfully lowered forty-five degrees.

This is their instinctive reaction and courtesy when facing a strong person who makes them respect and fear.

Orrin Sun saw this scene in his eyes, and couldn't help sighing to his wife and daughter, "These Japanese ninjas seem to have been completely impressed by Charlie's strength."

"In front of him, they dare not even lift their heads!"

Stefanie Sun said seriously, "That's because Charlie's strength is much stronger than them. They must be respectful!"

Angie muttered softly at this time, "The girl from the Ito family, as well as from the Moore family looks in Charlie's eyes doesn't seem right..."

After speaking, she glanced at another table not far away.

Sisters Zara and Xion who were sitting, and Angie exclaimed, "And the sisters of the Banks family...looks at Charlie differently too."

"There's something the way they look at Charlie..."

Chapter 3419

Orrin Sun is really not a delicate person because he does things vigorously.

Like the situation at the banquet at this time.

He was just happy and excited, and he hadn't paid attention to the other young girls, to see what was the difference in their eyes for Charlie.

But Angie is different.

Women are delicate in mind, good at observing details, and instinct is much more accurate than men, so she has been paying attention to these young girls early in the morning.

After all, under the weight of the Dragon Hall, those who are still willing to go to Wade Mountain to help Charlie are all out of their lives.

And these girls are also the top beauties in the allure of the country, and they climb Wade Mountain without hesitation, which is enough to prove that Charlie's life is even more important than themselves in their hearts.

Angie, who is also a woman, knows very well that if a woman is willing to die for a man of the same age, it is definitely not just a so-called repayment of gratitude.

There must be strong personal feelings mixed in it.

In other words, these women must have a love for Charlie.

Orrin doesn't understand this.

He looked puzzled and asked, "I don't understand. Is there anything wrong?"

"Of course." Angie deliberately pulled Orrin aside, avoided Stefanie, and said firmly, "The expressions in the eyes of these little girls at Charlie are obviously full of love."

Orrin Sun squinted his eyes and looked at them.

He just smiled and said, "I think it's all because of gratitude!"

"Don't forget, Charlie has great kindness to these girls, and it's normal for these girls to be grateful to him."

Angie said very seriously, "For a woman, it is difficult to deal with inner gratitude objectively."

"Haven't you found that women at home and abroad can easily fall in love with men who are kind to them?"

Orrin Sun was startled in surprise, and said with a smile, "Hey, these things are beyond our control."

Angie said in a low voice, "Husband, you can't just do nothing."

"These girls are all the best of people. No one may be inferior to our family."

"These girls will be competitors in the future!"

As she said, she added, "Look at Zara Banks from the Banks family."

"She was already the Patriarch of the Banks family at a young age, and Charlie helped her up."

"Not only that, Charlie also saved her twice and also saved her mother and her brother, such a heavy kindness, which girl can resist?"

"If she really competes with our daughter, she may not be able to beat her."

“And that Ito Nanako, who is also the heir of the Ito family at a young age, is not only beautiful, but also has a gentle personality!”

“Although most Chinese have a bit of hatred towards their country, many women have always had extra goodwill in their country, this is also a bonus...”

“Although Xion Banks and Jasmine Moore are a little weaker in their own strength, they are also loyal to Charlie.”

“And unlike the girls, Jasmine Moore is in Aurous Hill, and Xion Banks has always been by Charlie.”

“These two people are close to the water tower, and it is also a big advantage...”

Orrin Sun hesitated for a moment, and said, “I don’t think I need to worry about it.”

“A man like Charlie will naturally have many girls who will love him.”

“Charlie is still low-key...”

Chapter 3420

“If he inherits Wade family today, at the same time, let the whole country know the subduing of Dragon Hall...”

“Many big families in China will squeeze their heads to let their daughters marry Charlie.”

“What kind of virtues these rich and nobles usually do, you must be very good.”

“Yes.” Angie sighed, then looked at Helena, who was sitting in the corner, quietly looking at Charlie, “Charlie is going to Northern Europe again this time with Helena, if he really helps Helena become the Queen of Northern Europe....I am afraid that this Nordic girl will also fall...”

Orrin Sun nodded and said with a smile, “Don’t worry, Charlie is a filial child.”

“No matter how many women like him, there is only one child in the world, our daughter appointed by Brother Bruce and sister Lily.”

After speaking, Orrin Sun said again, “Although Charlie now has a wife on the legal level, it is because he has not been in the Wade family for 20 years.”

“Now Charlie’s life trajectory has begun to move closer to the Wade family.”

“In terms of personal feelings, he will definitely return to the track arranged for him by Brother Bruce and Sister Lily.”

Angie was a little relieved, and nodded and said, “I hope things will be like you said, otherwise I really can’t bear to wait for more than 20 years.”

“In the end, there is no result.”

.....

At the same time, Zara Banks sat at a table with his mother Deana Thorne, sister Xion Banks, Kairi Elms and other Elms family members, and the atmosphere was somewhat embarrassing.

After all, Kairi Elms was the intervener in Deana Thorne's marriage and secretly gave birth to a daughter to Zayne Banks, so now facing Deana Thorne again, Kairi Elms feels guilty.

She always wanted to find an opportunity to apologize to Deana Thorne, but she always swallowed it to her lips.

The moral guilt made her really wonder how to speak.

On the contrary, Zara Banks and Xion Banks talked and laughed.

Not only did the two sisters share half the same blood relationship, but the recent experiences overlapped.

Both were betrayed by the Banks family, and both were rescued by Charlie more than once, so they shared a common experience.

Zara Banks looked at Charlie, who was chatting with the Moore family and the Ito family, and couldn't help sighing, "If the strength of Charlie is so strong, I believe it won't be long before his identity will be revealed."

Xion Banks stuck out her tongue and smiled, "I don't care, whether Master Wade lets me hide or not. Anyway, I have no other plans, I just want to follow him."

As she said, Xion Banks dragged his chin, and said with emotion, "But my strength is really too bad."

"Nearly 100 people in the Dragon Hall are mostly better than me."

“I am afraid that Master Wade has no real need of me in the future...”

Zara Banks shook her head and said seriously, “Don’t worry, I don’t think Charlie will treat the Dragon Hall as his true self.”

“He will treat them as black gloves and deal with less honest things.”

“But you, in the eyes of Charlie, it is different from the Dragon Hall.”

“Charlie will definitely have better arrangements for you.”

Xion Banks asked in surprise, “Sister, is what you said is true?”

Zara Banks nodded earnestly and said, “I guess that should be the case. It should be eight or nine out of ten!”

Xion Banks smiled happily immediately, “That’s great! I don’t ask for anything else, it would be nice to be with Charlie all the time.”

Deana Thorne, who had not spoken much because of the awkward atmosphere, also said at this time, “If you leave, you have to have more confidence in yourself.”

“Mr. Wade should have high expectations of you. It is certainly not just when you are a close-knit subordinate that follow along.”

“Maybe you will be able to reach the height of the Dragon Hall one day.”

Xion Banks pursed her mouth.

Although she couldn't believe it in her heart, she still couldn't help but look forward to the future.

Chapter 3421

After thanking the Moore family and the Ito family, Charlie brought a wine glass to the Elms family, Xion, Zara and Deana.

Still waiting for Charlie to say thank you, the old man of the Elms family, Wilfred Elms, took the lead, took the wine glass and said to Charlie, "Mr. Wade, only last night did I realize that Xion was saved by you, and you have been protecting her safety, your kindness will never be forgotten by the Elms family!"

Charlie smiled slightly and said indifferently, "Mr. Elms is too serious, Xion and I are also friends, this is a matter between me and her, you don't have to take it to heart."

Wilfred Elms said earnestly, "Mr. Wade, Xion is the best in the new generation of the Elms family, and the future leader of the Elms family, you saved her, and you saved the entire Elms family!"

When Xion heard this, she said with a bit of astonishment, "Grandpa... I... how can I be the future leader of the Elms family..."

Wilfred Elms said firmly, "Xion, no matter what your surname is, you are a descendant of my Elms family, so in the future, I will be able to trust the Elms family to you."

Wilfred Elms said with emotion, "When I went to Wade Mountain today, I realized that in the martial arts field, there is really a heaven outside the sky, and there are people outside the world like Wesley, who is less than 30 years old and can become an eight-star warrior."

“Half of my body was buried in the loess, but with the help of Mr. Wade, I barely managed to reach four stars.”

“In comparison, I am really ashamed.”

Having said that, Wilfred Elms looked at Xion and said seriously, “So, I want to give you all the affairs of Elms family, so that I can also have more time to practice hard and see if I can go back one step forward before I die...”

Xion was a little flattered, and at the same time said with a little nervousness, “Grandpa, I don’t know if I can do it... and I am now a wanted person.”

“If the Japanese knew that I was still alive, I would definitely cause trouble to the Elms family...”

Charlie said at this time, “You don’t have to be afraid of this. I have already figured out a countermeasure.”

“After tomorrow, you can restore your identity with integrity, and the Japanese will never come to trouble you again.”

“How is this possible...” Xion said subconsciously, “I am the highest-level wanted criminal in Japan... They... They will definitely not let me off easily.....”

Charlie smiled and said, “Don’t worry, starting from tomorrow, I will let the Dragon Temple announce that you officially become a member of the Dragon Temple!”

“The Japanese will never dare to oppose the Dragon Temple, so they will definitely give up chasing you.”

“Even if it is not good to remove the wanted order directly, you will never be arrested in any substantive way.”

“In this way, you will be able to restore your free status in a fair manner.”

Chapter 3422

Speaking of this, Charlie added, “Of course, the freedom I said, in terms of geography, means that you can go anywhere in the world except Japan, as long as you don’t go to Japan to stimulate their nerves.”

“There will never be any problems.”

When Xion heard this, her eyes were red and grateful, “Master Wade, thank you... If you don’t want to go anywhere in the future, I just want to be by your side to follow you!”

“As long as you don’t rush away.”

Charlie smiled slightly and said, “You don’t have to always stand up for me.”

“Your sister will officially become the heir of the Banks family tomorrow.”

“You can stay by her side and help her.”

Zara hurriedly said, “Benefactor...If you let her, she will definitely want to stay with you...”

Xion also looked nervous and worried at this time, for fear that Charlie would really not let herself be by his side.

Charlie had a panoramic view of her performance, so he smiled and said, “If this is the case, then Xion will return to Aurous Hill with the Elms family first.”

“Mr. Elms and others will go back to the villa, and Xion will go back to Shangri-La Hotel.”

Xion finally breathed a sigh of relief, and nodded excitedly and said, “Okay Young Master Wade, I will always wait for your orders!”

Charlie nodded, then looked at Zara and Deana, and said seriously, “Miss Banks, Aunt Deana, until tomorrow, Lord Banks and Zayne will bow down in Wade Mountain, and they will cooperate to complete all the necessary procedures.”

“At that time, Lord Banks will set off for Madagascar.”

“It may take some preparation time, but I don’t want him to stay in the country, so I will arrange for him and his entourage, as well as Jon from the Wade family, to travel to Madagascar by ship, about ten days.”

After speaking, Charlie said to Zara, “In these ten days, Miss Banks can arrange an investment team to fly to Madagascar first to find a piece of land for him, and then buy some other hardware, so when he arrives, then he can be his own landlord in Madagascar.”

Zara nodded quickly and said, “Okay benefactor, I understand!”

Charlie continued, “As for Zayne, I will bother Mr. Elms to bring him back to Aurous Hill for residential surveillance.”

Wilfred Elms immediately said, “Mr. Wade, don’t worry, it will be done!”

After simply thanking all his relatives and friends, Charlie asked Stephen Thompson to prepare the car.

Then he came to the lonely Helena and said, "Helena, are you ready?"

"Let's set off when you are ready..."

Helena nodded obediently, stood up, and whispered, "Mr. Wade, I'm ready."

Charlie nodded slightly, and said, "Let's go, the car and the plane are waiting."

Lord Wade stepped forward and asked with concern, "Charlie, are you going by yourself?"

"How many people will you bring with you?"

Charlie shook his head and said, "No, I can do it myself."

Seeing Charlie's resolute attitude, Lord Wade nodded and said, "Then you must be careful."

"We are waiting for you in Eastcliff."

Charlie exhorted, "Tomorrow those collateral relatives of the Wade family will come, just let Wesley come forward, and the Wade family won't have to show up, especially you."

Lord Wade said hurriedly, "Don't worry, I know."

Charlie bid farewell to everyone, and then he and Helena got into the Rolls-Royce car prepared by Stephen Thompson.

Half an hour later, the Rolls-Royce drove directly into the airport and went straight to the hangar where the Concorde was parked.

Helena still didn't know what kind of method Charlie was going to use to help herself regain the throne.

She wanted to ask several times, but seeing that Charlie had been closing his eyes and resting, she could only hold back the impulse.

When the Rolls-Royce was about to enter the hangar, Charlie slowly opened his eyes, looked at Helena next to him, and asked, "Helena, do you usually use short video software?"

"I am..." Helena didn't know why Charlie asked, but she said respectfully, "China's popular short video software is also very, very famous overseas. Men, women and children like it."

"Okay." Charlie nodded, handed her a mobile phone, and said, "Log in to your short video software account, take a video, and say that you are very happy now, because you are ready to take the Concorde and rush back to Northern Europe to attend your sister Olivia's wedding!"

"Ah?!" Helena was startled, and said nervously, "Mr.....Mr. Wade...If I post a video now, then...Isn't that going to be all over the net?"

Charlie smiled slightly, "What you want is to cast yourself into the snare."

"Don't worry, as long as you publish this video, Olivia will absolutely not dare to do anything to you before tomorrow's wedding, because if you don't show up at the wedding, everyone will ask her where you are."

Speaking of this, Charlie continued, "Ancient Greek famously said, 'God desires to make it happen.'"

“To perish, you must first make her crazy.”

“If you want Olivia to lose a bit worse, you must first make her feel like she has a chance to win!”

Chapter 3423

Twenty minutes later, the Concorde passenger plane whistled and took off in the night of Eastcliff, heading for Northern Europe at extreme speed.

In front of Charlie and Helena, was an eight thousand kilometers long route.

For an ordinary airliner, it takes at least nine hours to flew in, but the Concorde airliner only needed four hours to reach the northern European capital, Osu.

At the same time, a video quickly became popular on the short video software in Northern Europe.

The woman in the video is Helena Iliad, who is known as the number one beauty in Northern Europe.

Although Helena was deprived of the right to succeed to the throne, she is still the most popular and loved member of the royal family in northern Europe.

So she has more than 8 million fans on short video software.

The Nordic countries only have a population of more than sixteen million, and at least half of them are fans of Helena.

In the past, Helena's short video account often updated some small fragments of daily life.

Many people who liked her used these short videos to learn about her life status.

However, since it was reported that Helena was going to China and was preparing to marry a Chinese family, her short video account stopped updating.

A few days later, she suddenly updated a video.

In the video, she was sitting in a car and said excitedly, "Friends! I am super excited now because I am about to take a Concorde."

"I will rush back to Northern Europe to attend the wedding of my sister, Princess Olivia!"

"This time, I will not only attend her wedding, I will also be her bridesmaid, witnessing her stepping into the marriage hall with my own eyes!"

"God, I'm really so excited! I almost cried when I was so excited several times!"

"Please join me and wish her a happy wedding in advance!"

They heard that princess Helena returned home, and the Nordic citizens were naturally very happy.

They all left a message below her video, "Princess Helena, welcome home!"

In addition, many people wished Olivia a happy wedding in their messages, and the comment area was warm and peaceful.

At this time, the local time in Northern Europe is at noon.

Olivia, who was having lunch with her parents, suddenly received this video of Helena.

After watching it, she suddenly pushed the plate to the ground in anger and said coldly, "This Helena is really looking for death!"

"I have already clearly told her that she would not be allowed to return to Northern Europe in this life, but she did even dare to come back!"

"And she came back with such a big fanfare! She posted this video just to provoke me openly!"

"She might thought that after posting this video, I won't dare to do anything to her? Then she underestimated me!"

After that, she immediately picked up the phone and called Helena.

However, the phone reminded Helena that her cell phone had been turned off.

Olivia left a message to her voice mail box and said coldly, "Helena! Who gave you the courage to disobey my orders!"

"If you dare to set foot on the Nordic land, I will kill..."

Olivia didn't finish her words. Her father Richard grabbed the phone from her and immediately stopped the message.

Then he blurted out, "Olivia, are you crazy?! If you threaten Helena to kill her mother, once Helena releases the recording, you will be finished!"

Olivia suddenly fell into a cold sweat and asked nervously, "What did I just say?!"

Richard said with lingering fear, "Fortunately, I reacted quickly! As soon as you finished talking about killing, I stopped the message!"

Olivia let out a sigh of relief, and while stroking her chest, she gritted her teeth and cursed, "Helena, this bitch! My sanity has been ruined by her!"

Richard didn't speak, but watched Helena's video with his wife, and then said, "What does Helena want to do when she comes back? Is it to save her mother?"

Chapter 3424

Olivia's mother Frida said at this moment, "Helena is not a fool."

"She must know that with her ability, it is impossible to find her mother's whereabouts."

"So, in my opinion, coming back this time, she might want to show our favor and take the opportunity to ease the relationship."

Olivia said coldly, "I don't care what her purpose is, but she went back to Northern Europe without my permission."

"This shows that she disobeyed my order!"

Having said that, Olivia said again, "Also, I asked her to go to St. Petersburg, Russia yesterday, but instead of listening, she dared to return to Northern Europe. What a courage!"

"And she actually said in a short video that she would be my bridesmaid! I won't let her be my bridesmaid!"

"She will never be allowed to jump out and grab the limelight in my wedding!"

Richard frowned and said, "I heard that the Wade family has surrendered to the Dragon Hall, but even though it surrendered, the Wade family should have left half of its assets, which is at least one or two hundred billion euros in assets."

"This strength should not be underestimated."

"Moreover, Helena's Concorde plane is also the Wade family's asset."

"It can be seen that although the Wade family has suffered heavy losses, they have not completely fallen."

"To us, she is still very valuable."

Speaking of this, he advised Olivia, "So, I don't think you should be too angry, but first see what Helena wants to do."

"If she really wants to repair the relationship with you, and at the same time after you get married, if she can leave Northern Europe consciously, let her cooperate with us and attract Wade Family's funds to Northern Europe."

"Why are you so stiff with her?"

Olivia said with a disgusted expression, "Because I don't like to be equal to Helena!"

After all, she gritted her teeth and continued, "For so many years, I have been suppressed by her no matter what I do."

"She is ahead of me when it comes to the law of inheritance!"

"She is always prettier than me when it comes to looks! Better than me! Even the degree of popular love, she far surpasses me!"

"Later, I finally got the first heir, but her popular support rate is still the highest!"

Speaking of this, Olivia roared angrily, "The most unbearable thing is that after I was canonized as the first in line, there were nearly a million Nordic nationals who went to the US White House website to petition, asking the White House to intervene in the Nordic royal family, and let Helena restore the first heir!"

"This incident has been ranked first in the news list in European and American countries. To me, it is a shame for a lifetime!"

"So, what I want is for her to bow her head to me permanently!"

"Whenever she see me, she have to bow down and call me your Royal Highness Olivia respectfully!"

Her mother Frida hurriedly said, "Olivia, don't be so angry for now."

"Helena has already posted a video and publicly announced that she is coming back."

“In order not to let the public pick her up, we can only temporarily accept her and let her attend your wedding.”

Frida said again, “At the same time, you have to let her be your bridesmaid, because only in this way can you ensure that the people will not raise any questions.”

“Once the wedding is over, she will be forced to consciously leave Northern Europe and never let her live since.”

Olivia said with a distorted expression, “She is deliberately using the people to pinch me!”

“Did I just let her come and walk freely?! If she succeeds this time, it won’t take long.”

“If she comes back like this on the day I enthroned, what should I do?!”

“It’s really unreasonable!”

Frida said, “Olivia, don’t worry about this.”

“This time Helena has already posted a video and got on the plane.”

“We will let her come back for the time being, but after returning, we must control her and tell her that if she dares to return to Northern Europe without permission next time, then we will kill her mother immediately and let her decide for herself!”

Chapter 3425

Olivia, who was extremely angry, finally accepted her mother's suggestion.

Because although she was angry, she also knew the current situation very well.

Since Helena had caught herself by surprise, it would be difficult for herself to have a chance to counteract it now.

The only way is to wait for her to come, use her mother's life as a threat, and let her stop doing the same things and making the same mistakes from now on.

Seeing that her mood finally calmed down, her father Richard said, "Olivia, since Helena is flying on a Concorde, then I guess she must be at the airport in the evening."

"I suggest we went to the airport to meet her in advance with William."

"When she got off the plane, we'll use the royal motorcade to take her to the palace to control her."

"I know!" Olivia said coldly, "In order to prevent this slut from talking nonsense, I must control all of her schedule throughout the entire process, and I will also get her phone at that time, so she won't have a chance to pass on information to the outside world!"

Richard nodded appreciatively, and said, "You are really thinking about the problem now, and it is indeed more comprehensive."

"The only problem is that you are too quick to be impulsive. If you can change this, you will definitely be stronger in the future! "

Olivia said blankly, "As long as I solve Helena, my temper can be controlled!"

"She has brought too many shadows to me for so many years!"

"When it comes to things related to her, my emotions are like a gunpowder keg, blow up at one point!"

Richard patted her on the shoulder, and comforted, "Don't worry, Olivia, this time, we will definitely solve Helena's problem completely, and let her honestly help us win resources from the Wade family."

Olivia said with a cold expression, "Actually, I don't want her to marry the Wade family anymore, I still want to give her to Aman Ramovic in Russia."

Richard persuaded, "Aman Ramovic's assets are at best a fraction of the Wade family, which is not worthwhile."

Olivia said seriously, "But Aman Ramovic is willing to pay the royal family 500 million euros directly, if Helena marries him smoothly."

Richard smiled, "The 500 million euros is a one-time buyout fee, but the Wade family has promised to invest 2 billion euros in cooperation with us in Northern Europe?"

"And this is only preliminary. I don't know if there will be any in the future."

"So of course it is not cost-effective to give Helena to Aman Ramovic."

Olivia looked at Richard and said very seriously, "Father, don't forget that Helena's congenital disease is very serious and may not live long."

“If she can only live for a few months, then the Wade family’s funds may only a few hundred million euros and even if the start-up funds are not in place, she is already dead!”

“If she dies, the Wade family will not be able to continue to invest in us!”

Richard’s expression was startled, and he murmured, “Damn it...Why don’t I think about this level...”

Olivia flashed a fierce eyebrow, and said coldly, “Helena is now a terminally ill pet dog that is about to die.”

“If we don’t want to smash her in our own hands, we still have to find someone who pays the most happily, and hurry up and get rid of Helena!”

“If we give her to Aman Ramovic, and the 500 million euros will be paid immediately.”

“Helena will die in St. Petersburg by then. What does it have to do with us?”

Chapter 3426

“Aman Ramovic can’t drag the corpse and come to Northern Europe to find us to return the goods, right?”

Richard said with an awe-inspiring expression, “Olivia, you think more comprehensively.”

“In that case, find a way to send Helena to Aman Ramovic!”

Olivia nodded and sneered, “Since she is here, then her fate will be left to my control!”

Speaking of this, she wiped a cruel smile at the corner of her mouth, and said lightly, "I heard people say that Aman Ramovic is a bit abnormal in his bones."

"He likes to use all kinds of inhuman methods to torture women in bed."

"Helena has a heart ill, maybe she will die on Aman Ramovic's bed the first night she arrives in St. Petersburg..."

As he said, Olivia sneered and said, "In that case, we can still severely condemn Aman Ramovic and force him to pay another pension, otherwise we will expose him to the death of the royal princess."

"By then, he have to give another 500 million euros?"

"After all, it is not easy for the royal family to raise Helena."

"It is reasonable for me to ask him for 500 million euros in compensation!"

Richard looked at his daughter, gave a thumbs up, and praised, "Olivia, you are indeed a woman of the world!"

"When you inherit the throne, the royal family will surely usher in a spurt of development!"

Olivia nodded and said coldly, "The news of my marriage with William is being paid attention to throughout Europe."

"Many other European royal families, nobles, and rich people will come to our wedding."

“Originally, I didn’t plan to invite Aman Ramovic, but since Helena is here, then I might as well invite him over, and when the wedding is over, let him take Helena away!”

Richard laughed and said, “Aman Ramovic likes to attend the gatherings of European aristocrats the most.”

“Call him now and he will fly over from St. Petersburg tonight!”

Olivia nodded and said with a sneer, “I’ll call him in a while.”

After speaking, Olivia said again, “By the way, Dad, I think that after my big wedding, there is no need to let the old lady continue to linger.”

“When that time comes, I will notify the doctor and quietly pull out the tubes.”

The speed of the Concorde airliner is faster than the rotation of the earth.

When Charlie and Helena boarded the plane in Eastcliff, their eyes were already at night, but after a four-hour flight, when they arrived in Osu, the capital of Northern Europe, it was just dusk in Northern Europe.

After the plane landed at the end of the runway, it was immediately led all the way to the hangar at the far end of the airport by the ground guided vehicle.

While the plane was still taxiing, Helena heard Olivia’s voice message for herself.

Although Olivia hadn't finished speaking, Helena still heard the strong anger and threat in her words.

She looked at Charlie nervously, and said, "Mr. Wade, Olivia should be very angry right now."

"I guess that she will strictly control me the moment I get off the plane..."

Charlie smiled and said, "She will probably take you to the palace under house arrest."

"I may be treated the same way."

Helena hurriedly asked, "What should I do?"

"It doesn't matter." Charlie said lightly, "Since we have come all the way, it is natural to ask the guests as they please."

"This is due etiquette. We will talk about everything when we get to the palace."

Listening to Charlie's words, Helena immediately breathed a sigh of relief, and then asked him, "Mr. Wade, how should I introduce you to Helena?"

Charlie smiled and said, "You just said that I am Wade Franklin's younger brother, because according to our China rules, it is not convenient for Franklin to participate directly in this kind of wedding ceremony because Franklin is still not married to you."

"So he arrange for me to be escorted all the way."

"Okay." Helena nodded slightly, and then asked, "Should I use another name for you?"

Charlie shook his head and smiled casually, "No, it's the first time in my life to come to Northern Europe, so naturally I have to come here with integrity!"

Chapter 3427

In the hangar at this time, Olivia, who was dressed beautifully in a Chanel-finished dress, was holding the arm of a white young man, watching the Concorde airliner get closer and closer.

This white young man is the eldest son of Rothschild's collateral family, William Rothschild.

William's family is rooted in Denmark, across the sea from the four northern European countries.

Over the years, William's family has been hoping to be in the second tier of the Rothschild family, so it has been keeping a low profile and trying its best.

Within the Rothschild family, the overall structure is similar to that of the Wade family, but in actual implementation, it is much more cumbersome than the Wade family.

The Rothschild family is a veteran capital family.

They started as a financial bank, so the allocation of internal resources is extremely strict.

The lifeblood of the Rothschild family is in the hands of the core family in the United States, and the core family divides the resources of different families by scoring other families.

A second-tier family has two or three times higher resources from the core family every year than the third-tier family.

Therefore, every second-tier or third-tier family has a sharpened head and wants to climb up.

A ladder family must do everything possible to stabilize its position and cannot be compared to other families.

Therefore, this kind of strong internal competition makes the Rothschild family's internal barriers as a whole very strong, and it is no easy task to achieve internal ladder leaping.

In recent years, William's family has been doing everything possible to increase its rating weight.

Recently, through their own channels, they learned the news that the Queen of Northern Europe is critically ill.

Realizing that the young Olivia would soon become the youngest queen in Northern Europe and even the entire Europe, they immediately negotiated with the Northern European royal family, hoping to reach a marriage.

But Olivia has long been up for sale.

Many rich people in Europe actually realize that she is about to become a queen, so many people hope to marry Olivia.

The whole of Europe itself has strong thoughts of power and feudalism.

Almost everyone thinks that the royal family is superior to the nobles.

Those rich people who do not have aristocratic titles, if they can marry the queen, they will immediately be canonized as princes and duke at the same time.

The class leap was completed in an instant.

William was able to stand out among many competitors because his family decided to invest 2 billion euros with 1 billion euros in cash as a bride price, which suppressed other competitors.

William's family hopes to increase their influence throughout Europe through the blessing of the royal family, so that they can get more weight in Rothschild's next internal rating and move to the second ladder.

At this time, Olivia looked at the Concorde airliner that looked like a white swan, and said with an annoyed expression, "The Wade family is really not a simple family."

"They can even get this kind of supersonic airliner."

William nodded and said with a somewhat envious expression on his face, "As the world's fastest passenger plane, the Concorde was sold out by the top families as soon as it was retired."

"This kind of aircraft can continue to be used after it is retired."

"There are less than ten in total."

"There are three in the Rothschild family, all of which are in the hands of the core family."

"We never had the opportunity to experience it."

“We did not expect that the Wade family also had one...”

Olivia said with a black face, “I haven’t been on this kind of supersonic airliner.”

William smacked his lips and said angrily, “I have never sat down either...”

“...but I heard that the Wade family suffered a heavy loss this time.”

“I don’t know if they are willing to sell this plane at a low price. If they want, I will buy it!”

At this time, the plane had slowly entered the hangar, and then the hatch opened, and Helena, accompanied by Charlie, walked down the spiral staircase.

Down the spiral staircase, Olivia looked at Helena with a sneer on her face.

Seeing that the whole plane only walked off her and Charlie, Olivia frowned and asked, “Helena, where are your two entourages?”

“Why didn’t they come back with you?”

Two of Helena’s followers are Olivia’s.

But Olivia always thought that Helena didn’t know it.

Seeing that she didn’t bring her entourage back this time, and she didn’t report any changes to her in advance, she realized that Helena might have discovered the true identity of the two.

Helena pretended to be silly at this time, and said casually, "I left the two of them in China, and asked them and the Wade family housekeeper to prepare the engagement banquet and wedding details."

Chapter 3428

Helena's words, outsiders sound okay, but Olivia knows very well that Helena is absolutely nonsense!

If this is what she said, then her two subordinates will definitely report the situation to herself as soon as possible.

But now that she has not received any information, it proves that these two people must have been controlled by Helena.

But what made Olivia depressed was that she saw Helena talking in front of her, but she was completely unable to attack.

She could only hold back her anger, and followed her words and said, "It turned out to be like this... Oh my sister, I didn't expect that we both will get married soon."

"Time flies so fast..."

Helena nodded and sighed with a smile likewise, "Yes, it seems that we were riding a horse on the lawn of the palace together yesterday, and we are going to be married in a blink of an eye."

Olivia snorted, looked at Charlie next to her, frowning and asked, "By the way, this one next to you doesn't seem to be your fiancé, Mr. Franklin Wade, right?"

Helena hurriedly introduced, "Oh, yes, I almost forgot to introduce you."

“This is Franklin Wade’s cousin, Charlie! Franklin Wade has been doing a lot of things recently and can’t walk away, so Charlie will accompany me back this time.”

Olivia didn’t know much about the structure of the Wade family.

Hearing that Charlie was Franklin Wade’s cousin, she instinctively thought that it might also be the son of someone else in the Wade family, and didn’t take it to heart.

William on the side didn’t think much also.

Because it was the American Rothschild core family that fought Bruce Wade in the China Market.

Moreover, it was the Rothschild family that won in the end, so he, the son of the third-tier family in Europe, didn’t know the grievances that year, or the specific situation of the Wade family.

Olivia made up his mind to sell Helena to the Russian oligarch Aman Ramovic.

Therefore, she didn’t plan to have anything to do with the Wade Family in the future, so naturally she didn’t have a good face towards Charlie.

She looked at Charlie and said with a sarcasm, “Mr. Wade, I heard that your Wade family was just destroy by Dragon Hall?”

“I also heard that Dragon Hall, in addition to stealing your Wade family’s ancestral grave, also asked the Wade the family gave up half of its assets?”

“Then the loss of your Wade family should be great this time, right?”

William on the side saw that Olivia was a little bit against Charlie, and he deliberately raised his eyebrows and said, "Olivia, why do you talk about other people's pains as soon as you meet?"

"The Wade family has lost such a big loss this time."

"Mister must be very painful in his heart."

Charlie smiled, and said casually, "I am not in pain after all."

"We have an old saying in China that a camel is bigger than a horse."

"Even if the Wade family loses half of its assets, there will still be more than one trillion yuan."

"For the vast majority of trash families in Europe, it is still a lot stronger."

When William heard the sarcasm in Charlie's words, he immediately asked angrily, "The surname Wade, who do you say is the trash family?"

Charlie smiled arrogantly and coldly, "In my eyes, all of your European families whose assets are not as good as my Wade family's, one counts as one, it's all rubbish!"

Chapter 3429

Hearing Charlie's words, William suddenly became angry and blurted out: "The surname is Wade, your words are too arrogant!"

Charlie asked with a smile: "Am i arrogant? What am I doing? Don't think so." After speaking, Charlie said again: "Even if our Wade family has suffered heavy losses, they still have trillions of assets. Some families have not experienced such a large loss, and they don't have as much money as my Wade family. If This is not rubbish what is it?"

Charlie looked at the two of them, paused slightly, and joked: "Look, if the water in this sea is half gone, it will still be the sea, but even if the water in the mud pit is full, it will still be Mud."

The expressions of Olivia and William turned very ugly.

Olivia is very clear about the strength of the Nordic royal family. Cash, antiques, real estate, foreign investment, etc. are all counted, but only a few billion euros.

Moreover, the royal family is not Olivia's family of three, there are a large number of royal relatives and relatives below, all waiting for the royal family to feed.

But even if the Wade family gave out half of the assets to Ten Thousand Dragon Temple, the remaining assets would still have hundreds of billions of euros, which is really much stronger than the royal family.

William was just as annoyed as Olivia.

Although his surname is Rothschild, the overall economic strength of their family can barely reach 10 billion when converted into euros. In his opinion, it may not be as good as one-tenth of the current Wade family.

However, William gritted his teeth and retorted: "Our Rothschild family has been deeply cultivated in the world for hundreds of years, and our comprehensive assets are more than one trillion US dollars, and ten trillion may not be able to stop it! In front of the Rothschild family, nothing Home, it's not even rubbish!"

Charlie asked curiously: "Are you from the Rothschild family?"

Olivia introduced with pride and pride: "Forgot to introduce you to both of you. This is my fiance, the young talent of the Rothschild family, William Rothschild!"

Charlie smiled slightly, and said: "It's really a member of the Rothschild family, no wonder he speaks so loudly."

William sneered: "What? You now realize that the Wade family is in our Rothschild family. Is there much rubbish in front of me?"

Charlie shook his head and said lightly: "No rubbish, it depends on who is compared. If compared with the core family of Rothschild, the Wade family is naturally much worse, but I listened. It is said that there are many collateral branches in the Rothschild family, and these collateral branches are divided into three steps. I don't know which step is in Mr. William's family?"

Hearing this, William's face immediately turned pale.

When it comes to the Rothschild family, he is full of pride.

But as soon as he talked about the topic of the first step he was in, he didn't know what to do.

Because his family, in the Rothschild family, is just the third step at the end of the crane.

Seeing his weird expression but not speaking, Charlie couldn't help but smile and asked, "What's wrong, Mr. William, wasn't he quite able to speak just now? Why don't you speak now?"

William's expression was uncertain, and he didn't know how to respond for a while.

Seeing her fiancé deflated, Olivia said in a cold voice, "Mr. Wade, this is Northern Europe, not China! It's better not to speak so sharply."

Charlie hummed and asked, "This is Sharp? It seems that you still lack understanding of real sharpness." At this time, Helena came out and said roundly: "I think everyone should stop chatting here, or go back to the palace. I also want to see grandma and her old man. What's going on?"

Olivia smiled playfully and said: "Helena, don't worry, William and I are coming to the airport this time. Not only will I pick you up, but a friend will also be here soon. It's better to wait for him to arrive, and we will return to the palace together."

Chapter 3430

Helena asked subconsciously: "Who is the other friend you are talking about?"

Olivia laughed and said, "This friend is an oligarch in Russia, Aman Ramovic."

Helena had already learned from the two entourages that Olivia wanted to sell herself to Amanra. Morovich's plan, so she heard this, and her heart suddenly trembled.

However, she tried her best to control her emotions, pretending to be surprised and asked: "Olivia, when did you become friends with such a vulgar person?"

Olivia squinted at Helena, and asked in surprise. Said: "Helena, has no one mentioned Aman Ramovic to you?"

Helena shook her head blankly: "No one mentioned it, what's the matter?"

Today, Helena put aside Olivia. Two of his men came back alone, and Olivia knew that his identity had been exposed.

Now, she didn't know whether her two people had told Helena of her plan.

Because before, she instructed two of her men to lie to Helena to go to the airport, and then send her directly to St. Petersburg.

But now that Helena looked blank, Olivia thought she might not have learned about it yet.

So, Olivia smiled profoundly and said: "This Aman Ramovich is a very good person, rich, and very gentleman. It's just that he's a little older, without what they said. So vulgar, don't look at it."

Helena pretended to smile casually: "In my impression, the nobles in Western Europe seem to have always rejected him, why did you invite him over?"

Olivia laughed: " Although Aman Ramovic has no commendable background, he is at least a billionaire worthy of tens of billions of dollars. I want to rejuvenate the royal family in the future, and of course I must have a good relationship with this rich man." As he was speaking, there was a plane outside . The sound of the engine was getting closer, and a brand new Gulfstream G650 business jet, guided by the guide car, slowly taxied towards the hangar.

Olivia raised her eyebrows and smiled: "Aman Ramovic is here!"

The G650 quickly stopped at the position next to the Concorde, the door opened, and a short and thin middle-aged man in a dark blue suit walked out of the door with a smile on his face.

This person is the only remaining oligarch in Russia today, Aman Ramovich.

Aman Ramovich was born in poverty, but caught the wave of the times, accumulated wealth crazily in the special stage of Russia, and quickly rose to the top.

When Aman Ramovic got off the plane, he smiled and said to Olivia: "His Royal Highness Princess Olivia, long time no see!"

After he said that, he immediately looked at him with a somewhat greedy look. Helena on the side smiled and said: "This should be Princess Helena, right?"

Helena was a little uncomfortable, and Olivia next to her was seeing Aman Ramovic facing Helena. After the obsessive look, he smiled and said: "Mr. Aman Ramovic, this is my sister, Princess Helena."

Aman Ramovic immediately reached out to Helena, looking forward to kissing her and very gentlemanly said: "It's very nice to meet you, my Royal Highness Princess Helena!"

Helena didn't want Aman Ramovic to kiss her hand. She had guessed that Olivia had Aman Ramovic kiss her hand. Chi's motives were so disgusting in his heart, so he nodded slightly at him, and said apologetically: "Sorry Mr. Aman Ramovich, because my fiancé is Chinese, so I have to abide by the Chinese customs, I can't give a kiss, please forgive me!"

Aman Ramovich laughed awkwardly, then quietly retracted his hand, and said with a smile: "It's okay, it's okay, I understand it!"

Olivia Yuguang He glanced at Helena and sneered in her heart: "Helena, what are you pretending to be reserved? It won't be long before you will be Aman Ramovic's woman!"

When Olivia learned that Helena was going back to China, she had already discussed the countermeasures with her parents.

Since Helena is here this time, she won't let her go easily.

Chapter 3431

According to Olivia's plan, from the moment Helena returned to the palace, she was monitored and she was not allowed to leave the palace.

And she also called Aman Ramovich in St. Petersburg the first time and reached a consensus with him on the phone. After her wedding tomorrow, she will force Helena to agree to marry him.

Olivia has Helena's mother as a hostage in her hands, so she believes Helena will definitely not dare to disobey her arrangement.

As for Aman Ramovich, he was ridiculed by the Western media all day long, and the ridicule was a little crazy.

What I think every day in my mind is to quickly marry a European royal princess, in order to severely humiliate those people who look down on him.

Therefore, when he received a call from Olivia, he hurried over immediately ecstatically.

Fortunately, St. Petersburg is only more than a thousand kilometers away from Northern Europe, and it can be reached in two hours by ordinary plane.

However, Aman Ramovic, who flew from St. Petersburg, did not expect Helena to be so indifferent to him.

So he looked at Olivia and asked: "Princess Olivia, what we said on the phone, don't you know that it counts?"

Olivia smiled and said, "Of course it counts ! She will soon become the Queen of Northern Europe. How can she break her promise when the Queen promised? Mr. Aman Ramovich, don't worry!"

"That's good!" Aman Ramovich breathed a sigh of relief.

He knew that Olivia must have a way to get Helena to agree.

As for what way, he didn't bother to worry about it.

In short, as long as he can bring Helena back to St. Petersburg, he will immediately put 500 million euros on the accounts of the Nordic royal family, and everyone is happy.

Olivia smiled slightly at this time, and said: "You must have been very hard to fly so far.

Why don't you go back to the palace first, and there will be a grand banquet in the palace at night to entertain you all." Aman Ramovich naturally agreed. When he came down, Charlie didn't say a word, and looked as if he was a guest.

As a result, everyone was divided into several royal convoys from the airport to the palace.

The Royal Motorcade has six cars in total. Olivia and her fiancé William sit in the second car, Charlie and Helena sit in the third car, and Aman Ramovic sits in the fourth car alone.

In the car, Charlie had been closing his eyes and rested. Helena felt a little nervous in her heart. She wanted to talk to Charlie several times, but when she thought that there was a driver and a royal servant in the front row, she could only hold back for a while.

At this time, Olivia and William were sitting in the car, guarding a special player, listening to the panting sounds coming from inside.

William couldn't help frowning at this moment: "Why don't these two people say anything? Are they aware that there is a bug in the car?"

Olivia shook her head: "I'm not sure."

William asked her: "Olivia, have you figured out how to deal with Charlie?"

Olivia casually said: "What can he do? When Aman Ramovic takes Helena away, let him go back to China."

"No." William said with a cold face: "You can't let him go like this!"

Olivia asked in surprise: "Are you trying to kill him? Although the Wade family is far away in China, if we really killed their people we would get into a lot of trouble!"

"No." William waved his hand and said, "I won't be stupid enough to kill him in Northern Europe. I just want to teach him a lesson, by the way. Keep that Concorde airliner!"

"Concorde airliner?" Olivia couldn't help but brighten his eyes.

In the real upper class, there are only two real top luxury goods, one is a private jet and the other is a private yacht.

As far as the private jet is concerned, it seems to be the largest and most luxurious A380 transformed by the Saudi royal family, but to say that the top and rare private jet that can represent the highest status, it must be a Concorde airliner.

Chapter 3432

The reason is that this thing is too rare.

Twenty or so planes were built back then, and now there are only single digits left, which are truly out-of-print private jets.

Moreover, it is also the only private jet that can fly at supersonic speeds.

Who can own such a private jet, the face of flying out, is much more magnificent than the A380 of the Saudi royal family!

Both Olivia and William are extremely vain people, and there are countless luxury goods on weekdays, but neither of them dare to expect that they can own a Concorde.

Therefore, when William was asked to propose this idea, Olivia immediately became very excited.

So she immediately asked: "My dear, what can you do?"

William sneered: "After the banquet tonight, I made a card game and played cards with some guests from afar, and earned some pocket money by the way. At that time I will make a round and invite that Charlie to come over and play two. As long as he is willing to play, I will be sure to let him fall in step by step."

Olivia asked with some suspicion: "Are you really sure? "

William said confidently: "Don't worry, among the guests here this time, there is a person I have arranged in advance. This person has been a croupier in Las Vegas for many years, as long as he is asked to deal with cards. , No matter what project you play, you can make that Charlie lose everything!"

Olivia asked puzzledly: "Why did you even put an old man in the palace?"

William shrugged his shoulders and said indifferently: "Don't you know the hobbies of these rich men? What they like is nothing more than beauty and gambling. They come to the palace for weddings. It is definitely impossible to bring women in the palace. So an impromptu gambling will definitely make them very interested!"

As he said, William continued with some excitement: "But on such occasions, as long as someone sets the game, every man loves to play with two hands and lose tens of millions of euros, which is nothing to them. One person is tens of millions, and ten people can be tens of millions or even hundreds of millions, so as long as the operation is done properly, it is easy to earn him tens of millions of euros."

Olivia touched his chin and said with a smile. "Unexpectedly, you are quite bad! Even the money of these relatives and friends is calculated!"

William said embarrassingly: "If you have a chance to earn some pocket money, it will not be a big loss for them. Why not do it? You? Say yes?"

Olivia grinned and said, "You have a share! I want half of the proceeds from the gambling game!"

William was taken aback for a moment, then smiled and said: "Haha, Olivia, I have a hunch, The married life of the two of us will definitely be very, very harmonious!"

Olivia raised an eyebrow, and said: "If Charlie can really lose that Concorde to you, this plane will be half mine!"

"Of course!" William stretched out his hand to pinch Olivia's chin and kissed her lips firmly. After a while, he lifted his head and said softly: "Your Majesty Olivia, everything about me It's all yours!"

Olivia nodded with satisfaction and smiled: "It seems that you have begun to adapt to the role of 'Prince William' in advance."

William smiled: "Of course! I'm anxious. Be your husband tomorrow, and the day after tomorrow, you will be the princess of Northern Europe!" After that, William said again: "My father has promised me. After you inherit the Datong and canonize me as the prince, He will stop at the Italian ship in Copenhagen. Give us a luxury yacht and a villa in Beverly Hills, Los Angeles!"

Chapter 3433

Half an hour later, the convoy drove into the Nordic palace.

The Nordic royal family has three palaces in the Nordic country, and the suburbs of the capital are the largest and most luxurious of the three.

The whole palace is actually more like a large combination of castles and manors.

The overall area covers hundreds of hectares, and there is a golf course and an equestrian field from the inside.

It is said that the building and land value of this palace alone is more than 3 billion euros.

However, because this thing is the ancestral property of the royal family and the symbol of the royal family, the country's law prohibits the royal family from selling it to the outside world.

If it can't be sold, it means that the royal family actually just has a right to use it.

The convoy passed through a large area of green space and stopped in front of an ancient castle with a history of at least 100 years.

The Royal Guard immediately stepped forward, opened all the doors of the car, and Charlie walked down with Helena.

Seeing Helena coming back, the Royal Guard immediately saluted respectfully, "Your Highness Princess Helena!"

Helena nodded slightly, and then Olivia came over and said to Charlie and Aman Ramovic, "The room of the two guests is ready for you. I'll ask someone to take you there first."

Aman Ramovic immediately bowed and said respectfully, "Your Royal Highness Princess Olivia!"

In contrast, Charlie was not so polite and didn't said something good.

Olivia couldn't help but be a little unhappy when she saw that Charlie did not bow, let alone be polite, and even too lazy to say thank you.

However, Olivia did not have an attack at the thought that William was going to make a game for Charlie.

On the contrary, he said to Charlie with a false smile, “Mr. Wade, there will be a dinner in the banquet hall later.”

“Mr. Wade must be honored.”

Charlie didn’t know what medicine was sold in Olivia gourds, but for him, it was impossible to touch his hair even if all the people in the palace combined, so he said indifferently, “Okay, I will come.”

Hearing this, William next to him said with a smile, “That’s great.”

“In addition to our family and relatives of the Nordic royal family, there are also some heads of the top families in the four northern European countries.”

“Mr. Wade can also get to know each other at that time.”

Charlie didn’t expect that even this guy named William now smiled at himself, which showed that this guy and Olivia must have not had any good farts in the car just now.

So he said to William with a smile, “It seems that Mr. William has arranged it for me, so I will be respectful and not as good as obey.”

William immediately smiled and said, “Mr. Wade is so polite that I will definitely have fun at night!”

At this time, Helena said, “Olivia, I want to see grandma!”

“Want to see grandma?” Olivia smiled and said, “Grandma is in a deep coma.”

“The doctor said that she can’t wake up. What’s the point of seeing her now?”

In Olivia’s opinion, Helena must have a glimmer of hope to see the queen, and she wants to plead in front of the queen or sue herself.

However, Olivia is not worried, because she knows very well that the queen’s life is coming to an end, and it is not only impossible to wake up, and even her life will not last long.

Helena said at this time, “Olivia, Grandma is the Nordic queen.”

“Whether as her granddaughter or her minister, I must come back to visit her, even if she is in a coma!”

With that, Helena said again, “Furthermore, there’s also something I wanted to talk with you.”

Chapter 3434

Olivia put away her smile, nodded slowly, and said blankly, “Okay! In this case, I’ll take you to see grandma first.”

With that, she told the guard, “You can take two guests to the room first.”

Helena quickly asked, “Can Charlie go with me?”

Olivia frowned, “Didn’t you want to talk to me? What should Mr. Wade do?”

Charlie knew that Helena must want herself to save her grandmother.

But it’s a little boring to take action directly now.

Besides, he haven't seen the little conspiracy of Olivia and William yet.

Which one comes up and drives straight into the point?

Don't give people a little foreplay and time to adapt?

Therefore, Charlie said with a smile, "You two sisters can talk first, I won't get involved."

After saying that, he gave Helena a reassuring look.

Seeing this, Helena had to nod and said, "Okay, I'll go to see Grandma with Olivia first. See you at the dinner party."

Charlie nodded, "Okay."

Under the leadership of the guards, Charlie came to a guest room on the third floor of the castle.

At this time, Helena, led by Olivia, went straight to the top floor of the castle.

This floor is a special area for the whole royal family.

The queen, who has been basically sentenced to death, is now in a luxury suite on the top floor.

Half of this suite has been transformed into an intensive care unit at this time.

Olivia brought Helena up. Instead of entering the ward immediately, she took her to the next room and told a maid, "Search her!"

The maid immediately came forward and examined Helena all over her body.

She found that she only had one mobile phone, so she handed it to Olivia and said respectfully, "Your Highness, this is the only one."

Olivia nodded and told her, "Take her mobile phone away first."

With that, she waved to Helena and said, "Come with me."

Helena followed Olivia to the door of the ward.

Olivia sent the guard outside the ward and sent out several doctors on duty, so that Helena was taken into the ward.

In the ward, a gray-haired old woman lay in the hospital bed blankly.

She is very thin and wears an oxygen mask on her face.

She has no other movement except the slight ups and downs on her chest when breathing.

Seeing the old woman, Helena's eyes turned red, cried to the bed, choked and said, "Grandma... Grandma, can you hear my voice? I'm Helena. I'm back to see you..."

Olivia sneered and said, "Helena, stop dreaming. She can't wake up and uphold justice for you!"

There is no one here except the two of them and the dying queen, so Olivia immediately put away her hypocritical face.

Helena turned her head to Olivia and asked, "Olivia, where the hell did you hide my mother?"

Olivia snorted, "Don't you think you are particularly naïve to ask such a question?"

"I still want to use your mother's life to force you."

"How can I tell you where she is?"

Helena gritted her teeth and asked her, "Olivia! I'm your sister! I'm your relatives! Why did you do this to me!"

"Why do you treat my mother like this?!"

Olivia held her shoulder and sneered, "Okay, Helena, it's time."

"What's the point of playing this kind of emotional card?"

After a pause, Olivia said again, "I tell you, you have no choice now."

"Honestly, if you marry Aman Ramovic after my wedding, I will spare your mother's life!"

Otherwise, I will not only forcibly give you to Aman Ramovic, but also make her like grandma now!"

As Olivia said this, it was the Nordic queen lying on the hospital bed.

Hearing this, Helena looked at her in a daze and asked, "Grandma... Grandma was sick because of you?"

"Of course it's me!" Olivia knew that Helena did not have any recording and eavesdropping equipment on her body, so she sneered recklessly, "Last year's physical examination, her health doctor told me that as long as she was well maintained, she could live at least another ten years, or even another 20 years..."

"Damn, which crown princess can wait so long?!"

"Do you know how many more decades there are left?"

"Does God know if she will give me an extra long standby like the one in Great Britain?"

"So, in order to inherit the unified system as soon as possible, I can only use some means to shorten her standby time as much as possible!"

Chapter 3435

Helena really did not expect that Olivia is behind why her grandma is now seriously ill and is not awake!

While this made her extremely angry, she couldn't help but feel a cold back in her back...

Before, she had never discovered that her cousin was actually such a sinister and venomous femme woman in her bones!

Not only did she calculate herself, but even the reigning Queen grandma, she also didn't let go!

Helena, who was extremely angry, pointed to Olivia and scolded, "Olivia, do you know that murdering the queen is a felony of treason!"

"You are going to the gallows!"

Olivia curled her lips and said with a disdainful sneer, "Let me go to the gallows?"

"To tell you the truth, the fate of the old woman is completely in my hands."

"If I let her die today, she will not be able to live until tomorrow!"

"If I let her die tomorrow, she will not be able to live until the day after tomorrow!"

"As long as she dies, I will immediately become the Queen of Northern Europe!"

"At that time, who can do to me?!"

Helena gritted her teeth and said, "Don't forget! The royal family is just a symbol for this country."

"Even if you are a queen, you are also a citizen of this country."

"You must abide by the laws of this country."

"If your actions are known to the outside world, even you have ascended the throne to become the queen, you will definitely be caught and tried in public!”

Olivia asked disdainfully, “But who will know outside?”

“Do you really think that if you say something, outsiders will believe it?”

As she said, Olivia sneered without waiting for Helena to speak, “Oh, yes, you can’t have a chance to talk to outsiders, because from now on, you must not leave the palace for half a step, and you must not have any contact with the outside world!”

Helena sneered, “Why? Do you want to put me under house arrest?”

“Don’t forget, everyone knows that I am back in Northern Europe.”

“If I didn’t show up at your wedding tomorrow, what would they think?”

Olivia said disdainfully, “You will make a short video to tell everyone that you have a sudden illness and you want to stay in bed and you can’t be my bridesmaid!”

Helena blurted out, “You can dream on! I can’t shoot!”

Olivia laughed and said, “It doesn’t matter, you don’t need to shoot, but I will let someone dig out your mother’s two eyeballs, and then the whole process will be filmed as a video for you to watch!”

Helena trembled with anger, and reprimanded, “Olivia! You are a devil!”

Olivia curled her lips, “I am not the devil, I am the future Queen of Northern Europe!”

Speaking of this, she stared at Helena's eyes and said word by word, "Helena! You can never be my opponent!"

"If you want your mother to survive, please honestly follow my arrangements, otherwise not only your mother can't live, you can't live either!"

Helena was extremely angry, but she also knew that she was not Olivia's opponent at all.

Helena's only hope is Charlie.

Chapter 3436

So, she could only be softened in front of Olivia, and said, "Let me think about it..."

Olivia sneered, "Remember, you must send out the video before eleven o'clock in the evening."

"Okay..." Helena nodded and agreed.

.....

Seven o'clock in the evening local time in Northern Europe.

The reception dinner inside the royal room was held in the banquet hall of the royal palace.

Western-style banquets are very different from those in the East.

There are no round tables at the scene, but an extra-long long table with more than ten exquisite dining chairs on either side of the long table.

There were not many guests attending this dinner, including Olivia and William's parents, there were less than twenty people in total.

Most of the guests are close relatives and friends of the two families, so they were invited to the palace one day in advance.

Most of the guests will come to the palace early tomorrow morning to attend the wedding.

Helena came down with Olivia.

Because of being threatened by Olivia, Helena's mood has been a little uneasy.

When she first arrived at the banquet hall, she immediately began to look for Charlie's shadow everywhere, because now she could only relax when she saw Charlie.

But Charlie did not appear in the banquet hall.

Olivia's father Richard saw Helena and immediately said with a smile, "Helena, you are back!"

Helena looked at Richard. She didn't know what caused her grandma to fall into a coma.

She was not sure if her uncle is involved in this, but she was still very wary of this person in her heart, so she said, "Uncle Richard, are you okay recently?"

Richard sighed lightly and said, "Except for your grandma's physical condition that makes me more concerned, everything else is pretty good."

As he was talking, Aman Ramovic also came over, first glanced at Helena a little fascinatingly, then stepped to Richard, and respectfully said, "Hi, Prince Richard! I am Aman Ramovic, it's an honor to see you!"

Richard nodded slightly and said with a smile, "I have heard of Mr. Aman Ramovic's name a long time ago, and I only have the opportunity to see you today."

After speaking, Richard said again, "By the way, I have always liked the Premier League team you bought."

"If you have the opportunity, I must go to the UK to watch a live game!"

Aman Ramovic said with surprise on his face, "His Royal Highness also likes football?"

"In that case, you can come to London next week if you have time."

"The team will have a home game next week!"

Richard nodded and said, "If there is nothing else on the royal family's side, I would really like to go to London for a short break."

As he said, he sighed and laughed at himself, "But the royal family has so many things that they can't get out of it every day, and it is estimated that we will have to wait for a while to rest!"

Aman Ramovic smiled and said, "It doesn't matter, it's going to be summer."

“There are so many summer games.”

“When the new season of the Champions League starts, maybe they will come to Northern Europe to play away.”

“Yeah.” Richard nodded and smiled, “I never thought that you and I have a lot of topics in common, you and Helena will sit next to me!”

After finishing speaking, he pointed to the two empty seats on his right hand side and said to Helena, “Helena, you can sit with Mr. Aman Ramovic.”

Helena said embarrassingly, “Uncle, I still have a friend from afar.”

“He is not familiar here, so I’ll stay with him.”

Richard said lightly, “You mean the person from the Wade family, right?”

“Yes.” Helena said hurriedly, “This time, Franklin Wade’s cousin from the Wade Family came with me here, and he is also Wade Family’s grandson.”

Richard snorted and said, “I really don’t understand the Wade family.”

“There is such a big incident at home, why don’t you stay at home and clean up the mess?”

“He have to go to Northern Europe to be embarrassed.”

Helena had no choice but to explain, "Uncle, don't say that."

"The Wade family is also kind."

"After all, I am the future daughter-in-law of the Wade family."

"They think it would be somewhat rude if I were to come back alone."

Richard said casually, "I didn't approve of you marrying to China at first."

"Our royal family has never married people outside of Europe for so many years."

"I am also considering this issue in the past few days when you went to China."

"Out of respect and protection of the royal blood, I think you should not marry Chinese, just find a suitable young talent in Europe to marry!"

As he said, he glanced at Aman Ramovic and said casually, "In my opinion, young talents like Mr. Aman Ramovic in Europe are no worse than the Wade family!"

Helena said with an embarrassed look, "Uncle...The marriage contract has been booked, how can we change it if we say it...If it is passed out, others will say that our royal family is not credible...."

Richard said indifferently, "There is such a big incident in the Wade family, it is reasonable for us to cancel the marriage contract."

Helena hurriedly said, "But I can't explain to the Wade family..."

Richard waved his hand and said disdainfully, "What's wrong?"

"Where is the guy from the Wade family? Let him come over, and I will talk to him personally!"

As soon as Richard's voice fell, Charlie stepped into the banquet hall and asked with a smile as he walked, "I'm here, who wants to talk to me?"

Chapter 3437

Seeing Charlie walk in, even though Richard had never seen Charlie, he immediately guessed that he was a member of the Wade family, so he said without a smile, "This gentleman, should be from the Wade family?"

"Yes." Charlie nodded slightly, and asked with a smile, "I heard something when I came in just now, do you have something to talk to me?"

Olivia on the side said immediately, "Charlie, this is my father, Prince Richard of the Nordic Royal Family!"

Charlie nodded and smiled, "Prince Richard, I don't know what do you want to talk about?"

Richard adjusted his tie, and said proudly, "When we made the marriage contract with the Wade family, we didn't know that your Wade family would have a conflict with a mercenary organization like Dragon Hall!"

"And we, the Northern European royal family, has always been clean and self-conscious, and has never been involved in any kind of gray organization!"

"Therefore, in order to maintain the reputation of the royal family, we naturally cannot continue to fulfill the marriage contract with the Wade family. I hope you will bring my words to the Wade family Patriarch after you return.”

As he said, he glanced at Helena and said, “As for Helena, since she has returned, she will stay in the royal family this time and will not return to China with you.”

Charlie smiled and said, “Prince Richard, you are seeing my Wade family lose power, so you want to cancel your marriage unilaterally!”

“If that’s the case, just say it straight, why bother to go around such a big circle and put people in Dragon Hall pull in and step on your feet?”

As he said, Charlie said with an abusive expression, “If Dragon Hall knows that you are using them as a shield to cancel the marriage, in case Wesley is annoyed, he might kill you!”

“How can you fix it?”

Richard’s expression changed in an instant, and he panicked.

He originally wanted to find a reason to cancel the marriage with the Wade family, but he said that the Wade family is losing power so the royal family is unwilling to continue the marriage with them. If this is spread out, everyone can see that it is the royal family’s backtracking.

Therefore, he can only attribute the cause to principle.

The most reasonable argument is to take the royal family’s cleanliness and self-care as the principle. Since the Wade family compromised with the Dragon Hall, it proved that the Wade family had an affiliation with the Dragon Hall.

The royal family did not want to be dirty by the Dragon Hall, so he used it as a reason to cancel the marriage with the Wade family, which makes more sense.

However, how could Richard think that Charlie was such a provocative master.

Upon hearing what he said, he immediately asserted that he was using the Dragon Hall as a shield, and then directly moved out the Dragon Hall as a threat, immediately causing Richard to chaos.

Don't look at him as a royal prince extremely proud, but if he really faces the Dragon Hall, the shit can be scared out.

So he hurriedly waved his hand and said, "I don't mean it! Don't talk nonsense!"

Charlie smiled and said, "What did I say nonsense? What you said just now, so many people are listening, did I make a mistake?"

After speaking, Charlie said again, "Don't worry, I will definitely bring your words to Wesley. As for whether you have deliberately stepped on him, let him judge by himself."

Chapter 3438

Olivia saw that Charlie had moved out of Wesley to threaten his father, and said angrily, "Charlie! Don't talk nonsense here!"

"Wesley has vengeance against your Wade family for killing his father. His army went to the Wade Mountain, lost the ancestral tomb and half of the family property."

"Everyone in the world knows that, yet you still dare to move out Wesley to threaten others. If Wesley knows that you are pretending to be a fox outside, I believe he will never let you go!"

When other people heard this, they immediately agreed.

After all, the Wade family had just been defeated by Wesley, and at this time Charlie even moved Wesley out to frighten others, which is indeed very unreliable.

Aman Ramovic sitting next to Helena said with a smile, "Mr. Wade, the marriage contract itself is a contract. You can choose to perform the contract, or you can choose not to perform the contract."

"The party who fails to perform the contract will have to pay compensation in accordance with the terms. If there is no breach of contract terms, it is even more free to decide!"

"Everyone is a civilized person. Isn't it necessary to engage in this kind of personal threat?"

Charlie frowned and asked, "I ask you, what kind of thing are you? Is there any place for you to speak here?"

Aman Ramovic didn't think that Charlie, who was like a hairy boy, would dare to humiliate him publicly on such occasions!

Charlie seemed to be in his twenties, but Aman Ramovic was over fifty, nearly twenty years older than Charlie, and being humiliated by Charlie was naturally unbearable.

So, he immediately stood up, patted the table, and yelled, "The man surname Wade! Do you know that this is Europe? Do you think we're in China? Just because of your rudeness to me, do you think I will let you leave Europe?"

Seeing Aman Ramovic gritted his teeth, Charlie didn't speak, but suddenly took a step forward, grabbed his collar, slapped him hard on the face, and pushed him back after he was done.

Everyone at the scene was shocked and speechless.

No one would have thought that Charlie would do it!

As the host, Richard was also dumbfounded, and suddenly he didn't know what to do.

Aman Ramovic also didn't think that Charlie dared to do it directly on himself. When he fell back, his whole body and bones fell apart. He wanted to say something cruel but because his whole body was so painful, he can't speak.

These people at the scene are the so-called noble gentlemen in Europe, and they believe in the dogma: Lao Tzu can kill his whole family secretly, but on the surface he must be polite and must not lose his noble demeanor.

But who could have expected Charlie to act so crudely, he would do it without saying anything, and knock Aman Ramovic to the ground all at once.

Just as everyone was stunned, Charlie moved a chair again, sat in the place where Aman Ramovic was before, and said coldly, "The Nordic royal family has only an asset of more than 20 billion U.S. dollars, and the Russian oligarch thinks my Wade family is a soft persimmon? The combined assets of the two of you are not as good as one-tenth of my Wade family!"

Having said that, Charlie turned his head and glanced at Aman Ramovic, and said lightly, "I know you have a little background in Russia, and you can also ask for some special resources, but I can tell you clearly, your strength is not even a fart in front of me. If you are acquainted, move your chair away and sit down. Otherwise, I have a way to make you die."

Aman Ramovic was frightened by Charlie's coldness, but for a while he was unwilling to admit defeat in front of so many people.

At this time, Prince Richard on the side was thinking deeply in his heart, "Why is this guy with the surname Wade so arrogant? Didn't their Wade family just cleaned up by the Dragon Hall? Does he know how to keep a low profile?"

When he was in doubt, he suddenly thought of something and exclaimed in his heart, "I almost forgot! The Wade family took half of Wade family's assets. It must not be all cash. A large part of it must be Wade family's shares and the Dragon Hall are not good at managing enterprises, will they still rely on the Wade family to operate them in the future?"

"According to this, although the Wade family has lost half of their property, the current Wade family and Dragon Hall should be integrated and become a community of interests to some extent!"

Thinking of this, Richard was suddenly terrified, "No wonder this Charlie has no fear!"

"The Wade family is now substantively bound to Dragon Hall!"

Chapter 3439

The reason why Charlie beat Aman Ramovic is actually to give a sample to the members of the Nordic royal family and make them less pretend to be in front of him.

And he is not afraid of revealing his identity.

After all, there are only a dozen or twenty people here today.

As long as he wants, he can put all these people on the ground and rub them hard, and then save the dying Nordic queen, and then help Helena ascend to the throne.

Immediately afterwards, he asked Helena to convict them of any crime, and arrested them one by one.

Or, he can directly give these key figures a psychological hint, so that they will go crazy in the future, and no one will be able to find out the problem.

However, he never expected that Richard was so good at brain supplementation, and he directly supplemented the Dragon Hall as his backing.

It's just that the speculation in Richard's heart is completely opposite to reality.

He thought that the Dragon Hall integrated the Wade Family, but in fact, it was Charlie who integrated the Dragon Hall.

With this idea, he hurriedly got up and took the initiative to help Aman Ramovic up.

Aman Ramovic was beaten and lost face.

He was about to get a bit of face from his mouth.

He blurted out and shouted angrily, "The man surname Wade, you dare to beat me, believe it or not, I will call the former KGB immediately."

"The elites are going to kill...Uhhhh..."

Aman Ramovic didn't finish speaking, and Richard covered his mouth, and could only make a little whimper.

An angry Aman Ramovic, struggling to remove Richard's hand, Richard quickly whispered in his ear, "Aman Ramovic! My friend! You must not provoke this Charlie!"

“They are now giving half of the family property to Dragon Hall, which means that half of the Wade family are working for Dragon Hall!”

“In the face of such great interests, Dragon Hall must support the Wade family!”

“You know those former KGB agents from, even all called out in a row, not enough for the Dragon Hall!”

When Aman Ramovic heard this, his expression was stunned for an instant, his eyes widened, but there was no anger inside, and all that was left was panic!

He exclaimed in his heart, “Damn! How the hell I didn’t expect this!”

“Doesn’t this mean that the Wade family took out hundreds of billions of euros of property to pay for the protection of Dragon Hall?”

“The protection paid by the Wade family, it should be ten times more than all of my assets.”

“Looking at the face of so much money, Dragon Hall will definitely stand out for Charlie.”

“I’m really blind. I was about to provoke him now...”

Thinking of this, Aman Ramovic couldn’t wait to slam himself to death.

As far as he knew the resources of the former KGB, in front of the Dragon Hall, he was afraid that he would not even count as a fart.

So, he hurriedly said in a panic, "I'm sorry, Mr. Wade, it's my mouth! I was wrong!"

Charlie naturally heard what Richard was whispering with Aman Ramovic just now.

Seeing that they were misunderstanding, he didn't say much.

He just asked him coldly, "Why didn't you finish what you just said?"

"What do you want to do with KGB elites? To kill me?"

"No, no!" Aman Ramovic shook his head like a rattle, and said in a trembling voice, "I don't know any KGB elite at all."

"I just brag about it. Please forgive me, Mr. Wade..."

Charlie said blankly, "Do you think I'm so foolish?"

Aman Ramovic said in a panic, "Mr. Wade...I...I really don't mean anything else...Don't think too much..."

Charlie waved his hand, "I don't want to listen to your nonsense."

"You slap your mouth until you get swollen on both sides, after that, you move your chair away from me!"

Aman Ramovic suddenly didn't know what to do.

Richard hurriedly made peace at this time and said with a smile, "Mr. Wade, it's such a trivial matter."

Chapter 3440

"Please don't take it to your heart. We might as well turn this page quickly. So we can enter the banquet..."

Charlie glanced at him and said coldly, "Is the face of my Wade family that a Russian oligarch can humiliate?"

"And you are the same. The royal family of a small country is also worthy of the yin and yang in front of me."

"Arrogant? Who gave you the courage?"

Richard also panicked.

The stronger Charlie is, the firmer he will be in his judgment.

The more so, the more he was afraid that Charlie was really angry, otherwise if the Dragon Hall was really to deal with him, he would not be able to resist it at all.

So he hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, just now I have a problem with my attitude."

"I apologize to you and hope that we'll let this pass. I'm really sorry..."

Olivia didn't think that her father would be soft to Charlie, and blurted out, "Dad! How can you apologize to him?!"

Richard blurted out and scolded, "You shut up!"

Olivia didn't expect his father's attitude to change so quickly.

Just when she was about to ask what happened, Aman Ramovic next to Richard had already started to bow from side to side and slammed his own cheeks.

He was really frightened by Charlie, for fear that Charlie would be dissatisfied, and directly let Dragon Hall deal with him.

Olivia was stunned, and really didn't understand why Dad and Aman Ramovic were so afraid of Charlie.

And Aman Ramovic slapped himself with dozens of slaps and really swelled his cheeks before asking Charlie vaguely, "Mr....Mr. Wade, are you now satisfied?..."

Charlie glanced at him, waved his hand impatiently and motioned to him to get out.

Aman Ramovic received an amnesty, quickly moved a chair, ran to the farthest point of the long table, and sat down honestly.

At this time, he didn't have the slightest thought of revenge in his heart, but silently prayed, hoping that Charlie would not trouble himself.

As for Helena, if he can't marry her, just forget it. He knows that he can't offend the Wade Family for Helena.

Who could have imagined that Aman Ramovic, a magnate European oligarch, is now in front of a Chinese person and has to be forgiven by constantly slapping himself in the face.

Olivia couldn't understand it anymore, and lowered her voice to ask the fiancé William next to her, "What the hell is going on? Why can't I understand it?"

William shook his head and said in surprise, "I don't know, I don't understand either."

William's parents suddenly thought of going with Richard, so his father George Rothschild hurriedly said in a low voice, "William, talk less at this time and don't provoke the guy with the surname Wade."

George knew very well in his heart that although his surname was Rothschild, his relationship with the real core family was far away, far enough that he had been thinking of ways to get closer.

Under this circumstance, the energy that oneself can mobilize is naturally much worse than that of Charlie.

What's more, the Wade family are likely to have the Dragon Hall behind them.

Therefore, if you can't provoke others, don't do it, otherwise it will not end well.

William didn't understand why his parents were also afraid of Charlie.

He wanted to ask what happened, but he was scolded by his father's stern eyes, so he had to give up.

Olivia couldn't figure it out even more, and she thought to herself, "Why are both my father and William's father afraid of Charlie?"

“This is Northern Europe...”

“Is it necessary to be so afraid of him?”

Chapter 3441

Richard had already regarded Charlie as a plague god at this moment because of his inner brain replenishment.

Right now, he just wants to stabilize the current situation and stop having any new conflicts with Charlie.

So, he quietly gave Olivia a warning look, and then he asked Charlie, “Mr. Wade, then let’s officially start?”

Charlie nodded slightly, without speaking.

Richard breathed a sigh of relief, and then quickly announced that the banquet for relatives and friends before the wedding had officially begun.

During the dinner, Richard put down his previous so-called royal figure and frequently toasted Charlie, his expressions were respectful.

Olivia really didn’t understand, so she called her father aside for an excuse and asked him in a low voice, “Dad, what happened to you all of a sudden? Why are you so humble to Charlie?”

Richard warned, “The Wade family and Dragon Hall may have worked closely together. Don’t touch Charlie’s brows for the time being.”

Only then did Olivia figure it out, and hurriedly asked, “Dad, what about Helena’s marriage?”

Richard said, “This matter will be delayed for the time being. Look at Aman Ramovic’s solemnity, even if you ask him to take Helena away, he may not dare do it.”

Olivia gritted her teeth and said unwillingly, “If Helena marries the Wade family, wouldn’t she be supported by the Dragon Hall?”

Richard comforted, “Don’t think about it for now, hurry up to finish the wedding, and then hurry up to take the throne.”

“That is more important than this!”

“As for Helena, you don’t have to worry too much, she herself is seriously ill, even if she marry the Wade family and have Dragon Hall backing, how many years can she live for?”

When Olivia heard this, her expression finally eased a little.

However, in her mind, she couldn’t help thinking of her fiancé William’s plan to cheat Charlie before, and she wanted to ask her father for advice.

But after another thought, she felt that her father was a little scared of Charlie now. If he knew it, he would definitely not agree, so she didn’t say more.

Back at the dinner table, William asked her in a low voice, “Olivia, do we still want to do the thing we discussed?”

“Let’s do it!” Olivia replied in a low voice, “As long as the croupier you mentioned is a good player, don’t be found out, it’s upright and no one is afraid.”

From Olivia's point of view, although the Dragon Hall is powerful, it is not daring to do everything. If Charlie loses money here today, then he has to be willing to gamble and give in. After all, the Dragon Hall is a mercenary organization. If they dare to come forward, it will naturally trigger resistance from the whole society.

Therefore, Charlie could not be easily let go without saying anything this time, at least the Concorde airliner had to be left behind.

For these two people, the Concorde airliner, the top luxury for top players, is so attractive that it is unparalleled. Since the evil intentions have been moved, they will definitely not be easily dismissed.

Chapter 3442

Sure enough, when the dinner was almost going on, a young man in his thirties at the dinner table smiled and said, "Everyone, it's still early, do you want to play two poker?"

When Charlie heard this, he raised his eyebrows lightly, and said in his heart, "It's finally coming."

As soon as they heard that they were going to play poker, several other young people at the table were all interested and raised their hands one after another.

One of them smiled and said, "Okay! Let's play a game!"

"Count me in!"

"Me too!"

In the blink of an eye, five people raised their hands.

William deliberately didn't raise his hand for the first time, but waited until these people were eager to try, and said, "Well, me too."

After speaking, he looked at Charlie and was wondering what kind of words to fool him, Charlie took the initiative to raise his hand and said, "I also like to play, count me in."

William almost cheered with excitement.

"I was still looking for an entry point, and I tried my best to invite Charlie into the pit naturally, without thinking that Charlie would jump in by himself."

"Perfect!"

So he pretended to be polite and said, "I really don't think that Mr. Wade also like to play. If that's the case, then everyone will play for entertainment."

Charlie also said with a friendly face, "Haha, Mr. Rothschild is right! Entertainment! I have no other hobbies, so I like playing cards. Although my card skills are very stinky, I just like playing cards!"

"Basically, I only play cards once a year and I have to lose two or three billion."

William was crazy in his heart, but he smiled and said, "It looks like everyone is the same! I am also very poor in card skills, but I love to play! I lose a lot of money every year for playing."

Charlie said indifferently, "Everyone is a young man, of course it's our happiness to play! What's the point of losing some money?"

Olivia said with a smile, "Since everyone wants to play, then I will play games with you too!"

After all, Olivia said again, "So everyone moves to the second floor, there is a leisure center, and there is also a card table."

Everyone naturally agreed with joy.

Olivia's father Richard sighed in relief, and thought to himself, "It seems that Olivia and my future son-in-law are actively trying to mingle with Charlie. These two children can let go of their previous grievances so quickly. Surely, they are all young talents with extraordinary eyesight."

Thinking of this, Richard also relaxed, and then smiled, "You young people who love to play cards go up and play together. I will have a few more drinks and a few words with Mr. Rothschild, and I won't follow you. Please help yourselves to go there."

William's father, Busch Rothschild, thought the same as Richard at this time. He also felt that the children had already recognized the reality and were also pleased with the maturity of the children, so he didn't think too much. He smiled and said, "Yes! You young people go and play, we two old men have a few more drinks."

So, a group of people stood up and prepared to go to the second floor.

Charlie said to Helena next to him, "Helena, come with me."

Helena nodded lightly, and went to the second floor with Charlie.

The royal family is on the second floor of the castle. There is a leisure center of nearly 1,000 square meters. Here, there are not only gyms, billiards, audio-visual halls, KTV and other facilities, but also exclusive areas such as Finnish baths and spas, and even playing Texas poker.

Texas Poker is very popular in Europe and the United States.

After the efforts of major casinos in Las Vegas, this kind of game has almost become the most popular poker game in the entire Western world, and it has even become popular all over the world.

Although Charlie rarely played cards, he also knew how to play Texas Poker. He guessed that William and Olivia wanted to play a killer game for himself today, so he planned to use the tricks and treat them as fat pigs.

Everyone came to the poker table, and the man who played the cards earlier volunteered and said, "Well, everyone is relatively strong financially, so it must be fair and enjoyable to play, so today I will be the croupier, just give me a little dividend at the end."

Dividends to croupiers are very common in the West, and not everyone has to pay. Those who only need to win money take a few percentage points from their winnings, so everyone has no opinions.

So, the man brought a brand new set of poker and said with a smile, "Come on, everyone, check if there is any problem with this deck. If there is no problem, I will start dealing!"

Chapter 3443

Because the poker game was a temporary motive, and the person who volunteered to be the croupier, so except for Charlie and Olivia, the other participants did not doubt at all.

Moreover, this place is the own game room of the Nordic royal family, and playing cards are also unopened brand new products in the game room inventory, so no one doubt it.

In fact, there is no problem with playing cards.

The real problem is that the lies with the dealer.

He is a master of gambling, and he has made his fortune by gambling.

Even if he is playing cards with professional players, he can make a lot of money without knowing it, let alone facing such a bunch of amateur players.

This person has extremely fast hand speed, very good memory, excellent finger flexibility, comparable to a close-range magician, so when he shuffled the cards, no one knew that he had already kept the position of each card in mind.

Afterwards, he seemed to cut and insert cards at random, already arranging the playing cards according to his own predetermined rules.

At this time, Olivia also issued a stack of chips to everyone, and said, "Everyone, each of us will have 100 million euros in chips."

"We should have 100 million euros of chips in our hands to continued to play."

"Whoever has less than 100 million euros at the end of the game will take out the missing money."

"The winners will be divided according to the amount they won. What do you think?"

Everyone naturally has no opinion.

After all, Olivia is not a real casino here.

When playing in a casino, everyone will first spend money to buy chips from the casino, and then return the money.

But this kind of private gambling between friends is generally not handled by someone.

Instead of buying chips in the market, the chips are issued first, and the one who loses will use the money to pay it.

This is also more convenient for statistics.

However, just as the others nodded, Charlie said, "Let me just cut in."

"There is only 100 million euros in chips. Is it a bit less?"

"Is this less?" A guy who Charlie didn't know blurted out, "It's just for fun, one hundred million is a lot!"

Charlie waved his hand, with an expression that couldn't look at him, and said, "One hundred million euros is not fun, and if I don't have enough chips, I will be unhappy when I place a bet!"

Olivia hurriedly asked, "What does Mr. Wade mean?"

Charlie smiled and said, "It's easy, just multiply the face value of all the chips by ten times."

As he said, he picked up a one-hundred-thousand-dollar chip and said, "Look, this one-hundred-thousand chip represents one million euros, and the one next to it is 10 million euros."

The others couldn't help taking a breath.

One of them secretly thought, "Damn, he's really rich! The entertainment cards have to be played for a billion euros, which is too scary."

Most of the other people also mean the same.

Playing too much is beyond their capacity.

This group of people can lose tens of millions at most, and if they really want to lose 100 million on this occasion, they will definitely collapse.

However, William was extremely excited.

Chapter 3444

He knew very well in his heart that he had secret help from the croupier and would definitely eat Charlie to death.

Not to mention the maximum of one billion euros.

So he opened his mouth and said, "Everyone, Mr. Wade is a guest from afar."

"Don't let Mr. Wade be disappointed. If you really feel that the bet is too big, don't force your bet."

When everyone heard this, they could only nod their heads in agreement.

After all, William is regarded as half of the master, and he is also a member of the Rothschild family, and his face is greater than the others.

As for Charlie, the Wade family behind it is indeed worth more than 100 billion Euros, and he is also a member of Dragon Hall.

Dragon Hall has inextricably linked relationships, and everyone can only follow them.

Seeing this, the croupier smiled and said, "Okay, since everyone has discussed the rules, then I will deal the cards now."

Immediately afterwards, he dealt the first card to the first person on his right, and then he dealt the cards in sequence.

After the cards are dealt, they started betting.

Charlie didn't care about what card he was.

As long as he came in front of him, he immediately dropped a chip of 1 million euros.

After a few rounds, he dropped a chip of 4 million euros, but it actually represented 70 million amount of funds in Euros.

Others couldn't adapt to this large bet for a while, and they fold and wait and see.

At the poker table, only Charlie and William were left.

Immediately afterwards, the dealer said, "Please showdown!"

Charlie turned over his hole cards casually.

His cards were only a mere pair and three miscellaneous cards.

In Texas Poker, they were very small.

And William actually got a bomb card in the first game, with four jacks and a miscellaneous card in his hand, which was much larger than Charlie's card.

The croupier immediately announced, "In this round, William won."

With some excitement, William gathered all the chips in front of him, and said with a smile, "Mr. Wade, I'm sorry!"

Charlie said indifferently, "Oh, it's only tens of millions. Why are you so polite?"

"Besides, there is a saying at our China poker table: The first thing you win is paper, and the second thing you win is money."

"You have to wait until the end. It takes a moment to know."

William couldn't help giving Charlie a thumbs up, and praised, "Mr. Wade is really extraordinary! Then let's continue?"

Charlie nodded and smiled, "Come on!"

William winked quietly at the croupier.

Just now, Charlie's card face was too small.

In this round, he wanted to make Charlie's card face bigger, so that he could also make Charlie bet bigger.

In this round, the croupier made a bomb card for Charlie, and then made a straight flush for William.

Charlie was also deceived.

Seeing that the hand was very large, he threw 20 million chips in a row.

According to the agreement, this was equivalent to a bet of 200 million euros.

Only him and William were left in the game.

When the cards were opened, William directly threw a straight flush.

The other people on the scene were taken aback, and one after another sighed that William was very lucky.

The croupier announced again, "In this round, William won."

While collecting the chips, William sighed, "Mr. Wade's hand is really big, but my hand is still bigger. Please forgive me!"

Charlie waved his hand indifferently, "Take it, take it, take it all, it's just a little drizzle, to me, it's just sprinkling water, and the hair doesn't count."

Olivia looked at Charlie's indifferent look, and couldn't help but sigh inwardly, "He really is a money-burning dude!"

"Looking at it this way, William will definitely win a Concorde airliner tonight!"

"From now on, after ascending to the throne, I can travel all over the world on a Concorde airliner."

"It is also unique among the royal families in the world!"

William was equally excited. Seeing that he had won Charlie more than 240 million euros with two hands, he said, "Well, Mr. Wade, according to our previous regulations, you have lost more than 100 million euros now."

"I have to spend money to buy back these chips."

Charlie frowned, "I'll start buying back at this time? Didn't it mean that I bought it after losing all the chips? I still have a lot of money."

William said embarrassingly, "But what we just said is that 100 million euros will be settled once after losing."

"You lose more than 200 million. The actual amount is calculated at ten times the face value of the chips. This is what you just proposed..."

Charlie said disdainfully, "I will lose 200 million with a single card. According to you, do I have to pay you twice in a single card? Aren't you annoying?"

William hurriedly said, "Oh, Mr. Wade, otherwise we can settle the bill one game at a time..."

Charlie said disgustedly, "I think you look like a dog, and I thought you should also be a refreshing person."

"I didn't expect you to be like a lady when you play cards?"

"It's so troublesome for one game and one bill."

"How can we have fun?"

"Since those 100 million chips represent one billion euros, just wait for me to lose all these chips and give you one billion euros."

With that said, Charlie saw that he wanted to talk again, and immediately said with a disdain, "Don't talk nonsense with me, or I will give you the money now, not f*cking with you!".

Chapter 3445

When William saw that Charlie was a little angry, he immediately explained nervously, "Mr. Wade, don't get me wrong, I didn't mean that..."

After speaking, he continued, "I thought that our rules are still the same as we just set, one hundred million euros per checkout, but since you have said so, then I won't be nonsense."

"After losing hundreds of millions of euros, let's wait until the game is over, and then pay according to the actual lost amount."

“What do you think?”

Charlie nodded in satisfaction and smiled, “Yeah! This is what a d*mn I said!”

“Otherwise I thought you were the kind of poor guy who had never seen money, and just won a little money, you can’t wait to put them in their pockets for safety.”

Speaking of this, Charlie said seriously, “Let me tell you something from my heart, what I doesn’t look down on the most is such a stupid bird!”

“Yes, yes, yes!” After hearing this, William knew that Charlie was scolding himself, but he nodded and said flatly, “Mr. Wade is right. Coming here to play, we should be ready to play with indeed bigger money!”

After speaking, he hurriedly said again, “Come, let’s continue!”

Charlie nodded, “Come on.”

In this round, William got a handful of three Aces, and Charlie also got three, but it was three Kings.

However, William had an Ace as his hole card.

Charlie could only see two Aces, so he deliberately dropped 20 million chips and said with a look of determination, “I guess you can’t have three Aces!”

William smiled slightly, and also dropped 20 million chips, and said with a smile, “Since Mr. Wade is so confident, why don’t you raise another bet?”

Charlie shrugged his shoulders, "If you want to add, just add. I'm not afraid of your aggressive skills."

After that, another 20 million chips were thrown in.

This time, Charlie bet 400 million euros.

Immediately afterwards, it was time for the showdown again.

William flipped out an Ace from his hole card and said with a smile, "I'm sorry, Mr. Wade, I really have an Ace in it!"

When Olivia saw this, she almost jumped up excitedly.

The others looked at them with amazement.

Charlie has lost almost 700 million Euros to William now, and it has only been less than twenty minutes!

However, Charlie didn't care at all.

He shook his head lightly, and smiled, "William, it seems that you have a fortune tonight!"

After that, Charlie said again, "I still don't believe that my luck is better than you! Come on, let's continue!"

Others found out that they had completely escorted away.

Because of such a big bet, they didn't dare to mess with the cards even if the cards were good at the beginning, so it soon came to the face-to-face confrontation between Charlie and William.

With this hand, Charlie deliberately controlled the rhythm of the betting.

Chapter 3446

When he successively placed almost 20 million euros, his chips still had a face value of seven or eight million, and the table was equal to seven or eight million.

If Charlie loses this one, then he would have lost more than one billion, and he will soon use real money to buy chips from William according to the regulations.

William was also very excited at this time.

It wasn't half an hour before he had won nearly one billion euros.

This feeling was almost like a dream.

Charlie played steadily and threw another five million chips in, leaving only more than two million in his hand.

William wanted to force Charlie to pay a sum of money quickly, so he immediately threw 10 million chips in, and said, "Mr. Wade, I bet 100 million, but you seem to have no chips."

Charlie shrugged his shoulders, threw a big hand of cards aside, and said, "I fold."

There was an uproar in the crowd.

“Does this fold?”

“Throw one or two hundred million, and then fold when he says to fold. Will this guy play?”

“I knew he was so stupid. I just said I had to eat him! I can’t let William make all the money!”

William was almost laughing and blooming at this time, but he couldn’t control his emotions.

He could only relax for a long time before he said, “Mr. Wade, you have no chips for the next game.”

“Do you think you can settle the money first?”

Charlie frowned, and said with an unhappy expression, “This is really the f*ck! Why is my luck so bad today...”

After speaking, he looked at William and asked, “I want to spend money to redeem the chips, right?”

“Yes, yes!” William smiled brightly like a chrysanthemum, and squinted his eyes, “Mr. Wade, will I give you my Swiss bank account?”

“Okay.” Charlie nodded and said, “You give me the account number first, and I will arrange the financial payment later.”

Charlie said again, “By the way, inter-bank transfers, and also Euro transfers, must be troublesome.”

“It won’t be there for a while.”

“I can’t let everyone wait here for my money to arrive, or else....”

“... I will bet my Concorde airliner with you first, write you a mortgage agreement, sign the pledge, discount 300 million euros, you only need to give me 30 million chips, enough for me to play another round, right?”

William was laughing crazy in his heart, but he just pretended to be very embarrassed, and said with emotion, “Mr. Wade, your Concorde is indeed very rare, but this Concorde is really an old plane, discounted by 300 million.”

“Is the euro a bit too much?”

Charlie looked at William, and shook his head as if he couldn’t look at him. “So I said that you would be haunted when you do things, like a girl!

“Don’t say that my plane was originally out of print, and again after spending a lot of money on renovations, just say that you won today almost one billion euros.”

“Even if this Concorde airliner is pledged to you at a discount of 300 million euros, the plane will be yours when that happens.”

“What’s the difference between two hundred million and three hundred million?”

Olivia understood this and hurriedly said, “William! Mr. Wade is right, you don’t look like a man too much!”

“You still care about this little thing here, you should hurriedly agree to Mr. Wade and gave him another 30 million chips.”

William came back to his senses at this time, and said, "D*mn it! Anyway, Charlie mortgaged the plane to me."

"No matter how much bargaining chip I discounted, it will eventually fall into my pocket."

"Not only the plane, Charlie also has to give me one billion euros."

"I'm so f*cking lucky today!"

Thinking of this, William hurriedly took out 30 million from his stack of chips, pushed it in front of Charlie with respectful hands, and said with a smile, "Mr. Wade, 30 million chips, please accept it."

Charlie reached out and took the 30 million chips, nodded lightly, then looked at Olivia, and said seriously, "Oh, Olivia, to be honest, you found such an object, but you are really blind!"

Olivia also feels that William is a bit uncomfortable, but after all, the two of them are playing couples today.

How much William wins from Charlie today, the half will still fall to Olivia.

Charlie piled the chips in front of him, took the initiative to ask for paper and pen, wrote a simple mortgage agreement, then signed and pressed his fingerprint.

After it was settled, he handed the mortgage agreement to William, then glanced at the dealer who dealt the cards, and said with a smile, "Buddy, you have to deal well with us in this round."

"You see, I lose at lot. With so many, it's time for me to win a round, right?"

The croupier was about to make a polite sentence, but he suddenly felt an invisible energy pouring into his brain, and then immediately nodded respectfully.

However, except for Charlie, no one noticed this....

Chapter 3447

When the four cards were issued, Charlie quickly got three Aces, two of which were on the bright side.

And William's hand has 10, J, Q, K, and it is all spades.

Seeing this card, William knew in his heart that his croupier buddy should be planning to give himself a straight flush, and then give Charlie a four Aces.

Straight flush is the largest card type in Texas Poker, and it kills all others.

Charlie had exposed two Aces at this time, and the best card type was four Aces.

Even if he has four Aces, it is impossible to win against straight flush.

Therefore, William had no doubt that Charlie would lose, and he would win.

But Charlie didn't seem to believe in evil, and after a few rounds of betting, almost all the chips were pressed in.

Seeing that the last card was dealt, Charlie said with a smile, "William, if I lose this, the plane will go to you, and I will also immediately send the billion euros.”

William was so excited, his heart rate was a bit chaotic, and he blurted out, “I’m sorry, Mr. Wade, look at this hand, it cost you money today!”

“Hey!” Charlie waved his big hand indifferently, and said lightly, “This little money is a fart. The Dragon Hall will give my Wade family with hundreds of billions of euros as soon as I speak.”

As he said, Charlie laughed, and added, “Today, I’m your God of Wealth. I came from a long distance to give you some pocket money.”

“How much you can win is up to your ability!”

With that said, Charlie glanced at the croupier and said with a smile, “Come on, deal the cards!”

The croupier immediately began to deal the last card.

The card to Charlie was an ace of spades.

Seeing Charlie got the ace of spades, William was not at all surprised.

It seemed that his friend was going to give Charlie a four Aces, which was second only to a straight flush.

However, William believes that the card his friend made for himself must be a straight flush of 9, 10, J, Q, and K.

As long as he get a straight flush, he can defeat Charlie’s four Aces.

Therefore, he firmly believes that his last card must be the 9 of spades!

At this time, Charlie directly turned over his hole cards and said lightly, "William, I have four Aces."

"It seems that you can only win with a straight flush."

"This straight flush is not so easy to take."

William smiled confidently, "Mr. Wade, I was very lucky today, so I'm sure that my last card must be the 9 of spades!"

Charlie curled his lips, "I don't believe you at all!"

William raised his eyebrows, and asked with a smile, "Since Mr. Wade doesn't believe me, you might as well let the croupier deal directly with the cards."

"Let's hurry up and decide the outcome!"

"Don't!" Charlie stretched out his hand to stop, and laughed, "Since we have played, then we might as well bet a little bigger."

"For this hand, let's add another 2 billion euros."

"How about an exciting play?"

Everyone at the scene is crazy.

One person blurted out, "An additional 2 billion euros per person?! This...this is life-killing!"

Chapter 3448

Another person echoed, "I have never seen such a big gambling game..."

"Yeah...me too...d*mn exciting!"

William was also stupid.

To say that Charlie's previous performance was a qualified scavenger boy, then Charlie's performance now seems to him to be a Jesus for scavenging wealth.

He has seen someone giving money, but he had never seen someone sending money like this before.

Directly add 2 billion?

The money was so big that William didn't dare to ask for it!

So he said nervously, "Wade...Mr. Wade...in my opinion, we don't want to add any more in this round...2 billion euros is really too big."

"Now, even if you don't take money seriously, you can't throw money like this..."

Charlie smiled and said, "Your card is still not dealt, how do you know that I must be throwing money?"

William said embarrassingly, “Mr. Wade, I’m not joking with you.”

“I really think my chances of winning in this round are much higher than you.”

“Or we will just open the cards, just use these chips on the table, whoever wins. , Don’t add any more, okay?”

Charlie sneered and said sarcastically, “I’ll just say that you are like a girl!”

“You are wronged by a single word! You have already won a d*mn billion, what are you afraid of?”

With that, he said to Olivia again, “You persuade your fiancé!”

“If he is soft at the critical moment, how can he become the queen’s husband in the future?”

Olivia panicked too.

She knows that William will win, but she also knows that if William wins too much, it is likely to have a big problem.

Counting the previous ones, if Charlie entered another 2 billion euros, it would be 3 billion euros in cash plus a Concorde airliner.

With this card alone, Charlie lost more assets than the entire Nordic royal family owns.

Seriously, how could she not be afraid.

What she thought in her heart was, "If Charlie loses in a hurry, what should he do if he have to retaliate against William?"

"What if he recruits Dragon Hall?"

But what Olivia didn't know was that Charlie didn't lose eye quickly, but William was scolded at this time by Charlie.

He said angrily, "Mr. Wade, I hope you can figure it out."

"I don't want to follow up the two billion bet, not because I am not a man enough, but I don't want to beat you too much!"

"I am leaving you a chance, but why do you want to be aggressive again and again?"

Charlie smiled and said, "William, your kind of thinking is a typical poor thinking!"

After speaking, Charlie sneered and said, "You, just like those old men who bought Rolls-Royce, they came to tell me that Rolls-Royce fuel consumption is high, and I persuaded him not to drive a Rolls-Royce."

"You said that this kind of poor hanger doesn't move their poor minds."

"Think about it. If I can spend millions of euros to buy a Rolls Royce, can't I still not be able to add a hundred euros a box of gasoline?"

Everyone around listened and laughed secretly.

Although Charlie had been losing large sums of money, it was extremely stupid in their eyes.

But they also had to admit that Charlie's words made sense.

People have money. Do you need someone much poorer than him to teach him how to save money?

William was really embarrassed when he heard these words.

He really didn't think that Charlie would take the initiative to ask for death.

Moreover, he regards his kindness as the liver and lungs of a donkey, and humiliating himself in public is a poor hangover!

He couldn't help cursing in his heart, "Oh, the man surname Wade!"

"I kindly wanted to keep half your life, but you don't appreciate it! That's OK, I will beat you today!"

"There is nothing to make you cry tears!"

Thinking of this, he slapped the table and said sharply, "Okay! Two billion is two billion!"

Charlie nodded in satisfaction and smiled, "Come on, before the last card is drawn, just like I wrote you a mortgage agreement just now, let's write a two billion IOU, sign and put it on the table."

William sneered, "Just write! Do you think I'm afraid of you?"

Charlie smiled and said, “Okay, then write quickly, so many people have witnessed, no one can play a rogue.”

“Okay!”

William, who was already angry, immediately wrote a two billion IOU according to what Charlie said.

Charlie was also unambiguous.

He immediately wrote clearly on the paper that he owed William 2 billion euros.

At the same time, he reminded William, “Yes, the payment method must be clearly written, and the full payment must be paid within 24 hours, otherwise.”

“As a breach of contract, liquidated damages, 100% a day!”

William could still think about it at this time, and sneered, “Do you think I’m afraid of you? Come! I’ll write it down!”

Charlie nodded, and wrote the same content on his IOU.

Afterwards, under the witness of everyone, and recorded by everyone’s mobile phone video, the two signed their respective IOUs and drawn them.

Charlie put the two IOUs in the stack at the same time, looked at the croupier, smiled slightly, “Come on, let’s draw the cards!”

With a pair of eyes like a Komodo dragon, William stared at Charlie and sneered, "Mr. Wade, I will let you die today!"

Chapter 3449

At this time, William is ready to welcome 3 billion euros and a Concorde airliner.

Everyone at the scene except Charlie stared at the croupier's hand and held their breath.

This card will determine the whereabouts of billions of euros on the table.

William and Olivia are both in their hands.

Charlie didn't care at all at this time, his expression was neither happy nor sad, not hurried or slow, as if everything had nothing to do with him.

At this time, the croupier picked up a card and suddenly flipped it over and threw it in front of William.

At this moment, William didn't even see exactly what that card was, and the whole person was already struck by lightning!

Because... he saw... his own card... is red!

Charlie's four aces are already there, and if William wants to win, he must be a straight flush.

The ace of spades is already in Charlie's hand, so if William wants to win, the fifth card can only and must be 9 of spades!

Anyone who has blown golden flowers knows that it is extremely rare to get three straight flushes, let alone five straight flushes?

However, William was not worried at all.

Because he knows that his croupier friend can make any cards he wants.

Therefore, he has long concluded that this card is definitely 9 of spades!

However, once the card is red, then William doesn't need to look at what points it is at all, he can be absolutely sure that the card is lost by himself!

Apart from Charlie and Helena, the rest was William's friend.

So when they saw that the hole card turned out to be a red card, everyone couldn't help but let out a cry of extreme regret!

Olivia is about to have a heart attack!

She thought that William grabbed a big one, and was thinking about how to celebrate later, but she didn't think that as soon as she turned her head, William would lose so much in turn!

Suddenly, the future Queen of Northern Europe was extremely nervous, and muttered in her heart, "How could this be...how could it be like this...why not 9 of spades... Why isn't it the 9 of spades!!!"

William was even more confused.

On the contrary, the huge gap of billions of euros left his whole brain blank.

He subconsciously shouted, "This...how is this possible?"

"This is absolutely impossible!"

"My card should be 9 of spades, how could it be a diamond 6!!! Who changed my card?"

Charlie immediately put away the original appearance of the wealthy boy, and watched William coldly sarcastically said, "It is absolutely impossible. Why? Do you control the cards?"

"You expect 9 of spades just because you want it? it's just a f*cking f*ck."

William was crazy, glaring at his croupier friend, and yelled, "It's you! Did you f*cking play with me on purpose?!"

"What good did the surname Wade give you? "

"How could you f*ck me like that?!"

Charlie said coldly, "William, what you said is a bit too irresponsible, right?"

"I only meet you guys for the first time today."

"I don't even know this croupier. It's obviously that your own cards are not good, so why do you blame others?"

“I have lost to you so many times, have I ever blamed the croupier?”

William has long lost his normal thinking.

At this time, he is a completely broken gambler.

He gritted his teeth and said, “You’re so f*cking with me!”

“I have already told him to help me and let me win!”

“But he just made me lose the most important one!”

“There must be a d*mn conspiracy! Charlie! You must be the one who eats the black!”

Everyone was stunned at this time.

It was only at this time that the other escorts realized that William and the croupier were in collusion.

William was also anxious at this time, and the whole person was completely irrational.

He now believes that the croupier in turn cooperated with Charlie and ate himself to death, so naturally he was extremely unhappy in his heart.

But he didn’t think that, in one word, he sold himself.

Charlie stood up at this time and said coldly, “Oh! So you f*cking team up with others to make money!”

“Do you know the rules of the gambling table?”

William was awakened suddenly!

Chapter 3450

Realizing that he had said something wrong, he immediately denied, “I don’t know what you’re saying! I was just talking nonsense!”

Charlie sneered, “Is that nonsense? Good!”

After Charlie said, he looked at the croupier and asked sternly, “You! Explain the situation clearly!”

The croupier hurriedly said, “William asked me to come over today because he wanted me to help him play cards in the gambling game and let him win a sum of money.”

“He has done this more than once, every time at least tens of millions.”

“This time I was also instructed by him, so I helped him out of the game...”

Charlie looked at William and asked coldly, “Come on, what else do you have to say?”

William didn’t know how to respond for a while, and at this moment, he suddenly caught a glimpse of the IOU on the table.

Today, he originally won Charlie’s one billion, and now he entered an IOU of two billion, which means that not only did he win Charlie’s money, he also owed Charlie one billion.

But he felt that all the debt evidence was on the IOU!

As long as the IOU is gone, this account will naturally not count!

As long as you destroy the IOU, the big deal is to play all night for nothing!

So, he thought he could suddenly shot out quickly, stretched out his hand to grab the IOU, and stuffed it in his mouth when he was crazy!

But what he called rapid, in Charlie's eyes, was already as slow as an ant.

At the moment when William wanted to put the IOU in his mouth, he suddenly felt that his wrist was firmly grasped!

Immediately afterwards, he suddenly heard an extremely crisp cracking sound from his right wrist!

Click!

He only felt a sharp pain in his right wrist.

He looked up and found that his wrist was connected to the entire arm with only a layer of flesh.

The bone was broken, and even the broken bone stubble pierced the skin, and blood poured out continuously.

Charlie had already taken the IOU from his hand at this time, and said coldly, "What the f*ck William, if you lose in a game, you suddenly wants to eat the IOU.”

“You are the f*cking scammer!”

With that, Charlie warned him murderously, “If you want to go wrong, the next thing to break like this is the thing in your crotch!”

William was about to collapse, and the cold sweat caused by the severe pain flowed down his entire face.

He knew that he had been ruthless today, and finally realized that Charlie had been pretending to be a pig and eating a tiger before.

But he was really afraid that Charlie would abolish his roots.

So, he can only grit his teeth and say, “Okay! Charlie! You are amazing! I lose the game.”

Charlie sneered and said, “I don’t need you to take it, you pay me the 2 billion euros first!”

“It says in black and white on it, I won’t forgive you for a minute!”

“What?!” William roared extremely angry, “I just won you a billion! Now I lose you two billion, and at best I owe you a billion!”

Charlie said with a serious face, “You don’t play hooligans here with me.”

“Now all the chips on the gaming table are mine.

“Who would you win a billion?”

As he said, Charlie smiled contemptuously, and said, “Besides, the bargaining chip is just a plastic toy, not money, and this kind of IOU written on paper and signed and pledged is money in the real sense, don’t you understand?”

William was mad and blurted out, “Charlie! Are you still not a human?”

“So many people can testify to me here!”

“They are all witnesses!”

Charlie nodded, “There is no problem, you have your witnesses, and I have my iron proof!”

After that, Charlie said again, “Or let’s just do it like this.”

“Tomorrow, let’s be in the local court in Northern Europe.”

“You call all your eyewitnesses to the court, and I will show this IOU in court.”

“Let’s see how the court decides!”

After speaking, Charlie added, “In addition, let the European people judge, whether you owe me 2 billion euros in black and white is justified, or you and others have come up with a thousand harm to me, but in the end I was turned against you!”

When William heard this, his face paled in horror.

But Charlie still didn't finish.

He looked at William and continued, "Oh, right, let the Nordic judicial department study by the way, you are gambling, trying to win me 3 billion euros plus an airplane, such a big thing, according to Nordic law, how many years will it be sentenced?!"
