

Amazing son in law

Chapter 3451

At this moment, William's entire inner line of defense has completely collapsed.

He knew very well in his heart that once this kind of thing was really brought to court, he would definitely be the one who will lost, and it would be a disastrous defeat!

Not to mention the IOUs written by himself, it is now in Charlie's hands. As a descendant of the Rothschild family, and at the same time as the fiancé of the future Queen of Northern Europe, it is enough to completely ruin oneself for playing a card game.

What's more, the pit is 3 billion euros plus an airplane!

If this is spread out, I am afraid it will become the world's largest gambling fraud! The reputation of the family is absolutely devastating!

The most important thing for European royal families and large families is reputation.

If a member of the royal family, even if he is a prince, as long as he has done something that the royal family does not allow and is made public, the royal family will deprive him of his royal status and expel him in order to protect the Royal Palace.

Just like the prince in Great Britain who has been removed from the royal family.

Therefore, if this incident is revealed, the wedding of William and Olivia is absolutely impossible to continue.

Moreover, once such a shameful thing is spread out, it will lose the face of the entire Rothschild family!

They are the third-tier family, and they're usually not being paid attention by the core members of the Rothschild family.

But once such an international scandal is coaxed, the core members of the Rothschild family will definitely be very angry!

At that time, William's entire family, I am afraid, will endure the catastrophe!

In addition, there is one more terrible thing.

In Europe, gambling is no different from fraud! It is to be punished for the crime of fraud!

And the amount of William's fraud is absolutely extremely huge, which will definitely put him in the prison!

Thinking of this, he immediately knelt on the ground with a puff, crying and begging, "Charlie...I was wrong...I shouldn't have cheated you..."

"Please, for the sake of my marriage tomorrow, please spare me... If this thing is really stabbed, my life will be ruined!"

Charlie nodded and said casually, "Then destroy it, what does it have to do with me?"

William knelt on the ground and kept kowtow, crying and said, "Charlie...I know that I have offended you, but please give me another chance..."

“I really know I was wrong, and I will definitely not do it again. I will let my family find a way to help me pay off this gambling debt, I just ask you to raise your hand and let me go...”

Charlie smiled and said, “You have to understand one thing. Now the 2 billion you owe me is clearly written in black and white in the paper. As long as I go to the court to sue you, you won’t have a choice but to pay me. If this is the case, then I why do you have to hold your hands high to you?”

William was almost desperate, crying and said, “Charlie...how on earth can you forgive me? How on earth can you not coax this matter to court?”

Charlie smiled indifferently and said, “This matter depends on the sincerity of your family.”

Chapter 3452

After speaking, he looked at Olivia and said, “Olivia, William’s parents should be drinking with your parents in the banquet hall on the first floor. Now that William has caused such a big thing, I think he can’t solve it.”

“You can take a hard time and call William’s parents up to see how will William’s family going to resolve this matter.”

Olivia was also about to collapse at this time.

She will get married tomorrow. This matter has been announced to the world. Tomorrow the people of the whole country and even the whole European people will pay attention to their wedding ceremony.

If such a big scandal spreads out of his fiancé at this time, and he is arrested by the judicial department, then her reputation as the future queen will be ruined in advance!

So, like William, she will do everything not to take this matter to the public.

So she hurriedly said to Charlie, "Mr. Wade, please wait a moment, I will go and invite William's parents to come up!"

After speaking, she ran out quickly.

In the banquet hall at this time.

Richard Iliad and Bush Rothschild are pushing the cup for a change.

Aman Ramovic, who was slapped by Charlie, had already gone back to the room angrily. The wives of the two also went back to the room first because they were too drunk.

In the banquet hall, these two men are left with a drink.

Both of them are in a very good mood. After all, tomorrow is a good day for the two children to get married. It will not take long after the wedding that Olivia will be able to ascend the throne and become the queen.

At that time, William, as Olivia's husband, will also be officially canonized as Prince.

By then, William, who has the title of Prince, will surely become famous in the Rothschild family.

Maybe, their entire family will be able to squeeze into the second ladder of the Rothschild family.

When the two happily had a drink, Olivia ran down quickly, panting and said, "Dad! Uncle Bush! You go up to the second floor! William is in trouble!"

“Get into trouble?” William’s father Bush asked with a surprised look, “Aren’t you young people going to play cards? What trouble can William do?”

Olivia cried and said, “William was thinking of setting up a game for Mr. Wade, and he joined up with a friend of his to make a million pits on Mr. Wade, but Charlie saw it through, and he lost to Charlie by 2 billion euros. Now Mr. Wade is coaxing to file a lawsuit...”

“What?!” Feeling dizzy, Bush blurted out, “What kind of ambition did he dare to pit money from Mr. Wade? Having said that, does he want to provoke that man surname Wade?”

Olivia also regretted it and said, “William thought that this thing can be done without Mr. Wade knowing it, not only he can win a sum of money from Mr. Wade, but he also thought he has the opportunity to win Mr. Wade’s Concorde. But who would have thought that he would lose to Mr. Wade by 2 billion euros in the end...”

Bush almost broke down after listening.

It goes without saying that 2 billion euros is a huge sum of money. The key is that this incident has been coaxed into the current situation. If Charlie really wants to stab him out, then his son will be completely ruined.

In Europe, if a person’s reputation goes down, everything about him will also go down.

Moreover, for such a large amount of money, I am afraid that he will be in jail from now until his 80th birthday!

William is such a son, and his father can’t let him go to jail for anything!

Therefore, Bush immediately realized that the most important thing at the moment is not to make Charlie poke the matter out!

Do everything possible to reconcile with Charlie!

So he hurriedly got up and blurted out, "Take me over! I'll go talk to Mr. Wade!"

Richard also said nervously: "I'll be with you!"

Soon, the two ran into the card room on the second floor with Olivia.

As soon as they entered the room, he saw William, who had a broken hand, kneeling on the ground and crying.

But Charlie stood in front of him with his shoulders folded at this moment, with an arrogant expression on his face.

As soon as Bush entered the door, he dared not care about his son. He hurriedly came to Charlie and said in a low voice, "Mr. Wade, my son has nothing to do with this matter. I hope you can forgive me..."

Charlie asked him back, "He is your son, but not mine, why should I forgive him?"

Chapter 3453

Seeing that Charlie didn't buy into his begging for mercy, Bush hurriedly said again, "Mr. Wade, my son made a mistake. As a father, I will definitely find a way to make up for it."

“I will try my best to solve the problem. Please don’t be so angry!”

Charlie nodded and said, “Since you have this attitude, then I won’t talk nonsense with you.”

“Your son dare to cheat me, and he cheated me 3 billion euros at one time, plus a Concorde airliner.”

“I grew up so old, and I have never encountered someone so cruel, how do you plan to solve this matter?”

Bush’s face was suddenly sweaty.

He also didn’t think that his own son could be so bold.

Three billion euros, a Concorde airliner... this is not a gambling, it’s a cannibalism!

Still waiting for him to figure out how to give Charlie a satisfactory answer, Charlie shook the two billion euro IOU in his hand, and said lightly, “There is also this IOU written by your son, who owes me two billion euros, how do you plan to settle this debt?”

Bush immediately wiped his sweat on his head.

For such a large amount, and the other party was the Wade family, he immediately realized that if this matter is not resolved, his son is likely to sit and wear it!

Moreover, tomorrow will be his wedding day with Olivia, and if William enters, there will be nothing.

Therefore, now everything is focused on the overall situation, so Bush gritted his teeth and said, “Mr.

Wade...this 2 billion euro debt, I...I will pay it back for my son!"

"Please sir, please hold your hands high!"

Bush is already bleeding this time!

Two billion euros, 20% of his family's total assets, were given to Charlie at once, and the losses had been extremely heavy.

But now in this situation, Bush can't help but hesitate.

After hesitating a little, this matter may be irreversible.

Charlie was not content at all at this moment, but said with disdain, "Even if you pay me 2 billion euros, it will only solve the debt."

"How can he solve my problems?"

"You have to know that this IOU was written by your son in black and white, and it also has his handprint."

"Even if you go to the court, you will also return the money to me, and I believe that the court from Northern Europe can definitely help me get justice."

After speaking, Charlie deliberately looked at Olivia, and then said loudly, "And I still don't know if there are still associates of you guys with William!"

“I’ll leave this to Nordic judiciary, I believe they will be able to find out!”

Seeing that Charlie wanted to stab things out, Bush’s nervous whole body’s blood pressure rose, and his brain was dizzy.

Not only him, even Olivia is about to collapse!

She thought to herself very nervously, “This time, although it was William’s idea, I knew it from the beginning, and I also discussed with William that even the venue for the crime was provided by me.”

“Even I have already made it clear to William that the ratio of one person to one half of the spoils is divided, so at the legal level, I am definitely his accomplice...”

“If Charlie really exposes this matter and transfers this matter to the judicial system, then the judicial system must first interrogate William!”

“And William, a stupid idiot, will surely give me out soon...”

“If it is known that the future queen of Northern Europe cheated a huge sum of money from others, then I definitely won’t have a chance to inherit the throne...”

Olivia, whose heart was about to jump to her throat, hurried to his father Richard’s side, and whispered in his ear, “Dad... this thing can’t happen anyway.”

“This matter was planned by William and I together, once he is caught, he will definitely confess me, then I will be completely finished...”

When Richard heard this, his eyes suddenly went dark and he almost fell to the ground.

He finally got over, gritted his teeth and stared at Olivia, and asked in a low voice, "What the hell is your brain made of?"

"A person who is about to inherit the crown and become a queen, would actually participate in this kind of cheating!"

"You...you are pissing me off!"

Richard is going crazy.

Chapter 3454

Although the Northern European royal family is very popular among the people in Northern Europe, to put it bluntly, this is the mascot of the family and does not have any privileges in law.

Moreover, the actual operation of the Nordic countries is entirely the responsibility of the Nordic government team.

The cabinet and parliament are the real administrators of this country.

The royal family has no actual power.

Once the royal family breaks the law, the Nordic judicial organs will not protect them.

Thinking of this, Richard hurriedly intervened and said, "Mr. Wade, William is certainly at fault!"

"Of course he should be punished!"

“But please also look at Bush’s proactive attitude in solving problems.”

As he said, Richard said again, “Otherwise, Mr. Wade, for William’s pitfall against you, ask the Rothschild family to give you a part of the compensation, which will be treated as private compensation. What do you think?”

When Bush heard this, he immediately nodded and pleaded, “Mr. Wade, you say a number, as long as it is within the scope that we can afford, we will never hesitate!”

Charlie snorted, and said, “Do you think this matter can be solved with money?”

“Do you think my Wade family is short of money?”

“We have even given out hundreds of billions of euros to the Dragon Hall. What’s the deal?”

As he said, Charlie’s expression gradually turned cold, and he sternly said, “I’m just going to exhale now!”

“I grew up and there was no one who dared to cheat me like this!”

“Last time, a guy who didn’t have eyesight stole my bank card.”

“She took me more than 20 billion yuan.”

“I thought she was brave enough that no one could match it.”

“I didn’t expect that someone would want to pit me 3 billion euros and a Concorde today!”

“You, William is so brave! “

As soon as Bush heard this, his body was full of excitement, and then he kicked William who was kneeling on the ground, rushed up, pulled up his collar, and slapped seven or eight big slaps on his face. .

While beating, he cursed, “You are a bastard who has failed in success!”

“I must beat you to death today to give Mr. Wade a sigh!”

William was beaten with tears flowed, but he did not dare to say a word.

He knew that he had caused a catastrophe, and if he didn’t make Charlie satisfied today, he would be all over.

Therefore, now he have to grit his teeth and endure being beaten.

After Bush slapped seven or eight slaps, he raised his head and looked at Charlie.

Seeing Charlie’s expression, he didn’t care at all.

So he gritted his teeth and slapped a dozen more times, and William’s cheeks were congested.

Seeing that William was going into a coma, Bush had to stop first and begged to Charlie, “Mr. Wade, there is no way to fight again... if you continue to fight again, William will not be able to hold the event tomorrow.”

“It’s the wedding day...please forgive him once because he is already like this...”

Charlie sneered, “Your son stabbed such a big thing, you still want to have a wedding?”

“You have a big heart! I advise you to hurry up and announce the wedding postponement directly while it is still not the wedding day.”

“Wait until William is released from prison, and then re-apply, then Olivia will still have an absolute reputation for infatuation!”

Speaking of this, Charlie said with a look of longing, “Think about it! A young girl, waiting for her sweetheart to be released from prison, waiting until seventy and eighty!”

“What a touching love story is this?”

“In the end, when the two white-haired newcomers walked together tremblingly on the marriage hall and announced to the whole world that they had finally achieved a righteous result, everyone would be moved by them!”

“You look at this kind of example all over the world, maybe there is no second one?”

“In my opinion, it can definitely become a love story comparable to “Romeo and Juliet!”

Chapter 3455

Olivia was so embarrassed by Charlie that she wanted to make a hole in the floor with her toes, and then went to the first floor.

What kind of shit “Romeo and Juliet”, how could she wait for William to be released from prison?

She can only wait to get rid of everything with William quickly!

Otherwise, William will go to jail, and he will not end well!

William’s father, Bush, couldn’t hear Charlie’s sarcasm. Seeing that Charlie was completely unwilling to forgive now, his heart was already terrified.

He looked at Charlie and pleaded bitterly, “Mr. Wade, my son has nothing to do with this matter. As long as you tell your conditions, no matter how difficult it is, I will find a way to meet your requirements!”

Charlie ignored him, but looked at William and said in a cold voice, “William, if you want me to hold my hands high, you must first and honestly explain the causes and consequences of the whole thing, including who you made the decision with, on the spot. Among so many people, besides the croupier who dealt the cards, how many of your associates are here?”

William hurriedly said, “No one else...only the croupier is my accomplice...”

“He used to be a croupier in Las Vegas casinos for many years, and his gambling skills are superb, so I often set up games with him and win some pocket money at similar gatherings. This matter was conspired by the two of us from beginning to end, and there was no one else involved.”

Charlie said coldly, “Is what you said the truth? I warn you, if you have half a word to tell the truth, I will call the police immediately!”

“At that time, I will let the Wade family put pressure on the Nordic judicial system and demand to strictly judge you!”

After speaking, Charlie said again, “And you have to think clearly, if you are caught by the police, then you may be in jail for the rest of your life!”

“At that time, I don’t care who you want to defend, but you may not even have the opportunity to meet that person. When that happens, others will still be able to live their own chic life, and you can only be accompanied by the bars.”

Bush heard Charlie’s words and walked up to William, and another slap was slapped on his face fiercely, and he yelled, “Why are you not telling the truth, do you really want to go to jail? It doesn’t matter if you go to jail yourself, but don’t drag our entire family down!”

William was panicked deep in his heart, and he subconsciously cried and said, “I will say now! The planner of this matter is also Olivia, and the two of us discussed this matter together.....”

When Olivia heard this, she immediately furiously said, “William! Don’t spit people! This is your own idea. What does it have to do with me?”

William grievedly said, “I did come up with the idea, but you are also very supportive! And you also said that no matter how much I earn, I will share half of you. If I can take Charlie’s Concorde, the plane will be half yours...”

“You’re nonsense!” Olivia thought, because William was afraid of being investigated, he actually sold all of himself!

She was extremely angry and shouted, “William! At this time, you still want to drag me into the water.”

“I’m a fool! Tomorrow’s marriage doesn’t need to be done, and I will have nothing to do with you in the future!”

Charlie looked at Olivia and sneered, "Olivia, if the Nordic police believe that you are indeed William's associate, I am afraid you will also have to go to jail for a few years!"

Chapter 3456

When Olivia heard this, she burst into tears and pleaded bitterly, "Mr. Wade, you and I have no grievances and no grudges. You must not ruin my future, right? Or you make a price! No matter how much it is. As long as it is within the burden of the royal family, the royal family is willing to pay you!"

Seeing that Olivia had said this, Bush hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, I also mean the same. How can you be satisfied and willing to forgive? Just ask! As long as we can give it, We will all do it!"

As he said, he pointed to William and Olivia and choked, "Look, these two children are still very young, and Olivia will soon become the Queen of Northern Europe. If you won't forgive them, the lives of these two children will be ruined!"

Charlie touched his chin and was silent for a moment, and smiled, "You are right. The two of them are indeed very young. They really want to ruin their future, and I feel a little sad."

After speaking, Charlie sighed and said, "Seeing that you are all so religious, I can choose to forgive this matter, but it depends on the attitude of your two families to solve the problem."

As soon as Charlie said this, the family members immediately understood the meaning of his words.

Since it depends on the attitude, it is natural to show sincerity.

Therefore, William's father, Bush, immediately said, "Mr. Wade, you can rest assured, as long as you are willing to raise your hands, I will pay you the two billion euros immediately!"

When he said this, Bush's heart was bleeding.

Their family has a total of tens of billions of euros in assets, and originally agreed to the Nordic royal family that after the two got married, they would invest a lot of money in the Nordic royal family's industry.

Now, William has smashed such a big basket again. The two billion euros have far exceeded their family's cash flow reserves.

Bush can only use the money he plans to invest in the royal family after marriage to pay Charlie first.

When Charlie heard this, he frowned and asked him, "Your son owes me two billion. This is written in black and white. As his father, it is only natural for you to pay this bill for him. Why should you lick your face and beg me to raise my hand?"

Bush thought that two billion euros would not satisfy Charlie, so he could only bite the bullet and ask him, "Wade...Mr. Wade...how can you be satisfied?"

Charlie said indifferently, "If you want me to hold my hands high, besides these two billion, you have to show some sincerity to make sense."

Bush was so nervous that his voice trembled, and asked softly, "Mr. Wade...how much do you want?"

Charlie said indifferently, "I don't want more. In addition to the 2 billion euros in arrears, another 3 billion euros will be used as compensation, 5 billion is better."

Bush blurted out before his eyes could, "Mr. Wade...five...five billion euros...it is...it is too much...."

Charlie asked back, "Are you dissatisfied?"

Bush almost collapsed and choked, "Mr. Wade...5 billion euros is really too much...we...how can we get so much money..."

Charlie looked at Olivia and said indifferently, "Olivia, since you are also involved in this matter, then your family will also pay five billion euros!"

"In half an hour, I want to see 10 billion euros hit my account!"

Olivia was stunned, and blurted out, "Mr. Wade...this matter, William's family is already willing to pay, how can you let the royal family also pay? You can't make double money, right?"

Charlie nodded and said with a smile, "Olivia, you are really right, I just want to make double money in this matter!"

Chapter 3457

Charlie has now crushed the two families to death.

Neither William nor Olivia could bear the consequences of this incident.

Therefore, they will do their best to find a way to solve this problem.

Although 10 billion euros is a lot, for them, if they tighten their belts, they can get it.

Therefore, Charlie felt that sometimes he wanted to force his enemies.

If they didn't force them, they didn't know how much money they could spend.

Olivia's father Richard was extremely nervous at this time.

He knew that Charlie had already grasped his own weakness, and if this matter was really exposed, the royal majesty would be gone.

At that time, it is impossible for the people to allow Olivia, a member of the royal family suspected of crime, to inherit the throne.

In the same way, they cannot allow him to inherit the throne, after all, he is Olivia's biological father.

At that time, the one who was most qualified to inherit the throne will become Helena, who had been by Charlie's side without talking!

Richard must never allow this to happen!

Therefore, he said without hesitation, "Mr. Wade! I really do not know how to teach my daughter about this matter."

"We are willing to actively resolve this matter."

"Please wait a moment and I will discuss it with the Rothschild family!"

Charlie nodded and said indifferently, "Although you can discuss it, I will give you half an hour and tell me the result after that."

Richard said hurriedly, "Okay! Mr. Wade, please wait a moment..."

After speaking, he immediately looked at William's father, Bush, and said, "Bush, let's talk about this in private!"

Bush also hurriedly agreed, so he respectfully said to Charlie, "Mr. Wade, we'll go out and discuss it first, and give you a satisfactory answer as soon as possible!"

Charlie waved his hand, "Just discuss it here. I will go to see the queen with Helena."

"She wants to accompany the old woman."

No one took Helena's desire to see the queen seriously.

They just want to quickly finalize the solution.

So Richard said without hesitation, "Mr. Wade, you and Helena can go straight up."

"After we negotiate a result, I will go to the ward to see you in person!"

"Okay!" Charlie nodded slightly, and then said to Helena, "Helena, let's go."

Helena hurriedly followed Charlie and walked out of the card room.

As soon as Charlie left, William went crazy.

He rushed to beat his croupier friend, and yelled while beating, "You f*cking dare to cheat me! I'll kill you!"

His dad Bush hurriedly stopped him and yelled, "William! The top priority now is to determine the solution as soon as possible!"

"You don't want to be an idiot here!"

William had to stop.

Richard said to others at this time, "Everyone, please give us a space to be alone."

"We have something to discuss."

Everyone naturally knew the huge problems the two families were facing, so they left one after another.

And the croupier who was psychologically hinted by Charlie lost his soul, so he was taken out by others.

Chapter 3458

After there were only four people left on the scene, Bush said, "Everyone, we must first reach a consensus, that is, we must hold Charlie tonight, and say that nothing will let him stoke this matter out."

"Otherwise, our two families will be all over!"

Richard sighed, "Charlie's mouth wants 10 billion euros, which is 10,000 times more terrifying than the bandits!"

"Where can we get so much money for him?"

Olivia looked at William and said angrily, "William! Now that Charlie wants 10 billion euros in compensation, I think you have to bear it all!"

"Do I have to take all the burden?" William suddenly exploded when he heard this, and said sharply, "Olivia, you said that you want half of the winnings before, but I have no complaints."

"Now you want to make the pot and give it all to me, right?"

Richard said at this time, "William! The quarrel is meaningless at this time!"

"You and Olivia must work together to overcome the current difficulties, otherwise tomorrow will be the moment when you two and our two families are discredited!"

After speaking, he looked at Bush, gritted his teeth and said, "Charlie asked for 10 billion euros. Our Iliad family can pay up to two billion euros."

"I will ask you for the rest."

Bush sighed.

The Nordic royal family is only willing to pay two billion, and the funding gap left for him is indeed a bit large.

However, it is already very good to be willing to pay.

After all, he understands the actual situation of the Nordic royal family, and the two billion in cash is definitely their limit.

However, eight billion euros in cash is also an impossible task for him.

With the current financial situation of his family, he can only spend up to six billion euros today.

If he want to spend eight billion, he must first dispose of some of the assets.

This will not be solved in a short while.

So he opened his mouth and said, "I don't have the ability to solve eight billion euros, which is nearly 10 billion dollars!"

"Where can I get so much cash for Mr. Wade?"

Richard asked him, "Then how much can you put out?"

Bush blurted out, "That's 6 billion euros at most!"

When Richard heard this, he immediately sighed, "Bush, if you expect us to spend four billion euros, then I can tell you clearly that it is impossible!"

"It is not that I do not want to share with you, but I simply can't come up with so much cash!"

"All the assets of the royal family add up to about six billion euros, and a large part of this is in the name of my mother."

"She is still alive, and no one can move that asset!"

Bush knew that what Richard said was true, so he asked helplessly, "What should I do then?"

"Could it be that we just told Mr. Wade that we couldn't make up so much money?"

"Definitely not..." Richard blurted out, "If you tell Mr. Wade so, then he turns around and stabs this matter out, we're done!"

Olivia gritted her teeth at this time, and said, "It's really impossible, so just don't do it, and lets kill Mr. Wade directly!"

"How can this work..." Richard exclaimed, "If we kill Mr. Wade, the Wade family will never let us go!"

"Don't forget, now the Wade family still has the Dragon Hall support!"

Olivia said with a gloomy expression, "Our best solution to this matter is to kill Mr. Wade!"

"Kill him, and then find a way to pretend it to be an accident, as long as we are impeccable and others can keep it a secret, the Wade family can't do anything to us!"

At this time, William seemed to have grasped the life-saving straw, and blurted out, "I think Olivia's method is very feasible!"

"If we kill Mr. Wade, and we don't have to pay the 10 billion euros!"

"As long as we handle it smartly and won't let others find any actual clues, this matter can be fooled!"

A strong killing intent appeared in Olivia's eyes, and said coldly, "Our royal family has raised some special talents, and many of them are masters who are proficient in assassination.”

“In my opinion, it is better to send someone to directly control Mr. Wade.”

“Throw him down from the top floor and throw him to death!”

After speaking, Olivia said again, “After Mr. Wade die, we faked the scene to fall to death, and then told the Wade family that Mr. Wade had committed adultery with Helena!”

“And when Mr. Wade turned the window into Helena’s room at night , he stumbled to death!”

Speaking of this, the corners of Olivia’s mouth raised slightly and sneered, “Mr. Wade doesn’t even have a bodyguard this time, and he is still on our turf.”

“If we want to kill him, so it’ll be so easy!”

Chapter 3459

At this moment.

Charlie and Helena have already arrived at the ward of the queen on the top of the castle.

The guard at the door originally wanted to stop them, but after asking Olivia for instructions, he immediately let them go.

When they came to the ward, Charlie sent the medical staff out and glanced at the old woman on the bed. This was an old woman who was going to die. She had been tortured by long-term illnesses, and she could no longer have the aura and majesty of a queen.

Helena on the side looked at Charlie expectantly and asked him, “Mr. Wade, can you heal my grandma and wake her up?”

Charlie said lightly, “As long as she still has a breath, I will definitely be able to heal her.”

With that said, Charlie walked to the bed, put his hand on the veins of the old woman, and a trace of aura slipped in quietly.

After a while, Charlie gradually frowned and said, “Old lady, I guess you should be the loneliest person in the world now, right?”

As soon as Charlie said this, he felt the old lady’s fingers trembling slightly.

Helena asked puzzledly, “Charlie...what do you mean by this?”

Charlie shook his head and sighed, “Your grandma’s consciousness is still sober, if I guess wrong, she should be able to hear us now.”

“What?” Helena exclaimed, “Can grandma hear us? Then why does she stay in a coma?”

Charlie said seriously, “It’s her body that is unconscious, not her consciousness, it’s just that she can’t control her body.”

After speaking, Charlie deliberately said in a very regretful tone, “The reason I said that your grandma is the loneliest person in the world because no one knows that her consciousness is still sober, and no one knows that she just lost her body control...”

“She is now trapped in her body forever. If she can regain control of her body, she can be truly awake, otherwise, she can only live in a closed brain forever. Cannot communicate with anyone until the body declares death.”

“This kind of thing is not alarmist. A considerable number of vegetative people are actually not brain-dead. On the contrary, their brains are completely faulty, but they have lost control of their bodies.”

“Such people are the loneliest people in the world. Everything in it is very clear, but unable to express, unable to move, can only lie here like a living dead...”

“Some people are lucky and have a chance to wake up after being in a coma for several years or more than ten years, but some people may not be able to wake up after decades of lying in a hospital bed until their bodies die...”

When Charlie said this, he saw the empress with her eyes closed, two lines of tears flowed from the corners of her eyes, but she still couldn't control herself to open her eyes.

Helena was already in tears at this time, and choked up, “Mr. Wade, please save my grandma... Don't let her suffer this kind of inhuman torture again...”

Charlie sighed and said, “I naturally can save her...but...”

When Charlie said this, he felt that the old lady was desperately trying to shake her fingers.

It's a pity that her mind is very strong but her strength is very weak. Although she tried her best, the amplitude of the shaking of her fingers was only a few millimeters.

Seeing this, Charlie thought to himself, "This old lady really has a strong desire to survive. If that's the case, I might as well stimulate her again."

At this moment, Helena stopped talking, and hurriedly asked Charlie, "Mr. Wade, since you have a way, please save my grandma anyway. I will repay your kindness to be your cow and horse in my life....."

Charlie said, "I do have an ancient Chinese medicine that can cure your grandmother, but this medicine is too precious, even a little bit is invaluable. To be honest, for such an old woman, to use this medicine is really not cost-effective."

Helena was a little stunned for a moment. She didn't understand that Charlie obviously promised to save her grandma and help herself become a queen, why now he seems to regret it again.

But at this time, Charlie suddenly turned to look at the unconscious queen on the bed, and said, "Old lady, I do have a way to make you sober again, and I also have a way to make you live for two, or even ten years, but you have to promise me a few conditions. I wonder if you agree?"

When he said this, Charlie could feel that the old lady's idea of trying to control her fingers became stronger.

So Charlie continued, "In this way, I will let you temporarily regain control of your fingers, and then I will make my conditions clear to you one by one. If you can accept it, you will raise a finger, but if you cannot accept it, you can just lift up two fingers."

With that, Charlie put a trace of spiritual energy into the empress's body, allowing it to temporarily control his fingers.

Then Charlie said, "You can now try to control your right index finger and middle finger."

As soon as the voice fell, the queen's two fingers moved up and down a few times.

Helena looked stunned and exclaimed, "Grandma can really hear what we are saying?"

Charlie nodded and said, "So I said she must be lonely."

With that said, Charlie looked at the queen and asked, "My first condition is that after you wake up, you must immediately announce your abdication, pass the position of the queen to Helena, and try your best to help Helena sit on the position of the queen. If you agree, I can guarantee you at least another five years of your life. Can you accept it?"

The queen's right index finger immediately raised it high.

According to Charlie's previous agreement, the queen must raised a finger to agree to the conditions.

Charlie nodded in satisfaction and said, "Okay, my second condition is that you must expel your son Richard and granddaughter Olivia from the royal family. They have to accept and cooperate with the punishment unconditionally, can you accept it?"

As soon as Charlie's voice fell, the queen raised her right index finger again!

Before, Olivia had been in this ward, letting go of harsh words to Helena, and even admitted that the Queen's current terrible situation was related to her, but Olivia didn't know that the Queen actually heard everything clearly.

Therefore, the queen was extremely disappointed in her now, and even hated her.

Hearing Charlie's request, naturally there was no hesitation.

Seeing this, Helena hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade! Grandma has agreed to your terms. Can you save her now?"

Charlie nodded calmly, took out a rejuvenating pill from his pocket, and then divided it into two.

Afterwards, Charlie handed half of them to Helena, and said, "Take this half of the medicine, and all your illnesses will be cured."

Helena looked at the half rejuvenation pill with an unbelievable expression!

No number of top Western doctors can treat her disease.

Even the most powerful modern medicine in the world cannot cure her chronic illness.

However, Charlie said that this half a pill can cure her illness, and her instinct couldn't believe it.

However, she was full of confidence in Charlie's strength.

Therefore, she immediately took the pill and said gratefully, "Mr. Wade, thank you for your life-saving grace!"

After speaking, she put the pill directly into her mouth.

The Rejuvenation Pill melted, and Helena immediately felt that she was surrounded by an indescribable warm current, and the experience was extremely wonderful.

At this time, Charlie divided the remaining rejuvenating pills into two again and put one of it into the queen's mouth.

The medicinal effect quickly takes effect in the queen's dying body, like a dry tree growing out of young leaves, rejuvenating!

Soon, the queen felt that her control over her body was gradually restored, and she subconsciously tried to open her eyes. This was a move that she had tried countless times but failed countless times since she was in a coma for so many days.

And this time, as soon as the mind arrived, the eyes opened smoothly!

Immediately afterwards, a strong dazzling light poured in from the cracks in the eyes, which made the queen, who had been living in the dark like years, burst into tears in a moment...

Chapter 3461

The queen, who regained her body control, tried several times to open her eyes, but failed because of the stimulation of the strong light.

Seeing this, Helena hurried forward and asked with concern, "Grandma, how are you feeling?"

The queen said with difficulty, "He..Helena...I...I'm fine...just...but my eyes can't adapt to the strong light for the time being..."

Helena immediately choked excitedly and said, "Grandma, wait a minute. I'll turn off the headlights!"

After saying that, she immediately got up and turned off all the headlights in the ward, leaving only soft light belts.

Only then did the queen finally open her eyes, and then her eyesight gradually recovered and she saw Helena's face clearly.

At this moment, the queen couldn't help choking and said, "Helena... It's not good for grandma these years... If grandma had known that Olivia was such a vicious person, I wouldn't have given her the right to inherit the throne!"

Helena exclaimed, "Grandma, do you know it?"

The queen nodded painfully, "I heard what you and Olivia said in the ward before..."

With that, she looked at Helena with heartache and choked, "Helena, you have been wronged for so many years!"

The queen naturally knows what Helena has happened over the years.

But in the years before she was seriously ill, she had been very dissatisfied with Helena's concealment of her physical condition, so she was biased against her.

Therefore, she pinned the future of the whole royal family on Olivia.

Even though she knew that Helena had been wronged a lot in the royal family over the years, she chose to turn a blind eye.

But how could she imagine that now it was Olivia, which she valued most, who cheated her, and Helena, who brought someone back to save her, was abandoned as an heir.

Hearing the Queen's words, Helena burst into tears and choked and said, "Grandma, it's okay for me to be wronged, but Olivia not only controls you, but also kidnapped my mother, using my mother as a threat to force me to marry the Russian oligarch Aman Ramovic... I still don't know where she hid my mother... .."

The queen gritted her teeth and said harshly, "Don't worry, I will definitely get justice for you and your mother!"

After saying that, she looked at Charlie, who was standing not far away, and said gratefully, "This might be Mr. Wade! Thank you for saving me..."

Charlie said lightly, "I saved you for the face of your granddaughter Helena, so you must remember what you promised me before and keep your promise."

The queen said without hesitation, "Mr. Wade, don't worry, tomorrow I will announce my abdication to all Nordic countries and give the position of queen to Helena! At that time, I will personally preside over Helena's coronation ceremony!"

After a pause, the queen gritted her teeth and said, "As for Olivia, I will definitely get her due punishment!"

Charlie nodded, shook the remaining quarter of Rejuvenation Pill in his hand, and said lightly, "The medicine I just gave you can make your life last for another two or three years. If you take this part of the pill in my hand, your life can be increased on the basis of two or three years. If you can keep your promise, then after two years, you can come to me in China, and I would also give you this part of elixir."

Chapter 3462

Hearing this, the queen was immediately overjoyed and blurted out, "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I will keep my promise!"

Charlie took out another whole Rejuvenation Pill from his pocket and said with a smile, "As for this whole pill, if you take it, you can live for at least 20 years. If you have been very cooperative, I can also consider giving you more at that time. In this way, there is no problem for you to live to 110 years old.”

“One hundred and ten years old?!” The queen muttered in a daze. She really couldn’t believe that this ordinary pill had such a powerful effect.

However, at the thought of her own experience just now, she threw all her doubts away.

At this time, she thought to herself, “This pill is amazing! I just ate a quarter of it and woke up completely. If I could eat the whole one, the effect would be even more magical!”

Thinking of this, she said respectfully, “Mr. Wade, don’t worry, from today on, I will do my best to assist Helena and cooperate with Mr. Wade’s request!”

Only those who escape from the dead know how precious life is.

This is exactly what is the case for this elderly Nordic queen.

She has experienced a near-death feeling and that long darkness and loneliness, so for her now, living is more important than anything else.

Money, power and dignity are worthless in the face of healthy survival.

So what about the position of the Queen? Isn’t it just a coma and dying several times under the status of a queen?

Now she would rather not have the title of queen, or even any royal title. As long as she can live a long and healthy life, even if she is the most ordinary little lady, she is willing to be.

Therefore, now she immediately has the most important goal in life, which is to strive to get more magical pill from Charlie!

“How can two or three years live again!”

“If you say anything, you will live another 20 or 30 years!”

A few minutes later, the queen gradually regained her body control, and also felt that her physical condition was indeed much better than before she fell ill this time.

She just adapted to a few minutes before she could sit up from bed by herself and even tried to stand on the ground.

At this moment, the queen was very excited in her heart, and at the same time, her momentum gradually recovered a lot.

It was because she had personally experienced the magic effect of Rejuvenation Pill that the queen had worshipped Charlie as a God in her heart. In order to satisfy him, the queen hurriedly and respectfully asked, “Mr. Wade, what instructions do you have on the punishment of the Olivia and her family?”

Charlie said lightly, “I want you to use the power of the royal family to expel Olivia from the royal family and let them be tried by law. It is best to set a life imprisonment without parole!”

At first, when she heard Charlie say that they would be imprisoned for life, the queen still felt a little unbearable.

After all, none of the members of the royal family had been sentenced for so many years, not to mention life imprisonment.

However, when she thought that Olivia had tried to kill herself step by step, and even tried to control her life and death, she became more and more angry and said in a bad tone, "Helena, call the head of the Royal Guard. It's time to settle accounts with Olivia!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Don't bother. Olivia should take the initiative to find it soon."

Helena looked at the time and found that Charlie had just left Olivia half an hour to think about it, and now 20 minutes have passed.

So she asked, "Mr. Wade, if Olivia agrees to your request, will you be lightly at her?"

Charlie waved his hand and said, "Don't worry, she won't agree to my request. I believe she is more willing to kill me than giving me 10 billion euros honestly."

Chapter 3463

Charlie became an orphan at the age of eight.

He has been in the society for so many years and has experienced the cruelty and gloom of society.

He knows very well that in the real world, the words "money is supreme" have always been the eternal truth for many people.

Therefore, when he offered William and Olivia a price of 10 billion euros, he never thought that these people would agree.

The reason why he left them half an hour to think about it was to force them to be murderous.

And he deliberately chose to save the queen at this time, in order to drive William and Olivia to a dead end.

If they decide to accept his terms and honestly come up with a willingness to pay and lose, then he will show some kindness to them in the face of 10 billion euros.

But if they decide to kill him, then in front of the queen, they will definitely go out and kill the queen together.

In that case, they personally pushed themselves into the abyss of immortality.

The queen didn't know the specific situation, and when she heard Charlie's words, she asked with a shocked look, "Mr. Wade, why did Olivia act on you? What is going on?"

Charlie was about to speak, and suddenly he heard dense footsteps coming from far and near quickly.

A smile was wiped across his face, and he said calmly, "They are already here, so let Olivia tell you why..."

At this time, Helena and the Queen did not hear footsteps, and both of them had a little puzzled expression.

After a while, the sound of footsteps became louder and louder, and both Helena and her grandma were shocked when they heard it.

At this time, the door of the ward was suddenly kicked open, and then a dozen people in black rushed in aggressively!

But when they came in and saw the queen who was standing on the ground and could not see the sickness at all, they were all dumbfounded.

At this time, Olivia quickly rushed into the room, and as soon as she opened her mouth, she said in a cold voice: "Tie up the man with the surname Wade!"

As soon as the voice fell, she suddenly saw the queen standing with Charlie, as if she had been struck by lightning, she subconsciously blurted out, "Grand...grandma?!"

Following Richard, Bush and William, they also saw the ruddy-faced queen who was as healthy as the elderly, and were shocked to speak.

After a few seconds, Richard came back to his senses and subconsciously said, "Mom...you...how did you wake up?!"

The queen asked coldly, "Why? Are you surprised? Or do you not want me to wake up at all?"

Richard hurriedly explained, "Mom...how do you think so...I am your son, you have been in a coma these days, I am always looking forward to you to wake up sooner...."

Olivia also reacted. Although she was extremely annoyed at the Queen's awakening, she still pretended to be excited and said, "Grandma! You don't know how much my dad and I worry about you during this time..."

"We have always been afraid that you will never wake up again..."

Chapter 3464

The queen's eyes were as sharp as a knife, staring at Olivia's eyes, and her voice said coldly, "Olivia, stop acting. For so many days, do you think I'm really in a coma?"

“In fact, I know everything that happened around me and I remember every word everyone said by my side!”

Olivia’s face turned pale instantly!

She really did not expect that when the old lady was unconscious, she would have been listening all the time!

In this way, every word she said to Helena before was clearly heard by her...

Thinking of this, Olivia hurriedly explained, “Grandma, listen to my explanation.”

“Many things are actually misunderstandings.”

“Some of the things I said to Helena were actually deliberately scaring her and trying to force her to exchange benefits for the royal family. That’s it, it’s not a fact...”

The queen said contemptuously, “Olivia, I have been deceived by you once, and I almost lost my life in your hands.”

“Do you think I will still believe to what you are saying now?”

Olivia was suddenly nervous.

She really didn’t expect that the old lady would wake up at this juncture, and she didn’t know what to do for a while.

At this time, Charlie looked at her with a smile on his face and asked, "Olivia, how are you thinking about the things I just said?"

"I am a person with limited patience. If you don't give me a solution, then don't blame me for being rude to you."

Olivia didn't expect that she had brought people to surround Charlie.

She dared to talk to him like this at this time, so she gritted his teeth and looked at Charlie, and said coldly, "The man surname is Wade! You repeatedly provoking me, do you really think I am muddled?"

"I tell you, this is Northern Europe, not China! Believe it or not, I can let these people kill you at any time!"

Charlie smiled, not angry, but raised his eyebrows and asked, "Looking at how arrogant you are, you should be planning something horrible?"

"Haha... Am I?" Olivia sneered, "Charlie! Don't forget that this is my place."

"In my place, everything is up to me. I say that between me and you, and between William and you. There was no debt at all."

"Would you dare to say nothing in front of me?"

Charlie smiled and said, "There is nothing I dare not do yet."

"Today I will leave the words here. If your two really decide to fall back on their accounts, I will definitely make you worse off than death.”

Olivia said with murderous intent in her eyes, “Charlie! You Chinese often say that the Raptors are not the river.”

“Since you have been wild and presumptuous in front of me repeatedly, don’t blame me for being rude to you!”

After that, she immediately yelled at the black-clothed people around her, “Grab the man with the surname Wade for me, and throw it out of the window to kill him!”

As soon as Olivia’s voice fell, a group of people in black rushed towards Charlie.

Charlie smiled at this moment, and didn’t pay attention to these people in black at all.

And the queen beside him was furious at this time, and blurted out angrily, “Presumptuous! Mr. Wade is my savior, how dare you be rude to him!”

Although these men in black are all Olivia’s subordinates, they have always played for the royal family and respected the queen.

At this time, hearing the queen’s reprimand, all of them immediately stopped and dared not move forward.

Seeing this, Olivia gritted her teeth and shouted, “Don’t bother with this old woman!”

“She is no longer the Queen of Northern Europe!”

“I am the new Queen of Northern Europe!”

“Do you want to bear the charge of disobedience?”

These people in black didn’t know what to do for a while.

Although they had been obedient to Olivia, they did not dare to directly disobey the Queen’s orders.

When William saw this, he shouted from the side, “What are you still doing?”

“Don’t forget who your master is!”

“As long as you can kill the man with the surname Wade, I can give you one million euros each, no! It’s two million euros per person!”

William’s words tilted the balance in the hearts of these people in black.

Two million euros will definitely allow them to achieve financial freedom.

No one will give up such a good opportunity to make a fortune!

As a result, a crowd of people in black immediately pressed towards Charlie.

The queen did not expect that her order would have no effect on the black-clothed men, so she shouted angrily, “Olivia! If you insist on hurting Mr. Wade, I will not forgive you!”

“At that time, I will let you accept the sanctions of the law!”

Olivia was startled slightly, and then her expression immediately became extremely hideous, and said coldly, “I originally just wanted to only kill Charlie, now it seems that you are forcing me to also kill you old thing as well!”

After that, she sneered, and said murderously, “Fine! Anyway, you old thing should have died long ago!”

“You will go on the road with this surname Wade tonight!”

Chapter 3465

For Olivia, there is only one way to go to the dark now.

Otherwise, she not only have to pay Charlie billions of compensation here, but they will also be sent in prison by the Queen for treason!

Now she just wants to kill Charlie and the Queen!

As long as the two of them are resolved, not only can money be saved, but the position of the queen can be inherited smoothly by herself!

The empress thought that her granddaughter would openly kill herself in front of so many people, and suddenly shouted in anger, “Olivia! You are so brave, how dare you plan to kill the monarch!”

“Do you know that killing the queen the heaviest crime?!”

Olivia no longer fears the identity of the queen, and said coldly, “What crime of killing the queen, as long as I kill you, I am the queen!”

Helena blurted out, "Olivia! As your sister, I advise you to hurry up before you make a big mistake!"

"Strive for grandma and Mr. Wade's leniency, otherwise, your life will be over!"

Olivia seemed to hear a joke, and said contemptuously, "Helena, you don't really think that with the two of them, you can come back today?"

Helena said coldly, "Aren't you afraid of the Royal Guard?"

Olivia smiled sinisterly, "So you still imagined that the Royal Guard could come to rescue you?"

"I tell you Helena, all the soldiers of the Royal Guard were transferred to the first floor by me, and I did some soundproofing in this ward before."

"No matter what happens here, they will not be able to hear it!"

Although Olivia has a group of dead men of her own, she can't control the entire royal family.

Especially the Royal Guard guarding the palace.

The Royal Guard is loyal to the queen, and at the same time more loyal to the laws of Northern Europe.

They are soldiers trained by the country to guard the palace.

Therefore, even if Olivia has great abilities, it is impossible to buy them all.

However, as long as she can solve the problem in this ward, she don't have to worry about the Royal Guard.

So, Olivia said to Helena while holding the winning ticket, "My good sister, I have already arranged your fate for you!"

"Don't worry, as sisters, I can't let you die in vain! After all, Aman Ramovic has always been obsessed with your body!"

"After I get rid of the two of them, I will spare your life, pack you and give it to him, and let him imprison you in St. Petersburg for the rest of your life."

"Be his plaything! When he gets tired of playing with you, let him kill you himself!"

As she said, Olivia sneered, "Oh, yes, the one with the surname Wad just hit Aman Ramovic."

"I believe he must be suffocated."

"When he brings you back to St. Petersburg, he will definitely vent his anger with your body well!"

Helena was shocked by Olivia's viciousness and could not speak, but Olivia at this time had already lost patience and shouted at the group of people in black, "What are you still waiting?"

"Do it quickly! Kill the one surnamed Wade first!"

The queen said angrily, "I am the Queen of Northern Europe! I want to see who dares to move me!"

Chapter 3466

The man in black was hesitating, and William immediately shouted from behind, “Who can kill this old thing, I will give him an extra 20 million euros!”

“Who can kill Charlie, I will give him 100 million!”

Originally, these people in black were still a little afraid of the identity of the queen, but when they heard this, they all thought about money!

Immediately afterwards, a man in black roared, took out a dagger and rushed towards Charlie.

At this time, in his eyes, is 100 million euros in cash!

As long as Charlie is killed, the money will be enough for him and his family to live their lives in prosperity!

Others suddenly woke up at this moment, many people went straight to Charlie, and a few chose to attack the queen directly because they were relatively close to the queen!

The queen didn't know what to do when she thought that these people would really dare to do something to herself.

At this time, Helena by her side immediately pulled her behind her.

The queen also didn't dreamed that Helena, the eldest granddaughter who had been sick all the time, could stand in front of her at a critical moment, and she could not show the slightest panic on her expression.

She was moved in her heart, and she also admired Helena's undaunted aura.

But she didn't know that the reason Helena was not afraid of danger was entirely because she knew Charlie's strength!

The king of the Four Great Wars of the Dragon Hall, under Charlie's hands, couldn't even survive a round!

Wesley led the core members of the Dragon Hall, kneeling in front of Charlie and begging for forgiveness!

With Charlie's unparalleled strength, how could these men in black hurt him!

But Olivia, William and others didn't know Charlie's skills.

At this time, they had become red eyes, and they only felt that they would just do nothing today and kill both Charlie and the Queen!

When the time comes, they will pour the dirty water of the adultery with Helena on Charlie, and then temporarily put the queen's body in the freezer.

After a few days, he will declare that the queen is a natural death.

There will never be any doubt from the outside world.

As for Helena, the eyewitness, after she became Aman Ramovic's plaything, she would never have a chance to see the sun again in her life, so Olivia didn't worry at all that she would leak out what happened today.

Just when Olivia saw Charlie being surrounded by people in black, thinking that she was already winning, a dark figure flew out of the crowd suddenly!

The man in black who rushed towards Charlie with the dagger first, had already been interrupted by Charlie's hands at this time, and was thrown out of the crowd directly!

Immediately afterwards, the abnormal frequency is born!

One after another, people in black wailed and flew out from the center of the crowd.

Everyone was interrupted without exception!

After only ten seconds, all the people in black fell to the ground in pain, and their hands were broken like William.

It was terrible!

But Charlie still stood arrogantly on the spot at this time, even his clothes had never been wrinkled.

The combined strength of these men in black is no match for a four-star warrior.

Therefore, in front of Charlie, there was no difference between them and a group of Caiji.

Olivia, William and others were shocked to see this situation!

None of them thought that Charlie's strength was so powerful!

More than a dozen well-trained men in black were completely vulnerable in front of him!

William recovered for the first time.

He turned around and wanted to run outside, but he didn't run out of the door.

He felt that his collar was caught.

Waiting for him to look back, he was thrown out and hit the wall heavily and rolled to the ground.

At this moment, Charlie had closed the door to the ward, looked at Olivia and the others, and smiled calmly, "Olivia, do you think I have a turnaround now?"

Olivia looked at Charlie's playful look, pale in fright, and asked with a trembling, "Who are you...what are you...how...how can there be such a strong strength?!"

Charlie sneered and asked, "Didn't I introduce myself to you at the airport? Why, you forgot my name so quickly?"

Olivia said with trepidation, "I...I have forgotten..."

Charlie snorted coldly: "Say, what's my name?"

Olivia was extremely frightened, and said in a panic, "Wade... Charlie Wade..."

Charlie asked again, "Who is Charlie Wade?"

Olivia blurted out subconsciously, "You...your name is Charlie Wade..."

Charlie stared at her and said coldly, "Speak louder, I can't hear you!"

"Who is Charlie Wade?"

Olivia was full of heart, but she could only bite the bullet and raise her voice by a few points, and said loudly with fear on her face, "You...your name is Charlie Wade!"

Chapter 3467

At this time, Olivia was shocked...

The moment when facing Charlie and calling out Charlie's name in person, she felt that her whole person had completely collapsed.

Under Charlie's coercion, her legs softened subconsciously, and she knelt down in front of Charlie, choked up and said, "Mr. Wade... it's me who was wrong... it's me because of the money, I have a bad idea, please forgive me and give me a chance to make up for it!"

Olivia's father, Richard, also realized that the situation is over.

He also knelt on the ground and begged, "Mr. Wade, Olivia is young and easily impulsive in doing things."

"Don't be familiar with her..."

William's father Bush also hurried forward at this time and said with a pleading look, "Mr. Wade, we are willing to pay the 10 billion euros you said before!"

"Our Rothschild family is willing to give eight billion euros! Please raise your hands high!"

Charlie smiled, looked at Richard, and asked him, "They give out 8 billion, so you will come out the remaining 2 billion?"

"I...I..." Richard suddenly became nervous and didn't know what to do.

A few minutes ago, he was able to gather two billion euros through gritted teeth.

That's because Olivia was basically equal to the uncrowned queen of Northern Europe before.

Only waiting for the death of the current queen to be crowned smoothly, so they basically control the financial power of the entire royal family.

But now, the queen has woken up.

In this case, neither Richard nor Olivia have the right to mobilize royal funds anymore, so at this time, letting Richard take two billion euros out is a foolish dream.

After thinking about it, Richard could only bite the bullet and said, "Mr. Wade... our own assets, cash and various real estate together, it is about 1 billion euros."

"If you don't mind, I'm willing to add all the assets to you as compensation!"

Charlie snorted and said, "Then this is only 9 billion, not enough."

After speaking, he looked at Bush and asked with a smile, "Old man, would you like to pay more?"

Bush almost collapsed, and said bitterly, "Mr. Wade...8 billion euros is already our limit..."

"We simply don't have so much cash. We also have to wait for the stock market to open tomorrow and sell off a large number of stocks before it is possible to collect enough..."

Charlie shook his head and said indifferently, "Your two families are a community of interests, both of you will be prosperous, and you will lose everything."

"If the money is enough, I can spare you a way of life, otherwise, I will treat you as killers tonight and I, myself will kill you all on the spot."

"Tomorrow, it will be directly announced by the queen, saying that you united to rebel tonight and were killed by the Royal Guard!"

"Then the photos of your deaths here will be released to the public, by then, people all over the world will think you all deserve it!"

When Bush heard this, his heart trembled violently!

He didn't think that Charlie would actually kill himself!

Moreover, he also believed that Charlie did have this strength and could kill all of them at any time.

More importantly, even if Charlie really killed them, according to the reasons Charlie said just now, the world would never doubt it.

After all, they did bring people into the queen's ward today.

If Charlie really killed them and then claimed to the public that they were killed on the spot by the Royal Guards because they tried to kill the queen, it would logically fit in perfectly.

Even if the Rothschilds knew about it, they wouldn't doubt it.

In that case, Charlie could kill them without taking any risks...

Thinking of this, Bush looked at the queen, crying and begging, "Your Majesty, you are the queen of a country and should uphold the country's legal system."

"Even if you send us to court, you can't let Charlie kill us..."

When the queen heard this, she blurted out without hesitation, "My life is saved by Mr. Wade. From now on, I will follow Mr. Wade's instructions."

Chapter 3468

"If Mr. Wade wants to release you, I will send you out of the palace immediately, but if Mr. Wade is going to kill you, I will immediately follow Mr. Wade's words, and announce your crime of trying to murder me!"

The queen knew very well in her heart that how long she could live in the future depended on Charlie, so at this time, she naturally had to obey Charlie.

When Bush heard this, his body was wet with cold sweat!

He really didn't think that the queen would have such an attitude!

If this is the case, then he and his son are likely to die here today...

Thinking of this, he hurriedly pleaded, "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I will find a way for the remaining 1 billion euro and I will make up for you as soon as possible..."

Charlie nodded, "If you have this attitude, then we can continue to talk."

Bush breathed a sigh of relief and hurriedly asked, "Mr. Wade, if 9 billion euros are given to you on time, can you let me and William leave?"

Charlie smiled and said, "Then you may be thinking too much."

"What I can promise you is that if the 9 billion euros are paid out, I will spare you and William not to die, but we have an old saying in China that death can be avoided but living a sin is hard to forgive, so what kind of punishment you will receive next, everything is at my disposal."

After speaking, Charlie said again, "Oh yes, and your wife, she will be in the same situation as you next."

Bush said in a panic, "Mr. Wade...9 billion euros were given to you, can't you let us be free?"

Charlie nodded and said calmly, "If you continue to entangle this issue, the 9 billion euros may become 18 billion!"

When Bush heard this, he closed his mouth.

Even if there were 10,000 times unwillingness and anger in his heart, he did not dare to raise it in front of Charlie at this time.

When Olivia heard that both Bush and William had a chance to survive and her future was still uncertain, she asked cautiously, "Wade... Mr. Wade... I don't know. Can you also let me and my father live together..."

Charlie looked at her and said coldly, "I can give you a chance to survive and let your father honestly take out 1 billion euro."

"At the same time, you must also send Helena's mother back intact. Do two things well, and I can spare your life!"

Olivia hurriedly said, "Helena's mother was imprisoned in a nearby farm."

"I arranged for a few people to watch at her there, and someone could send her over at any time!"

When Helena heard this, she blurted out, "Olivia, are you embarrassing my mother?"

Olivia hurriedly said, "Except for someone to lock her up, how can I embarrass her..."

Helena breathed a sigh of relief, and subconsciously wanted to ask Olivia to send the person back, but when she thought that Charlie was by her side, she didn't have to say anything, because she knew that Charlie would definitely help bring her mother back safely...

Charlie didn't let her down, so he immediately said to Olivia, "You will inform your subordinates now and let them send Helena's mother back immediately!"

"Okay..." Olivia hurriedly took out her cell phone, made a call in the PA mode, and said, "Send Helena's mother back to the palace, immediately, immediately!"

The other party immediately said, "Your Royal Highness, don't worry, we will be there in twenty minutes!"

Olivia hung up the phone, looked at Charlie eagerly, and said nervously, "Mr. Wade, they will be here soon..."

Charlie nodded in satisfaction, and said lightly, "Well, let me give you an account."

"You can arrange for someone to gather the money. When the money arrives, we will continue to talk."

There was a glimmer in Bush's eyes, and he hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, don't worry, you give me your account number."

"I will arrange for someone to pay 5 billion euros as soon as possible."

"The remaining 4 billion will be available when the stock market opens tomorrow morning!"

When saying this, Bush thought in his heart that if Charlie wants to control himself, then the whereabouts of the money is the key to his family's search for his whereabouts.

If Rothschild's core family could notice this, it would be easy to find Charlie's head through the direction of this huge sum of money.

However, he didn't expect Charlie to call Stephen Thompson, and said, "Stephen, let Wesley give me a collection account, preferably an account that can quickly launder the money!"

"After so many years in the gray area, the Dragon Hall should have this kind of account!"

Chapter 3469

Bush never dreamed that Charlie actually planned to let the Dragon Hall collect the money!

The Dragon Hall are mercenaries, and they are scattered in war-torn areas.

Even the core family of Rothschilds cannot do anything to them.

After all, the richest people are most afraid of mercenaries.

Rothschild's core family, even if they knew that their family was missing, and half of the family's funds were in the pockets of the Dragon Hall, it was absolutely impossible to trouble the Dragon Hall to help themselves.

Thinking of this, Bush's thoughts are totally ashamed.

It seems that today, Charlie is really going to pinch them to death.

However, what shocked him was still to come.

On the phone, Stephen Thompson said, "Young Master, do you want me to call Wesley?"

“It is more convenient for you to ask him directly.”

“I am afraid that there will be gaps in the message between me.”

Charlie said with a calm expression and a casual tone, “Well, then you can call him.”

When everyone around heard Charlie’s tone, there was a question in their minds, didn’t the Wade family just be eaten half by the Dragon Hall?

Even if Dragon Hall were to rely on the Wade family to make money in the future, it was impossible to allow Charlie to be so casual with them, right?

Just when they were puzzled, Charlie smiled slightly and directly turned on the speaker of the phone.

At this moment, Wesley answered the phone and said respectfully, “Mr. Wade, what do you want?”

As soon as this sentence came out, everyone on the scene was struck by lightning!

No one would have thought that Wesley, the famous Lord of the Dragon Hall, would be so respectful to Charlie.

Bush exclaimed in his heart, “This...is the Dragon Hall annexing the Wade Family or the Wade Family annexing the Dragon Hall?”

“Why is Wesley being so respectful and polite to Charlie?”

Richard was also blinded, and thought to himself, "Didn't Wesley have a deep hatred with the Wade Family?"

"Even if the Wade Family lost half of his assets to him, he shouldn't be so low to the Wade Family, right?"

When everyone was very surprised, Charlie said indifferently, "I have a fund that I need to find a reliable channel to launder."

"The money belongs to Rothschild's third-tier family, and the demand is for money from their accounts."

"It will be hit on the account of your Dragon Hall, and then your Dragon Hall will clean it and take it out for me. Can you do it?"

Wesley said respectfully and almost without thinking, "Mr. Wade, you can rest assured that we are very good at this kind of thing."

"We have opened a large number of safe accounts in Switzerland and many offshore countries and regions."

Chapter 3470

"These accounts are theoretically not being monitored by any country or individual, as long as the money is put into these accounts, whether it is US dollars, Euros, Japanese Yen, or Renminbi, we can distribute the money to dozens of countries around the world within tens of seconds."

"In the tens of thousands of bank accounts, the money can be made to flow into our US dollar account after a round of the world within a minute, and it will definitely not be traceable!"

After hearing this, Charlie said with satisfaction, "That's great, you ask your people to send me these accounts immediately, and I will let people transfer money to them one after another.”

“Okay Mr. Wade!” Wesley asked again, “By the way, Mr. Wade, what is the approximate scale of the funds you want to wash?”

Charlie said casually, “9 billion euros.”

Hearing this, Wesley was stunned.

Although he is also a person worth more than ten billion U.S. dollars, he was shocked when he heard that Charlie had a sum of 9 billion euros in cash to be credited.

You must know that Charlie had set off from China to Northern Europe, and it has not been 24 hours.

In such a short period of time, 9 billion euros in cash can be credited to the account, which is even more incredible than robbery.

But Wesley didn’t know that Charlie had snatched this money.

Seeing that he was not talking, Charlie asked, “What’s the matter, is 9 billion euros difficult for you?”

“No difficulty!” Wesley said without hesitation, “Mr. Wade, don’t worry, I will give you a lot of this money.”

“Just tell me what currency you want.”

Charlie smiled and said, “Of course it is in U.S. dollars! I want to use this money to buy a ship!”

Wesley hurriedly said, "No problem, Mr. Wade, don't forget to give me a collection account, then all the money will be converted into US dollars and remitted to this account."

Charlie said with a smile, "Don't give this money to me. I will ask the Ito family for a collection account later."

"After you launder the money, call the Ito family directly."

"My ocean shipping company is operated by the Ito family and Zara Banks together."

"The money is given to the Ito family, and the Ito family can directly transfer the money to the BAIT Shipping Group account in the form of capital injection."

Wesley hurriedly said, "There is no problem! You ask the Ito family for an account, and I will solve the rest!"

Charlie gave a hum, and then hung up the phone.

At this time, Bush and William, as well as Richard and Olivia, were already on the spot as if they were struck by lightning.

Hearing the conversation between Charlie and Wesley, they all understood a shocking secret, Dragon Hall must have been surrendered to Charlie now, and Wesley must now be Charlie's subordinate!

Otherwise, Wesley would never be so respectful to Charlie!

Thinking of this, a few people were extremely frightened!

They realized now that Charlie had always been pretending to be a pig and eating a tiger!

When he came, everyone thought that Wade Family had been bitten by the Dragon Hall for half their lives and the scenery was no longer there.

But who would have thought that the truth of the matter should be such a super reversal!

Not only did the Wade Family lose any property, on the contrary, Charlie also pocketed the entire Dragon Hall!

For the Wade Family, this is just as powerful as a tiger!

William can't wait to slap himself to death at this moment.

He regret provoking Charlie!

With Charlie's current strength, even if he multiply his self into hundred times, it is still impossible to be Charlie's opponent...

Even his own family is just a small rubbish in front of the Wade family!

At this moment, Charlie ignored the horror of the group and called Ito Nanako again.

On the other end of the phone, Nanako Ito said excitedly and respectfully, "Charlie-kun, are you in Northern Europe now?"

“Why did you call me suddenly?”

Charlie smiled and said, “Nanako, I have a fund that I want to inject into BAIT Shipping.”

“You have to give me a bank account of the Ito family.”

“I will send you the money, and then you can inject money into BAIT Shipping for me.”

Nanako Ito said without hesitation, “No problem, Charlie-kun wait a moment, I will send you the account information.”

“Okay.” Charlie said, “I still have to call Miss Banks and talk to her later.”

“Okay, good!”

At this time, everyone in front of them was even more shocked and speechless.

Who would have thought that even the famous Ito family in Japan would treat Charlie respectfully and obediently!

At this time, Charlie called Zara Banks again.

Zara answered the phone and said respectfully, “Benevolence, do you have any instructions for me at this time?”

Charlie said, “Zara, I want to inject capital to the BAIT Shipping to expand the scale.”

“This company is a partnership between the two of us, so I would like to ask if you are willing to continue to inject capital.”

Zara said without hesitation, “If you let me inject capital, then I don’t have any objection and will inject capital!

Chapter 3471

At this moment, Lord Banks is still kneeling on Wade Mountain, so there is no official way to hand over the position of Patriarch to Zara for the time being.

However, this matter was already firmly established, so when Zara heard that Charlie was going to inject capital into BAIT Shipping, she immediately decided to jointly inject capital with him.

Hearing Zara’s agreement, Charlie said, “In this way, I will inject 5.1 billion euros into BAIT Shipping through the Ito family.”

“It happens that my shareholding ratio is also 51%.”

“As for your side, I will inject 4.9 billion euros. There is no need to adjust our shareholding ratio.”

“No problem!” Zara agreed without hesitation, and respectfully said, “Yes, if BAIT Shipping adds another 10 billion euros in capital injection, it will definitely become the world’s top shipping company!”

Charlie snorted and said, “When the money arrives, you must spend it on the blade.”

“You can talk to Stella to see how the money will be used at that time.”

“Okay!” Zara said hurriedly, “Tomorrow, after signing the relevant files with my grandpa, I will immediately rush back to Aurous Hill to touch this matter with Stella.”

“Yeah.” Charlie said lightly, “After you formally inherit the Banks family, you must pull out the thorns one by one inside the Banks family, especially your uncles and aunts, and their children.”

“You suddenly come to power, they must be very dissatisfied, and they must accept it in the shortest possible time.”

“If anyone dares to sing against you, they will be kicked out of the Banks family as soon as possible!”

Zara respectfully said, “Don’t worry, benevolence, I understand!”

Charlie said, “Let’s do this first, wait for me to go back and talk about specific things in person.”

Charlie hung up Zara’s phone call, and the people around him had already admired him.

From Charlie’s conversation, they could also hear that this Zara Banks would soon inherit the Banks family and become the Patriarch of the Banks family.

And her attitude towards Charlie was so respectful.

This shows that Charlie’s current strength is already terrifying!

William and Olivia are only now realizing what kind of character they have provoked.

Charlie may have some foundation in the West, but in the East, with his strength and connections, I am afraid that he has few opponents!

At this time, Charlie looked at the panicked people, turned around and said to the queen, "Notify the Royal Guard. First control the two families and not allow them to communicate with the outside world."

"At the same time, you personally announce that both family has been arrested for attempting to kill you and treason, and tomorrow's wedding will be cancelled."

The queen said without hesitation, "Okay Mr. Wade, I will do it!"

Helena hurriedly said, "Then I will inform the Royal Guard!"

At this time, William's father, Bush, asked nervously, "Mr. Wade...I can arrange for someone to start the transfer."

"Tomorrow morning, I will transfer 9 billion euros."

"Please be magnanimous and forgive us..."

Charlie said calmly, "I said, I can forgive you from killing you, but you cannot be free."

"After your family transfers the money tomorrow, you will leave for Syria."

"I have friends who have some influence there, and they will definitely take good care of you."

When Bush heard this, he almost collapsed, crying bitterly and said, "Mr. Wade, I would rather serve my sentence in a prison in Northern Europe than go to places like Syria!"

“Please raise your hand!”

Chapter 3472

Charlie said coldly, “I am giving you a single-choice question, and there is only one option.”

“If you say nonsense anymore, I will break your leg before sending it over!”

Bush immediately did not dare to speak any more, but his heart was completely broken, and he was sobbing while wiping his tears.

Richard asked in a panic, “Wade... Mr. Wade... can we stay in Northern Europe because we are also members of the royal family anyway...”

“Impossible.” Charlie said calmly, “Helena will inherit the throne in two days.”

“Before that, you will be deprived of your royal status and then exiled overseas.”

“In this life, you will not be allowed to return to Northern Europe!”

When Olivia heard that Helena was going to inherit the throne, she felt hated and angry, so she hurriedly said to the queen, “Grandma, you can’t give the throne to Helena to inherit anything!”

“She has serious heart disease! I am afraid that she will die within a few years!”

“And she has no children, and the throne will probably be inherited by a nephew in the collateral line!”

The queen said coldly, “Mr. Wade can even save me, not to mention Helena?”

“With Mr. Wade, Helena will live a hundred years! In the future, her descendants will inherit the throne!”

After all, the queen snorted coldly, “Olivia, you still care about yourself!”

“Mr. Wade just said that you will be deprived of your royal status and exiled overseas!”

“As for where you are exiled, it depends on how Mr. Wade sent off!”

Olivia looked at Charlie and pleaded, “Mr. Wade...I have no other requirements, I just want to stay in Northern Europe... Please be merciful...”

Charlie smiled and said, “I did intend to let you stay in Northern Europe.”

“I wanted to sentence you to life imprisonment without parole and let you spend the rest of your life in jail.”

“But I heard that you have very high welfare in Northern Europe. Living in jail is similar to staying in a hotel.”

“You won’t be too painful if you want to come...”

Speaking of this, Charlie turned around and said coldly, “But you are really a little self-conscious, and even want to kill me, so now I have to make appropriate adjustments to your arrangements.”

Olivia choked, “Mr. Wade... In Northern Europe, life imprisonment is already the most severe punishment...”

“There was an anti-social gunman who killed dozens of people alone.”

“It was only sentenced to life imprisonment... Couldn’t the sentence to life imprisonment still satisfy Mr. Wade?”

Charlie smiled slightly, “Compared to life imprisonment, I am more inclined to let you leave Northern Europe.”

After speaking, Charlie said again, “By the way, there is a word called labor reform, I don’t know if you have heard of it?”

Olivia shook her head in horror.

She had never heard of the words reform through labor, but faintly felt very bad.

Charlie laughed at this time, “Your Nordic welfare is too high, and a bit illogical.”

“Why can a criminal not only eat and drink well in prison, but also don’t need to create any value.”

“This is not a waste of taxpayers’ money, isn’t it?”

“Therefore, it is the most reasonable and fairest way to let sinners like you create value with your labor, and then use the value you create to satisfy your food and drink.”

After speaking, Charlie thought for a while, and said, “By the way, the former Patriarch of the China’s Banks family is going to be a local owner of Madagascar.”

"I will ask him to buy a few hundred acres of sugar cane land and then a few hundred acres of cotton land."

"You, your parents, and these people who worked for you will go to Madagascar to chop sugar cane and pick cotton together!"

"Cut sugarcane?!" Olivia felt dizzy when she heard this, almost fainting on the spot.

And her father Richard was about to collapse, crying and said, "Mr. Wade...cutting sugarcane, picking cotton, this is the work done by black slaves...whatever you say, you can't torture us like this..."

"Bullshit!" Charlie asked coldly, "Your God also said that all beings are equal, aren't black slaves also human?"

"Isn't your ancestors are pirates doing the inhumane black slave trade?"

Chapter 3473

In Charlie's view, Madagascar is an excellent country for labor reform.

First of all, the local economy is extremely underdeveloped and the conditions are extremely poor, so it has a very good disciplinary significance for Olivia and this group of people;

Secondly, the more economically underdeveloped places, the more human labor is needed, and most of the labor is farm work.

Sugarcane and cotton are all native products of Africa and require a lot of manpower to pick.

The workload is large enough for this people to experience the joy of labor.

At that time, let Zara get Lord Banks a large estate in Madagascar to buy more land for planting sugarcane cotton, and all the farming work is left to this group of people.

Olivia was about to collapse at this time.

She was very angry at first, and she always felt that she was going to be the queen soon, so she was extremely proud.

But she didn't even dream of thinking that Charlie would send her to Madagascar, where she would chop sugarcane and pick cotton!

This is something the poor people do in Africa.

How can she accept to do this...

So she broke down and cried, and pleaded bitterly, "Mr. Wade, I really don't want to go to Madagascar..."

"Please sell me to Aman Ramovic, he will definitely be willing to pay you a sum of money."

"Yes, it's more cost-effective than sending me to Madagascar..."

Olivia was originally 10,000 times upstart who look down on Aman Ramovic, but now Aman Ramovic has become a sweet pastry in her eyes.

She thought to herself, "Aman Ramovic has always wanted to marry a woman of royal background."

"Since he is willing to marry Helena, he must also marry me..."

"He is even willing to pay hundreds of millions of euros for Helena."

"He must be willing to pay the same price for me. In that case, I can go to Russia to be a wife..."

Just when Olivia felt that Charlie would definitely agree to this proposal, Charlie sneered and asked her, "I remember you seem to look down on that Aman Ramovic, why are you now taking the initiative to marry him?"

Olivia hurriedly explained, "I also want to create more income for you, Mr. Wade... If you want, you can make hundreds of millions of euros from Aman Ramovic!"

Charlie smiled and said, "I think you are thinking too much."

"How could I let you follow Aman Ramovic to Russia to enjoy the happiness?"

"Since I said I want you to reform through labor, then I must arrange you."

"I think right now, there is no place where you need you more than Madagascar!"

Olivia cried bitterly and pleaded, "Mr. Wade...I am a weak woman, even if I go to Madagascar, I won't be able to play any role."

"You might as well let me make a lot of money for you, please..."

Charlie turned a deaf ear to her plea, and he had made up his mind to prevent Olivia and the group from leaving Madagascar for the rest of their lives.

At this time, Helena swarmed with dozens of Royal Guards.

Knowing that someone was going to kill the queen, these royal guards were highly nervous one by one, and they rushed up all the way with their guns and live ammunition.

Seeing that the queen was awake at this time, the head of the royal guard said with surprise, "Your Majesty, you...you are awake!"

The empress nodded slightly and said, "Bruno, control all these people and guard them strictly."

"Never let anyone go!"

The white male called Bruno immediately said loudly, "Your Majesty, don't worry, I will not let any of them escape!"

"Okay." The queen nodded with a tired look and waved her hand, "Okay, take all these people down!"

"Detain them in the underground wine cellar!"

"Yes, your highness!"

Chapter 3474

The Royal Guards, armed with guns and live ammunition, immediately arrested the William family and

Olivia family, as well as the people in black who had been defeated by Charlie.

Even William and Olivia's mother, who had returned to the room to rest, were arrested by the Royal Guard and sent to the underground wine cellar together.

Soon, Olivia's men sent Helena's mother back.

They took Helena's mother into the palace and were immediately arrested by the Royal Guard.

Seeing her mother who was much thinner, Helena ran over with excitement, holding her mother in pain.

Seeing this, the queen sighed and asked Charlie respectfully, "Mr. Wade, do these people who have just been arrested do the same with Olivia?"

"Yes." Charlie nodded, and said lightly, "First shut in the wine cellar, and in a few days, they'll set off for Madagascar."

After speaking, Charlie urged the queen again, "Before they set off for Madagascar, they must seize the opportunity to capture Olivia's other men who aren't still arrested."

"Only in this way can we ensure the safety of the royal family in the future."

The queen respectfully said, "Thank you, Mr. Wade, for reminding me that, I will let the Royal Guard check it out every step of the way!"

"Yeah." Charlie nodded, looked at the time again, and said, "It's not too early. You'd better release the message to the outside world as soon as possible."

“On the one hand, you should make the crimes of Olivia and others public.”

“On the other hand, you must also announce that Helena will be re-designated as the heir to the throne, and at the same time, the time of your abdication should be announced.”

The queen said without hesitation, “Mr. Wade, don’t worry, I will record a video later, and officially announce it through the Nordic news media and various platforms on the Internet!”

Speaking of this, the queen said, “By the way, Mr. Wade, the crowning of the new queen, according to Nordic regulations, must be held by the archbishop in the church.”

“Due to the complicated process of the ceremony, it takes at least two or three days to prepare, so the most I’m afraid it will take three days to abdicate soon...”

Charlie nodded, and said lightly, “Then fix it in three days!”

After half an hour...

When the people of Northern Europe were ready to fall asleep, all the mainstream media in Northern Europe temporarily interrupted an important piece of news.

The news broadcast was the video recorded by the Queen in the palace just now.

The queen in the video has improved her complexion and state a lot, and she has also changed into her exclusive costume.

At the beginning of the video, the queen personally told about the causes and consequences of trying to kill her by Olivia and William’s family, and only Charlie omit it.

When the video played here, all the people in front of the TV and mobile phone screens were extremely angry.

Because they didn't even think that Princess Olivia, the heir to the throne, who looked dignified and majestic, was so rebellious!

Immediately afterwards, the queen publicly announced in the video that she would permanently abolish Olivia's identity as the heir to the throne and expel her family from the royal family.

In addition, the queen also solemnly announced that the heir to the throne of the Nordic Kingdom has now changed from Olivia to the eldest princess Helena.

At the same time, the queen also announced that she will officially abdicate in three days.

At that time, her abdication ceremony and the coronation ceremony of the new queen Helena will be held in the largest church in the Nordic capital!

Since then, all the dust has settled in the Nordic Kingdom!

Chapter 3475

When the queen officially announced that she would pass the throne to Helena, Charlie had already thought of going back home.

The purpose of his visit to Northern Europe this time is to help Helena to regain the throne.

Now this purpose has been successfully achieved.

In addition to this, he will receive an extra 10 billion euros in cash, which can be said to be far beyond original expectations.

Therefore, he felt that he had no need to continue to stay in Northern Europe at this moment, so he might as well return to China overnight.

However, at this time, Helena was with her mother in the infirmary, because when the mother and daughter met, Helena's mother was a little too emotional, and she cried several times until she lost control of her emotions, and the royal doctor immediately treated her.

Helena's mother was immediately taken to the medical room for a detailed examination.

After examination, the doctor confirmed Helena's mother's physical condition, in addition to malnutrition, there is also a severe neurasthenia.

According to doctors, the main cause of neurasthenia is the panic and fear these days.

Helena's mother had always been worried about Helena's situation, but after she was imprisoned by Olivia, she also worried that she would not have a chance to meet her daughter in the future, so she was mentally tortured.

After Charlie decided to leave, he said to the Queen, "Since the matter has been resolved, I will not stay any longer in Northern Europe."

"I also ask the Queen to take care of the two families of William and Olivia."

"I will arrange someone to come to Northern Europe tomorrow to pick them up."

The queen hurriedly said, "Mr. Wade, it's already late at night."

"You might as well take a rest in the palace first. It's not too late to leave tomorrow."

Charlie waved his hand and said, "I can take a short rest on the way back."

"I won't stay here to waste time..."

"China still has a lot of things waiting for me to deal with."

The queen said with regret, "Mr. Wade, in fact, I want to keep you in the palace for a few more days, and then attend Helena's coronation ceremony."

"I believe she must also look forward to your being able to witness her ascend to the throne....."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "I am an outsider to participate in the coronation ceremony of your royal family."

"Moreover, as an Asian, if I appear at the coronation ceremony of the royal family in Northern Europe, I will also attract speculation."

"I also hope to have more business cooperation with the royal family."

"If the Nordic people discover the clues in advance, I am afraid that there will be a lot of negative comments by then."

“Isn’t it just an increase in trouble.”

Seeing Charlie’s decision, the queen said respectfully, “Since Mr. Wade has already decided, then I can’t force it.”

“I will arrange the royal motorcade to escort Mr. Wade to the airport.”

Charlie nodded and said, “Then I will trouble you.”

The queen hurriedly greeted the person in charge of the Royal Guard, and said, “Hurry up and get the team ready, and also notify Princess Helena, saying that Mr. Wade is leaving, let her see him off soon.”

Charlie didn’t want to disturb Helena’s reunion with her mother, but he was leaving after all.

It would be unkind if he didn’t say hello in person, so he didn’t say much.

Chapter 3476

Soon, Helena walked in with a pale woman.

When she saw Charlie, she said anxiously, “Mr. Wade... why are you leaving so soon?”

“You have just landed in Northern Europe for a few hours, so at least you should take a break before leaving...”

Charlie smiled slightly and said, “You’ve seen everything about Wade Mountain with your own eyes, and there are many things waiting for me to finish.”

When Helena thought of Wade Mountain at this moment, not only the Dragon Hall and the immediate family members of the Wade Family was still kneeling, but even those branches of the Wade Family might have rushed back.

If he want to settle everything, Charlie must go back and preside over the overall situation.

Thinking of this, even though she felt unwilling to give up, she could only say softly, "Mr. Wade has a lot of affairs, so I won't keep him..."

After all, she hurriedly held the woman next to her and said to Charlie, "Mr. Wade, my mother is very grateful to you."

"She heard that you are leaving, so she have to come to thank you in person..."

At this time, the woman next to Helena bowed to Charlie respectfully, and said gratefully, "Mr. Wade, thank you for your life-saving grace to me and my daughter Helena..."

"Thank you also for giving Helena a chance to inherit the throne..."

Although Helena's throne was given by the queen, in the eyes of Helena and her daughter, the throne was actually given by Charlie.

If it weren't for Charlie, even if the queen was on the verge of death, it would be impossible to hand over the throne to Helena.

When the queen heard this, although she felt a little dissatisfied, she was also very clear at this moment that she was about to surrender all power.

From now on, her goal in life is not to pursue the consolidation of imperial power or the majesty of the queen, but pursuited to live a few more years.

Therefore, she quickly put her dissatisfaction behind her mind, and only Charlie's magical oriental secret medicine was in her mind.

Charlie also had no courtesy at this time.

Although he kept saying that, he really needed to let Helena remember in her heart that he gave her the throne.

Therefore, Charlie said to Helena's mother, "Ms. Iliad is very polite. Helping Helena inherit the rule is a promise I made to Helena, and I have to fulfill it with all my strength."

Helena said at this time, "Mr. Wade, do you have time to attend the coronation ceremony three days later?"

Charlie smiled and said, "I have already told the queen about this."

"I don't want to be too high-profile, so I won't come to attend your coronation ceremony."

With that said, Charlie took out a quarter of the rejuvenation pill and handed it to Helena in front of the queen, and said with a smile, "This part of the rejuvenation pill is my gift to you."

"Congratulations in advance Inherit the throne..."

Seeing Charlie's one-quarter rejuvenation pill, the queen's eyeballs had sunk in and couldn't be pulled out.

She has just experienced the magic of this pill for herself, so she can't wait to take another part to further improve her physical condition.

However, she didn't expect that Charlie would give this medicine to Helena.

However, she could not help feeling a little excited, because if this medicine was in Charlie's hands, if Charlie didn't nod his head, she would not be able to get another pill, but if this medicine was in Helena's hands, it might be possible to get it by herself.

Naturally, there is a lot more time.

Helena was also a little puzzled at this time.

She thought to herself, "Why did Mr. Wade give me this quarter of a pill?"

"Right now I have almost no foundation in the royal family, besides my mother, there no one else I can trust."

"If this pill is given to me, I'm afraid I won't be able to hold it at all..."

"What should I do if my grandmother gets a crooked mind..."

Just when Helena was at a loss, Charlie said with a smile, "Ms. Iliad's physical condition is indeed very poor."

"I think she should be less than fifty years old, her hair is half white, and her mental state is It's also much worse than the peers."

“If you rely on slow recuperation, it may be difficult to recover for a year or a half.”

“And you, you will be officially crowned the queen in three days.”

“At the coronation ceremony, if your mother’s state is too bad, it will also arouse suspicion from the outside world.”

“So, this part of the rejuvenation pill, let your mother use it for body conditioning!”

Chapter 3477

The queen who had already started to fight for this rejuvenation pill, hearing Charlie’s words, her whole body was shocked in an instant, and a strong sense of frustration surged in her heart.

She didn’t think that even though Charlie had given Helena the Rejuvenation Pill, he directly appointed her to give the Rejuvenation Pill to her mother.

If this is the case, I am afraid that there is no fate between herself and this part of the rejuvenation pill.

Charlie naturally saw the queen’s emotional change in his eyes.

The reason why he made a fake shot was to see if the queen coveted this part of the rejuvenation pill, and if so, remind the queen by the way.

He wanted to let the queen know that the rejuvenation pill would only be taken out for the sake of Helena’s face.

Therefore, if she wants to continue to get the Rejuvenation Pill, she must honestly transfer the power, and must not be smart enough to leave behind.

Otherwise, if the old lady changes her mind temporarily, or after Helena becomes the throne, she is still unwilling to release her power and take Helena completely empty, even if Helena becomes a queen, she is just a puppet.

He took a hard time and helped Helena to the throne in order to let Helena control the real power of the royal family and use the influence of the royal family to help expand his business in Europe.

If Helena is emptied by the current queen, then even in this position, she will not be able to play any substantial role.

In addition to using this part of the Rejuvenation Pill to remind the current queen, Charlie also wanted to make Helena more grateful to him.

He not only cured her disease, but also saved her mother.

He even helped her clear the obstacles and inherit the position of queen.

In addition, he even took out precious rejuvenation pill to help her mother regulate her body. .

So much kindness is placed here, I believe Helena will keep it in her heart in the future.

And Charlie did not guess Helena wrong.

At this moment, her gratitude to Charlie could no longer be described in words.

There was only one thing in her mind at this time, and that was to do her best to repay Charlie's kindness to her.

She didn't hesitate to make her feel bad.

Helena, who was extremely touched, stared at Charlie with a pair of blue eyes unblinking, and said with a choked voice, "Mr. Wade...you are as kind to me as a mountain, in this life, my heart always respect you!"

Charlie nodded slightly and smiled calmly, "Give your mother the medicine."

"Okay!" Helena wiped away her tears, and immediately put the quarter of a rejuvenating pill into her mother's hands, and said excitedly, "Mom, you are going to take this medicine."

"This medicine is the magic medicine brought by Mr. Wade, is the cause of Grandma's awakening from a deep coma!"

Helena's mother looked incredulous and blurted out and asked her, "Is this medicine really so amazing?"

Helena nodded again and again, and said excitedly, "I have seen this medicine with my own eyes."

"This medicine is really amazing! You will know if you eat it quickly!"

The queen's heart was bleeding at the moment.

She even prayed deep in her heart, praying that Helena's mother would not eat this part of the rejuvenating pill, so that after Charlie left, she could find a way to get this part of the pill.

But at this moment, Helena's mother took the rejuvenating pill and put the pill in her mouth without hesitation!

At this moment, the empress immediately became extremely disappointed.

Chapter 3478

As for Helena's mother, a huge change visible to the naked eye immediately took place at this time!

The first is her complexion, which quickly changed from the original paleness and weakness to a full-spirited, ruddy luster.

The second is that half of her white hair turned into shiny brown hair again at a speed visible to the naked eye.

What's even more incredible is that even some of the wrinkles on the corners of her eyes and face have faded quickly in a short period of time, and even a large part of the wrinkles disappeared directly!

The queen was stunned to see it!

She really didn't think that Charlie's Rejuvenation Pill could not only save lives, but also make a person back to his youth!

Seeing Helena's mother seemed to be more than a dozen years younger, she was extremely envious.

In fact, a quarter of a rejuvenating pill is far from having such a powerful effect, but Helena's mother has really had a very difficult time recently, so the whole person has some signs of rapid aging, and she is not in her forties.

People who are fifty years old seem to be almost sixty years old.

And this quarter of a rejuvenation pill made her a few years younger on this basis after returning to the state that her actual age should have, so it seemed to be a teenager directly younger.

Although Helena's mother didn't have a mirror, she immediately felt the tremendous changes in her body.

She said with great joy, "This...this medicine is really amazing...I feel that my body is not only It has been completely restored, even better than it was a few years ago..."

Helena also witnessed the tremendous changes in her mother with her own eyes.

She was so moved that she burst into tears and cried and said, "Mom...you have suffered over the years..."

Helena's mother chuckled and said, "Stop talking about it, isn't it all suffering now?"

Helena turned around and took off an exquisite mirror from a side table with a century-old history, ran back and held it in front of her mother, and said excitedly, "Mom, look! You are not only recovered physically, even your appearance is much younger!"

Helena's mother looked at herself in the mirror with an incredulous look, and then she couldn't help but shed two lines of tears.

Since the death of her husband, she has been worrying about her daughter every day.

At the same time, she has to face all kinds of exclusion from the royal family.

The psychological pressure is extremely high.

Therefore, she has no energy to dress up and protect herself like other ladies.

So she is aging at a speed visible to the naked eye almost every day.

In the past two years, she didn't even dare to look in the mirror, because every day she felt that she in the mirror was getting older again, and she already had the face of an old woman.

But she didn't think that in such a short period of time, she looked like she was in her early forties, and her hair, skin, and the complexion of her whole person had all been greatly improved.

It was almost like sitting on a time machine and quickly returned a few years ago!

For a woman, looks and temperament are so important, so she subconsciously looked at Charlie, her legs kneeled on the ground involuntarily, and gratefully said, "Mr. Wade, thank you for giving me a new life! Thank you!"

Charlie said calmly, "You are serious, but it's just a matter of effort, not so exaggerated."

Helena's mother choked up and said, "You may not know how much all this means to a woman..."

"In a way, this makes me more grateful than saving my life..."

The queen on the side was envious, and at the same time thinking of Charlie's previous promise to herself, she thought to herself, "Mr. Wade said that in two years he will give me a part of the rejuvenation pill, but this part of the rejuvenation pill has been eaten by Helena's mother."

"I don't know that Charlie still has extra rejuvenation pill in his hand...If I don't have them, then my wish will come to nothing?”

Thinking of this, she plucked up the courage and asked Charlie respectfully, “Mr. Wade... you said before that I will find you in two years.”

“I wonder if you still have a rejuvenation pill by then?”

Charlie raised his eyebrows and smiled, and took out a handful of dark pill from his pocket, and smiled casually, “Here, look at it for yourself!”

When the queen saw this, she was dumbfounded!

She saw that there were nearly ten pills in Charlie’s palm!

However, she didn’t know that half of it was Rejuvenation Pill and half was Enchanted Pill.

To someone like her, these medicines didn’t seem to be much different.

Therefore, she directly regarded these pills as rejuvenating pills.

Seeing that Charlie had so many Rejuvenation Pills, she was naturally excited, and she could not wait to rush to grab one from Charlie’s hand and eat it.

But she also knew that she didn’t have this kind of strength at all, even if the entire imperial family was counted, she was just a drop in the bucket in front of Charlie.

Therefore, whether she can get this Rejuvenation Pill depends entirely on Charlie’s mood.

Thinking of this, she didn't care about being euphemistic, and said directly and respectfully, "Mr. Wade, please rest assured, I will definitely go all out to help Helena take power!"

Chapter 3479

Seeing that the empress had even left behind basic euphemisms now, Charlie knew that she had been completely pinched by the rejuvenation pill.

With the previous near-death experience, Rejuvenation Pill will definitely become her only pursuit for the rest of her life.

Therefore, Charlie doesn't have to worry anymore, she will think carefully about Helena.

When the throne is handed over in three days, she will definitely help Helena to take power as she said.

Therefore, Charlie said to the queen and Helena, "If the Rothschild family comes to your dignitaries, or if they seek you to negotiate terms, you must not easily inform them of the whereabouts of William's family and contact me in time."

The queen immediately stated, "Mr. Wade can rest assured, if the Rothschild family look for them, I will directly use public opinion to suppress them. The people in their family intend to murder me. The evidence is solid. Once exposed, the impact on the Rothschild family will be affirmed!"

After speaking, she said again, "In fact, the core family of Rothschild values the reputation of the family very much. In the early years, they did a lot of evil in the financial market."

"In several wars, they have been making a fortune. As for their poor reputation in European and American countries, since World War II, the core family of Rothschild has been actively restoring the reputation of the family. The third step family like William's family committed such a big thing, the core family will definitely not protect them."

"Okay." Charlie nodded, and said with a playful smile, "I'm not afraid of them coming, but I'm afraid they won't look for them."

After speaking, Charlie said, "If they are willing to find them, then they will disclose some information through other channels to let them know that William's family may be in Syria."

"In this way, if they still want to go to Syria to look for them, Rothschild has nothing to do in such a place outside the law. If they go there, there is almost no chance of winning besides giving away the head."

Although the Rothschild family is very powerful, it is in the Western and peaceful world after all. If they want to go to Syria, the Rothschilds simply couldn't make any waves.

After all, in places like the Middle East, even the US military has nothing to do, let alone a Rothschild.

Commander Hamid's base is now solid, even the Dragon Hall cannot defeat it, so the Rothschild has no chance at all.

This is also the fundamental reason why he wants to send William's family to Syria, with Commander Hamid guarding, it has absolutely no problem.

When the queen heard Charlie's words, she was shocked.

"I originally thought that Mr. Wade might also be worried that the Rothschild family would come..."

"But now, how do I feel that things seem to be completely opposite to what I imagined?"

“Mr. Wade looked like he was expecting the Rothschilds to find them, and even gave me the feeling that William’s family was like a bait he had put in Syria to lure the Rothschilds....”

Chapter 3480

Thinking of this, the empress was also very surprised. She really didn’t understand why Charlie wanted to attack the Rothschild family?

Waiting for the queen to understand, Charlie said, “The time is almost up, I should go.”

After finishing speaking, he looked at Helena and said lightly, “Helena, I wish you in advance to inherit the throne and become the new queen of the Nordic Kingdom, and I hope you can carry forward the Nordic royal family.”

Helena nodded gratefully and said, “Thank you, Mr. Wade...”

After speaking, she hurriedly said, “Mr. Wade, if you don’t dislike it, please let me take you to the airport!”

After speaking, she looked at Charlie expectantly, for fear that Charlie would refuse.

Because she knew very well in her heart that once Charlie left today, it would not be so easy to see him in the future.

Because, after three days, she will inherit the throne. By then, she will be the queen of the Nordic Kingdom and the highest leader in name in Northern Europe. At that time, wherever she went, she represented the royal family, and she hardly owned any private space.

In the country, she must visit everywhere to give condolences and increase the support of the people to the royal family.

In foreign countries, a queen basically make state visits to a country at the diplomatic level.

Even if she just want to go to China to visit Charlie, it is absolutely impossible, because as a queen, as long as she decides to leave the country, the Nordic government will definitely notify the destination country, and she also must be accompanied by corresponding bodyguards, assistants, and housekeepers.

At that time, if Charlie didn't see her, she might not have a chance to see Charlie in her life.

Therefore, Charlie's journey to the airport may be the last time she and Charlie get along.

Seeing that Helena had said so, Charlie was naturally not easy to refuse, so he smiled and said, "If you want to, you can send me to the airport and I have to trouble you."

Helena breathed a sigh of relief, and said excitedly like a girl, "Thank you, Mr. Wade!"

The queen saw Helena's performance in her eyes, and she already understood Helena's thoughts in her heart, and thought to herself, "Helena should be moved by this Mr. Wade... and even if she just wants to send him off, she has to make low demands..."

"Looking at her like this, she should like Mr. Wade very much..."

Thinking of this, the queen couldn't help feeling a little regretful in her heart.

This is because she knew very well in her heart that Helena's feelings for Charlie were destined to have no results.

In fact, out of the desire for Rejuvenation Pill, she very much hoped that Helena and Charlie could get together.

In this way, Charlie will be his grandson-in-law, and with this level of relationship, the chance of getting a rejuvenation pill is naturally greater.

However, she is also very clear about Helena's future life trajectory.

After she inherits the throne in the future, her future destiny is already doomed.

Because according to Nordic traditions and the wishes of the people, her future partner can only be members of royal families in other European countries or members of top European families.

Moreover, the ancestry of the other party must be an out-and-out white, and must not be of other ethnicities.

This is not to mention racial discrimination. The main reason is that every country has its own nationalism and wants to maintain the pure blood of its own country.

After all, after her inheritance, her child will be the future Nordic prince. If her child is of Eurasian blood, it means that the royal family will have half the blood.

Therefore, the people cannot accept it anyway.

Just like Japan, which also has the emperor, it is impossible to allow the emperor to marry a European woman and give birth to a Japanese-European child as the prince.

Therefore, the Queen knew very well in her heart that Helena and Charlie were absolutely impossible in the future.

In fact, in Helena's heart, she was also clear about these conditions.

Although the time she was in contact with Charlie was very warm, the impact Charlie brought to her was too great.

Charlie didn't just save her and her mother's life simply, but more importantly, he let Helena see how powerful a man can be.

Therefore, she was like the first time she saw a young girl in a martial arts novel, but in just a few moments, she was captured by the unmatched aura of the other party.

If possible, she was even willing to give up the position of queen for Charlie.

After all, her mother is safe now. If she can't be the queen, she can even leave the royal family and move to live in China.

However, she also knew that Charlie had already had a family in Aurous Hill, and he also has many confidantes.

In Charlie's heart, Helena was probably just an insignificant passerby. Even if she was willing to give up the throne for him, Charlie might not be willing to let her give up the throne for him...
