

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3511-3514

Chapter 3511

From the moment Charlie decided to carry his father's banner, he was ready not to be polite to the Wade family members.

Because he knew right in his heart that even though these people were all family members, they were even more hostile.

Being a prince is easy, but being an emperor is too difficult.

Once you become an emperor and want to be a successful emperor at the same time, you have to leave the shackles between family relationships.

Since the time of the coronation, there is no more father, no more mother, no more grandchildren, no more brothers and sisters.

Yes, only himself and ministers!

One person is king, and other people are only ministers!

Therefore, Charlie will naturally not be polite to this group of Wade family members.

Seeing that Francis Wade was a young man with a clear mind and a unique vision, he changed his mind to leave him in the Wade family.

In the future, if he want to work with Helena and use the Nordic royal family to open the doors of the European market, he will definitely need someone who knows Europe well to be his own think tank.

Coincidentally Francis Wade's family has been growing up in Europe over the years and even moving the company to Europe, he must have a good understanding of European policy.

Because of that, Charlie needs this person.

However, this time his father Ciriaco Wade came out and closed his bag. Although Charlie could see it, it was not easy to penetrate it directly.

As a result, not only that he is ungrateful, but he also left the master family and the ancestors of the Wade family.

Now, letting him live in the family and work hard is also a good opportunity for him to atone for his sins. He has to hold it well!

Otherwise, Charlie will not be polite. When the time comes, Ciriaco Wade's wife and children, as well as his family's original property, will be involved.

Ciriaco Wade knew he was wrong, and quickly nodded and said, "What the Patriarch said... we have to take good care of him..."

After he finished speaking, he said a little unfounded, "Patriarch, it's just that I have limited abilities. If I don't do anything in future, or not to your liking, please don't blame me..."

At this point, Ciriaco Wade is already thinking very clearly, it would be better if he could stay at Wade family's house, because his son Francis Wade is not yet experienced, but his business control and management skills are far above him.

In recent years, the industry itself has been constantly reformed and improved, whether it is moving position, changing the face, or improving production technology, almost all Francis Wade pushed behind him, so he was willing to stay and replace Francis Wade to take over the overall situation.

Francis Wade also realized at this point that he was really talking too much lately.

It's okay to freely pretend in front of Charlie but at the end of pretending, his father end up to be left in the country by Charlie...

Chapter 3512

At this point, he wants to take the initiative to explain clearly, let his father return and live alone, so as not to prevent his father from being punished for himself.

But when he think about it, his family business is now at a critical stage to rise, and although he has not yet officially taken over as chairman, he has actually fully assumed the responsibilities of chairman functionally. The family business is completely self-contained.

He rejected that honest thought again.

He could only look at his father with tears, and said seriously, "Dad, we'll be alright at home, don't worry..."

Ciriaco Wade also nodded again and again, and advised, "I will stay in the master's house to serve him, and then you will take over the chairman's chair..."

Speaking of this, Ciriaco Wade sighed, and said with emotion, "It's just that you are still very young and inexperienced, so you must rush to catch the duck on the shelf, I'm really worried you're not okay..."

Francis Wade quickly followed his father's words and said, "Dad... don't worry, I will do my best. I dare not say that I will lead the group quickly. At least I will try my best to protect the family business and wait for you to return..."

Ciriaco Wade sighed, "It is my duty to serve the master, so there is no other way but to force you to grow quickly!"

Charlie couldn't help but frown, and thought to himself, "You two are still playing with me here? This is quite good."

Thinking of this, he cleared his throat and said to Ciriaco Wade, "It's really too risky to hand over a big family business to a brat. Even though I need your efforts, it should not be for you to give up your original business in this way, it seems that I'm too selfish."

When Ciriaco Wade and Francis Wade heard this, they were overjoyed, thinking that Charlie would change his mind.

Ciriaco Wade dared not show it, and was planning to do another wave of stability, so he hurriedly said, "Patriarch, right now, even if you let us give up our family and protect everyone, we can understand..."

Charlie waved his hand and said, "This is still inappropriate."

As he said, his eyes suddenly lit up, and he said, "I have a good way!"

Ciriaco Wade asked in a hurry, "Patriarch, what do you plan to do?"

Charlie pointed at Thomas Wade, who was kneeling on the ground in the crowd, and said, "My uncle, Thomas Wade, has extraordinary abilities. Better let him run your family business for you. You will both live in China to work for me."

“With my uncle, maybe two or three years later, your family business will be Fortune 500 in the world. Are you not in the furniture business? Give my uncle three years to make sure your market value surpasses Swedish IKEA.”

Thomas Wade was a little embarrassed to hear that.

“Do I have such great abilities? Damn, I almost believed it myself...”

However, when he thought of leaving Wade Mountain or even leaving the country without having to stay under Wade Mountain for three years, Thomas Wade was very excited and immediately said, “Charlie, thank you for your trust in me!”

Charlie nodded in satisfaction, then looked at Francis Wade, and said seriously, “Francis Wade, your father is old and hasn’t been to this country for many years. I’m afraid he won’t accept the situation, so you can be with him and take care of his diet and daily life.”

In short, Francis Wade’s expression instantly condensed. He didn’t expect that after his father would finally take him out, Charlie went around and put him in again.

Just when he was very depressed and didn’t know how to answer, Charlie said again, “As for your family business, you can be sure and boldly give it to my uncle. He will definitely help you run it well.”

“Think about it, as long as you’ve been working for a boss for a few years, you’ll be able to reap the Fortune 500 company once you return. Isn’t this the same as being useless?”

Ciriaco Wade and Francis Wade both want to die.

Ciriaco Wade cursed in his heart, “If Thomas Wade really has incredible abilities, why don’t you reuse him and assign him instead of us? This kind of scam should not really be responsible for our family business. It will take our family to bankruptcy!”

Francis Wade was also very depressed, thinking, “Even though my father is not a top businessman, he has been doing it for years. He is very experienced and very stable. Even if he doesn’t like reform and innovation, at least he can also maintain the scale of the family business today. But if Thomas Wade is replaced, he will completely destroy our family!”

Thinking about this, Francis Wade said quickly, “Patriarch...our small business, how can we disturb the great uncle Thomas! Let him take care of our little factory, it’s like an anti-aircraft weapon to fight mosquitoes, that’s too much...”

Charlie waved his hand indifferently, and said openly, “It’s okay, no waste at all, our family has this condition! “

Chapter 3513

Francis Wade was about to collapse.

He finally understood that Charlie was the master of acting.

He’s not even a fart when he and his father are in front of him.

Originally, he and his father wanted to play a role, so that they could switch themselves out and go back to continue running the family business.

He didn’t think of Charlie’s few words, not only put him back, but also gave their family a big Buddha that could not be offended.

Ciriaco Wade was also extremely depressed, he had no idea how to end it at the moment.

Even if he takes the initiative to let his son stay, the chances are very slim.

Because once that happened, it was tantamount to admitting that Charlie had been lied to just now.

In front of the Wade family, they are the people who wear sins. As a result, they are still thinking carefully with Charlie at this time. If Charlie grabs the handle and blames it, then there is really no chance.

Thomas Wade was almost agitated at this time.

Seeing Francis Wade still wanting to refuse, he hurriedly said, "Charlie, you don't need to ask other people for this matter. People are always easy to talk, the trouble is a little trouble, but I will work hard and have no complaints!"

Franklin Wade went crazy with envy, and quickly pleaded, "Charlie, my father is not in good health, can I also take care of my father's diet and daily life?"

Charlie ignored him, and turned to look at Ciriaco Wade and Francis Wade, smiled and asked, "Am I not doing the things better? I'm willing to send my dear uncle to help. Isn't it a selfless spirit?"

Lord Wade listened to the side, and couldn't help but stretch out his hand to wipe his face, he knows what his eldest son is like, he knows better than anyone else.

As far as Thomas Wade's level was, it was a drag in the Wade family.

If he was a speeding train, then Thomas Wade is one of the carriages that can neither carry passengers nor pull goods.

This cargo followed the Wade family train. In addition to increasing the fuel consumption of this train is also reducing the speed, it had no positive effect.

Normally in the Wade family, professional managers and multiple think tanks around the world are responsible for the operation of serious matters. He only needs to sign the decision letter in a symbolic sense, and then take the highest salary and dividends of the entire Wade family.

The furniture company in Francis Wade's family has a profit of only a few hundred million euros a year. Under normal circumstances, Thomas Wade would have to spend so much on dried flowers in a year.

Moreover, Thomas Wade spends money very cleverly to establish a name.

If he is going to study abroad, he must first buy the best villa in the local area as his residence. According to his words, he is not used to any hotel and prefers to live at home, so buying a house is the best choice.

Moreover, he will use the purchase of a house itself as an investment as an excuse.

What's more nonsense is that he would move out of McDonald's to open stores everywhere, buy houses and land, and finally earn a lot of blood to endorse himself.

However, if a normal person buys a house, it is indeed an investment, but if he buys a house, Thomas Wade is completely paying IQ tax.

Chapter 3514

A villa of 50 million, with a decoration of 20 million, can be moved in with a bag and sold for 100 million. He also thinks it is very cost-effective.

Moreover, the purchased villas need to purchase various items, including all kinds of daily necessities, cars, yachts, and even helicopters.

In addition, it also requires a lot of manpower and material maintenance to ensure that you can live at any time, and there are servants to provide services at any time.

So this villa, buying a car, buying a yacht, buying a helicopter, may cost tens of millions.

Then the depreciation cost of these things is astonishingly high. Depreciation of 10 million a year is easy, and the maintenance cost of the entire villa and various equipment is also tens of millions, plus the salary of the personnel, which is absolutely astronomical.

In other words, if a villa is left there and not moved, 20 million will be thrown in a year.

If he goes there twice a year, the expenses will have to increase a lot.

After five years of calculations, the original value of 70 million villas may indeed rise, to 100 million, or even a little over 100 million.

However, the maintenance costs and depreciation costs that have been invested in these five years are at least more than 100 million yuan.

When he bought it for 100 million, it cost more than 100 million. In the end, he could only sell for more than 100 million. Can this be regarded as a fart investment?

Before, it was because the Wade family had money, so he spent hundreds of millions or even more than a billion yuan a year through various means, which was nothing in the Wade family, so the old man didn't bother to pursue it.

But now if he were to be in charge of the Francis Wade family's business, it would be equivalent to arranging a pig to be the boss of a group of ants. Can the pig be the boss first? This group of ants is exhausted. A little grain, even if you don't eat a bite, you may not be able to feed him enough.

Ciriaco Wade had long heard of Thomas Wade's level.

At this moment, he was afraid that Thomas Wade would really go to his home and consume all the fortunes he had accumulated for so many years, so he didn't care about Charlie's guilt, so he knelt on the ground and confessed repeatedly, "Patriarch, I was wrong... I confess to you... my son Francis Wade has been making decisions in our family for several years!"

"The reason why I lied to you just now is because I still have selfish intentions. I want my son to go back to preside over the overall situation...I now know that I was wrong...Please punish me..."

Francis Wade also paled with fright, and blurted out, "Patriarch...please let my father go back to run the family business. I must stay in China and do my best to contribute to the master's family!"

Charlie's expression became extremely cold at this moment, and he sternly reprimanded, "You are so bold! Fleeing overnight, now instead of repenting, you are still lying here! It seems that you collateral branches, in your heart you really don't take the master's house seriously!"

When Ciriaco Wade heard this, he shuddered in shock, and quickly pleaded, "Patriarch...I was just a momentary confused, and didn't take the master's house seriously..."

"After all, what the collateral branch can have today, it is all given by the main family..."

Charlie snorted coldly, looked at everyone, and said loudly, "The previous peaceful and prosperous times covered up too many problems in the Wade family, and also covered too much dirt in the Wade family!"

"If it were not for this disaster, I would have thought that the Wade family is really prosperous. It looks like it's all just hypocritical appearances!"

Having said that, Charlie cleared his throat and continued, "From now on, these problems must be completely resolved! No matter your business is not related to the Wade family now, everyone must put the main family's interests first!"

"If you perform well, your original business with the Wade family can continue, and the new industry of the Wade family will give you some room to participate in the future. My purpose is nothing more than the words, 'I support you and you support me!'"

"But if you still go your own way, then I will not only cut off all business between the master and you, but also count all the assistance and support the master has given you over the years, and claim compensation based on interest calculated in a profitable way. If you refuse to accept the account, I have a way to clean you up!"

"If any of you have any objections, you can raise them now!"

When everyone heard this, their expressions suddenly drenched, and they hurriedly stated that they would perform well in the future.

Seeing that no one had any objections, Charlie continued, "Well, since you are all willing to choose to perform well, then there is a tricky thing right now that requires you to work together to share the worries for the master."

Everyone looked at Charlie intently, wondering what the tricky thing Charlie said was.

Charlie said indifferently at this time, "The servants of the Wade family are the same as you. When they saw the Dragon Hall, they ran away long ago. In the future, there will be no servants available from the main family."

"Therefore, before the end of this month, each of your family members must select two younger generations from the immediate family to work for the master's house!"

“First fill in the gaps in the subordinates!”

Chapter 3515

In Charlie’s eyes, these collateral families are second-class citizens relative to the main family.

Coupled with the black history of ungratefulness, it is even more impossible for him to treat them well in the future.

Letting them each have two younger generations to come to Wade’s family to serve as a servant is to let them know that their own mission is to serve the master.

More than 700 members of the Wade family’s collateral family heard this, although their hearts were full of complaints, but with the lesson from Francis Wade’s family, no one dared to say a word at this time.

Seeing that everyone didn’t dare to object, Charlie said, “Since you don’t have any objections, then this is the case.”

After all, he took the roster of this ancestor worship ceremony and said, “There are information on each of the collateral branches of the Wade family, as well as the list of representatives who came to Eastcliff to participate in the ancestor worship ceremony.”

“Within a week, all families must submit the information of selected younger generations.”

“As for the selection criteria, my requirements are very high. You will listen to me.”

Everyone looked at Charlie with bated breath, wondering how harsh he would ask.

Charlie cleared his throat and said coldly, "First, it must be an immediate family member of the Wade family."

"Don't even think about bringing an outsider or non-relative to fool me."

"Those who come must have the surname Wade, and they must be the grandchildren and granddaughters of each of your families!"

How dare everyone speak, they can only nod their heads in response.

Charlie said again: "Second, you must have a college degree or above;"

"Third, the age range is between 22 and 35 years old."

"Those over 35 years old are not allowed!"

"And it is not allowed to send all female dependents."

"In each family, at least one male must be guaranteed."

Some people's expressions changed slightly.

At first they heard that they would send someone to the master's house, and what they thought was that they would be able to send their female grandchildren.

But as soon as Charlie said these words, all of them were very uncomfortable.

It's better to say that some families have many males, but those with few males are depressed.

There are only two or three young grandchildren who meet the qualifications and age requirements.

They are either continuing to study for a master's or doctoral degree, or have received experience in the post.

At this time, they are transferred to the Wade family as a subordinate, regardless of whether it is based on actual conditions.

From the psychological point of view, it is difficult for them to accept.

At this time, Charlie continued, "Fourth, all those who come to serve at the host's house will take turns every two years."

"After the two-year period expires, you can leave the master's house and return to your own home, but you must send the next group of people three months in advance, and at the same time transfer work with the previous group of people to ensure that all positions can be seamlessly connected, otherwise you will be the only one to ask even if you are on a business trip."

When everyone heard this, their expressions were much more bitter than bitter gourd.

In their view, Charlie's requirements for them were already extremely harsh.

Moreover, behind this, there is a faint feeling of ancient protons.

It's like every vassal prince must send a son to the capital to be a hostage.

When they think of this level, it becomes even harder for them to accept it.

However, there is no way to accept it.

What Charlie is playing with them now is the power politics of diplomacy.

Not only economic sanctions, but also military threats and attacks, and even control of their internal affairs.

Needless to say, there are only a few families that can basically no longer rely on the Wade family like Francis Wade's family, and most of the businesses of other families rely on the Wade family's support.

Moreover, this group of people has all their cash sucked up by the Dragon Hall, and they have signed a five-year installment agreement, and the economic lifeline is already in Charlie's hands.

Not to mention the level of force, Dragon Hall is Charlie's best fist right now, wherever he refers to it, this alone is enough for this group of collateral members to be extremely jealous.

Chapter 3516

As for the control of internal affairs, it depends entirely on Charlie's mind.

Whoever is not obedient, Charlie can completely abolish them, and then support an obedient from within.

These collateral members also saw Charlie's intentions clearly, but they did not have the strength to fight Charlie at all, so they could only be forced to agree.

Seeing that everyone had no objections, Charlie said, "Since you all have no objections, then proceed as I said."

"Within a week, report the list and information to my Aunt Cynthia for review, follow-up staff reports and work docking."

When Cynthia Wade heard Charlie mention her name, she immediately said excitedly, "Charlie, don't worry, Auntie will do the things you explained!"

Charlie nodded in satisfaction, and said coldly, "All of you will listen to me."

"This matter is subject to Aunt Cynthia's decision."

"Aunt Cynthia will report directly to me. If any of you are not cooperative or negative in response, I will not spare you lightly!"

Everyone's expressions shrank, and although their hearts were extremely painful, they could only express their willingness to cooperate actively.

But Cynthia Wade was already very excited at this time.

Originally, when she saw Charlie's cold face, she felt all over her body hairy, but now she felt so cute when she looked at it.

This is also because Charlie did treat her a little bit preferentially in the past two days.

She was exempted from the matter of keeping filial piety before, and she only had to kneel on Wade Mountain for three days before leaving.

And now, entrusting such an important work to her, it immediately made her feel that she was reused by Charlie.

At the same time, she also sighed in her heart, "It seems that the bitterness that I had suffered in Aurous Hill before was not for nothing..."

In fact, what Cynthia Wade didn't know was that it was not that Charlie intended to reuse her, but that Charlie knew her mentality well.

Charlie knew that his aunt wanted to gain a foothold in the Wade family and was always looking for opportunities to perform.

Moreover, she has a quick big temper, and a very high posture.

She may not have any skills and abilities to do serious things, but if she should be asked to be a supervisor, to torture, and to be a bit of an egg, then she is definitely the most suitable candidate.

The temper of Cynthia Wade, once it broke out, most people couldn't stand it at all.

Therefore, leave this to Cynthia Wade to be responsible, and the follow-up will definitely be enough for this group of collateral families to drink a pot, and those younger generations who are sent to work should not even think about stealing and playing slippery in the future.

Charlie opened his mouth again at this time, "By the way, in order to prevent the person you submitting, Aunt Cynthia can't look down on it, so you simply submit all the member materials that meet my requirements above to her, and she will take care of it."

As soon as Charlie said these words, the heads of these collateral families wanted to cry without tears.

Originally, they thought that they only needed to select people according to Charlie's requirements.

There was basically no pressure on the males in the family, so they could just choose a less popular one and send it over.

Just like a horse racing, at this time, you can send inferior horses to fight, and it doesn't matter if you lose.

However, now Charlie asks them to submit everyone to Cynthia Wade for screening.

That would be troublesome, because Cynthia Wade will definitely choose the best selection among them.

In that case, it is very likely that the one selected by their family is the best one.

How can they stand this situation?

However, although these people are difficult to accept, there are still some people who are already excited and intolerable.

These people are basically descendants who are not ranked first in their respective families, but once the first person is selected to serve in the main house, then they will also have more chances of getting ahead.

Charlie naturally saw the faces of these people who were happy and sad, but he didn't bother to pay attention to it.

As for the half that comes up later, let them kneel in front of the ancestors of the Wade family until this time tomorrow before letting them go!

Chapter 3517

Except for Ciriaco Wade and Francis Wade who didn't dare to move, the remaining half of the collateral members were driven off Wade Mountain by soldiers from the Dragon Hall.

The remaining half can only kneel here honestly for 24 hours.

Ciriaco Wade and Francis Wade were originally the half who went up the mountain first.

Seeing that Charlie was willing to let the person who went up the mountain first left, Francis Wade hurriedly asked him, "Patriarch...I wonder if you can raise your hand and let my dad go back?"

Charlie said coldly, "Yes, you and your dad will kneel here for three days."

"After three days, your dad can leave."

"And you will go to Aurous Hill's Emgrand Group to report to Doris Young."

When Francis Wade heard this, he was overjoyed and quickly said gratefully, "Thank you Patriarch ...Thank you..."

Ciriaco Wade breathed a sigh of relief and thanked Charlie, "Thank Patriarch for your magnanimity..."

Thomas Wade, who was kneeling on the ground, saw this, and immediately asked, "Charlie...what... what about me?"

“Didn’t you say that...you let me take care of their family’s property? I’m all ready!”

Charlie said lightly, “You changed your mind again?”

“You don’t need to go, this is a good way to keep filial piety to the ancestors.”

Thomas Wade was desperate.

He originally thought he had a chance to escape from the sea of suffering, but he didn’t expect it to be a false joy.

Franklin Wade on the side collapsed even more.

He was still dreaming, hoping that his father would take over Francis Wade’s family business, so that he might follow his father to leave Wade Mountain, but he didn’t expect it would be nothing in the end.

Therefore, before Thomas Wade could say anything, Franklin Wade said reconcilably, “Charlie...you can’t let this Ciriaco Wade go back anymore.”

“He is inherently rebellious.”

“If you let him go back, it would be equivalent to letting the tiger go back to the mountain.”

“You have to keep him and his son in order to be safe!”

When Ciriaco Wade and Francis Wade heard this, they both wanted to come up and beat Franklin Wade to death.

They already seen something bad, but never seen such a bad one as Franklin Wade.

Charlie finally forgave the scene the father and son played just now.

He didn't expect Franklin Wade to say such a thing at this time.

Francis Wade angrily rebuked, "Franklin Wade! Our family has never offended you, but you are too vicious!"

Franklin Wade doesn't care about this, he only knows that only if Charlie keeps Ciriaco Wade, his father can get their family business.

Only after his father is free can he leave Wade Mountain.

So, he pointed to Francis Wade and said excitedly to Charlie, "Charlie, good brother, listen to your brother's advice."

"You must be careful about this father and son's wolf ambition."

"You can't let any of them go, otherwise it will become a big disaster in the future."

"Ah!" Francis Wade was trembling with anger.

If Charlie wasn't here, he would really rush to beat Franklin Wade.

Charlie smiled and said at this time, "Franklin, don't you just want to leave Wade Mountain?"

"If you think so, you just say, there is no need to use me as a gunman, am I as stupid as you think?"

Franklin Wade's expression was extremely embarrassing, and he didn't know how to respond for a while.

When Francis Wade heard this, he looked at Charlie with great gratitude, and blurted out, "Thank you Patriarch!"

Charlie waved his hand, looked at Franklin Wade, and asked, "Franklin, tell me the truth, do you want to leave Wade Mountain?"

Franklin Wade was taken aback, and quickly waved, "No...I don't want..."

Charlie smiled and said, "Look at you, not honest at all."

"This is what I don't like about you."

"You open your mouth and didn't have a word of truth all day long."

Charlie said solemnly, "If you want to leave, just say it straight."

"As long as you say it straight, I'll give you a chance."

"It just happens that I have something on hand."

“Someone needs to do it. If you speak straight, I will leave this to you.”

Franklin Wade’s eyes suddenly lit up, and he couldn’t hide his excitement and said, “I said... to tell you the truth... I really don’t want to stay in Wade Mountain...”

“Charlie... Please give me a chance! No matter what you ask me to do , I am willing, as long as you don’t let me go to Madagascar to chop sugarcane...”

Charlie nodded and smiled, “How could I let you go to Madagascar?”

“I can’t let the Wade family go to work for the Banks family.”

Charlie said with a slight smile, “I want you to go to Northern Europe this time.”

When Franklin Wade heard the word Northern Europe, he not only breathed a sigh of relief, but also excitedly said, “Northern Europe?! I will go! What do you want me to do in Northern Europe? Just say it, I will go all out!”

Chapter 3518

At this time, Franklin Wade was already extremely excited, and couldn’t help but ecstatic secretly, “Charlie wants me to go to Northern Europe.”

“He must want me to represent the Wade family to strengthen the relationship with the Northern European royal family for cooperation!”

“Moreover, Helena is my fiancée and she will soon become the Queen of Northern Europe.”

“If I can regain Helena’s heart and marry Helena, then I will become Northern European royal family.”

“I will also become a duke at that time!”

“Not only will I benefit from it, but the Wade Family will benefit a lot! It seems that Charlie really has a good game!”

Thinking of this, Franklin Wade already thought that Charlie would be regarded as a reborn parent, and quickly said flatly, “Charlie...oh no! Patriarch! Don’t worry, after I arrive in Northern Europe, I will do my best to win back Helena’s heart! I will never disappoint you and the Wade Family’s hope for me.”

Charlie was stunned and couldn’t help but smile, “Then you may be thinking too much.”

“I want to send you to Northern Europe, but it’s not for you to pursue Helena, besides, she was about to become the queen of the throne, you can think about it with your toes and know that she can’t look at you.”

“Huh?” Franklin Wade’s heart was cold, and he asked, “Then why are you letting me go to Northern Europe as the representative of the Wade family, is it to cooperate with the Nordic royal family?”

“But didn’t you hand over this errand to Aunt Claudette before?”

Charlie smiled and said, “Of course it is not for you to be the representative of the Wade family.”

“The main reason is that there are still three people over there who need to be dealt with as soon as possible, so you go to Northern Europe with the soldiers of the Dragon Hall and send those three people to Syria.”

“Ah? Go to Syria?!” When Franklin Wade heard this, his whole body almost collapsed, and he blurted out, “Then I would rather stay in Wade Mountain than go to places like Syria...”

Although Wade Mountain's conditions are somewhat different, but at least it is safe.

And he can also stay with his father and other relatives.

In places like Syria, conditions are 10,000 times more difficult than Wade Mountain, and there are wars everywhere.

Who wants to go there for a while? It's better to be honest and filial to the ancestors in Wade Mountain.

However, Charlie did not give him a chance to give feedback.

He asked in a cold voice, "Franklin, do you think I am discussing with you?!"

Seeing Charlie's anger, Franklin Wade cried and pleaded, "Charlie...oh no... Patriarch... I... I really don't know that you want to let me go to Syria..."

"I'm the only son of my dad. If I die in Syria, my dad will be miserable..."

Charlie said calmly, "Don't worry, there are soldiers from the Dragon Hall with you, you can't die."

"What's more, I have a friend there, and I will definitely guarantee your safety."

After that, Charlie warned, "But you'd better not talk more nonsense, otherwise, I might let you stay in Syria for a lifetime!"

When Franklin Wade heard this, he nodded and agreed without hesitation and said, "I will go as you said,

I don't have any objections."

Charlie did not care for him again, and instead he looked at a five-star general from the Dragon Hall and said, "Now you choose four subordinates, take Franklin Wade with you to take the Concorde airliner to Northern Europe, and then send the three people I mentioned to Commander Hamid."

"The five-star general said respectfully, "I understand!"

Chapter 3519

When Charlie finished everything, it was getting late at this time.

On the brightly lit Wade Mountain, hundreds of people were kneeling densely.

Charlie turned to look at the tomb of his parents not far away, stared for a long time, and then sighed softly, and said to Lord Wade, "Grandpa, since the matter is almost handled, I will go back to Aurous Hill tomorrow."

Lord Wade said hurriedly, "Charlie, you are now the head of the Wade family."

"I don't advise you to stay and settle in Eastcliff, but at least stay a few more days this time."

"I will sort out everything about the Wade family together with you, and then I will discuss the various managers of the Wade family."

"I will let the team introduced to you, and they will still be responsible to you in the future."

Charlie said, "The Wade family has a lot of business, and it is not realistic to have these managers prepare all the information immediately, and even if they are ready, it will be a short while later."

"You ask them to prepare the docking information and materials from tomorrow. I will come back in a few days."

Lord Wade thinks what Charlie said is reasonable, not to mention the Wade family's big industry, even a company with tens of millions of assets, various operating data can not be prepared within a day or two.

So, he nodded and said, "Okay, then I will tell them to start preparations later, and then you will come back to Eastcliff to meet them."

Charlie replied and said, "I will go to Shangri-La Hotel in a while and talk to them. Meet the Banks family again and return to Aurous Hill tomorrow morning."

Lord Wade did not continue to stay, so he said, "Charlie, if you go back this time, please use the private plane that you used in Eastcliff."

"The Concorde airliner is your special plane. The speed of that plane is faster. It is more convenient no matter where you go."

Charlie waved his hand and said calmly, "No, Eastcliff is not far from Aurous Hill."

"The plane trip is only two hours. Although the Concorde is fast, it takes an hour to fly the distance, including the take-off and landing time."

"In fact, it is not much faster. More importantly, it is more convenient to use Concorde nationwide."

"For this one, if it flies to a small place like Aurous Hill, it is really too eye-catching, so let's put it in Eastcliff for the time being.”

Lord Wade heard this, nodded gently, and said, “I will help you temporarily. Sitting in Eastcliff, if you have any things and requirements, you can always order!”

“Okay.” Charlie retracted his eyes from his parents’ mausoleum, closed his eyes for a moment, and said, “Okay, Stephen be ready to go down the mountain.”

“Okay.” Stephen Thompson said respectfully, “Young Master, wait a minute, I will prepare.”

Before leaving Wade Mountain, Charlie instructed the rest of the Dragon Hall soldiers, “In the next few days, you have to guard the Wade mountain. Except for the Wade family and Stephen Thompson, no one else is allowed to go to Wade Mountain.”

One of the five-star warriors immediately said respectfully, “Mr. Wade, don’t worry. Leave any messy people waiting to go up the mountain!”

Charlie nodded, and said again, “In addition, keep an eye on the group of Wade family who are kneeling on Wade Mountain and confessing to make sure they kneel enough for the time I asked for.”

“I understand!”

Chapter 3520

Charlie nodded in satisfaction, and said, “Turn around and tell Wesley for me, after he buried his parents, leave a group of soldiers to guard at Wade Mountain and Wade Family.”

“The rest, Bring them to the Shangri-La Hotel in Aurous Hill to find Isaac Cameron.”

“Isaac Cameron will arrange everything and I will wait for him in Aurous Hill.”

“Okay, Mr. Wade, I will definitely pass your words to the hall master exactly...”

After a few minutes.

Sitting in the Rolls Royce driven by Stephen Thompson, Charlie galloped towards the Shangri-La Hotel in Eastcliff.

At this time, at Shangri-La Hotel, Lord Banks and Zayne were each signing relevant legal documents.

What Lord Banks wants to sign is to transfer all the control rights, decision rights and beneficiary rights of the Banks Group to Zara.

And Zayne signed the divorce agreement with Deana Thorne, and officially dissolved the marriage relationship with her.

When Charlie arrived at Shangri-La Hotel, the father and son had just signed all the relevant documents.

Several professional lawyers are doing the final check at this time to make sure that there are no loopholes in everything.

Zayne was a little lost at this time.

After all, he had loved Deana Thorne for so many years, and now he has really completely ended the relationship between husband and wife, which made him feel particularly sad.

Although Deana Thorne couldn't see any happiness, she could see that she was relieved.

Before Deana Thorne, there always seemed to be a touch of sadness between her eyebrows, which sometimes made people feel that she might be a little sick.

However, the former state of sickness has been wiped out, and replaced by an unprecedented sense of ease.

As for Lord Banks, while regretting to hand over the throne of Banks family Patriarch, he couldn't help but always remind Zara, "Zara...Don't forget, help me buy more land in Madagascar..."

"The larger the area, the better. It is best to dig a moat directly around and isolate it directly from the locals."

He said, "Oh, right, let the servants and bodyguards of the entire manor come too. Well, it's better to let me take it from the country."

"Their local economic development level is too poor, and the locals certainly can't meet my requirements."

Lord Banks, who has lost the opportunity to provide for the elderly in the Maldives, now only wants to ensure his safety and living conditions in Madagascar as much as possible.

He knows that the local area is poor and there are many diseases, so he doesn't want to have any direct contact with the locals.

Zara naturally has no opinion.

Although she was dissatisfied with her grandpa, in the end, blood was thicker than water.

Moreover, her grandpa left this time, fearing that it would be difficult to come back later, she naturally wanted to ensure his living conditions in Madagascar.

So, she nodded and said, "Grandpa, don't worry, don't you want to take the housekeeper over?"

"The other servants in tElms family have served you for so many years."

"You must be the most comfortable with them. Let them go with you, I will give them a satisfactory salary, and at the same time give them a settlement allowance."

After that, Zara said again, "As for the manor you just said, the bigger the better."

"As long as the benefactor allows, I will try my best to do it."

"What you have done is just that the amount of such a project is a bit too vast."

"It will take at least two or three years for all to be completed. You may have to be aggrieved there before it is completed."

Lord Banks hurriedly said, "Grandpa has already thought about it a little bit."

"It is definitely unrealistic to build all from scratch."

"Let's go to the local area and buy the best manor house they can buy locally."

“And then extend and expand around this manor villa, so that it will not delay, what do you think?”

Zara hesitated for a moment, and said, “I personally have no opinion, but I still have to ask Mr. Wade for advice.”

“Now, if he’s okay, I’m okay.”

Lord Banks turned around anxiously, slapped his thigh, and blurted out, “Oh! Charlie just asked me to go to Madagascar and didn’t let me come back.”

“He wouldn’t bother about other things.”

“You can arrange for someone to go over and do it for me as soon as possible.”

“In a place like Madagascar, to build a hundreds of hectares of manor, it is estimated that it will not even cost 100 million US dollars.”

Zara still insisted, “Then I have to follow. You can’t make a decision directly.”

Charlie walked into the room at this time and said lightly, “Miss Banks, everything should be done according to the requirements of Lord Banks.”

“After all, Madagascar will be his second homeland in the future, and the material conditions are not enough.”

Speaking of this, Charlie said again, “What’s more, I might send some labor to him regularly in the future.”

“The bigger the place, the more convenient it is.”

Chapter 3521

The appearance of Charlie brightened Zara’s eyes suddenly.

She looked at Charlie in surprise, and blurted out, “Benevolence, you are here...”

Charlie nodded, and Lord Banks beside him said excitedly, “Mr. Wade...thank you for your magnanimity...”

Charlie waved his hand faintly.

He is not magnanimous to Lord Banks, but Lord Banks has honestly handed over the position of Banks family Patriarch, and will no longer pose any threat to him from now on, and after Zara inherits the Banks family, his new and old hatreds with the Banks family are also write off a sum, so he also has no need to continue to embarrass Lord Banks in this matter.

So, he opened his mouth and said to Lord Banks, “After Lord Banks arrives in Madagascar, what you do there, in principle, I will not intervene in any way.”

“As long as you don’t fix any moths, I will not disturb your life there.”

Lord Banks bowed as he received the amnesty, “Thank you Mr. Wade! Thank you Mr. Wade!”

Charlie looked at Zara and said, “Ms. Banks, you should hurry up and select the people who will go with you to Madagascar in the past two days.”

“At the same time, send two real estate agents to Madagascar.”

“Once the manor is bought, the people are selected, the place is bought, you can pass by here.”

Zara said without hesitation, “Good benefactor, I will start to do these two things tonight.”

Charlie nodded lightly, and then said to Lord Banks, “Master, it would be more painful for you to go so far by yourself without a family member by your side.”

“Your second son James was still held by me in Aurous Hill, waiting for you.”

“After you are all ready, take your second son with you.”

“I ask him to be the same as you, without my permission, not to leave Madagascar, let alone return to China.”

When Lord Banks heard that Charlie wanted to let James go with him, his mood improved a lot.

As Charlie said, if he has to go to Madagascar alone, he has no relatives besides his subordinates.

This feeling must be painful.

If his second son can go with him, it will be a good thing for him and for himself.

So he said with great gratitude, “Thank you Mr. Wade for a large number of people, I thank you for James!”

Charlie nodded, and said to Zayne, "The Elms family is still waiting for you."

"Tonight, you will live in a room with Mr. Elms. Tomorrow morning, you will drive back to Eastcliff with them."

Previously, when the Elms family escorted Zayne and Calum to Eastcliff secretly, because of her special status, Xion chose to drive to Eastcliff overnight with her mother Kairi Elms, so they will also drive back this time.

Charlie planned to let Zayne follow them.

Zayne didn't touch the Elms family in any way.

On the contrary, he was really relieved when he knew that he would be under the surveillance of the Elms family in the future, so he was even more satisfied at this time, and said honestly, "Okay Mr. Wade, I see."

Charlie turned people to call Don Albert, and let him take Zayne to Mr. Elms' room.

Later, he said to Lord Banks, "Lord Banks, you have a good attitude today."

"If so, then I will give you more freedom."

"You can go back to the Banks family tonight, and a family meeting will be held tomorrow to make Miss Banks the Banks family."

"Regarding the Patriarch's matter, we formally make an announcement to the outside world."

“You can move freely in China during the period before you set off, but you cannot leave China or play missing.”

“Do you understand?”

When Lord Banks heard China say that he was able to go home and rest for two days, he was instantly grateful, and choked up, “Mr. Wade, thank you for opening up this old bone to me... I am grateful.....”

Lord Banks was oppressed by Charlie’s tough aura for two days, and knelt on Wade Mountain for another night.

He didn’t know how many times he collapsed.

Now Charlie was a little more relaxed with him, and he couldn’t help but begin to be grateful for Charlie.

Charlie waved his hand and said to him, “Okay, if you are grateful, you don’t have to say it, just keep it in your heart.”

“You should hurry and go back. It just happens that these two days will also gather the people who will go to Madagascar with you in the future.”

“Good, good...” Lord Banks nodded as if pounding garlic, and blurted out, “Then go back first! Mr. Wade, if you have any instructions, please let Zara convey to me directly, and I will do it!”

Charlie nodded and said to Stephen Thompson, “Stephen, you can drive it.”

Stephen Thompson immediately respectfully said, “Good young master.”

After that, he made a gesture of request to Lord Banks, "Master Banks, please."

Lord Banks thanked him for his gratitude and followed Stephen Thompson out of the hotel room.

In the room, only Deana Thorne and Zara were left at this time.

Charlie was about to talk to Zara about increasing the capital of BAIT shipping.

And he also want to talk about the idea of BAIT shipping's development in Europe, but Deana Thorne said at this time, "Charlie, will you return to Aurous Hill tomorrow morning?"

Charlie nodded, "Yes, Aunt Deana, I'll be back early in the morning."

Deana Thorne asked with some embarrassment, "Can Auntie go back with your plane?"

At this time, Deana Thorne has made Aurous Hill the first choice for her future life.

The small courtyard where Charlie's parents lived has been renovated by her.

For her, living there is the best choice.

Charlie knew Deana Thorne's feelings for his father, her love for him, her love and admiration, so he said without hesitation, "No problem, you can stay with Zara in the hotel at night, and tomorrow morning, I will send you to the airport."

Deana Thorne smiled slightly and said, "I won't live here anymore."

"I plan to go home and see my parents. I will go to the airport by myself tomorrow morning."

Zara asked hurriedly, "Mom, are you going to Grandpa's house? Then I will go too."

Deana Thorne smiled and said, "Don't go with me, isn't your grandpa going to hold a family meeting tomorrow?"

"You will definitely attend as the new Patriarch at that time. Charlie will work hard to send you back to Banks' house first."

After finishing speaking, she looked at Charlie again and begged, "Charlie, I will let you work hard to send Zara in a while."

Charlie nodded and said, "There is no problem with Aunt Deana, I still have something to discuss with Miss Banks."

"After the talk, I will send her back to Banks' house safely. Don't worry."

Deana Thorne checked her head and smiled, "That's good, then I'll leave Zara to you."

Charlie said, "Then see you at the airport at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning."

Deana Thorne smiled and said, "Okay, see you at the airport."

Seeing her mother left, Zara seemed a little embarrassed.

When there are a lot of people, she feels uncomfortable in front of Charlie, but now, when she is alone with Charlie, she only feels that her heart rate is accelerating, and the sound of her heart beating can even be heard directly.

Yesterday, when Charlie was on Wade Mountain, he was able to conquer the entire Dragon Hall alone, and Zara could see clearly from the side.

Originally, she had fallen in love with Charlie deeply, but she did not think that after yesterday, the love for Charlie in her heart had already penetrated into her bones, and her heart was filled with almost all of him.

Being alone with Charlie at this time naturally made his heart beat faster and unable to extricate himself.

So, she looked at Charlie with shame, and asked softly, "Benevolence...you...what else do you want me to do?"

Charlie said in a hurry, "Oh, it's BAIT shipping's business."

"After your capital injection is completed, I plan to expand the fleet and invest in several ports in Europe."

"It just so happens that Helena is about to take the throne."

"We will be her first project for attracting investment in Northern Europe, starting directly from Northern Europe and radiating to the entire Europe."

"What do you think?"

Zara blushed, pursed her mouth, looked at Charlie's angular face, and replied with shame, "I...I listen to Benevolence...”

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3523-3526

Chapter 3523

Charlie didn't realize that Zara's whole person was completely occupied by the love and shyness in her heart.

At this time, she did not have the mental state to discuss business cooperation with Charlie, because even if Charlie asked her to hand over the entire Banks family, she would not hesitate to agree.

Therefore, at this time, where she has her own opinions, it is naturally Charlie what she wants.

Charlie didn't know this, so he smiled helplessly, “You have to make it clear that we two are in partnership for business.”

“We have to get ideas together. You can't listen to me because I am not a professional in management.”

“I don't know anything, I can only put forward ideas, and then you and Stella discuss the feasibility and implementation methods.”

Zara said embarrassedly, “It doesn't matter... It's going to be alright...”

Charlie got a big head and said, “Don't you have any comments to express?”

“After all, you have 49% of the shares in this company. Can't I just say what I want?”

Zara didn't say anything, she hesitatingly answered, "Um...whatever the benefactor said is okay..."

Charlie was speechless for a while, and said helplessly, "Or else, you go back and think about it first."

"If you really don't have any comments, you will go back to Stella."

"Also touch and see what she means. If everyone has no objection, let's move forward like this."

Zara nodded, his big eyes shining brightly and said, "I listen to my benefactor..."

Charlie has nothing to say, he said with a smile, "Okay, that's the initial decision. I will send you back to Banks' house first."

"In these two days, you will first clarify the various businesses of Banks' house and ensure the smooth handover with your grandfather."

"The matter of BAIT Shipping , Let's talk after you finish this time."

Zara was happy, and said quickly, "Then I'll go to Aurous Hill in a few days!"

"Okay." Charlie didn't think much, and said, "I'll see you in Aurous Hill then."

Zara nodded and asked Charlie curiously, "Benevolence, you have now taken over the Wade family and become the head of the Wade family."

"Are you not planning to return to Eastcliff for development?"

Charlie said calmly, "I don't have this plan yet."

Zara was a little disappointed in her expression, but quickly recovered to the same level as before, and said with a smile, "Actually, it's pretty good in Aurous Hill, not far from Eastcliff."

"In the middle of two super cities, there is direct high-speed rail."

"Even if you live and work in Aurous Hill, it will not affect the business promotion."

"After that, Zara couldn't help but said with emotion, "My mother is thinking about settling down in Aurous Hill, I think I will live in Aurous Hill for half of my time in the future, so I will spend a lot of time with her."

When Zara said this, she secretly aimed at Charlie with some guilty conscience.

In fact, her real thoughts are not all about staying with her mother.

She just wants to be closer to Charlie.

Otherwise, she will be in Eastcliff and Charlie will always be in Aurous Hill for a long time, and the two will not have much chance to meet.

With her infatuation for Charlie, she will definitely go crazy.

Therefore, for her to spend half of her time in Aurous Hill under the pretext of being with her mother, it is the best solution right now.

Charlie heard that she wanted to accompany her mother more, so naturally he didn't have the slightest suspicion.

He just sighed and said, "They said that it's not far or near to Aurous Hill."

"It doesn't really feel like an occasional commute, but if you have to go back and forth once or twice a week, it may be really exhausting."

Zara said with a smile, "It's okay, after I officially become the Banks family head, it is reasonable to allocate a private jet for myself."

Chapter 3524

"At that time, every Thursday evening, after finishing work, I will take the laptop and data directly from the top of the Banks Group's building and fly to the airport by helicopter, then fly to Aurous Hill, rest on the plane for two hours, or deal with official duties, and I will be there soon."

"Aurous Hill has no traffic jams at night, and I can drive to my mother for more than half an hour."

After that, Zara seriously calculated, "In this way, I can stay in Aurous Hill from Thursday night until early Monday morning."

"If I work hard and get up early on Monday, if I go out at more than five o'clock, I will be able to stay at more than six o'clock."

"After taking off and rushing back to Eastcliff, I can take a helicopter and went directly to the Banks Group after landing at 8 o'clock, without delay to work at 9 o'clock."

Charlie couldn't help but sigh, "Your schedule is a bit too full."

“It doesn’t matter.” Zara said firmly, “I have a very good physical fitness right now. This is just a trivial matter.”

After she finished speaking, she looked at Charlie with an imploring tone, and said softly, “Benevolence, besides my mother, I have only one friend in Aurous Hill.”

“If I want to see you, you can’t refuse me.”

Charlie nodded, agreed casually, and smiled, “As long as I have time, there is no problem.”

“That’s good!”

After getting the answer that she wanted most, Zara finally breathed a sigh of relief.

Charlie looked at the time and said, “It’s getting late, I’ll take you back to Banks’ house first.”

Zara asked hurriedly, “Are you going to return to Wade’s house at night?”

“No.” Charlie faintly said, “I will go back at my uncle’s house, and I feel more at ease there.”

Zara thought of Stefanie and the marriage contract between Charlie and her, and suddenly nodded.

Charlie asked Isaac Cameron to prepare a car for himself, and then drove by himself, carrying Zara to the Banks family villa.

On the way, Zara quietly looked at Charlie’s profile, several times she wanted to say something, and finally put up with it.

It was not until Charlie drove the car to the door of Banks' Villa, then Zara said, "The matter between my parents, thank you, if it weren't for you, my dad would definitely not agree to divorce my mother..."

Charlie asked her, "Do you want your parents to divorce?"

"Yeah." Zara nodded, and said, "The two of them are not so happy."

"This kind of marriage in name only survives, it's better to end as soon as possible."

After saying it, she couldn't help sighing, My dad must be very frustrated. He has the same bed with my mom and my mom has always been in love with another person."

"I am afraid it will be hard to accept being any man..."

Charlie nodded in embarrassment. If judged from a completely objective point of view, he would also feel that the marriage between Zara's parents was due to her mother's fault.

But the man her mother loved was his father, so Charlie didn't know how to evaluate it.

At this time, Zara looked at Charlie, and saw Charlie also turned his face.

The moment their eyes were facing each other, she hurriedly turned her head, looked at the front of the car, and said softly, "Actually, it's not going to be easy if my mother spends this New Year. After all, the other half next to her is not the one she really loves."

“Even if she is willing, she must be disappointed...”

Then, she mustered up the courage to look at Charlie and said seriously, “In fact, before, I don’t quite understand what my mother did, and in my heart I feel that she failed my dad.”

“Even if the two of them had talked before they got married, I think my mom shouldn’t be so stingy with my dad in love...”

At this point, Zara lowered her eyelids lightly and said quietly, “But since I met you, I have understood my mother more and more...”

“She must have fallen in love, just like me now. A man who can’t ask for it...”

Charlie coughed twice, “Ahem... Is it a bit sloppy to say this now...”

Zara shook his head, looked at Charlie, and said seriously, “This is indeed the case, but I will not be the same as my mother.”

“If I were her, I would rather not marry for the rest of my life than marry a man I don’t love.”

After she finished, she stared at Charlie with two cheeks.

The small cheeks on the side bulged slightly, and said solemnly, “Charlie! If I become an older leftover woman in the future, or even die alone, don’t doubt, it must be because of you!”

Chapter 3525

After Zara said this, before Charlie could make any response, she hurriedly pushed the car door open.

The words just now have exhausted all her courage.

So she did not dare to stay with Charlie because she was afraid that she would not be able to control it.

While questioning why he got married so early, she also asked why he had to show up so late at the same time in her life.

Therefore, she left Charlie as if fleeing, without saying goodbye, and rushed into the Banks family villa without looking back.

Looking at her slender figure, Charlie felt a little uncomfortable in his heart.

The more he saw Deana Thorne's unhappiness in her life, the less Charlie wanted Zara to rush to her mistakes.

Fate shouldn't play tricks on the mother and daughter so that they are all trapped in an almost identical vicious circle.

However, things like fate are sometimes just jokes.

He not only gave the mother and daughter a similar life trajectory, but even made them fall in love with a father and son.

Seeing that Zara's back disappeared, Charlie sighed in melancholy.

He didn't know how to deal with Zara's feelings for him.

But Charlie really didn't want Zara to choose a person to die alone like she just said.

Although it is still too early to say this, Zara's slender body contains strong determination and energy.

Now that she said so, it is very likely that she will do it.

However, Charlie has no way to change her decision right now, so he can only comfort herself, after all, Zara is still very young, and might change her mind with the increase of life experience in the future.

At the same time, Zara didn't think so.

She firmly determined one thing in her heart, and that was, Even if she lived to be a hundred years old, she would never meet any better man than Charlie and more attractive to her.

This man appeared in her life at the age of her first love, and his appearance is the peak. In this life, no one can surpass it.

At this time, Sun's house is brightly lit.

Orrin knew that Charlie had returned from Northern Europe, and that he would definitely come to his home after he had dealt with the affairs on Wade Mountain.

Therefore, he had prepared a table for a sumptuous dinner early, and then ordered all the dishes to be placed in the high-end warming drawer, waiting for Charlie's return.

When Charlie drove back to Sun's house, it was already more than ten o'clock in the evening.

When Stefanie heard a car driving into the yard, she ran out of the house with excitement, followed by Orrin and Angie.

Chapter 3526

Charlie heard that when he got out of the car, he was hugged by Stefanie and said excitedly, "Brother Charlie, you are finally back!"

Orrin also smiled, "Charlie, you should be able to deal with the things on Wade Mountain?"

Charlie nodded and said respectfully, "Uncle Orrin, a few things have been handled well."

Orrin smiled and said, "Needless to say, I don't have to go to Wade Mountain."

"I can guess that the collateral branch must be cleaned up by you."

"The Banks family's affairs have long been safe."

"The Nordic affairs have been reported in the news."

"The Nordic Queen suddenly went from critically ill to recovery, which caused the Western countries a huge hot discussion, I knew it must be yours at a glance!"

"Only you have the ability to resurrect the sky!"

Charlie smiled, "I just used a little rejuvenation pill."

Orrin smiled, "I know how amazing your Rejuvenation Pill is."

"The more people who have almost died, the more afraid of death, the more they can understand the preciousness of life, in front of life, what assets, rights, status, titles, is all imaginary."

After speaking, Orrin asked hurriedly, "How did you deal with Wesley and the Dragon Hall?"

Charlie said, "I let Wesley to bury his parents first."

"When he finishes it, he will go to Aurous Hill to find me."

"Okay!" Orrin nodded and sighed, "The Dragon Hall is a sharp sword."

"Charlie, you can include this sword under your command. It will definitely be the icing on the cake and the wings of a tiger in the future!"

Then, Orrin was serious and serious, reminding, "But Charlie, how to make good use of Dragon Hall is a big problem."

"After all, their status is special, and there are tens of thousands of people under their command."

"Some careless handling will probably bring unnecessary trouble to yourself. So Charlie, do you have any specific plans for the next step?"

Charlie replied, "Most of the mercenaries in the Dragon Hall are overseas."

“I don’t plan to let them come to China in the future, so my plan is to let them have a stable and reliable place overseas.”

“As before, it strayed in various war-torn places.”

After speaking, Charlie said again, “It is best to choose a base for them, let them take root, and also change their business strategy.”

“They are pure mercenaries. You can help whoever you give more money.”

“There is no concept of right and wrong, so they have done good things and bad things.”

“In the future, I will set a tone for them, one that is at least not compatible with the world.”

“The tone of any sovereign country in the above is that they can only accept legal employment from a sovereign country in the future, and at the same time they must not be an enemy of any sovereign country.”

“That is to say, if a country hires them to attack another country, such a thing is absolutely unacceptable, unless a country hires them to surrender illegal armed forces.”

“In this way, they can also have a good relationship with the mainstream world.”

Orrin nodded very seriously and said, “Yes! Although this is a world where the strong eats the weak, the basic logic still follows the legal principles, and cooperation with sovereign countries can stand up to the legal principles.”

After speaking, Orrin said again, "However, Charlie, I think you'd better transform the Dragon Hall more thoroughly."

Charlie asked hurriedly, "Uncle Orrin, what good suggestions do you have?"

Just as Orrin was about to speak, Angie on the side couldn't help but said, "Oh, don't you two just chat in the yard."

"The food is ready already, so let's go in and eat and talk!"

Stefanie still hugged Charlie's arm tightly, and said softly, "Yes Dad! I'm already hungry, I'm waiting for brother Charlie to come back to eat together."

"Yes, yes!" Orrin said with a smile, "Charlie, let's go in and talk while eating!"

Immediately, there were four people went inside the villa restaurant and sit at the dining table.

As soon as Charlie sat down, he couldn't wait to ask Orrin, "Uncle Orrin, what good ideas and suggestions do you have about Dragon Hall?"

Orrin said seriously, "I think if it is just the Dragon Hall, then it is naturally being a mercenary is because that is the most profitable and the most able to grow."

After that, Orrin turned his head and said seriously, "But Charlie, you have to know that your current low-key and dormancy are only temporary."

"Since you want to carry the Wade family forward, one day you will walk from behind the scenes to the front in person!"

“When that day comes, everyone in the world will focus on you.”

“There must be a large group of people eager to unearth your so-called black history, especially your enemies.”

“They will never let go of the opportunity to frame and attack you in front of the whole world!”

“If the Dragon Hall was still a mercenary organization at that time, and you, as the true master of the Dragon Hall, you would be responsible for all the blood debts of the Dragon Hall.”

“Once others know about this relationship, you will definitely be rejected by mainstream society.”

“And once you are rejected by mainstream society, it will affect not only your own reputation, but also the reputation of the Wade family.”

“So, my suggestion is that you should make the Dragon Hall complete bleaching and transformation as soon as possible, and make it reasonable and legal all over the world!”

“Otherwise, if you accept the Dragon Hall today, it will be equivalent to striking yourself with a thunder!”

Chapter 3527-3530

Orrin's words made Charlie instantly alert.

The identity and situation of the Dragon Hall are indeed special.

In the mainstream world, mercenary organizations like this will always be given a gray tone.

If the people are asked to choose a label between good and bad, then in the eyes of the masses, the organization is undoubtedly bad.

Now, the outside world does not know about the fact that he has incorporated the Dragon Hall, but this matter cannot always be a secret, and there will be a day when it will be known.

At that time, people's aversion to mercenary organizations will also be imposed on him.

So Charlie hurriedly asked Orrin, "Uncle Orrin, do you have any good suggestions about Dragon Hall?"

Orrin smiled and said seriously, "I have an idea, it may not be good, but it is really worth a shot."

"If you want to, you really have to make a certain sacrifice."

"Whether it is feasible or not depends on your choice. If you don't dislike it, then I will probably tell you."

Charlie nodded and said humbly, "Your both experience and personal ability are much stronger than mine, and I believe your method must be much better than I can think of!"

Orrin laughed and said, "You don't need to shoot flattery."

"I will probably talk about my thoughts with you. "

Speaking, Orrin sat upright and said seriously, "In my opinion, the greatest value of the Dragon Hall lies in its combat effectiveness."

"If combat effectiveness is used in the field of mercenaries, the natural benefits will be higher, but the social response and public reputation are poor."

"In this case, you may wish to change Dragon Hall's future business strategy so that it can still make money from its own combat power."

"Sovereign countries cooperate, stand from the perspective of sufficient justice and sufficient legal principles."

"On the other hand, I think we can explore the field of international security."

"International security has developed rapidly in recent years, and the reputation in the eyes of the people is very positive!"

"International Security?" Charlie asked hurriedly, "Uncle Orrin, what are the main areas of international security that you are talking about?"

Orrin smiled and said, "You have to vigorously develop ocean transportation now, ocean transportation is one of the main areas of international security!"

"Piracy is rampant in Somalia and other regions."

“Although many countries have escort fleets, after all, there is a demand for international logistics.”

“It’s too big to be guaranteed for every ship, so international security is very popular in this area;”

Chapter 3528

“Commercial ships that generally pass through the areas of piracy activities will employ several international security personnel, who are responsible for protecting the safety of ships.”

“Traveling through the area of pirate activities, you can also fight back when you encounter pirates and board the ship.”

“For ship-owners and shipping companies, it has gradually evolved into a rigid demand industry;”

“Dragon Hall is strong. If you mobilize thousands of people to specialize in this field, you will definitely have no problem with your own strength.”

“And now that you have BAIT Shipping, you can still meet your related needs to a large extent in the future.”

Speaking of this, Orrin said again, “I will tell you one more thing.”

“Now the countries with the highest global economic development are actively cooperating with third world countries, especially in infrastructure construction, such as regions in Asia, Africa and Latin America.”

“There are already many companies undertaking infrastructure construction, and there will be more and more in the future!”

“Their roads, railways, telecommunications, transmission grids and even water conservancy construction basically rely on overseas companies, and their home countries have poor economic development and public security.”

“It is difficult to ensure the safety of employees of these overseas companies in the local area.”

“At this time, international security personnel are also needed for effective protection, not only to ensure the safety of overseas employees, but also to ensure the progress of local projects.”

“The people are very fond of this kind of international security.”

“In our words, it means that the masses have a solid foundation!”

“There are so many third-world countries and so many infrastructure projects in the world, and the demand for international security is definitely huge.”

“If this project is carried out, it can at least solve the transformation of thousands or even tens of thousands of Dragon Hall soldiers.”

“As a result, it will not take a few years for the Dragon Hall to complete a transformation.”

“If the Dragon Hall can accumulate a large number of successful cases in the past few years, such as successfully repelling pirates, successfully repelling thugs and even illegal armed forces, repeatedly defending and saving the lives and property safety of the people and foreign-related companies, the reputation of Dragon Hall will definitely become an international security company with a strong mass base and public reputation!”

At this point, Orrin paused slightly, smiled mysteriously, and continued, “If you still need Dragon Hall to do something ugly for you, you must remove these people from Dragon Hall in advance.”

“It will not have any negative impact on you or on the Dragon Hall.”

“If someone catches the clues and asks them directly, and you don’t admit it, if there is no real evidence, who can do you?”

When Charlie heard this, there is already some upsurge.

At the same time, he was also aware of the huge gap between himself and the established entrepreneurs like Orrin.

Orrin’s view of the overall situation, detailed control, and awareness of danger in times of peace are all accumulated and cultivated through years of practical experience, and they are also lacking in young people like himself.

The series of solutions he said can completely solve the problem of Dragon Hall’s own attributes.

As long as it is managed properly, Dragon Hall will be able to successfully transition from a gray mercenary organization to a white attribute, and even an international security company that is highly praised by the outside world.

This is a thorough whitewashing!

Thinking of this, Charlie said gratefully, “Uncle Orrin, your suggestion is great.”

“After Wesley arrives in Aurous Hill, I will tell him your plan and let him follow the steps you said to move forward quickly.”

“Strive to complete the transformation in a short time!”

Orrin smiled, “I’m just some personal talk, as long as it is useful to you!”

Charlie exclaimed, “It is so useful! Thank you, Uncle Orrin!”

Orrin smiled, “Why are you so polite with me? If you can use my old bones in the future, just open your mouth.”

Charlie nodded and sighed, “I was worried about the tens of thousands of soldiers in the Dragon Hall.”

“There are still more than 10,000 soldiers from the Dragon Hall captured in the Middle East.”

“At that time, they must let the other party release all of them, but after they are released, how to settle so many people is also a very difficult problem.”

“But your suggestion just now is really great.”

“I can first divide the soldiers of the Dragon Hall into three parts.”

“One part will continue to be mercenaries, but it must be reasonable and legal, and the other part will be used for international security for ocean transportation.”

“Let them cooperate first with BAIT Shipping, after gaining popularity, naturally many peers will come to the door, and the remaining part will be dedicated to the specific security of the third world project.”

Orrin laughed and said, "I have many friends in third worlds countries."

"The countries has undertaken infrastructure projects. I think they must be in need of security personnel. Tomorrow I will call and ask to see if their demand is large."

After that, Orrin said, "Right , if you do this for security work, you have to ask Wesley to find a way to solve the problem of the local legal gun license."

"As a foreigner, you must never hold a gun without a license."

"Most countries and regions are very sensitive to guns and do not handle them well."

"When the time comes, the white ones will become black!"

Chapter 3529

Hearing Orrin's reminder, Charlie immediately nodded and said, "Uncle Orrin, don't worry, since I have decided to transform, everything must be reasonable and legal."

"I will make this clear to Wesley!"

Charlie added, "Moreover, based on my current understanding of the Dragon Hall, most of their soldiers are martial artists."

"Even if they don't have thermal weapons, their combat effectiveness will never be inferior."

"There is definitely no problem with ordinary armed personnel."

Orrin smiled and said, "That would be great."

"As long as it is reasonable and legal, this matter will definitely be able to go on for a long time."

"If it can be thoroughly cleaned up, it will be a great thing for Dragon Hall!"

Charlie nodded, picked up the wine glass, and respectfully said, "Come on, Uncle Orrin, I toast you! Thank you for designing a bright road for Dragon Hall!"

"Okay!" Orrin picked up the wine glass and said seriously, "Uncle just hopes that when you lead the Wade family and stand on the top of the world in the future, you will not have countless black histories like those rich and powerful."

"You can guarantee a clean history!"

He sighed as he said, "If we don't say anything else, just say that in our country, some people sell fake goods and become the richest man in the face; some people rely on piracy and plagiarism to make money."

"Relied on rogue software to become industry leaders, and some people became billionaires by embezzling public assets."

"Those who relied on their wives and father-in-law to engage in speculation and even empty white wolves are even more numerous!"

Charlie laughed at himself, and said, "Uncle Orrin, if I say that, my history may not be truly glorious. The grandchild of the family is still locked in Aurous Hill."

"That's different." Orrin blurted out, "I've heard you say about the Kobayashi family."

“If they hadn’t coveted your pill, they wouldn’t have caused a major disaster.”

“Since they were the first to make a mistake, everything you did was justified!”

“So you don’t have the psychological burden!”

Charlie smiled awkwardly, and then said, “I went to Northern Europe this time and knocked 9 billion euros from a collateral branch of the Rothschild family.”

The three Sun family members were dumbfounded. 9 billion euros, even from the Sun family’s point of view, is a huge sum of money.

Charlie can knock out so much money from the Rothschild family, it is incredible.

Orrin asked nervously, “Charlie, why did you get in touch with the Rothschild family so early?”

“This is not a good thing for you.”

“Although the Wade family is very strong now, the Rothschild family is still far better and a thousand miles away...”

Charlie hurriedly said, “It’s just a collateral branch family, and what I did was relatively simple, and I won’t leave any clues.”

“As for the money that was washed into the hands of the Ito family through Dragon Hall’s overseas channels, I didn’t get involved.”

After speaking, Charlie explained the conflict between himself and William's family in the Nordic Palace to the three people.

However, Charlie didn't say so clearly about controlling the croupier with his aura, only that he was proficient in some hypnotisms.

After listening, Stefanie exclaimed and said excitedly, "Brother Charlie did this thing so much!"

"What about William Rothschild wanting to pit my brother Charlie's money, it's just a fight! He deserves to be sent to Syria to experience life."

Chapter 3530

Orrin also relieved, nodded and said, "Since the incident was inside the palace, but others have been brought under control, and that basically there is nothing to worry about."

Angie hurriedly asked, "By the way, Charlie, that Aman Ramovic will not be at any risk, right?"

Charlie shook his head and said, "He is not in the gambling game and the subsequent events, and I don't know what happened."

Angie relaxed and nodded, "That's good."

Charlie and Orrin were very happy with this meal.

The two of them drank at the dinner table until midnight, only to end the wine party unfinished at the request of Angie and Stefanie.

Stefanie sent Charlie to the guest room, because knowing that Charlie would return to Eastcliff early in the morning, she insisted on driving him in person tomorrow morning.

Charlie readily agreed.

Charlie didn't sleep much this night.

All he was thinking about was the future of himself and the Wade Family.

In addition to the Wade family's current industry, he also looks forward to his own BAIT Shipping and the Oracle Pharmaceutical.

If these two industries can become bigger and stronger, either one will have the opportunity to create trillions of wealth.

Needless to say, the vast majority of logistics in the world rely on shipping, and the space for future development will only increase.

As for Oracle Pharmaceutical, Charlie has a large number of excellent prescriptions, and the "Nova Dias" can also become a global best-selling medicine.

What's more valuable is that other pharmaceutical companies, such as Pfizer, Novartis, Merck & Co., etc., cost billions of dollars to develop a drug at random, and it takes several years, and the success rate is not high.

Therefore, most of their sales income has to be used to cover research and development costs, but Charlie does not have to spend a penny on research and development.

The rest was the Dragon Hall that he had just received.

As soon as possible to let this group of people succeed in whitewashing has become his top priority now.

Orrin's words gave him a lot of inspiration.

An armed organization like the Dragon Hall, whether it will continue to be a mercenary in the future, or allocate a part of its power for international security, it must have a relatively loose and free core base.

And this base not only has to meet the daily life and training of the members of the Dragon Hall, but also is used to store the important equipment and materials of the Dragon Hall.

However, in most countries and regions, it is impossible to allow tens of thousands of armed personnel to be stationed in their own countries, so how to choose a location has become a very difficult problem.

The Dragon Hall was originally to seek a stable base, so it was willing to serve Syria regardless of remuneration, and then suffered heavy losses in the hands of Commander Hamid and Charlie.

Charlie thought of this, and suddenly his eyes lit up.

Syria is indeed a good choice, and it can even be said to be the best choice at the moment.

Not only because the local situation is turbulent, but also because Commander Hamid is there.

The Dragon Hall and Commander Hamid can complement each other to some extent.

As for the official side, it should not be too difficult to promote.

After all, if Dragon Hall cooperates with the government, it can bring many benefits to the government.

On the one hand, the Dragon Hall has strong combat effectiveness and can help officials maintain stability; on the other hand, it can also help officials train soldiers.

They can even pay the government to rent a large amount of land.

The Dragon Hall is not short of money anyway.

Moreover, Syria's geographical location is also good.

It itself is on the east coast of the Mediterranean Sea, just a few hundred kilometers from the Suez Canal, the throat of shipping.

Passing through the Suez Canal and then through the Red Sea is the Gulf of Aden where pirates are rampant.

The Suez Canal is the only route for shipping from Asia to Western Europe.

Therefore, if shipping security is to be carried out in the future, the main battlefield will be around the Gulf of Aden.

If the Dragon Hall is to build a headquarters base in Syria, the straight-line distance from the Gulf of Aden can be shortened to more than two thousand kilometers.

Although it sounds a bit far, the distance is already close for the tens of thousands of kilometers of air routes.

If they can rely on this headquarters base to establish forward position around the Gulf of Aden, then it will be more convenient to escort the merchant ships through this forward position.

Therefore, Charlie thinks that the most important thing at the moment is how to promote the cooperation between Dragon Hall and Syria!

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3531-3534

Chapter 3531

The next morning, Charlie said goodbye to Orrin and Angie, and Stefanie drove him to the airport.

The Eastcliff road in the early morning is very smooth, but Stefanie deliberately drives slowly, and she doesn't care at all about passing by car after another.

The main reason why she drives so slowly is that she is really reluctant to leave.

Charlie also guessed what she was thinking, so she didn't urge her.

Stefanie drove absent-mindedly and said to Charlie, "By the way, Brother Charlie, will you still come to Eastcliff some time?"

Charlie thought for a moment and replied, "When the professional manager team of the Wade family is ready to report the information, I will meet them, but I'm not sure if I will still come to Eastcliff, or let them report to me in Aurous Hill."

Stefanie said quietly, "I may be very busy in April. There are still several concerts to be promoted in China. Then from next month, I will start the overseas tour of the concert. I may not be in China for a long time..."

Charlie asked her, "How many tours are there?"

Stefanie said, "There are fifteen at present, but they are still increasing."

Charlie asked puzzledly, "Why is it still increasing?"

Stefanie put out her tongue and said helplessly, "There are still a lot of overseas fans, because it is the last farewell concert. Many fans are jointly asking for more cities to host. The agency discussed with me that everything depends on me. It's not easy for me to refuse so many fans' requests, so I added a few more stations in Europe and the United States."

With that, Stefanie said again, "By the way, there is also one in Northern Europe, and it's June."

Charlie smiled and said, "Then Helena will go to support you then!"

Stefanie said quickly, "No, no, she will ascend the throne as the queen soon. It's not appropriate to go to the concert."

"What's wrong with this?" Charlie laughed and said, "Don't British princes often take their wives and children to watch football games? Helena succeeded to the throne in a young age. If she put the queen's shelf so early, it would be not conducive to consolidating the grassroots foundation at the bottom. The best way is to go deep into the people and strive for positive exposure as much as possible, so that when she is fifty or sixty years old, she can be a queen loved and supported by the people."

Stefanie couldn't help laughing and said, "Brother Charlie, I heard what you say. Why do you feel that you didn't let Helena support me, but let Helena rub my heat..."

With that, Stefanie hurriedly explained, "I'm kidding. Don't take it seriously. I'm not the kind of person who haggles over every detail.”

Charlie laughed and said, “That’s what I meant. It’s like a prince of Britain. Although he is also loved by most people, he is far less popular with football and stars. He went to the football game in fact to win the favor of these fanatical fans. To put it bluntly, it’s also rubbing the heat.”

Stefanie nodded and asked him, “Brother Charlie, that Helena, should like you very much, right?”

Charlie asked in surprise, “Why do you say that?”

Chapter 3532

Stefanie said seriously, “You saved her life, her mother, and even helped her regain the throne. It’s equivalent to picking her out of the Mariana Trench and sending her to Mount Everest. As long as she is a normal woman, I’m afraid she will fall in love with you...”

Charlie said embarrassedly, “That’s her freedom...”

Stefanie glanced at him and said, “This Wade family’s ancestral worship ceremony, your confidants have come a lot...”

Charlie said vaguely, “It’s all friends... ordinary friends...”

Stefanie pouting with a ghost on her face, “I declare in advance that I’m not jealous. If anyone wants to be your woman in the future, it will still be a jealous jar, and sooner or later I will sour myself.”

Charlie was ashamed and quickly changed the topic and asked her, “By the way, when are you going overseas?”

Seeing that he changed the topic and did not continue to be aggressive, Stefanie followed his words and said, "From the beginning of next month, I'll go to Canada, Vancouver, Montreal, Toronto and Ottawa respectively, and then go south from Canada to the United States. The first stop is New York, and then go west from the east coast, Chicago. Houston, then Los Angeles and San Francisco on the West Coast, may travel around North America for about a month, and then go to Europe after that."

After saying that, Stefanie looked at Charlie and said aggrievedly, "Brother Charlie, once I start to tour overseas, I may not see you for two or three months..."

Charlie comforted, "Isn't it important for you to work? Besides, say goodbye to the concert again. After finishing this concert tour, you can stay in Eastcliff."

Stefanie nodded and said, "After officially withdrawing from the entertainment industry, I will have to go to Sun's Group to take over."

After saying that, she looked at Charlie and said with a smile, "Brother Charlie, I have already decided to invest in a few projects in Aurous Hill first, and run to Aurous Hill in three days or two. Will you welcome me then?"

Charlie smiled and said, "Okay, as long as you want, I will definitely welcome you!"

Stefanie said quickly, "Then let's say that. Don't despise me because I'm old, let alone hide from me."

"Okay..." Charlie had to agree.

Stefanie was satisfied and drove all the way to the airport hangar. The private plane Orrin gave to Charlie stopped here. The Concorde passenger plane next door has taken off again for Northern Europe.

In addition to Deana Thorne going back to Aurous Hill's plane with Charlie this time, Don Albert and Isaac Cameron also came over to rub the plane back.

When Charlie arrived at the airport, they had been there for a long time. Deana Thorne stood next to the boarding car with a small suitcase, while Don Albert and Isaac Cameron stood at the door of the hangar and smoked quietly.

A staff member kindly reminded, "You two, smoking is strictly prohibited in the hangar..."

Don Albert waved his hand disdainfully, "Didn't those two big engines on the plane leave by ignition? It's all right. What's wrong with our two broken cigarette butts?"

The staff said awkwardly, "Sir, this is not of a nature..."

Don Albert smacked his lips and said, "Wow... I said why are you stubborn? Just turn your face and pretend that you haven't seen it?"

Isaac Cameron stuffed the cigarette butt into the mineral water bottle he drank half, patted Don Albert on the shoulder, and said, "Okay, don't embarrass others. Pinch the cigarette."

Although Don Albert was a little unhappy, he didn't say anything and threw the cigarette butt in.

At this time, Charlie came to the door of the hangar by car. As soon as the two saw Charlie coming, they hurriedly stood up straight and waited respectfully.

As soon as the car arrived, Don Albert quickly stepped forward, opened the co-pilot's door, and said respectfully to Charlie, "Young master, you're here!"

Charlie frowned and said, "Don Albert, don't you all call me Master Wade? Why did you change it?"

Don Albert said, "Young master, you are the Patriarch of the Wade family now, and the new owner of Dragon Hall. Looking around the world, who can compete with you? In your current noble capacity, how can I call you Master Wade again..."

Charlie waved his hand, "No, whether it's noble or not, you'd better call me Master Wade. I still like this name more than the 'Lord of the Wade family' and the 'Young Master of the Wade family'."

Don Albert was still a little embarrassed. He always felt that Charlie was neglected like this, but Isaac Cameron was much smarter than Don Albert. He said respectfully, "Master Wade, the plane is ready and can take off at any time. In addition, Ms. Thorne has also arrived. I just asked her to get on the plane to rest first. She didn't want to say anything and insisted on getting on the plane until you come."

Charlie nodded, pointed to Isaac Cameron and said to Don Albert, "See, Isaac is much better than you."

Don Albert smiled awkwardly, "Master Wade is right. How can I compare with Mr. Cameron's brains faster than the plane engine!"

Chapter 3533

Seeing Don Albert teasing Isaac Cameron, Charlie can't help but smile. Thinking about Orrin's advice on the Dragon Hall, he felt and said, "Don Albert, you should take time to do more self-improvement. What will happen in the future? I don't think you can manage it yourself. Give all four kings to you and let them take full responsibility."

Don Albert agrees without hesitation and says, "Master Wade, I will do what you say. I will have a meeting with them when I return, and leave them all the things."

Afterwards, Don Albert asked in a little shame, "By the way, Master Wade... if I gave it all up, what should I do in the future?"

The reason why Charlie keeps Don Albert by his side is because of Don Albert's loyalty to him.

Even if he don't know what he'll do next, and what he can do, he must first agree to his requirements. This is much more sincere than ordinary people.

For the same thing, if you turn into someone else, others will likely ask yourself what you want to do next, then consider the benefits and losses, and eventually make a decision.

But Don Albert is completely obedient.

Therefore, Charlie said to Don Albert earnestly, "Next, I plan to let Wade family increase investment in Aurous Hill and build Aurous Hill into the second-largest base camp of Wade family. At that point, there will be lots of big projects launching in Aurous Hill. I will find a task for you to ensure your income is more than ever before, and your income is cleaner too!"

Hearing this, Don Albert says with great gratitude, "Master Wade... Thank you for your support!"

Charlie waved his hand and advised, "Don't always talk about your gratitude, just do it well."

"Yes!"

Charlie stared at Isaac Cameron again, and when Isaac Cameron heard that he had given Don Albert a promise, there was no slight displeasure or jealousy on his face, and he recognized Isaac Cameron's character in his heart.

Therefore, he said to Isaac Cameron, "Isaac, in the future, Wade family business in Aurous Hill will basically be entrusted to you. You should also expand your team so it will not fail Aurous Hill in the future. Investments can be counted in hundreds of billions. For a plate that big, you have to be able to control it."

Isaac Cameron nodded very calmly and said, "Master Wade can be assured that I will definitely expand the size of the team and improve the team level asap."

Charlie nodded lightly, and then said to Stefanie, "Stefanie, you can send me here, and tell Uncle Orrin and Aunt Angie for me, next time I come to Eastcliff, I will visit them at home."

Stefanie said with an anxious expression, "Brother Charlie, you have to board the plane first, and I'll wait for your plane to take off before leaving."

Charlie smiled and said, "Maybe we'll meet again in a few days, don't make it like a farewell to life and death, I'll be relieved to see you go with my own."

Stefanie nodded lightly, "Well Brother Charlie, hope your journey goes well. Let me know when you arrive."

"Okay." Charlie smiled a little, "Be careful on your way back."

If it wasn't for Don Albert and Isaac Cameron here, he would have asked Charlie for a while and hugged him before letting him back.

Chapter 3534

Charlie watched Stefanie drive out of hangar. Then he turned around and came to the steps. Deana Thorne stood in place with a trolley suitcase in both hands, smiled at Charlie, and said smiling, "Taking me back to Aurous Hill, did I trouble you?"

Charlie rush to say, "Aunt Deana, come on, I'll help you carry your luggage."

By saying that, Charlie has taken a suitcase from her, and then signaled to invite Deana Thorne, and said respectfully, "Aunt Deana, please first."

Deana Thorne still wants to refuse, but seeing Charlie's sincere and disrespectful attitude, she said softly, "Thank you!"

Soon, she boarded the plane first.

Charlie followed carefully with her suitcase, Don Albert and Isaac Cameron followed behind and boarded the plane.

Back to Aurous Hill this time, there were only four passengers on the plane, crew members closed the cabin door after asking Charlie if he would immediately take off and get a positive answer.

Charlie invited Deana Thorne to sit on the couch in the business jet meeting area, while Don Albert and Isaac Cameron sat on the side seat.

As the plane slowly slides, Charlie says to Deana Thorne, "Aunt Deana, the two next to me are my friends. This is Don Albert, and the other one is Isaac Cameron. If you need help in Aurous Hill, you can contact them directly. Of course you can also contact me directly, but please don't tell my wife."

Don Albert hurry to say, "Miss Thorne, please let me know if you have any needs in Aurous Hill from now on!"

Isaac Cameron also hurriedly said, "Miss Thorne, I am Isaac Cameron. If you have anything to do in Aurous Hill in the future, feel free to order."

Deana Thorne nodded with gratitude and said, "Thank you!"

Afterwards, she looked at Charlie with curiosity and asked, "You'll be back this time, don't you plan to confess your identity to Claire?"

Due to renovation of Charlie's parent's old house, Deana Thorne became a client of Claire, she knew that Claire did not know about Charlie's true identity

When Deana Thorne asked about his wife Claire, Charlie said embarrassedly, "I haven't thought of where to start. Anyway, she knows nothing about these things. If I really wanted to confess my identity, I'm afraid it would take three days and three nights. I can't say it clearly."

Actually, what Charlie thinks is something Claire said by accident.

At that time, she jokingly said that if he was really the eldest of some top family, then she would divorce himself asap.

Charlie knows Claire character. Although she's joking, he usually would. Despite her gentle temperament, she is very stubborn in her bones.

Charlie has been married to her for four years and still knows her character very well.

Also, admitting these things with Claire now will only add to his problem. He just took over Wade family and still has a lot to finish slowly. Dragon Hall still needs an urgent transformation too.

Deana Thorne smiled a little and said, "Sometimes, the more lies are delayed, the more you collect, and if you tell Claire the first time, she shouldn't be too difficult to accept it."

Charlie nodded and said emotionally, "Before Wade family came to me, I didn't acknowledge my life experience to anyone. After the Wade family came to me, I felt that my parents' death had not been revealed and I don't know how much its hidden in secret. It's dangerous, so I keep hiding it from her."

Speaking of this, Charlie said again, “Actually I don’t know now, who actually killed my parents in the past. So if I can prevent from telling her, I think it’s easier.”

Listening to Charlie mention his parents, Deana Thorne’s expression couldn’t resist being dim. She was silent long before she said, “Charlie, you must do your best to get your parents revenge! If there’s anything I can do, tell me and I’ll help!”

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3535-3538

Chapter 3535

It only takes less than two hours to fly from Eastcliff to Aurous Hill.

When the plane landed in Aurous Hill, it was only 10 a.m.

Knowing that Claire was definitely not at home, Charlie did not plan to go home immediately. Instead, he asked Isaac Cameron’s men to send Deana Thorne back to the old house where Charlie’s parents lived, and then went to Shangri-La Hotel with Isaac Cameron and Don Albert.

Today’s Shangri-La Hotel seems to be much quieter than before, which is in great contrast to the crowded scenes of Shangri-La Hotel.

Charlie came to Isaac Cameron’s office. After sitting down, he asked Isaac Cameron, “By the way, Isaac, why is Shangri-La Hotel not as lively as before today? I’ve been here so many times, and today is the most lonely time.”

Isaac Cameron said helplessly, “I heard from my people down yesterday that not only today, but in fact, the business of Shangri-La Hotel has declined significantly in the past few days. Many enterprises in Aurous Hill signed hospitality agreements with us before, treating our hotel as their fixed business hospitality hotel, but Dragon Hall has said before that whoever helps the Wade family, the Dragon Hall will come after them, so they all terminated their cooperation since then.

With that, Isaac Cameron said again, "After subduing Dragon Hall, you claimed that the Wade family had compromised with Dragon Hall. In the past two days, there has been rumors on the market that the Wade family has been conquered by Dragon Hall, so the business of Shangri-La Hotel has also plummeted."

After a pause, Isaac Cameron explained, "Actually, more than half of the business of five-star hotels like ours depends on public cooperation. Some travel agencies with cooperation agreements are on the one hand, and those companies with business hospitality and conference needs are also on the other. As for individual customers who stay in five-star hotels when they go out, there are actually not so many. These companies have now drawn a clear line with Shangri-La Hotel. The number of customers has plummeted by more than half at once, which naturally seems very upsetting."

Hearing this, Charlie couldn't help laughing and said, "These companies are really realistic... Even such a small cooperation, they are willing to break the contract. The spirit of the contract of these people is really lacking."

Isaac Cameron nodded and said, "Young Master, you don't know anything..."

As soon as Charlie stretched out his hand to interrupt him, he said seriously, "Isaac, when you call me Master Wade, I always play very much, just like Don Albert called me Master. Why don't you call me Master Wade? I'm used to calling me that when you have known me for so long."

Isaac Cameron smiled and said, "To be honest, calling you Young Master is really a little awkward..."

After saying that, he quickly returned to the topic and said seriously, "You don't know anything about it, Master Wade. Many local enterprises in Aurous Hill wanted to get along with me before, so they signed a hospitality agreement with us."

"But in fact, the consumption level of our hotel is still very high, and many enterprises grit their teeth to barely get it.”

“For example, if you use an express business hotel as a hospitality, it will only be hundreds of thousand a year, but if it were changed to our five-star hotel, at least six or seven million a year, the pressure is still quite great for them.”

“Now they think the Wade family is gone, and they must feel that there is no need to spend so much extra money to please me.”

Charlie nodded and said lightly, “In this case, why don’t you remove half of the hotel’s rooms from the sales side?”

Chapter 3536

With that, Charlie said again, “From now on, all the administrative buildings of Shangri-La Hotel will stop selling, leaving the whole building behind. I have other uses for it.”

“Okay.” Isaac Cameron nodded without hesitation and said, “Then I will inform the management in a moment and remove these rooms from the shelves in omni-channel immediately.”

Charlie hummed and said, “When Wesley comes, let the people of Dragon Hall live in first. In addition, leave a suite for Xion, and then leave twenty rooms for me to be a business hospitality. In the future, let the professional managers of the Wade family come to Aurous Hill regularly to report their work to me.”

“Good young master.” Isaac Cameron quickly said, “I will coordinate immediately to replace all the staff of the administrative building with my cronies, and at the same time strengthen security management to strictly prevent outsiders from entering.”

“Very well.” Charlie nodded and said, “When Wesley comes, I will ask him to transfer a five-star general from the Dragon Hall, and then thirty well-trained men. At that time, they will form a flexible security team in Aurous Hill, under your command. The loyalty of the people under you is enough, but the combat effectiveness is a little weaker. With the Dragon Hall supplement, the overall strength will be qualitatively improved.”

Isaac Cameron said respectfully, “Good Master Wade! At that time, I will also take this opportunity to let the people of Dragon Hall help us cultivate more talents!”

At this time, there was a knock on the door and the voice of a young woman, “Mr. Cameron, Mr. Graham Quinton of the Quinton family, Mr. Zeke White of the White family wants to see you.”

Isaac Cameron said in surprise, “Why did Graham Quinton and Zeke White wants to see me at this time?”

After saying that, he looked at Charlie and asked, “Master Wade, do you want to see them?”

“Of course.” Charlie nodded and said, “They have come, how can I avoid them?”

Isaac Cameron quickly said to the female secretary at the door, “Take them here.”

“Okay, Mr. Cameron.”

A moment later, the female secretary went back and forth, with Graham Quinton and Zeke White.

As soon as the two entered the door, they couldn't help but be surprised to see Charlie and Don Albert sitting on the sofa.

Graham Quinton quickly asked, “Master Wade, why are you here?”

Charlie smiled and said, “I didn't hear that something had happened to Mr. Cameron's boss, so as soon as he came back, I would come and have a look.”

Graham Quinton and Zeke White suddenly realized.

In fact, they also have this purpose.

They have long heard that something big has happened to the Wade family, and Isaac Cameron is not in Aurous Hill. They think that he must have gone to Eastcliff.

Just now, Graham Quinton heard from his own news channel that Isaac Cameron had returned to Shangri-La Hotel, so he quickly called Zeke White to come and have a look.

When they first entered Shangri-La Hotel, they both saw that the business of the hotel was much bleaker than before, and they knew the general situation, so Zeke White said, “Mr. Cameron, we are actually coming here this time to strengthen cooperation with the Shangri-La Hotel.”

With that, Zeke White said again, “Didn’t I develop two properties in the suburbs? They sold well at the opening, and sold half in less than a month, so I just want to hold an owner’s appreciation meeting. At that time, I will hold banquets, programs, draw lots and so on. At that time, you have to give me the largest banquet hall of Shangri-La Hotel!”

Graham Quinton also said with a smile, “This year’s blessing of our Quinton family, the supply of medicinal materials has set a record. In the past, we rushed to collect medicine from various medicinal materials in the country. This year, I plan to hold a medicinal material exchange meeting directly in Aurous Hill, so that these group of medicinal material suppliers can bring samples and prices to Aurous Hill for on-site exchange and hand in. Let’s sign the contract on the spot. If it’s not suitable, I’ll reimburse them for the round-trip toll and take care of food and accommodation. At that time, we will have to bother Mr. Cameron to help arrange the reception!”

Seeing the attitude of the two, Charlie felt a little more appreciative.

At this time, others avoided Shangri-La Hotel, but they rushed to deliver business. It can be seen that the two did regard Isaac Cameron as friends.

Therefore, Charlie smiled and said, “Mr. Cameron, since everyone is supporting you like this, I will also cheer up!”

“Save the banquet hall here for me for two days. I’m going to hold an auction!”

Isaac Cameron quickly asked, “Master Wade... What are you going to auction off?”

Charlie smiled and said, “I’ll say hello and ask the Moore family to take out some of the collections of the Moore family to support the scene...”

“As for myself...”

At this point, Charlie laughed at himself and said, “I don’t have anything valuable on me. I’m afraid the only one I can take is Rejuvenating Pill. At most, I will refine a few amulets casually to see who is willing to buy!”

Chapter 3537

When they heard that Charlie was about to shoot the Rejuvenating Pill, everyone present was shocked.

Isaac Cameron unconsciously said, “Master Wade, the last time you sold a rejuvenating pill in the Moore family’s house, the transaction price reached 2 billion. And that moment, it was sold to Travis Lane at 2 billion... ”

After speaking, Isaac Cameron said again, “If we hold a serious auction this time, if we do a good publicity job beforehand, and attract all the rich people, then it will become five billion, or more! ”

Graham Quinton on the side also said, "Yes, Master Wade! Your Rejuvenating Pill have long been famous among the rich in the South. Travis Lane came to comply with the Rejuvenation Pill, and he was almost twenty years younger. For a fifty-year-old man, he looks like he is in his thirties!"

"People also say he's been talking about things between men and women during this time period. Now I don't know how many rich people want to rejuvenate in their dreams! If this message goes out, it's expected that all wealthy people across the country will come to Aurous Hill!"

Charlie said indifferently, "I want this effect. Many people think Aurous Hill can't reach the table. Then I'll let these rich people hurry to Aurous Hill! Many people now want to draw a clear line from Wade family. Then I'll let them bite the bullet and enter Shangri-La Hotel to participate in this auction!"

After speaking, Charlie said again, "In this auction, there are only three core lot. The final is a rejuvenating pill, followed by a rejuvenating pill divided into four parts, each will be auctioned separately, and then three amulet. Moreover, let Jasmine Moore choose some Jade collections to enter and hold the stage."

When Zeke White heard this, he said regretfully, "Oh... the last time I wanted to buy Rejuvenating Pill in the Moore family, I did not have the power to compete with Travis Lane. Now, I don't even know if I can compete in the auction... "

When he said it, he hurriedly asked Charlie again, "Master Wade, what is the effect of the amulet that you're going to auction? If it's right, you have to go to the auction when you have a strong base!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Amulet is nothing more than banishing evil and avoiding havoc. Changing Feng Shui's luck will not be able to live longer and prolong life like Rejuvenating Pill."

Zeke White slapped his thigh, "It can banish evil and avoid disaster, and it can also change Feng Shui's luck. I'll buy one and wear it daily, and maybe business will become more and more prosperous! I will definitely find a way to take one back!"

Charlie waved his hand, "I will auction just to make money from outsiders. You don't have to participate. The amulet is simple. I'll be making some more. I'll give you one at a time. As for rejuvenating pill, you don't have to. It's very expensive to shoot, and when the time is right, I'll give you some."

Graham Quinton and Zeke White were very grateful when they heard this.

The two were fortunate enough to have received Life-Saving Pill given by Charlie before, and the effect has benefited them endlessly, and they both even more looking forward to Rejuvenating Pill.

However, they also know the real situation. The two has only tens of billions of assets in their family in Aurous Hill, and most of the funds are placed in various real estate and companies. If they really want to buy the Rejuvenating Pill with billions of cash, they do not have this power at all.

Although Charlie didn't say the exact time he would give it to them, but because Charlie had this statement, it proves that there is a great chance.

So they're also very clear that in the future they just need to look good in front of Charlie and do their best to do something for Charlie, then Charlie definitely won't treat them badly.

At this point, Isaac Cameron quickly asked, "Master Wade, when do you want to start this auction?"

Charlie asks him, "How long is the initial publicity preparation?"

Isaac Cameron said, "Big auction houses like Christie's and Sotheby generally prepare large-scale auctions. It takes at least half a year. They usually have two large scale auctions a year. In half of this year, there will be at least four months. All kinds of lots are being prepared, like talent shows. Some screening rounds are required to choose the lot that will eventually appear at the auction."

After saying, Isaac Cameron said again, "Also, when all the lot has been confirmed, it will take at least two months to prepare, because it takes longer for them to lay the groundwork for a little publicity and print auction brochure to be sent to all customers, the main customer should bring a customer representative to introduce it directly, tell other parties what good things will be in this auction, and what collection values these items have."

Charlie waved his hand, "It's too long for half a year. This time we will speed up the pace. It's early April, and the auction will be scheduled for the end of April. This time we will use word-of-mouth communication to promote it only among the upper class elites."

After speaking, Charlie said again, "In this auction, the maximum number of people participating in the auction will be given only two hundred places!"

"Also, don't ask for phone offers. Everyone who wants to participate in this auction needs to come to Aurous Hill! They had to sit in the Shangri-La Hotel banquet hall and offer me live!"

"After all, no matter who ends up taking these rejuvenating pills, he/she should take them in the Shangri-La Hotel and shouldn't take somewhere else!"

Everyone is even more shocked when they hear this. Graham Quinton asks inexplicably, "Master Wade, why not take it in public? This doesn't seem too humane..."

Charlie smiled and said, "Of course this kind of thing is inhumane. It's hard for ordinary people to buy cheap Moutai liquor, let alone my rejuvenating pill?"

After speaking, Charlie said again, "You must serve in public to ensure that every rich person who wants to rejuvenate must come alone. Even if the European queen wants it, she needs to go to Aurous Hill to participate in the auction live! Also, it can ensure the effect of rejuvenating pills, witnessed by the others!"

Charlie stopped for a while, raised her eyebrow and asked, "Think about that. By then, there will be a rich person who will take the first quarter of the rejuvenating pill. Once she drinks it on the spot, there will be 199 people. Left, right. What kind of enthusiasm will be on the following three rejuvenating pills and all rejuvenating pills?”

Hearing Charlie’s explanation, everyone seems to have seen a crazy fight in the auction.

Anyway, for the super rich people with only money left, rejuvenating pills that can go back to youth, extend their lives, and eliminate sickness is obviously the craziest thing in the world.

At that point, the price of Rejuvenating Pills will easily be pushed to cloud!

Isaac Cameron was excited and said, “Master Wade, if this auction successfully held, then after the auction, the rejuvenating Pill’s reputation would be known worldwide!”

Charlie nodded and smiled, “All I want is to make it famous worldwide!”

“As long as this auction meets my expectations, this auction will continue in the future!”

“I can offer one or two each year in the future! Even three or four rejuvenating pills will be used for auction. At that point, I wanted this little Aurous Hill to be a sacred place for the richest people in the world to gather and worship!”

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3539-3542

Chapter 3539

For the rich, the appeal of Rejuvenation Pill is definitely more than any other item in this world.

However, Charlie had never regarded Rejuvenation Pill as a commodity for so long before.

The only time the Rejuvenation Pill was auctioned was because Kenneth Wilson was too forceful at Jasmine Moore's birthday party, and Charlie took out a Rejuvenation Pill and slapped him in the face.

As for the other rejuvenation pills, Charlie basically gave it to relatives and friends around him as a favor.

However, the current Charlie's mentality has changed from before.

Before, he was not eager to make money, and he never thought about how much money he would make and what height he would make.

However, now he has become the head of the Wade family and has vowed to carry forward the Wade family.

Therefore, now he must consider how to convert all his resources into interests and influence as much as possible.

He happened to have rooted in Aurous Hill for many years, and now he also hopes that Aurous Hill can take on the burden of Wade family's second center, so bringing the Rejuvenation Pill at the auction will not only make a lot of money, but also increase Aurous Hill's influence, which is definitely two birds with one stone.

At this time, Isaac Cameron asked Charlie respectfully, "Master Wade, how should the two hundred spots be released at the auction?"

Charlie smiled and said, "Find a technical team to develop an official APP software, then let them sign up on our official APP."

Isaac Cameron asked again, "Then if there are too many people signing up, how should we select? First come first served or?"

Charlie waved his hand, "How can such a fair and just rule of first come first serve appear in our APP? We open the door to do business, of course, everything is based on money!"

Isaac Cameron was confused, "Master Wade, what do you mean..."

Charlie smiled and said, "Our APP, in theory, anyone can download, but if I want to sign up, I have two requirements..."

"First, we must accept our capital verification. Only those with actual assets greater than 10 billion are eligible to participate;"

As soon as this was said, everyone's expressions were extremely shocked.

The admission ticket is 10 billion? This threshold is too high! Even for the top high-end clubs in China, the threshold for entry is only about one billion yuan.

Waiting for them to recover from their shock, Charlie said again, "Secondly, we will use the actual amount of capital verification from high to low on this basis to select two hundred places that can finally participate in the auction!"

After speaking, Charlie explained, "In other words, our rankings are in no particular order, regardless of first-come-last-come. It is a simple and rude measure of everyone's strength. Whoever has the most money will be ranked first, and whoever is not rich enough to rank in the top two hundred, then I'm sorry, I don't welcome him here."

Everyone was silly to hear that, Isaac Cameron subconsciously said, "Master Wade...There are no 200 billionaires in the country even if there are more than tens of billions of people..."

Charlie smiled and said, "Who said that it is only limited to China? I will find some people from overseas to help promote the publicity, I believe those rich overseas will also flock to it."

When saying this, Charlie thought of two suitable candidates.

Chapter 3540

One is the old Feng shui master Orion Exeor. He is highly regarded in the American Chinese world. This group of Chinese Americans, including Master Mai, dream of understanding how Orion Exeor became twenty years younger. Once the auction went off, Orion Exeor made it clear that he had only eaten this rejuvenating pill before he was rejuvenated. The rich man in North America might fly back overnight that night.

The other is the Queen of Northern Europe who has just been rescued by herself.

She is still waiting for her follow-up rejuvenation pill.

Naturally, she will be obedient to him. Tomorrow will be Helena's enthronement ceremony. At that time, the royal family and the top rich in Europe will go to Northern Europe to participate in this enthronement ceremony, as long as the old lady in front of this group of rich Europeans, rejuvenating pills will surely make a huge wave in the hearts of this group of nobles.

At that time, the tiny Aurous Hill will probably become the center of attention of the world's richest people.

Speaking of this, Charlie said again, "Isaac, don't many people want to draw a clear line from Shangri-La Hotel? Then you will announce to the public that all those who come to participate in the auction must stay in Shangri-La Hotel to enter!"

"At that time, the housing prices of your Shangri-La Hotel can be directly increased by a hundred times from the original price! The previous one thousand per night becomes 100,000 per night, and the previous 10,000 yuan per night becomes one million per night!”

“Let them see how the top wealthy people grab rooms at Shangri-La Hotel!”

When Isaac Cameron heard this, he said excitedly, “That’s really great! Two or three days will be enough for a year’s turnover...”

Charlie smiled and said, “I hope that through this auction, Aurous Hill’s soft power can be greatly improved!”

“What unique conditions does Silicon Valley in the United States have? Isn’t it because there are so many Internet companies that it has gradually become famous around the world?”

“Las Vegas was originally a desert, but after the gaming industry rose up, it became a world-famous casino in a short period of time.”

“This proves that if a city wants to develop, it does not necessarily need a unique geographical location and natural resources. As long as it can choose the right field and tap the soft power in this field, it will definitely be able to develop.”

Speaking of this, Charlie said arrogantly, “I dare not say that Aurous Hill can be turned into a top prosperous metropolis, but I can definitely build Aurous Hill into a longevity capital for the world’s top richest people!”

“At that time, Aurous Hill’s economic development I believe it will also usher in a huge take-off!”

.....

In order to promote the self-auction plan as soon as possible, Charlie called Jasmine Moore and told her about the idea of the auction.

After listening to Jasmine Moore, she was very excited because she knew very well that this was also a very good promotion for the collections of the Moore family.

Nowadays, there are many companies doing antique calligraphy and painting collection auctions, but not many can make an impact. The reason why Christie's and Sotheby's are globally known is that they have strong connections and influence both upstream and downstream.

The upstream, that is, the source of antique calligraphy and painting, now a lot of good things are in the hands of individual collectors. If they want to take out part of the collection for auction, the first thing they think of is these two big auction houses, so these two big auction houses the so-called source of goods is countless times stronger than the average auction house.

As for the downstream, those wealthy people who are willing to spend a lot of money to bid for collections from auction houses. Generally speaking, they only choose auction houses that are well-known, safe and have good things.

Therefore, big auction houses such as Christie's and Sotheby's can simultaneously meet the needs of upstream and downstream for it, so they can also form a strong business closed loop. The more people trust them, the more good things are given to them for auction. Those buyers are more willing to choose them.

Over time, it is almost impossible for other brands to compete with them.

The Moore family handles a lot of collections every year, but because they do not have a strong influence, neither the purchase price nor the selling price can reach the best condition, and often they cannot receive it with the money.

Charlie is willing to organize together with this auction, which will greatly enhance their influence.

Maybe after one or two auctions, their influence will be on par with Christie's and Sotheby's.

Therefore, Jasmine Moore not only agreed without hesitation, but also promised Charlie that she would definitely bring out the best collection to help Charlie hold up the scene of this auction!

Chapter 3541

The inspiration from the auction made Charlie excited.

After he left Shangri-La Hotel, he did not go home, but went directly to the Emgrand Group to find Doris Young.

At this time, in his heart, there is a longer-term plan.

He wanted to take this opportunity to strengthen the Wade family's commercial layout in Aurous Hill.

As long as the operation of this auction is smooth, Aurous Hill's attention will surely increase rapidly, and by that time, Aurous Hill's commercial value will also rise rapidly.

At that time, land prices in Aurous Hill will rise, housing prices will rise, foreign investment will rise, overall consumption power and economic development will also rise.

Therefore, if the layout is done in advance, the Wade family will definitely be able to seize this opportunity to take off!

Therefore, he is ready to raise funds immediately, hoarding land in Aurous Hill, and at the same time making more investment in high-end service industries in Aurous Hill.

Just like Las Vegas in the United States, there are not only casinos, but also high-end hotels, nightclubs, and restaurants and these high-end supporting industries can also make a fortune.

As for real estate, not to mention.

Charlie even felt that he could develop a top-notch villa area in Aurous Hill. The external sale price could be several or even ten times the market price, starting at 500 million for a set and 50 million a year for property fees.

Don't think you can't sell it, it's possible to sell it!

Because Charlie only needs to take out an extra rejuvenation pill every year to hold an internal auction and only open to this group of owners, then these villas will not worry about selling at all.

All in all, as long as you go all out to promote the value of Rejuvenation Pill, it will be able to continuously promote Aurous Hill's economy and Wade family's industry!

When he arrived at the Emgrand Group, Charlie directly took the chairman's elevator to the floor where Doris Young was.

When Doris Young's secretary saw Charlie's arrival, she hurriedly said respectfully, "Hello young master, are you looking for Vice Doris Young?"

Charlie nodded, and asked her, "Are you Doris Young's secretary here?"

"Yes." The secretary said, "But Vice Doris Young is seeing the guests. Or if you go to the reception room and wait for a while, I'll tell her."

"Okay." Charlie said lightly, "Tell her not to worry, and finish her work before coming to me."

“Good master.”

Charlie followed the female secretary to the reception room next to Doris Young’s office. As soon as they arrived at the door, the female secretary opened the door and said to Charlie, “Master, sit down for a while, I’ll go and talk to Vice Doris Young. “ “Okay.” Charlie replied casually.

Just after speaking, the door of the next door opened, and Charlie suddenly heard a familiar voice from inside, “Vice Doris Young, you stay, I can just go by myself.”

Charlie immediately recognized this voice, it turned out to be his wife Claire.

At this time, Doris Young said with a smile, “Manager Wilson don’t need to be so polite, I will take you to the elevator.”

Immediately afterwards, Charlie saw his wife Claire walking out of Doris Young’s office.

Seeing Claire’s profile, Charlie hurriedly stepped into the reception room, and then closed the door.

Claire only saw a figure flashing into the next room, and when she looked closely, she only saw Doris Young’s secretary standing at the next door, and asked in surprise, “Young Master... what will you do?”

Charlie didn’t answer, because he was afraid that Claire would hear him even if he changed his voice on purpose.

At this time, Doris Young just came out behind Claire. When she heard her secretary mentioned the word Young Master, she hurriedly asked, "What's the matter?"

The secretary hurriedly said, "Vice Doris Young, the young master is here, he said he has something to do with you, but..."

Doris Young hurriedly waved to her and said, "Okay, I know, you can go to work first, I will go to see the young master after I send Manager Wilson."

Although the secretary felt that Doris Young's attitude was a bit strange, her professionalism made her ask nothing. She immediately said simply, "Okay, Vice Doris Young, then I will go ahead."

After speaking, he turned and left.

Doris Young breathed a sigh of relief, adjusted her state, and said to Claire, "Manager Wilson, let's go first."

Claire asked her in a low voice with some curiosity, "Vice Doris Young, the young master that the secretary just mentioned should be the chairman of your Emgrand Group, right?"

Doris Young could only nod her head and said, "Yes, it's our chairman."

Claire asked again, "I used to hear people say that he seems to be the young master of a family in the Eastcliff?"

"Yes." Doris Young said with a smile, "But our young master is relatively low-key, and there is little information about him from the outside world."

Claire nodded slightly. In the past, she was very curious about the actual identity of the chairman of Emgrand Group. After Emgrand Group helped herself several times and even signed a cooperation agreement with herself, she sometimes even had an illusion that she always felt that this chairman of the Emgrand Group seems to have some mysterious relationship with his husband Charlie.

However, whenever she had such an idea, she quickly denied this conjecture.

After all, she knows Charlie's origin very well. He has been an orphan since he was a child, and his life experience can be said to be very pitiful. It is impossible to have any overlap with the young master of a family in Eastcliff.

But she suddenly felt in her heart, "The figure I saw with a glimpse just now, its body shape, including height, seems to be very similar to my husband..."

When she was puzzled, Claire couldn't help but relieve herself, "Claire, Claire, you really think too much. Although the figure is very similar to Charlie just now, what can it explain? You still don't want to catch the wind here."

So thinking of this, she didn't continue to guess, but she said to Doris Young, "Vice Doris Young, since the chairman is here, you don't need to send me off, I just go by myself."

Doris Young smiled and said, "I'll take you to the elevator."

After speaking, he made a gesture of asking, and said, "Manager Wilson, please."

Claire was helpless and could only step outside. When she passed the reception room, she paused for a while, and she was also full of curiosity about the chairman of the Emgrand Group inside.

After all, it has been so long, and no one outside knows who the chairman of Emgrand Group, the largest company in Aurous Hill.

Claire also wanted to know the true identity of the chairman, or in other words, want to see what this low-key person is like.

Seeing her stop, Doris Young hurriedly asked, "What's wrong Manager Wilson?"

Claire recovered and hurriedly said, "Oh, nothing... let's go..."

Doris Young breathed a sigh of relief, and then came to the elevator together with Claire.

She didn't dare to make any difference, so when she saw Claire getting on the elevator and the elevator had started to move downwards, she finally felt relieved, and she called her secretary and said, "From now on, no one is allowed to come to this level, do you hear?"

The secretary hurriedly said, "I know Vice Doris Young, I will be at the elevator entrance. Don't worry."

"Good." Doris Young nodded in satisfaction, and hurriedly went to the drawing room.

At this moment, Charlie couldn't help feeling lingering in the conference room.

Just now, if Claire came out a second earlier, he would have nowhere to hide in that corridor.

If it really hits head-on, even if Doris Young and her secretary can't say anything, there is no way to explain it to Claire.

Obviously, he went to Eastcliff to show his customers Feng Shui. Why did he return to Aurous Hill without saying a word, and came directly to the Emgrand Group to find Doris Young?

Therefore, Charlie felt very grateful in his heart that fortunately, Claire had not caught him!

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3543-3546

Chapter 3543

At this moment, Doris Young knocked on the door outside the reception room, "Young Master, please move to my office."

Charlie opened the door and asked, "Did she leave?"

Doris Young nodded and said, "Manager Wilson has gone down, don't worry."

"Okay." Charlie breathed a sigh of relief, and came to her office with Doris Young, and at the same time asked her, "What did she come here for?"

Doris Young replied, "It is the progress of the Imperial Hotel project."

"The second phase of the project undertaken by Manager Wilson has been completed, and our supervisor will organize the acceptance in these two days."

Charlie asked, "Is it going well?"

Doris Young nodded, "Manager Wilson is doing very well. The quality of the project and the progress of the construction are better than we expected."

“Moreover, it is the most professional and ethical Party B that the Emgrand Group has cooperated with over the years.”

“There is no cutting corners in the construction materials and definitely the industry benchmark.”

Charlie said gratified, “That’s good.”

Doris Young asked at this moment, “By the way, when did you come back from Eastcliff?”

Charlie said, “This morning.”

Doris Young nodded, and said with some shame, “After hearing about the Dragon Hall, I originally planned to go to Eastcliff as soon as possible, but then I thought about my female stream.”

“I was afraid that it would not help you. Instead, I gave you back trouble, Young Master, so I decided to stay in Aurous Hill to ensure that everything in the Emgrand Group operates as usual.”

“Please don’t be angry, Young Master.”

“How come.” Charlie smiled slightly and said seriously, “What you did is right. If there is a turmoil, everyone left their respective posts and ran to help me, but it would make a lot of things deadlocked. It is nothing to me.”

Doris Young hurriedly said, “That’s good... I have always felt that Young Master must have a solution to this crisis!”

Charlie nodded and smiled, “It’s a crisis but it’s an opportunity.”

“I have officially become the Patriarch of the Wade Family, and Dragon Hall has become loyal to me.”

“It’s time to do a big business!”

Doris Young’s expression was extremely shocked, but she soon recovered as usual, and said seriously, “Young Master, you are in charge of the Wade Family, I believe that a new breakthrough will be ushered in soon!”

Charlie said, “Speaking of new breakthroughs, I just went there.”

“I went to Shangri-La Hotel and talked with Isaac Cameron and the others. It happened to be a little new inspiration.”

“Then I came to see you. I have something to discuss with you.”

Doris Young nodded gently and asked curiously, “Young Master, what new inspiration do you have?”

Charlie then explained his thoughts about the auction to Doris Young in detail.

After listening to Charlie, she blurted out with excitement, “If the young master can really attract the world’s richest people, then Aurous Hill’s development will be able to enter the fast lane immediately!”

“The same is true for the Emgrand Group! We must seize this first opportunity to make a layout in Aurous Hill before the auction really arrives.”

Charlie agreed with him and said, "I agree with you. I came to you also for this matter."

Chapter 3544

Charlie asked her, "How much is the available funds of the Emgrand Group?"

Doris Young hurriedly said, "Currently, our available funds are about 13 billion yuan, but we can still borrow from the bank at any time."

"We can at least borrow 40 billion, and the total fund can reach about 50 billion."

Charlie nodded, and said again, "I am transferring 100 billion cash from the Wade family, and I will personally inject another 50 billion."

"Put together 200 billion in cash, and then you use the fastest speed to buy as many good land in Aurous Hill, or land with development prospects as much as possible!"

Doris Young exclaimed, "Young Master, one investment for 200 billion? Will this plate be a bit too big..."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Since we want to seize the opportunity, the larger the size of the funds, the better, otherwise we can't eat meat at all, so I will drink two mouthfuls of soup at most."

Then, Charlie said again, "In the future, Aurous Hill will gradually become a longevity capital."

"In addition to the rejuvenation pill auction, I also plan to engage in several longevity communities and supporting high-end commercial services."

"The threshold for the longevity community must be set infinitely high, so high that almost every owner is a wealthy people on the Forbes rankings that have a name and a surname."

“As long as they live in my urban community, I can give them a certain percentage of rejuvenation pills on a regular basis.”

“For this group of people, a large bucket of water with rejuvenating pill and a glass for each of them are enough for them to rush.”

Doris Young instantly understood what Charlie meant, and said hurriedly, “Young Master, here I have a detailed map of all the land to be developed in Aurous Hill.”

“You might as well have a look. See which piece of land you are more interested in.”

“Okay!”

Doris Young immediately opened the interactive smart screen in the office, and then opened a special Aurous Hill map.

On this map, Aurous Hill urban areas are scattered all over the city.

A green area of different sizes and rules.

Doris Young pointed to the green areas on these maps and said to Charlie, “Young Master, all the green plots on the map are land to be developed and sold.”

“The urban area is relatively small, but it is newly developed.”

“From the beginning of the district to the suburbs, the land supply situation is obviously much better.”

Charlie nodded, pointing to the several plots in the urban area and said, "As far as the city center is concerned, I will try my best to take these plots, and we must pay attention to using the bank leverage as high as possible."

"Make the most of your available funds."

"The Wade family and I will inject 150 billion in cash for you."

"You have to strive for at least three times the leverage and get 450 billion in cash from the bank."

Doris Young said nervously, "Young Master, if this is the case, then our debt will exceed 350 billion."

"If we count the bank loans with interest, it will already exceed 400 billion..."

"Now the real estate market has been sluggish, and policies I have also repeatedly ordered that real estate speculation is not allowed."

"Under such circumstances, is it dangerous for us to achieve such a high debt ratio?"

Charlie smiled and said, "First of all, we are not doing the development of ordinary conventional houses."

"We are also doing super high-premium luxury houses."

"Therefore, we will not drive up the price of ordinary houses in Aurous Hill, nor will it affect ordinary houses in Aurous Hill and the trend of the housing market;"

“Secondly, I will ask you to take the plots in the city center.”

“In the future, we will use them as high-end commercial facilities.”

“The Dorsett Hotel currently under construction is one of them.”

“To get a top-notch clubhouse, which is a few more high-end than the clubhouse of the Moore family, I wish I could not get out without spending eighteen million in one trip;”

“Besides, we need to build another high-end shopping mall.”

“Top brands such as Chanel, Hermès, Louis Vuitton and even Lamborghini and Ferrari will all be introduced.”

“If I attract all the richest people to Aurous Hill, I must let them find a place to spend money and spend a lot of money in Aurous Hill.”

“Finally, the third point is that as long as we attract the rich, our project will never lose money, and even make a lot of money!”

Having said this, Charlie said confidently, “What we are going to do is the real estate project with the highest premium in the world, and we will not cheat the poor or the rich in general, but only the richest in the world.”

“Let them willingly buy assets in Aurous Hill at a premium of ten or even a hundred times, and be willing to be taken advantage of!”

Chapter 3545

Hearing Charlie's plan, Doris Young nodded repeatedly and said, "Young Master, I understand what you mean."

"I will ask someone to write a professional business plan, and even go to an internationally renowned design studio to help us."

"To design a blueprint, we must start from the highest direction."

"Yeah." Charlie said, "This matter is left to you."

"I have three requirements. The first is to be fast; the second is to be good; the third is to be full!"

"Do you know the center of the shopping mall in Dubai?"

"It's the one that claims to be the largest shopping mall in the world."

"What we want is to make bigger than that, but it's more advanced and refined than them."

"Understood!" Doris Young said immediately, "I will immediately proceed with this matter."

Charlie nodded in satisfaction, and said, "Other than that, it's the high-level community."

After all, Charlie zoomed in on the map and found the vicinity of the airport, and then immediately saw several pieces of land that were connected together at a position less than ten kilometers away from the airport in a straight line.

And this piece of land happened to be near the airport expressway, so he said to Doris Young, "I think this area is good."

"It is close to the airport and next to the expressway."

"Although it is in a different direction from the city, the traffic should be more convenient."

"After arriving by plane, you can get there quickly after getting off the plane, which is very convenient."

Doris Young hurriedly said, "There is still no major development in these pieces of land, and the price should be relatively cheap."

"As for transportation, because the surrounding areas have been undeveloped, the expressway temporarily does not have an entrance here, but we can communicate with the city and the transportation department, try to get them to build a new highway entrance here for us."

"If it doesn't work, we can also spend money to build one."

"This is a small renovation on the basis of the original highway, it won't cost much."

Charlie nodded and asked her, "Is there a suitable place to set up a golf course around here?"

"It's best to develop it together with the golf course and equestrian venue, and then we will go directly to our high-end community."

Doris Young said earnestly, "Young Master, a lot of land around here is unused, and there are usually no people and companies developing there."

“There must be no problem with the golf course.”

“That’s good.” Charlie nodded and said, “Then you will talk to the bank about the loan today, and I will also arrange the Wade family to transfer money to the Emgrand Group.”

“You should hurry up and prepare the funds.”

“Take down all the land that can be taken in one breath!”

Doris Young was also extremely excited and blurted out, “Young Master, don’t worry, I will go all out!”

Charlie smiled with satisfaction and said, “By the way, the day after tomorrow, a kid named Francis Wade will come over to report to you.”

“That kid should still have two brushes. You will take him to deal with this project when that happens.”

“Francis Wade?” Doris Young asked hurriedly, “Is it the Wade family?”

“Yeah.” Charlie said lightly, “A collateral guy from the Wade family, but he is your subordinate when he comes.”

“You don’t need to show him a good face, just use him as a donkey to make him behave.”

“The level and ability in the stomach are fully utilized!”

Although Doris Young didn’t know who Francis Wade was, she also guessed that Francis Wade had been punished by Charlie this time, so he was arranged to come to the Emgrand Group, so she nodded and said, “Young Master, don’t worry. I will squeeze out his value!”

Subsequently, Charlie and Doris Young carefully studied the land conditions currently to be developed in Aurous Hill.

After all the land of interest was divided, Charlie left the Emgrand Group.

When Charlie came out of the Emgrand Group, the lights were already on, and there were busy, bustling, and very hot traffic.

However, the people walking by are not like Eastcliff, everyone is very busy.

In Aurous Hill, because the pressure of life is not so great, and the pace of life is not so fast, it can be seen that people still have a bit of no leisure and relaxation on their faces.

However, these people who come and go, except Charlie, no one knows that the city of Aurous Hill will soon become an object of world attention.

Chapter 3546

At that time, this economic development will be pulling the hips, and even as the provincial capital city, which cannot get the first in its own province, will completely usher in a take-off!

.....

Seeing that it was getting late, Charlie bought ten gold bricks of a kilogram from a nearby China Gold store.

After buying the gold bricks, Charlie took a taxi directly and returned to Thompson’s First Villa.

The reason why he bought the gold bricks is because Charlie knows his mother-in-law Elaine, and is definitely looking forward to bringing her some gifts when he comes back.

However, Charlie really has no more time to choose gifts, so he simply bought a few gold bricks, and then directly said that they were given by the customer.

Elaine would definitely be happy when she saw it.

When the time comes, give her a piece as a gift, and let her hold it for fun.

In this way, he doesn't have to worry that Elaine will sell the gold bricks for cash.

If it were the former Elaine, he would definitely not say anything else.

Tomorrow morning, she would go out and sell the gold bricks.

Moreover, before she left, she was afraid that she would also steal the remaining nine gold bricks from Claire's room and sell them together.

But now she is indeed much more honest, and it is not realistic to want to go out and sell gold bricks.

What's more, she had to prevent herself from occasionally having to check on a whim, so she could only put away the gold bricks honestly.

Giving her a very valuable, but can't be cashed out gift, just can hold her mentality.

When Charlie returned to Thompson's First Villa with gold bricks, he just entered the gate and saw his wife Claire walking out of the garage in the yard.

Claire just drove back on her front foot and parked the car. Seeing Charlie push the door into the yard, she said with joy, "Husband, you are back!"

Charlie looked at her and said in a very fond tone, "I'm back, have you missed me these days?"

"Of course I do!" Claire was not at all shy, ran over happily and threw herself into Charlie's arms.

She was full of joy but said with a bit of complaint, "Why don't you come back and tell me in advance, and go to the airport to pick you up!"

Charlie smiled and said, "I know that you must be very busy at work."

"I am not willing to toss you so far to pick me up. Wouldn't I be back when I took a taxi by myself!"

Claire said earnestly, "What's the hard work of picking you up, but you, all the way back by plane, have to line up for taxis, how tired!"

"Not tired." Charlie said casually, "I have such a good physical fitness, it's just a trivial matter."

Claire said helplessly, "If you said earlier that you are coming back, I would make a meal at home and wait for you to come back."

"My mother hasn't been able to cook well for the past few days."

“I called and said that she didn’t want to cook at night, and asked me to come back and order.”

Charlie said with a smile, “Ordering is good too, order me one by the way.”

Claire nodded and said, “You can go to the house and rest!”

The two came to the villa arm in arm. Claire swiped the fingerprint lock.

As soon as they entered the door, they heard Elaine’s lazy and reproachful voice, “How did you come back, Claire! Your dead ghost dad followed the people from the Calligraphy and Painting Association have gone fooling around.”

“I have been hungry for so long, so I’m just waiting for you to go home and order food...”

At this time, Elaine lay on the sofa in the living room, and she didn’t even look at her, knowing that Claire must be back.

Claire said helplessly, “Mom, you are too lazy these days.”

Elaine said impatiently, “I’m the most annoyed ordering, or I don’t want to eat this one, or I want to eat this one, or another one. I just want you to order for us and I’ll just wait to eat...”

Claire sighed and said, “Mom, Charlie is back, let him see what he wants to eat.”

As soon as Claire’s voice fell, they heard Elaine say in the living room, “Oh my god, my son-in-law is back?”

After speaking, they heard the sound of someone jumping on crutches.

Immediately afterwards, Elaine ran over with one-handed crutches and all the way, when she saw Charlie, she smiled flatteringly, “Oh, my son-in-law is back, why don’t you tell mom, mom will make good food!”

After speaking, she immediately said, “Good son-in-law, take a rest first. Mom will go to the kitchen to see what I can do!”

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3547-3550

Chapter 3547

When Claire saw his mother’s positive and flattering appearance in front of Charlie, she suddenly looked helpless, and couldn’t help muttering, “Mom...how come you will be energetic when Charlie comes back?”

Elaine hurriedly said, “Nonsense! I’m not here to be energetic, I’m going crazy these days, I’m suffocating all over my body, waiting for my good son-in-law to come back and cook for him!”

Claire sighed, “There is not even an egg in the kitchen, what do you cook for Charlie?”

“Ah? Really?” Elaine asked in surprise, “Is there any vegetables in the refrigerator?”

Claire rolled his eyes, “There are only two small cabbages left, and I let Dad use them in the morning.”

Elaine cursed vigorously, "This Jacob, the cabbage that I bought, why did he eat it? It's really unreasonable!"

Claire rubbed her temples, "Mom... the cabbage is almost rotten... Dad said that if you don't eat it, it will rot..."

Elaine quickly turned away from the subject and said, "Forget it, let's order food, it's a surprise, you hurry up to see what's delicious, come back more!"

After speaking, she said to Charlie with a smile on his face, "Charlie, you must be exhausted after going out for a few days, come on, hurry up and rest on the sofa!"

Claire felt the gap. Although she felt a little helpless, she was too lazy to care about with her mother, so she took out her mobile phone and opened the takeaway app to start looking for food.

Elaine hurriedly greeted Charlie to sit down on the sofa, serving tea and pouring water. Charlie asked her to stop working a few times, but she just didn't want to, and she stunned Charlie to make a cup of tea.

After handing Charlie the brewed tea, she smiled and asked, "Charlie, how about going to Eastcliff this time? Is everything going well?"

"It went well." Charlie answered casually.

Elaine asked hurriedly, "Oh, You should have made a lot of money this time!"

Charlie said casually, "This time the employer is a bit tight on funds, so he didn't give money."

"Ah?" When Elaine heard this, she immediately filled with indignation, "Who is this?! Don't find someone to work if you don't have money! He didn't give you money even if you did work for him. This is too much!"

Charlie smiled and said, "The money is not given, but they have paid for it."

Elaine's eyes that had just dimmed suddenly lit up again, and hurriedly asked, "Good son-in-law, please tell me what the employer used to pay?"

Charlie casually opened the handbag he was carrying, and first took out a gold brick from it.

When Elaine saw the golden bricks, she was surprised and said, "Oh my god! The gold bricks! It says 1000, oh my god, 1000 grams!"

After that, she quickly came back to her senses and blurted out, "The price of one gold brick seems to be around four hundred thousand..."

Charlie immediately took out another piece, stacked it with the previous piece, and said, "He didn't just give one piece."

Elaine clapped her hands happily, "Oh! There are more!"

Charlie took out another piece, and Elaine was even more excited, "Mom, three pieces!"

Immediately after...

"Oh, four pieces..."

“Mom, there’s more? This is the fifth piece, right...”

Chapter 3548

Every time Charlie took out a piece of gold, Elaine danced with excitement, as if she had finally waited like a fairytale.

Until Charlie took out the ten gold bricks and placed them in two rows, Elaine opened his eyes wide, staring at the pile of golden gold bricks, and asked excitedly, “Good son-in-law, are there any more?”

“Nothing.” Charlie said lightly, “He gave a total of ten pieces of gold, which is estimated to be worth about four million.”

“Damn!” Elaine happily exclaimed, “If you just say that 4 million, it seems that it is not a small amount, but not too much...”

Speaking of this, her eyes formed into two slits with a smile, she held up a gold brick, and said dancingly, “But it is really shocking to change the 4 million into gold! This golden look is really amazing!”

Charlie nodded and said, “I originally wanted to change it to cash and bring it back, but after thinking about it, there is no precious metal reserve in my home, so I might as well treat these ten gold bricks as deposits. At home, you can still carry inflation.”

Elaine nodded again and again, and said in agreement, “Nothing is wrong! Now housing prices are not going to rise, and stocks are falling like dogs, so the price of gold is stronger!”

As she said, Elaine looked at Charlie a little embarrassed, and smiled, “Oh, my son-in-law, you don’t think mom has played with gold bricks in this life. This thing is shiny and heavy. It feels pretty good, or else you give mom a piece so that mom can’t do anything about it?”

Claire couldn't laugh or cry at all, and blurted out, "Mom, who have you ever seen someone has nothing to do with gold..."

Elaine took it for granted and said, "Doesn't you listen to others? Everything is available! With this big golden brick, nothing can be done by holding it in your hand as a dumbbell!"

Charlie immediately smiled and said, "Mom, you are right, just hold on and play as a dumbbell!"

When Elaine heard this, she hugged the gold bricks in her arms with great joy, and said happily, "Thank you, my good son-in-law!"

Claire hurriedly said, "Mom, this is a reward for Charlie, so why don't you just follow along with it..."

Elaine grumbled dissatisfiedly, "Claire, this is a gift from Charlie to his mother, it is Charlie's heart, why are you always disappointed here..."

Claire said earnestly, "I'm not disappointed, I'm afraid you will fix some demon moth..."

Charlie persuaded Claire from the side, "Just let mum play with it if she likes it, just leave it alone."

Elaine held the gold bricks and said to Claire, "Claire, Charlie doesn't have any opinions, so stop nagging here."

After she finished speaking, she rolled her eyes, looked at Charlie, and said with a smile, "Charlie...my good son-in-law... that... mom will discuss with you, what's the matter?"

Charlie was already familiar with Elaine's routines. He didn't wait for Elaine to go down and asked her directly, "Mom, you want to say that only one dumbbell is inconvenient. You have to have two dumbbells, it is suitable for exercise!"

Elaine slapped her thigh, and said excitedly, "My dear son-in-law, you still know me best! You said this dumbbell, isn't it all paired with each other? It's called fitness by alternating hands one by one, up and down. If I only have one, maybe one arm will be thick and the other will be thin..."

Charlie nodded, and directly picked up a gold brick, stuffed it into her arms, and said cheerfully, "Come! Take it! Take both of it! It's all for you!"

Elaine was very happy, with two gold bricks in one hand, happily sitting on the sofa, shaking like a tumbler.

Seeing her like this, Claire was helpless and helpless. At last she could only remind her, "Mom! You can't secretly sell this gold brick!"

Elaine quickly agreed and said, "Oh, don't worry, I will never sell!"

Claire sighed and said to Charlie, "Husband, I suggest you go to the bank to rent a safe tomorrow and put all these gold bars in the bank. It is not safe to keep them at home after all."

Elaine became angry, and said dissatisfied, "Claire, you were here all night and insinuated about me. Is your mother so unreliable in your eyes? Charlie keeps these gold bars at home, and you think that I will steal it?"

Claire hurriedly said, "Mom, I didn't mean that...I think that if so many gold bars are kept at home, it is not safe if there's a thief..."

After finishing speaking, she said, "Your two pieces of gold bricks, I suggest you also deposit it in the bank. If you really want to work out, I will buy you a pair of ladies dumbbells tomorrow."

“I don’t!” Elaine hugged two gold bricks and muttered, “I will use them and put them under my pillow when I sleep at night!”

Charlie winked at Claire at this time and said, “Okay, Claire, do whatever mom likes, don’t worry about it!”

Chapter 3549

That night, Elaine never left the two golden bricks Charlie gave her.

And as the Dorsett Hotel project has entered the critical stage, Claire has been very busy lately.

When Charlie returns, he takes the initiative to take her to and from work.

Early the next morning, Charlie sent Claire to the Dorsett Hotel construction site, and then received a call from Isaac Cameron.

On the phone, Isaac Cameron tells him that Wesley has brought nearly a hundred soldiers from Dragon Hall to Shangri-La Hotel.

After hearing this, Charlie asks Isaac Cameron, “Isaac, is the administration building vacated?”

Isaac Cameron hurriedly said, “It was cleaned all night last night. Natives have been compensated double the room rates, and they have been set to another building.”

“That’s great.” Charlie said satisfied, “This way, you let Wesley and the others wait for me in the administrative building.”

“Good, Master Wade!”

Shangri-La administration building itself serves large-scale business banquets and top-class business meetings, not only has a large number of upper class living rooms, but also large collage rooms and many conference rooms.

Among them, the scale of the college room is enough to support an indoor press conference of one to two thousand people.

Charlie asks Isaac Cameron to vacate the administration building, intending to use it as the future headquarters of Dragon Hall in China.

Driving to Shangri-La, Isaac Cameron is waiting outside the lobby. Seeing Charlie coming, he personally opened the car door for him and took him to the administrative building.

At this time, nearly a hundreds of men from the Dragon Hall are sitting in uniform, all expressions with full perseverance.

Isaac Cameron pushed the tuition door, Charlie stepped in, and Wesley immediately stood reflexively.

Soon after, nearly a hundred remaining soldiers also stood one by one, watching Charlie walk in awe.

When Charlie came ahead of the soldiers at Dragon Hall, Wesley led to kneel on one knee and lifted his fist over his head and said, "After coming to Aurous Hill, I will listen to your post!"

The other warriors behind also kneeled on one knee and said in uniform, "Listen to Mr. Wade's instructions!"

The only two that did not kneel were the White Tiger King Apollo Wainwright who had been wiped out by Charlie, and Green-Eyed Wolf King Calum whose consciousness was sealed by Charlie.

Charlie nodded satisfied, stretched out his hand to help Wesley stand up, saying, "Brothers don't have to pay this great gift, just stand up."

When Wesley rises, everyone also stands.

Charlie looked at Wesley and asked him, "How is your parent's funeral?"

Wesley said to Charlie with a grateful stare, "Mr. Wade, thank you for your tall hands, the coffin of my parents were buried at a funeral in Eastcliff yesterday. Thank you for your kindness!"

Charlie slightly nodded and said seriously, "Since your parents have been buried again, don't throw them again in the future. Also, remember to pay tribute to their graves every year."

After saying that, Charlie sighed, and said with somewhat melancholy, "Actually, my situation is very similar to yours. In the last almost two decades, I haven't been able to go back to my parent s' grave to worship because of my identity. For years, I have been so embarrassed and self-blamed. I believe you will have personal experience about this feeling, and I hope you will try to redeem it in the future."

Chapter 3550

Wesley nodded repeatedly and said embarrassedly, "What Mr. Wade said is that I have been abroad for years, and on the day of the festival, I hurt and blame others. I will not repeat the same mistakes in the future."

Charlie hummed and asked him, "Are the Dragon Hall soldiers I sent to Northern Europe back?"

"Not yet." Wesley hurriedly said, "They have sent three people safely to Commander Hamid in Syria an hour ago. They should start their journey back here now."

“Okay.” Charlie said, “Since talking about Syria, I have an idea and I want to talk with you.”

Wesley said without hesitation, “Mr. Wade, you don’t need to ask your subordinates for advice if you have something you want. No matter what decision you make, your subordinates will follow it 100 %!”

Charlie waved his hand, “It is related to the future development of Dragon Hall, so I will not only seek your opinion, but also the opinion of other Dragon Hall soldiers.”

After speaking, Charlie said again, “What I want to talk to you is the question in which direction Dragon Hall should develop next.”

Wesley immediately said respectfully, “Mr. Wade, please tell me, your subordinates listen carefully!”

Charlie nodded and said earnestly, “Although Dragon Hall is not a lawn bandit, you’ve been mingling with war-based countries and regions around the world for a long time. The battle is based on the amount of money, not right or wrong. It is inevitable that there will be help to be misused for years. Therefore, although the Dragon Hall is famous, it has no good reputation outside.”

Speaking of this, Charlie stopped slightly and continued, “Now, all of your Dragon Hall soldiers have been under my command. So, I hope Dragon Hall can complete the transformation as soon as possible and gradually clean it up.”

Wesley said without hesitation, “Mr. Wade, I already have similar thoughts, but Dragon Hall has many soldiers and great costs. To my ability, I never thought of how to lead everyone smoothly. For the transformation, I don’t know if you have any good ideas, Mr. Wade?”

Charlie says seriously, “My current thoughts are divided into three directions. The first is to abandon all crooked ways and become fair and legal mercenaries; the second is to be involved in the safety of shipping to ensure safe travels from merchant ships in areas where pirates are rampant. The third is to be involved in the safety of team projects, provide overall security services for third world infrastructure projects of advanced and developed countries.”

With that, Charlie explains to everyone one by one direction he discussed with Orrin Sun that night.

Among them, especially the second point is cruise security.

Because Charlie intends to find a way for Dragon Hall to build bases in Syria, with Syria as the back, to support their future escort work in Aden Bay.

When they heard about the future transformation and defense of global merchant ships and infrastructure projects of various countries in the third world, Dragon Hall soldiers were also a little excited. This kind of work is not only reasonable and legal, but it also has a very positive effect on Dragon Hall's previous business direction.

Wesley was also very excited, he always wanted to make Dragon Hall clean, but he never found direction, but after listening to Charlie's words, he felt his eyes shining.

So he hurriedly asked Charlie, "Mr. Wade, Dragon Hall's reputation was really not too good. Do you think if we change to delivery security and project safety, can customers buy it?"

Charlie smiled and said, "BAIT Shipping has received tens of billions of euros in capital injection, and will be the world's top shipping company at the time. At that moment, I will give all delivery security work to Dragon. Hall. As long as you can take this opportunity to gain popularity in Aden Bay, customers are really willing to receive your protection."

After speaking, Charlie said again, "As for the security work of the Third World Infrastructure Project, I have asked an elder to help connect. According to him, there are many requests in this area abroad, and you will be busy at that time!"

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3551-3554

Chapter 3551

When Charlie first mentioned the idea of the transformation of Dragon Hall, Wesley raised his hands in agreement.

However, the only worry in his heart is the profitability after transformation.

He doesn't want to make money now, but there are still tens of thousands of soldiers in the Dragon Hall to feed.

This group of people spends a lot of money.

If the transformed Dragon Hall cannot reach the breakeven, it is difficult for him to give an explanation to the soldiers in the Dragon Hall.

However, after listening to the future described by Charlie, he immediately had confidence in his heart.

So he asked Charlie, "Mr. Wade, do you have any understanding of the latter two types of international security remuneration?"

"I want to calculate the approximate income fluctuations of Dragon Hall in the future."

Charlie said, "I am not very clear about the details. I will consult now."

With that said, he immediately took out his cell phone and called Stella Scott first.

Stella Scott originally had a deep understanding of international shipping, and now she has started to manage BAIT Shipping, and she knows the details of the shipping market even more.

After the call was connected, Stella Scott couldn't hide her excitement and asked, "Mr. Wade, have you returned to Aurous Hill?"

"Yeah." Charlie asked her, "Stella, I called you to consult with you. Do you know the international security pay in the shipping market now?"

Stella Scott explained, "If it is in the Gulf of Aden, generally a commercial ship needs to be equipped with three to five international security personnel."

"The helicopter of the security company will send the international security personnel directly when the merchant ship is about to enter the Gulf of Aden."

"On the ship, after the merchant ship has passed the Gulf of Aden safely and smoothly, the helicopter will disembark the ship."

"The whole process takes only a few days, and the charge is generally around 200,000 US dollar."

"Two hundred thousand dollars?" Charlie said in surprise, "Is it so high?"

Stella Scott said, "Mr. Wade, these are already the quotations made at the beginning of the year."

"The international security price is now higher than before. The same service is probably worth 300,000 U.S. dollars..."

"The main reason for such a large increase is that the freight prices of international shipping have been skyrocketing from last year to the present, and the prices have risen to record levels."

“The freight for a standard container from our southeast coastal port in China to the Port of Los Angeles in the United States has soared to nearly 20,000 U.S. dollars from the previous more than 1,000 U.S. dollars.”

“A large freighter with a capacity of more than 10,000 standard containers will cost one or two billion U.S. dollars for a full load.”

“If the capacity is more than 20,000 containers, the cost of the ship can be returned at one time.”

“So they are willing to spend hundreds of thousands of dollars to ensure safety.”

Charlie asked again, “Then are there frequent pirate activities on the Gulf of Aden now?”

“Frequent.” Stella Scott explained, “The pirates over there have never stopped.”

“They hijacked a merchant ship and detained people with the ship to demand a ransom from the owner, usually at least.”

“It also costs several million dollars to start, and sometimes it can even reach tens of millions of dollars, and the ship owner dare not refuse to give it.”

“Moreover, it is a waste of time and money for transportation, and the loss may be tens of millions or even hundreds of millions of dollars in freight income, so now ship-owners attach great importance to international security.”

Chapter 3552

“Almost large merchant ships will spend this money.”

After that, Stella Scott said again, “By the way, after the merger of the Banks Shipping Group, we have begun to ship normally, and our own ships will also purchase international security services.”

When Charlie heard this, he asked, “Do you know anything about the current international security companies?”

“Where are their bases generally?”

Stella Scott said, “At the moment there are at least 300 security companies in the global shipping market.”

“Of course, the demand for armed escorts in the Gulf of Aden is the highest, so everyone has set up coastal bases along the Indian Ocean and the Arabian Sea, and some even buy an old ship and transformed into a sea base capable of taking off and landing helicopters.”

“Now most of the entire market is in the hands of the British, followed by the Americans, and relatively few in Asia.”

“In terms of price, the price of escort companies in the West is higher than that of the escort companies in the East.”

“Some, their market acceptance is also higher.”

“I understand.” Charlie nodded and said, “Stella, you can send me the information of all our ships at this stage.”

At this time, Charlie had already made up his mind to let Dragon Hall forcefully cut into the armed escort market.

Since the British can take more than half of the share, then the China people can naturally.

Now that he has made up his mind to do it, he must grasp it on the ground and at sea.

On the one hand, Wesley must find a way to establish bases on the coasts of countries such as Yemen and Saudi Arabia.

On the other hand, he must prepare for sea bases.

Give all the ship information of BAIT Shipping to Wesley, and let him choose the most suitable for transformation.

After hanging up the phone, Charlie gave feedback to Wesley what he had gotten from Stella Scott.

After hearing this, Wesley immediately opened his mouth and said, "Mr. Wade, we can get started with this business almost immediately."

"Our soldiers, regardless of their training level, combat strength, and weapons and equipment, are better than those of ordinary international security."

"It can be said that it is easy to deal with this kind of work, and we have relatively good channel relationships in the Middle East."

"There should be no major problems in establishing one or two frontier bases with hundreds of people in Saudi Arabia, Yemen, and the coast of Oman."

Charlie nodded, "That would be great. You immediately start preparing for these forward bases."

"I will provide you with a freighter as a mobile base at sea. If this is the case, it will be officially launched soon!"

"At that time, we will start with the merchant ship of BAIT Shipping!"

After a pause, Charlie said again, "As for providing armed security work in high-risk overseas areas, it should be easier than armed escort."

"As long as you find an employer, you can send a certain number of soldiers according to the employer's needs."

"I believe the combat effectiveness of Dragon Hall is definitely not a problem in that kind of third world country, and there is no need for additional training, so you are divided in advance and ready to transform to become soldiers in this field."

"Once you receive the project, you will directly send people."

Wesley said with some excitement, "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I will immediately start making arrangements, and all preparations will be resolved within two weeks!"

"Okay!" Charlie said with satisfaction, "As for your more than 10,000 prisoners in Syria, I will find a way to mediate and let the authority release them."

"In addition, I plan to help you find a rear base in Syria."

When Wesley heard this, he was even more excited, and even his voice was trembling, and he asked incredulously, "Mr. Wade...you...you can really let them release the prisoners and also allow us to prepare a rear base?"

Charlie nodded and said seriously, "You need a place, they need protection and help."

"This kind of thing is nothing more than that both parties take what they need."

"As long as the conditions can be negotiated, there is nothing impossible."

Chapter 3553

After listening to Charlie's words, Wesley couldn't help asking, "Mr. Wade, how are you going to talk to them about this matter?"

"I'm afraid that they no longer believe in the Dragon Hall now..."

Previously, when Charlie negotiated with government forces on behalf of Syria, Commander Hamid labeled Dragon Hall with an intention of parasitic inside Syria.

Therefore, once the Syrian side hated Dragon Hall to the bone, it would not have arrested all the ten thousand soldiers of Dragon Hall.

Charlie didn't think this was a problem.

He said indifferently, "As long as you grasp the psychological expectations of the other party, you can talk about it."

"After all, there is no eternal enemy in the world, and everything depends on the size of the interests."

With that, Charlie said again, "Now, the situation on their side has changed a lot."

"Opposition forces like Commander Hamid are now rising in a straight line."

"Not to mention them, even if Dragon Hall, it is a fool's dream to kill Commander Hamid without ultra-heavy weapons."

"Moreover, other opposition forces have now begun to do something, imitating Commander Hamid's way, starting to dig deep holes and accumulate grain, strengthening internal defense while building permanent fortifications to store a large amount of supplies and ammunition."

"So what can be predicted in the future is that the government army can't take the opposition, but the opposition side is unable to leave the strong fortress and fight externally, so they will definitely enter a state of checks and balances that each other helplessly."

Speaking of this, Charlie continued with a serious face, "In this state of checks and balances, government forces are relatively insecure."

"After all, they can't huddle into mountain fortifications, but also have to stick to the capital, major cities and traffic throats, which are easy to attack than defend, so they will definitely grow long."

"Surrounded by insecurity, the more so, the more they need some additional security."

Wesley asked him, "Mr. Wade, do you mean that Dragon Hall will provide certain security protection for government forces in exchange for their land use rights?"

"Yes." Charlie nodded and said, "If they have this need, they can completely provide us with a piece of land."

“We use it as a base, vigorously develop and build, and also sign an agreement with them.”

“If they are attacked, we will do our best to help them resist the enemy, which is also a guarantee for them.”

With that, Charlie said again, “Recent events in Afghanistan have shocked the whole world.”

“Presumably they must be very nervous.”

“There was a regime change in Afghanistan some time ago, and the opposition has officially unified the whole territory.”

“With this lesson, Syria’s defensive pressure must be very high.”

“Therefore, in this situation, if they cooperate with Dragon Hall, it will definitely benefit them.”

Wesley was naturally very clear about the situation in Afghanistan and nodded repeatedly, “As you said, I also think Syria urgently needs to improve its sense of security now.”

“If you talk to them well, the matter of the base should be able to land.”

With that, Wesley said with great emotion, “In recent years, my subordinates have always wanted to find a suitable place to take root for the Dragon Hall, but after working hard for so many years, this wish has not been realized...”

Charlie smiled and said, "Then try to help you solve this problem this time."

All the soldiers in Dragon Hall looked excited.

They have longed for a rear base, but unfortunately, due to their special nature, their many attempts have failed.

In any case, the vast majority of countries and regions cannot accept that they build bases locally.

Therefore, as long as there are tens of thousands of people, they still have to disperse their soldiers.

If they are expelled from one place, they must immediately leave for the next place to settle down temporarily.

If there is a fixed base, it is equivalent to having a home for them.

Charlie said at this time, "By the way, Creighton, I think you can go to the Gulf of Aden tomorrow to determine the situation of the frontier base, and also make a specific division of the overall team with your core team."

"As for the Syrian side, when I finish the work at hand, I will go there in person to talk to them."

"At that time, you can come with me."

Wesley immediately said respectfully, "Your subordinates obey!"

Charlie also said, "Before you leave, select one from the five-star generals of Dragon Hall, and then equip him with more than a dozen or twenty strong subordinates, and let them stay in Aurous Hill in the future.”

“Okay, Mr. Wade, I will arrange it before I leave!”

At this time, Charlie received a document sent by Stella Scott, which listed all the ship information and photos of BAIT Shipping.

In addition, it also included the new ships ordered by BAIT Shipping and the second-hand ship information purchased from other enterprises.

Charlie handed Wesley his mobile phone and said, “Look at the specific information of these ships and choose one suitable for maritime base.”

Wesley took the mobile phone with both hands.

After carefully checking, he said to Charlie, “Mr. Wade, I think it’s very suitable to have a three-thousand-ton bulk carrier.”

“The deck is flat and large enough, at least six helicopters can be parked.”

“The interior is full of large warehouses, which is relatively convenient to transform.”

“If you can at least It can meet the accommodation problem of hundreds of people, and carry enough fuel materials and ammunition with a load of thirty thousand tons.”

“It is more than enough to deal with those pirates.”

Charlie laughed and said, "This is the smallest cargo ship in the hands of BAIT Shipping."

"It has been standard for three years and eliminated and dismantled. Did you choose such one to save money?"

Wesley said quickly, "Mr. Wade, saving money is only part of the reason."

"The most important thing is that we really don't need to occupy larger and better cargo ships."

"Thirty thousand tons are actually a little wasteful."

"I don't think it doesn't matter if the ship is smaller to deal with pirates."

Charlie nodded and said seriously, "This ship is not only for you to use as a maritime base, but also can use this ship to complete the transportation of people and materials after you start to undertake security work in high-risk areas in the future."

With that, Charlie reminded, "You should try your best to be prepared."

"At that time, in addition to helicopters, with a few high-performance speedboats, although the pirates use are not big, they are fast and mobile."

"You should formulate some effective countermeasures."

Wesley solemnly said, "Mr. Wade, don't worry, at that time, we will formulate a complete operation mode to integrate the armed escorts, maritime bases, coastal bases and rear bases on merchant ships in the best way."

“At that time, no cargo ship escorted by Dragon Hall will be exposed to any danger!”

Charlie laughed and said, “I absolutely believe in the strength of Dragon Hall.”

“At that time, I look forward to meeting pirates a few more times and fighting a few beautiful maritime defense battles.”

“At that time, business will continue to come to you!”

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3555-3556

Chapter 3555

The plan that Charlie wanted for Dragon Hall made Wesley particularly excited.

He immediately made assignments to his subordinates.

Apart from leaving some elites to stay in Aurous Hill waiting for Charlie’s dispatch, he himself intends to lead others back to the Middle East immediately, intending to use his relationship first, and hold on. Several frontier bases are planned to be built along the coast of the Gulf of Aden.

The forward base does not require a large area and high investment. Generally speaking, it can accommodate dozens of people for temporary rest and standby, while storing some equipment and materials, as well as parking helicopters and speedboats.

Its scale is at best the size of a seaside villa, and the requirements for conditions are not as high as that of a villa. The construction speed is very fast. If a ready-made house can be found, it can be put into use almost immediately.

Moreover, in the current armed escort market, most of its business is concentrated in the Gulf of Aden. Many overseas security companies have also established their own frontier bases and transit bases along the coast of the Gulf of Aden.

There are even specialized companies in the Gulf of Aden waters. Transit ships are provided to help different security companies transfer personnel in the Gulf of Aden.

The entire armed escort industry is already very mature.

Under this mature model, Dragon Hall eliminates the preparatory work to expand the market. Now with the strong individual strength of Dragon Hall, it will definitely be able to quickly gain a foothold.

Therefore, he said to Charlie, "Mr. Wade, if you have no other requirements here, I will take these people to the Middle East first, and hurry up and implement the plan!"

Charlie nodded and asked, "When are you going to leave?"

Wesley hurriedly said, "The sooner the better!"

Seeing his aggressiveness, Charlie didn't want to do too much to retain him, and said, "If you decide on a good destination, I will arrange for a business jet to apply for a flight now and send you directly."

Wesley also knows that time is money, so he said without hesitation, "Thank you Mr. Wade for your help. I plan to go to Yemen first. After all, Yemen has the longest coastline in the Gulf of Aden, and it is most suitable for building forward bases. There are also some connections available locally."

"Okay." Charlie said immediately, "Then I will let the crew apply for a flight route and send you to Yemen."

Wesley nodded, turned around and glanced at Apollo Wainwright, who was sitting paralyzed in the chair, and Calum, who had hollow eyes. He hesitated and said to Charlie, "Mr. Wade, these subordinates are bold enough to provoke you but I hope Mr. Wade can forgive them..."

Charlie asked indifferently, "You are talking about your two warlords, right?"

Among the four kings of Dragon Hall, two died in Charlie's hands, and the other two became useless.

This is a great blow to the combat effectiveness of the Dragon Hall.

Wesley said with great shame at this time, "Mr. Wade, I know that they have committed a lot of sins and are ashamed of you. However, Apollo and Ulysses have only offended you after being ordered by me."

Chapter 3556

"Please look at them with kindness. Everyone in Dragon Hall pledged their loyalty to you, please spare the two of them, and I also pledged with my head that the two of them will stand alone in the future and do their utmost to be loyal to you!"

Apollo Wainwright was paralyzed on the chair at this time, and choked with difficulty, "Mr....Mr. Wade... I will definitely go through the fire and water for you, and will not hesitate! Please give me a chance!"

Although Calum couldn't say a word, his heart had already thrown into Charlie's forgiveness. He only hoped to get rid of this feeling of living dead as soon as possible and prove his worth in front of Charlie.

Charlie nodded slightly at this time, and said, "Since the Dragon Hall has been loyal to me, I can't let them be like this forever."

After all, Charlie said to Calum, "Ulysses, come here."

Hearing Charlie's order, Calum's body reflexively stepped forward.

Charlie looked at Calum's eyes and said lightly, "I blocked your consciousness because you were too arrogant and domineering when you were in the Middle East. You thought that you had more than 10,000 soldiers under your command and you were invincible in the world, so you not only ruined yourself but also sent all of your ten thousand soldiers into the prison to the other party."

"I hope you have learned the experience and lessons during this period. Otherwise, in the future, you will lead the soldiers in the Dragon Hall, and sooner or later you will make the same mistakes! "

Although Calum could not speak, he was extremely ashamed in his heart.

At the beginning, it was because he despised Charlie that 10,000 soldiers was captured. He had always been ashamed. Now that Charlie mentioned it, he was even more ashamed, but he was completely unable to make any substantive response.

Charlie stretched out his hand and tapped a finger on the top of Calum's head. The aura that had originally sealed his consciousness was taken back, and Calum instantly regained his consciousness.

This was the first time Calum realized that the feeling of spontaneous breathing was so beautiful.

The consciousness's manipulation of the body returned in an instant, and it even made him unable to adapt to it.

He moved his fingers awkwardly, and then he couldn't control his tears.

He looked at Charlie, took the initiative to kneel on his knees, knocked his head on the ground, and choked up, "Mr. Wade, thank you for being able to open the net. From now on, I will look forward to your head and do my best for you!”

Charlie nodded and said, “Now is the critical moment of the transformation of the Dragon Hall. I hope you can assist Wesley and help the Dragon Hall complete this strategic transformation as soon as possible.”

Calum said without hesitation, “Mr. Wade, please rest assured that I will go all out!”

Charlie said calmly, “Okay, get up.”

Calum got up and stood behind Wesley.

Charlie looked at Apollo Wainwright, who was paralyzed, stepped forward to him, and said lightly, “Apollo, you went to my Wade family’s mansion with coffins, you repeatedly uttered madness to smash my parents and also killed the head of the bodyguards. Logically speaking, I shouldn’t forgive you, what do you think?”

Apollo Wainwright burst into tears and choked up, “Mr. Wade, what you said... I should be guilty... It’s a good thing...”

Charlie nodded and said, “Now it is the time that Dragon Hall is employing people. Since Calum has regained his freedom, I will not punish you too much. I will spare you once and see your performance in the future.”

Apollo Wainwright was extremely excited, and said gratefully, “Mr. Wade, don’t worry! This life will be yours in the future!”

Charlie gave a hum, and reminded, “But you have to remember that you made the same mistakes as Calum. You are all too confident, confident that no one can match you, or Dragon Hall. It is possible, but in fact, there are not many people in this world who hide dragons and crouching tigers. Even if I dare not arrogantly think that I am invincible in the world, you must learn your lesson in the future and remember not to be as arrogant as before.”

Apollo Wainwright and Calum spoke almost at the same time, “We understand Mr. Wade’s kindness!”

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3557-3558

Chapter 3557

Seeing that Apollo Wainwright really regretted it, Charlie nodded in satisfaction, took out a rejuvenation pill from his pocket, and then divided the rejuvenation pill into two, handed half of it to Calum, and said, “You put this half of the pill into Apollo Wainwright’s mouth, and his injury will soon heal.”

Everyone including Wesley was dumbfounded when they heard Charlie’s words!

Previously on Wade Mountain, Charlie used aura to repair Wesley’s meridians.

At that time, Wesley knew in his heart that Charlie had great magical powers.

At the same time, Wesley also understood that the energy system in Charlie’s body was completely different from the energy system of the martial artist.

Because of this, Charlie could use that higher-level energy to repair Wesley’s already irreversible damaged meridians.

The other soldiers in the Dragon Hall probably also guessed this logic, so they all thought that Charlie should treat Apollo Wainwright in the same way that he treated Wesley last time.

However, no one thought that Charlie would take out a pill to treat Apollo Wainwright this time.

Moreover, this pill turned out to be only half a pill.

Everyone is asking themselves a question, “What kind of medicine can heal a badly injured six-star warrior with only half a pill?”

Although Calum was also very surprised, he still stuffed the half rejuvenating pills into Apollo Wainwright’s mouth according to Charlie’s orders.

What surprised Apollo Wainwright was that although the pill was a physical substance, it melted in the mouth, and there was no trace of it.

Immediately afterwards, the power of the medicine began to spread rapidly towards his limbs.

After that, Apollo Wainwright’s originally conscious limbs began to itch and heat, and even a faint feeling of cramps. He subconsciously wanted to straighten his legs to fight the cramps, but he didn’t think of a little bit of force on his legs, and he stood up from the seat!

This scene completely shocked all the soldiers of the Dragon Hall.

No one thought that the pills Charlie took out had such a powerful effect.

Apollo Wainwright was even more shocked. He moved his limbs subconsciously, and found that his limbs had completely recovered. He couldn’t help but exclaimed, “I...I...I actually recovered... All my meridians have also recovered...”

Wesley was shocked!

He couldn't help marveling in his heart, "I thought that Mr. Wade had already mastered a higher level of mysterious energy, but I didn't expect that even the pill that Mr. Wade took out would have such incredible energy, this... this is simply too amazing..."

Apollo Wainwright was also extremely shocked at this time, recalling his indifferent and arrogant appearance in front of Charlie, he was even more ashamed.

Chapter 3558

At this moment, he finally realized that the gap between himself and Charlie was like the light of fireflies and the brilliance of the bright moon. Charlie could spare himself a dog's life and even heal his injuries. It is a great gift!

Therefore, he knelt on the ground quickly and said in repentance, "Mr. Wade, you forgive me regardless of the previous suspicion, and you helped me heal my injuries. I'm so grateful. Half-disloyal and disrespectful, I wish there is no place to die!"

Charlie nodded and said lightly, "You really should be grateful to me, because the half of the rejuvenating pill you just ate just now can sell for at least several billion yuan at an auction that will be held soon! "

Charlie's understatement made the soldiers of the Dragon Hall present as if they were struck by lightning!

Even Wesley was frightened.

Half a pill is worth at least several billion yuan?

At first, he thought it was a little unlikely.

But thinking about the magical effect of that rejuvenating pill. What are the billions?

If in exchange, he himself was seriously injured and ruined his cultivation base, let alone billions of yuan, even billions of dollars, he would be willing to spend!

And what made him even more grateful was that Charlie was willing to give this multi-billion dollar pill to Apollo Wainwright casually.

He gave it to Apollo Wainwright, who had been ordered by himself and brought more than a hundred coffins into the Wade Family Manor!

What kind of mind does this have? !

In the eyes of the Wesley and other soldiers in the Dragon Hall, what the ancients said about the sages, I am afraid that is nothing more than that!

Apollo Wainwright was even more grateful at this time, he kept kowtow and choked in his mouth, "Mr. Wade's gift... I'm forever be grateful..."

For Charlie, a little bit of aura is no longer a big deal since he cultivated the pill of cultivation. He only needs to reach out and use a small part of the aura in his body, but he can heal Apollo Wainwright with a simple effort.

However, he chose to use the rejuvenating pill.

This is because, in the eyes of others, a little effort is always an unquantifiable indicator.

The other party will despise this kindness because it is too easy.

Therefore, since he want to invite people to buy people's hearts, he must quantify the kindness.

Half a rejuvenating pill is not a fart to himself.

But it won't take long for a rejuvenating pill to set a record of more than tens of billions of transactions at auction.

Therefore, even if the soldiers of the Dragon Hall don't understand the preciousness of it, once the auction is over, they will definitely realize the true value of the Rejuvenation Pill.

Only in this way can they know how heavy his kindness is!

At this moment, Charlie looked at the people and said with a serious expression, "As long as you serve me wholeheartedly, I will treat you as friends and brothers. About billions of worth of pill? I am willing to use it on you."

After that, he paused slightly, and then said, "I know that your Dragon Hall must have mastered a relatively high-quality inner martial arts mentality, otherwise your overall strength will not be so high, but from your palace master's, it can be seen from the strength that the inner strength mental method you have cultivated is not the best in the martial arts field, otherwise he will not always be in the bright realm and will not be able to reach a higher level."

"After waiting for some time to idle, I will choose a better and more complete inner strength mental method to give to your palace master. By then, all of you will have a higher upper limit for the cultivation base, the whole of Dragon Hall's strength can also be improved."

When Wesley heard this, his heart was shocked.

Although he was already an eight-star warrior, he really wanted to look at it on the way of martial arts, but he didn't even move to the realm.

The next Dark Realm, Transformation Realm, and Grand Master Realm are equivalent to junior high school, high school, and college.

As a primary school student in the martial arts field, his biggest dream aside from avenging his parents is to break through the bright realm and enter the dark realm.

However, this wish is not only not achieved by him, but also by his preaching teacher.

His mentor used to show his heart to Wesley before traveling the world.

For him, being able to enter the dark realm is the highest pursuit of his life.

Everything is just to step into the higher realm that he dream of.

Since then, Wesley has also regarded the dark realm as the ultimate goal of his martial arts journey.

In his opinion, Charlie's strength is probably not only above the bright realm, but even above the dark realm and transformation, and even the grandmaster realm.

Therefore, when Charlie said that the inner strength mental method they cultivated was not optimal and that they had not been able to reach a higher level, he immediately felt a sense of embarrassment.

And Charlie's last words made his heart suddenly become extremely enthusiastic.

He didn't think that Charlie was willing to give Dragon Hall a better inner strength method to help Dragon Hall improve its strength. Doesn't it mean that he might even have a chance to enter the dark realm in the future?
