

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3841-3900

“I.....”

Bernard Elno was speechless.

If it is based on the logic that strange goods can be occupied, they must be distributed. Rejuvenation pill need to be distributed. It is indeed a matter of course.

Bernard Elno could not find any reason to refute all of a sudden.

Just when he looked sour and didn't know what to do, the butler beside him suddenly said, “This gentleman! Your Rejuvenation pill are indeed more precious, this is true! But you are holding an auction! If your Rejuvenation pill has a fixed public price, and request a distribution based on this public price, we will recognize it, but your auction is for the higher price. Why should the auction require additional distribution?”

When Bernard Elno heard this, his eyes lit up and he slapped his thigh and said loudly, “Yes! This is an auction! I have not heard of any auction that will require additional distribution!”

Charlie curled his lips and said with a smile, “Then you really think too much. I don't want to directly distribute the Rejuvenating pill. After all, you haven't got the Rejuvenating pill yet. I am asking you to participate in the auction of the rejuvenating pills. If you meet the qualifications and meet our allocation standards, you can participate in the auction. If you do not meet the allocation standards, then I am sorry, go out and please leave.”

Bernard Elno looked terribly ugly, and blurted out, “You are just robbers!”

Charlie asked back, “Did we rob you? Our principle of voluntary cooperation is exactly the same as the distribution rules in your store. If you are willing to distribute the goods, you can participate in the auction. If you are unwilling to cooperate, then you can’t participate.”

Having said that, Charlie said in a cold voice, “The rules, I have already said very clearly, now I will give you two minutes to consider, if you still refuse to distribute the goods, I will now let the security guard to cooperate with you to check out. In addition, we will directly arrange for a convoy to take you to the airport.”

Bernard Elno finally understood that he was being targeted and retaliated against.

Because of the distribution rules of his store, the boss behind the Rejuvenation Pill auction now wants to use this to show himself.

However, he has no way to refute.

Because his shop has such rules.

As long as it is a popular item, it must be distributed. If you do not distribute it, you will not get it.

Without this distribution policy, how could he sit on the position of the world’s richest man, although he has only been sitting for a while.

Thinking of this, he nodded angrily, pointed at the plastic imitation bronze wine bottle, and asked depressedly, “Will this matter pass after I bought this?”

Charlie shook his head, “How is it possible? Didn’t you see that I took a big bag?”

After finishing speaking, he pointed to one of the fake ambers, and said, "Look at this, the amber formed during the Cretaceous period, did you see that there is a big scorpion inside! Such a complete scorpion, dripping in a piece of amber, it is very rare, selling you 80 million, not too much, right?"

Bernard Elno was about to collapse and blurted out, "This...this is fake! A three-year-old child can see that this is fake!"

"What's wrong with the fake?" Charlie asked him frankly, "Can't I sell the fake to you?"

Chapter 3842

"I..." Bernard Elno really broke down this time, blurted out, "Just tell me, how much money do you need to force me to pay to be satisfied?"

Charlie said with a displeased face, "I don't like to hear you say this. We open the door to do business. What is important is that you have to be willing to cooperate before I will match you. If you are not willing, I will not force you. This is the same as the rules in your shop."

Bernard Elno nodded sullenly, and said helplessly, "Okay, I'm not rigorous enough to speak, so let's just say a price, how much money I need to match, and this matter can come to an end?"

Charlie smiled slightly, looked at Zachary, and asked, "Zachary, what good things do you have, please introduce it to Mr. Elno quickly."

Zachary deceived countless people, but at this time, he couldn't be beaten by Charlie. He hesitated for a long time and didn't know where to start.

Charlie hated iron and shook his head, and picked out a square white object from the pile of things, and asked him, "Zachary, what is this?"

Zachary said awkwardly, "This...this...this..."

Seeing his unconfident expression on his face, Charlie immediately yelled, "What do you do, be more confident, say it out loud, what is this!"

Zachary bit his scalp and said, "Master Wade, this is the Jade Seal of the Chuan Kingdom!"

"Awesome!" Charlie gave him a thumbs up, exclaimed, and turned to Bernard Elno and said, "Mr. Elno, you also heard it just now. This thing is called the Jade Seal of the Chuan Kingdom. It is said in the legend that Qin Shihuang ordered Li Si to sculpt it. It is one of the most precious cultural relics in China. It is of great significance. I estimate that it is less than three to five billion, so it will definitely not be able to be downloaded."

Speaking of this, Charlie waved his hand and said seriously, "But don't be too expensive. The room for appreciation of this thing is very large. Maybe it will double in two years, and we may still be able to revalue it. You can repurchase it at the same price."

As soon as the voice fell, Charlie said hurriedly, "Of course, I said 'it is possible,' because we don't promise to buy back."

After speaking, Charlie added, "Also, as I said just now, this rumored jade seal is a legend. Since it is a legend, there is naturally no way to distinguish the true from the false, so we do not promise."

Bernard Elno smiled dismal and asked Charlie, "This gentleman...you can make my money, but you don't need to insult my IQ, right?"

Charlie said very solemnly, "How can you say that? What we do in business is honesty, the so-called honesty! Since I want to sell you this thing, I must explain the situation to you clearly, otherwise In the event of a dispute, it is not good for you or me, so you have to approve this thing, make sure it is okay, and if you buy it willingly and will not regret it, then I will sell it to you."

Bernard Elno collapsed completely.

He understood Charlie's way.

Not only must he sell this pile of rubbish to himself at a very high price, but he also has to show his willingness, and even show himself that he believes this thing is true, which is equivalent to completely giving up the right to after-sales rights protection. This is not just trying to cheat money. At the same time, does he have to disassociate everything?

Thinking of this, he asked angrily, "This is how your boss does business? I can understand even if he ask me to distribute goods out of retaliation, but do you still want me to distribute hundreds of millions of goods? What's outrageous is that these are all fakes! My store has never sold fakes, no matter how high it is for distribution!"

Charlie's face turned dark, and he immediately stuffed the Seal into Zachary's arms and said, "Zachary, since this old foreign man doesn't believe our stuff is true, then we can't sell it to him. You put all these things away, let's go!"

Bernard Elno looked dumbfounded. He didn't expect Charlie to run over and insult his IQ, but this guy turned his face first.

Before he recovered, Charlie took out his mobile phone and called Isaac Cameron directly.

Isaac Cameron had been waiting there, so he answered in an instant and the phone was connected then Charlie said, "Mr. Cameron, No. 016 refuses to distribute the goods. Let the security clear them out, and let the first-ranked alternate take his place!"

Chapter 3843

Bernard Elno didn't expect Charlie to turn his face immediately.

He didn't dare to make a joke about his qualifications for the auction. Although he was sitting on a trillion-dollar property, once he died to enjoy it, these properties could be said to be worthless.

As a result, he screamed almost instantly, and hurriedly put on a low-pitched face and begged, "This gentleman, you should not be angry, I have something to say! Please tell Mr. Cameron that I am willing to distribute the goods!"

After finishing speaking, he stretched out his trembling hand and pointed to the Jade Seal in Zachary's arms, gritted his teeth and said, "Isn't it the Jade Seal of the National Heritage? I will buy it!"

Charlie snorted and said, "You just want to buy the Jade Seal, maybe it's not enough..."

Bernard Elno's heart twitched, clenched his fists, and asked with a trembling, "Then...then what else do you want me to buy?"

After all, he glanced at Zachary's bulging bag of fakes, and quickly said, "Why don't I buy the bronze wine bottle just now? Isn't it all right?"

Charlie shook his head, pulled out his sales list when he placed the goods in the store at noon, and said, "Look for yourself, our boss has matched dozens of products in your store, large and small, now you only want to buy two kinds of products from us. Isn't that justified?"

Bernard Elno blurted out, "But...but all the items in your list add up to only one million yuan! This...this jade seal costs three to four billion yuan, which has exceeded the amount by several hundred times. Even if you retaliate, you can't be so cruel..."

Charlie said solemnly, "Everyone is a business man, and what you pay attention to is the courtesy. If you want to call this courtesy as revenge, then it's a bit boring. As I just said, we don't want to buy or sell. If you are not happy, we don't have to do this business.”

“I'm sorry, it's all my fault...” Bernard Elno was completely scared. He knew that the distribution of hundreds of millions or billions of yuan was a trivial matter. The most terrifying thing was that, if at the auction, he successfully took the Rejuvenation Pill for a price of more than tens of billions of dollars, the organizer suddenly asked himself to distribute the goods on the spot, it would be an astronomical figure!

So, he hurriedly bowed his hand to Charlie and said, “This gentleman, I just used the wrong words, please don't take it to your heart... Just tell me directly, how much do I need to match? As long as they are within my tolerance, I will not say one more word!”

As he said, he said with some pleading, “In addition, please help me to tell your boss, saying that I apologize most sincerely to him. From now on, any of my brands and products, I will arrange for someone to prepare two copies for your boss. Even if there are dozens of different color numbers for the same model, I will arrange for someone to give him two copies for each color number, only to ask him to be able to do so in the future. Raise his hands high and let me go.”

Charlie said indifferently, “I'll talk about the next thing later, let's talk about your distribution of goods first.”

As he said, he waved to Zachary, and said, “Zachary, you take out the Jade Seal and the bronze wine bottle for Mr. Elno.”

“Okay.” Zachary nodded quickly, and diligently took out the two fake cultural relics and put them on the table.

Charlie then said again, “Look at what other good things you have in there, and give us Mr. Elno a few more.”

Zachary hurriedly opened the package, searched it for a while, found a picture scroll, and then handed it to Charlie, saying, “Master Wade, this is a good thing. You can open it and take a look.”

Charlie took the picture scroll in his hand, and when he started, he could feel that it was old rice paper, and it was definitely a modern painting.

Chapter 3844

Afterwards, he slowly opened the painting and was surprised when he saw the whole picture.

This... turned out to be a world-class famous painting—the Mona Lisa.

Moreover, it is the Mona Lisa in the style of Chinese traditional painting!

Bernard Elnó saw this and he wanted to die.

In his opinion, this is no longer as simple as insulting IQ, right?

Charlie himself was dumbfounded, raised his head and looked at Zachary, with questions in his eyes.

After that, Charlie winked at him, which meant: I really don't know how to blow this shit, you should do it yourself.

Although Zachary was frightened by Charlie's astronomical numbers just now, he was still an old liar who had been in the antique street for many years. He had very rich practical experience, so he quickly adapted to this routine.

So he laughed, and said to Bernard Elnó quickly, “Mr. Elnó, the painting I introduced to you today is enough to shock the entire Eastern and Western painting world!”

After all, he said, “Everyone knows that the Mona Lisa was created by Leonardo da Vinci in 1503, but let me tell you that this painting is actually not Leonardo’s original painting. It was done by a great painter named Zhao Mengfu in China at the end of the Song Dynasty and the beginning of the Yuan Dynasty.”

Before he finished his words, he pointed to the painting in Charlie’s hand and said seriously, “It is the one in Master Wade’s hand! And the one painted by Da Vinci is modified based on this copy. The second creation is plagiarized, if it is a bit ugly.”

Bernard Elno wanted to cry without tears, and blurted out, “Is this possible? Leonardo da Vinci is my most admired master, and his Mona Lisa is also a masterpiece, how could it be plagiarism!”

Zachary’s expression was full, and he said seriously, “Look, this touches your blind spot! I tell you, this painting was created by Zhao Mengfu by the order of the great Khan Kublai of the Yuan Dynasty. The approximate creation time should be at the end of 1275, which is more than two hundred years earlier than Leonardo da Vinci. Isn’t this clear at a glance who is plagiarizing whom?”

“Nonsense!” Bernard Elno said angrily, “This is absolutely impossible! And you see for yourself, the woman in your painting is also a Western face! How could China have a Western face at that time? What do you have to say about such a big BUG?”

Zachary didn’t panic at all, smiled, and hurriedly said, “So you have to be patient and listen to my introduction! In 1275, a major event with far-reaching impact occurred in the history of the world, do you know what it is?”

Bernard Elno said angrily, “I don’t know!”

Zachary said very seriously, “Mr. Elno, it’s not that I said that you can’t patronize to make money, and occasionally read more to learn about history.”

After finishing speaking, regardless of Bernard Elno’s almost vomiting blood expression, he said profoundly, “Let me tell you, this is the time when the famous Western traveler Marco Polo arrived in China!”

After all, Zachary looked at Bernard Elno and asked, “You should always know “Marco Polo’s Travels”, right?”

Bernard Elno was mad, gritted his teeth and said, “I know! But what does this have to do with the Mona Lisa!”

Zachary shook his head, and sighed, “You who don’t know are fearless.”

After finishing speaking, I continued to explain, “I tell you that Marco Polo came to China in the summer of 1275 after a lot of hardships, and was enthusiastically received by the great man Kublai Khan.”

“In order to promote cultural exchanges between the East and the West, Kublai Khan ordered the famous painter Zhao Mengfu at the time to show Marco Polo and his party the superb skills of our Chinese painting.”

“At that time, Marco Polo happened to have a maid named Mona Lisa!”

“Zhao Mengfu used this maid as a model to create this painting!”

“The whole creation lasted half a year, from the summer of 1275 to the winter of 1275.”

Speaking of this, Zachary couldn’t help but sighed, “At that time, Kublai gave this painting to Marco Polo. Marco Polo was really a treasure, and he kept it with him, knowing to bring it back to the West. Unfortunately, Marco Polo returned to the West and was sent to jail because of the turmoil, and the painting was lost.”

“Two hundred years later, this painting was transferred to Leonardo da Vinci’s hands. After reading it, Leonardo was deeply inspired. After more than ten years of imitating it day and night, he created the well-known version of the Mona Lisa!”

“After his painting was completed, he gave the Mona Lisa made by Zhao Mengfu to his servants to burn them. His servants couldn’t bear to fall away like this, so they quietly gave it to their relatives, and then this painting was handed down!”

Having said that, Zachary looked at Bernard Elno and asked seriously, “Mr. Elno, do you understand now?”

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3845-3846

Bernard Elno looked at Zachary’s serious look, and at a certain moment he was about to be brainwashed by Zachary.

He looked at Zachary, and then at the Mona Lisa in Charlie’s hand. After several iterations, his brain was already in a trance.

Charlie also knew that Zachary was talking nonsense, but he really didn’t expect that he would be able to make such a big set of stories with hundreds of thousands of turns, and he couldn’t help but admire this boy a little bit in his heart.

Among other things, his nonsense skills can definitely be regarded as first-rate.

However, Bernard Elno quickly recovered, knowing that this must be a story made up by Zachary.

Let's not say whether this story is possible or not, even if it is true, it is impossible for this group of people to give this painting to themselves.

From the plastic imitation bronze wine bottle just now, it can be seen that the two people in front of them just want to pit their own money, and it is absolutely impossible for them to take advantage of half a cent.

So, he arched his hand at Zachary, and said with a pained expression: "Sir, I admire your eloquence, and I won't say anything for the rest."

After speaking, he looked at Charlie again and said, "Sir, please give this painting... a price!"

Charlie nodded, and said seriously: "The Mona Lisa that was suspected of plagiarism is now hanging in the collection of the Louvre in France. Although it is impossible to put it up for auction, I guess if it is sold, it can at least be sold to 1 billion U.S. dollars."

When Bernard Elno heard this, his heart shook.

He cursed secretly in his heart, "If you dare to bid such a high price for this broken thing, I would rather not participate in the auction of Rejuvenating Pill, and I will never accept your distribution model!"

Immediately afterwards, Charlie said with a smile, "This painting in my hand, just let Mr. Elno pick up a leak. This painting, the ancient jade seal and the bronze wine bottle, three things pack together, and you can take it all for 2 billion yuan!"

Bernard Elno was dumbfounded after listening.

Two billion?

He couldn't understand, what kind of people would be black to this level, just these three kinds of shabby, and even brazenly asking for 2 billion!

So he immediately blurted out, "Two billion is too much! Isn't tens of millions or even one hundred million not enough to make up for the loss of that one million? It's doubled a hundred times!"

As he said, he gritted his teeth, "If you are so shameless, then I would really rather give up this auction than accept your excessive demands!"

"It doesn't matter." Charlie said flatly, "There will be rich people participating in the Rejuvenation Pill auction. If you are more than one, you will not be more, and if you are less, there will be no more. Just like the bags in your store, some rich people will rush to match. Those who don't want to spend money to distribute the goods will leave. You never care about it."

After speaking, Charlie said again, "Mr. Elno, there is one thing I want to remind you. If you refuse to distribute the goods this time and withdraw from the auction, you will be prohibited from participating in the auction for the rest of your life. You'd better consider it carefully."

Bernard Elno was instantly scared after hearing this, and quickly said, "This gentleman, even if you want to distribute the goods, it is impossible to say two billion! Can it be less?"

Chapter 3846

Charlie looked at him and said coldly, "I'm sorry, Mr. Elno, there is no room for you to bargain. You have so many luxury stores all over the world, and you don't know how much wealth you have madly collected every year by matching goods. Hundreds of billions may be said to be less, now I just let you take out two billion. If you are not happy, in that case, then I don't think you need to participate in this auction. Keep your money and go back to France!"

Although Bernard Elnó's heart is full of anger at this moment, he has actually accepted it deep down.

He himself is the originator of the distribution industry, relying on the trick of distribution, he has made hundreds of billions.

Therefore, he understands that the reason why businesses have the confidence to ask consumers to distribute goods is because they have absolute confidence in their products.

Once they know that consumers are willing to get this product at any cost, they have enough confidence to ask consumers to distribute the product.

A bag of more than 100,000 yuan must be equipped with 200,000 goods, and a watch of 200,000 yuan shall be equipped with goods worth of 400,000 to 500 thousand. They all accurately grasp the psychology of consumers, so they are slaughtered.

Now, in order to have a chance to get a Rejuvenation pill, they let him distribute the goods for this, so he can only grit his teeth and accept it.

After all, he can always earn it back after the auction.

Thinking of this, he nodded and agreed, and said to Charlie, "Okay! Two billion is two billion!"

Charlie nodded in satisfaction, and said lightly, "Later, President Cameron from Shangri-La Hotel will give you the account of the company here, and you can directly arrange the finance to send the money over."

"Okay." Bernard Elnó nodded sullenly, and said with forceful anger, "I will arrange the payment as soon as possible..."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Mr. Elnó, in the future, you will still be more kind in doing business. You can sell things at any price. Don't always think about earning extra profits from hunger marketing and distribution systems. In the words of the Chinese people, doing too much of this kind of ethical deeds is detrimental to yin morality and is very detrimental to future generations.”

Bernard Elno asked angrily, “Aren’t you the same?”

Charlie said with a smile, “Our boss has already said that once the money for your distribution is paid to Shangri-La Hotel’s account, he will donate all of it to China’s Nutrition Improvement Program for Rural Compulsory Education Students. The same thing is that what he did was good, and what you did was wicked. In the words of our ancient Chinese, he was robbing the rich and helping the poor.”

Bernard Elno asked in surprise, “What is this nutrition plan for?”

Charlie said indifferently, “It is a poverty alleviation program funded by the state. It only targets students who are receiving compulsory education. According to the standard of four yuan a day, it provides meal subsidies to more than 20 million rural school students across the country. Calculating on the basis of a four-yuan lunch per day for each child in a poor rural area, these two billion can provide a year-round lunch for 1.4 million children in poor rural areas. It is also a great merit.”

Speaking of this, Charlie said again, “But this merit has nothing to do with you, unless you take the initiative to donate another 2 billion.”

“I... do I have to donate too?!”

Bernard Elno had the desire to die at this time. What he feared most now was that after Charlie forced him to distribute the goods, he also forced him to donate money.

Seeing his panic on his face, Charlie sneered, and said, “Mr. Elno, don’t be so scared. If you don’t want to donate yourself, we won’t force you to donate. After all, the twisted melon is not sweet.”

Bernard Elno finally breathed a sigh of relief.

One of his least favorite things in his life is donations.

In his opinion, the money is earned by his hard work, and he can spend it no matter what, but he can’t donate it.

He had already suffered a heavy loss by agreeing to distribute 2 billion, so he didn’t want to pay any more.

But in this case, these two billion are enough to make him painful for a long time!

Chapter 3847

Seeing Bernard Elno agreed to process the payment, Charlie said to him with satisfaction, “Mr. Elno, the distribution of goods has come to an end for the time being, but our boss still has something to tell you.”

Bernard Elno said quickly, “Please say...”

Charlie said indifferently, “The distribution list I just showed you, you must keep it absolutely confidential, and don’t let anyone know it.”

Bernard Elno said without hesitation, “Don’t worry, I will not disclose it to the outside world.”

“That’s good.” Charlie smiled slightly and said, “By the way, there is one more thing that needs your help.”

Bernard Elno asked quickly, "If you have anything else to do, please tell me!"

Charlie said casually, "Our boss doesn't like your store in Aurous Hill very much. What he meant is to let you arrange to withdraw the store as soon as possible. Don't keep any of the people working on it, especially the ones that distribute the goods. Don't pay a penny at the commission."

Bernard Elno himself hates this shop. Hearing this, he naturally agrees without hesitation, and blurt out, "Don't worry, I will close the shop today and take everything from the shop out!"

"Okay." Charlie nodded in satisfaction, and smiled, "In this case, then you collect these priceless antiques, let's say goodbye."

With that said, Charlie stuffed three things into his arms, then greeted Zachary and left the presidential suite together.

As soon as he walked out of the room door, Zachary couldn't help but gasped and said, "Master...Master Wade...you are so cruel. In the Antique Street, I didn't dare to bid 200,000 yuan. You actually bid 2 billion with the old man just now... This is almost tens of millions of times the profit..."

Charlie smiled and said, "Zachary, you performed well today. Don't worry, I won't treat you badly. I will ask Isaac Cameron to prepare two million cash for you."

When Zachary heard this, he waved his hand quickly and said, "Master Wade, I didn't mean that...how much money you make is your skill, I didn't help much at all..."

Charlie said, "This is my little heart, after all, I can't let you go in vain."

Zachary hurriedly refused, “Master Wade, this is just a matter of effort for me, and the purchase price of those items is also very cheap. I am here to help you perform a play, so I am embarrassed to ask for your money.”

Charlie smiled calmly, “Zachary, just hold it for you, there is no need to be polite with me.”

Zachary blurted out, “Master Wade, if you really want to give it to me, please help me and donate it too!”

Charlie couldn't help but take a look at Zachary, and smiled, “Zachary, you have to think carefully. This is not two hundred yuan, it is two million!”

Zachary said confidently, “Yes, Master Wade, I have considered it well. You donated even two billion. What is my two million?”

Seeing his firm attitude, Charlie nodded and said, “Well, I didn't expect you to have this consciousness. Don't worry, I will personally put out another two million and donate it in your name.”

Zachary excitedly said, “Thank you so much, Master Wade!”

Charlie remembered what Zachary had said just now, and indeed he still had some level of skill, so he asked him, “Zachary, by working in the antique street, how much money do you make all year round?”

Zachary said embarrassingly, “I really don't want to hide it from you, Master Wade. My income is very unstable. Sometimes I can't open a single order for a month, but sometimes I sell a large order and I don't have to work for a few months.”

Chapter 3848

After speaking, Zachary said again, “The Chinese painting version of the Mona Lisa was painted by a student from the Academy of Fine Arts for 500 yuan a piece. Normally, I make a price on Antique Street at over 80,000 yuan. If I sell such a pair, I usually won't go out in the stall for two months, because I am afraid that people will come to look for me."

Charlie asked him, "If someone comes to look for you, what do you usually do?"

Zachary chuckled and explained, "If they caught me, I must refund them. If I can't afford it, I will carry it to the end. Anyway, I'm in Antique Street. The basic principle of doing business is to never refund money."

Charlie asked again, "Then what if you meet someone you can't afford to do?"

Zachary scratched his head and smiled, "If I encounter something that I can't afford, my first choice is usually to run. If I can run, then everything will be fine. If I can't run, I will lose money honestly."

Charlie nodded and said with a smile, "So, you can't settle every single order, how much money can you make in a year?"

Zachary had the final say in his heart, and said with a smile, "If all circumstances are counted, I can usually get a million yuan in one year."

Charlie nodded and said, "Well, Zachary, I'll give you a basic salary of 800,000 yuan a year. From now on, you don't go to the antique shop to cheat people, and you will follow Don Albert after your heart is reformed, and everything will be subject to his instructions."

Zachary was stunned when he heard this.

He never dreamed that Charlie wanted to let himself stay by Don Albert's side and do things.

He was so shocked that he couldn't help but ask, "Master Wade...I...I'm just a nobody, why would you think of asking me to do things with Don Albert?"

Charlie smiled and said, "Don Albert is more than brave, but still not smart. If there is a person like you by his side, it will definitely be a good thing for him to be his koo-headed strategist."

Charlie really appreciates some of Zachary's advantages. Although this guy has a humble background, he can definitely be regarded as knowledgeable, and the most important thing is that he reacts quickly and has better on-the-spot adaptability than ordinary people.

It would be a bit of a waste if such a person is placed in the antique street and earns hundreds of thousands a year.

So he looked at Zachary and asked, "Do you want to consider it? Give me a clear answer after consideration."

"No need to think about it!" Zachary said hastily, "Master Wade, I am willing to follow you and Don Albert!"

For Zachary, it's not easy to work at the antique street.

He not only has to deliberately devise all kinds of tricks to deceive people, but also always be wary of others coming to look for him. In addition, his reputation in Antique Street is not very good. Many colleagues think he is not pleasing to the eye, crowded out, and rejected. Dismantling is also commonplace.

So he has always been looking forward to having the opportunity to visit a reliable dock, at least to make his life easier in the future.

Charlie nodded in satisfaction and said, "In this way, I'll call Don Albert, and you will go to Heaven Spring Mansion to find him later."

But he never dreamed that Charlie would let him go directly to Don Albert.

If he had followed Don Albert, in Aurous Hill, no one would dare to walk sideways, and no one would dare to provoke him!

Thinking of this, Zachary nodded and bowed in excitement, and kept repeating, "Good Master Wade! Thank you Master Wade!"

Chapter 3849

It has not been easy for Zachary to discuss life in Aurous Hill these years.

After all, he did some shameful deeds, and he was often chased away like a dog, and even suffered a fat beating every three to five, and his life was not stable.

The main reason is that there is no patron that can cover him.

It's not that Zachary has never thought about making a good relationship with the people on the road, especially the Rony Todd who is in charge of Antique Street.

However, in Rony Todd's eyes, he was an incompetent liar.

Don't say that Rony Todd doesn't take him seriously, even Rony Todd's younger brother also doesn't take him seriously.

Therefore, if Charlie didn't give him a hand, even for a role like Rony Todd, he would be far from high.

But now it's alright, now Charlie asks him to follow Don Albert as a master in the future, which is tantamount to pulling him up several times!

Aside from other things, starting today, he is also regarded as a direct subordinate of Don Albert, and he is regarded as the same as Ceasar, and is directly one level higher than Rony Todd, who he could not afford to climb before.

It was precisely because of this profound realization that Zachary was extremely grateful to Charlie in his heart.

Charlie looked at him with a grateful look and exhorted, "Zachary, when you start to follow Don Albert, don't go to Antique Street to engage in these scams anymore. Although Don Albert is still on the road, his business has been transformed into a clean one, so don't use your brains to do scams anymore after you go."

Zachary quickly stated, "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I will follow your teachings and never touch these unclean things again!"

Charlie nodded, always feeling that Zachary's words sounded okay, and it was a bit uncomfortable after careful consideration.

Then he thought about the 2 billion he pitted from Bernard Elno. Compared with himself, Zachary was nothing but a little chicken who met the Tyrannosaurus rex.

However, fortunately, Charlie didn't intend to take this money from Bernard Elno as his own, but instead planned to donate all the money to charity. As a result, he would feel more comfortable.

Immediately, Charlie called Don Albert and asked him, "Don Albert, where are you?"

Don Albert said hurriedly, "Master Wade, I'm in Heaven Spring Mansion, what can I do for you?"

Charlie said, "I have found a master for you. Since you are in Heaven Spring Mansion, I will let him go there to find you in a while."

Don Albert asked in surprise, "You found a master for me?! Master Wade, who is this master?!"

Charlie smiled and asked, "Do you know Zachary in Antique Street?"

Don Albert was taken aback and said, "Yes, I know him, Master Wade, are you planning to let him be my master?"

At this moment, Zachary beside Charlie looked nervous, for fear that Don Albert would be dissatisfied with him or would not look at him at all.

Charlie said confidently at this time, "Yes, I think Zachary is very clever and has a good way of doing things. He can just partner with you and give you some new inspiration in the handling of certain problems."

Don Albert said with a smile, "I've heard that this old boy is very ghostly, but I haven't had much contact with him. Since Master Wade said so, then this old boy must be something extraordinary!"

Chapter 3850

After that, he immediately smiled and said, "Master Wade, you can just ask this old boy to come and find me. I'll have a good chat with him."

"Okay." Charlie said in a convenient way, "I will let him go to you now."

After that, Charlie hung up the phone and said to Zachary, "I have already said hello to Don Albert. Now you have to go directly to Heaven Spring Mansion to find him. Follow him and get to know him well. For the business context of the company, think and study more to see if there are any more unique ideas for yourself."

Zachary bowed with great gratitude and said, "Thank you Master Wade! I must dive down and study with Don Albert! Thank you Master Wade for your support and cultivation. Your great kindness is unforgettable!"

Charlie scolded with a smile, "Okay, don't be so polite here, go quickly."

Zachary's eyes were red, and two tears flowed out. Then he wiped it off with his sleeve and sighed, "Master Wade, don't you know that I, Zachary, have been like an orphan without a father or mother over the years. In the Antique Street, I nod and bow my head to others everywhere. In the final analysis, it's because I don't have a backer, and anyone in Aurous Hill can bully me. Unexpectedly, I now have the chance to follow Don Albert and keep up with you in my life..."

Speaking of this, he couldn't help wiping another tear, and then seriously said, "Master Wade, it seems that I am too boring to say this! Anyway, don't worry, I will not disappoint you and Don Albert in the future!"

Charlie nodded and said, "It is a good thing to have a backer, but you should also remember the days when you didn't have a backer. Don't bully other people from poor background just because you have a backer now. Make yourself a the better person."

Zachary nodded repeatedly, and said humbly, "Master Wade, don't worry, I understand 10,000 times of this!"

Seeing that he was speaking from the bottom of his heart, Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Okay, go now."

Zachary bowed to Charlie ninety degrees, and said gratefully, "Thank you, Master Wade, I will go to see Don Albert now!"

With excitement in his heart, Zachary took a taxi to Heaven Spring Mansion.

Just as excited as him, there is also the man named Vince, the salesman in the Hermes store.

Just now, the store manager, under the witness of all the colleagues in the store, calculated the sales commission for this order for him.

A total of more than 996,000 yuan of distribution quota, his commission is a full 298,000.

This order not only broke the store's highest record for distribution, but also broke the store's highest commission record.

Vince was naturally very excited. Without thinking about it, he immediately took out his mobile phone and called a friend who was selling in a second-hand car shop, planning to buy from him a second-hand Porsche 718 sports car that he had long wanted.

Although this sports car is Porsche's cheapest sports car, the price is no more than a few hundred thousand yuan, but it is a very noble existence among most fashionable young people.

Especially on the street at midnight, the moment the hood is turned on, many young people feel the distinctive and noble breath.

Therefore, this car, in some coastal cities, is definitely the most popular model in car rental shops.

As a salesman of top luxury brands, Vince has always prided himself on being at the forefront of fashion. He and many ladies and big models who are friends with him is what he desires most and to be able to drive his own Porsche 718.

Buying a new and brand-new Porsche 718, including the options, probably needs more than 700,000 to more than 800,000 yuan, which is not a large purchase tax of tens of thousands, which is really difficult for Vince to bear.

Although his income as a salesman is not low, it is difficult to save money every month because he likes to spend more on weekdays.

A second-hand car is relatively easy. He already saw a two-year-old second-hand 718. The color and configuration are in line with his requirements, and the price is in the early six hundred thousand.

Vince himself has almost 100,000 yuan in savings. He calculated that when the nearly 300,000 commission is issued next month, he can pay half of the down payment and take the Porsche 718 home.

After the friend from the second-hand car dealer answered the phone, he hurriedly asked, "Flynn, is the red 718 in your store already sold?"

The other party opened his mouth and said, "It's not yet sold, but there are customers who are ready to make an order."

Vince asked anxiously, "When is it set? Do they already paid for it?"

The other party said, "It seems to be an intentional payment of 10,000 yuan. It is said that it will be settled within today."

As soon as Vince heard this, he was relieved immediately, and said hurriedly, "Since it's only 10,000 yuan, it won't be a problem. Flynn, don't sell this car, sell it to me, I want it!"

Chapter 3851-3852

When the other party heard that Vince was going to buy the Porsche 718, he subconsciously said, “You can get it for 600,000 yuan, the minimum down payment is 300,000 yuan, and the first year insurance is more than 10,000 yuan. Where would you get that much money?”

Vince snorted and said, “Oh, looking down on someone! Tell you, I took a big order today, and I will receive a 300,000 commission from my salary on the 15th of next month!”

“Holysh*t!” The other party exclaimed, “Really? What a big deal, you raised 300,000? Dude, I am exhausted selling second-hand cars, and I only get 8,000 in one month. If you are so good at making money, I will also go to your store for an interview next day!”

Vince smiled triumphantly, “Oh, who do you think can enter our store? Our store only recruits a few people each year, but there are hundreds of applicants, and the pass rate is not even 1%. What’s more, we serve high-end customers. The requirements of our store are very high. Not only are there requirements for image quality, but also academic qualifications and English proficiency. I am afraid that I’m blocking the door for you!”

“Grass!” The other side said angrily, “Isn’t it just selling clothes and hats at the shop counter? Why do you need so many damn demands? My mother didn’t graduate from elementary school, and she worked in the old department store until she retired!”

Vince smiled and said, “Does the department store sell the tattered children. Can you compare it to us? A pair of shoes in our shop starts at 7,000 or 8,000, and a scarf is 3,000 to 5,000. Just take a bag and compare it to that department store. Everything in a row of containers in the building is expensive!”

As he said, he hurriedly said, “Hey, I’m going to be serious with you. You should find a way to keep the car for me first. I will definitely bring it up on time on the 15th of next month!”

The other party thought for a while and said, “After all, they have paid the car dealership. If you want me to keep the car at this time, I am not easy to operate. The boss will definitely not agree.”

Vince asked him, “Didn’t you say that he only paid 10,000 yuan for the intention deposit? If you pick that 10,000 yuan, you might regret it later. I will pay more for the deposit directly and I will pick it up on the 15th of next month!”

When the other party heard this, he immediately relieved his heart and said, “If you want to mention this car in good faith, you will have to pay a deposit of 100,000 yuan to the dealer. I will drive the car from the exhibition hall to the back as soon as I receive the deposit. Go to the warehouse, and other colleagues of mine will reserve this car for you. You will pick up the car on the 15th of next month. I will fight for it with the boss and let him give you something more.”

Vince asked incomprehensibly, “How come I have to pay so much for a deposit, isn’t 20,000 yuan enough?”

“Uh... Twenty thousand...” The other party said embarrassingly, “If you come to pick up the car tomorrow and the day after tomorrow, the deposit of 20,000 yuan is really okay. The key is to keep it until the 15th of next month, and it so long. Our boss may not be willing to keep the 20,000 yuan for you.”

“Why?” Vince blurted out, “Since I have paid the deposit, I am willing to get the car. Is he afraid that I won’t buy it? Even if I don’t buy it, I still give him 20,000 yuan for deposit. If I don’t buy it, the money is his, what else does he not want?”

The other party said helplessly, “Hey, you don’t understand the inside of second-hand cars. Every car in our showroom is picked up by our boss for real money. The cost of capital is very high. Just collecting funds for a day will cost at least a few hundred. When you wait for twenty days, the cost of capital alone will exceed 20,000. No matter who you sell to, you will also lose so much money. To our boss, in terms of course, the earlier the shot, the more cost-effective it is.”

While talking, he said again, “Taking a deposit of 100,000 yuan, on the one hand, there is so much profit it can returned to the dealership, on the other hand, you also know that the boss is a gambler. If you have more chips, he naturally wants to bet. You may not be able to pay the balance, so he still has a chance to make you 100,000 yuan. Adding these two aspects together, he will definitely be willing to wait for you for 20 days.”

Vince probably understood the reason for this. After thinking for a moment, he said, “Okay! One hundred thousand is one hundred thousand! Anyway, my commission has already been issued, and it will be issued next month. Give me an account and I will transfer the money.”

The other party reminded him very kindly, “My buddy, I have to remind you that you have to make sure you can pick up the car on the 15th of next month. Otherwise, if you breach the contract, the 100,000 yuan will be lost.”

Vince thought for a while and asked tentatively, “Can you give me a grace period until the 20th of the next month, so that in case of any emergencies, I have time to respond. Sometimes our group finances will pay wages a day or two late.”

“That’s okay.” The other party said readily, “For one hundred thousand yuan deposit, I can keep it for you until the last day of next month.”

Vince breathed a sigh of relief and smiled, “That would be great, and it would definitely be foolproof.”

The other party said, “Then, I will give you the company account of the car dealer. You pay the money first, and then record a video. It is clear in the video that you voluntarily pay a deposit of 100,000 yuan to reserve this car, and get it before the 31st of next month. After paying the down payment and picking up the car, I will write down the copy in a while and send it to you, along with the frame number and engine number of the car. You can just read it when you record the video.”

Vince asked in surprise, “Is it that simple? I don’t need to go to your store to sign a contract?”

The other party laughed and said, “Nowadays, most of the video contracts are signed. Even banks and securities companies require customers to record their own videos. This is simple and convenient, and there are no risks. The interests of both parties can be guaranteed.”

“Okay.” Vince agreed and said, “Then you send me the specific copy, and I will record a video for you.”

Soon, the other party sent him a set of copywriting.

During the break, he ran into the maternity room of the shopping mall and recorded the entire copy in a video.

Not only that, he also showed his ID card throughout the video recording process in accordance with the request of the other party.

The copy is very clear. He himself is willing to pay 100,000 yuan to the car dealer to secure the Porsche 718, and pay the remaining 200,000 yuan before the end of the next month. At the same time, he will perform the contract after the insurance is completed in the store.

The liability for breach of contract is also very simple. If he fails to pay the balance and pick up the car within the time limit, the 100,000 yuan will be used as a penalty to the car dealer.

Since the video has clarified the persons responsible for both parties and the frame number of the car, it has legal effect.

Later, he sent the video to the other party, and after the other party confirmed that there was no problem, he gave him the account of the car dealer.

He immediately opened the mobile banking and transferred the 100,000 yuan.

Since the content of the video signing contract is around 100,000 yuan of liquidated damages, when he transfers the 100,000 yuan to the other party's account, the agreement will automatically take effect.

Afterwards, he took a look at his bank card balance and found that there is only 6,000 yuan left in his bank card, and he felt somewhat empty.

However, when he thinks that he will be able to reap 300,000 commissions next month, and then be able to get his favorite Porsche 718, he suddenly becomes extremely excited.

He knew that from this moment on, he was going to count his days, and the fifteenth of next month was the big day in his life. He would get the first car in his life, and it would be his long-favored Porsche sports car!

He has even begun to fantasize about the feeling of being surrounded by neighbors with enviable eyes after returning to his community in his newly bought sports car.

At this moment, he suddenly received an online message on his mobile phone. It was his store manager who sent the chat message. The store manager asked in the voice message, "Vince, where have you been? I looked everywhere for you! Come back quickly, something big happened!"

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3853-3856

Chapter 3853

This is the first time Vince has seen the store manager so uneasy.

In his impression, the manager of himself is extremely capable, and he can often turn the rich men and rich women around, not only let them pay out of their pockets obediently, but also make them grateful.

Therefore, in Vince's eyes, the store manager is his idol and life goal.

Since Vince entered this store, his views have changed drastically.

If it hadn't been for a job in a luxury store, Vince would not have dreamed that those wealthy people who usually prey on ordinary people and have noses and eyes would cater to and please the salespersons in luxury stores in every way.

If it weren't for working in a luxury store, Vince wouldn't know that in this store, whether you are a big boss, or a junior with a monthly pocket money of more than one million, you have to respect the salesman when you come to buy.

Want a best-selling bag? I'm sorry, if they can't speak or ask for help, the answer to you will always be lukewarm: I'm sorry, this one is out of stock now.

What if you have money in this absolute seller's market?

In the past, salespersons were proud of knowing rich people, but now the world has changed. Instead, many so-called ladies are proud of knowing sisters. They not only have to work hard to build relationships with salesperson, but also help them. They have to stuff some red envelopes, have a big meal, or give some expensive gifts every three times to maintain the relationship.

The most disgusting thing is that many so-called ladies are proud to share their experience of ingratiating or even kneeling and licking those elder sisters on the Internet platform. It is really magical to the extreme.

Therefore, Vince is extremely passionate about his job, and because of this job he is extremely complacent, and his biggest goal is to one day become a store manager.

Once he become a store manager, he can basically hold all the best-selling items in the store. At that time, the rich people in the city will come to kneel and lick him.

The more so, the more he couldn't understand what had happened to make the store manager so nervous.

So he ran out of the maternity room in the mall. As soon as he left the door, he saw two anxious women standing in front of the maternity room. Each woman was holding a baby waiting to be fed in her arms.

The two mothers were waiting at the door of the mother-infant room to breastfeed their children. Seeing that the mother-infant room was in use, they thought there were other mothers breastfeeding their children, but they did not expect to walk out of the room as soon as the door was opened, a man with a strong perfume smell and a little enchanting dress.

This made them a little angry, and one of the mothers scolded, "What's the matter with you? What are you doing to the maternity room?"

Vince shook his finger in disdain, and said, "Why do you ask? Who are you?"

The mother angrily reprimanded, "Look clearly! This is the maternity room! It is specially prepared for mothers and babies. What qualifications do you have to occupy?"

Vince said proudly with his nostrils up to the sky, "Is it great to have a child? Who is used to this stinking problem for you? Can't you stay at home honestly if you have a child? Don't go out and add to the society. What a trouble, it's annoying!"

The mother was very annoyed. Seeing that he had a badge on his chest, she immediately stepped forward and said, "Which store are you from? I'm going to your store to complain!"

Chapter 3854

When Vince heard this, his heart was agitated, so he hurriedly ran away with oil on the soles of his feet.

And this guy didn't dare to run into his store, but first ran out of the mall in the opposite direction, and then made a big circle from the outside before returning to his store.

And the mother holding the baby couldn't chase him at all, so she could only let him run away.

Back in the store, Vince was out of breath. Before he could catch his breath, he saw all his colleagues crying, as if they had lost a million.

Especially the owner of the store, his eyes are already red of crying.

So he hurried forward and asked, "Manager, what's the matter? What's wrong!"

The store manager looked at him, angrily stepped forward and kicked him to the ground, angrily cursed, "Vincent May! You fucking bastard! It's all because of you!"

When other colleagues saw him coming back, one by one immediately became angry. Several male colleagues rushed up like crazy and punched and kicked him.

Only a few people yelled, "Damn, bastard! You fucked the whole store! I'll kill you!"

"Grass, I want to get rid of all his teeth! Kill him!"

Several female colleagues were not to be outdone, and even grabbed two hands on his face. One of the female colleagues hysterically shouted, "Vincent! You ruined my career! I will kill you!"

Vincent May is Vince's real name.

Don't look at their stores, all of the salesperson have small English names, such as Tom, Beth, or Ana, but when they really took out their ID cards, they really have long names such as Thomas, Elizabeth, and Analiza.

At this time, Vince was punched and kicked by everyone, and he was slapped and rolled on the ground while shouting, "God help! Why are you all hitting me? Did I provoke you all?"

The manager lowered his body, grabbed his collar, and hit his face with a fist, causing the nosebleeds from both of his nostrils to flow, and he cursed, "You have a fucking face to ask! The French headquarters just sent an email. Yes! Just because you fucking brazenly increased the distribution quota, the French headquarters informed the entire group of our store and fired us on the spot because of our lack of professional ethics and touching the red line of the group!"

"Moreover, even the store is required to be closed immediately, ready to wait for the collectors to check the goods, check the accounts, and then officially withdraw the store!"

"Half of the world's luxury brands are in the hands of the group. Now we are notified by the whole group that no luxury store will hire us anymore! All of us are killed by you!"

Vince was completely dumbfounded, completely ignoring the pain, and blurted out, "Manager, I was wronged! I didn't let him match so many orders for today's order, but he himself wanted so many..."

The store manager smashed his face with a fist again, cursing, "You fucking have a hard-headed mouth! It's just that you fucking see the money! That bag has never been distributed in our store for more than 300,000! If you're really a bit hard to count, why don't you tell the customer clearly and tell him only 300,000 yuan is enough?"

"I..." Vince was stunned for a moment, and then hesitated and said, "I...I didn't think I could just make more money... and it was his own willingness, I wouldn't say money can't make ends meet..."

Speaking of this, he remembered about the Porsche, and hurriedly asked nervously, "By the way, manager. What about my commission this month? Will it be sent to me directly after the resignation procedure or wait until next month and receive the salary together?"

Chapter 3855

The manager never dreamed that Vince blurted out such a sentence.

This immediately made him angry, and gritted his teeth and cursed, "You always fucking think of money! We were expelled! There is no compensation for the expelled dime! And the group said that we caused extremely serious damage to the brand and caused immeasurable huge losses to the group, so they reserve the right to sue us! Maybe we have to lose money to the group!"

Vince was struck by lightning immediately, and his eyes were black and he almost fainted.

Thanks to a female colleague who came up and splashed a glass of ice water directly on his face, he woke him up all of a sudden.

At this moment, he wailed loudly and said, “How can this be? If the commission is not paid to me, what will I use to get the car next month? I just paid 100,000 yuan deposit, if I can’t claim the car next month, my 100,000 yuan will be lost! It took me so long to save this 100,000 yuan. This is all my hard-earned money!”

“After what happened, you still think of getting a car...” The manager was so angry with him that he had no motivation to continue hitting him. He threw him back to the ground and said coldly, “Vincent, you are really hopeless. That’s it! Tomorrow, the people from the collection will come to us to complete the dismissal procedures. From now on, the store will no longer be open. Go back and think about what you should do in the future!”

A male colleague said indignantly, “Manager, how can you let go of this dog so easily?”

The store manager sighed, pointed to Vince who was covered in blood, and asked that person, “He is already hopeless, what the point if we kill him? The group will come to punish us, we are nothing more than leaving this shop with the front foot and going to jail with the back foot!”

Everyone was speechless.

They really hate Vince, but as the store manager said, even if Vince is killed now, what is the point?

Thinking of this, everyone suddenly felt like a frustrated ball, one by one, their heads down and their faces full of pain.

The store manager sighed at this time, and said, "Okay, everyone will go home first. I will notify everyone to come over and complete the procedures after the gathering of people arrives tomorrow."

Several female salesperson left crying.

Although several male salesperson were a little bit unreasonable, they all left one after another.

Vince sat on the ground with blood on his face, still thinking about his commission and his Porsche 718.

A thought suddenly flashed in his mind, and he immediately took out his mobile phone and called his friend who worked in the car dealership.

As soon as the phone was connected, he hurriedly asked the other party, "Flynn, I don't want that car anymore, can you return the 100,000 yuan to me?"

When the other party heard this, he blurted out immediately, "Are you fucking kidding with me? I drove the car to the warehouse and sealed it for you. I will wait for you to pick up the car next month. Now you tell me that you don't want it anymore? Are you playing tricks on me?"

"No..." Vince said quickly, "Flynn, this matter is a long story. I mainly have a problem with the commission next month. If I can't get the money, I won't get the car. What else can I do to pick up the car for a sum of money?"

"Grass!" The other party cursed secretly and blurted out, "Didn't you just vowed to say that you will have the money?"

Vince said helplessly, "I didn't expect this to happen... Now this money is 80% out of hand, so please help me and return this car for me!"

The other party smacked his lips and said, "Vince, it's not that I don't want to help you, it's just that I'm really helpless..."

Chapter 3856

After speaking, the other party said, "Your money was transferred to the account of our car dealer, and you have just signed a video contract. I forwarded your video to our boss, who combined your transfer records and agreed to reserve this car to you. If you want to return the car now, if you breach the contract according to the content, the 100,000 yuan will have nothing to do with you."

When Vince heard this, he cried in a hurry.

He choked with tears and said, "Flynn, you must help me. Not only is my three hundred thousand commissions gone, but I also lost my job. I will have problems eating in the future! And I also used all my savings in that deposit. If the money is not refunded to me, I will be penniless..."

The other party said embarrassingly, "I understand what you said, but I really can't help you. Before you sent the money, I repeatedly asked whether you can be sure that the remaining balance will be handed. You just agreed to the contract and now you are about to breach the contract in less than an hour..."

Vince wailed, "Flynn, please help me beg your boss, please take my pitiful merits and give me the 100,000 yuan. I didn't delay him for too long. As you said, it hasn't been an hour when I sent the money."

The other party chuckled and said, "Vince, let me tell you the truth. Our boss likes to earn this money. Whenever a customer like you places a deposit, he is anxious to burn incense and worship Buddha, and pray that you will breach the contract, so that he can pick up a penalty for the breach of contract for nothing."

Having said this, the other party lowered his voice and said cautiously, "He himself is a master who cannibalize people without spitting out bones. He is someone who wants to get money and a fat man with a swollen face. Meeting you is equivalent to meeting the God of Wealth, how can it be possible to hold your hands high."

Vince was like falling into an ice cellar, and he collapsed and asked, "Then what should I do, Flynn? Tell me...I am really desperate now..."

The other party hesitated for a moment, and said, "Vince, otherwise you should try to collect some money and try to pick up the car before the end of the month. The 718 is very popular in the market, so the preservation rate is still very high. If you take the car away first, and then resell it, you will lose 10,000 to 20,000 yuan at most."

"Really?!" When Vince heard this, a look of hope flashed in his desperate eyes, and he asked, "Can I resell the car just 10,000 or 20,000 lower?"

The other party said confidently, "It definitely can! Take a step back and say, if it's really not easy to shoot, you can lower the price a little bit. If you lose 20,000 to 30,000, that's better than losing 100,000!"

Vince said with some worry, "It is at least two hundred thousand to take the car away. I have nowhere to borrow so much money!"

The other party thought for a while and said, "If you really can't raise money, I can recommend a big brother who specializes in giving money to others to cross the bridge. He has more funds in his hands. If you want it, the interest is 1,000 a day. You have to repay it in ten days. Anyway, you just borrow money to cross a bridge, take the money here and take the car away, and then you can repay the loan when you resell the car."

Vince asked hurriedly, "Flynn, what does it mean to pay for ten days?"

The other party explained, "Don't you want to borrow two hundred thousand, the daily interest is 1,000 yuan in ten days, if you spend more than ten days, then interest will grow. So it must be paid in ten days for a total of 10,000 interest."

Vince said in horror, "Then the interest on this part alone will cost more than 10,000 yuan! If I sell the car, I will pay another 20,000 to 30,000 yuan. Wouldn't I lost more than 40,000 yuan?"

The other party said helplessly, "That's better than losing one hundred thousand, right? You can't get back all over now. The most important thing is to stop the loss in time!"

Vince was taken aback for a moment, thinking that what his friend said was right, stopping the loss in time is the most important thing.

Thinking of this, he said quickly, "Flynn, please help me contact that big brother today. I want to quickly pick up the car, then quickly resell it, and get back as much of my money as possible..."

Flynn said, "No problem, I'll give you an address and phone number. You will go directly to him and mention my name. It is estimated that he will give you a 20% discount from the interest."

Vince said gratefully, "Thank you so much, Flynn!"

"You're welcome." The other party hurriedly said, "We are buddies, I must give you a hand! I will send you the contact information and address on online chat. Please go there and try to pick up the car as soon as possible. I will also find someone to help you redeem the car."

"Okay!" Vince said hurriedly, "Then I will go now!"

Vince hung up the phone, got up from the ground with difficulty, and ignoring the manager, rushed out of the mall, and hurried to the address that Flynn sent him.

At this time, Flynn went back to the second-hand car dealer shop and said flatteringly to a man with a face full of flesh in front of him, "Boss, that kid is hooked!"

"Okay!" The boss laughed and said, "I'll also say hello to my brother, and quickly fudge him to sign the loan contract, and then let him take the car away!"

Flynn also said with a smug look, "I've seen Vince interested in our 718 for a long time, and I thought about incorporating him in before, but I always felt that he has no money. This forced me to deliver it to the door by myself."

The boss nodded and smiled, "When he borrowed money from my brother, took out a loan and took the car away, he would find that the car had a major accident, and it was spliced back and forth. Even if the price is reduced to 300,000, no one will ask for it!"

"Each day the car is dropped in his hands, it will generate more than 1,000 additional interest, not to mention that he can't take the 100,000 yuan back, and the remaining 200,000 bridge funds, it is enough to drag him down!"

"At that time, the interest at both ends, plus the various handling fees we have hidden in the contract, will be at least 70,000 or 80,000 yuan a month, and it is still very profitable. If it takes him two and three months, it will definitely put him half dead!"

As he said, the boss asked again, "Flynn, you have to make sure that this kid can pay back the money! Don't fucking turn around and just break the can, then I want to get the car back at most, and earn his one hundred thousand yuan deposit."

Flynn hurriedly said, “Boss, his parents have a 100-square-foot house in the city, which is worth two million. As long as he is asked to carry the loan, he will definitely have to let his parents sell the house to save him!”

“Okay!” The boss smiled, lit a cigarette, and said with a smile: “As long as the family has assets that can be sold.”

After finishing talking, he threw a cigarette to Flynn and said with a smile, “When you eat him thoroughly, no matter how much you fish in the end, you will get a commission of ten points!”

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3857-3858

Chapter 3857
Cheating is common in all walks of life.

But the most common is to set up a game between acquaintances.

Moreover, acquaintances are often the most daring to cheat.

The second-hand car market is extremely watery, and the more you trust your friends, the easier it is to be pitted.

The Porsche 718 in the second-hand car shop was previously owned by car rental shop in Southaven. Renting out has recovered the cost in more than a year.

Half a year ago, the car was rented by a two youngsters who had just obtained a driver’s license. The two youngsters had a major accident driving while drunk. One of them was killed on the spot, the other was seriously injured, and the car was almost scrapped.

Then, the car was picked up by the owner of the car dealership in Aurous Hill at a very low price, and then a section of the front body was welded in the province, and finally brought to Aurous Hill after being refurbished.

However, because of the poor condition of this car, anyone who knows about cars can see the tricks at a glance, so even the Porsche market is so good, this car has never been sold.

Unexpectedly, this big hole made Vince step in.

He rushed to sign a short-term loan agreement that was full of pitfalls, and then hurriedly ran to the dealership to pick up the car with the money he had just loaned out.

His friend Flynn prepared a grand car-lifting ceremony for him. This sports car, which had an accident, and had someone died, was neatly cleaned up by him, and it was also tied with a big red flower, which looked extraordinarily handsome.

At this time, Vince was not in the mood to admire this long-loved sports car. He felt terribly painful when he thought that he might lose 30,000 to 40,000 when he changed hands.

At this time, his friend Flynn took him to the office, handed him a thick contract, and urged him in a low voice, "Vince, hurry up and sign the contract first. I have a colleague from another city who is looking for Porsche 718. If you take the car away, I will arrange for him to look for you to see the car. Then you will add 10,000 yuan to the price. I guess he will definitely ask for it, so that your interest will be paid!"

Upon hearing this, Vince asked in surprise, "Really?"

"Can I still be cheaper?" Flynn winked at him and whispered, "You keep your voice down, don't let our boss hear, or he will definitely scold me."

Vince said hurriedly, "Okay! Flynn, thank you so much for this!"

"What are you polite with me?" Flynn turned the contract directly to the last page, pointed to the signature area and said to him, "You sign quickly, and I will take you to pick up the car after signing!"

"Good!"

Ten minutes later, Vince finally got the Porsche 718 he was dreaming of.

Flynn gave him a grand car-lifting ceremony, and beauty sales gave him a bunch of flowers.

Later, Flynn confessed to him, "Vince, you drive the car away first, and I will contact that counterpart from other places later and let him see you in the car."

Vince immediately pushed aside the clouds and mist to see the blue sky. He was so excited that he just forgot about the matter of losing his job.

Afterwards, he thought that he can pay the bridge payment for ten days, if the car was sold as soon as he got it, it would really be a loss.

So, he hurriedly said to Flynn, "Flynn, can you let your friend from outside of town come to see the car after a day or two? I just got this car, and I want to enjoy driving the car first."

Flynn smiled and said, "Okay, no problem. Recently, there is no similar source of cars on the market. He is definitely willing to wait two more days. You can drive the car away for practical use, and I will follow up later."

"Great!" Vince said gratefully and excitedly, "Then I will drive the car away first, and you will ask him to contact me in two days! After the car is bought, I will treat you to a big meal!"

Flynn waved his hand and said with a serious face, "You don't have to invite me to dinner, it's not easy for you!"

Chapter 3858

Five minutes later, with the ultimate gratitude to his friend, Vince drove the coveted Porsche 718 and left the second-hand car shop.

At this moment, he still doesn't know what nightmare is waiting for him after getting the car.

He doesn't even know that he will not only lose his 100,000 yuan, but also fell to a loan shark. In the end, he can only rely on his parents to sell their house to save him ashore.

At the same time.

Michaela Joules, who stays in Aurous Hill International Hotel, has just sent Claire out with Kelly West.

After the three had lunch together, they chatted again and again in Michaela Joules' room for the whole afternoon. It was not until dark that Claire left unwillingly.

After watching Claire take a taxi and leave, Kelly West asked Michaela Joules in surprise, "Miss Joules, I only gave Claire the master class quota because of your face. She is not stupid and should be able to know it, why did she only prepare a gift for me, but not for you?"

Michaela Joules said with a smile, "Fortunately, she didn't prepare something for me. If she really prepared a gift for me, then all my hard work would be lost."

Kelly West was puzzled.

She asked tentatively, “Miss Joules, what do you mean by this? I don’t quite understand...”

Michaela Joules said seriously, “This kind of thing, I really can’t explain in a few words. China is a society of personal affection. Except for the immediate family, almost all other social relations are promoted by human affection. As the saying goes, people respect you by showing respect to others, this is very different from the interpersonal society in Europe and America.”

Speaking of this, she paused slightly, and then said, “Friendly reminder, the best way to get along with Chinese people is to let her owe you the favor.”

Kelly West nodded her head seemingly, and she was more and more admired at Michaela Joules, who was much younger than herself.

Immediately, Michaela Joules returned to her room and called her grandpa Ferdie Joules.

As soon as the phone was connected, she asked with concern, “Grandpa, are you already used to everything in Shangri-La Hotel?”

Ferdie Joules sighed and said, “Adapting to a fart, it feels like being in jail.”

Michaela Joules asked incomprehensibly, “Why does Grandpa say that?”

Ferdie Joules vomited, “The staff said, until the auction ends, no one is allowed to leave the hotel, and no one is even allowed to leave his room without authorization. If you want to leave the room, you must first report to them and inform them that you want to leave the hotel. The reason for leaving the room must be approved by them. Leaving the room without approval is regarded as a serious violation. One warning will result to deprivation of the qualification to participate in the auction...”

Michaela Joules asked in surprise, “The management is so strict?”

“Yes!” Ferdie Joules said angrily, “Food and drinks are all served directly into the room by the service staff, and the food delivery person has to take care of the clothes I wear. I have to wear the clothes they send. I wanted to go for a walk downstairs after eating, but they didn’t allow it, saying that a walk was not a necessary, and didn’t approve it.”

Michaela Joules sighed helplessly, and comforted, “Grandpa, after all, this is a seller’s market. There are so many people like you, so you don’t need to care too much.”

Ferdie Joules sighed and said indignantly, “You don’t know how hard this place is! They wouldn’t let me go for a walk, but they said they could send me a treadmill to the room, but as soon as they offered a treadmill service, they actually charged me with 680,000 yuan!”

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3859-3860

Chapter 3859

When Michaela Joules heard this, she couldn’t help but laugh.

She really didn’t think that Charlie’s method of making money would be to use everything.

A treadmill costs only a few thousand US dollars, even for the best brands, but the highest is only 10,000 US dollars, but Charlie offers a few days of use, but it charge nearly 100,000 US dollars which is really expensive.

Ferdie Joules couldn’t help but sigh at this moment, “This Shangri-La Hotel is a slaughterhouse for the rich with standards. There are so many money-raising items you can barely imagine.”

Michaela Joules quickly consoled him, “Grandpa, money isn’t really a big deal. You don’t need to take it too much. Just take care of yourself and you’ll be comfortable.”

“Yes,” Ferdie Joules said seriously, “I also understand the truth that you can be sure if you come, but I didn’t think they had such a low limit, which is actually submitting the three opinions.”

After that, Ferdie Joules again asked, “Michaela, based on my real experience here, I feel that the boss behind the scenes is a lucrative who sees money and is only profitable. Will it be effective if you get involved in favoritism with such a person?”

Michaela Joules thought for a moment and said, “Grandpa, according to my remarks, Master Wade seem to be a person looking for profit, otherwise it is impossible to hide his identity all the time. I guess he just wanted to take this opportunity to play sticks of the rich.”

While speaking, he said again, “You also said that Grandpa Orion once received a Rejuvenating pill from him by chance, and that he never asked Grandpa Orion for a penny. According to the current trend, the Rejuvenating pill price should be able to exceed US$10 billion, and a person who can give $10 billion casually doesn’t look like a person looking for profits...”

Immediately, Michaela Joules continued, “Now, if he’s doing everything he can to ask everyone for money, the maximum is about 10 million yuan per person, and two hundred people are just two billion yuan, which equals more than three billion U.S. dollars. Even less than 1/3 of the real value of the Rejuvenation Pill, so I guess it’s deliberately trying to complicate things for you and destroy your prestige.”

Ferdie Joules waived for a moment and agreed, “It makes sense that you analyze this way. After all, Rejuvenating pill is priceless. I also don’t think that the boss received many favors from your Grandpa. Orion. The Rejuvenating pill which is worth tens of billions of dollars are handed over to your Grandpa Orion directly.”

Michaela Joules smiled lightly and said with relief, “So, Grandpa, don’t have too many negative emotions. You must be as discreet and humble as possible at Shangri-La Hotel. Don’t argue with the staff. As for me, everything seems to be okay now. Progress is relatively fluid and the results are worth waiting for.”

“Okay!” Ferdie Joules felt quite relieved and said with a smile, “Michaela, it seems you’ve made a lot of progress during this period. Your former personality isn’t so discreet and calm, unlike now.”

Michaela Joules smiled and said seriously, “Grandpa, when I first arrived in China, I still had a strong sense of superiority in my heart. I always felt like everything could be planned, but only when I got to Aurous Hill, I did know that true powers are often hidden in the market and don’t appear at all, so you must keep a low and humble profile at all times.”

Speaking of this, she couldn’t help but sigh, “It’s a shame that I understand this truth a little late. If I could be sooner, Mr. Rogers might not be missing.”

Ferdie Joules thought of missing Louis Rogers, and couldn’t help but sigh lightly and said, “I have already given Mr. Rogers’ family a $100 million resetting subsidy. If we can’t find his whereabouts, I’ll give his family again a large sum of money to not make them worry in this life.”

Michaela Joules said, “This is the only way forward now.”

Chapter 3860

After all, she looked at the time and said, “Grandpa, you can rest well in the hotel. I’ll continue working outside these two days. When the auction ends, no matter what the outcome is, I’ll find a way to make arrangements so you can continue to meet Master Wade.”

“Okay!” Ferdie Joules said, “Call me if you have anything to do, but I guess I won’t be allowed to bring my mobile phone on the day of the auction. If something happens, I won’t talk about it until the auction ends.”

“OK.”

At the same time, Isaac Cameron gave a detailed report to Charlie, telling him, “Young Master, all the applicants who are currently participating in the auction have moved to Shangri-La Hotel, and for those who wasn’t able to attend, they will be replaced by the classification from 201 to 220, twenty candidates will arrive in Aurous Hill one after another tomorrow.”

Charlie lightly signified and ordered, “You should stop charging the accommodation fees of these candidates. I’m afraid they won’t even have the qualifications to enter the venue.”

“Good Young Master” Isaac Cameron replied and hurriedly returned to ask, “Young Master, shouldn’t you let them go for nothing this time? A lot of people come from abroad, and it’s very difficult to get rid of them so far.”

Charlie thought for a moment, then said, “Well, if they don’t have a chance to replace others in the end, they’ll manage to pass the security check on the day of the auction to have the opportunity to see the effects of the rejuvenating pill, after all, many of these people are here to witness it’s magical effect.”

Due to the arrival of these rich people, Charlie was increasingly anxious for this auction.

Now, after its own series of exaggerations, he don’t know at what price the rejuvenating pill can be sold.

But he knows one thing very well, while wealthy people see the effects of others taking the Rejuvenation Pill in the act in this auction, each of them will explode with enthusiasm for the Rejuvenating Pill 10,000 times stronger than it is now.

Because so far, most of the wealthy people who have participated in auctions have only limited knowledge of the effect of Rejuvenating pills by just listening to others, and have no chance to witness the magic of Rejuvenation pill with their own eyes.

Many people know that their assets can be among the two hundred people, so they can barely touch the bottom, but still sharpen their heads and want to participate in the auction, so they want to see with their own eyes how amazing Rejuvenating pill is.

Therefore, this auction will surely surprise the whole high class.

And after this auction, the Rejuvenating pill will be the most precious and sought after thing in the upper class.

At that time, Charlie could also make the Rejuvenating pill in his hands hold the greatest value.

The Rejuvenating pill in his hand will be enough to bring the Wade family closer to the top of the world.

Isaac Cameron felt that Charlie's solution was very humane at this moment, so he immediately said, "Then I'll let someone place 20 chairs in the last row and set up a special viewing area, and then I'll meet them there to look at."

"Okay." Charlie nodded lightly and asked, "Is the old man arrived here in Aurous Hill?"

Isaac Cameron knew that the old man he was talking about was supposed to be his grandfather Lord Wade, so he rushed to say, "Lord Wade has arrived. I made arrangements for him to stay in the administrative building, but he was separated from the other two VIPs.”

Charlie asked him, “Have Mr. Exeor and the former queen of North Europe arrived too?”

Isaac Cameron nodded and said, “Yes, young master, they are all here.”

Charlie said, “Help me call Mr. Exeor and ask him if it’s convenient if I make a visit.”

The Amazing Son-In-Law Chapter 3861-3862

Chapter 3861

After Orion Exeor moved in in the administrative building, he has been waiting for Charlie to contact him.

When he came to Aurous Hill this time, he knew that he did not have the economic strength to compete with these top rich people. Therefore, the only purpose of this visit to Aurous Hill was to meet Charlie.

Therefore, when Isaac Cameron contacted him, he said without thinking, “Please tell Master Wade that I’m waiting for him at any time.”

Hearing this, Charlie did not delay. He directly asked Isaac Cameron to take himself to the administrative building and came to Orion Exeor’s room.

As soon as they met, Charlie said respectfully, “Mr. Lai, we meet again.”

Orion Exeor quickly bowed at the same time. He said respectfully, “Master Wade, you are so polite!”

Charlie quickly reached out and helped him and said, “Mr. Exeor is so polite. How can I receive your bow!”

Orion Exeor said with a straight face, “Master Wade, your life is above me, and you are kind to me. You take it for granted that I bowed to you.”

With that, he quickly said to Charlie, “Master Wade, please come in and let’s talk!”

Charlie nodded and said to Isaac Cameron, “Isaac, let me talk to Mr. Exeor for a while. Go back first.”

Isaac Cameron said respectfully, “Good young master.”

After saying that, he said to Orion Exeor, “Mr. Exeor, I will go first.”

This is an administrative luxury suite with an area of more than 200 square meters, and a living room alone occupies nearly 100 square meters.

At this time, a set of purple sand tea sets has been set on the coffee table in the living room. In addition, there is an incense burner made of bronze.

Orion Exeor asked Charlie to sit down on the sofa. While boiling water to make tea, he took out a piece of wood the size of a palm, and then gently scraped off a little powder on the wood with a delicate silver knife.

Then, he took out a set of exquisite copper tools. First, he used tools to flatten the incense ash in the incense burner, and then poured the powder scraped off the wood on the incense ash and pressed it into a lotus shape with the tools.

Charlie recognized the set of things he used, which was the famous seal incense.

Most people who like to burn incense directly buy processed plate incense or thread incense, but there are still some people who pay attention to suppress seal incense by themselves.

Most of the scrap materials used to suppress seal incense are aloes or old sandalwood, which can also be regarded as waste utilization and the cost will not be too high.

However, Orion Exeor used large aloes, which surprised Charlie.

Because the price of large aloes is still very expensive in the market. If calculated in grams, it is much more expensive than gold.

If such a piece of aloes can be carved into Buddhist images such as Buddha, Bodhisattva or Dumu, it can be sold at least hundreds of thousands of yuan.

At this time, Orion Exeor lit the seal incense in the shape of a lotus flower with matches, and said to Charlie with a smile, "Master Wade, you should not reject the taste of aloes, right?"

Charlie smiled and looked at the wisp of green smoke that soared in the air. At the same time, he also smelled the unique aroma when the aloes were ignited. He only felt particularly comfortable, so he said, "Mr. Exeor is really elegant. I have smelled this seal incense with my mother when I was a child and after so many years in a flash, I smell it again, and the aftertaste is endless."

Chapter 3862

Orion Exeor nodded and said seriously, "Your mother is very famous in the United States. It is said that when she was alive, she spared no effort to promote traditional Chinese culture in the United States. Many ladies in American upper class are proud of emulating her and have liked seal incense for many years, and the price of aloes in the United States has been stable for decades. After your mother's seal incense became popular in the upper class, the price of this aloes incense in the United States increases more than five times in a year."

Charlie asked curiously, "Have Mr. Exeor ever met my mother?"

"I've seen her." Orion Exeor nodded slightly and said seriously, "Master Wade, in fact, I have been with your great-grandfather for many years. When I met your mother, she was still an infant. I was invited by your great-grandfather to drink to your mother's full moon wine."

Charlie's great-grandfather is his grandfather's father and the founder of the family.

However, Charlie had never seen this great-grandfather. When he died, Charlie was not yet born.

Hearing Orion Exeor say this secret, Charlie asked in surprise, "Mr. Exeor, are you friends with my great-grandfather?"

"Yes." Orion Exeor smiled faintly and explained, "Your great-grandfather is about the same age as me. I met him in 1938. At that time, I went to the United States in the same boat with him. We broke through the thorns and supported each other at first sight, which could be regarded as intersecting."

"So that's it!" Charlie said that, stood up and bowed to Orion Exeor.

Orion Exeor quickly got up and said in a little flattered, "Master Wade, you are my great benefactor, how can you bow to me... I should be the one to bow to you!"

Charlie said seriously, "You and my great-grandfather are friends, and naturally you are also my elder. As a junior, I should bow to you!"

Orion Exeor said very seriously, "Master Wade, what I believe is the fate of heaven. From the perspective of fate, you are the king and I am a minister. Even if I am over 100 years old, I am still a minister when I see you."

Seeing that he was firm, Charlie stopped arguing with him and said quickly, "Mr. Exeor, let's save this set of etiquette, just as forgetting the acquaintance. What do you think?"

Orion Exeor was slightly stunned, then nodded with a smile and said, "Okay, since Master Wade said so, I should follow your fate."

Then the two sat down again.

Charlie thought of something and asked Orion Exeor, "Mr. Exeor, you helped me promote Rejuvenating pill in North America. I wonder if my grandfather has inquired about it with you?"

"Your grandfather..." Orion Exeor couldn't help laughing and said, "He doesn't believe in fate. When he was young, I often talked about 'my fate', and didn't care about it. Even in the past, he had many prejudices. He always felt that I was a charlatan, so there was little contact between us, especially after your great-grandfather passed away, we didn't have any intersection. I believe that even if he was interested in Rejuvenating pill, he would not come to me to inquire."

After saying that, he asked Charlie curiously, "Master Wade, you must have all the registration lists in your hand. I wonder if any of the Evans family signed up?"

"None." Charlie shook his head and said, "There is no one surnamed Evans in all the registration information."

Orion Exeor nodded and smiled, “Your grandfather is very arrogant, and he is likely not join in this excitement. Even if someone lets him know the effect of Rejuvenating pill first, he will not come in person.”

After saying that, Orion Exeor looked at Charlie and praised, “But then Master Wade, the rule that the successful bidder you set must take the Rejuvenating pill on the spot is really amazing. It can not only let all those who participate in the auction witness the magical effect of Rejuvenating pill, but also make all those who want to get it show up in person! I believe that by the next auction of Rejuvenating pill, many capital giants hidden will take the initiative to appear!”

At this point, Orion Exeor looked at Charlie and said seriously, “ Maybe your grandfather will appear on the registration list at next year’s auction!”

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3863-3864

Chapter 3863

In fact, Charlie has been looking forward to seeing his grandfather at the auction of Rejuvenating pill.

However, he didn’t know why he had such thoughts.

Because he didn’t actually think about recognizing his grandfather’s family.

When talking about Charlie’s grandfather, Orion Exeor seemed to be suddenly interested, and said with a smile, “To tell you the truth, Master Wade, I really look forward to your grandfather coming to participate in the Rejuvenating pill auction.”

Charlie asked curiously, “Why did Mr. Exeor say so?”

Orion Exeor smiled and said, “Your grandfather has been in the United States for too long, and the westernization is very serious. He only believes in so-called science in everything and regards all traditions as dross.”

Charlie nodded and said, “That’s understandable. I heard from my mother that my grandfather was definitely a top student back then, a top student who graduated from Stanford.”

Orion Exeor nodded and smiled, “Yes, he grew up with a pure Western education. He has a rebellious personality since he was a child. He will analyze everything with a dialectical perspective. If he denies in advance, he will slowly verify it. Therefore, his life is as if he is fighting against the whole world, although he is not interested in Chinese traditional culture, but he has to admit that he is indeed a very remarkable businessman.”

Speaking of this, Orion Exeor said playfully, “But...the older a person is, the less hostile and resentful he will be in his bones. Once he shakes hands with the world and makes peace with the world, the way he used to look at the world will change. As if many physicists have spent their whole lives trying to prove that there is no God or Creator in this world, and there are only eternal laws of physics.”

“However, when they were old and saw everything, they firmly believed that behind everything in the world, there must be a Creator, but he may not appear in the form of a human, because the profound laws of physics and the laws of the universe are seen too thoroughly, and the more thoroughly one sees, the more ingenious the laws of all things in the universe are, and it cannot be just an accident.”

Orion Exeor said, looked at Charlie, and said seriously, “If I remember correctly, your grandfather is over 80 this year, I believe he has begun to re-understand the world, maybe he will be like the other two hundred people. In the same way, fascinated by rejuvenation.”

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "If he asks you about Rejuvenating pill someday, please don't tell him about my situation."

Orion Exeor hurriedly said, "That's natural!"

After speaking, he couldn't help but ask, "Master Wade, have you ever thought about meeting your grandfather?"

Charlie shook his head, "There is no such plan for the time being."

After speaking, Charlie added, "Actually, I only had very little interaction with my grandfather's family, and in my impression, the relationship between my grandfather and my mother has always been a little tense, so in my memory, my grandfather rarely has a good face. In addition, we haven't seen each other for so many years, and I don't have much emotional foundation with them."

Orion Exeor nodded in understanding, and sighed, "With your grandfather's character, your mother must have made him very angry when she insisted on marrying your father, but he must be in his 80s this year. A lot of things should have new insights, maybe his biggest wish now is to see you once."

Charlie laughed at himself and said, "They may have long thought I was dead."

"Impossible." Orion Exeor said earnestly, "A person with a status like your grandfather has extremely high requirements for the authenticity of information. Even compared with the police, it is even worse. Think about it, if there is not enough evidence to prove that a person is really dead, the police will only define him as missing, and I believe your grandfather must be the same."

Charlie nodded expressionlessly and said, "Then let them continue to think that I am missing."

Orion Exeor hesitated for a moment before looking at Charlie and said earnestly, “Master Wade, there are words that I don’t know if I should say or not.”

Charlie hurriedly said, “Mr. Exeor, you don’t have to be so polite, it’s okay to say anything if you have something to say.”

Chapter 3864

Orion Exeor opened his mouth and said, “Although you have broken out of the predicament of the Dragon trapped in the shoal, it is still not the end to get back what originally belonged to you! It is recorded in the Southern Dynasties that the dragon is not the real supreme destiny. On top of this, there is also a horned dragon.”

In Charlie’s mind, the content of the “Apocalyptic Book” instantly came to his mind, and there were indeed records of a dragon, as well as horned dragon.

Horned dragons are actually higher levels of dragons.

Orion Exeor continued at this time, “Master Wade, I say this to tell you that you still have a long way to go in your future. If you want to stand on the top of the world, the last few steps are especially important. Settling down is the best choice for you in the last few steps to the top! So, you might as well meet your grandfather soon, maybe it will open up a new opportunity.”

“Opportunity?” Charlie couldn’t help frowning, and then laughed at himself, “Forget it, if I want to climb to the top, I should be able to get there by myself.”

For Charlie, he has never thought of relying help from his grandfather’s family in the future.

In his opinion, accepting the Wade family, on the one hand, the Wade family really owes a lot to him and his parents, and on the other hand, the Wade family is indeed where his father worked all his life, not to mention that his surname is Wade, and he is a descendant of the Wade family. Whether he is affectionate, rational, kind or resentful, he has to take the power of the Wade family into his own hands.

However, on his mother's side, Charlie had no such thoughts.

After all, Charlie felt that his grandfather owed nothing to his parents.

Moreover, their surname is Evans, and his surname is Wade, so for him, they are outsiders. How can he take his grandfather's family as a step to climb up?

What's more, the Evans family, as one of the top three families in the world, must have a very complicated internal structure, and he may not be able to understand what the Evans family's use for him.

However, Orion Exeor said very seriously at the moment, "Master Wade, even the Monkey King, who has changed in ways, relied on his golden staff to become the Great Sage of Heaven. There are all kinds of weapons in the world, but the golden staff made him what he is!"

Charlie said seriously, "Maybe I'm not a Monkey King at all, so this golden staff may not be of any use to me."

Orion Exeor shook his head and said, "Master Wade, many things are already predestined. The earlier you know the direction, the earlier you can achieve your goals."

Charlie smiled and said, "Mr. Exeor, although I also understand some gossip, I don't believe that all this is destined. I want to achieve this goal, and I can still achieve it without their help."

Having said that, Charlie said again, “It’s like the Monkey King, I believe that even if he doesn’t have the golden staff, he can still become the Monkey King.”

Orion Exeor shook his head with a smile, and said lightly, “Master Wade, fate exists in all directions, in other words, the Monkey King is not only destined to become the Monkey King, but he is also destined to use the golden staff at the same time.”

After speaking, Orion Exeor smiled inscrutable, “Master Wade, it was recorded that the Dragon King told the Monkey King that a few days before he went to the Dragon Palace, the golden staff began to get ‘auspicious’, which means that it may not be the Monkey King who chose the golden staff, it is likely that the golden staff chose the Monkey King!”

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3865-3868

Chapter 3865
Orion Exeor’s remarks made Charlie ponder.

What he think about is not whether to use the power of his grandfather’s family to achieve his own achievements in the future, but the further up the world goes, the narrower the road will be. If he wants the Wade family to stand on the top of the world, then in the future, it is bound to meet Evans family by a narrow road.

He couldn’t help thinking that if one day in the future, if he really met Evans family on a narrow road, then Evans family would be an enemy or a friend.

After all, the Evans family is now one of the three top families in the world. If Charlie wants to fulfill his father’s last wish, he must make the Wade family stand higher than these three families.

If the three major families do not want to see a rising star above them, it might even trigger a life-and-death battle between the new king and the old ones.

Orion Exeor saw that Charlie was suddenly silent, and roughly guessed what Charlie was thinking, so he said seriously, "Master Wade, among the three top families, Rothschild is the top of them in this world. The scale of the century-old foundation has already surpassed that of most countries in the world, and it is so powerful that no one can see the whole picture. Behind the Saudi royal family in the Middle East is the support of the entire country, regardless of financial resources, material resources and military strength. In comparison, the Evans family is the weakest among the three major families."

Speaking of this, Orion Exeor sighed, "Although the Evans family is the most powerful Chinese family in the world, it is the weakest one in the situation. Over the years, the other two families have also the intention to suppress Evans family and squeeze it out of the three major families, so according to my speculation, Evans family will not have a good life in the future, and joining forces with Evans family will be of great benefit to both you and the Evans family."

Charlie smiled noncommittally and said, "Thank you, Mr. Exeor, for your reminder. One day in the future, I will definitely meet the Evans family face to face. Let's wait until the moment we actually come."

Orion Exeor knew that Charlie had his own ideas, so he nodded lightly and said, "If Master Wade wants to meet with the Evans family at any time, I can help you find a way."

"Okay!" Charlie thanked, "Then thank you Mr. Exeor!"

Orion Exeor waved his hand, then changed the subject and said to Charlie, "By the way, Master Wade, I have an unkind request, I hope you can help me."

Charlie said without hesitation, “Mr. Exeor, please speak.”

Orion Exeor hesitated for a moment and sighed, “This old man has a good friend named Ferdie Joules, and he is one of the two hundred participants in this auction.”

Charlie smiled slightly, nodded and said, “I know this person and have seen his information.”

In fact, Charlie not only knew Ferdie Joules, but also his granddaughter Michaela Joules.

However, Charlie did not mention that he knew Michaela Joules in front of Orion Exeor.

Orion Exeor sighed lightly at this time, and said seriously, “On the way here, I gave Ferdie Joules a hexagram. The hexagram shows that he has come to Aurous Hill this time, and his future is a bit dangerous...”

Speaking of this, Orion Exeor said with some self-reproach, “He was influenced by the subordinate and decided to come to Aurous Hill to participate in the auction. If he encounters any danger because of this, the subordinate will not be able to excuse himself, so I also asks Master Wade to help him. Pay some attention to him, and in case of a sudden incident, I also ask Master Wade to lend a helping hand.”

Charlie couldn't help frowning, and asked, “Mr. Exeor, do you have any more detailed clues? For example, what is the danger you just mentioned? Do I need to be careful about accidents, or do I need to pay attention to the murder of evil people?”

Orion Exeor laughed at himself and said, “The hexagrams can only tell good and bad things, but no more detailed content. My hexagrams are only whether good and bad. I can't say what the result is.”

Immediately, Orion Exeor said again, “But he won’t stay in Aurous Hill for too long. After participating in the auction, no matter whether he succeeds or fails, he may have to return to the United States immediately, so I have to trouble Master Wade these few days.”

Charlie nodded and said, “Since there is a bad omen in the hexagram, I estimate that he may not be able to get Rejuvenating pill.”

Chapter 3866

When Orion Exeor heard this, he was stunned for a moment, and then he laughed dumbly and said, “You are right, if anyone can get the magic medicine, it must be a good fortune in the hexagram. The second is that he will missed the chance to get the Rejuvenating pill...”

Speaking of which, Orion Exeor said with some sigh, “He is getting old, and he may be the oldest of the two hundred people who participated in the Rejuvenating pill auction this time. He may not have many days left.”

Hearing this, Charlie admired Michaela Joules a little more.

This woman does have a set. At least she has already made a decision under her favoritism. If her grandfather can’t take the Rejuvenating pill, he will give him half of life-saving pill, so that he can live longer for at least two years.

Combined with Orion Exeor’s remarks, it can be basically confirmed that even if Ferdie Joules was in Aurous Hill this time, if something unexpected happened to his body, he had half of his own life-saving pill to save his life.

Charlie knew that he was going to engage in a human offensive, and knew that the addition of his human offensive was far from worth half a blood-saving pill.

But Charlie always felt that if he didn't repay this favor and owed Michaela Joules all the time, he would definitely feel awkward.

This is the genius of Michaela Joules.

At this time, he suddenly felt that since this was the case, then he would play a conspiracy with Michaela Joules without guarding, which was considered a tit-for-tat.

So, he smiled slightly and said to Orion Exeor, "Don't worry, Mr. Exeor, I will pay more attention."

Orion Exeor cupped his hands at Charlie, and said respectfully, "Thank you, Master Wade."

.....

After a few chats with Orion Exeor and a few cups of tea, Charlie said goodbye and left.

After leaving Orion Exeor's room, he took out his mobile phone and called Michaela Joules.

Michaela Joules was taking a bath in the bathtub of the presidential suite at this time, and suddenly received a call from Charlie, the whole person was startled at first, then sat up quickly, adjusted her breathing, then answered the phone, and said with a smile, "Mr. Wade, why do you remember to call me at this time?"

Charlie smiled and asked her, "Is Miss Lavigne busy?"

Michaela Joules smiled and said, "No, I'm not busy, what does Mr. Wade have?"

Charlie then said, “That’s right. I know that Miss Lavigne must have helped a lot behind Claire for going to the United States to study for a master class. I owe you such a big favor, and I am indeed a little ashamed.”

Michaela Joules’ face was filled with joy, but she said in a very calm tone, “Mr. Wade, please don’t be so polite. We are all friends. It’s such a trivial matter.”

Charlie smiled and said, “Miss Lavigne, there is a very private auction at Shangri-La Hotel the day after tomorrow, and I happen to have a VIP invitation letter in my hand. If you are interested, you can come and have a look.”

Hearing this, Michaela Joules was speechless in shock.

She thought that Charlie would never reveal his identity in front of her, let alone mention any information related to the Rejuvenating pill.

She even thought that if her Grandpa failed to get anything at this auction, she would have to be cheeky and take the initiative to beg Charlie, and then she would have to go and speak out.

However, she never dreamed that Charlie would take the initiative to invite herself to participate in the Rejuvenating pill auction!

And, it’s a VIP!

This time, she was caught off guard...

Chapter 3867

At this moment, Michaela Joules felt that all her plans and rhythms were instantly disrupted by Charlie’s sudden invitation.

She didn’t even know what Charlie’s purpose was.

Is it really just that he just want to invite herself to participate in this auction, or he have already noticed her motives, so she deliberately count it.

Therefore, she didn't know how to react for a while.

Just when she was at a loss, Charlie asked, "Miss Lavigne, are you not interested in this kind of auction? Actually, you don't have to worry too much. I'm not helping the auction to take care of customers, I just think this auction might be more interesting, so I would like to invite you as a guest from afar, to come and enjoy it, so as to pass the boring time."

With that said, Charlie laughed and said, "After all, I'm also married, if I invite you to a movie, it's somewhat inappropriate, but it doesn't matter if Miss Lavigne is not interested, please don't have psychological burden."

Charlie's words eased Michaela Joules' nervousness a lot, and said quickly, "No, no, I'm still quite interested in this kind of occasion."

As she said that, in order not to let herself show that she knew something about this auction, she pretended to be curious and asked, "Mr. Wade, what is this auction you are talking about?"

Charlie knew that Michaela Joules was acting, so he laughed casually, "Most of them are some antique calligraphy and paintings, in addition to this, there is a very niche medicine with a very miraculous effect, I don't know if Miss Lavigne would like it or not. Would you like to see?"

Michaela Joules was very conflicted in her heart, because her grandfather had brought Flint Yeager to stay in Shangri-La Hotel, so she was mentally prepared that she would not be able to enter this auction.

However, now that suddenly there is a VIP seat, she naturally wants to go in and see.

However, she was worried that if she went, she would be bumped into by some acquaintances.

If nothing else, Orion Exeor knew her, and if she met Orion Exeor in front of Charlie, she would not know how to smooth things out.

Thinking of this, she realized that she still had to focus on the overall situation, and she must not reveal her true identity in front of Charlie before the auction started.

So she said to Charlie, “Mr. Wade, I’m quite interested in auctions, but I’m somewhat uncomfortable with public appearances...”

Charlie smiled and said, “Miss Lavigne doesn’t have to worry about this. As a VIP, you can choose to sit in the VIP seat in the first row, or you can choose to sit in the VIP box on the second floor. If you like to be low-key, you can sit in the VIP box.”

Michaela Joules relaxed a little, in this case, the only thing she needs to worry about is Orion Exeor.

So, she asked curiously, “Mr. Wade, how many VIPs are there in this auction you mentioned? Will other VIPs also sit in the VIP box when the time comes?”

Charlie knew what she was worried about, and immediately said, “Miss Lavigne, don’t worry, there are only four VIPs in total this time, and you are the fourth one. Except for you, all other VIPs will be sitting in the first row. If you choose VIP in the box, there won’t be any interaction with them.”

Michaela Joules breathed a sigh of relief, in this case, she basically had nothing to worry about.

So, she smiled and said, “That’s great, I just don’t like to show up in public, but I really want to have the opportunity to see the world everywhere! This arrangement couldn’t be better!”

Chapter 3868

With that said, Michaela Joules asked deliberately, “By the way, Mr. Wade, did you hold this auction?”

“No.” Charlie said casually, “How can I hold any auction? I just knew the organizers and promised to help them a little, so I just got a VIP ticket from them.”

After speaking, Charlie said again, “Miss Lavigne, the auction will officially start at 8 o’clock the day after tomorrow. You will arrive at the gate of Shangri-La Hotel at 7 o’clock in the evening the day after tomorrow. I will pick you up to enter the venue.”

“Okay!” Michaela Joules hurriedly agreed and said with a smile, “Then see you the day after tomorrow, Mr. Wade!”

Charlie said, “Okay, see you the day after tomorrow.”

After speaking, Charlie said again, “By the way, Miss Lavigne, please don’t tell anyone about this matter, especially Claire.”

Michaela Joules was not surprised when he heard this.

Because she has long known that Charlie is an extremely low-key person, especially from his family, he has been hiding very deeply, and Claire doesn’t even know much about him.

So, she readily agreed and said, “Don’t worry, Mr. Wade, I won’t tell anyone else.”

“That’s good.” Charlie said with a smile, “Miss Lavigne, see you the day after tomorrow, I won’t bother you any more, goodbye.”

“Okay, Mr. Wade, goodbye.”

After hanging up the phone, Michaela Joules was very excited. Holding the phone, she shouted excitedly several times. The shouting even alarmed Shan Elliott, who was separated by a wall.

Shan Elliott swiped the room door with the key card and hurriedly ran into the bathroom. Seeing Michaela Joules standing naked in the bathtub and dancing excitedly, she was stunned and asked in confusion, “Miss, what’s wrong with you?”

Michaela Joules said with a smile, “Shan, Charlie called me just now!”

“What’s so exciting about making a phone call...” Shan Elliott asked embarrassedly, “Miss, don’t you like that Charlie...”

Michaela Joules hurriedly said, “Don’t talk nonsense! I’m not excited because he called me, but because he called and invited me to the auction of Rejuvenating pill! And I participated as a VIP!”

“Ah?!” Shan Elliott asked in horror, “He... Charlie didn’t hide his identity all the time? Why did he invite you to the auction so readily?!”

Michaela Joules smiled and said, “He didn’t reveal his identity. He just said that he happened to have a VIP invitation letter in his hand. He didn’t say that he organized the auction, and he didn’t say that the Rejuvenating pill also belonged to him.”

Shan Elliott nodded lightly and asked, “Miss, why did Charlie invite you to the auction?”

Michaela Joules thought for a while and said, “He may just want to pay back Claire’s favor! I helped Claire get the master class quota and gave her a good opportunity to get in touch with the world’s top interior designers and become a well-known designer. Charlie must be trying to reciprocate.”

Shan Elliott didn’t doubt it, but said with some worry, “Miss, do you think he wants to use this VIP invitation letter to pay off all your feelings during this time at once, if that’s the case, you go to this event. Wouldn’t it be a big loss for an auction?”

“Probably not.” Michaela Joules shook her head and said, “In Charlie’s tone, he invited me to participate in the auction, which is similar in nature to inviting me to watch a movie, and he would definitely not use this to pay off a debt of gratitude. “

Shan Elliott felt a little relieved, and said, “It’s easy to say in this case... Not only can you go to witness this auction with your own eyes, but you can also find a good step for yourself, in case the master fails to get the Rejuvenating pill. You can tell him directly after the auction that you want to buy one after seeing the magical effect of it, and see if it is possible for him to sell one to you privately!”

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3869-3872

Chapter 3869

Michaela Joules also reported the good news to Ferdie Joules who was still at Shangri-La Hotel through video chat.

Ferdie Joules was so angry because of the strict rules and regulations of Shangri-La Hotel, after hearing the news, he suddenly became enlightened and said excitedly, “That’s great, Michaela! It seems that your hard work in Aurous Hill during this period of time hasn’t really in vain! That Master Wade must be the mastermind behind the entire auction!”

Michaela Joules nodded, looked at Ferdie Joules in the video, smiled and comforted, "Grandpa, once the auction is over, no matter what the result is, I will receive you immediately. Come to the hotel where I am staying, I have already prepared the room for you."

"Okay!" Ferdie Joules said with relief, "It's still that you are the most careful and safest in your work!"

Michaela Joules added, "Grandpa, on the day of the auction, I will stay in the VIP box, and I won't meet you at that time. If there is any situation, I will talk about it after the auction is over."

"Okay!" Ferdie Joules smiled and said, "I hope I can win!"

Michaela Joules said without hesitation, "Don't worry, Grandpa, you will definitely get it!"

Ferdie Joules, who was at Shangri-La Hotel, hung up the phone with a gratified smile on his face, and said to Flint Yeager who was beside him, "Master Yeager, Michaela is indeed a talent! So many people want to find the mastermind behind the Rejuvenating pill, yet she is the only one who succeed, I am really impressed."

Flint Yeager nodded, cupped his hands and said, "Miss Joules is very talented and has extraordinary courage, and she will become a great weapon in the future!"

Ferdie Joules nodded slightly, and then said with some emotion, "If Michaela was only a man, it is definitely a great blessing for the Joules family. It's a pity... it's a pity!"

Flint Yeager wanted to say something, but he hesitated for a moment and gave up. Although he also felt that Michaela Joules was the most potential junior of the Joules family, he felt that it was not suitable for him to speak in front of Ferdie Joules.

After all, he knew that he was only Ferdie Joules' personal bodyguard, and all his responsibilities were to protect Ferdie Joules' safety, and it was not suitable for him to comment on the affairs of the Joules family.

Moreover, the interior of the Joules family seemed to be calm, but in reality, the undercurrent was already turbulent, and Flint Yeager would not be returning to the division soon, so he didn't want to go into this muddy water.

Ferdie Joules saw Flint Yeager hesitating to speak, and immediately understood Flint Yeager's attitude, and felt a little disappointment in his heart for a while.

He hoped that Flint Yeager could become his confidant, but although Flint Yeager was loyal to him, he never wanted to be too close to him, which made him feel a little lonely.

Chapter 3870

When he's old and have a lot of family, he doesn't even have anyone around him who can talk to his heart. It's hard to have a credible person with a good temper. It's even rarer that he has nothing to do with other people in the family, but the other party is unwilling to interfere in it, even if he doesn't even have the idea of discussing it with himself, Ferdie Joules will inevitably feel a little lonely.

But he didn't blame Flint Yeager either.

Because Flint Yeager himself is such a person, and his sense of boundaries has always been very clear in his consciousness. Only such a person can always remain absolutely calm, and only such a person can avoid the master from making mistakes to the greatest extent.

So, he sighed and said softly, "I want to live a few more years, on the one hand, I am afraid of death, on the other hand, I hope to be with Michaela for a few more years. It would be best if I could help her on the horse, at least let her have more wings, because if I leave, she will definitely become the target of the Joules family, and if she is not kicked out of the Joules family, many people will have trouble sleeping and eating.”

Flint Yeager said indifferently, “Lord Joules doesn’t have to be so sentimental, if this trip to Aurous Hill can get what you want, your lifespan will last at least ten years.”

“Yes.” Ferdie Joules nodded and said, “If it can give me another ten years, many things will be settled.”

.....

In Aurous Hill two days later, everything was the same as usual.

Due to Charlie’s strong arrangement, the arrival of the more than 200 top rich people did not make the ordinary citizens of Aurous Hill feel any changes in the city, except that the airport parking spaces in several surrounding cities were full.

If it wasn’t for Charlie’s strong requirement that these people must abide by all regulations, I’m afraid that this group of people would have made the traffic in Aurous Hill miserable just by bringing their own motorcade and bodyguards.

Today, the Rejuvenating pill auction will officially start.

These top rich people who came to participate in the auction are also a little impatient.

They spent two days under house arrest at Shangri-La Hotel, holding back their anger, just to wait for the auction to officially kick off.

At 12:00 noon, the staff has already started to issue written notices to all participants.

The notice informed them that the hotel staff will deliver meals to the rooms of all participants at 6 o'clock in the afternoon. Everyone must finish the meal within half an hour, and then change into the uniform provided by the hotel together with their escorts. Go to the entrance of the banquet hall of the hotel in an orderly manner, and queue up for security check to enter the venue.

In addition, everyone is not allowed to carry any communication devices, video recording devices, and any unnecessary metal products. If there are dentures, heart stents, cochlear implants and artificial pacemakers in the body, they must clearly inform the security personnel. They will be arranged to go through a special security channel.

Any participant who enters the venue with contraband will be immediately confiscated and expelled from Shangri-La Hotel upon discovery. In addition, they will be banned from participating in subsequent Rejuvenating pill auctions for life.

Such stringent security checks have far exceeded the requirements of civil aviation security checks.

But none of these rich people dared to challenge the coercion of the organizers.

Because they knew very well in their hearts, if a thing like Rejuvenating pill was bought at an auction, it had to be consumed on the spot. This one item completely eliminated the possibility of Rejuvenating pill being circulated outside the market.

Therefore, no matter how rich you are, if you want to get the Rejuvenating pill, you must participate in the auction on the spot.

Once he is banned from participating in the auction, it means that he will miss the Rejuvenation pill for the rest of his life.

Therefore, every rich man, male or female, left all their mobile phones and jewelry in the room before leaving the room.

Some women who participated in the auction even took off the silver needles that kept their ears pierced, for fear of causing trouble for themselves when they passed the metal detector door.

Ferdie Joules was the same, with nothing in his hands.

It's just that he still has a pacemaker in his body, so when he arrived at the entrance of the banquet hall, he had to go through a special security inspection channel. It is said that an ultrasound doctor will check the pacemaker on the spot. After confirming that there are no other problems, he will be released smoothly.

It's half past six.

The hotel sounded a radio reminder, "All participants in the auction, please wear uniform clothes, leave the room in an orderly manner, and go to the banquet hall. You should avoid stopping, laughing, making noise, and avoiding chatting."

Ferdie Joules in the room heard the broadcast, and his previous indignation and hostility had disappeared. Instead, he looked at Flint Yeager, who was sitting opposite, and said with a smile, "Master Yeager, you and I have waited for two days as if we were in prison, and finally this moment has come!"

Flint Yeager, who was on the opposite side, had already changed into uniform clothes without a code. He looked at Ferdie Joules, nodded and smiled, and said indifferently, "Lord Joules, I wishes you luck to get what you want tonight!"

Chapter 3871

When Ferdie Joules heard the words, he smiled confidently, and said with his hands up, "I'll borrow Master Yeager's auspicious words tonight!"

After all, he stood up with the sofa, Flint Yeager who was beside him hurriedly stepped forward to help him, and the two left the hotel room together.

Walking out of the room, people came out of the surrounding rooms one after another.

Among these people, the East and the West are mixed, and everyone is wearing the same clothes, it is really difficult to distinguish the appearance.

Ferdie Joules thought he would meet a few acquaintances, but he didn't expect that the floor where he lived was almost filled with unfamiliar faces.

Everyone came to the elevator hall one after another, and saw two security guards standing at the entrance of the elevator hall. The two of them spoke directly with expressionless faces, "The elevator is out of service, everyone please take the stairs."

There are eight passenger elevators in the hotel, but everyone is required to take the stairs to go downstairs, which makes everyone a little dissatisfied.

Some people wanted to protest, but as soon as they opened their mouths, they were scolded by the security guards, "Everyone please obey the discipline! Protesters will be recorded as a major demerit, we will remember your number, and a major demerit will be recorded at the auction. If any item is successfully auctioned, an additional 20% fine will be charged on the basis of the transaction price, and he will be recorded twice as a major demerit, which will directly deprive him of his right to participate in this conference."

When everyone heard this, they immediately shut their mouths.

Although these people are usually high-ranking top rich people, and have extraordinary status and power in the world, but when they come here, they are no different from prisoners.

In other words, Charlie called them here to let them learn how to be like a child.

Here, they are the most despicable, and even a security guard can yell at them.

Although there are eight elevators here, they can't use them.

Because this allows them all to maintain a path and walk to the banquet hall in a uniform manner.

In this way, these rich people can experience the feeling of being in jail.

At this moment, at the entrance of the banquet hall, like the airport security check, four security check channels have been set up.

Each security inspection channel is equipped with a metal detection door and multiple security personnel.

There is a special security check channel, as well as multiple doctors and multiple medical monitoring devices.

In addition, there were several security personnel in camouflage uniforms, a tall man with his hands behind his back, meticulously standing on both sides of the security entrance, full of pressure.

When these rich people saw this situation, they all felt an extremely strong sense of oppression.

It's just that they couldn't figure out where the source of this sense of oppression came from. They didn't know whether it came from these all-in-one security inspection equipment, or these majestic security personnel, or the comprehensive senses brought by the overall atmosphere.

But as soon as Flint Yeager arrived here, he immediately realized the main source of this sense of oppression.

Because he discovered a secret that shocked him: all the security personnel here, without exception, are all martial arts masters!

There are forty or fifty martial arts masters here, and the worst ones are also three-star warriors, and the highest ones even have several five-star warriors!

Although Flint Yeager himself was already a seven-star warrior, he knew very well that warriors with more than three stars were actually very rare.

There are thousands of his disciples, and there are not even ten who can really reach the three-star warrior.

And the real five-star martial artist, including himself, and the missing Louis Rogers, there are only a few people in total.

But there are only some security personnel here, and their overall strength has already surpassed his own division, which really shocked Flint Yeager.

Chapter 3872

Ferdie Joules saw that his figure was a little dull, and when he turned his face to see that his expression was a little dull, he lowered his voice and asked, "Master Yeager, what's wrong with you?"

Flint Yeager came back to his senses and said in a low voice, “Lord Joules, the security personnel here, without exception, are all martial arts masters...”

“What?” Ferdie Joules exclaimed, “There are at least dozens of security personnel here, all of them are martial arts masters?!”

“Yes!” Flint Yeager nodded and said firmly, “And the worst is also a three-star warrior!”

Ferdie Joules was stunned and couldn't help muttering, “Little Aurous Hill, how can there be so many martial arts masters. Doesn't it mean that there are many martial arts masters in China?!”

Flint Yeager said in a low voice, “I don't know either... From this point of view, the boss behind this auction must be a man with hands and eyes!”

At this time, an angry shout came, “035! What are you whispering to the people around you?! This time, I will warn you verbally, and you will not talk to each other again!”

Ferdie Joules knew that 035 was his internal code. Hearing this, he shivered with fright and quickly shut his mouth.

Although he is very rich, he does not dare to be recorded a major demerit at such a time.

Because once a major demerit is recorded, in the event of a rejuvenation pill at the auction later, an additional 20% penalty will be paid.

Maybe you will spend tens of billions of extra dollars, and it's still US dollars!

Originally, there were still some people in the crowd whispering to each other, but after such a roar, the others were all silent and did not dare to make any more sound.

According to the process arrangement, the two hundred rich people who participated in the auction and their entourage started the security check first.

The other ten alternates are in the back.

As for the VIPs, they were arranged to pass the security check after everyone entered the venue.

Therefore, Lord Wade, Orion Exeor, and the old Nordic queen are all waiting for further notice in their respective rooms in the administrative building.

Charlie specially went to see his grandfather Lord Wade. The old man was a little excited at this time and was looking forward to the upcoming auction.

On the one hand, he also wanted to see if he had a chance to compete for the Rejuvenating pill. On the other hand, he knew that all the people who came today were very rich, and that he was able to attend as a VIP this time. It was tightly held.

Lord Wade, who was in a good mood, was even more happy when he saw Charlie coming to the door. He quickly let Charlie into the room and said with a smile, "Charlie, you are so busy, why are you still free to come and see me."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Grandpa, I have something to say to you in advance."

Lord Wade smiled and said, “Charlie, you are the head of the Wade family now, and everyone in the Wade family is following you. If you have anything to do, just say it, just call and tell me.”

Charlie smiled slightly and said, “How can you do that, after all, you are an elder.”

After speaking, Charlie said sternly, “Grandpa, what I want to tell you is that in today’s auction, after you arrive at the scene, you should not participate in the auction of Rejuvenating pill, after all, it is to earn money from outsiders, and we are our own people. There is no need to fiddle with it, since you want a rejuvenation pill, I will arrange half of it for you first, and if you need it later, I will also think of a way for you.”

When Lord Wade heard this, he was immediately excited.

Earlier, he wanted to use the position of the head of the Wade family to exchange for the Rejuvenating pill with Charlie.

But he didn’t expect that in the battle of Wade Mountain, Charlie brought him a glass of wine directly to release the military power, and he took the position of the head of the family in three or two sentences, that he was embarrassed to ask Charlie for a Rejuvenation pill.

He originally thought that Charlie would definitely not give himself a rejuvenation pill for nothing, but in a blink of an eye, Charlie actually gave him a big surprise!

Although it is only half of the Rejuvenating pill, for Lord Wade, he already very satisfied!

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3873-3874

Chapter 3873

At this moment, Lord Wade was extremely excited and his voice was a bit inconsistent, “Char... Charlie... you... do you really want to give grandpa half of Rejuvenating pill?”

Charlie smiled softly, nodded and said, “Can I still joke with you about this kind of thing? Don’t worry, this half of the Rejuvenating pill will be organized for you tonight at the auction site. When that time comes, Miss Moore will publicly thank you for your support of the auction, and then I will give you half of rejuvenating pill in the act, and all you have to do is take the half of the Rejuvenation pill in front of everyone.”

Lord Wade never thought that in tonight’s auction, he would get what he wanted, and he couldn’t help but burst with joy, and the whole person was so excited that he shivered and said with great excitement, “Charlie, don’t worry, I’ll follow your orders!”

Charlie nodded and said to Lord Wade, “So, Grandpa, take a rest. When it’s time for VIP entry, a staff member will come to inform you.”

Lord Wade hastily said, “It’s okay Charlie, you must have a lot of important things right now, you can go as far as you can, don’t worry about me!”

“It’s okay,” Charlie said, “Then I’ll go first.”

Lord Wade said without hesitation, “I will send you!”

Charlie walked out of Lord Wade’s door, turned around and said, “Grandpa, please have a rest first and wait for the staff to come.”

“Okay.”

In fact, Charlie and Lord Wade did not have a deep relationship, and even once felt that his parents were inseparable from him when they left Eastcliff.

However, Charlie is not an ungrateful person, after all, it was the old man who invited Orion Exeor to go to Eastcliff to build Wade Mountain, which could break the situation of Charlie trapped in the downhill.

Besides, it was the old man who asked Stephen Thompson to give him 10 billion and Emgrand Group back then. This is a kindness, and Charlie, of course, won't forget.

Also, when he was on Wade Mountain, he took the position of the old man as the head of the family. The old man voluntarily gave up and never showed any dissatisfaction. This incident also gave Charlie a small impression of the old man.

Charlie is also very aware of the old man's desire for the Rejuvenating pill, so this time he promised him half of Rejuvenating pill, which was also a gift for him.

After leaving his grandpa's room, Charlie went to the central control room. Dozens of high-definition surveillance cameras were installed at the auction site to monitor the entire auction site with no-out alleyways.

And Charlie won't run at tonight's auction, plans to work with Isaac Cameron to remotely control the entire auction from the central control room.

In the central control room right now, besides Isaac Cameron himself, Calum, one of the four kings of Dragon Hall, also remotely commanded all his subordinates here.

Seeing Charlie enter, they both stood up respectfully.

Isaac Cameron respectfully said, "Young master, you're here."

Calum wanted to greet Charlie, but when he remembered the process when his conscience was sealed in his body, he unconsciously was a little scared, so he could only lean lightly towards Charlie like a quail, and said very much nervous, "Hello Mr. Wade!"

Charlie nodded and asked, "How's the situation?"

Isaac Cameron pointed out the one who was in the middle of the nine big screens in the front and told Charlie, "Master, the two hundred people who participated in the auction and the people who were on the list basically entered to the place one after another through the safety inspections. VIPs will be invited to enter now."

Charlie lightly nodded and asked, "Did you find any problems during the security check?"

"No," Isaac Cameron said with a smile, "These people are very obedient." They have almost nothing on their bodies except clothes. If they have a fart, they can't wait to let it go to pass security check. At present, all the people who have passed the security check have passed without any problem."

Chapter 3874

"That's good," Charlie nodded with satisfaction and then asked Calum, "Is there anything unusual on the scene today?"

Calum shook his head quickly and said seriously, "Mr. Wade, I have made arrangements for my men to install many hidden cameras, thermal imaging systems and life monitoring systems around the hotel using the most advanced equipment in the world. There are many Dragon Hall soldiers hiding in the dark, and no suspect will be able to enter Shangri-La Hotel."

"It's okay," Charlie said with a smile, "With the Dragon Hall Soldiers in charge, I am completely relieved by the security."

Calum respectfully said, "Mr. Wade, I will do everything possible to ensure the safety of the auction!"

Charlie sowed with approval, and at this moment, his cell phone rang suddenly.

The person who called was Michaela Joules.

After the call, Michaela Joules said, “Mr. Wade, I’m already at the gate of Shangri-La Hotel, but the security guards won’t let me get near, so I can only stand across the street.”

Charlie smiled and said, “Miss Lavigne, wait a minute, I’ll go down and get you right now.”

Michaela Joules politely said, “Then it’s hard work for Mr. Wade!”

After hanging up the phone, Charlie arrived at the gate of Shangri-La Hotel.

Effectively, across the street from the main entrance, he saw Michaela Joules in a black dress, dazzling and charming, standing on the side of the street.

Seeing Charlie, Michaela Joules trampled from across the street, and a soldier from Dragon Hall next to Charlie immediately said, “Ma’am, I already warned you, our hotel is currently closed to the public, please don’t come closer.”

At this moment, Charlie indifferently told him, “It’s nothing, Miss Lavigne is here to find me.”

That person was a five-star general from Dragon Hall and the head of the security team at the main entrance. He had seen the terrifying power of Charlie on Wade Mountain.

Hearing Charlie's words, he immediately bowed respectfully and said, "I'm sorry Mr. Wade. I didn't know that this lady is your friend, please don't blame your subordinate."

Charlie shook his hand and said with a smile, "You're just doing your job well, you're innocent and naturally you don't need to apologize to me."

The man quickly said, "Thank you, Mr. Wade, for your understanding!"

At this point, Michaela Joules couldn't help but be surprised, she didn't think that this man would actually call himself subordinate in front of Charlie, and he was a little more curious about Charlie's identity.

After a while, she stood in front of Charlie, smiled politely and said, "Sorry Mr. Wade to bother you to come and pick me up."

Charlie smiled softly and said, "It's just a small effort, Miss Lavigne doesn't need to be polite."

After all, Charlie made an invitation gesture and said to him, "Miss Lavigne, please enter!"

"It's okay!" Michaela Joules nodded and followed Charlie to the Shangri-La Hotel.

While walking, she pretended to be surprised and asked Charlie, "Mr. Wade, what kind of treasure is there in today's auction? I've never seen so many security personnel like this before!"

Charlie didn't hide it and casually said, "The final item in tonight's auction is a medicinal herb called Rejuvenating pill, which not only can cure all diseases, but it also makes people get younger by 20 years!"

Michaela Joules pretended to be very surprised and asked, "Is there really such a magical medicine in this world?"

Charlie smiled playfully and said, “It happens that there will be a special rule in tonight’s auction. Those who can get the Rejuvenating pill must consume it on the spot and people will be able to see the magic of this medicine with their own eyes.”

Michaela Joules has long understood the procedures and requirements of the Rejuvenating Pill auction.

However, in front of Charlie, she still pretended to be surprised and listened to his introduction.

Charlie deliberately pretended that she still believed that she was the Miss Lavigne from France just to play on the scene.

This is because Charlie didn’t intend to expose Michaela Joules’ identity. He planned to continue acting like this with Michaela Joules first, and then wait for Michaela Joules to take the initiative to clarify everything to himself.

So, the two people, each with their own thoughts, came to the security entrance of the banquet hall.

Charlie handed a VIP invitation letter to Michaela Joules, and said to her, “Miss Lavigne, you can just go in with the invitation letter yourself, just give the invitation letter to the staff, and the staff will naturally send you directly to the box on the second floor.”

Michaela Joules asked in surprise, “Mr. Wade, won’t you go in together?”

Charlie smiled and said, "I just have an invitation letter from a VIP, but my identity is not a VIP, but a consultant for this auction, so I will sit in the monitoring room later, so I won't go to the scene."

"So it is." Michaela Joules nodded lightly, although Charlie didn't go in with her, she was a little disappointed, but she thought about it, since Charlie is the boss behind this auction, then naturally it's impossible to go to the VIP room with her to watch it, he have to monitor everything in real time from somewhere where he can see the big picture.

So, she said to Charlie, "Mr. Wade, if that's the case, then I'll go first, and I'll contact you as soon as the auction ends."

Charlie nodded and said, "The security check at the auction is very strict, you have to hand over your mobile phone and all your belongings to the security guard, and before the auction starts, your personal belongings will be taken to other places for temporary storage, but don't worry, when the auction ends, the security guards will bring all personal belongings over."

"Okay!" Michaela Joules really didn't expect that the security here is so strict that it's just a matter of not taking your belongings in, and it has to be transported to other places.

But she also knew that she had no choice, so she could only nod to accept it.

Afterwards, Charlie said goodbye to Michaela Joules, asked her to go to the security check, and prepared to return to the monitoring room.

The location of the monitoring room is in the box behind the banquet hall.

After all, the venue of this auction was temporarily remodeled by the hotel's catering department. In addition to the largest banquet hall, there are several high-end banquet boxes. Isaac Cameron chose the box that was more than ten meters away from the banquet hall. It's close, but it won't be disturbed due to the sound insulation.

As for these boxes, in addition to a monitoring room, there is also a temporary lounge for Jasmine Moore.

Since Jasmine Moore will be the auctioneer for tonight's auction, she is waiting in this lounge.

When Charlie passed by the door of her lounge, the door just opened, and Jasmine Moore was about to come out, when she ran into Charlie head-on, her bright eyes were suddenly full of surprise, and she blurted out, "Master Wade!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Jasmine, how are you preparing?"

Chapter 3876

Jasmine Moore shook the card full of manuscripts in her hand, and said with some trepidation, "The preparatory work was almost done very early, but I was a little nervous."

As she said that, she smiled lightly and explained, "To be honest, I have never been an auctioneer before, and more importantly, the people who came to the auction this time are basically well-informed and wealthy. I'm worried that I'm not playing well enough to show them a joke."

Charlie smiled and comforted, "Actually, you don't have to be nervous at all. The group of people who came here tonight can do it for the dignity of the rejuvenation pill, so no matter how good or bad you are, no one will dare to see you laughing."

Jasmine Moore nodded lightly, and said shyly, "Actually... Actually, I'm mainly afraid that I will not perform well and disappoint you, Master Wade..."

Charlie said with a smile, “No, today is our seller’s market, as long as the Rejuvenation pills are put out, no matter how badly we do it, they will probably squeeze their heads and want to participate next year, so you can go boldly without any scruples!”

After Jasmine Moore heard what he said, her nervousness really eased a lot. She nodded slightly and said, “Okay, Master Wade, I got it!”

Charlie hummed, remembered something, and said, “By the way, Jasmine, I originally wanted to invite your grandfather to attend this auction as a VIP, but then I thought about it, not long after you took over the Moore Group, this kind of occasion should let you, the new head of the Moore family, come out and show yourself well, if you invite the old man over, it will seem a bit overwhelming, so I dismissed this idea, you must not blame me.”

Jasmine Moore had really thought about this issue.

She didn’t mean to blame Charlie, but just felt that according to Charlie’s style, he would usually take care of everything in this kind of matter, and he would generally take care of what should be taken care of, or even what he might not take care of.

But this time, for some unknown reason, he did not invite her grandfather to participate, nor did he invite several other entrepreneurs in Aurous Hill who had a good relationship with him.

For example, Graham Quinton and Zeke White were not invited either.

However, with Charlie’s explanation, she immediately understood Charlie’s good intentions.

Originally, Charlie helped her up as the head of the family. She was young and had a short time in the position. Naturally, she couldn’t compare to her grandfather in terms of connections, fame, and influence.

If Charlie invited her grandfather as a VIP today, it would widen the prestige gap between her and her grandfather.

This made her feel even more grateful to Charlie, and couldn't help but say, "Master Wade, thank you for always thinking about what's best for me..."

Charlie smiled lightly, and said seriously, "I'm not just thinking about you, but I have some other selfishness to some extent."

After speaking, Charlie continued, "For me, in addition to your consideration, I am also worried that I will invite too many acquaintances and I will be exposed."

"Especially Graham Quinton, Zeke White, Don Albert, and Lord Moore. If I invite them all to the VIP table, those who are interested only need to investigate the social relations of these people, and they will be able to locate me immediately."

"So, I didn't invite local friends this time, not only for you, but also to hide myself better."

There are four guests in total tonight.

In addition to Michaela Joules who used a fake identity, it was Lord Wade, Orion Exeor, and the old queen of Northern Europe.

As for Lord Wade, Charlie felt that it was okay. After all, he was only substantively taking the position of the head of the Wade family, but in the eyes of the outside world, the head of the Wade family was still Lord Wade.

This auction was co-organized by the Moore family and the Wade family. The Moore family's patriarch served as the auctioneer, and the Wade family's patriarch attended as a VIP, which was reasonable.

Moreover, Charlie felt that it is also a good opportunity to increase the influence of the Wade family by letting Lord Wade show his face more.

As for Orion Exeor and the old queen of Northern Europe, they are usually thousands of miles away, and they have very little interaction with themselves, so it is difficult for others to find themselves even if they cut through them.

Chapter 3877

At this moment, in the banquet hall.

The scene of more than 400 people not only showed no noise at all, but also made it silent.

There are 200 participants in the auction, 200 entourages, and 10 alternates ready to replace them.

Among them, many people saw their familiar figures, but because of the strict discipline requirements in the banquet hall, even if they saw their acquaintances, they could only use their eyes and nods to signal, while maintaining absolute silence.

Seeing the electronic clock hanging on the wall, it was 7:40, and everyone couldn't wait to get up one by one. There were still 20 minutes before the auction began. Twenty minutes later, a fierce battle between money will officially start!

Just then, the entrance of the venue opened, and a beautiful woman in a white satin cheongsam stepped into the venue.

Her appearance made the scene exclaim.

Even these well-informed top rich people rarely have the opportunity to see such amazing oriental beauties.

And this woman with unparalleled oriental temperament is Jasmine Moore, chairman of Moore Group.

Jasmine Moore, who was still a little nervous, suddenly became clear after Charlie enlightened.

She walked confidently into the banquet hall, crossed the red carpet between the left and right seats, and stepped onto the auction stand.

Everyone's eyes followed her figure and her to the auction stand.

Subsequently, Jasmine Moore stood in front of the auction stand, smiled dignifiedly at the microphone and said, "Welcome everyone in the first Rejuvenating Pill Auction. I'm Jasmine Moore, chairman of Moore Group."

Thunderous applause sounded in an instant.

These people have waited for too long and suppressed for too long. Now, they can finally make some noises justiously, naturally takeaway power.

After a long applause, Jasmine Moore nodded slightly to thank them and continued, "Tonight's auction is jointly organized by the Moore Group's Antique Collection and Shangri-La Hotel of Wade Group and I, as tonight's auctioneer, will also provide you with guidance and help related to the auction process."

Speaking of which, Jasmine Moore gave a slap slightly before continuing, "Before the auction officially starts tonight, please first welcome our three distinguished guests today with warm applause!"

These people who participated in the auction did not know the relevant arrangements of the organizer, so most people did not know that there were VIPs at tonight's auction.

At this time, Jasmine Moore only heard her mouth open and introduce, “The first distinguished guest is the Nordic queen who had just abdicated, Dear Ms. Victoria Iliad!”

Outside the entrance, the old queen was pacing nervously.

Standing beside her were Lord Wade, the head of the Wade family, and Orion Exeor, the Feng shui master.

Naturally, Lord Wade and Orion Exeor know each other. They didn’t meet until they arrived here. Originally, both sides had a lot to say, but it was because the old queen was by their side, they did not communicate much except for greeting each other.

Chapter 3878

At this time, when the old queen heard Jasmine Moore calling her name, she quickly stood up, gently stroked her chest, and took a deep breath several times before she summoned up her courage and stepped into the banquet hall.

Although the old queen has a high social status in Europe, for the rich in North America, the Middle East and Asia, she is nothing more than a poor old lady with empty titles of nobility, so a very interesting scene suddenly appeared at the scene. Many nobles and rich people from Europe stood up and fainted when they saw the old queen. The slight bow showed respect, but the rest of them showed disdain.

Just as the old queen entered, Lord Wade outside the door said respectfully to Orion Exeor, “Mr. Exeor, we finally meet again!”

Orion Exeor nodded and said with great courtesy and respect, “How is Lord Wade doing recently?”

Lord Wade smiled and said, “Some time ago, something went wrong, which made me a little anxious. However, after Charlie returned to Eastcliff, many troubles were solved. With his blessing, the Wade family not only survived the crisis safely, but also took this opportunity to further develop to be big, and my old bone finally had a chance to retreat and enjoyed happiness, so I've been very comfortable recently."

Orion Exeor said with a smile, "It's really a great blessing for the Wade family to have a real dragon like Master Wade in the world. With Master Wade here, the Wade family will reach the top of the world!"

Lord Wade quickly arched his hand and said, "Then I'll borrow your auspicious words, Mr. Exeor!"

As soon as they finished speaking, they listened to the banquet hall. Jasmine Moore said, "Next, please give us warm applause to our second distinguished guest tonight, the direct descendant of Balig Exeor, the Feng shui master, Mr. Orion Exeor, who is over 100 years old!"

Hearing this, Lord Wade was stunned. He thought he should have made the second appearance, and Orion Exeor must be the last VIP to appear.

However, Charlie unexpectedly arranged for Orion Exeor to appear first and let himself be the finale, so he couldn't help but be excited.

Orion Exeor is not surprised at all this arrangement. After all, Lord Wade is Charlie's grandfather, and he is also the owner of the Wade family on the surface. Charlie will definitely arrange him to come to the finale. In this way, the Wade family's global popularity can be greatly improved in an instant.

Therefore, Orion Exeor said to Lord Wade with a smile, "Lord Wade, I'll appear first!"

Lord Wade hurriedly made an invitation gesture and said respectfully, "Mr. Exeor, please!"

Orion Exeor nodded slightly and walked into the banquet hall at a vigorous pace.

At this moment, most of the people who didn't stand up to welcome the old queen in the banquet hall just stood up.

These are almost all rich people in North America and Asia.

Many of them are looking forward to Rejuvenating Pill after listening to Orion Exeor's introduction, and they have always praised his accomplishments in Feng shui. Seeing him enter, they naturally want to get up and greet each other.

However, almost no European who had just stood up and bowed to the old queen stood up.

In fact, Europe is very different from North America. North America itself is composed of immigrants with many faiths, many ethnic groups and greater inclusiveness. The Europa people in Europe have always maintained many traditions left over from the Middle Ages, so they are more stubborn and conservative. They will salute to a royal family, but they sneered at Orion Exeor, a Feng shui master.

However, Orion Exeor doesn't care about these strange eyes. His expression has always been light and meticulous.

Orion Exeor walked to the three VIP seats in the center of the first row. The old queen of Northern Europe had already sat on the right side. At this time, a staff member stepped forward and motioned Orion Exeor to sit on the left side.

At this moment, Jasmine Moore said loudly, "Next, please stand up and welcome our third VIP tonight with the warmest applause, Lord Wade, chairman of Wade Group!"

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3879-3882

Chapter 3879

Lord Wade never dreamed that Charlie would give him enough appearance at this auction.

Letting himself participate in the auction as a VIP has already surprised him. Unexpectedly, Charlie not only gave himself the status of a VIP, but also let himself appear in the final stage.

What's more, Jasmine Moore asked everyone to stand up and applaud together to welcome his entry when he was on the curtain. This is simply the highest treatment for his own occasion!

You know, those who participate in this auction at this moment are the top rich without exception. Many people have economic strength, which is much better than the Wade family.

However, even these people should stand up respectfully and applaud Lord Wade's entry.

At this moment, Lord Wade's vanity was greatly satisfied.

However, getting such a high-standard treatment inevitably makes Lord Wade feel more nervous. He is even nervous that he doesn't know whether to take his left foot or right foot first when he enters the auction hall in a while.

Under the pressure of inner excitement and tension, he stepped into the auction venue.

At this time, more than 400 people stood upright on both sides of the auction venue. They all deflected their bodies to the side and rear, and their eyes could not take their eyes off the entrance.

At the sight of Lord Wade stepping in, everyone applauded desperately at the same time.

The warm applause even made Lord Wade a little scared.

And these applauds actually don't really respect Lord Wade. They just heard Jasmine Moore say they wanted to stand up and applaud, and they also had the warmest applause.

They are afraid of being remembered for their poor performance, so they have to sell more strength.

Lord Wade was used to this feeling of public attention less than halfway through the red carpet. He gradually relaxed and smiled on his face. He not only was like a spring breeze, but also subconsciously raised his hand to wave to everyone, just like his greatest style here.

After enjoying everyone's attention and applause, Lord Wade sat down in the middle of the VIP seat reluctantly.

After he sat down, the electronic clock hanging above the venue had reached 19:50.

Therefore, Jasmine Moore opened her mouth with a smile and said, "I know that most of you came to our auction this time for the Rejuvenation pill, so here I want to introduce the specific rules of tonight's auction."

After saying that, Jasmine Moore said, "First of all, tonight we have prepared two extremely precious Rejuvenating pills for you. Except for one of them, which is auctioned in the final auction in the whole way, the remaining Rejuvenating pill will be divided into four equally, each of which will be auctioned separately."

“Secondly, only Rejuvenating pill cannot be repurchased in all collections tonight, that is to say, if one of you buys the first Rejuvenating pill, you will automatically lose the opportunity to participate in other Rejuvenating pill auctions later, and other auctions are not subject to this restriction;”

“Therefore, if one of you aims to get a whole Rejuvenation pill, please do not participate in the first four auctions of divided Rejuvenating pill, otherwise once the auction is successful, you will lose the qualification to auction a whole Rejuvenation pill in the end.”

“In addition, since everyone has paid a deposit of 50 million yuan, in addition to Rejuvenating pill, the goods auctioned by everyone will be retained and sealed directly for everyone. If the turnover is lower than the deposit, we will automatically deduct the payment to return the remaining margin. If the turnover is higher than the margin, the other remaining payment needs to be made up as soon as the auction is over;”

“Finally, if you bid for Rejuvenating pill, we and the staff will give you a mobile phone. You can contact your finance department directly and let the finance department complete the transfer as soon as possible. After verifying that the payment has been received, we will hand the Rejuvenating pill over to you on the spot.”

“Of course, according to our regulations, after you get the Rejuvenating pill, you must take it in front of the public, otherwise you will be regarded as abstention.”

Speaking of which, Jasmine Moore looked at the crowd and asked, “Do you have any questions? If so, please raise your hand to speak.”

Many people in the crowd raised their hands. Jasmine Moore pointed to one of them and said, “Please ask question number 095.”

Wearing the 095-numbered costume was an old white man in his seventies. Seeing Jasmine Moore click on him, he quickly stood up and asked, “What if we pay, but Rejuvenating pill does not achieve the effect we want? After all, we have only heard of the effect of Rejuvenating pill, but we haven’t seen it yet...”

Jasmine Moore replied seriously, “I can tell you responsibly that the effect of Rejuvenating pill is absolutely more than your previous understanding and cognition of any relevant drugs. Whether you shoot a quarter of Rejuvenating pill or a whole Rejuvenating pill at the finale, the effect will be visible to the naked eye after you take it on the spot. Which is one of the reasons why we require successful auctioneers to take Rejuvenating pill on the spot, so that others can witness the magical effect of this medicine with their own eyes. If it doesn’t work, how can we make such a decision?”

Speaking of this, Jasmine Moore said again, “As for what you just said, what to do if Rejuvenating pill does not achieve the effect you expected? I think this is a very subjective problem in itself. No matter how good the effect is, some people may feel dissatisfied enough. Just like everyone sitting down, there will never be no upper limit on the desire for wealth. So we can only guarantee that most people can be convinced after witnessing it with their own eyes. However, if the parties themselves do not agree or are not satisfied, we will not accept any form of refund and after-sales service, please understand.”

The white old man hesitated for a moment and nodded gently.

He also knows that this kind of thing may be difficult to quantify by some public standard, but since the organizer dares to let everyone take it on the spot, it proves that they must be fully sure of the efficacy of the drug.

Otherwise, as long as the first Rejuvenating pill is taken, and everyone sees that Rejuvenating pill has no effect, then the subsequent Rejuvenating pill can’t be sold.

So he said, "Thank you, Miss Moore, for your explanation. I understand."

Jasmine Moore then said, "Please ask question number 055."

No. 055 is an old man with a Middle East face. He stood up and asked, "Miss Moore, if someone bids for Rejuvenating pill but the money can't arrive, what will your organizer do?"

Jasmine Moore said seriously, "Because our auction tonight is interspersed with other collections, everyone has a 20-minute transfer time after the successful auction of Rejuvenating pill. If the money does not arrive within 20 minutes, we will automatically cancel his share of Rejuvenating pill and return this Rejuvenating pill for another auction, and if the payment fails, he will lose the qualification to continue bidding for Rejuvenating pill tonight!"

The man nodded and said, "I see. Thank you, Miss Moore, for your answer!"

Jasmine Moore smiled and counted as a response. After answering a few more questions, it was already 19:59.

Later, Jasmine Moore did not continue to roll call, but watched the countdown to the last ten seconds by second, so she smiled and said, "I announced that the first Rejuvenating pill auction will officially start now!"

"And the first auction item we have prepared for you tonight is the first quarter of the Rejuvenate pill!"

Chapter 3881

As soon as Jasmine Moore finished speaking, there was a burst of exclamations in the audience.

Everyone thought that Rejuvenating pill would be pressed behind and slowly released and warmed up, but they did not expect that the first item to be auctioned was actually Rejuvenating pill!

This was actually Charlie's deliberate arrangement.

What he wanted was this feeling of blowing up the field as soon as he came up.

You don't have to work hard on the field, just drop the "blockbuster" and detonate it, and the field will heat up in an instant.

Moreover, by taking Rejuvenating pill first, this group of people can see the effect of it in the fastest time, which will make other people even more crazy.

At this moment, Charlie was sitting in the monitoring room, watching the live broadcast of the scene, and smiled slightly, "Jasmine's performance is much better than I expected, it seems that she has found a suitable rhythm."

"Yes." Isaac Cameron couldn't help but praise, "Miss Moore's performance on the scene is really stable, and the scene has been held by her."

Speaking, he asked Charlie curiously, "Master, what price do you think this first rejuvenation pill can be sold for?"

Charlie smiled and said, "I can't say this, but the first deal must be the lowest price. I guess it should be around several hundred million to one billion dollars."

.....

At this time, the auction site.

Just before everyone came back to their senses, a lady of etiquette came up with a delicate silver plate.

Immediately afterwards, the scene of the camera was aimed at the silver plate, and the quarter of the black and bright Rejuvenation pill on the silver plate were displayed on the big screen behind Jasmine Moore.

Rejuvenating pill is not big at all, and a quarter of it is not much. If it were not enlarged and displayed on the big screen with this high-definition camera, the bidders sitting below would not be able to see it at all.

The vast majority of people are suspicious of this small pill at the moment, and they can't believe that such a small piece of ordinary thing can have such magical effects as legends say.

However, among the crowd, there were two people staring at Rejuvenating pill this time. Not only did they not have any doubts, but their eyes were filled with heat and desire.

Among them, in addition to the old Nordic queen who was saved by Rejuvenating pill, there was also an old acquaintance of Charlie, the richest man in Lancaster, Travis Lane.

Travis Lane got a Rejuvenation pill at Jasmine Moore's birthday party last time at a price of 2 billion. After taking it, not only did all the symptoms disappear, but the state was at least 20 years younger.

At that moment, he knew that the two billion he spent was too worth it!

Therefore, this time, he also signed up for the auction as soon as possible, and wanted to take this opportunity to work hard and try to get another Rejuvenation pill.

He also knows that his financial resources are not enough, and it is definitely impossible to get a whole Rejuvenation pill, so he hopes to grab one from the four-part Rejuvenation pill.

At this time, Jasmine Moore said, "This auction will accept payment in two currencies, RMB or US dollars. However, since there are many overseas friends present today, all our bids are in US dollars. The starting price of one quarter of Rejuvenating pill is 100 million US dollars, and each bid will increase by at least 10 million US dollars. Interested buyers please start bidding!"

The starting price of a quarter of Rejuvenating pill was set at $100 million, which really surprised many less wealthy bidders.

Just when many people were still a little astonished, Travis Lane raised his hand without hesitation and said, "I'll give $100 million!"

Chapter 3882

In the monitoring room, Charlie said with a smile, "Travis Lane is really smart. He knows that he has to fight for the first part. With his financial resources, if he can't earn the first part, it will be even more difficult."

"Yeah." Isaac Cameron switched one of the pictures to a close-up of Travis Lane's face, and said with a smile, "Look, young master, although Travis Lane's bid is very crisp, his expression still seems to be very painful."

Charlie glanced at it and couldn't help laughing, nodded and said, "Actually, at least half of the 200 people who came today decided to give up when the starting price was announced. Seeing how powerful Rejuvenating pill really is, and even if they are willing to follow the bid, with their strength, it is estimated that they will not be able to call it after a few rounds."

In fact, even Travis Lane himself was a little surprised by the starting price of 100 million US dollars.

According to the current exchange rate, 100 million US dollars is more than 600 million yuan.

The last time he took a whole rejuvenation pill, he only spent 2 billion yuan, and now the starting price of a quarter of the price is actually one-third of the price of the whole last time!

However, Travis Lane couldn't help thinking in his heart, "The first one is definitely the cheapest of the four Rejuvenating pill opened tonight, because most of the people here still don't know how amazing the Rejuvenating pill is, but once the first one is taken in public, it will definitely drive these people crazy! The price will definitely go up! So this first share, I am determined to get it!"

Seeing Travis Lane's bid, Jasmine Moore nodded and said with a smile, "Okay, No. 085 offered $100 million. Anyone willing to offer $110 million? If so, please raise your hand."

As soon as she finished speaking, a white-haired old man in the crowd raised his hand and said, "I'll give you 110 million!"

Travis Lane continued to raise his hand without hesitation, "I will give 120 million!"

Just as Jasmine Moore was about to speak, an old man with a Middle Eastern face raised his hand and said, "I will pay 200 million!"

Travis Lane was instantly stunned by the sudden attack, and thought to himself, "This guy directly called from 120 million to 200 million as soon as he opened his mouth, I don't know if he is really rich or deliberately wants to play. A psychological tactic to scare other competitors away with an instant price increase!"

Before Travis Lane came back to his senses, he saw the old Nordic queen sitting on the VIP seat in the front row and said, "I will pay 250 million!"

The old queen's worth is not too much, the entire Iliad family, the assets together are just enough to register for this auction.

However, for the old queen who has already walked through the gate of hell, money is not even a fart in front of life.

To say two or three billion dollars, she really can't come up with it, but she can still get it out through gritted teeth.

Her current thinking is similar to that of Travis Lane. After all, she is not strong enough and has limited ammunition, so she must fight quickly and catch everyone by surprise.

So, as soon as she opened her mouth, she directly put the price too high by $50 million, in order to show her determination to win, and to scare off bidders who were trying to fight her a little bit.

Travis Lane didn't expect that he would meet two competitors who raised their prices by a large margin. At this moment, he even had the urge to directly call for $300 million to see who could scare the other.

However, after thinking about it, there are already two opponents who play like this. If you play like this, it may not work.

So, he raised his hand indifferently and said casually, "I'll give you 260 million!"

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3883-3886

Chapter 3883

The reason why auctions are popular all over the world is mainly because there is only a lower limit and no upper limit for anything in an auction.

Therefore, any commodity may fetch a sky-high price at auction, mainly depending on the strength and mentality of the competitors.

Sometimes they are on each other's heels, and even things that are worthless can be sold for astonishingly high prices.

Moreover, there are really not many tactics available for this kind of straight-forward bidding method. You can suddenly raise the price, scare the other party with your momentum, tell the other party that you have money and at the same time, keep your face calm, and give the other party a gesture that you want to play, and will play until the end.

Travis Lane's first method didn't work, so he could only switch to the second one. What he planned was that from now on, as long as the price was still within the range that he could afford, he would simply press the increase of 10 million.

If the price reaches an unacceptable level, then just quit silently.

At this time, the old Nordic queen saw that there was still room for the price to be far from her limit, so she raised her hand without thinking, and said loudly, "I will pay 300 million US dollars!"

As soon as the old Nordic queen finished speaking, Travis Lane scolded in his heart, "Damn old woman, are you fucking crazy or something, you can come with your mouth open for 300 million US dollars! You know that 300 million US dollars is almost 2 billion yuan. It cost this amount to buy a whole one!"

While Travis Lane scolded secretly in his heart, he immediately followed with a calm expression on the surface, "I'll pay 310 million!"

After saying this, Travis Lane's heart was bleeding.

He originally thought that this group of people would never be interested in buying the first quarter of Rejuvenating pill, so he took advantage of it and tried to get the first one and the price should not exceed 300 million US dollars. Who would have thought that when he turned his head, the price was already exceeded 300 million.

But fortunately, he is also an entrepreneur with a net worth of tens of billions. Converted into US dollars, he has at least more than 10 billion, so these 300 million US dollars are nothing to him.

The rich man in the Middle East raised his hand again and said, "I'll pay 320 million!"

"Damn!" Travis Lane cursed inwardly, and was about to bid 330 million, when a black man who had never raised his hand suddenly raised tremblingly, and said with a trembling voice, "I... $500 million!"

This black man is one of the richest black people in the world. He is from Nigeria and is a super giant in Nigeria and even the whole of Africa.

This person was on vacation in London some time ago and heard the news that the upper class was discussing the Rejuvenating pill auction.

And he himself, because he suffered from Parkinson's disease ten years ago, has been searching for the most advanced treatment methods all over the world.

However, the cause of Parkinson's disease has not yet been understood by the scientific community, so although he has been actively receiving various treatments, the symptoms of Parkinson's disease have not improved.

Not only did he not get better, but his condition has continued to deteriorate in the past two years, so that his own life has been greatly affected.

Today, because the tremors of his hands and feet are too strong, he has long been unable to walk and completely unable to eat on his own. He can only rely on others to feed him.

Not only that, but now his facial features have lost control of his nerves, his mouth is crooked and his eyes are slanted, which makes him reluctant to look in the mirror for a few years.

Therefore, even if he has a fortune, he has no chance to enjoy it at all.

Chapter 3884

His illnesses for many years have already tortured him into an impersonal form. His biggest dream now is to be able to cure his illness, so that he can enjoy the rest of his life in peace, even if he makes some more sacrifices in terms of money.

Therefore, as soon as he came up, he directly increased the price by nearly 200 million, just to get this rejuvenation pill.

Whether it was Travis Lane, the old Nordic queen, or the rich man in the Middle East never thought that the richest man in black would be so powerful, and he added so much money to the previous bid as soon as he came up.

Travis Lane felt extremely depressed for a moment.

Converting 500 million US dollars into RMB has already exceeded 3 billion!

It is not that he can't afford the three billion. However, when he thought that he had only used 2 billion for the whole Rejuvenating pill before, there was a strong gap in his heart to a quarter of Rejuvenating pill that cost more than 3 billion.

Just when he was still hesitating and struggling, the old Nordic queen shook her heart, raised her hand and said, "I will pay 550 million!"

All the funds that the old queen could take out were only 600 million US dollars at most. She planned to make her last effort, and if she succeeded, she could only pin all her hopes on Charlie.

Although the richest black man had never participated in the bidding before, he suddenly came out, just wanting to surprise other competitors with a surprise attack. This kind of quiet and moving like a rabbit is his personal style of behavior.

So, he said not to be outdone at all, "I'll pay 600 million!"

The old queen sank in her heart, knowing that she would probably return without success tonight, so she could only make one last effort, raising her hand and saying, "610 million!"

Travis Lane also came to his senses at this time. Although the price of 610 million is very high, it is definitely the lowest price for Rejuvenating pill tonight.

Moreover, he also saw the Parkinson's patient's trembling body and slanted eyes, and immediately knew that this person was definitely a severely ill Parkinson's patient, so he couldn't help thinking to himself, "If the fuck really let that Parkinson's patient took away the first Rejuvenating pill, and he went on stage to take it, in case he recovered on the spot, the other quarter of Rejuvenating pill would be even more expensive!"

Thinking of this, he gritted his teeth, and was about to shout out the price of 650 million, when he heard the trembling voice shout again: "I... I give out seven... seven... seven hundred million!"

There was an uproar at the scene!

More than half of the bidders were in tears.

Because they couldn't imagine that a quarter of a rejuvenation pill could fetch such a price.

This has already broken through their psychological upper limit early.

The 650 million Travis Lane came to his lips was forced back by the other party, and he was naturally 10,000 times resentful in his heart.

However, when he thought that this might be the closest time he will be able to get Rejuvenating pill in his life, he could only grit his teeth and said loudly, “750 million! 750 million and it’s fucking over!”

Jasmine Moore immediately reminded, “Number 085, please pay attention to your words, don’t curse in public!”

Travis Lane nodded quickly, and said in a panic, “I’m sorry, Miss Moore, I’m really sorry, I was impulsive, and I will pay attention in the future!”

Travis Lane’s roar did not frighten the rich black man. He continued to hold his trembling right hand high and shouted loudly, “Eight hundred million! I will give eight hundred million!”

Chapter 3885

When the black rich man shouted the price of 800 million US dollars, the old Nordic queen was like a deflated ball, sitting on the chair slumped, her eyes were empty, and she was a little unwilling.

This price has exceeded her affordability.

Even if it was sold to her at this price, she won’t be able to get so much money.

Therefore, she knew very well in her heart that she had completely missed the chance to get Rejuvenating pill.

At this time, many people at the scene have begun to whisper in private.

Everyone knows that the five rejuvenating pills tonight must be going higher and higher like a ladder, so the price of this first rejuvenating pill is equivalent to laying a solid foundation and setting the tone for the later rejuvenating pills.

If its price is raised too high, then the price of Rejuvenating pill later may explode to a sky-high.

At this moment, Travis Lane's mentality was about to collapse.

He cursed inwardly, "750 million! And it's still US dollars! Converted, this is more than 4 billion yuan, just to get this quarter of the rejuvenation pill, isn't this fucking crazy?"

After all, he violently tugged at his hair, hesitating and struggling whether to continue calling for another 810 million.

But just when he was hesitating, the Middle Eastern rich man who had made a bid before, but didn't move for a while, raised his hand again and said in a deep voice, "One billion!"

Hearing this number, Travis Lane felt a surge of anger in his heart, and he cursed in his heart, "One billion, how the hell is it going to let others live?"

Before he could react, the rich black man raised his hand again, "I... I'll give.. 1.1 billion!"

And the Middle Eastern billionaire seemed to have a strong stamina, and blurted out almost without delay, "1.2 billion!"

The black tycoon gritted his teeth and said without changing his face, "One... 1.3 billion!"

From one billion to 1.3 billion, it took less than ten seconds.

The scene was in uproar again.

Some people who were originally determined to win the rejuvenation pill have completely given up the idea of competing for the rejuvenation pill in their hearts.

Because in their minds, they feel that no matter how amazing this medicine is, it is already outrageous at this price, and it is outrageous to buy it.

Some people have even begun to watch a good show.

Because they feel that the price of a quarter of the rejuvenation pill has been fired up to a sky-high price of 1.3 billion US dollars. No matter who buys this Rejuvenation pill, they believe that after taking this rejuvenation pill, he will regret for his own impulses.

Taking advantage of everyone's exclamations, a wealthy domestic man whispered to the people around him, "Fuck, these people are all fucking crazy, and they even called for 1.3 billion US dollars?! What is 1.3 billion US dollars? If you use it to buy an Airbus A320, you can buy 20 of them!"

A Chinese-American next to him asked with a smile, "You're so interesting, why do you think of comparing it with a plane?"

The man said, "Because I have an airline myself, you must know that there are at least a dozen domestic airlines with less than 20 fleets. The worst is Daxinghua Airlines, and there are only three planes in total. I'm not sure if it's such a powerful medicine to take twenty planes for a quarter, can you stand this?"

The people around them nodded involuntarily.

They also felt that it was unacceptable to buy a quarter of a Rejuvenating pill for the money worth of 20 planes.

However, even if others found it unacceptable, Travis Lane was not willing to give up.

He had already experienced the miraculous effects of Rejuvenating pill, and knew that this medicine brought not only health, but also more and more precious time.

Twenty planes were a lot to him, but not as important as longevity.

So, he gritted his teeth and shouted angrily, "I'll give you 10 billion yuan! RMB!"

Chapter 3886

Jasmine Moore said helplessly, "No. 085, this auction will be bid in US dollars. Please pay attention and re-quote the price."

Travis Lane said quickly, "Miss Moore, I can't calculate the exchange rate in my mind. Please help me to find out how much is 10 billion yuan in US dollars!"

Jasmine Moore calculated with the calculator prepared in advance on the auction table, and said, "It's about 1.6 billion."

Travis Lane nodded and said with great resentment, "That's it! 1.6 billion!"

Travis Lane thought to himself, "10 billion RMB is the limit that I can bear. Instead of continuing to cut the flesh with these two bastards, it's better to be ruthless and increase the bid by 300 million US dollars. Who the hell dare to follow!"

Just when Travis Lane felt that his furious price increase would definitely scare off the other two, to his surprise, the two raised their hands almost at the same time.

The rich man in the Middle East shouted, "I'll give you 1.7 billion!"

The black tycoon was even more vicious, shouting, "Two! I'll give two billion!"

Travis Lane's psychological defense was completely destroyed in an instant, and he gave up in an instant.

He slumped on the chair, his back completely soaked in cold sweat.

He knew that he could no longer follow.

He couldn't accept that the price he used to buy a whole Rejuvenating pill before is doubled five times to buy a quarter of a rejuvenation pill. This time, the difference was twenty times worse.

If he buy this Rejuvenation pill at a higher price, he may feel very sad in the future, and the more he think about it in the future, the more painful it will become.

So, he sighed dejectedly and gave up continuing to bid.

The eyes of everyone at the scene were focused on the rich man in the Middle East.

If he is still willing to continue to bid, the price of this quarter of the rejuvenation pill will exceed two billion US dollars.

If he gave up the bid, then the quarter of the rejuvenation pill would probably become the possession of the rich black man.

Jasmine Moore also said at this time, "No. 047 offers two billion dollars, is there anything higher than this price?"

Saying that, Jasmine Moore looked around and said seriously, "For the first Rejuvenating pill, the highest price got so far is 2 billion US dollars. This is the first Rejuvenating pill tonight. Is there a price higher than 2 billion dollars? If there is, please raise your hand so I can see it.”

No one answered, and no one raised a hand.

Jasmine Moore smiled slightly and said, “Okay, it’s the first time for 2 billion. Now, if anyone wants to participate in the competition, there is still a chance to make an offer.”

There was still no answer at the scene.

And the Middle Eastern rich man was a little hesitant at this time.

After all, the price of two billion US dollars is indeed too high. He is not a royal family, and the money is not blown by the wind, and it is not sprayed out by drilling a well in his backyard, so he must consider the two billion.

The reason why he called all the way to 1.7 billion was mainly because he was found to have pancreatic cancer three years ago. Fortunately, the disease did not develop very seriously, so he underwent surgical resection.

However, because pancreatic cancer is the most difficult to find, when he was diagnosed, the tumor had more or less invaded the lymphoid tissue, so it was a mid-stage cancer.

Doctors speculate that his five-year survival probability will generally not exceed 60 percent.

Many famous people all over the world have died of pancreatic cancer. The most troublesome thing about this cancer is that it is difficult to find and treat.

Once you have this disease, no matter how much money you have, it is useless. For other diseases, various special drugs and high-level advanced treatment methods can also give patients a life cycle of several years or even longer. However, once the disease of pancreatic cancer is diagnosed, even if you have gold and silver, it can't change back a few years.

This is also the fundamental reason why even Orrin Sun is so rich, he still has to wait to die after getting pancreatic cancer.

If Charlie hadn't appeared in time and cured him with the Rejuvenating pill, I'm afraid he would only have one month of life left at the time.

The rich man in the Middle East was also hesitating at this time, worried that the Rejuvenating pill would not have any effect on his condition, and he was suffering from pancreatic cancer. There was no professional equipment at the auction site, and the effect of Rejuvenating pill could not be seen at all. If he really buy this Rejuvenating pill and checked and found that there was no change in his condition. Wouldn't that be a waste of two billion dollars?

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but glance at the number 047.

He can also see that No. 047 is a severe Parkinson's patient, so he suddenly thought in his heart, "Parkinson's disease, the symptoms are almost all in front of him, why don't we let this guy get the first one and take it on the spot to see the effects for ourselves?"

"Just let him be a little white rabbit for himself!"

"If after taking a quarter of the Rejuvenation pill, and Parkinson's disease can be relieved or even cured with the naked eye, then I will take a second Rejuvenation pill!"

"If after he takes it, and still there is no improvement in Parkinson's disease, then I will not participate in the auction of Rejuvenating pill anymore!"

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3887-3888

Chapter 3887

When the rich man of the Middle East decided to use the rich black man as a guinea pig to get the first quarter of Rejuvenating pill to see its effects, no one on the scene continued to bid.

In fact, not all people are stupid. Seeing this Parkinson's patient shaking more violently than a hand tractor, they know that he must be a serious Parkinson's patient. So now everyone wants to see him take the first Rejuvenating pill and see if he can recover on the spot!

At this time, Jasmine Moore said, "Ladies and gentlemen, tonight's first quarter of Rejuvenating pill, the current highest bid is 2 billion US dollars, if there are guests who want to compete, before asking for the third time, there is still a chance to make a bid, if you want to raise the price, please raise your hand and let me see."

The scene was still silent.

Everyone is determined, and there is no eagle without a rabbit.

Everyone was eager to wait for Jasmine Moore to finish the deal quickly.

This way, the Rejuvenating pill would have a chance to take a walk.

If it's a mule or a horse, they'll immediately know when they see it.

At this time, Jasmine Moore said again, "Okay, this is the third time for two billion dollars. Let me ask one last time. If there is a higher bid, take the last chance."

The Parkinson's patient trembles even more because of his nervousness.

He didn't know if the Rejuvenating pill would be able to cure his illness this time, but he knew very well that modern technology had absolutely no chance of curing him.

So this Rejuvenating pill might be his last chance.

At this time, Jasmine Moore had retrieved a small wooden hammer from the auction table.

She raised the hammer, looked at the audience one last time and smiled slightly, "Two billion dollars, sold!"

After that, she hit the hammer hard and made a sharp impact.

Immediately, she turned her palm to the rich black man and said with a smile, "Please congratulate No.047 for winning tonight's first quarter of Rejuvenating pill for $2 billion!"

There was thunderous applause.

And the rich black was too eager to add.

At this time, Jasmine Moore said again, "Now I ask our staff to hand over the mobile phone to 047. Please confirm with the finance department or family members of 047, and complete the transfer as soon as possible."

During the conversation, a young soldier from Dragon Hall, holding a specially made cell phone, walked over to No. 047 and handed over the phone.

The other party didn't personally come to get the phone but let his housekeeper receive the phone, and then immediately dialed an overseas number.

The call connected quickly, and his housekeeper immediately held the phone to the ear of the rich black man, who said in a trembling voice, "Make a quick payment to the auction house... two billion... dollars..."

After that, everyone waited in silence for a confirmation message.

Chapter 3888

Five minutes later, Jasmine Moore received a notification from the financial staff that 2 billion US dollars had been credited, so she smiled and said, "Our finances confirmed the payment. Please go up to the stage No. 047 and take the Rejuvenating pill in front of everyone!"

The housekeeper quickly said, "Our president is very uncomfortable to move. It was even very difficult when we passed the security check earlier. Can we arrange for a staff to take the Rejuvenating pill?"

Jasmine Moore shook her head and said politely, "I am very sorry, our auction rule is that all customers that will get the Rejuvenating pill must go up on stage and take it on the spot. If No. 047 is not convenient, we can let our staff help him get on stage."

The housekeeper was a little annoyed. After all, two billion dollars were spent, and they can't accept such a small request? This is so inhuman!

However, before he could express his opinion, the rich black man next to him immediately warned, "Don't.. don't talk....nonsense!"

The housekeeper fell silent with great interest.

Soon, the black tycoon, supported by his housekeeper and a soldier from Dragon Hall, slowly walked onto the stage, trembling step by step.

The 400+ people below saw him stagger and tremble all the way to the stage, they were all in torment, and he walked slowly for 7-8 minutes for a distance that everyone could cover at most 30 seconds.

When he came to stand on the stage, the whole person was even more dizzy.

Travis Lane was still upset and when he saw this rich black man, he scolded through gritted teeth, “Damn! This man is standing there, shaking as if his whole body has been subjected to high-voltage electricity, and his eyes are about to be crushed!”

In fact, Travis Lane’s personality wasn’t really this bad, and he’s always been a Confucian businessman who was renowned for his sweetness and grace.

But today, his mentality had been greatly stimulated and he longed for the Rejuvenation pill, which made him an angry.

Now he was furious when he saw everything, and he wanted to scold everyone.

Jasmine Moore stood in front of the auction stage and said with a smile, “Let’s congratulate 047 for winning tonight’s first quarter of Rejuvenating pill auction, of course, I also want to remind 047 that by winning the first quarter of Rejuvenating pill, he will lose the qualification to bid for the remaining Rejuvenating pills.”

The rich black man didn’t know if he was nodding or if he was shaking his head from side to side the whole time. He shakily reached out and purposely pointed at the quarter part of the Rejuvenation pill, and said impatiently, “Give me...give me...I...want to take it...now...”

Jasmine Moore nodded slightly and said, “Okay, then we’ll have our staff hand over the Rejuvenating pill to you.”

After that, Jasmine Moore saw that his hands were shaking so much that she said, “Let our staff help him take the Rejuvenating pill directly!”

Immediately, Jasmine Moore nodded at the Dragon Hall soldier who had been standing next to them. The other party immediately took the Rejuvenating pill with both hands and walked to the side of the rich black man, holding the chin of the rich black man with one hand, and very slowly with the other hand, took the quarter of the Rejuvenation pill and, in the presence of everyone's witnesses, delivered it to his mouth.

This series of actions, after being magnified by the big screen at the scene, could be seen very clearly by everyone.

Therefore, at this moment, more than 400 people on the scene, without exception, watched with bated breath.

No one dared to blink, because they were afraid of missing the birth of a miracle.

Of course, there were also many people who were truly skeptical. After all, this person's Parkinson's symptoms are too severe, and everyone is well informed that there is absolutely no possibility of a medical cure for severe Parkinson's disease.

Travis Lane still couldn't help but whisper, "Damn it, if there are two more people like this, the whole building will collapse!"

Someone echoed, "This person is shaking like this, even if the coffin board can't be closed, I don't think the Rejuvenating pill can heal him this time!"

At this time, the staff had put the quarter of Rejuvenating pill into the rich black man's mouth.

At this moment, everyone was staring at the screen with their eyes wide open and unmoving.

The scene was so silent, as if a needle had fallen to the ground, everyone could hear it.

More than 400 people in the entire scene were completely silent and almost completely froze.

In addition to the rich black man, he was still standing on the stage, shaking stubbornly.

And the quarter of the rejuvenation pill had melted in his mouth in an instant.

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3889-3890

Chapter 3889

The efficacy of the Rejuvenating pill never disappoints whoever uses it.

As soon as the rich black man put a quarter of the Rejuvenation pill in his mouth, he felt that the pill turned into a warm current and instantly flowed into his abdomen.

Immediately afterwards, this heat flow instantly dissipated from his abdomen to his entire body.

Afterwards, he felt a wonderful feeling that he never had in his life, as if the whole person was bathed in the holy light of God, and every part of his body felt extremely comfortable.

Then, he suddenly felt his senses as if they had entered a state of slow motion.

This is because the amplitude of his body shaking suddenly began to slow down sharply.

And he was already used to the strong involuntary tremor of his body, and when the speed of his body shaking suddenly slowed down significantly, he did not react at all.

In addition, everything around him, everyone around him, was almost standing there motionless, so he couldn't find a suitable reference to judge whether the speed of his shaking was slowing down because his senses are still slow.

Not only did he not understand it, but so did the others.

They also saw the old man on the stage, and the speed of the shaking slowed down a lot in an instant, but they didn't have any other reference, so they didn't know if they were dazzled.

However, the difference between them and the old man is that they just haven't recovered for a while, but once they recover, they can immediately find a reference from themselves.

Those who are quick to respond first spread out their hands, make fists with ten fingers, and then open their palms. By confirming the speed of closing and opening their fingers, they can judge that they do not have the illusion of seeing things slower.

Therefore, it can be confirmed that the shaking of the old man on the stage has really improved a lot.

When they wanted to see clearly again, they were horrified to find that the old man stopped shaking.

At this time, someone in the auction booth shouted, "My God! Look! That old guy isn't shaking anymore!"

Everyone looked at him again, and the old man who was shaking in the stage has now completely stopped!

The old black man, who had shaken to the point of visual afterimage, was standing there quietly, like a wax statue, motionless.

At this time, the rich black man saw the movements of many people in the audience, and finally realized that it was not that time stood still, nor that his senses were slowing down, but that he really stopped shaking!

At this moment, he tried to lift his hand and touch his nose.

In the past, this simplest action was the most difficult for him.

Because of severe Parkinson's disease, his fingers, wrists, arms and even his entire body were constantly shaking. It was very difficult for him to lift his hands, and it was even impossible for him to touch his nose accurately.

For countless nights, he was immersed in his own beautiful dreams, happy and unwilling to wake up, and most of those beautiful dreams were that he finally managed to touch his nose. Happiness was so simple to him, but so difficult to achieve.

However, he never dreamed that he had just taken a quarter of Rejuvenating pill, and in less than half a minute, not only did his entire body stop shaking, but even his body's sense of strength was greatly restored.

He raised his arm easily, and without any deviation, he touched his nose.

Chapter 3890

At this moment, his lacrimal glands seemed to lose their restraint, and tears poured out one after another without stopping.

This feeling, to him, is like being reborn.

Excitedly, he suddenly jumped up in place, and at the moment he landed heavily, he seemed to vent and shouted loudly, "Parkinson's disease! You have tortured me for so long, and today I finally conquered you!"

A severe Parkinson's patient who was supported by someone and walked dozens of meters in seven or eight minutes now not only has no symptoms, but can even jump in place, shout loudly, and even speak as before. It's almost like an illusion!

As a result, there was an explosion of exclamation from the audience!

Many people have subconsciously stood up, as if they were greatly frightened, and shouted madly in their mouths.

Someone is shouting, "This is impossible!"

Someone is shouting, "It is really effective!"

Someone is shouting, "I must be dreaming!"

Someone is shouting, "This is not a dream, this is a miracle!"

The Middle Eastern rich man who decided to give up at the last minute and did not raise the price, was so regretful at this moment that he burst into tears!

He covered his heart with one hand, and slammed the other to his face, choked and cursed himself, "Damn it! You damned scoundrel! What's the use of keeping money? What's the use? Does your money can go with you to heaven?"

After he finished speaking, he covered his swollen face with both hands, and started crying.

At the same time, not only the richest person in the Middle East who had an attitude of watching a good show before, or who had questioned the Rejuvenating pill, most of the people were also completely shocked by this astonishing scene.

In addition to being shocked, they are also extremely regretful!

Among them, many people actually got two billion dollars.

Moreover, many people are actually terminally ill, otherwise they would not have come so far to participate in the Rejuvenating pill auction.

However, they were like frogs in the well, thinking that this medicine could not be worth so much money.

So, as soon as it came up, they gave up the idea of bidding directly.

Now, they finally realize the magic of the Rejuvenating pill, but they have missed the only chance to get it first!

They thought that the price of 2 billion US dollars had reached a sky-high price, but now they understand that it is worthy of a sky-high price with its unparalleled magical effect!

Because these rich people know best that life is the most precious thing in this world!

What is two billion dollars? As long as they can continue to live, everything is possible!

If they don't believe it, look at Steve Jobs!

When Jobs died in 2011, Apple was worth more than $300 billion.

Ten years after Steve Jobs' death, Apple's market value topped $3 trillion.

When Jobs died, all his net worth was counted, which was probably more than 10 billion US dollars, and after his death, all his property was inherited by his wife.

If at that time, he was given a chance to spend 2 billion dollars to prolong his life, then not only would he be able to survive in good health, but his worth would also exceed 100 billion dollars.

Therefore, since the Rejuvenating pill has such a miraculous effect, then this price is worth it no matter how it is calculated, and it is a bloody profit!

At this time, even Ferdie Joules, who had been silent for a long time, couldn't help but feel a surge of excitement!

He finally understands that the Rejuvenating pill can prolong life by twenty years, and it is by no means just rhetoric!

The more so, the more he is determined to win the last rejuvenation pill!

He felt that as long as he could live for another 20 years, let alone tens of billions of dollars, he is even willing to take out half of his family property!

As long as he can continue to live, he can still enjoy the remaining half!

But if he dies, even if his fortune is 100,000,000 times folded, it will all left behind.

At this time, Travis Lane, who missed the Rejuvenation pill and his mentality completely collapsed, was even more shocked.

He also began to regret that at the last critical moment, he did not grit his teeth and continue to increase the price.

Moreover, he was one of the few people in the audience who already knew the effect of the Rejuvenation pill.

He scolded himself inwardly, “Bastard! What a fucking bastard! You know that Rejuvenating pill has a magical effects, but you still put money first! You have the best chance of getting this quarter of Rejuvenation pill but turned out to be taken away by others, your brain is eaten by the dog!”

And the more he thought about it, the more unbalanced his mind became.

So, he stood up in despair, pointed at the old man on the stage, and shouted hysterically, “Rejuvenating pill! This is the Rejuvenating pill! This is the goddamn magical medicine!”

“Do you think that taking a quarter of a Rejuvenation pill makes you feel reborn? Tell you, I had the honor to take a whole Rejuvenating pill! Listen to me clearly, it’s a whole pill! You guys must be envious!”

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3891-3894

Chapter 3891

Travis Lane suddenly shouted, which shocked everyone.

No one expected that there would be a person who had already taken a whole Rejuvenating pill at the scene.

However, most people naturally don’t believe it. After all, this thing is as expensive as a ghost. The person who can buy the whole one must be very famous all over the world, but most people at the scene don’t know Travis Lane, so they just think this person is making a mess of money.

Some people even think that this guy must be crazy because he didn’t shoot the first Rejuvenating pill. Now he is crazy to see that the effect of the Rejuvenating pill is so good.

At this time, Travis Lane had already lost his mind. He couldn't wait to scold a few words to vent his depression.

Seeing many people casting doubtful eyes on him, he immediately shouted angrily, "Why? Why do you all look at me like this? Do you think I'm kidding you? I tell you, I wanted to..."

Just as Travis Lane looked arrogant and was ready to come slowly, Jasmine Moore said coldly at this time, "No. 085! I have emphasized the on-site discipline many times before. Why do you violate it repeatedly?"

Travis Lane was about to scold everyone. When he saw Jasmine Moore's cold eyes, he was suddenly scared all over.

Only then did he remember that the boss behind today's auction must be Charlie, and Jasmine Moore must also be working for him. He openly violated the rules of the venue here. Didn't he bump into Charlie?

Thinking of this, he suddenly sweated coldly. The arrogance and anger just now dissipated in an instant. He quickly clasped his hands and begged bitterly, "Miss Moore, I'm really sorry!"

"I'm so impulsive! Please give me another chance for everyone's old acquaintance. I promise never to talk nonsense again!"

Jasmine Moore shook her head and said coldly, "I'm sorry 085. The rules are the rules."

With that, she looked at the soldiers of Dragon Hall beside her and said, "Please take No. 085 out."

Travis Lane opened his mouth and wanted to say something, but seeing that the imposing security personnel had arrived and knew that he had made a big mistake, he had to nod incomparably and followed the security personnel out of the auction venue without saying a word.

Jasmine Moore also felt a little sorry. Travis Lane is usually not bad and his psychological quality is also very good, but she didn't expect that he would do such an irrational thing today because of the Rejuvenating pill's matter.

According to the rules set by Charlie, Travis Lane will completely missed the chance compete at the remaining Rejuvenating pill auction.

Moreover, it was really lucky that he could buy a rejuvenation elixir last time. On that day, no one else knew about the Rejuvenating pill. However, once the auction passed tonight, it will definitely become a well-known treasure in the upper class, so it is impossible for Travis Lane to have such a chance in his life.

Chapter 3892

Seeing that Travis Lane was lost and depressed, Jasmine Moore sighed helplessly, and then said, "No. 085 has been expelled because he ignored the rules and disturbed the order of the venue. Next, please make up for the seat No. 201. Congratulations on the qualification of the official auction of the Rejuvenating pill, No. 201."

In the last row of the crowd, a man in his sixties stood up excitedly. He trembled with excitement and bowed with his hands clasped ten times and said, "Thank you, Miss Moore! Thank you Shangri-La Hotel!"

Before entering the stage, this person knew that he was the substitute, but he was in a good state of mind. Knowing that he was unlikely to succeed in the place, he held the idea of coming in to broaden his horizons and the world.

However, after witnessing the magical effect of the Rejuvenating pill just now, he was also extremely eager for it in his heart.

Therefore, he couldn't help regretting that he missed the qualification to bid for the Rejuvenating pill by only one place.

But he never dreamed that the opportunity would come so suddenly.

So he was overjoyed and ran all the way to Travis Lane's seat.

However, as soon as he ran a few steps, he suddenly staggered to the ground, and then he had already knelt on the ground.

Just when everyone thought that he fell down because he was too excited, he knelt on the ground, covered his face and cried loudly.

He cried very sadly. As he cried, he shouted helplessly like a child, "I'm waiting for the qualification to make up the seat, but...but...but I can't afford it!!!"

With this cry, he shouted out the voice of at least half of the people at the scene.

The price of the first quarter of the Rejuvenating pill has reached $2 billion, which he can no longer afford.

What's more, after everyone saw the magical effect of the Rejuvenating pill, the price of it will definitely rise in the future. He have not officially entered the top 200, and his ranking is relatively low. Even if he take out all the cash in his hands for subsequent auctions, it is impossible to win.

Therefore, this person will go through the whole process from heaven to hell so quickly from joy to sadness.

This made him cry from the heart to himself.

Jasmine Moore had no choice but to ask him routinely, “No. 201, would you like to make up for No. 085? If you don’t want to make up for the seat, I can only invite No. 202.”

The man still buried his headache and cried, choking up and said, “I’ll give up and leave the opportunity to others...”

At the end of the crowd, No. 202 stood up with red eyes, suppressed tears, and said tremblingly, “I... I also give up...”

On No. 203, he hesitated for a moment and raised his hand and said, “I also gave up...”

All the people who made up the seats later made statements one by one, indicating that they would give up their qualifications to make up the seats.

It’s not that they don’t want to, but that they really don’t want to have that unrealistic illusion.

Sitting in the back and watching the Rejuvenating pill being patted away, it must feel more comfortable than sitting in the front.

Moreover, when they came to make up for the seat, they didn’t expect that the Rejuvenating pill would be so expensive.

Now this price is really far beyond their ability.

Installments are not allowed at the auction, and it is impossible for them to afford the latter Rejuvenating pill.

Jasmine Moore also understood their feelings very well and said helplessly, “In this case, the qualification of No. 085 is temporarily vacant, and our auction will continue.”

With that, Jasmine Moore looked at the black rich man on the stage and said, “047, please return to your position. Our auction is going on.”

The black rich man who had been tortured by Parkinson for many years and recovered in an instant just now couldn't help asking with a begging face, “Miss Moore, can I continue to participate in the bidding for the Rejuvenating pill later? If I can still compete, I am willing to pay an extra $500 million!”

One by one, the people in the stage changed from envy to anger.

They didn't expect that this guy was still dissatisfied with picking up the bargain, and he even brazenly wanted to continue to participate in the auction.

Some people can't wait to shout scolding.

But at the thought of Travis Lane, who had just been kicked out, they could only shut up angrily.

At this time, Jasmine Moore looked at the black rich man and said seriously, “I'm sorry 047. I have made the relevant requirements very clear. Please respect our rules.”

Seeing this, the black rich had to sigh unwillingly and walked back to his seat.

Everyone saw him walking fast, and their envy and jealousy had reached its peak.

Ferdie Joules was ready at this time. Even if he shot 100 billion US dollars, he would not hesitate to win the final Rejuvenating pill!

Chapter 3893

The auction of the first quarter of Rejuvenation pill ended successfully, and Jasmine Moore immediately began to introduce the second lot in tonight's auction.

The rhythm of the auction tonight is to first shoot a Rejuvenating pill to get the atmosphere up, and then shoot a few pieces of Moore Group's Antique Collection to hang on everyone's appetite, and wait until everyone's appetite and patience are lifted. When it is at its peak, follow up and shoot the second quarter of Rejuvenating pill, and so on.

Therefore, the auction at this time began to display the second collection, an official kiln blue and white plate from the Qianlong period.

At this time, outside the auction venue, Travis Lane was taken to the back lounge by the soldiers of Dragon Hall.

According to Charlie's request, all the expelled bidders could not leave directly, and had to wait in the lounge for the auction to be completed.

Charlie was in the monitoring room just now. Seeing all Travis Lane's performance, he couldn't help feeling a little emotional.

He knew why Travis Lane lost his mind, and he could understand it to a certain extent.

So, he said to Isaac Cameron beside him, "Isaac, keep an eye on the scene first, and I'll go to see Travis Lane."

Isaac Cameron nodded lightly and said respectfully, "Okay young master."

Charlie paced to the lounge where Travis Lane was. At this time, Travis Lane was slumped on the sofa, tears streaming down his face, and at the same time he felt remorse.

He also realized that his behavior just now was extremely immature and extremely irrational.

But the big mistake has been made, and now there is no chance to undo it.

He can't wait to see Charlie now, wants to repent to Charlie in person, and then pray for Charlie's forgiveness. It is best to buy some more Rejuvenating pill from Charlie in private outside the venue.

Even if he really let himself spend two billion dollars for a quarter, he would be willing.

At this moment, the door of the lounge was suddenly pushed open. When Travis Lane saw Charlie walking in, he suddenly stood up from the sofa and said uneasily, "Wade... Master Wade..."

Charlie nodded slightly at him, walked up to him, and said, "Mr. Lane, what happened tonight? Being so reckless is not your style."

Travis Lane let out a long sigh, wiped away his tears, and said with shame, "I'm sorry Master Wade... I..."

Travis Lane hesitated for a long time, and finally choked and said, "It's because I'm not thinking straight..."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "If you didn't got the rejuvenation pill at the beginning, maybe your mentality wouldn't be so bad."

"Yes..." Travis Lane nodded again and again, and said regretfully, "It was because I got that Rejuvenation pill that my mentality was completely unbalanced...I don't know what happened to me. Now, seeing the price of the Rejuvenating pill getting higher and higher, my heart is getting more and more suffocated..."

Charlie said seriously, “Sometimes we will be blinded by our own reasons or the influence of the outside world, so we need to look at the problem from a different angle at this time...”

“You are not very old, and you just got a whole Rejuvenating pill not long ago. Now you are only in your thirties, and you are not sick. Compared with the hundreds of people inside, you are in the best physical condition.”

“Moreover, your luck is much better than everyone present. If you think about it, it doesn’t matter if you miss this Rejuvenating pill auction, but I never thought that your mentality is actually the worst one.”

Travis Lane blurted out, “Master Wade is right...”

Chapter 3894

After he finished speaking, he hurriedly looked at Charlie and choked, “Master Wade, please give me another chance because I made a mistake for the first time. I should not be eligible to participate in this year’s auction, but in future auctions, please don’t remove me!”

Charlie said seriously, “Mr. Lane, I have set up such a big plate and brought so many high-level players here. The most important thing to ensure is the fairness of the game. If the fairness cannot be guaranteed, how will this game continue to be played in the future?”

“But I...” Travis Lane opened his mouth to explain something.

Charlie stretched out his hand at this time and interrupted him, “Mr. Lane, everyone is an adult. If you break the rules, you must bear the consequences of breaking the rules.”

Although Travis Lane was unwilling in his heart, he also knew very well that he had no right to bargain in front of Charlie.

Not to mention Charlie's current status and strength, after this auction alone, Charlie may have netted hundreds or even hundreds of billions of dollars.

Thinking of this, he could only sigh in despair, and said respectfully, "Master Wade, you are right, there are thousands of mistakes, it is my own fault, my fault, I will bear it myself."

Charlie nodded lightly and asked him, "Who came with you today? I didn't see anyone accompanying you."

"Yes..." Travis Lane said hurriedly, "I didn't bring anyone with me this time."

Charlie asked him, "Why don't you bring Caleb?"

Caleb was Charlie's best friend in the orphanage. At the beginning, Charlie introduced him to Travis Lane, and Travis Lane really gave him face, and let him be his driver and assistant, and the annual salary was 2 million.

Travis Lane listened to Charlie's question about Caleb, and said with embarrassment, "Master Wade... I originally wanted to bring Caleb with me, but during this time, many people in Lancaster were exhausted. They want to know why I am so young a while ago, and I really don't want to let the people in Lancaster to know this secret, so I was cautious and didn't bring Caleb here..."

Speaking of this, Travis Lane sighed and laughed at himself, "I'm still too small...too small..."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "Mr. Lane, with your current physical condition, there is basically no problem in living happily for another fifty years, so let's look at the rejuvenation pill first, and focus on your career. Make more money and do more good deeds, and even if you can't participate in the Rejuvenating pill auction, there are other ways to get Rejuvenating pill."

When Travis Lane heard this, he asked excitedly, “Master Wade, is this true?!”

Charlie nodded and said seriously, “Aurous Hill has raised me for nearly 20 years. Now I have some abilities, I also want to make some contributions to this city. Next, I will develop many high-end projects in Aurous Hill to promote the city. Among the many development projects that have been identified, there is a high-end health-preserving real estate project, if you can join in, you will also have the opportunity to get a Rejuvenating pill.”

Travis Lane said excitedly, “Master Wade, I am willing to join! Please give me a chance, I will move all my business to Aurous Hill, pay taxes every year, create jobs for Aurous Hill, and increase the construction of it bricks to bricks!”

Charlie nodded and said, “If you have this idea, I naturally welcome it. When the time comes, these projects will be developed by the Emgrand Group, you can pay more attention.”

Travis Lane’s eyes were red, and he choked, “Thank you, Master Wade! Thank you!”

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3895-3898

Chapter 3895

Seeing that Travis Lane’s mood had been appeased, Charlie said to him, “Okay, Mr. Lane, you can rest here first. You can leave when the auction is over. You can pay more attention to what I just said, and I will also say hello to Doris Young of Emgrand Group, so that she can communicate with you in time if she has any progress.”

Travis Lane was grateful and bowed quickly, “Thank you, Master Wade, for taking care of me. I won’t forget your kindness!”

After saying that, he said without thinking, “I will go back to Lancaster tonight and call all my men to meet to discuss how to transfer the group business to Aurous Hill as soon as possible!”

“If Master Wade has any use for me in the future, or needs me to do, just tell me and I will do my best!”

Charlie nodded and smiled, “Okay, stay here and adjust your mentality. I’ll go first.”

Travis Lane hurriedly, “Good Master Wade, I will definitely adjust and reflect!”

Charlie hummed and stepped away from the lounge.

After Charlie left, Travis Lane’s body softened and collapsed on the ground in an instant. Then, he breathed a sigh, and he felt relieved.

He knew that Charlie was right. He really didn’t need the Rejuvenating pill at present, but it doesn’t mean that he didn’t need it in decades.

Now, he didn’t got the Rejuvenating pill, but also ruined his qualifications to participate in the auction in the future, which is indeed equivalent to cutting off his way out.

Fortunately, Charlie also left him other opportunities, otherwise it would be too late to regret it.

At this time, at the auction site, after a successful auction of several ordinary goods, Jasmine Moore smiled and said, “Thank you for your support for our auction. Next, it will be another time for attracting public attention, because the next auction item is the second quarter of the Rejuvenating pill. If you are interested, please prepare for bidding.”

As soon as Jasmine Moore said this, everyone at the scene immediately sat up straight.

Since they witnessed the amazing changes to the black rich man, everyone can't wait to get the second quarter of Rejuvenating pill.

At this moment, everyone at the scene no longer questioned the efficacy of the Rejuvenating pill, and everyone was extremely eager for it.

Some people pass the economic strength, so now they have begun to brush their hands and are eager to have a try.

And some people know that they can't afford it at all, so they can only give up the competition reluctantly.

At this time, Jasmine Moore continued, "Next, I will ask our staff to send the second quarter of the Rejuvenating pill to the stage!"

A etiquette lady came up again with a delicate silver plate, and above this silver plate was the second quarter of the Rejuvenating pill that everyone was looking forward to.

After Miss Etiquette carefully placed the silver plate on the display table, Jasmine Moore smiled and said, "The starting price of the second quarter of Rejuvenating pill is still 100 million US dollars, and the price increase rule is still the minimum price increase of 10 million per time. Now, interested buyers can start bidding!"

Chapter 3896

As soon as he finished speaking, the former Middle Eastern rich man raised his hand without thinking and shouted, "I'll make 2 billion!"

The first bid suddenly doubled the starting price by 20 times. I'm afraid it's impossible to put it at any auction.

But at this moment, no one at the scene thought the price was unexpected.

After all, everyone knows very well that the price of the first quarter of Rejuvenating pill has been sold at this price, and how can the second one be lower than it?

If the second one rises from $100 million, there will be something wrong with the people present.

Therefore, as soon as the Middle East rich man said 2 billion US dollars, someone immediately raised his hand, “2.2 billion!”

Before Jasmine Moore could quote the other party’s number, someone immediately raised her hand again, “ 2.5 billion!”

“3 Billion!”

“3.5 Billion!”

“4 Billion!”

“5 Billion!”

In more than ten seconds, the price was continuously bided on the spot, directly pushed to a height of $5 billion.

However, the sound of bidding is still endless.

“5.5 Billion!”

“What about 100 million plus? I’ll make it 5.6 billion!”

“I’ll make it 5.8! I want to get it!”

The rich man in the Middle East looked left and right, and he was stunned.

He thought he would need 2 billion as soon as he opened his mouth to think he was already very bold.

But he didn't expect that he just made a guest appearance as a hair gun.

This is simply crazy. How many people can afford it with $5.8 billion?

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but think of his stupid behavior of missing the first quarter of Rejuvenating pill, and his heart was extremely broken.

So he gritted his teeth and shouted again, "6 Billion! I'll make it 6 Billion..."

Before he finished speaking, the person who barked for 5.8 billion just now shouted again, "6.8 billion! Send it on the road!"

The Middle Eastern rich man suddenly wanted to cry without tears.

He made a very big decision to bid for 6 billion, but the other party didn't even give himself a chance to finish talking!

The feeling of despair suddenly surged from the bottom of his heart to his whole body. He only felt numb and his limbs were cold.

The price exceeded 6.8 billion US dollars, which has exceeded his cash flow, which also means that he has completely withdrawn from the auction of Rejuvenating pill from now on.

Thinking of this, he twitched his mouth again and said with hatred, "Fool! You idiot!!"

However, no one pays attention to his self-harm, because everyone's enthusiasm for bidding has not been scared by the 6.8 billion offer at all.

Soon, an American rich man sat still in his seat, asked his entourage to raise his hand, and then opened his mouth and said, "I'll make 7 Billion!"

The speaker is a white American as young as 40 years old.

He is a well-known Internet entrepreneur named Todd in Silicon Valley. He founded a company that was listed on the Nasdaq a few years ago and now has a market value of more than $100 billion.

And he is not only an outstanding entrepreneur, but also an outdoor explorer with great adventurous spirit.

During the ski season the year before last, he accidentally encountered an avalanche while skiing in Switzerland.

Although he survived, his body was seriously damaged in an avalanche. After being rescued, like Jacob before, he was diagnosed with high paraplegia caused by spinal cord injury.

Although he sits there no differently like a normal person, he has completely lost control below his neck.

For a middle-aged man with strong strength and family, such an encounter is simply worse than death.

In the past two years, he has tried all the cutting-edge medical technologies in the world, but failed to save him from the abyss of high paraplegia.

After accidentally learning the news of the Rejuvenating pill, he also signed up with the mentality of coming and taking a look and preferring to kill the wrong thing than let go.

Originally, he didn't have much hope for the Rejuvenating pill, but after witnessing the severe Parkinson patient recovering in an instant, he was full of confidence and desire for it!

Chapter 3897

Todd's $7 billion price tag doesn't scare off competitors.

Just then, another rich man raised his hand, "7.2 Billion!"

The Chinese rich man who had called 5.8 billion and 6.8 billion before was already pale.

Although his bid is very generous, in fact, he is not really cheap.

The limit he can bear is about eight billion. The reason why he increased the price twice is to scare off other competitors before his own limit is touched.

But if this is an auction for ordinary commodities, his method may be effective. Now, it is not the commodity that is auctioned on the stage, but the lifespan!

A terminally ill patient has a great chance of being completely cured by a quarter of Rejuvenating pill. Although it may not be able to be a few years younger, as long as the terminally ill body can be cured, it is enough to prolong life for several years, or even decades.

After all, some of them are only fifty or sixty years old. After suffering from a terminal illness, they can only live a few more years if they have money, but if the terminal illness is completely cured, with their financial resources, it is not difficult to live to the age of 10 years more.

Therefore, what is on the stage is not a Rejuvenating pill at all, but a life span that everyone can use!

In this case, no matter what kind of psychological tactics you play, even if all the liquidity is studded, you must do your best to get the Rejuvenating pill!

However, among the crowd, there are still a few people with relatively calm expressions, and no one has ever participated in the bidding.

These few people have the strength to compete for the Rejuvenating pill, but they have been holding back their energy and going to bid for the last one.

Among them, Ferdie Joules and Bernard Elna, who was pitted 2 billion by Charlie, were also included.

In addition, there are several bidders whose declared assets are not high.

When they declared assets and cooperated with capital verification, they all selectively took out part of their assets, so their declared worth were only about 100 billion US dollars. However, these people are actually very powerful top hidden wealth.

Among them, there is a middle-aged man whose face is somewhat handsome. He had no intention of raising his hand, and his eyes were always staring at the Rejuvenating pill on the stage, with a cold expression on his face.

At this moment, an entourage next to him whispered, "Eldest young master, according to the current trend, the last Rejuvenating pill will really cost hundreds of billions!"

The middle-aged man nodded lightly, and said without changing his face, "No matter how much the price is, we must do whatever it takes to win this Rejuvenating pill!"

At this time, the on-site bidding continues.

The price has been called all the way to 8.8 billion.

After reaching this price, the voice of bidding has been significantly reduced.

Although all the people who came were rich, it was indeed rare to see someone who could give out 8.8 billion US dollars.

The older Chinese brother had bowed his head deeply and gave up the struggle with tears in his eyes.

At this time, Todd gritted his teeth and pushed the price up to nine billion.

Immediately afterwards, another person also began to be cautious, adding 100 million US dollars to his base.

And the one who offered 9 billion seemed to be ready for a tug-of-war, so he added 100 million to the 9.1 billion.

The two of them came and went, gradually leaving others behind, and gradually pushing the price to 9.9 billion US dollars.

Chapter 3898

At this time, both sides of the fight had a feeling that they were about to die together.

Others at the scene began to calculate the current situation in their minds.

Some people think that this second quarter of Rejuvenating pill may be the most expensive of the four tonight.

Because they have just witness the effect of the first quarter of Rejuvenating pill on stage, it made everyone lose their minds and fight frantically.

Therefore, the person who can get this Rejuvenating pill at this stage is likely to be the strongest among the others except those who plan to compete for the last whole Rejuvenating pill.

In this case, it is better to let the strongest one quickly take away the second quarter of the Rejuvenating pill. Without him, the price of the next two quarters will likely drop.

It is because of this level of thought that several people who still have the strength to continue to increase their prices have also given up their bids one after another.

However, they were wrong. They thought they were the smartest, but they didn't think about it. In fact, there were many people at the scene who thought the same as them.

So, when Todd raised the price to $10 billion, the other guy gave up the competition.

He felt that when this powerful competitor withdrew, the strongest player in the audience might be himself.

Moreover, just now, he started a one-on-one fight with him from nine billion dollars, and the others couldn't keep up.

In that case, as long as he took away the second quarter of Rejuvenating pill, when he competed for the third quarter, he might only need nine billion to win it.

Wouldn't that save a billion dollars?

Although at this kind of perverted auction, money is no longer valuable, but a billion dollars is a huge amount of wealth wherever it goes out of this door. If there is a chance to save it, why not save it?

At this time, Jasmine Moore finally had the opportunity to make an offer.

The price of 10 billion US dollars has shocked her beyond recognition.

She quietly wiped the sweat from her hands with a tissue, picked up the wooden hammer, and said, “No. 071 currently priced the second quarter of Rejuvenating pill at 10 billion US dollars. Is there anyone on the scene who has a higher price than this? If so, please raise your hand!”

The place was silent.

Jasmine Moore nodded and said with a slight smile, “Okay, the first time for ten billion dollars!”

“Ten billion dollars for the second time! This is the second quarter of Rejuvenating pill tonight. If there are customers who want to compete, please hurry up.”

There was still no response at the scene.

Jasmine Moore continued, “Third time for ten billion dollars!”

“Sold!”

“Thank you No. 071, the second Rejuvenating pill is yours!”

When Jasmine Moore dropped the hammer, Todd, a new Silicon Valley entrepreneur who finally succeeded in getting the second quarter of Rejuvenating pill for US$10 billion, burst into tears with excitement.

Many people looked at him, and some of them recognized Todd immediately.

Todd is not only famous in Silicon Valley, but also famous all over the world. He is often reported by the media of various countries. He can be regarded as an outstanding young entrepreneur in the world.

The difference between young entrepreneurs and many invisible millionaires is that most of the wealth of invisible millionaires comes from the cultivation and inheritance of their ancestors for many years.

However, most young entrepreneurs like Todd start from scratch, and the accumulation of wealth is very fast, so it is difficult to keep a low profile.

Not only him, but even the richer and more successful Tesla boss Elon Musk and Facebook boss Mark Zuckerberg can't hide their wealth from the world.

Because of his inability to hide himself, the news of Todd's injury in Switzerland was the same as the news of Schumacher's skiing injury. Once it broke out, it made headlines around the world, and almost everyone knew it.

Therefore, after the people around him recognized him, they immediately remembered that he had a major accident in skiing before, and he had already been a high paraplegic.

Therefore, everyone is looking forward to it.

They also want to know, since the Rejuvenating pill can cure Parkinson's disease, then this kind of high spinal paraplegia, which has absolutely no possibility of recovery in medicine, can also be cured?

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3899-3900

Chapter 3899

Although the condition of high paraplegia cannot be reversed medically, for the Rejuvenating pill, it seems to be overkill.

In fact, Jacob is all too familiar with this situation.

At the beginning, his injury was almost the same as Todd.

But Charlie cured him using only half of life-saving pill.

And the level of Life-Saving Pill is far worse than the Rejuvenating Pill.

Therefore, a quarter of Rejuvenating pill is more than enough to treat this disease.

At this time, Todd, with the help of the sturdy entourage by his side, called his finances, and couldn't wait to instruct the other party to pay ten billion dollars directly to the designated account of the auction.

After receiving the payment, Jasmine Moore said, "The finance department just told me that the payment has been confirmed. Next, please come on stage No. 071 and take the second quarter of Rejuvenation pill!"

Todd couldn't wait, and gave the entourage beside him a gesture with his eyes, and the other party immediately picked him up from the seat.

High paraplegia for two years made Todd's body very thin, and his body muscles also had a very obvious atrophy. This was because the body lost the ability to move, and the sequelae caused by being unable to move for a long time, even if he has been accepting the best rehabilitation training, it cannot prevent this from happening.

At the moment, Todd, although he is 1.8 meters tall, weighs less than 100 pounds, so the entourage easily carried him to the stage.

On the stage, Jasmine Moore also asked someone to prepare a chair, and the chair was placed in front of the stage where the quarter of Rejuvenating pill was displayed, so that Todd could sit and take the medicine.

For the organizers who have always been cold, this can be regarded as giving Todd a special humanitarian care.

Todd was naturally very excited. As soon as he sat down, he couldn't wait to open his mouth, looking forward to the moment the Rejuvenating pill entered into his mouth and stood up again.

Jasmine Moore explained to him the rules of the Rejuvenating pill auction as usual, that is, he can no longer participate in the remaining Rejuvenating pill auctions.

Todd nodded again and again without hesitation. Although he couldn't wait, he still respected Jasmine Moore's professionalism. After she finished speaking, he said seriously, "Okay Miss Moore, I understand what you mean, and I won't participate in the remaining Rejuvenating pill anymore."

"Okay." Jasmine Moore smiled slightly and said, "Then I ask our staff to help you take the quarter of the Rejuvenating pill."

Immediately, under the watchful eyes of everyone, the staff around him picked up the Rejuvenating pill and put it into Todd's mouth.

The staff made sure that everyone could see the Rejuvenating pill in his hand all the time, so as to avoid anyone doubting whether the Rejuvenating pill would be tampered with.

When the quarter of Rejuvenating pill was put into Todd's mouth, Todd only felt a warm flow to his throat, and then he no longer felt any sensation.

This is because people with high paraplegia, starting from the neck and going all the way down, do not have any neurosensory ability.

After a few seconds, though, Todd could feel his body sending a long-lost warmth to his brain.

This feeling is like soaking in a hot spring in winter, or being irradiated by the warm sun, very comfortable.

This is because the efficacy of the Rejuvenating pill has already begun to repair Todd's damaged spinal cord, allowing him to repair his broken nervous system, so he can feel the warmth that the Rejuvenating pill brings to his body.

Chapter 3900

Todd himself has been paralyzed for two years, and he knows very well what kind of despair his whole body feels like a black hole without any perception. Therefore, when he suddenly felt the warmth from his body, he immediately shouted excitedly, "I feel it! I feel it! I feel the warmth coming from my body!"

His sudden shout made everyone amazed.

The people sitting here are all rich people, and their education level is not low, so when they heard him say this, they know what it means.

The biggest problem of high paraplegia is that the nerves of the brain and the body are disconnected, so they lose control and perception.

Now Todd only took the quarter of Rejuvenating pill for a few seconds, and he could feel the warmth of his body immediately, which proved that the Rejuvenating pill played a decisive role in the most critical place within a few seconds.

Todd didn't feel anything for too long, and then, the intense pain that was everywhere in the whole body came quickly.

His whole body screamed in pain, which startled everyone else.

This pain is all over the body, but especially the pain in the limbs is particularly severe.

This is because his muscles have been atrophied for too long. This muscle atrophy was originally very painful, but fortunately, muscle atrophy is usually caused by paralysis, and the patient loses the neural perception of the atrophy. You can't feel the pain from the nervous system after muscle atrophy.

However, now the Rejuvenating pill is rapidly repairing Todd's body, and the first thing to repair is his nervous system, so this severe pain is instantly fed back to the brain, causing him to die from the pain.

And Todd himself didn't know what caused the pain.

After all, his doctor had never told him that muscle atrophy would make him feel pain.

In fact, it is impossible for doctors to say such words, because for doctors, such words are like telling a blind man that the sun is too bright outside to make him feel dazzling, and it is disrespectful to the disabled.

Therefore, at this moment Todd thought that his pain was because of something wrong with the rejuvenation pill.

So he subconsciously reached out and lifted all his sleeves and trouser legs, trying to see why his limbs were causing such intense pain.

It didn't matter what he saw, all the audience at the scene saw his skinny limbs.

His limbs have become completely skinny, like four thin wooden sticks, the proportions are very out of balance.

Moreover, the skin has almost lost its vitality, like a dying old man, not only showing a sickly dark brown, but also full of folds and cracks, which looks particularly shocking.

However, who would have thought that at this moment, the skin of his limbs began to recover quickly, the wrinkled and cracked skin began to quickly stretch, and the skin color began to become lighter and lighter at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Soon, although his limbs were still slender, the condition of his skin had greatly improved, becoming white and tender. Compared with just now, it was almost like new.

As the atrophied muscles and skin were greatly relieved, Todd's pain began to gradually subside until it disappeared.

As the pain disappeared, it was replaced by an unprecedented sense of comfort.

Immediately afterwards, Todd also felt that the strength of his limbs began to recover.

He couldn't help but put his hands on both sides of the chair, his legs slammed hard, and the whole person actually stood up on the spot!

At this moment, more than 400 people at the scene were shocked!

The entire venue was full of exclamations and uproars.

Immediately afterwards, there was a lot of discussion below like a frying pan.

It is understandable that the Rejuvenating pill can cure Parkinson's disease. Perhaps this drug can repair the human nervous system. After all, the cause of Parkinson's disease is caused by the degeneration of the nervous system.

Based on this, it is understandable that high paraplegia can be cured.

After all, it and Parkinson's are both neurological problems.

It's just that Parkinson's is a natural degeneration of the nervous system, and high paraplegia is generally due to external damage to the nervous system.

What everyone can't understand is how it makes Todd's limbs like dead wood, in the blink of an eye, immediately withered and spring?
