

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3901-3940

Ferdie Joules, who was sitting in the second row, saw Todd's shrunken and dry limbs revived in an instant. In addition to being extremely shocked, he couldn't help but whispered to Flint Yeager beside him, "Master Yeager, you are well-informed, have you ever heard that there is such a magic medicine in this world?"

Flint Yeager shook his head with a dazed look on his face. At this moment, his heart was already overturned.

He is a martial artist, and his understanding of the world is a level deeper than that of ordinary people, but even so, he has never seen such a miraculous medicine.

So he sighed, "To tell you the truth Lord Joules, I have lived for so long, and I have never seen such a magical medicine."

"This kind of magical power has far exceeded my cognition."

Ferdie Joules sneered and said seriously, "Speaking from the bottom of my heart, this situation reminds me of when Michaela was young, I accompanied her to watch the 86th edition of Journey to the West in China. We saw Sun Wukong toppling the ginseng fruit tree..."

Flint Yeager nodded and sighed, "Although I haven't read that version of "Journey to the West", before I was fifteen years old, I had read the original book of "Journey to the West" three times, and I was very familiar with this plot."

After that, Flint Yeager said with a look of longing, "Lord Joules, this time, the Rejuvenating pill has the effect of turning corruption into a miraculous effect. Even if it is compared with the fairy medicine in fairy tales, I am afraid it will not fall behind.”

Ferdie Joules asked curiously, “Why do you think this medicine is so magical? What is its principle?”

Flint Yeager pondered for a moment, then seriously said, “Master once told me that there are two more powerful beings above the internal strength of martial arts, one of which is true qi, which is only for experts above the dark realm. A kind of internal power mastered by chance, and above true qi, there is spiritual qi!”

After that, he said with a serious expression, “I feel that this Rejuvenating pill should have something to do with spiritual energy. Even if it does not contain spiritual energy, at least it is made from spiritual energy, otherwise it will never have such an effect!”

Ferdie Joules asked inexplicably, “Master Yeager, why do you conclude that it has something to do with spiritual energy and not true qi?”

Flint Yeager explained, “True qi and spiritual energy have different in strength, just like an ant and an elephant.”

“Although the power disparity is huge, there is no difference in essence. True qi is so great that it can destroy the dead, but it can’t rejuvenate with a wonderful hand.”

Speaking of this, Flint Yeager continued, “However, the spiritual energy is completely different. According to my master, the spiritual energy is the most fundamental energy for the growth of all things. Only this kind of energy can transform decay into magic. Its realm has completely jumped out of the category of martial arts...”

Ferdie Joules was slightly startled, and asked subconsciously, "If it's really as you said, wouldn't the person behind the Rejuvenating pill this time become the legendary cultivator?"

Flint Yeager shook his head and said, "I can't be sure of this either. After all, my master said that in the past few hundred years, there seems to be no record of spiritual energy, so this Rejuvenating pill may also be a person with supernatural powers who possessed spiritual energy hundreds of years ago. It was only made by chance and passed into someone's hands, and then it was put up for auction."

Ferdie Joules asked him, "Master Yeager, what if this Rejuvenating pill was made by someone who has mastered the spiritual energy?"

Chapter 3902

Flint Yeager was stunned for a moment, then said, "Although I can't rule out this possibility, I still can't believe it. As my master said, the cultivation of spiritual energy has long been lost, and it is unlikely that it will suddenly appear in Aurous Hill at this time. So I believe even more that this time, the Rejuvenating was made by the predecessors."

Ferdie Joules said with a solemn expression, "Master Yeager, if it's just about the Rejuvenating pill, I can still agree with your statement, but you have never thought about Louis Rogers disappeared in Aurous Hill!"

Flint Yeager's expression suddenly froze, his whole person frowned and thoughtful.

At this time, Todd on the stage, after standing in silence for a long time, suddenly turned around, looked at Jasmine Moore, and said gratefully, "Miss Moore, thank you and the Moore Group's Antique Collection for giving me this new life!"

After that, he bowed deeply to Jasmine Moore, and when he looked up, tears were already streaming down his face.

Jasmine Moore said seriously, “No. 071, you don’t need to thank me or the Moore Group’s Antique Collection. What really gave you a new life is the Rejuvenating pill.”

Todd said gratefully, “Yes! I can stand up again, all thanks to the Rejuvenating pill...”

Jasmine Moore smiled slightly and said, “Okay No. 071, please go back to your seat, our auction will continue.”

Todd nodded hurriedly, wiping away his tears, and strode off the stage.

Everyone felt as if Todd walked back to his seat with his own eyes.

Because, just now, this guy was picked up by someone, and he was completely paralyzed except for the mouth and eyes above the neck that were able to move.

But in the blink of an eye, this person walked off the stage by himself. This huge contrast between the front and the back is really impactful.

At this time, more people began to regret in their hearts, regretting that they did not try their best to compete for the second quarter of Rejuvenating pill.

On the stage, Jasmine Moore smiled slightly, “Tonight, two of the four quarters of Rejuvenating pill have been sold and there are only two quarters and a whole Rejuvenating pill remaining. If you missed this time, the next time you can try to join this auction again may be at least will take a year to wait, so please take the last three chances for bidders who are sitting and who have not yet captured the Rejuvenating pill.”

As soon as these words came out, those who were jealous of the Rejuvenating pill at the scene were even more anxious, especially those who knew that they were not qualified to compete for the last whole

Rejuvenating pill. They were very clear at this moment that their real opportunity has only twice left!

Immediately afterwards, Jasmine Moore added, “The next item is quite special, it has not appeared in our auction materials and catalogues before, it is a good thing that we deliberately kept secret, and we have only brought it out to share with you now.”

Saying that, she asked the staff to bring up the auction items.

The staff took the silver plate to the stage again, but the silver plate contained four colorful shell products the size of a thumb.

Jasmine Moore opened her mouth to introduce seriously at this time, “These four amulets are made of top-quality Tridacna, from a Feng shui master in Aurous Hill, and have the effect of warding off evil spirits and eliminating disasters. The starting price is 10 million US dollars per piece. Bidders, you can bid now.”

When Jasmine Moore finished speaking, a group of people below scoffed.

The Rejuvenating pill’s starting price of 100 million US dollars does not matter, but a broken amulet is too embarrassed to ask for 10 million dollars? How is this different from stealing money?

Even if this amulet is made by the top Feng Shui master, in their eyes, it is not worth so much money at all.

However, no one would have thought that Orion Exeor and Lord Wade, who were invited as VIPs, raised their hands in unison and said at the same time, “I will give ten million!”

Everyone was stunned.

Many Chinese here have heard of Orion Exeor's name and know that he is the real Feng Shui master, but they never thought that he would actually bid for an amulet made by another unknown Feng Shui master. A bit outrageous, right?

There is also Lord Wade, the head of the Wade family, who has not made any bids for so long. At this time, he suddenly bids for the amulet, which seems a little incomprehensible.

However, Orion Exeor and Lord Wade both knew very well that this amulet was made by Charlie himself, so there must be something different!

And the starting price is only 10 million US dollars, which can be regarded as high quality and low price.

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3903-3906

Orion Exeor and Lord Wade bid at the same time, and all of a sudden, others at the scene became interested in this amulet.

At this time, Lord Wade did not think that Orion Exeor was also interested in this amulet, so he smiled and made a gesture of invitation, and said politely, "Mr. Exeor, you can get it first, I will not compete with you."

Orion Exeor cupped his hands and smiled and said, "Thank you Lord Wade for giving way for me. Since this is the case, then I will take this one first, and the next one, I will not compete with you."

Lord Wade laughed, nodded and said, "Very good, Mr. Exeor, please!"

Orion Exeor immediately raised his hand and said, "I will pay 20 million!"

Jasmine Moore hurriedly said, “Mr. Exeor, the price of the amulet is increased by one million dollars each time. You don’t have to call it so high.”

Orion Exeor waved his hand, “No problem, no problem.”

Jasmine Moore had no choice but to nod her head and said seriously, “For the first amulet, the distinguished VIP Mr. Exeor offered 20 million US dollars. Does someone wants to bid higher than this price?”

Although everyone at the scene was very interested in this amulet, most of them knew Orion Exeor’s identity and respected him, so no one bid him for a while.

However, although everyone did not bid, they still secretly calculated in their hearts what was so powerful about this amulet that Mr. Exeor would be willing to give 20 million dollars to compete.

Ferdie Joules also whispered, “Brother Exeor and the Wade family’s patriarch have sat here for so long without bidding for the Rejuvenating pill, why are they suddenly interested in this kind of amulet?”

After that, he asked Flint Yeager who was beside him, “Master Yeager, what do you think is so special about this amulet?”

Flint Yeager stared at the big screen carefully for a long time, and said seriously, “Lord Joules, these four amulets are indeed made of top-quality Tridacna, and Tridacna of this quality has rarely been seen in these years, and Tridacna is a treasure of heaven and earth, and it has the effect of strengthening the righteousness and eliminating evil. If it is worn, it will be more or less beneficial.”

After speaking, Flint Yeager said again, “However, it should not be so expensive. After all, this amulet only uses a small piece of clam, and I don’t know the strength of the Feng Shui master who made it. So there is no way to infer how effective this amulet is.”

Ferdie Joules nodded and said, “Although I don’t know how effective this thing is, since Brother Exeor is interested, it must be extraordinary.”

After that, he made up his mind and said, “I will also compete for the next one!”

Flint Yeager hurriedly said, “Lord Joules, don’t bid for the next one for now. I think the Wade family’s Patriarch is also interested in the next one, so let him bid first. After all, this auction was jointly organized by the Wade family and the Moore family. The Patriarch of the Wade family is present in person, and it is considered half the host. Although we are guests from afar, we still need to give this face to the host.”

Ferdie Joules nodded lightly and said, “Then I’ll take the third shot.”

At this time, no one else was bidding with Orion Exeor, so Jasmine Moore simply dropped the hammer after asking three times.

Orion Exeor was in a particularly happy mood when he got the amulet. He knew that he was not capable of competing for the Rejuvenating pill, so he had no choice but to watch.

However, it was also a very rare thing for him to be able to get an amulet made by Charlie himself.

Chapter 3904

According to the regulations of the auction, other products except the Rejuvenating pill will not be delivered to the bidders until the auction is over, so Jasmine Moore directly started the auction of the second amulet.

This time, Lord Wade raised his hand without hesitation and offered ten million dollars.

Interestingly, other people who participated in the auction also knew that the Wade family was one of the organizers of this auction. After the bidding, no one on the scene competed with him to bid.

Therefore, Lord Wade also easily took the second amulet.

Immediately after the third amulet, the number of bidders suddenly increased.

Prices started at $10 million and quickly went up to $87 million.

At this time, Ferdie Joules raised his hand calmly and said, "I will pay 200 million."

The quotation of 200 million US dollars is equivalent to double the previous quotation and make up the whole.

As soon as this price came out, it instantly scared off many people who were planning to compete.

After all, amulets are different from the Rejuvenating pill. Everyone has witnessed the effects of the Rejuvenating pill, but no one knows how powerful amulets are.

The price of such a amulet is 200 million US dollars? It can definitely be regarded as the most expensive amulet in the world.

No one at the scene was willing to offer a price higher than $200 million, so the third amulet was successfully bought by Ferdie Joules.

When it came to the fourth amulet, some interested bidders quickly pushed the price to 150 million US dollars, but at this stage of the bidding, perhaps they felt that the amulet was really not worth so much money, and many people have already withdrew from the competition.

At this moment, someone in the crowd suddenly raised their hand and said lightly, "I will pay 300 million."

The one who spoke was the previous middle-aged man who was handsome and has a good temperament.

Ferdie Joules only felt that the voice was a little familiar, and he looked at the sound subconsciously. When he saw this person's appearance, his heart suddenly froze, and his expression instantly became solemn.

At this time, the middle-aged man's offer of $300 million successfully frightened the others.

Although the people sitting here are quite rich, it is indeed difficult to accept the 300 million US dollars for an amulet with unknown effect.

So, the scene was silent for a while.

Jasmine Moore said, "No. 099 offered $300 million for the last amulet. Is there any higher bid than this?"

There was still no answer at the scene.

After asking three times, Jasmine Moore announced directly, "Congratulations to bidder No. 099 for winning the last amulet tonight at a price of $300 million."

At this time, Charlie in the surveillance room was staring at the middle-aged man who had just bought the amulet for $300 million in the surveillance video.

At a certain moment, Charlie always felt that this person was a bit familiar.

However, if he really wanted to say where he had seen him, he couldn't tell for a while.

So, he instructed Isaac Cameron, "Isaac, find out who is this number 099 and where he came from."

Isaac Cameron immediately took out the list and flipped through it for a while, then said, "Master, number 099 is Jefferson Hawkins, from Vancouver, Canada."

Charlie nodded lightly. In his memory, he didn't know someone who is Canadian.

As for why this Jefferson Hawkins looked familiar, Charlie felt that either he remembered it wrong, or this Jefferson Hawkins hid his identity like Michaela Joules.

If the identity is hidden, it would be difficult for Charlie to find out the true identity of the other party in a short period of time, because each of these rich people has multiple identities. Although each identity has a different name and nationality, all of them can be verified as real identity without exception.

However, he felt that the possibility of the former should be greater.

At this time, Jasmine Moore, who was at the auction site, announced loudly, "The next item that will be on stage is the third quarter of Rejuvenating pill! There are not many opportunities for the Rejuvenating pill, please take good care of it and don't leave any regrets for yourself."

Hearing this, the spirits of everyone on the scene were lifted again.

Because Todd took the second rejuvenation pill just now, everyone saw the more magical effect of the Rejuvenating pill with their own eyes.

Therefore, many people have already begun to gear up at this moment, and decided to take down the third quarter of the Rejuvenating pill at all costs.

The staff once again served a Rejuvenating pill on a silver plate, and Jasmine Moore said with a smile, "The starting price of the third quarter of the Rejuvenating pill remains unchanged, it is still 100 million US dollars, and each time the price is increased by 10 million, I see everyone sitting here is already gearing up, so I won't waste everyone's time, the auction starts now, please bid!"

As soon as the voice fell, someone shouted, "Five billion!"

As soon as the man's voice fell, someone opened his mouth and said, "If it is five billion, I will pay 10 billion!"

Everyone knows that it is impossible for the third quarter of the Rejuvenating pill to be sold at a price lower than 10 billion, and it is not surprising that the price is 10 billion in two bids.

So, although the third quarter of the Rejuvenating pill started at US$100 million, it was pushed to the price of US$10 billion in less than ten seconds.

The one who offered ten billion US dollars was the rich man who wanted to let Todd go first, so that he could get a bargain on the third quarter of the Rejuvenating pill.

He originally thought that this Rejuvenating pill could be won by himself for almost 9 billion US dollars, but who would have thought that many people were deeply impressed by the effects after Todd took it, so he quit the competition early in the last round. This round is almost insisting on gritted teeth.

Therefore, when the rich man quoted a price of 10 billion US dollars, someone immediately added another 100 million US dollars to his quotation.

Immediately afterwards, the price continued to move higher.

It was quickly pushed to a new high of $12 billion by several other bidders.

The rich man has regretted it too much at this time, but there is no way to regret it. If he doesn't fight again, there will be more variables when it comes to the fourth quarter of the Rejuvenating pill.

So, he gritted his teeth, raised his hand, and said in a trembling voice, "I will pay 13 billion!"

As soon as the words fell, someone immediately raised their hand, "13.5 billion!"

No one expected that when the price reached 13.5 billion, there were still many people on the scene who were unwilling to give up.

As a result, the price rushes higher and higher in the constant bidding of the crowd.

14 billion, 15 billion, 16 billion...

The price has been on a tear all the way, breaking through the billion mark one after another, and even without stopping, it directly broke through the 18.7 billion mark.

In the process of rising prices, one after another was left behind.

It's not that they don't want to get the Rejuvenating pill, it's just that the price is too high, beyond their ability to bear.

Even if some people were willing to pay that much, they wouldn't be able to put out $10 or 20 billion in cash right away tonight.

With so much money, at least part of the assets must be sold, or even a part of the shares can be mortgaged or reduced to make it possible.

Chapter 3906

As a result, many people gave up the auction with tears in their eyes, and at the same time regretted in their hearts, regretting the first quarter for 2 billion US dollars and the second quarter for 10 billion US dollars. They just watch the opportunity slip by before their eyes.

Even the rich man who thought he could win the third quarter of the Rejuvenating pill with nine billion, cried bitterly and gave up the bid for no other reason, either because he had no money, or because the current price had exceeded his ability to pay.

In the end, this Rejuvenating pill was sold for 18.5 billion by a Jewish businessman in his seventies.

The Jewish businessman suffered from chronic diseases such as diabetes, high blood pressure and coronary heart disease for many years, and his physical condition was declining day by day.

Some time ago, his doctor found that his serum creatinine index remained high. After the doctor's diagnosis, his kidneys had also begun to irreversibly decline.

Coupled with the other diseases, the doctor speculated that he would enter the end-stage renal disease within a few years.

At that point, he will have to live on long-term dialysis, or hope for a kidney transplant.

With so many chronic diseases and his poor physical fitness, doctors estimate that his life expectancy will hardly exceed ten years.

Even though he is only 70 years old this year, he looks very old, how can he look like 70 years old, many people believe that he is 85 years old or even 90 years old.

After he successfully bought this Rejuvenating pill, he slowly walked up to the stage with the help of his own son.

On the stage, after praying devoutly, he gratefully took the third Rejuvenating pill that the staff fed into his mouth.

This time, the audience witnessed the turn of time with their own eyes.

The old-fashioned old man has become much younger at a speed visible to the naked eye, and his originally hunched body has gradually become taller.

This rich Jewish man does not know how much the chronic disease in his body has improved at the moment, but he can feel that the condition of his entire body is improving at an extremely fast rate, and he soon felt his whole body become much lighter.

Not to mention ten years younger, at least he has regained his state of being five years ago.

This made him very excited. He knelt on the ground alone, looked up at the top of his head, and performed some kind of religious ceremony with words in his mouth.

At this time, monitor the room.

Seeing the old man kneeling on the ground, Isaac Cameron couldn't help but complain, "Obviously, the Rejuvenating pill helped him, but he turned his head to thank God."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "From a materialist point of view, it is indeed the Rejuvenating pill who helped him, but from an idealist point of view, he may feel that God entrusted me with the hand and brought the Rejuvenating pill to him."

"This kind of situation is not uncommon in China. The doctor finally saved the patient's life. As a result, the first thing the patient did when he was discharged from the hospital was to go to the temple to offer incense and thank God and Buddha for saving his life. In fact, their thinking patterns are similar, there is no need to judge others."

Isaac Cameron nodded and said seriously, "You are right, young master."

Charlie couldn't help smacking his lips at this time, and said, "Oh, the situation is a bit beyond my expectations, a quarter of the Rejuvenating pill have been bought for 18.5 billion, so it seems that the finale of the whole Rejuvenating pill breaking 100 billion should not be a big problem."

Speaking of this, Charlie couldn't help but think to himself, "According to the analysis of Mr. Exeor's hexagram, Ferdie Joules has a high probability of not being able to get the Rejuvenating pill, which means that at today's auction, someone is hidden who is more powerful than Ferdie Joules and can overwhelm him."

"Otherwise, Ferdie Joules' worth of nearly one trillion US dollars is absolutely disdainful of the audience at today's auction, and there is no reason not to win this Rejuvenating pill."

"Who would that big man be? Among all the applicants, there is no such powerful presence at all. After all, even Ferdie Joules himself only declared assets of 100 billion US dollars."

“As for Bernard Elno, who was forced by me to distribute 2 billion yuan, although on paper, he is the most valuable person in this auction, but he cannot be Ferdie Joules’ opponent at all.”

Thinking of this, Charlie stared at Jefferson Hawkins on the screen for a long time through the surveillance camera, and thought to himself, “Could it be that the big man hiding in the dark is him?”

After going through the auction of various ordinary collectibles, the auction is coming to an end.

The fourth quarter of Rejuvenating pill auction is about to start, Charlie told Jasmine Moore at the auction table through the intercom system, “Jasmine, before the fourth quarter of Rejuvenating pill starts, you must make a reminder, if someone is still waiting to bid for the last whole Rejuvenating pill, but the economic solidity is a bit risky, you advise them to play consistently and take out the fourth quarter of Rejuvenating pill, otherwise the bamboo basket is very likely to be empty.”

Jasmine Moore understood and immediately said, “Next, it’s the last of the four quarter of Rejuvenating pill tonight. I think everyone has seen the miraculous effects of the three quarters rejuvenating pills just now, and I also think there must be a few people feel sorry that they missed the first three Rejuvenating pill quarters, so try your best not to miss the last quarter of Rejuvenating pill.”

After saying that, Jasmine Moore added, “In addition to this, I’d like to give a friendly reminder to some bidders who are interested in the whole Rejuvenating pill. The competition for the whole Rejuvenating pill auction will be very fierce. If you want to compete with it, you should consider the situation on the spot and your own economic strength. If you feel that the hope of the competition is a bit slim, I personally recommend you take the last quarter of the Rejuvenating pill, otherwise it is very likely that your bamboo basket will be empty.”

Jasmine Moore’s words made the expressions of several powerful buyers present a bit awkward.

After seeing the effects of the Rejuvenating pill, they made up their minds and had to find a way to bid on the full last Rejuvenating pill anyway.

But how could they have imagined that the first quarter of Rejuvenating pill only cost 2 billion, but the second quarter actually converted five times in one go!

For the third quarter, the price has reached 18.5 billion.

If converted to this price, the price of the last quarter of Rejuvenating pill might reach 60 to 70 billion.

If it really is at this price, then most of them have no chance to compete for the last quarter of Rejuvenating pill.

Therefore, Jasmine Moore was right, if they didn’t do their best to compete for the last one, they wouldn’t stand a chance.

This also caused many people to secretly scold the Rejuvenating pill organizers.

Because, in their opinion, the rules of the Rejuvenating pill auction are really screwed up.

The first is that they must take on the spot once they bought it, and cannot be brought outside, which cuts off the ability to resell them for a higher price or break them up for sale and crowdfunding.

Otherwise, four rich people will have to pay the funds together, bid for the last quarter of Rejuvenating pill, and then divide it into four parts, the cost will definitely be more profitable than this constant struggle.

Worse yet, whether you bid on a quarter of a Rejuvenating pill or a whole Rejuvenating pill, you only get one chance to succeed.

If you want to settle for a quarter shot and then compete for last, that's foolish, and the rules won't give you that chance at all.

Therefore, you must make a choice and a decision now.

Either they will be desperate and wait for the last one, or they will try to compete for the last quarter of Rejuvenating pill first. If they are successful, at least one will be able to get the Rejuvenating pill and he won't end up empty handed.

As a result, many rich people who did not want to participate in the auction of the fourth quarter of the Rejuvenating pill joined immediately.

This made the bidding for the fourth quarter of Rejuvenating pill even more intense.

The reason Charlie asked Jasmine Moore to remind everyone was because he didn't want the fourth quarter of the Rejuvenating pill's transaction price to be lower than the previous.

Chapter 3908

After all, at the time of the last auction, the bidders' bids had basically reached their limit. If those competitors who were aiming for the whole Rejuvenating pill weren't diverted, the transaction price of the fourth quarter of Rejuvenating pill would definitely not be higher than the previous one.

However, after the successful diversion, the price of the fourth quarter of Rejuvenating pill immediately increased by leaps and bounds.

The latest price of US$18.5 billion quickly broke and skyrocketed, breaking the US$20 billion mark.

At this time, there were only three people who are not bidding from start to finish.

These three people are Ferdie Joules, Jefferson Hawkins, and the distribution king, Bernard Elno.

These three people are thinking the same thing, which is to get a whole Rejuvenating pill at all costs.

Soon, the price of the fourth quarter of Rejuvenating pill rose all the way up, surpassing the $20 billion mark.

The higher the price of the fourth quarter of Rejuvenating pill, the more nervous the bidders who originally wanted to compete for it.

Because they feel more and more that if they don't take the opportunity to win this part, they will surely come back unsuccessfully tonight.

The price of the fourth quarter of Rejuvenating pill could never be less than six or seventy billion dollars.

Although according to the divided calculation, each quarter of the first 3 quarters is less than 20 billion, but the crux of the problem is that more than 20 billion is beyond most people's ability to pay.

The rules also prevent them from raising funds to buy, so if the money isn't enough, they can only settle for the next best thing. Even if the unit price after splitting is more expensive, they can only accept it.

The reason why they came to participate in the Rejuvenating pill auction is mostly because they are too old and have various diseases, and even many people are already terminally ill.

Once they get into this state of counting down the days for the rest of their lives, money is not that important to them.

In the end, the fourth quarter of Rejuvenating pill was called up to 22 billion US dollars, which surprised everyone.

No one would have imagined that the price of the fourth quarter of the Rejuvenating pill has reach 22 billion.

Right now, those who can still pay the price are tormented without exception.

On the one hand, it is due to physical reasons and a deep desire for the Rejuvenating pill, and on the other hand, it is difficult to accept the price difference of ten times.

After several struggles, the fourth quarter of Rejuvenating pill's price continued to rise, approaching 25 billion.

The price difference of more than ten times has caused many people to choose to give up in agony. Right now, they are still fighting, and only the last two remain.

And these two people, without exception, are terminal cancer patients.

One is a British billionaire who has been suffering from liver cancer for many years and it has spread throughout his body. After multiple rounds of radiotherapy and chemotherapy, doctors have declared that he has less than half a year to live.

The other is a member of the famous family surnamed Lee in Korea. He suffered from stomach cancer a few years ago.

After several fights, he still developed bone metastases. Targeted drugs have also developed resistance. Basically, only the last palliative therapy is one more month left.

In the eyes of these two people, money is no longer important.

Soon, the British billionaire raised the price to $30 billion.

Originally, he thought that he could shoot the whole Rejuvenating pill at a maximum of 50 billion US dollars, but he never dreamed that the fourth had already reached the 30 billion US dollar mark, and the price was announced by himself.

Compared to the first one, this one has been fired fifteen times.

But he had no choice.

Because if he can't get this last quarter of Rejuvenating pill, he definitely won't live this time next year.

At this moment, everyone finally understood that this Rejuvenating pill auction was actually a rich Asura field in disguise.

The people who came here are all rich people who have a lot of wealth, but who are either dying soon or have been suffering in extreme diseases.

So, they only have small opportunity to know the facts in front of them. Even if they can't find a way to get salvation in the whole world, they can still get final salvation here!

It's just that the opportunities for salvation that can be provided here are very few, and each of you who wishes to be saved must do your best to defeat your opponents.

And the way to defeat your opponent is to cut more meat off yourself than anyone else can!

However, what can these rich people do? They have nothing else to think about right now, they just want to survive!

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3909-3910

The world is never fair, even in the face of death.

For the poor living in the poorest areas of Asia, Africa and Latin America, a glass of unclean water may cause malaria, which will take the life of a young adult;

But the working class in ordinary countries, even if they are diagnosed with cancer, thanks to a good social security system, they can still have a life cycle ranging from several years or even decades;

In the best cancer hospital in the world, some people can even survive for five years or more than ordinary people in the case of advanced cancer.

And at this auction, they were fortunate enough to get a Rejuvenating pill. Even in the middle and late stages of cancer, even in the terminal stage, they can completely recover and extend their lifespan from a few months to a few years, or even a dozen years.

And Charlie used this special auction, with special regulations and forms, to not only let them see the magic of Rejuvenating pill they had never seen in this world, but also the attraction of Rejuvenating pill to everyone, layer by layer magnification to the extreme.

Therefore, no matter how cruel this Asura field is, these people do not want to miss the chance to survive.

They are not afraid to cut too much flesh from themselves.

They are just afraid that they don't have enough meat on their bodies, and they have no chance to cut them!

At this moment, the two terminally ill patients who were competing for the last quarter of Rejuvenating pill decided to fight for the last bullet.

At this moment, the two of them are extremely regretful in their hearts, regretting that they did not discern the situation from the beginning, they should have known long ago that they are not capable of competing the whole Rejuvenating pill, and they will end up with nothing.

It's a pity that a decision error forced both of them to a dead end.

The rest of the audience, involuntarily, were full of envy, jealousy and hatred for the first black rich man who bought the Rejuvenating pill for only $2 billion.

In addition, they have also summed up their own experience. If they have the opportunity to participate in the auction of Rejuvenating pill next year, they don't care what they come, and they will buy the first Rejuvenating pill first.

At this time, the price has been pushed to a height of 35 billion US dollars by the South Korean rich man surnamed Lee.

The other British rich man is about to collapse, because this price is approaching his carrying capacity.

However, giving up the competition is equivalent to accepting death. If there is no miracle, after three months, he will be put into a beautiful coffin and buried in the loess under the witness of relatives, friends and priests.

So, he could only grit his teeth, and on the basis of this quotation, he added 100 million, and the quotation came to 35.1 billion.

The Korean tycoon surnamed Lee has collapsed a little. While wiping the sweat from his forehead, he gritted his teeth and quoted a price, “35.2 billion!”

He has also approached the limit of his endurance. At this moment, the two sides are like two gladiators who have been fighting for a long time. They both know that the other party only has the last breath left, so at this time, they are also cautious, making moves a little bit to make the opponent fall to the ground with a bang.

However, even so, the two continued to bid for several rounds back and forth.

The current price has risen to $38 billion.

The British billionaire finally called for a price of 38.1 billion. At this time, he was completely unable to increase the price.

The South Korean rich man surnamed Lee continued to increase the price and called out a figure of 38.2 billion.

The British rich man sat on the spot with a pale face. At this moment, he already knew that he had lost.

$38.1 billion is his own offer.

However, this money has no chance to be spent.

This means that he has saved this huge amount of wealth, but his life will come to an end in the next three to six months.

Chapter 3910

When the South Korean rich man surnamed Lee saw that the other party no longer increased the price, his body was already trembling with excitement.

Jasmine Moore was also blinded.

A quarter of the Rejuvenating pill can actually be bought for 38.2 billion US dollars, and it exceeds all the assets of the Moore family. This simply subverts all her cognition!

However, she still began to ask very professionally, “38.2 billion US dollars once, is there any higher price than this?”

The whole place was dead silent.

These people are more desperate than shocked.

They finally found the miracle of life.

But none of them thought that the miracle of life would be so expensive.

Afterwards, Jasmine Moore asked twice in a row, and finally dropped the hammer, “Congratulations to bidder No. 009 for bidding the last quarter of Rejuvenating pill tonight at a price of $38.2 billion!”

The South Korean rich man surnamed Lee was already in tears at this time.

The staff came to him, handed him the mobile phone, and said, “No. 009, you have half an hour to complete the payment. If the payment fails, the opportunity will be reserved for the $38.1 billion bid just now of No. 029.”

The previously failed No. 029, that is, the British rich man, at this moment, hope has resurfaced on the expression of extreme despair!

He recited in his heart, “God bless, Jesus bless, Virgin Mary bless, please make sure that there is a problem with the payment process of that Korean, whether I can survive, only this last chance is left!”

At this time, when the Korean rich man surnamed Lee reached out and picked up the phone, in addition to excitement, there was an unprecedented distress and nervousness on his expression.

The reason why he felt distressed is because this money can be used for the Lee family, whose total assets exceed 200 billion US dollars, but it may drain all the cash flow.

So that if he wants to continue to maintain the operation of the Lee family’s various industries, he must immediately sell some assets at a low price, otherwise the entire Lee family may fall into the dead end of the broken capital chain.

As a result, not only will the Lee family lose 32 billion US dollars, but their fixed assets will also be marked with a considerable discount. The total assets of maybe 200 billion US dollars will only be left 50 billion or even less after this incident.

Absolutely devastating.

As for why he was nervous, it was because he knew very well that if he paid the $38.2 billion, those children and grandchildren who had always respected and filial piety to him would definitely hate him to the bone.

Because this will not only greatly shrink their future inheritance, but also greatly lengthen the cycle of their inheritance.

Originally, they could inherit $200 billion in assets in a few months.

And after paying the 38.2 billion US dollars, the assets they can inherit will shrink by at least 50 billion, and it will take at least a few years or even a dozen years before they can inherit.

However, there was nothing he could do about it.

So, he roared to himself unswervingly in his heart, “It’s me! It was me who created the entire Lee dynasty, it’s me! I created everything in the Lee family today!”

“This sense of accomplishment has already surpassed everything. I am full of children and grandchildren! I am so eager to continue to live, so eager to continue to be the master of this dynasty! I must not let go of this!”

“For this ultimate goal, what if my children and grandchildren turn against me? I have given them an extremely rich life and an extremely easy life, and now, I must not sacrifice myself, just to make them icing on the cake!”

“After today, Even if I can only be alone and grow old for the rest of my life, I will do whatever it takes!”

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3911-3912

When the Korean tycoon surnamed Lee successfully paid 38.2 billion US dollars, he walked to the stage with a staggering pace.

The frailty of dying left him staggering, and the pain of terminal cancer was excruciatingly painful.

Originally, he had reached the point where he needed multiple injections of painkillers every day, and just before he left the room and came down to attend the auction, he also asked his entourage to inject himself.

However, the efficacy of the drug has obviously weakened a lot by now, and every step he takes, it brings piercing pain to him.

But fortunately, the endurance of this rich man is by no means comparable to that of ordinary people.

As a soldier, he had personally experienced the war between North and South Korea, and it was the baptism of artillery fire that forged his extraordinary perseverance.

He endured the pain and came to the stage step by step. Although his body was in constant pain, his heart was suddenly enlightened.

He knew that this was the last step of the phoenix's nirvana.

The pain that spread all over his body was like a raging fire. It would not destroy himself, but would only regenerate himself into nirvana.

Therefore, instead of being afraid of pain, he enjoyed the pain that would make him extremely awake.

Many people in the audience soon recognized his identity and knew that he was the head of the top chaebol Lee family in Korea.

Many years ago, the media reported on the history of this legendary Korean billionaire's fight against cancer. Some time ago, there were also many media reports that his condition had deteriorated.

Now, seeing him here, many people can't understand it. Why is he willing to put out 38.2 billion to bid for the last quarter of a rejuvenation pill.

Because, many people think that with his strength, he should be able to compete for the last whole rejuvenation pill.

But the South Korean billionaire knows very well in his heart that the Lee family itself is operating a heavy-asset project.

Whether it is digital, semiconductor, or shipping, without exception, huge R&D costs and production costs are required.

As for the Lee family, the cash reserves that can be used at present are only 40 billion, and the remaining assets are all various fixed assets, debt assets and intangible assets, which cannot be realized in a short period of time.

Therefore, he simply did not dare to bet all his chances on the whole Rejuvenating pill.

At the scene, the staff put the last quarter of Rejuvenating pill into the mouth of the Korean rich man. At this moment, all the pain in his body quickly disappeared.

The Rejuvenating pill is like a raging wind, dispelling all the haze originally shrouded in the sky.

At this moment, he burst into tears with excitement.

This feeling of spring breeze reminded him of the early morning when the armistice agreement took effect more than half a century ago.

When he climbed out of the tunnel that had shrunk for several days and saw the stars in the summer night, the feeling of the rest of his life was almost the same as it is now.

He didn't shout excitedly, nor cheered excitedly, just a kind of awe of the survivors for the other deceased.

Chapter 3912

From the moment he was pushed to the battlefield by the torrent of history, he witnessed the deaths of too many people around him, and in the following decades, he witnessed the continuous departure of many old friends.

Now, all his friends have disappeared, only he is still alive.

And now, he has won another big victory in his life.

Although the price was heavy, it was a victory in the end.

It's just that, standing alone in front of this stage, a sense of loneliness arises spontaneously.

Then, he thought of his children again, thinking that after today, his children are likely to hold grudges against him or even turn against him, and then he will be alone, and his heart is even more emotional.

Gently wiped away the tears, his eyes gradually became firm.

It was also at this moment that he gained a new level of understanding.

He suddenly understood an ancient poem by a Chinese poet, "I am born with talent, and I will come back when my talent is gone."

How about spending more than 30 billion dollars in an instant? The highest mission of wealth is to serve life.

The people in the audience watched this skinny old man with a sallow complexion, quickly recovering his blood, and the spirit of the whole person has also greatly improved, and they are naturally envious.

This also makes many people feel extremely painful, because the four quarters of Rejuvenating pills tonight have all been taken.

The rest is the whole Rejuvenating pill.

Many people can't help but guess that a quarter of a rejuvenation pill has such an effect, so what effect would a whole Rejuvenating pill would have?

At this time, the South Korean billionaire stepped off the stage and silently returned to his seat.

Jasmine Moore spoke into the microphone at this time and said seriously, "As we all know, this auction was held by the Aurous Hill's Moore Group, which was co-organized with the Wade Group."

"Here I would like to express my gratitude to these two companies, and especially to Lord Wade, Chairman of the Wade Group, who not only gave huge support to the auction, but also came all the way from Eastcliff to attend in person to make this auction flourish..."

Lord Wade, who was in the first row under the stage, was extremely excited when he heard this.

Ever since Charlie told him before the auction that he would be given half of Rejuvenating pill, he had been looking forward to this moment.

It's just that he didn't know what kind of arrangement Charlie made, and he didn't know what time period Charlie planned to give himself the half of the Rejuvenating pill.

Moreover, since he witnessed the rising prices of these four quarters of Rejuvenating pills with his own eyes, he was even more worried that Charlie would temporarily regret it.

After all, a quarter of a Rejuvenating pill can be auctioned for a terrifying price of 38.2 billion US dollars. If the half of the rejuvenation pill is put up for auction, it must be more than 50 billion US dollars.

Therefore, he was afraid that after seeing this situation, Charlie would suddenly change his mind, and he would really be empty.

However, when he heard Jasmine Moore's words, his hanging heart finally fell.

At this time, Jasmine Moore deliberately raised her volume and said loudly, "Next, I will make a grand announcement on behalf of the owner of the Rejuvenating pill! Another half of the Rejuvenating will be given to Lord Wade at the scene!"

As soon as these words came out, the audience was in an uproar!

Everyone couldn't wait to know who the owner of the Rejuvenating pill was, and whether they could buy it directly through him, bypassing the auction process.

However, who would have thought that this mysterious person who did not reveal any information would actually give Lord Wade half of a Rejuvenating pill on the spot!

This is half!

Whether it is sold separately or sold together, it cannot be less than 50 billion US dollars!

However, that mysterious person just gave Lord Wade something worth 50 billion dollars?

How could Lord Wade have such a big face!

Many people were also whispering below, and some people said, “After the Wade family was beaten by Wesley of Dragon Hall, why did Lord Wade become so awesome in a blink of an eye?”

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Lord Wade heard the many whispers around him clearly.

At this moment, he was so excited that he couldn't add it.

He was excited not only because of the half of Rejuvenating pill, but also because of the feeling of being watched by everyone at this moment.

Previously, from the eyes of the outside world, the Wade family had cut off half of their property and gave it to the Dragon Hall, so they were rarely talked about outside, and they were rarely despised or even ridiculed.

Lord Wade felt aggrieved and wanted to declare to the whole world that the Wade family was not devoured by the Dragon Hall, on the contrary, the Wade family directly took over the entire Dragon Hall!

However, he knew that his grandson, Charlie, did not intend to let the outside world know the true relationship between the Wade family and Dragon Hall.

Therefore, although this kind of words relieves hatred, he absolutely dare not say it to the outside world.

The suffocation for a long time, until now, let Lord Wade find the feeling of raising his eyebrows.

Therefore, he was naturally very excited.

At this moment, Michaela Joules, who was alone in the box on the second floor, was not only surprised, but more confused.

She couldn't help muttering in a low voice, "If Charlie just thanked Lord Wade for the auction, then there is absolutely no need to take out half of Rejuvenating pill, right?"

"With the current situation of the auction, if he directly auction half of Rejuvenating pill, I'm afraid that the whole scene will be boiling, and it must be tens of billions of dollars in revenue, why should he take half of Rejuvenating pill to pay back such a little favor from the Wade family?"

"Also, if the Wade family just helped hold this auction, it seems that it was not the Wade family who helped Charlie, but Charlie who helped the Wade family..."

"After all, the Wade family was able to show their face in front of so many top rich people this time. I don't know how many rich people will try to curry favor with them in the future."

"No matter how you look at it, it seems that Charlie wants to pull the Wade family..."

"Could it be that Charlie has any other relationship with the Wade family?"

Michaela Joules murmured while frowning, and couldn't help but ponder, "But I have clearly investigated the Wade family before, although Charlie is also surnamed Wade, but there is no evidence that Charlie is related with the Wade family of Eastcliff. Is Charlie a distant relative of the Wade family, or a collateral branch of the Wade family?"

"However, if Charlie is really a side branch of the Wade family, then his strength is too strong, right? Not to mention, he will be able to earn at least more than 100 billion US dollars in today's Rejuvenating pill auction alone."

“If such a person is only a side branch, then the head of the Wade family will have to turn around him...”

For a time, Michaela Joules was also a little confused.

At this time, the old Lord Wade was already standing on the stage.

Facing the comments of more than 400 people, his heart surged.

Out of respect for Lord Wade, the staff handed the Rejuvenating pill to him and said respectfully, “Lord Wade, you can take the Rejuvenating pill by yourself.”

Lord Wade was stunned for a moment, then came back to his senses and said quickly, “Okay, okay! I’ll do it myself!”

After all, he carefully picked up the half of the Rejuvenating pill in front of everyone.

Ever since he knew that Orrin Sun had recovered because of Rejuvenating pill and was more than 10 or 20 years younger, Lord Wade had been full of desire and expectation for it.

Now, he finally got his wish.

Chapter 3914

Excited, Lord Wade put the Rejuvenating pill into his mouth with his own hands, and then closed his eyes impatiently, wanting to feel every step of the Rejuvenating pill’s reaction in his body.

However, the release of Rejuvenating pill’s medicinal effects was much faster than he imagined, and he himself did not have any stubborn lesions, so after the entrance of the Rejuvenating pill, it spread directly to the whole body.

Lord Wade only felt that the warmth brought by the Rejuvenating pill was everywhere, but he didn't know what kind of transformation he was going through at the moment.

The more than 400 people in the audience were shocked to discover that some of Lord Wade's silver hair, which was already white, had turned black with the naked eye.

And the deep wrinkles on his skin began to fade in an instant.

The age spots on his face also seemed to have been enchanted and quickly faded away.

This is truly turning back time.

Only half of the Rejuvenating pill allowed Lord Wade to find the state he was in ten years ago, from an old man with silver hair to a spiritual old man with healthy appearance.

And the efficacy of this half of Rejuvenating pill also made more than 400 people at the scene reorganize their cognition of Rejuvenating pill once again!

A heated discussion erupted in the audience.

"My God! It turns out that half a pill of Rejuvenating pill is so powerful! This Lord Wade looks at least ten years younger!"

"Unbelievable! It's really incredible! Half a pill has such an effect, wouldn't the whole pill be against the sky?"

"Needless to say! If you take a whole Rejuvenating pill, you will be twenty years younger for sure!"

“God...how can there be such a magical medicine in the world?! It can turn people back in time? I even began to wonder if I had a long dream...”

The four quarters of Rejuvenating pill just now were basically used by bidders to treat illnesses and the symptoms were improved significantly, but they did not reflect the magic of Rejuvenating pill's return to youth.

Now, everyone has finally witnessed the most magical place of Rejuvenating pill, that is, going back in time.

And Lord Wade's huge changes visible to the naked eye have also made those who intend to compete for the last Rejuvenating pill, the confidence and desire for it become stronger.

While Ferdie Joules was extremely eager for the Rejuvenating pill, he also had to admit that this auction simply took the psychology of these rich people to the extreme.

Whether it is the formulation of the rules of the auction, or the rhythm that stimulates everyone's appetite step by step, these tycoons are firmly grasped step by step.

When he saw that Lord Wade took half a pill of Rejuvenating pill, and it had such an effect, he immediately thought unconsciously, “Lord Wade just took half of Rejuvenating pill, and the kind of magical effect it has is simply remarkable.”

“Instead of greying his hair, most of his hair turned black.”

“And his age doesn't seem to be from seventy to eighty, but maybe from sixty!”

And Ferdie Joules couldn't help but think, “What if I took the whole Rejuvenating pill myself?”

“Maybe I will no longer be a dying old man in my 90s, but a healthy old man who looks like in my early 70s, just like Lord Wade on stage now.”

At this moment, his desire for the Rejuvenating pill has reached its limit.

In addition to him, Jefferson Hawkins and Bernard Elno also had the same ideas as him.

And Ferdie Joules, at this time, has begun to seriously analyze his two competitors.

When he spread out his left hand, he thought of Bernard Elno, and muttered in a very low voice, “This guy is worth only more than 100 billion US dollars, and I forgive him that he can’t come up with too much money.”

“He shouldn’t be able to play with more than $80 billion, nothing to be afraid of...”

Immediately, he spread out his right hand, thinking of that No. 99 Jefferson Hawkins, and he continued to mutter, “His strength is unfathomable, if he really goes out to compete with me, I will definitely not be his opponent.”

“But if I remember correctly, he is not yet fifty years old this year, and he is not old enough to take Rejuvenating pill...”

Having said that, he slightly stretched his brows and thought to himself, “I guess he came here this time, probably just to find out the truth of Rejuvenating pill. If this is the case, then I have nothing to worry about!”

At this moment, the staff sent Lord Wade, who was ten years younger, back to the VIP seat.

Jasmine Moore said, “Ladies and gentlemen, what’s coming up next is the finale lot of our auction tonight! It’s also the only whole Rejuvenating pill in the auction tonight!”

The last whole Rejuvenating pill is the finale of the entire auction.

Everyone is looking forward to it.

Although most people do not have the qualifications to compete for this Rejuvenating pill at all, they also want to see who has the strength to get it.

Moreover, they also want to see what kind of magical effect a person will bring if he takes a whole Rejuvenating pill in public.

Soon, the staff brought up a whole Rejuvenating pill, Jasmine Moore pointed at it, smiled and said, "The last Rejuvenating pill has a starting price of 10 billion US dollars, and the minimum price increases per bid is $1 billion, interested bidders please start bidding!"

As soon as he finished speaking, Bernard Elno raised his hand and said, "I will pay 50 billion!"

Bernard Elno is also very clear in his heart that a quarter has already been sold for 38.2 billion, and the transaction price of this whole Rejuvenating pill must be tens of billions, so he directly called it 50 billion.

After waiting all night, Ferdie Joules finally speak directly, "I will pay 60 billion!"

Bernard Elno turned around and glanced at the sound. He, a top rich man in luxury goods, has always been active in Europe, and his assets and businesses are also concentrated in Europe, which is invisible to Ferdie Joules, a North American man. The rich man didn't know him. Seeing that the Ferdie Joules called out sixty billion dollars, he immediately said, "I will pay 62 billion!"

Ferdie Joules thought that this old boy could face him for two rounds with a single price increase of 10 billion, but he didn't think that he would pull his hips a little when he got up, so he smiled slightly, raised his hand and said, "I will make it 72 billion!"

Bernard Elno gritted his teeth, clenched his fist in one hand and raised his hand high, "75 billion!"

Ferdie Joules did not show weakness, and said directly, "To make up the whole, I will make it 80 billion!"

Ferdie Joules made three bids, which almost pushed Bernard Elno to the brink of liquidation.

Because the limit he can carry is in the range of more than 80 to 90 billion.

And Ferdie Joules' bids was so fierce, if he had another bite of 90 billion, he would be basically eliminated!

This made Bernard Elno nervous and surprised.

He really couldn't figure it out, and thought to himself, "What is the origin of this old Chinese man, why can he shout 60 billion, 70 billion or even 80 billion in a row without changing his face? He really has so much money? Impossible! Why have I never heard of him?"

At this time, Jasmine Moore said, "No. 035 bid 80 billion, is there anyone who can bid higher than this?"

Bernard Elno was a little clueless all of a sudden, and he wasn't sure if the old guy was bluffing.

If the other party is bluffing, when the payment is made in a while, as long as he can't pay, the Rejuvenating pill will naturally be given to him this time.

However, he didn't dare to put all his hopes on it, because if the other party really paid the money, wouldn't he be finished?

Just when he was still hesitating whether to continue bidding, a middle-aged man in the crowd raised his hand and said, "I'll offer 90 billion!"

As soon as these words came out, everyone turned to look at him.

The one who spoke was No. 099, Jefferson Hawkins.

Seeing Jefferson Hawkins's bid, Ferdie Joules suddenly groaned in his heart, "I thought he was here just to watch, but I never thought he actually made a bid!"

Jefferson Hawkins also saw Ferdie Joules' gaze at this time, their eyes met, he folded his hands and nodded slightly.

Ferdie Joules knew that what the other party meant was actually to make amends with himself. The general meaning was, 'I'm sorry, I offended you.'

Ferdie Joules felt ashes at the moment.

He knew very well that once this person started bidding, he had no chance of winning at all.

So, as an elder, he also bowed his hands to Jefferson Hawkins, and even brought some prayers in his eyes.

The meaning is also very clear. 'After all, I am in my 90s and I am about to die. Knowing that we have known each other, I hope you can raise your hand and give me this opportunity.'

Then, he raised his hand and said, "I'll give 100 billion!"

As soon as the words fell, Jefferson Hawkins raised his hand again and said plainly, "110 billion!"

The place was already fried.

There are many rich people who are worth more than 100 billion US dollars on the Forbes list, and there are many more who are not on the Forbes list.

However, there may be only a handful of people who can come up with 110 billion in cash on the Forbes list.

Everyone is speculating about the origin of this No. 035 and this No. 099.

Chapter 3916

At this time, Bernard Elno, who was wearing No. 016, had completely collapsed at this moment.

Although on paper, he was the richest of all the competitors tonight, but he never dreamed that the last Rejuvenating pill had just started shooting for a minute, and he was directly squeezed out of the competitor sequence.

Despair and remorse almost made him collapse on the spot.

If he had known it was like this, even if the last quarter of the 50-billion-dollar auction would not have been delayed until now, it would have been declared out of the competition.

In the box, Michaela Joules was also stunned.

She didn't see Jefferson Hawkins's face, but from the momentum of Jefferson Hawkins's bid, she could see that 110 billion US dollars was nothing to this person.

As a result, her grandpa would be in a bit of trouble if he wanted to get this Rejuvenating pill.

Not only Michaela Joules was surprised, but Charlie was also surprised.

He had always suspected that Jefferson Hawkins had a great background, but he didn't expect it to be unexpected.

This also made him even more curious, who is this Jefferson Hawkins.

And at this moment in the field, Ferdie Joules raised his hand and said, "120 billion!"

He has long understood the way this Asura field operates today, making a bunch of dying tycoons desperately vying for the chance to live, destined to break the sky in price, since 100 billion can't stop it, then increase the price.

In short, they absolutely can't give up, because once they give up, it means giving up life and choosing to die.

And he finally ushered in a competitor with a price increase of not less than 10 billion each time.

Jefferson Hawkins did not change his face, and continued to raise his hand, "130 billion!"

There was an uproar.

They thought Bernard Elno was the big guy tonight, but the two Chinese people competed and directly threw Bernard Elno out of the sky.

Bernard Elno's entire net worth is barely close to 170 billion US dollars, and this rejuvenation pill has basically called 80% of his net worth.

Moreover, the competition is not over yet.

Ferdie Joules looked grim and continued to raise his hand, “140 billion!”

After speaking, he turned his head to look at Jefferson Hawkins, his face full of incomprehension.

Jefferson Hawkins was also a bit ashamed to be seen by Ferdie Joules. After all, he still knew Ferdie Joules’ situation relatively well and knew that he was dying soon.

However, after hesitating for a moment, he raised his hand, “150 billion!”

The scene was even more shocking. In their eyes, this bidding method was like a fight between two gods!

At this time, Ferdie Joules almost vomited blood.

Even though the Joules family has assets of hundreds of billions of dollars, in order to continue the longevity of the family, a large part of the funds have been invested in extremely long-term industries and family trusts with very strict firewalls.

In some long-term industries, it takes decades of continuous investment to generate continuous profits for future generations after a few decades.

The family trust is a large sum of money invested, the principal is never taken out, and only the profits generated by the principal are used to continuously nourish their descendants.

The Joules family has hundreds of billions of dollars in family trusts scattered in various high-reputation countries in the world. These family trusts can guarantee that as long as the five permanent members of the United Nations do not go bankrupt and human beings do not go extinct, the descendants of the Joules family will never be short of money.

But because of this, the cash that the entire Joules family can come up with is no more than 200 billion US dollars.

This amount of money is almost unbelievably high in the eyes of ordinary people, but in the face of the world's top giant crocodiles, it is just a small piece of meat.

Among them, the most powerful Rothschild family, according to legend, has a total of more than 5 trillion US dollars in assets, which is almost equal to the gross national product of the entire United States for two and a half years.

However, some people in the outside world feel that this figure is completely exaggerated and cannot be trusted at all.

But some people feel that this figure is still a bit conservative compared to the real wealth of the Rothschild family.

However, the real numbers are only known to the top Rothschild managers.

At this time, Jefferson Hawkins raised his hand again and said loudly, "I will pay 160 billion!"

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3917-3918

Chapter 3917

At this moment, Ferdie Joules was very indignant.

He really didn't understand that the other party knew that he was already a dying person, but why he was still pressing step by step in front of his last chance.

And the two sides are old acquaintances, even if the friendship is not deep, there is no need to compete so desperately, right?

He may be only a few dozen days away from death. If he fails to seize this opportunity, his life will come to an end.

But the other party is only fifty years old, so why bother with him?

He really don't need a Rejuvenating pill, and he can definitely wait until next year.

At a certain moment, Ferdie Joules even felt that the other party wanted to put him to death.

Jefferson Hawkins is also a little helpless. Of course he knows Ferdie Joules' situation, but he also has his own position and difficulties, so he can only continue to compete with Ferdie Joules.

Ferdie Joules knew that he was not far from his limit, and his mentality had already collapsed. With a trembling voice, he said, "One... 170 billion..."

Orion Exeor, an old Feng shui master who had been sitting in the first row and rarely talked, was also a little emotional at this moment.

He couldn't help but sigh, "It turns out that Ferdie's disaster is here. How could he be that person's opponent?"

Jefferson Hawkins was about to make an offer, when his men whispered, "Master, do you want to wait for the host to ask before bidding? Otherwise, wouldn't it be..."

Jefferson Hawkins waved his hand and said seriously, "I must suppress Ferdie Joules, otherwise the conditions will be difficult to touch the master behind the Rejuvenating pill this time."

After that, he sighed, shook his head and said, "Forget it, let Ferdie Joules die happily."

After saying this, he raised his hand again, shook his two fingers, and said lightly, "Two hundred billion!"

His three fluttering words resounded in everyone's ears like thunder.

Who would have imagined that the price of a whole Rejuvenating pill could fetch $200 billion!

This fucking makes everyone have an unreal hallucination of this world.

What happened here today, after going out of this door, if you tell anyone about it, no one will believe it.

However, reality is so magical.

An elixir named Rejuvenating pill was smashed to a terrifying height of 200 billion US dollars by a wealthy person.

Ferdie Joules' mentality has collapsed.

And Bernard Elnó's mentality has long since collapsed into his grandmother's house.

He originally thought that he was the king on the field today, but he never thought that when he finally showed his sword, he would be a fucking joke.

Now, the price of the Rejuvenating pill this time has far exceeded his entire worth.

Even if he took out all his property and had nothing left, it would be impossible for him to afford this Rejuvenating pill.

He was so indignant in his heart that he couldn't help scolding, "If I knew this was the case, what the hell would I do with it!"

As for Ferdie Joules, after his mentality collapsed, his whole person seemed to be hopeless in an instant.

He covered his chest, and his heart was aching like a knife, making his entire chest hurt and unable to speak.

Jasmine Moore also quietly took a few deep breaths to adjust her mentality.

Then, she said, "Bidder No. 099 bid $200 billion, is there anything higher than him?"

After all, her eyes involuntarily looked at Ferdie Joules.

After all, after the price exceeded 100 billion US dollars, it was almost a battle between the two of them.

Chapter 3918

Ferdie Joules was in great pain. The $200 billion, to him, was only a little more than one-fifth of his family property.

However, he has already reached the cash limit he can pay.

Moreover, the Joules family would not have reserved so much cash at all.

This time, just to ensure that the Rejuvenating pill auction is safe, he deliberately reserved US$200 billion in the Swiss bank.

Moreover, Ferdie Joules also felt that the reserve of 200 billion US dollars was enough to win Rejuvenating pill himself.

The settlement of US dollars around the world does not need to be audited. As long as an order is given, the Swiss bank can pay the money in an instant.

However, Jefferson Hawkins's three words of lightness were equal to all the cash he prepared.

This also means that Ferdie Joules has already in his limit and can no longer continue the game.

However, the unwilling Ferdie Joules thought, "The payment time for the auction is half an hour. If I think of a way in this half hour, I should be able to raise some funds from other places!"

Thinking of this, Ferdie Joules raised his hand again and blurted out, "I will pay 210 billion!"

Ferdie Joules knew very well that this was his last bid tonight.

If Jefferson Hawkins continues to increase the price, then he can only admit defeat, and he will start preparing for the aftermath when he goes back.

Although his granddaughter Michaela Joules has established a certain relationship with the owner of the Rejuvenating pill, but now that the Rejuvenating pill has reached this price, Ferdie Joules no longer has any hope for Michaela Joules, because he knows that his granddaughter can never get it for himself.

Unexpectedly, Jefferson Hawkins said immediately without any hesitation, "220 billion!"

At this moment, Ferdie Joules' expression instantly froze, and his body movements also stagnated at this moment.

He finally realized why this auction was so crazy.

Because it is really about human life.

You win, and life can be extended.

If you lose, even if you are worth hundreds of billions or trillions, if you get out of this door, you have to wait for death.

If the physical condition is not so bad and can continue for another year, then there may be a chance to come back and compete for another Rejuvenating pill.

Otherwise, if you are like Ferdie Joules, you can basically go back and prepare for the funeral.

Jasmine Moore looked at Ferdie Joules at this time and asked, “No. 035, do you want to continue to bid?”

Ferdie Joules suddenly came back to his senses, and immediately looked at Jasmine Moore with a dead face, and shook his head dejectedly.

He knew that he had lost.

Even if he continued to bid, and he couldn't pay by then, he would only be able to draw water from a bamboo basket.

Moreover, when the time comes, he will be ridiculed by the audience.

And he, at this moment, also knows that his life is not long, and continuing to struggle will only be in vain, but will lose the last trace of dignity.

Frustrated, he waved his hand, but did not continue to ask for a price.

Immediately, he buried his head and forced himself to accept the reality of the imminent end.

Flint Yeager on the side was also full of emotion. He wanted to comfort Ferdie Joules, but he didn't know how to comfort him for a while.

So, he could only pat Ferdie Joules on the back lightly, and said in a low voice, “Lord Joules, don’t get emotional about your current physical condition!”

Ferdie Joules nodded slightly, but his heart was still in pain.

Jefferson Hawkins looked at Ferdie Joules’ back, sighed, and whispered, “Ferdie Joules, I’m sorry...”

In the box on the second floor, Michaela Joules was already in tears, and the makeup that had been slightly powdered on her face had been turned into tears by her.

At this time, she deeply knew how desperate her grandfather was.

That kind of despair, I am afraid, is more desperate than falling into an ice cave in the twelfth lunar month of winter when water is dripping into ice.

And she herself, while feeling sorry for her grandfather, can’t help but be full of sadness.

Because, she also knows that the Rejuvenating pill is so expensive now that even the entire Joules family’s cash reserves are not enough to buy it. In this case, what kind of favor is she going to give to Charlie?

So, how will she ask Charlie, ask him to give her grandpa a Rejuvenating pill, or even half of it?

Charlie made 300 billion US dollars in an auction, and if he took out 100 million US dollars, he could repay all his favors dozens of times.

And Charlie, who was in the monitoring room at this time, was also a little horrified.

220 billion US dollars, this is a shocking wealth, but this Jefferson Hawkins, the declared capital is only 100 billion US dollars, what is his real identity?

At this time, Jasmine Moore at the scene started the last three inquiries as usual.

After no one raised the price for the last three times, she dropped the hammer excitedly and announced loudly, "Congratulations to No. 099, who successfully won the whole Rejuvenating pill in this auction at a price of 220 billion US dollars!"

As soon as she finished speaking, Jefferson Hawkins stood up slowly, looked at Jasmine Moore, and said loudly, "Miss Moore, the owner of Rejuvenating pill must be watching everything that is happening here at this moment somewhere. I want to take this opportunity to discuss a business with him!"

Facing Jefferson Hawkins's behavior of not playing cards according to the routine, Jasmine Moore didn't know how to answer.

After all, this is the bidder of the 220 billion US dollars, and she certainly can't just drive him out just because he doesn't obey the rules?

Just when Jasmine Moore was hesitating, Jefferson Hawkins looked at one of the surveillance camera and said loudly, "As long as you let me take this Rejuvenating pill away, I can pay you $300 billion!"

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3919-3920

Chapter 3919
Three hundred billion dollars!

Everyone at the scene almost fainted.

Many people are guessing, what's the identity of this person and why he can get so much money!

Moreover, on the basis of the transaction price, he raised another 80 billion US dollars, just to take this Rejuvenating pill away...

Could it be that he bought this Rejuvenating pill for someone else?

Jasmine Moore was also a little flustered all of a sudden.

Because she knew that the bidders had to obey the rules set by Charlie to take the Rejuvenating pill on the spot.

However, this time the bidder offered an extra $80 billion.

This extra income alone is more than the assets of the entire Moore family.

Therefore, she did not dare to make an assertion.

At this moment, Isaac Cameron was also stunned.

He looked at Charlie subconsciously, swallowed his saliva, and asked, "Young master...this...what should we do?"

Charlie looked at Jefferson Hawkins on the monitor at this time, smiled slightly, and said, "He want to take the Rejuvenating pill away for two purposes, either to give it to someone else, or to take it away and try to imitate it."

After speaking, Charlie said again, "I think the first possibility has a bigger chance."

Immediately, he picked up the walkie-talkie and said, "Jasmine, reject him! In addition, tell him that in this auction, rules and fairness are above everything else!"

“Tell him to pay 220 billion immediately according to the regulations, then take the Rejuvenating pill on the spot, or give up the auction!”

Jasmine Moore was shocked when she heard this.

She didn't expect that Charlie's rejection was so straightforward.

That's $80 billion!

However, she also knew that since Charlie had already made a decision, of course she was not qualified to do any more lobbying.

So, she immediately looked at Jefferson Hawkins and said coldly, “No. 099, our rules have been very clear. Anyone who can win the Rejuvenating pill must take it on the spot. This rule will never be changed! In our auction, rules and fairness are above all else!”

Jasmine Moore's remarks caused an uproar in the audience!

Who would have thought that the organizer would directly give up 80 billion US dollars for the rules he did!

Is this too rigid?

Jefferson Hawkins was also stunned at this time. He thought that the other party would definitely not be able to resist this temptation, but he never dreamed that the other party would reject him directly.

He gritted his teeth and said loudly, “Is it too little? Then I'm adding another 20 billion! As long as you let me take this Rejuvenating pill away, I will pay 320 billion!”

Charlie said on the walkie-talkie without thinking, “Jasmine, warn him, from now on, before payment, if he says one more nonsense, he will be expelled immediately according to regulations!”

Jasmine Moore immediately scolded, “Number 099, from now on, if you say one more thing that has nothing to do with the auction, or if you violate the rules of the auction, I will expel you!”

Jefferson Hawkins stood on the spot as if struck by lightning.

One hundred billion dollars is not enough for the person behind the Rejuvenating pill to change the rules a little bit?

What the hell is this guy? How could it be so hard?

Suddenly, he didn’t know what to do.

And his heart is also running fast.

“I’m here this time to explore the truth of the Rejuvenating pill....”

“If this thing is exaggerated, then after buying it, I will go back directly to report about this.”

“If this thing is as magical as it is said to be, then I have to take it at all costs.”

“The point is, I have to take it now!”

“If I can’t take it, I’ll spend $220 billion to eat it first. How can I deal with my family when I go back?”

“Besides, I’m still so young, spending so much money and eating such a Rejuvenating pill will definitely arouse dissatisfaction and jealousy from the rest of the family, and it will be implicated at that time.”

“So, if I can’t take the Rejuvenating pill with me tonight, then I absolutely can’t buy it and eat it myself...”

“However, I managed to win it, and even offended Ferdie Joules for it. If the bamboo basket is really empty, I’m really unwilling to do so!”

Chapter 3920

Just when he hesitated and struggled, Jasmine Moore asked again, “Number 099, do you want to pay?”

Jefferson Hawkins hesitated for a moment, put down all his dignity, and pleaded aloud, “I beg you, make an exception for me! If 100 billion US dollars is not enough, I am willing to add 50 billion more!”

Add another 50 billion, and that’s 370 billion!

Countless people at the scene were stunned, and they never dreamed that there was a big guy who could take out 370 billion US dollars in cash hidden in the field!

What the hell is this guy up to?

And Jefferson Hawkins knew very well in his heart that he can’t take this Rejuvenating pill because he would definitely become the target of public criticism.

Therefore, he has only two options.

Take the Rejuvenating pill away or walk away empty-handed.

So, he could only try one last time.

If he can take it away, it’ll be a win-win situation!

If he can't take it with him, as long as he don't have to spend money to buy the Rejuvenating pill and eat it himself, it's the least possible thing to do.

In this case, there is neither merit nor hard work.

However, Charlie was not lured by money at all.

He said on the walkie-talkie, "Jasmine, follow the rules and have him kicked out!"

Jasmine Moore did not dare to be disobedient, and immediately said, "In view of the rules that No. 099 repeatedly provoked us, and we repeatedly warned him, now we ask our staff to expel 099!"

There was an uproar again!

No one would have imagined that the organizers would give up 150 billion US dollars in cash just to maintain their principles.

And Jefferson Hawkins was completely stunned.

He really couldn't figure out what kind of God was behind this Rejuvenating pill, and he didn't even pay attention to the 150 billion US dollars!

At this time, several Dragon Hall soldiers had come to him, and one of them said coldly, "099, please leave with me immediately, or I will force you to leave the scene!"

Jefferson Hawkins knew that it was impossible for him to take the Rejuvenating pill away this time, so he could only sigh and nodded helplessly.

Then, he walked out of his seat, looked at Ferdie Joules not far away, and cupped his hands and said, "Uncle Ferdie, I'm sorry!"

As soon as he finished speaking, he was led to the gate by two staff members.

At this time, Ferdie Joules' heart rekindled hope.

Although he still didn't know what the organizer would do with the Rejuvenating pill, seeing Jefferson Hawkins leave, he knew that he was suddenly bright again!

Seeing that Jefferson Hawkins was taken away from the auction venue in despair, everyone on the scene was shocked, but also began to wonder how the organizer would respond next.

What Ferdie Joules hopes most is that the Rejuvenating pill can be re-shot.

In that case, he only needs to bid one hundred billion dollars to defeat Bernard Elno.

However, at this time, Jasmine Moore, after receiving the detailed instructions from Charlie, immediately said, "Since No. 099 was expelled from the arena for violating the rules, now this Rejuvenating pill will be given to each person in turn according to the bid of other people just now. An opportunity for the bidder to make a sure purchase."

After that, she looked at Ferdie Joules and said, "No. 035, your highest asking price just now was $210 billion, so are you buying the whole Rejuvenating pill, may I ask if you are willing to pay this price for this rejuvenation pill?"

Ferdie Joules was overjoyed, but the businessman's nature still drove him, and he asked tentatively, "Since No. 099 has left the scene just now, can this Rejuvenating pill be re-shot?"

Ferdie Joules felt that when Jefferson Hawkins was gone, there was no one else in the audience who was his opponent.

He waited eagerly for Jasmine Moore's reply, but Jasmine Moore said decisively, "No! If you give up buying this Rejuvenating pill for $210 billion, then the chance to buy it will be handed over to No. 016."

After that, she looked at Bernard Elno again and said, "No. 016, your highest bid just now was US$72 billion, and you are in the second place to buy the Rejuvenating pill. If No. 035 gives up, you will have the opportunity to buy this Rejuvenating pill for 72 billion!"

Speaking of this, Jasmine Moore's expression froze, and she said to the audience, "As I have always emphasized, for us, money never matters, rules and fairness are!"

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3921-3922

Chapter 3921

When Bernard Elno heard this, he was so excited that he was about to cry.

He had already been put down by two big man a long time ago, and he never dreamed that he would have another chance!

What he is most looking forward to now is Ferdie Joules giving up.

Once Ferdie Joules gave up, the Rejuvenating pill would be his own!

Or Ferdie Joules couldn't afford so much money, this time the Rejuvenating pill is also his own.

Moreover, he don't need to pay more than 200 billion, or more than 100 billion.

He only need to pay the highest price he have bid before, which is 72 billion!

Thinking of this, he suddenly didn't feel that the auction organizer was very pitiful. On the contrary, he felt that the organizer was simply exuding the brilliance of humanity everywhere.

Ferdie Joules also collapsed at this time.

The 210 billion quotation just now was called out step by step under the pressure of Jefferson Hawkins's competition.

How could he have pushed the price to such a high level if Jefferson Hawkins hadn't stabbed the knife horizontally?

So, if it can be re-shot, it is naturally the best solution for him.

However, he didn't expect that the organizer would put so much importance on rules and fairness!

If he is unwilling to pay 210 billion, then they would rather sell it to Bernard Elno for 72 billion, rather than re-shot it and let him buy it for 100 billion!

This is really not caring about money at all!

The audience at the scene was also amazed and admired by the principle and fairness of the organizer!

They know very well that what the organizer rejected just now was the $370 billion offered by Jefferson Hawkins!

And if Ferdie Joules also gave up the bid, then they would choose to sell this Rejuvenating pill to Bernard Elno.

And the price quoted by Bernard Elno was only a mere 72 billion!

370 billion compared to 72 billion, in the middle, there is a total difference of 300 billion US dollars!

However, for Ferdie Joules, he felt that this time the Rejuvenating pill should be bought at a price of 100 billion, not 210 billion.

The nature of a businessman made Ferdie Joules feel extremely uncomfortable.

“The quotation of 210 billion US dollars just now is the limit for me. I can only pay 200 billion of it quickly, and I have to find other ways for the remaining 10 billion...”

“Although it is not difficult to collect these tens of billions, after all, it is to drain all the cash, and there will be many negative impacts like dominoes...”

“It would be great if we could bid again, how could that Bernard Elno be my opponent?”

“He only made a bid of 72 billion just now, and I can even end the battle at 90 billion...”

“Furthermore, taking out 90 billion is completely irrelevant to me and the entire Joules family!”

So, he argued with reason, “Miss Moore, this rule is a bit unfair? If I give up the price of 210 billion US dollars, why can O16 take over at the price of 72 billion US dollars?”

“The price difference is too much, and it is also a huge loss for the organizers!”

Having said that, he continued, “I personally think that the best and fairest solution is for both parties to bid again!”

Jasmine Moore said indifferently, "Sorry 035, rules are rules!"

"If we were all for money, we just sold this Rejuvenating pill to 099 for 370 billion US dollars, in that case, even if you wanted it, No. 099 had long gone with this Rejuvenating pill."

"You should thank our rules and fairness for giving you this opportunity, instead of distorting our rules and seeking the best interests for yourself."

Chapter 3922

Speaking of this, Jasmine Moore said meaningfully, "035, 210 billion US dollars is the price you bid yourself just now, which proves that it is within your tolerance range!"

"I personally think that you can pay this price. The deal is already here, if you are still not satisfied and try to continue the reshoot, then I can only arrange for the staff to ask you to leave!"

Immediately afterwards, Jasmine Moore said again, "If this Rejuvenation Pill is sold for 72 billion US dollars by No. 016, we will lose nearly 300 billion US dollars compared to the quotation of 370 billion just now!"

"But for us, $300 billion doesn't matter, the rules matter!"

"We will not hesitate to expel anyone who tries to challenge the rules and fairness of our auction!"

"No matter how much money he has, no matter how high his status, he is not welcome here!"

There was a sudden thud in the center of Ferdie Joules.

He recalled how Jefferson Hawkins was expelled just now, and knew in his heart that he was a little carried away.

Being able to have such an opportunity is already a blessing from God, what else do he has to worry about?

Thinking of this, he immediately gave up his struggle and said, "I am willing to pay 210 billion!"

Bernard Elno collapsed suddenly, and blurted out, "Miss Moore, this old man is talking so much nonsense, why didn't you expel him! He should get out of here immediately!"

Jasmine Moore said in a cold voice, "016, if anyone still is speaking up after I warn that he is about to be expelled, I will expel him naturally, so from now on, you and 035 must not say any more nonsense, otherwise, no matter what, whoever it is, will be expelled, and this Rejuvenating pill will be re-divided into four parts and auctioned on the spot!"

The audience immediately boiled, and someone blurted out, "Get them both out!"

Jasmine Moore looked at the man and said coldly, "No. 173, if you make noise again, I'll ask the staff to expel you!"

The audience kept their mouths shut.

Ferdie Joules didn't dare to do what he thought, and immediately said unswervingly, "I am willing to pay 210 billion! Please give me the phone number, and I will arrange the payment now!"

Bernard Elno collapsed suddenly, covering his face and crying.

The staff immediately handed the mobile phone to Ferdie Joules.

And Michaela Joules in the box finally breathed a sigh of relief.

This auction was really ups and downs and dangers for her. Fortunately, she could survive in the end.

Just now, she was really worried that her Grandpa's enthusiasm in business would come up, and then he would destroy a hand of desperate cards.

Fortunately, the old man finally defeated the impulse with reason.

Michaela Joules was very afraid that her grandfather would die prematurely, because in that case, her family would completely lose their support.

His uncle would definitely evict her family after the funeral without hesitation.

And as long as her Grandpa can survive, it is an opportunity for her.

At this time, Ferdie Joules had already given up struggling deep in his heart.

Although the price was raised by Jefferson Hawkins to 210 billion step by step made him extremely painful, but compared to the ten or twenty years of life that the Rejuvenating pill brings, it is still worth it after all.

So, he took the mobile phone handed by the staff and called his most trusted confidant butler directly.

When the call was connected, he said, "Gibson, immediately pay the auction house with the US$200 billion prepared by the Swiss Bank, and notify some of our closest partners, so that they can quickly raise US$10 billion and add it for the payment for the auction."

“Promise them the highest loan interest rate in the industry, and promise that they will receive special care from our Joules family in the future, be sure to hurry!”

For Ferdie Joules, a big man with a net worth of nearly one trillion dollars, it is easy to borrow ten billion dollars temporarily.

As long as he let out the words just now, he don't know how many people will break their heads and rush to let him borrow money.

However, he did not expect that the person called Gibson was silent for a moment on the other end of the phone, then choked up and said, “Master... two hours ago, the eldest young master had activated the highest emergency plan of the board of directors and froze the two hundred billion dollars...”

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3923-3924

“You... what did you say?”

Hearing this, Ferdie Joules' eyes went black and he almost fainted on the spot.

Fortunately, there was Flint Yeager beside him to support him, and at the same time he pressed hard on his fingers, so that he regained consciousness.

Immediately afterwards, he asked angrily and loudly, “What qualifications does that bastard have to activate the highest emergency plan of the board of directors?”

Gibson explained, “The eldest young master called a meeting of all the directors and listed all the details of the funds you went to the group’s Swiss bank account to mobilize...”

“He told the board that you have prepared $200 billion with great fanfare just to buy an ethereal elixir...”

“He believes that your sanity has experienced a great cognitive bias due to your current health condition. If you continue to serve as chairman, it will cause significant financial losses to the group, and it will pose a great crisis and risk to the group’s follow-up operations. So the highest emergency plan was activated...”

Speaking of which, Gibson continued, “On the board of directors, except for me, all other board members also voted in favor of him in launching the highest emergency plan, and he was also successfully elected as the interim acting chairman of the group. The first order after the acting chairman was to freeze the $200 billion cash you had prepared in the Swiss bank...”

Hearing this, Ferdie Joules collapsed instantly!

The highest emergency plan is a set of plans formulated by the board of directors to deal with emergencies.

Just like the vice president of the United States, when the president is in danger, he can urgently take over the president and issue orders on behalf of the president. It exists to deal with the most serious and urgent emergencies.

However, if you want to activate this emergency plan, you can’t just talk about it. There must be enough evidence to prove that the emergency situation is really urgent, and it can be activated after confirmation by most of the board members.

However, Ferdie Joules never dreamed that his eldest son, who was also the next heir as the Patriarch of the family, would take advantage of his absence to seize the matter that he was going to buy Rejuvenating pill, in order to activate the highest emergency plan and quietly usurp power!

Moreover, the first thing he did after usurping power was to freeze the group's funds in the Swiss bank and completely cut off his thoughts of bidding for Rejuvenating pill!

At this moment, Ferdie Joules was extremely angry and regretful.

He not only regretted not seeing the true face of his son, but also regretted that he had not transferred the funds to buy Rejuvenating pill to his personal account first.

After all, it is a huge sum of 200 billion US dollars. According to the US tax law, as long as the money comes from Ferdie Joules' personal account, he needs to pay a tax first.

According to the US tax law, using the group account to pay can not only save Ferdie Joules' personal income tax, but also allow the financial staff to use other items to include the money in the company's operating costs.

In this way, not only will the individual tax be exempted, but also corporate profits will be reduced and corporate tax burdens will be reduced.

In the United States, even if a rich person buys a plane ticket or a car, they use the company's money. With such a large expenditure of Rejuvenating pill, it is even more impossible for them to use their personal accounts.

Therefore, when Ferdie Joules was preparing to bid for Rejuvenating pill, he instinctively filtered out this payment method.

Not only him, but all the rich people who came to bid for Rejuvenating pill used this method, including the rich people who had successfully bid in the previous auction, and they also paid by corporate accounts.

However, Ferdie Joules, who has been secretive and sparse, did not calculate that the biggest risk of using a corporate account is this highest emergency plan.

Once his son successfully launched this emergency plan, he is the top leader of the group and naturally has enough power to freeze the group's account in the Swiss bank.

This is the so-called embankment of a thousand miles, which collapses in the ant's nest.

“Without those 200 billion dollars, what else can I use to buy this Rejuvenating pill?”

Chapter 3924

Ferdie Joules suddenly gritted his teeth, and scolded with trembling hands, “That bastard! This time he usurped my position, he is killing me and doesn't want me to continue living!”

At this moment, the whole audience heard Ferdie Joules' roar.

Everyone's eyes widened and they kept communicating in private.

Anyone can hear that the old man was put together by his own family.

If he can't come up with the money, this time the Rejuvenating pill, I'm afraid he will miss out!

And Bernard Elno was excited again at this time.

He doesn't know how many times he was desperate, excited, desperate, and excited over and over again today.

He felt that his heart was about to be tossed down.

If he felt this way so many times, and still didn't have the chance to get Rejuvenating pill, I'm afraid that he would have a heart attack and he would just burp here.

He is now staring at Ferdie Joules non-stop, waiting for him to say that he can't buy or pay.

In this way, he can win the Rejuvenating pill for only 72 billion US dollars!

Michaela Joules' heart that had just been put down, also raised again at this moment. Although she only heard a roar from her grandfather, she immediately knew that her uncle must have taken this opportunity to usurp the throne.

At this moment, Gibson on the phone choked helplessly and said, "Master... I'm sorry... I really have no way to help you, now I have been placed under residential surveillance by the eldest young master, and now there are at least dozens of mercenaries guarding my family in the surrounding area, and he said that I must not leave the house for half a step until you die..."

Ferdie Joules roared furiously, "I'll call that bastard now!"

After all, Ferdie Joules immediately hung up the phone and dialed another number.

The call was connected quickly.

However, there was no sound from the other end of the phone.

Ferdie Joules gritted his teeth and roared angrily, "You bastard! Why did you do this?"

On the other end of the phone, a somewhat old voice came over and said, "Dad... I'm in my seventies this year, and you are considered to be familiar with history books. Even in the ancient times, you can't find a few ten-year-old crown princes, right?"

Ferdie Joules asked in a fierce voice, "You can't wait to take the throne, so you want me to die?"

"Don't forget, I gave your life! Everything you have is given by me! The Joules family's fortune was all made by me! Don't you know how to be grateful at all?"

The other end of the phone gave a wry smile and said, "Dad, if you don't pursue longevity, I will definitely do my duty in front of you, and wait until the end of your life, and play the role of a dutiful son..."

Speaking of this, the other party sighed again, "But you are already in your 90s, do you still have enough to live? Why are you still obsessed with longevity at such an old age? If you really want longevity, what do you want me to do?"

Ferdie Joules roared, "Damn it! Do you think I have a long life?"

The other party smiled slightly and said seriously, "Dad, you believe in yourself all your life, you should know that changing your life against the sky is inherently against the law of the sky, and it is also a kind of damage to the blessings of your descendants."

"If you live a long life alone, what should we do? Do you want to live another twenty years and then send me away as a son?"

Ferdie Joules gritted his teeth and said, "If I seek the way of longevity, how could I treat you badly! You are my flesh and blood!"

The other party sighed, "Dad, what do you mean, we father and son will live together for a few more decades, and then I will be the crown prince for a few more decades? When I am a hundred years old, will I still serve you by your side?"

Speaking of this, the other party paused slightly and said seriously, "I don't want you to extend your life, I just want you to die normally."

"It's good to go with the flow..." Ferdie Joules murmured and gritted his teeth, "But you know that my life is not long, and if I miss this Rejuvenating pill, you may not see me for the last time!"

The other party said lightly, "To be honest, I don't want to see you for the last time."

After speaking, the other party said again, "Dad, all your confidants in the group have been cleaned up by me, so I advise you to give up your struggles and stay in China to live a good life until your last breathe. After all, you have been away for so many years, and it is time to return to the roots."

"Even if you want to come back, I won't let you enter, and when you go back and forth and die on the road, I, as a son, will feel bad about it."

"So, from today, you can enjoy your old age in China!"

"If you are destined to live a long life, then I, as a son, are naturally very happy."

"But if you are destined to live less than 100 years old and die soon, as a son, I will naturally send you the last ride in a beautiful way!"

Hearing this, Ferdie Joules hated to the bone.

How could he not know what his son's words meant?

Although the other party's words are high-sounding, the essence is nothing more than the words: 'Don't come back and die in China!'

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3925-3926

At this moment, Ferdie Joules felt extremely painful.

He never imagined that in his eyes, the eldest son, who he valued affection and everything, would have thought of overthrowing him.

Now that he had traveled thousands of miles to Aurous Hill to seek longevity, this made his eldest son angry.

Therefore, at this time, his eldest son suddenly tore his face and revealed his true form.

Although Ferdie Joules is extremely unwilling, he is also very clear that since his eldest son has successfully usurped the throne and has almost all board members vote in favor, it proves that he must have completely controlled the situation in the United States and had enough grasp, so that the board members are powerless to resist.

The fact that so many board members support him also shows on another level that he has lost trust in the minds of board members.

Don't say that this old bone is now dead and unable to struggle, even if he still has the strength, there is absolutely no hope of turning around in this situation.

After all, he is now tens of thousands of kilometers away from the United States, and his confidants have been eliminated by his eldest son. In this case, even if he can go back, what will he use to compete with him?

So, he suppressed the anger in his heart and said, "Okay! Since you have already arranged for me, after I die, bury me in the motherland. I want to sleep with my parents forever."

The other party said apologetically, "I'm sorry Dad, I have selected the most expensive cemetery in the United States for you."

"The neighbors around your cemetery are basically all previous presidents of the United States. You will sleep here forever, I believe you will be very satisfied."

Ferdie Joules asked in a trembling voice, "I only have one request and yet you can't still agree?"

The other party sighed helplessly, "Dad, if you are not buried in the United States or beside me in a hundred years, others will definitely gossip about me behind my back."

After a pause, the other party said again, "Besides, your descendants are all in the United States. In the future, on the day of the festival, I can't let myself toss with so many descendants just to go back to China to worship you, right?"

"Buried in the United States, all of your descendants will have a little more convenience."

Ferdie Joules was silent for a moment, then laughed miserably, "Okay... It's really good. I, Ferdie Joules, can have a son of a tiger like you, I'm very lucky!"

The other end of the phone didn't care about Ferdie Joules' sarcasm, and said lightly, "Dad, as the old saying goes, a tiger father has no dog son. I can't be today without your words and deeds."

After that, the other party said again, "Dad, I just took over the board of directors, there are too many things to do, there are still many of your old departments to deal with one by one, so I won't talk to you more."

"You take good care of your health in China, if you have something to do, just let Michaela call me and let her and Master Yeager take care of you over there, I am naturally 10,000 times reassured."

As he said that, he said coldly, "But Dad, I have something I want to make clear to you in advance. I have already informed the customs, and there are people I arranged to guard at the ports. If you and the others won't come back here, then I won't embarrass Michaela's family, but if you and the others dare to come back secretly, don't blame me for being reckless!"

Ferdie Joules knew that he had completely lost the power to restore the heavens. In order not to implicate his granddaughter's family, he immediately said, "Okay! I promise you! After I die, I'll let Michaela take my body back to United States."

"Okay!" The other party also smiled cheerfully, "If that's the case, then let's say it's a deal. During this time, you will have a good rest in China. Let Michaela contact me once you die, and I will send a plane to pick you up!"

Having said that, he hung up the phone for convenience.

After being sluggish in place for a few seconds, Ferdie Joules handed the mobile phone to the staff and said sullenly, "I'm sorry, I abstain..."

As soon as he finished speaking, Bernard Elno, who had been waiting anxiously, suddenly cheered excitedly and shouted, "Rejuvenating pill is mine! It is mine!"

At this time, Ferdie Joules' facial features suddenly twisted into a ball in pain, and a mouthful of blood spurted out uncontrollably.

The few people around who were splashed with blood just wanted to scold him, but they didn't think that Ferdie Joules seemed to have exhausted the last bit of energy from the blood just now, and the whole person instantly froze and lost consciousness.

The few people who had been sprayed on their heads and covered in blood, saw the old man dying instantly, and they didn't care too much, and began to wipe the blood on their bodies angrily.

Flint Yeager hurriedly supported Ferdie Joules, who was unconscious, and then he reached out to feel Ferdie Joules' pulse. Seeing that his pulse was weak, he was on the verge of death, and he hurriedly shouted, "My master is dying! Call an ambulance!"

At this time, the door of the second-floor box leading to the second-floor railing was pushed open, and Michaela Joules was running in panic, crying, "Grandpa! Master Yeager, what happened to my grandpa?!"

Flint Yeager looked up at Michaela Joules and said sadly, "Miss Joules, Lord Joules... I'm afraid he won't make it!"

Michaela Joules suddenly collapsed and shouted at the staff, "Life is at stake, call an ambulance!"

Flint Yeager squeezed out of the seat with Ferdie Joules, who was in a coma, and shouted to the staff, "Please call an ambulance!"

Jasmine Moore quickly contacted the staff who made the emergency plan to come in.

She was afraid that at the auction tonight, someone would suddenly fall down here because of being excited or stimulated, so she arranged an emergency team in advance.

The emergency team has prepared more comprehensive rescue equipment in advance, and when the situation is critical, there are cars and helicopters that can take people to the hospital as quickly as possible.

However, just as she was about to speak, Charlie's voice came from the earphone, "Jasmine, ask the staff to bring him to the VIP room."

Jasmine Moore breathed a sigh of relief when she heard Charlie's voice.

She also saw that Ferdie Joules was too old, and he was already a dying person, and he was suddenly so stimulated that he might not make it if he will be sent to the hospital.

Fortunately, Charlie has spoken, which means that he must have decided to help.

So, she immediately ordered, "Quickly send No. 035 to the VIP room!"

Hearing this, Michaela Joules finally saw a ray of light in her desperate heart.

She knew that Jasmine Moore must have conveyed what Charlie meant, as long as Charlie was willing to take action, her grandpa would have hope!

At this time, after hearing about it, several soldiers from Dragon Hall immediately stepped forward and said to Flint Yeager, "Please come with me immediately."

Flint Yeager still didn't want to understand, and yelled loudly, "My master is dying, why don't you call an ambulance to take him to the hospital? What's the use of going to the VIP room?"

After all, he no longer concealed his powerful aura as a seven-star warrior, and roared, "I'm going to send someone to the hospital now! If any of you dare to stop me, don't blame me for being ruthless!"

Hearing this, Michaela Joules immediately shouted anxiously, "Master Yeager! Take grandpa to the VIP room! This is grandpa's last chance!"

Flint Yeager raised his head and glanced at Michaela Joules.

Seeing that her tone was extremely firm, he nodded and said to the soldiers in the Dragon Hall, "Where is the VIP room, help me take him there!"

Charlie was on the walkie-talkie at this time, and said to Jasmine Moore, "Jasmine, let the lady go there too."

Jasmine Moore immediately issued an order through the internal channel, "Please bring the lady to the VIP room too."

Several Dragon Hall soldiers who were originally guarding the back door of the VIP room immediately pushed the door and entered.

They passed through the VIP room to the outermost fence on the second floor, and said to Michaela Joules who was standing by the fence, "Lady, please come with me!"

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3927-3928

Chapter 3927

Michaela Joules knew that since Charlie had already instructed, she would definitely not stand idly by.

So, she quickly followed the staff and quickly ran to the first floor.

The VIP room on the first floor is very close to the banquet hall.

Flint Yeager had already brought the dying Ferdie Joules here.

Soon, the staff also brought Michaela Joules over.

As soon as Michaela Joules entered the door, she could no longer care about her dual identities, and suddenly rushed to Ferdie Joules' side, choked and asked, "Grandpa, wake up, grandpa... It's me, Michaela, you can you hear me?"

Flint Yeager sighed and said, "Miss Joules, Lord Joules' breath is already extremely weak. I'm afraid that he won't be able to recover..."

Michaela Joules' tears rolled down, and she choked out, "No... Mr. Wade won't let grandpa die like this... He must have a way... He must have..."

Flint Yeager sighed, "I think that Rejuvenating Pill can really bring him back to life, but... but now, Lord Joules... can't afford the money to buy it..."

Michaela Joules also knows that her Grandpa is now usurped by her uncle, and with her uncle's behavior, all opportunities for counterattack will inevitably be blocked.

Under such circumstances, how could her grandpa still afford the Rejuvenating pill...

Moreover, Michaela Joules was not sure herself if Charlie would definitely bring out a Rejuvenating pill for her grandpa.

After all, the cost of the Rejuvenating pill this time was too high, and the little favor she had accumulated before was probably a drop in the bucket.

Just when she was flustered and didn't know what to do, the door of the VIP room was pushed open, and a tall figure walked in quickly.

Michaela Joules turned around and saw that it was Charlie, so she rushed in front of him, kneeling on her knees and crying and begging, "Mr. Wade, please save my grandfather... As long as you are willing to save him, I will be a cow and a horse all my life to repay your kindness..."

Charlie glanced at Michaela Joules and asked her, "Should I call you Miss Lavigne or Miss Joules?"

When Michaela Joules heard this, her heart froze.

She suddenly realized that Charlie may have already figured out her identity.

So, she hurriedly kowtowed and repented, "I'm sorry Mr. Wade, my real name is Michaela Joules, I'm the granddaughter of the Joules family, not from the Lavigne family, but... But I didn't mean to lie to you, I just wanted to rejuvenate my grandfather. I want to approach you in advance and become friends with you..."

As she said that, she explained, "The reason why I used the identity of Miss Lavigne is because I was afraid that you would know my purpose in advance. I also did nothing wrong to your father-in-law and your wife, and I also beg to forgive me for what I have done for the sake of my filial piety..."

Charlie nodded noncommittally, and said lightly, "It's important to save your grandfather first, so I won't talk about this for the time being."

Michaela Joules looked at Charlie nervously, and asked tentatively, "Mr. Wade... you...can you save my grandpa's life?"

Charlie was about to speak when a soldier from the Dragon Hall came to Charlie and said in a low voice, "Mr. Wade, Mr. Exeor, is at the door."

Charlie nodded and said, "Please let Mr. Exeor come in."

Immediately, the Dragon Hall soldier invited Orion Exeor in with a worried expression.

Charlie respectfully asked, "Mr. Exeor, why are you here?"

Orion Exeor hurriedly said, "I just saw Ferdie vomited blood and fell into a coma, and I couldn't rest assured."

With that said, he hurriedly looked at Ferdie Joules, who was dying, and couldn't help but ask, "Mr. Wade, do you have a solution for Ferdie's current situation?"

Charlie glanced at Ferdie Joules, and then at Michaela Joules.

At this time, Ferdie Joules was indeed on the verge of dying, and only the last faint breath was left.

Seeing that Michaela Joules and Orion Exeor were pleading with their faces, Charlie didn't say anything more, and took out half of the Life-Saving pill that he had prepared long ago from his pocket.

The moment he took out half of the Life-Saving pill, Michaela Joules burst into tears with excitement.

The medicinal pills basically looked the same, and she thought that what Charlie took out was the Rejuvenating pill that her grandfather had been thinking about.

Recalling the miraculous effect of Rejuvenating pill just now, I am afraid that it only takes a quarter of a pill to save her grandfather.

If he took half of it, it would probably extend his lifespan by at least six or seven years, or even ten years.

However, just when she was so excited that she didn't even know how to thank Charlie, Charlie said lightly, "Miss Joules, I want to make it clear first, this is not a Rejuvenating pill."

Michaela Joules was stunned for a moment, "It's not a Rejuvenating pill... Mr. Wade... Then...what kind of medicine is this?"

Charlie said indifferently, "This is a Life-Saving pill, its efficacy is much worse than that of Rejuvenating pill, but half a pill is enough to save your grandfather, and by the way, save his life for another year or two."

Hearing this, Michaela Joules breathed a sigh of relief.

Now, how can she dare to ask her grandfather to increase her longevity by ten years, as long as she can overcome this hurdle, she is already lucky.

So, she knelt on the ground to kowtow to Charlie, and said gratefully, "Thank you, Mr. Wade for saving my grandpa's life! Thank you, Mr. Wade! In the future, I will repay your kindness and great virtue by being a cow and a horse..."

Charlie waved his hand, and said indifferently in his words, "I don't need you to be a cow and a horse to repay me. As for this half Life-Saving pill, on the one hand, I don't want to owe you any favors, on the other hand, I also see your filial piety, after your grandfather took this half pill, you and I owe each other."

Michaela Joules was nervous and wanted to explain something, but seeing that her grandfather's breath seemed to be getting weaker and weaker, she could only say respectfully, "Thank you, Mr. Wade! Thank you!"

After that, she quickly got up and came to Ferdie Joules' side, and fed the half Life-Saving pill into his mouth.

After a while, Ferdie Joules, who had almost lost his breath, finally slowly opened his eyes.

However, after saving his life, only a small amount of the effect of half Life-Saving pill remained, and it could only improve his body a little, so Ferdie Joules was still very weak at this time, but he's condition is not life-threatening anymore.

The moment he opened his eyes and saw Michaela Joules, the old man cried weakly, "Michaela..."

After speaking, he immediately burst into tears.

For him, this life has been winning, undefeated.

Unexpectedly, in his 90s, he would be defeated by his son, and the defeat would be a mess and completely.

In addition to his grief, when he saw that Orion Exeor was there, he felt even more ashamed, and said, "Brother Orion, I'm letting you see a joke today..."

Orion Exeor shook his head and said seriously, "Ferdie, don't think about anything right now, taking good care of your body is the most important thing. If you keep the green hills, you won't be afraid of running out of firewood! If you want to take back what belongs to you, you must take care of yourself first!"

Ferdie Joules laughed miserably, shook his head and sighed, "Brother, I'm afraid that my life is not long, what else can I use to take back what belongs to me, that villain has already controlled the situation in the United States, I am now a lonely old man who is poor and white, and is about to die, what can I do to fight him...”

Michaela Joules said quickly, “Grandpa, just now Mr. Wade gave you half a Life-Saving pill to save your life. Not only will your life not be in danger, but your lifespan will last at least one to two years!”

Hearing this, Ferdie Joules looked at Charlie next to Michaela Joules with excitement, and murmured, “This... this is Mr. Wade?”

Charlie looked at the old man who was dying in front of him, smiled slightly, and said indifferently, “Hello, Lord Joules, my name is Charlie Wade.”

Ferdie Joules felt that his body was indeed stronger than before, so he struggled to get up and wanted to bow to Charlie, but Charlie reached out his hand to stop it and said, “Lord Joules, your body is still weak, you shouldn’t move for now.”

Ferdie Joules said gratefully, “Mr. Wade... I have heard your name for a long time, and I finally see you today. Thank you for your life-saving grace. If it hadn’t been for your help, I might have died...”

Charlie waved his hand, glanced at Michaela Joules next to him, and said, “If you want to thank, please thank your granddaughter. I would not have interfered in this kind of matter if I haven’t owed her a little favor.”

Having said that, Charlie said again, “By the way, I would also like for you to thank Mr. Exeor for interceding for you.”

Ferdie Joules nodded lightly and looked at Michaela Joules with tears in his eyes.

When the grandfather and granddaughter looked at each other, Michaela Joules also had tears in her eyes and sobbed.

Afterwards, Ferdie Joules looked at Orion Exeor again, and sighed softly, “Brother Orion, this matter has caused you to worry!”

Orion Exeor hurriedly said, “Why are you being polite to me? Besides, I can’t help you much. The main thing is that Mr. Wade and Michaela are helping you.”

Ferdie Joules nodded slightly, looked at Charlie again, and said gratefully, “Mr. Wade, your great kindness and virtue will be remembered in my heart, but I’m in deep trouble now, and I may not have the ability to actually repay your kindness...”

Ferdie Joules is very clear that from this moment on, he has almost nothing.

Although there is still some funds in his personal account, compared to the entire Joules family, it is only a drop in the bucket. Most of the Joules family’s assets have nothing to do with him.

Charlie said lightly at the moment, “Okay, I don’t want you to pay back anything, and your current physical condition is not fully recovered. If you want to live another year or two in the future, it depends on your cultivation and adjust yourself.”

Ferdie Joules nodded and said gratefully, “Thank you, Mr. Wade! Thank you!”

Michaela Joules also said respectfully, “Mr. Wade, thank you!”

Charlie waved his hand and said, “Lord Joules, I have a question I want to ask you, and please don’t cover it up.”

Although Ferdie Joules didn't know what Charlie wanted to ask, he still said very firmly, "Mr. Wade, rest assured, I will truthfully answer anything you ask."

Charlie nodded slightly and asked him, "Lord Joules, I want to know, what is the identity of that No. 099, Jefferson Hawkins, who bid with you at the auction?"

"Jefferson Hawkins?" Hearing this, Ferdie Joules shook his head and smiled bitterly, "His real name is not Jefferson Hawkins, but he rarely uses his true identity."

After speaking, Ferdie Joules said again, "His true identity is the eldest son of the Evans family, Desmond Evans."

"Desmond Evans?"

Charlie was stunned when he heard these three words!

In Charlie's memory, he has three uncles, the eldest uncle Desmond Evans, the second uncle Reginald Evans, and the younger uncle Julius Evans.

In addition, he also has an aunt named Catherine Evans.

In fact, these three uncles, as well as his aunt, met Charlie only a handful of times.

But the reason why he can remember their names very clearly is mainly because their names, like his mother Lily Evans, are taken from the classical writings of China.

Among them, the name of his mother, Lily Evans, is taken from the phrase “Peach and plum do not speak, and the foot is formed by itself” in “Historical Records”;

The name of his uncle, Desmond Evans, is taken from the title of the chapter in “Book of Songs”;

The name of his second uncle, Reginald Evans, is taken from “Wind Reginald” in the “Book of Songs”;

The name of his third uncle, Julius Evans, is taken from one of the fifteen national styles of the “Book of Songs”;

The name of his Auntie, Catherine Evans is taken from the opening chapter of “Book of Songs”, “Catherine, eating wild apples.”

Chapter 3930

Although Charlie didn’t go to college seriously, but before he was eight years old, his family gave him an extraordinary enlightenment education.

He has studied classical works under the guidance of his mother since he was a child. He has already read the “Historical Records” and “Book of Songs” thoroughly, and naturally he also remembers the names of his three uncles and aunt clearly.

And he never dreamed that the No. 099 who was expelled just now was his uncle!

No wonder he look somewhat familiar, but Charlie couldn’t remember where and when he saw him.

After all, he had too little intersection with him, and in the past 20 years, his appearance has changed a lot compared to when he was in his 20s, so he didn’t recognize him for a while.

Charlie couldn't help but ponder, "Uncle, it seems that you are definitely not bidding for the Rejuvenating pill for yourself, otherwise it would be impossible to plead for the Rejuvenating pill to be taken away."

"Is it for Grandpa?"

"However, before the auction, I just talked with Mr. Exeor about my grandfather. Mr. Exeor also made it clear that my grandfather never believed in Eastern medicine..."

"Then who did he shoot this Rejuvenating pill for?"

Charlie suddenly fell into thought.

Then, he subconsciously looked at Orion Exeor, who was also puzzled.

Orion Exeor also guessed the doubts in Charlie's heart, frowned and said, "Since Castrence Evans' father passed away, I basically had nothing to do with the Evans family. From what I know about Castrence Evans, he should not believe in such things as Rejuvenating pill."

Hearing this, Charlie finally understood that Orion Exeor and his uncle had not seen each other for many years, so he didn't recognize him at the auction.

And Michaela Joules, who was on the side, clearly saw just now that Charlie's expression was horrified when he heard the words Desmond Evans.

Moreover, she also saw with her own eyes that Charlie and Orion Exeor seemed to have some kind of eye contact about this Desmond Evans.

At this moment, she suddenly realized in her heart, "Mr. Wade and Mr. Exeor must have some connection with the Evans family!"

“Otherwise, Mr. Wade would never show horror, and the two of them would never have such eye contact!”

“Mr. Exeor doesn’t need to guess, because he said just now that he didn’t interact with the Evans family until after Castrence Evans’ father passed away;”

“This sentence is reversed, which means that Mr. Exeor had a good relationship with the Evans family when Castrence Evans’ father was alive.”

“But Mr. Wade is so young and has been living in China. How could he be involved with Evans family, the second-ranked family in the United States?”

Thinking of this, Michaela Joules suddenly remembered another thing.

“The Evans family’s eldest daughter, Lily Evans, whom I admire most, was married to a Chinese, to a young master of Wade family, and then died young twenty years ago...”

She couldn’t help but murmured in her heart, “Evans family... Lily Evans... Wade family... Lord Wade... Charlie Wade...”

Thinking of this, she seemed to suddenly want to understand something, and she was horrified!

At this moment, she finally guessed the true identity of Charlie!

“It turns out that he is not only Master Wade, who is famous in Aurous Hill, but also a grandson of the Wade family!”

“Not only that, he is actually also a grandson of the Evans family! He is the only son of my idol Lily Evans!”

“According to legend, Lily Evans, her husband and son all died because of a conspiracy.”

“But I never thought that Lily Evans’ son would survive!”

At this moment, Michaela Joules finally realized that she, a granddaughter of the Joules family, thought that she would stand out from the crowd when she arrived in Aurous Hill, but she never dreamed that there was a real dragon like Charlie in this acre of Aurous Hill!

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3931-3932

Chapter 3931

At the moment when he saw through Charlie’s identity, Michaela Joules seemed to have caught the real straw.

Suddenly, she knelt on the ground again and choked up and begged, “Mr. Wade, please help my grandpa regain the power of the Joules family...”

As soon as Michaela Joules said this, Ferdie Joules was stunned.

He couldn’t figure out why Michaela Joules begged Charlie to help him regain power.

After all, although Charlie has the Rejuvenating pill, even if he gives Rejuvenating pill to himself, he can only survive.

Survival does not mean to regaining the power of the Joules family.

Because his eldest son is tantamount to eradicating himself, and he can’t compete with him at all.

He may even not be able to return to the United States.

Because once he rushes back, his eldest son will definitely regard himself as a thorn in his eyes and flesh, and will not let himself go back alive in any case.

Orion Exeor beside him was also surprised and at the same time happy.

What shocked him was that Michaela Joules could actually see through Charlie's real identity.

Fortunately, Michaela Joules did ask for the right person. At present, I'm afraid there is no other person like Charlie, who has the ability to help Ferdie Joules regain control of the Joules family.

Charlie was also extremely surprised.

He knew that Michaela Joules was smart, but he didn't expect her to be this smart that she already understand his true identity.

She have heard Desmond Evans' name just now and Charlie suddenly couldn't control his expression and was caught by Michaela Joules.

Fortunately, except for Orion Exeor and the soldiers of the Dragon Hall, they don't know that Charlie is the young master of the Wade family. Michaela Joules' words did not expose himself either.

Therefore, Charlie didn't want to deny it either. He just looked at Michaela Joules and said lightly, "Sorry, I can't help you with this."

In a hurry, Michaela Joules blurted out, "How come Master Wade? With your ability, if you are willing to help, there must be a way. As for the conditions, you can say it casually. I believe Grandpa can promise you anything..."

Ferdie Joules was extremely surprised. He looked at Michaela Joules and asked softly, "Michaela... This.. you..."

Seeing that Michaela Joules had seen through his identity, Charlie said to the soldiers of Dragon Hall beside him, "You go out first."

"Okay, Mr. Wade!" Several soldiers of Dragon Hall immediately turned around and went out.

Charlie then looked at Flint Yeager and said, "Sir, please wait for us outside too."

Flint Yeager glanced at Ferdie Joules and saw Ferdie Joules nodding so he also walked out.

At this time, only Charlie, Orion Exeor, Ferdie Joules and Michaela Joules were left in the room.

At this time, Charlie looked at Ferdie Joules and said seriously, "Lord Joules, I am the grandson of Eastcliff's Wade family. My mother is the eldest daughter of the Evans family. Desmond Evans who just competed with you just now is my uncle."

Ferdie Joules was stunned when he heard this.

He stared wide and said in horror, "You... you are Lily Evans' son?! Haven't all Lily Evans' family passed away?"

Charlie sighed and said seriously, "My parents passed away, but I survived."

After saying that, Charlie asked him, "The reason why my parents died, do you know the inside story?"

Chapter 3932

Ferdie Joules shook his head and said, "Mr. Wade, the news of your mother's death in China had a great impact on the upper class of the United States. Many people say that she was killed, but no one knows who killed her. It is said that Evans family has also been investigating, but it has not been found out, let alone outsiders like us...”

At this time, Michaela Joules, who was beside him, also said, “Mr. Wade, after your mother passed away, many of her alumni in Stanford and those Silicon Valley figures who had accepted her investment to become top entrepreneurs have been doing everything possible to find out the truth about her death for so many years, and nothing has been found out yet.”

Hearing this, Charlie suddenly felt disappointed.

At the earliest days, he thought his parents were killed by the Banks family, but he found that the Banks family did not have that ability at all.

Then, he felt that the Wade family must know the reason why his parents were killed, but Lord Wade was also confused about it.

Now he feels that Ferdie Joules may have inside information that he doesn't know, but he also knows nothing about it.

What made Charlie desperate was that his grandfather's family did not seem to know the reason.

Not only that, so many old friends of her mother in Stanford and so many Internet crocodiles she has invested in, so many top and smart people have joined hands to find clues, which is really inconceivable.

Charlie now doesn't know who he wants to find to find clues about the murder of his parents.

At this time, Ferdie Joules looked at Charlie, but his eyes flashed with light.

In his opinion, Charlie is the grandson of Castrence Evans. It must not be difficult to mobilize the strength of Evans family and help himself regain power!

Therefore, he quickly pleaded, “Mr. Wade, I am daring to ask you to help me regain the control of the Joules family. If possible, I am willing to reward 20% of the shares of all industries of the Joules family!”

Charlie smiled and asked him, “Why do you think I can help you regain power?”

Ferdie Joules blurted out, “Mr. Wade, you are Castrence Evans’ grandson. As long as you open your mouth, they must be responsive to every request. With much strength, this matter is not difficult!”

Charlie shook his head and said lightly, “Lord Joules, you take it for granted. I haven’t seen the Evans family for more than 20 years. They don’t even know that I’m alive. Why do you think they will respond to me?”

Speaking of this, Charlie gave a slight and asked, “Besides, you and I just met today. Why do you think I will go to settle down for you?”

“Is it for your 20% stake? You witnessed tonight’s auction with your own eyes. If I agreed with my uncle to take away the Rejuvenating pill, he will definitely pay me 370 billion US dollars, but I didn’t take this money seriously. Do you think I, Charlie Wade, will see your 20% stake?”

When Ferdie Joules heard this, his face suddenly turned pale.

He just felt that Charlie had the ability to help himself, but now when he thought about it, he suddenly realized that even if Charlie has the ability to help himself, it did not mean that he had the obligation to help him.

Thinking of this, he laughed at himself and lamented, “Mr. Wade is right. I took it for granted...”

Michaela Joules beside him also seemed to be hammered.

At this moment, she also suddenly realized that Charlie had doubled the favor she had given to Charlie before. Just now, Charlie had doubled the half of Life-Saving pill to save her grandfather. What other qualifications does she have to ask him for help?

At this time, Orion Exeor, who was beside him, sighed and comforted, "Ferdie, I know you are unwilling, but you know that you have almost nothing at present, but your son has controlled the Joules family with a market value of nearly one trillion dollars. It is impossible for you to win such a huge gap in strength."

Speaking of this, Orion Exeor said again, "Moreover, even if you have a strong stapling down, it is impossible to help you regain power easily. This is not a war between the two countries. Whoever is strong can destroy each other. This is a peaceful era and a society ruled by law. Everything should conform to basic legal principles."

"Your son took your power by relying on the highest emergency plan, which is reasonable and legal. What does it rely on to settle down and seize your son's power? Is it on the side of heaven?"

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3933-3934

Chapter 3933

Orion Exeor's remarks made Ferdie Joules unable to refute for a while, and his heart was even more shocked.

And Orion Exeor seemed to want to wake up this old friend once and for all, so he continued, "Ferdie, you must understand that your son did not simply usurp your position, he instigated the members of the board to overthrow you."

“Because of your desire for Rejuvenating pill, preparing 200 billion dollars just to compete for it definitely stimulate your descendants and other shareholders of your board of directors.”

“In other words, you are like an old emperor who did not hesitate to exchange the power of a country for his longevity in ancient times.”

“Your son and the members of the board not only no longer support you, but also don’t trust you anymore, they even regard you as a foolish tyrant. They just want to overthrow you and bring everything back to normal!”

“Think about it for yourself, if you didn’t lose everyone’s support, how could your eldest son take away your power so easily and completely?”

Speaking of which, Orion Exeor paused for a moment and said with emotion, “Ferdie, everything has a cause and effect, you have to reflect on yourself!”

At this time, Ferdie Joules was struck by lightning.

Before that, he only knew that it was his son who seized his power and took away the dynasty he had worked so hard to create.

But now he understands that it is because of his single-minded pursuit of longevity that he has lost the foundation of support and trust in his own dynasty.

In this case, what else does he want to take back power? It’s just a fool’s dream!

Thinking of this, Ferdie Joules was speechless and burst into tears.

And Michaela Joules was also awakened by Orion Exeor’s words.

She hopes that her grandfather can live a long life, so she supports her grandfather's quest for longevity extremely.

But in addition to her filial piety as a granddaughter, a large part of this is also based on her own interests.

She and her father, as well as her brothers and sisters have always lacked sufficient foundation in the family, and only relying on the blessing of the old man that they can live a little easier.

If the old man died early, her father, as Ferdie Joules' youngest son, would only get the least benefit.

That's the crux of the matter.

Michaela Joules want her grandfather to be alive, but it doesn't mean that other people think the same way.

At this time, Charlie suddenly said coldly, "Back then, when the Emperor's son rebelled and drove the Emperor out of the palace, he still had trouble sleeping and eating, and he spent his whole life searching for the Emperor's whereabouts. Now, you also be careful that your son will come to you to kill you as much as possible."

Ferdie Joules looked at Charlie and smiled bitterly, "He...shouldn't be so vicious. We just talked on the phone just now, and he told me frankly what he meant."

"As long as I don't go back to the United States, he will let me spend the rest of my life here in China, and when I die, he will let Michaela bring my body back to the United States for burial."

Charlie smiled playfully, shook his head, and said seriously, "In my opinion, the reason why he said this is based on the premise that he thinks you can live for a month or two at most, and he probably also thinks that after such a stimulus from him, you are very likely to die on the spot at the auction, or you may not recover since the auction, so that the few days left will continue to be greatly reduced.”

Speaking of which, Charlie looked at him and said indifferently, “If I didn’t save you just now, he might have got his wish now.”

Chapter 3934

Charlie’s expression froze at this time, and he continued to ask him, “Just imagine, if he knew that you have an extra year or two of life now, would he still be so calm and let you spend the rest of your life in China?”

Charlie’s question made Ferdie Joules and Michaela Joules’ heart skip a beat!

Ferdie Joules thought that although he lost the power of the Joules family, he would have at least a year or two more, and Charlie’s Rejuvenating pill would continue to be auctioned next year, so he might still have a chance.

But when he heard this, he realized that he was thinking a little too optimistically.

His son’s wish to let him die in the country is based on dying faster.

What if he doesn’t die soon?

Thinking of this, Ferdie Joules felt a chill.

She asked Charlie subconsciously, “Mr. Wade... Then what do you think Grandpa should do now?”

Charlie said indifferently, “At this time, don’t think about being able to kill a carbine and regain the peak. The only option now is to accept failure and find a way to survive.”

Orion Exeor suddenly said with some worry, “Mr. Wade, Ferdie and Michaela is helpless here in Aurous Hill...”

“Although there is Flint Yeager by their side, if the other party finds out that Ferdie is still alive, he will have trouble sleeping and eating. I’m afraid that he will be unable to hold back and send someone over in person to kill him.”

“In that case, a Flint Yeager is simply not enough to resist...”

Charlie nodded, looked at Michaela Joules, and said lightly, “Mr. Exeor is right, and since the other party is in charge of nearly a trillion-dollar company, there are probably too many experts who he can secretly mobilize, and the intelligence ability is even more immeasurable.”

“Even if you and your grandfather wanted to hide, they will definitely find you.”

Michaela Joules suddenly became nervous. It doesn’t matter if she can’t go back to the United States, but if the other party really loses his patience and wants to let his grandfather die sooner, she has absolutely no way to deal with it.

At this time, Orion Exeor couldn’t help begging Charlie, “Mr. Wade, if Ferdie and Michaela have no one to protect them, I’m afraid there will be many dangers.”

“I beg you to see that the two of them are helpless, and try to think about them as much as possible. This is a surefire way to let Ferdie live the rest of his life in peace...”

Charlie said helplessly, “Mr. Exeor, I have already booked an itinerary, and I will go to the United States with my wife at the end of the month, even if I leave them to my men in Aurous Hill to take care of them, once the other party really finds them, my subordinates may not be able to keep them safe.”

Michaela Joules let go of all her dignity at this time, knelt on her knees again, and said in tears, “Mr. Wade... Grandpa and I are now desperate, please show mercy and at least save my grandfather’s life...”

“As for myself, I will not bother you any more, please!”

Charlie didn’t want to interfere in the Joules family’s affairs, because he also knew that this kind of thing was beyond his current ability.

Although his personal strength is very strong, it is impossible to always keep Ferdie Joules and Michaela Joules by his side.

Although the strength that he can control at present is not bad, but after all, the foundation is still shallow, and there is definitely a big gap compared with the Joules family;

Moreover, for the time being, he is not ready to recognize the Evans family, let alone meet the Evans family because of the Joules family’s affairs.

Although there is Dragon Hall in his hand, he can’t let Wesley take the soldiers of Dragon Hall to fight over, can he?

A mercenary organization like Dragon Hall seems to be very powerful, but it can only survive in the cracks of this world.

If Dragon Hall really went to the United States to fight, and it was an enemy of the top big family in the United States, I am afraid that it would be wiped out in minutes.

Thinking of Dragon Hall, Charlie suddenly had a plan.

Immediately, he sighed and said, “Forget it, under the current situation, you definitely can’t stay in Aurous Hill anymore, and I’m going to the United States soon. You are comprehensive, and you will be even more unsafe in Aurous Hill when that time comes.”

Having said that, Charlie said again, “Well, I will send a car to take you to the hospital in a while, and then quietly arrange for the Dragon Hall to take you out of the hospital, and then take you directly to the port to take a boat to leave the country.”

“You will go to the Middle East, Dragon Hall has now started to build a base in the Middle East, and when you get there, your son will most likely not be able to find you, and even if they do, they will not be able to do anything to you on the site of Dragon Hall.”

“Dragon Hall?” Michaela Joules heard these words and asked subconsciously, “Mr. Wade, aren’t Dragon Hall and the Wade family enemies?”

Charlie snorted and said indifferently, “That’s what the world knows, but the truth is, there are more than 50,000 soldiers of Dragon Hall whom are loyal to me.”

The Amazing Son-In-Law
Chapter 3935-3936

Chapter 3935

As soon as Charlie said these words, Michaela Joules and Ferdie Joules were stunned.

Charlie’s understated words, in the ears of Ferdie Joules and Michaela Joules, exploded like thunder.

They never dreamed that it was rumored that the Wade family had cut half of their property to Dragon Hall in exchange for the favor of Wesley, the Lord of Dragon Hall, but the actual situation was completely the opposite!

Not only did the Wade family cede half of their property to Dragon Hall, but Charlie also brought the entire Dragon Hall under his command!

This is a mercenary group of tens of thousands of people!

Although such a mercenary group cannot be compared with the American army, its scale and combat effectiveness are by no means comparable to a wealthy family like the Joules family.

Michaela Joules' brain still didn't react, but Ferdie Joules suddenly realized, and blurted out, "No wonder... No wonder Master Yeager had doubts when he entered the venue, saying that almost all the security personnel here are martial arts and the lowest cultivation base is also a three-star warrior, and there are even five-star warriors. I think they must be people from Dragon Hall..."

Charlie nodded, and said frankly and cheerfully, "That's right, all the soldiers in Dragon Hall are responsible for the security of the entire auction this time. That Master Yeager you mentioned should be the one who has been following you just now, right? His cultivation is really good, he has reached the level of a seven-star warrior, and in the Dragon Hall, it is also the same level of the Four Great War Kings."

Ferdie Joules looked at Charlie in horror, and murmured, "Mr. Wade...how did you know that Master Yeager is a seven-star warrior?!"

In fact, even this question was asked, Ferdie Joules already had the answer.

Why did Charlie know Flint Yeager's cultivation?

The only possibility is that his cultivation is far above Flint Yeager!

Michaela Joules was even more shocked. She felt more and more at this moment that compared with Charlie, she was simply the difference between clouds and mud!

At this moment, Charlie laughed without saying a word, and then smiled lightly after a while, "Otherwise, you might thought how I, Charlie Wade, conquer the Dragon Hall? Is it because of being handsome?"

The stunned Michaela Joules suddenly broke her defense when she heard Charlie's words.

She couldn't help but chuckle, and then quickly shut her mouth wisely.

But it was this slight smile that made her feel relieved.

At this time, Ferdie Joules finally understood that Louis Rogers, who had been protecting Michaela Joules before, disappeared in Aurous Hill because of Charlie.

And Flint Yeager once said that the one who can make Louis Roger disappear silently must be a master of the dark world, and I am afraid that he has already broken through the darkness.

From this point of view, Charlie must be the master of the dark world.

Otherwise, it is impossible for him to bring Dragon Hall under his command!

Thinking of this, his eyes narrowed looking at Charlie full of awe, bowed respectfully to Charlie, and said reverently, "Mr. Wade has achieved such achievements at a young age, and the Wade family will definitely be limitless in the future!"

Charlie smiled slightly, looked at the time, and said, “Lord Joules, it’s getting late, it’s time for you and Miss Joules to set off.”

After all, Charlie looked at Michaela Joules and said seriously, “Miss Joules, I will inform Wesley that when you arrive in the Middle East, you will have a good accommodation. After all, going to the Middle East, the conditions are somewhat difficult, and you and Lord Joules will get over it.”

Michaela Joules also knew very well that even if Charlie had the ability to help her grandpa regain power, she was not qualified to ask him to help her at all.

Now that Charlie is willing to save her grandfather and her, it is already a great kindness.

So, she choked with gratitude, “Thank you Mr. Wade, for your kindness, I will never forget it!”

Chapter 3936

Charlie waved his hand and said again, “The road to the Middle East is long, you accompany Lord Joules to the hospital first, and I will ask someone to prepare some food and daily necessities, and bring you to the boat in advance.”

While weeping, Michaela Joules nodded again and again, and choked, “Thank you, Mr. Wade... Thank you!”

Charlie smiled lightly, looked at Ferdie Joules again, and said, “Lord Joules, you have to cooperate next.”

A few minutes later, several security personnel carried the stretcher in a panic, carried Ferdie Joules out of the VIP room, passed directly through the hall of the auction, and quickly exited the banquet hall in front of everyone's eyes.

The security guards rushed and shouted, "Get out of the way, the patient is dying, and he must be sent to the hospital for emergency treatment immediately!"

Michaela Joules dashed to the side, and the pear blossoms who were already crying brought rain.

Everyone at the auction watched helplessly as the staff carried Ferdie Joules away, and couldn't help but muttered.

Afterwards, the team arranged by Isaac Cameron immediately sent Ferdie Joules to the hospital.

Ferdie Joules and Michaela Joules left, and Charlie, who was in the VIP room, said to Orion Exeor, "Mr. Exeor, if Lord Joules' son finds out that Lord Joules and Michaela Joules are missing, they may pressure you to ask for details, then you will need to withstand the pressure."

Orion Exeor said with a smile, "You don't have to worry, Master Wade, that bastard from the Joules family doesn't dare to do anything to me, and I didn't follow to the hospital. After they arrived at the hospital, their whereabouts are unknown, so what's the use of asking me?"

Charlie smiled and nodded, and said, "Since this is the case, then I will be relieved."

Orion Exeor smiled, and then asked him, "By the way, Master Wade, I don't know why are you going to the United States this time?"

Charlie replied, "I will accompany my wife to a Master class in Providence."

Orion Exeor exclaimed and said, "Providence is on the east coast, and I am on the west coast, with a distance of more than 4,000 kilometers, if Master Wade has time, you are welcome to visit Los Angeles, and I will definitely entertain you!"

Charlie nodded and smiled, "Okay, if I have time, I will definitely visit you."

Orion Exeor smiled slightly and asked again, "Master Wade, how is the auction over there?"

Charlie smiled and said, "I asked Miss Moore to suspend the auction, let them wait first, and then start when I have finished arranging things."

Orion Exeor nodded, cupped his hands and said, "Master Wade, then I'll go back to the arena and wait."

After that, he said with a smile, "Tonight, the Rejuvenating pill seems to have fallen into the hands of Bernard Elno. This auction is really unexpected..."

Charlie helplessly shrugged his shoulders and said with a smile, "I thought that Lord Joules would be able to buy the whole Rejuvenating pill, but I never thought it would be like this."

Orion Exeor asked him, "By the way, Master Wade, don't you plan to meet Desmond Evans? According to the regulations of your auction, the auction will not end. Even if he is expelled from the venue, he cannot leave the hotel without authorization at this moment, right?"

Charlie shook his head and said, "Forget it, there's no reason to meet him. Although I don't know whether the Evans family is an enemy or a friend, but I know that the whole Evans family look down on my father very much."

“Even at the expense of keeping a clear line with the family, and for many years, there is not much interaction with the Evans family, so I guess they will not like me too much, why bother with that.”

Orion Exeor said earnestly, “If the Evans family knew of your current achievements, they would definitely not dislike you as you said.”

Charlie said with a smile, “If it’s because of the Rejuvenating pill or some other reason that they make them look at me with admiration and even care about me, then it’s better to just disappear. I don’t want this to happen to me.”

Orion Exeor pondered for a moment, then said, “Desmond Evans came to the auction secretly, thinking that someone in the Evans family must have a physical problem, it is probably your grandfather, I am worried that if you don’t take action, if something happened to your grandfather or other people because of this, you might feel bad about it...”

Charlie waved his hand, “It doesn’t matter, they were rude to my father and made things difficult for my mother in every possible way. Even if something happened to any of them, I wouldn’t feel bad about it.”

With that said, Charlie said indifferently, “Besides, if any of them is really in an emergency, they will definitely come over by themselves, instead of asking my uncle to come over and buy the Rejuvenating Pill. If you think about it, even if there is a real situation, it won’t be too critical!”

Chapter 3937

In Charlie’s view, since it is not clear whether the Evans family is an enemy or a friend, there is no need for him to actively reveal his identity.

As for who in the Evans family needs the Rejuvenating pill, he doesn’t want to explore for the time being.

Orion Exeor also felt that what Charlie said was very reasonable. Since the Evans family could let Desmond Evans come over to find out the truth about Rejuvenating pill, it really proved that their need for it was not so urgent.

Otherwise, if his grandfather is really in danger, he would have come by himself like Ferdie Joules.

So, he cupped his hands towards Charlie and said with a smile, “Master Wade, I’ll go back to the scene first.”

Charlie nodded and said, “Go back and wait for a while, and I’ll make some arrangements to let the auction continue.”

Immediately, Orion Exeor said goodbye and left the VIP room.

After Orion Exeor left, Charlie picked up the phone and called Stella Scott, who was in charge of BAIT Shipping. After the call, he asked her directly, “Stella, is there a ship going to the Middle East recently?”

“Yes, Mr. Wade.” Stella Scott said hurriedly, “The first batch of the food you promised to give to Syria has already been loaded at Lancaster Port, and it will set sail in the next two days.”

Charlie said immediately, “You can choose the most trustworthy captain and the necessary crew and engineers now, and let them start preparing now to set sail tonight, I will let the soldiers of Dragon Hall bring two people over later. When the time comes to take this ship to the Middle East, we must do a good job of strict confidentiality.”

Stella Scott heard Charlie’s order and did not ask for any details, and immediately said, “Okay, Mr. Wade, I will make arrangements now. The fastest time should be to set sail within two hours. When will the person you want to send over come?”

Charlie looked at the time and said, "I will arrange for a helicopter to send them there. If it's fast, it will only take an hour or two."

Stella Scott said neatly, "Then I will arrange it so that they are ready to set sail. In addition, I will let them separate the living quarters of the ship in half, and no one of them will be allowed to go to the other half."

"Okay." Charlie said with satisfaction, "Then you make arrangements first, and I will also prepare people here. When the time comes, I will have people contact you to discuss the details."

"OK!"

After hanging up, Charlie immediately picked up the walkie-talkie and said, "Is Xion there? Let her come to the VIP room to meet me."

Charlie had previously instructed Isaac Cameron to reserve a luxury suite for Xion Banks in the VIP building of Shangri-La Hotel and let her live here, so tonight Xion Banks also participated in the auction as one of the security personnel.

After a while, Xion Banks, dressed in a security uniform and valiantly, walked quickly to the VIP room. When she saw Charlie, she said respectfully, "Mr. Wade, are you looking for me?"

Charlie nodded and said, "Xion, you should go buy some daily necessities, food and clothing expenses, and personal items that you need to use. After you buy them, you have to help me deliver two people to the Middle East overnight. Hand them over to Wesley and come back after."

Xion Banks didn't ask any details, and immediately said, "Then I'll do it now!"

After speaking, she suddenly remembered something and asked quickly, “Do I need to prepare a passport?”

If you go through the customs and exit the country normally, you will naturally have to prepare a passport, which will be used for both exit and entry.

However, if you leave the country through abnormal channels, the passport is basically useless.

Charlie then said, “You don’t need to prepare passports, you all go by ship overnight, and I will let Wesley meet you there.”

“Okay, Mr. Wade!” Xion Banks nodded immediately and said, “Then I’ll do it now.”

.....

After everything was arranged, Charlie returned to the monitoring room.

In the monitoring room at this time, it could be seen that the auction site was silent, and everyone patiently waited for the auction to resume, but Bernard Elno was scratching his head in a hurry.

His mood went up to the ground several times this evening, and finally reached its peak at the moment when Ferdie Joules announced his abstention, but as time passed by, his mood began to feel anxious again, for fear that this matter would become misfortune again.

At this time, Jasmine Moore finally got Charlie’s advice and said into the microphone, “Everyone, No. 035 he was sent to the hospital for emergency treatment due to a sudden illness. Since he himself has announced to give up the competition for the last Rejuvenating pill this time. Buying opportunities will be filled by No. 016.”

When Bernard Elno heard this, he clenched his fists in excitement and threw a few punches in the void.

If it wasn't for fear of breaking the rules, he would have shouted a few times to express his joy.

Jasmine Moore looked at him at this time and asked, "No. 016, are you willing to buy the last rejuvenating pill for $72 billion?"

"I do! I do!" Bernard Elno blurted out excitedly, "Please call your finance department, I will arrange payment now!"

Jasmine Moore nodded and said, "No. 016, since you have confirmed it, then you are naturally the first candidate to buy the whole Rejuvenation Pill."

Speaking of this, Jasmine Moore added, "However, the owner of Rejuvenating pill has just confirmed with me one thing. Anyone who buys this Rejuvenating pill still needs to do one round of distribution so you can buy this Rejuvenating pill."

"Distribution again?!" Bernard Elno almost collapsed, and he said with a sad face, "Before, your two staff members have let me order more than 300 million US dollars of goods! Why do you want me to order goods again?"

The audience at the scene was also a little surprised. They had never heard of the requirement to distribute the goods. They don't know why they suddenly let No. 016 distribute the goods.

However, just when many people wanted to complain about No. 016, someone suddenly recognized him and blurted out, "Isn't No. 016 is Bernard Elno? He is the inventor of the luxury goods distribution system!"

Immediately afterwards, someone responded, “My God, it’s really him! My wife has already allocated tens of millions of euros for the distribution in his brand store!”

Another person said, “This guy has a very bad business reputation, because the distribution system is rarely scolded!”

“But he doesn’t change his stubbornness. Not only does he not change, but he is more and more ruthless. If it weren’t for the distribution system, he wouldn’t be able to seat as one of the richest man in the world!”

“I never thought that it would be his turn to distribute the goods today! It’s really self-inflicted!”

At this time, someone retorted, “Are you going too far? The distribution is all done by the salesman, what does it have to do with him?”

Someone sneered, “Is there something serious about your brain? Do you think that the distribution is made by the salesman?”

“You go out to buy a cup of coffee, why didn’t the waiter in the coffee shop let you distribute the goods? Why did Bernard Elno’s store allows you to stock up? This kind of globally unified bundled sales policy, if it weren’t for his personal order, who would dare to be so messy?”

“That’s right!” Someone immediately echoed, “He has made tens of billions of dollars through the rogue system of bundling and selling goods, and today it’s time for him to taste his own!”

At this time, Jasmine Moore faced Bernard Elno’s surprise and said indifferently, “No. 016, the distribution system itself is yours to carry forward, so many brands under your company resolutely implement the distribution system, no matter how the market opposes you, you will do your own thing. So this time the owner of Rejuvenating pill also told you to take special care of you.”

After saying that, Jasmine Moore said again, “Also, I asked you to distribute the goods before to qualify for the auction, but now I let you distribute the goods to buy the Rejuvenating pill. These are two different stages, and they should not be confused.”

“If you want this Rejuvenating pill, you must accept the distribution, otherwise, the Rejuvenating pill will be divided into four parts and continue to be auctioned on site;”

“Of course, you can continue to participate in the auction at that time, but I want to remind you that if you succeed in the auction, you will also need to distribute the goods!”

Chapter 3939

When Bernard Elno heard this, his whole person was sad and his face was full of hate.

He knew that he was being targeted.

The key is that he was targeted, and all the people around him who were bidding for the Rejuvenating pill were all cheering for it.

It was also at this moment that he realized that he was not only hated by the customers of his brands, but also hated by other rich people.

He also finally realized the evil of the distribution system.

It is to see that you like something, and then pinch your psychology to increase the price in another way.

If you protest, the seller will tell you that this is their sales policy.

And Bernard Elnó's desire for Rejuvenating pill is not just liking, it is related to his health and longevity.

With his current physical condition, if lung cancer makes a comeback, he basically has no choice but to die.

Moreover, he has experienced the pain of anti-cancer treatment twice, and he does not want to experience the third time in his life.

Thinking of this, he could only grit his teeth and ask Jasmine Moore with a humble face, "Miss Moore, I don't know how you want me to distribute the goods. My cash flow is not that abundant..."

Jasmine Moore nodded and said, "Don't worry, we won't push you to a dead end because of the distribution."

Having said this, she smiled slightly and continued, "If you follow your brand's distribution strategy, the ratio of the general distribution amount of popular models will start at one to one ratio or even higher?"

Bernard Elnó's eyes suddenly darkened. If he really distributed the goods on a one-to-one ratio, it would be 140 billion US dollars. Where would he get so much money?

Just when he was desperate, Jasmine Moore said again, "Of course, we are more particular about what we do than you, so we finally decided to let you distribute the goods according to the ratio of 50%. Since your bidding price is 72 billion, the distribution amount is 36 billion, and the total is 108 billion."

Bernard Elnó said in desperation, "I don't have so much money. I can take out a maximum of $80 billion in cash now..."

Jasmine Moore nodded and said, "In this case, you can also apply for installment payment."

Bernard Elno hurriedly asked, “How would I pay in installments?”

Jasmine Moore said, “For a total of 36 billion US dollars of distribution, you pay 8 billion first, and the remaining 28 billion will be paid in ten years. We can waive your installment fee for this. You know, if you do it outside for consumer loans, the ten-year interest rate is at least 50%.”

Having said this, Jasmine Moore added, “I believe that with your ability to attract gold, it should be very easy to spend 2.8 billion US dollars every year, and after you get the whole Rejuvenating pill, as long as there are no accidents, your lifespan will be at least added twenty years or more, so if you look at it this way, it must be a very good deal for you.”

Immediately, Jasmine Moore changed the topic and said, “Of course, you can also not accept it if you don’t want to. Our distribution policy is the same as yours. We advocate voluntary distribution, not compulsory distribution.”

Bernard Elno finally understands what a murderous heart is.

What is the difference between forcing others to distribute goods and saying that they are voluntary distribution?

But on second thought, isn’t it the same way for your own brand?

Thinking of this, he could only sigh that he had done it himself.

And although his heart was extremely painful, when he thought of Rejuvenating pill, he made a decision in an instant, gritted his teeth and said, “Okay...I accept it!”

Chapter 3940

Jasmine Moore nodded and said seriously, “No. 016, since you voluntarily and actively accepted our delivery policy, then you need to pay 80 billion

US dollars first. In order to ensure that you perform the contract, we also need to sign a series of documents. If you don't have any objection to this point, the Rejuvenating pill will be given to you after signing the legal file."

Bernard Elno shook his head and said sullenly, "No...I have no objection..."

Jasmine Moore nodded and smiled and said, "In that case, both of us have reached an equal and voluntary agreement on the distribution of Rejuvenating pill based on the principle of fairness and justice. Do you confirm this?"

Bernard Elno said with a sad face, "Confirm... I confirm..."

"Okay." Jasmine Moore smiled slightly and continued, "However, there are two things that I want to emphasize in front of No. 016 and all the bidders present today."

"First of all, please rest assured that our distribution system is only applicable to Mr. Elno. Except for him, anyone who successfully bids for Rejuvenating pill will not be charged any additional fees. We strictly follow the principle of fairness and justice so the previous four bidders who bought the quarters of Rejuvenating pill will not force any distribution, so please don't worry!"

As soon as these words came out, everyone at the scene immediately cheered.

Since it was only aimed at Bernard Elno, everyone would naturally be happy to see him laugh.

Therefore, everyone applauded and cheered happily, only Bernard Elno's face was extremely ugly.

Later, Jasmine Moore added, “Secondly, we are different from those outside companies that require distribution. We will not take a penny from all distribution income, and will donate all of it to charity!”

“Half of them will be donated to poverty-stricken areas in China, which will be specially used to solve the problems of school-age children and adolescents in poverty-stricken areas, as well as children and adolescents who are out of school, in terms of their studies, life and health, including but not limited to solving their tuition fees, living expenses, lunch fees and scholarships, grants, and even medical treatment for physical ailments;”

“The other half will be donated to all orphanages, welfare homes and other child welfare institutions in the country to improve the living and education level of orphans in welfare institutions;”

“The whereabouts of all funds will be accurate and disclosed to the whole society, and everyone’s joint supervision is welcome!”

As soon as these words came out, everyone on the scene was in an uproar again.

That’s ten years and $36 billion!

Donate it all?

Isn’t it burning money?

How many listed groups with a market value of 100 billion have not been able to make this amount in ten years, but this time the owner of the Rejuvenating pill is not at all tempted?

Moreover, everyone is a top rich man and is very clear about charity.

Even if it is to play charity, there is no such thing!

The richest people in the world, especially the richest people in the West, seem to be very keen on doing charity, setting up various charitable foundations, and then putting hundreds of millions or even billions of dollars into the foundations.

But in fact, the vast majority of such charitable funds are set up for tax avoidance.

Western billionaires often donate billions of dollars to set up foundations, in fact, they are packaged as family trusts, so as to avoid inheritance taxes as high as 50% and leave more money to their children and grandchildren.

According to the Western system, 5% of the funds of the foundation must be used for charity, and the remaining 95% is basically equivalent to a family trust, and it is also tax-free.

Therefore, when the rich in the West do charity, they only use a small amount of money to do good deeds, while more money is packaged in this way and left to their families.

Many Western rich people also promise to donate after death. In fact, most of them also use this method to repackage their wealth and continue to pass it on to future generations.

However, the owner of the Rejuvenating pill will donate all of the 36 billion US dollars, and he will also accept the supervision of the whole society.

This is really... terrifying!
