

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3263-3266

Chapter 3263

On the morning of April 3rd the next day, Charlie simply packed a few clothes, bid farewell to his wife and father-in-law, and set off again on the journey back to Eastcliff.

This time he didn't take the Wade family's private jet anymore, but took to Boeing business jet that Orrin Sun gave him, and together with Isaac Cameron, they prepared to set off for Eastcliff.

After boarding the plane, Charlie called Stefanie and told her that he was about to take off and will land at Eastcliff Airport in more than an hour.

Stefanie was naturally very happy, and said on the spot to leave immediately and go to the airport to prepare to meet him.

Just as the plane had slowly been pushed out and was about to accelerate to take off at the end of the runway, Charlie received a call from Lord Wade.

On the phone, Lord Wade couldn't hide his excitement and asked, "Charlie, when will you come to Eastcliff?"

Charlie said lightly, "I'm on the plane now, and I'll take off immediately."

"That's great!" Lord Wade said excitedly, "The whole Wade family is one less than you now!"

"Tonight, I will hold a banquet at home to entertain all the heads of the Wade family's collaterals and branches, as well as our Wade's own spokespersons in all parts of the country and even around the world."

“At that time, I will introduce your identity to everyone and let them know that you are the son of Bruce!”

Charlie said, “Forget it, that’s too high-profile and not in line with my habits.”

With that, Charlie said again, “I will live at Uncle Orrin’s house today.”

“Tomorrow I will return to the Wade family to participate in the meeting before the ancestor worship ceremony.”

“The day after tomorrow, I will also attend the ancestor worship ceremony on time.”

“I will not participate in other occasions and activities after that.”

Lord Wade said in a hurry, “Charlie, you are the son of Bruce, my grandson, and the second young master of the entire Wade family.”

“You must know that your future performance will belong to the Wade family.”

“Such an important occasion, only once 12 years, you must seize the opportunity to convince those Wade family branch members.”

Charlie smiled and said, “No, I’m not going to inherit the property of the Wade family.

“Let others do the things that make their appearances.”

With these words, he heard a roar from the engine of the plane and the plane had begun to sprint at one end of the runway, so he said to Lord Wade, "The plane is about to take off."

"Let's not talk about it yet. See you tomorrow."

After saying this, Charlie hung up the phone directly without waiting for Lord Wade to respond.

In fact, he didn't deliberately mean to be rude to his grandfather, mainly because he knew what kind of abacus the old man was doing.

He knew that the old man must want him to take the opportunity of this ancestor worship ceremony to officially return to the Wade family, thus completely abandoning his orphan status in Aurous Hill 20 years ago.

But this is unacceptable for Charlie.

After twenty years, in his mind, he is no longer the young master named Charlie of the Wade family, but the orphan named Charlie in Aurous Hill.

After all, his parents have been away for nearly 20 years, and his bond with the Wade family has been broken for too long.

In his opinion, it is unnecessary and impossible to forcibly take this bond back.

At this time, Lord Wade saw Charlie hanging up his phone, and his heart was somewhat unhappy.

But he still knows the reason why Charlie did this.

He also knew that Charlie did not want to officially change the his identity as the Wade family's young master.

As a grandfather, he really doesn't want to force Charlie when his second son has passed away for so many years and he has finally found his grandson's whereabouts.

It is not a good choice to let Charlie happily go to the days he thought about.

In that case, it is not only a good thing for Charlie himself, but also for his parents, if they would know, his parents would be very gratified.

However, he is also aware of his other identity.

He is not only Charlie's grandfather, but also the head of the Wade family.

Chapter 3264

Since he is the head of the Wade family, he must take the interests of the Wade family as the core.

As a direct descendant of the Wade family, Charlie must return to the Wade family and serve the interests of the Wade family.

What's more, Charlie is also the future son-in-law identified by the Sun family.

From this point of view alone, Charlie is more important to the Wade family.

Therefore, Lord Wade planned this time, whether Charlie was willing to return to the Wade family or not, this time as long as he came, he must do everything possible to keep him.

And this time, Lord Wade is ready.

He intends to arrange some photographers to attend the ancestor worship ceremony in civilian clothes on the day of the ancestor worship ceremony, and ask them to take some highlights and videos of the ancestor worship ceremony.

At that time, the best effect will be selected and given to the media for publication.

In that case, it can not only show the strength and demeanor of the Wade family to the people of the whole country, but also expose Charlie and other descendants of the Wade family.

He felt that once Charlie's identity as the young master of the Wade family was exposed, he could never return to the identity of the previous orphan Charlie.

Thinking of this, he gathered his family and couldn't hide his excitement and said, "Haha, Charlie has taken off to Eastcliff!"

"He will arrive in Eastcliff in more than an hour!"

"He has been away from home for nearly 20 years and is finally coming back!"

"This is really a great blessing for my Wade family!"

Originally, Cynthia Wade, who was still uncomfortable, couldn't help but make a witty when he heard the word Charlie.

Charlie's uncle Thomas Wade said at this time, "Dad, you are a little heavy."

“Charlie’s return is certainly a good thing, but it is not a great blessing that our Wade family has never seen in more than ten years!”

Lord Wade smiled and said calmly, “You don’t understand the potential of Charlie at all.”

“I don’t understand?” Thomas Wade said disdainfully, “In the final analysis, isn’t Charlie just making a little famous in Aurous Hill?”

“Indeed, I heard that he also knew a few people outside, but in the final analysis, he still couldn’t get on the table.”

“You see that he did well in Aurous Hill. When he comes to Eastcliff, he really didn’t have much chance.”

“If Aurous Hill was a river, Eastcliff was the sea. When he got here, I’m afraid he couldn’t adapt at all.”

“Yeah, Grandpa.” Thomas Wade’s son, Charlie’s cousin, Franklin Wade, also said at this time, “Grandpa, I know you want Charlie to return to the Wade family, and you have high hopes for him, but let me say something, to be honest, in Eastcliff’s circle, there really isn’t much room for Charlie’s development.”

As he said, he continued his analysis with a serious look, “Take the circle I usually paly in.”

“Which one of you have not studied abroad for many years and has a wide knowledge?”

“In Australia, in terms of academic qualifications, the master’s degree is just an introduction.”

“Many of them are PhDs in economics and management. But Charlie only read a year of university and didn’t even a college diploma.”

“How can he get into these circles when he comes to Eastcliff?”

Franklin Wade’s cousin, who is also Charlie’s cousin Herbert Wade, also agreed at this time, “Yes grandpa, although Charlie belong to the Wade family, in the final analysis, he is only related to the Wade family in blood, and the rest basically don’t fit in!”

“I’m going to be more blunt, in front of the Wade family, he is a down-to-earth crowd.”

“I don’t think you should have too much hope for him, because the greater the hope, the greater the disappointment!”

Chapter 3265

Lord Wade looked at the excited people in front of him and shook his head gently.

He knew that these people lacked understanding of Charlie, and at the same time worried that after Charlie came back, to they would divided up their vested interest, so he said such words and wanted to confuse his own audition.

However, how could an old fix like him be affected by these people?

Only two people in the Wade family knew about Charlie’s true ability.

Among them, Cynthia Wade knows some, and Lord Wade knows more.

After Cynthia Wade was beaten violently by Elaine in Aurous Hill last time, and was kidnapped by Christopher Wilson and Harold Wilson, Charlie was in front of her and talked about some of his own affairs.

Including healed the dying Orrin, killed the eight kings of the Webb family, and even helped the Ito family have the last laugh in the chaos in Japan.

In addition to knowing this, Lord Wade also knows that Charlie can go deep into Syria alone and rescue a woman from the opposition base.

He can also capture and throw Zayne to Syria on his own.

Lord Wade even knew that Charlie went to Syria again two days ago and brought Zayne back in the middle of chaos.

Moreover, in the past few days, it has been reported internationally that an organization called Dragon Hall has suffered a great defeat in Syria.

Lord Wade vaguely feels that this may also have something to do with Charlie.

However, he never told anyone else in the family about these things.

The reason why he hasn't said it is because he hasn't figured out Charlie's preferences.

If Charlie is very happy and wants fame, then inform his family of his deeds in advance.

His family will be in awe and flattering him at that time.

Naturally, everyone is happy.

But Charlie is only an extremely low-key person.

If Charlie's things are made to the Wade family well known, in case Charlie has a grudge on this, it will make him reject the Wade family.

As for Cynthia Wade, although she knows a lot, the reason why she didn't talk about it to her siblings is that she deliberately wanted the rest of the Wade family to despise Charlie in her heart.

Cynthia Wade hasn't divorced her husband yet, and her husband's family has also fallen, so what she wants most now is to share a piece of the assets of the Wade family.

The more so, the more eager she could see several brothers in the family and their children fight with each other.

If these people knew Charlie's ability and were afraid of Charlie early, how could they fight with Charlie?

If everyone doesn't fight, how can she share a cup of soup at the Wade family if she is a daughter who has been married for a long time?

At this time, Lord Wade was fed up with the slander of the gang and said coldly, "Okay, what you just said, I will not hear him."

"From now on, whoever says these nonsense in front of me or Charlie, don't blame me for being rude!"

Franklin Wade couldn't help but say, "Grandpa, I know how much you owe Charlie in your heart, but I can't spoil Charlie too much!"

With that, Franklin Wade hurriedly added, "He hasn't been in the Wade family for so many years."

“Not only has he not studied anything, but he lacks basic rules and upbringings.”

“Last time my aunt kindly went to Aurous Hill to help him solve the marriage problem, but how did he do to my aunt?”

“During the Spring Festival, he put his aunt under house arrest in the shantytown of Aurous Hill.”

“Does he still have the respect and inferiority of the young? If you want him to go back to Wade’s house, you must set rules for him!”

With that, he looked at Cynthia Wade and deliberately said, “Auntie, Charlie is so rude to you that he doesn’t regard you as an elder at all.”

“Do you think you want to set rules for him?”

When Cynthia heard this she quickly waved her hand and said, “Franklin, don’t say that. Last time I went to Aurous Hill, I was wrong first.”

“It’s no wonder Charlie did that, and it’s also my fault that I didn’t think well...”

Franklin Wade’s eyes are about to fall to the ground.

Chapter 3266

He looked at Cynthia Wade with a look of horror, and murmured in his heart, “Is this the my aunt who is so arrogant and domineering that everyone in Eastcliff knows?”

“She used to be desperate to fight with each other without a hair.”

“But after suffering such a big loss as Charlie, why doesn’t she have any thoughts of revenge?”

Thinking of this, he asked unwillingly, “Auntie, don’t you think Charlie was too much to treat you at the beginning?”

“Don’t you feel angry with Charlie?”

Cynthia Wade stepped back and said seriously, “I’m not, I’m not, don’t talk nonsense...”

Franklin Wade’s chin was almost falling off.

He looked at Cynthia in a daze.

He never dreamed that he wanted to set her routine and rekindle her anger at Charlie with the method of excitement.

But who would have thought that she had directly given herself a denial of three consecutive...

Franklin Wade was naturally quite depressed at this time.

He hurriedly looked at his father Thomas Wade, hoping that Thomas Wade could stand up for him.

However, Lord Wade did not give him a chance.

At this time, Lord Wade's expression was obviously unhappy.

He said coldly, "Franklin, Charlie is your cousin. No matter what you think of him in your heart, you must show off as a cousin, so as to entertain and get along well."

With that, he looked at the others again and said sharply, "So do you!"

Franklin Wade dare not say anything more, so he can only nod, "Grandpa, I know."

Lord Wade said coldly, "Charlie has more than an hour to arrive."

"You should hurry up and prepare and pick up your cousin at the airport in person!"

"Me?" Franklin Wade asked with a surprised face, "You let me meet him at the airport?"

"Of course!" Lord Wade said, "Charlie said on the phone that he wanted to go to Sun family first, but he has been away from home for so many years, and now he has finally come back."

"Naturally, he should come to the Wade family as soon as possible."

"How can he go to Sun family! So you take someone to meet him at the airport, persuade him well, and take him to the Wade family!"

Franklin Wade was very unhappy when he heard that he had let himself pick up Charlie.

He felt that he was the eldest son and grandson of the Wade family.

The status of the eldest grandson is equivalent to the crown prince.

Other grandchildren have to respect him when they see him.

Charlie has been away from home for so many years. Why should he, the eldest grandson, pick him up?

Thinking of this, Franklin Wade said reluctantly, "Grandpa, Charlie will come back."

"After a moment, I will arrange a motorcade and let Stephen Thompson take the motorcade to meet him."

"Isn't it grand enough? There's no need for me to go, right?"

Lord Wade said categorically, "Only when you go can you show the sincerity of the Wade family!"

Franklin Wade frowned and said, "Charlie is my second uncle's son."

"Even if he has been away from home for so many years, he is still our own family."

"There is no need to be so different between his family. What sincerity should he express?"

Lord Wade said seriously, "What do you know?"

"Charlie left home at the age of eight, and has not officially come back to recognize his ancestors."

"In the final analysis, he now regards us as outsiders, so we must let him feel the sincerity of the whole

Wade family, so that he can be willing to recognize his ancestors!”

Franklin Wade didn't expect Lord Wade to value Charlie so much, and he was even more upset in his heart, “This Charlie, who has been away for almost 20 years, is coming back suddenly now.”

“What is his intention? Will the new generation of heirs quality?”

“There is also the old man, who protects Charlie everywhere, does he want Charlie to stay in the Wade family to check and balance with me?”

“It's just a trash that has been around for twenty years, and he deserves to be called a cousin to me?”

“I don't know why grandpa looks on him so much. Is it because he has a marriage contract with Sun family?”

At this time, Franklin Wade, even though he was full of dissatisfaction and anger, he did not dare to directly disobey his grandpa.

Therefore, he could only hold back his anger and promised, “Okay, Grandpa, then I will prepare and pick him up.”

Lord Wade nodded lightly, looked at Herbert Wade, the son of his third son Marco Wade, and ordered, “Herbert, you go with Franklin too!”

The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3267-3270

Chapter 3267

Hearing that the old man asked himself too to pick up Charlie, Herbert Wade felt ten thousand times reluctance in his heart.

But there is no way to be reluctant, even his cousin Franklin Wade has compromised, how dare he continue to resist.

Therefore, he can only honestly agree to it.

At this moment, the servant ran all the way to report, "Master, Master Franklin, Princess Helena is here."

Franklin Wade's gloomy complexion eased a little when he heard that Helena was coming.

This princess Helena is Franklin Wade's fiancée and the princess of the Nordic royal family, Helena Iliad.

Although the Wade family and the Iliad family have reached a consensus on marriage, after all, the two are not officially engaged.

So out of courtesy considerations and fear that the paparazzi media gossiping everywhere, the Wade family did not arrange for Helena to live in Wade home villa.

After Helena came to Eastcliff, she stayed at the Hotel in Eastcliff, but during the day she would often visit Wade's house, and sometimes travel to Eastcliff with Franklin Wade.

Franklin Wade likes Helena very much, not only because Helena bears the title of the Nordic royal princess, which makes him rise up his reputation, but also because Helena is a European beauty with an excellent image, temperament and body.

At this time, a tall white girl with a white dignified dress and long golden hair draped over her shoulders like a waterfall stepped in.

Her skin is fairer than snow, with a gleaming luster, and her big blue eyes are as deep and moving as the sea.

The tall nose and thin red lips are like a piece of fine carving. Finely crafted works of art, no matter their appearance or figure, are rare in the world.

Her appearance made the entire Wade Family's living room seem a lot brighter in an instant.

Helena is five years younger than Franklin Wade, just twenty-four this year.

She is the eldest princess of the Nordic royal family and was originally the first heir to the throne, but for some reason, she was later wiped out of the heir qualifications by the royal family, so she was used to marry the Wade family.

If she is still the heir to the throne, it is impossible for the Nordic royal family to let her come to Asia to marry, and she will definitely choose a prince who has no hope of inheriting the throne from other European royal families for intermarriage.

Seeing Helena, Franklin Wade immediately greeted her with a tender smile, and asked gently, "Dear, have you had breakfast?"

Helena nodded lightly, and replied in very proficient Chinese, "Yes, I'm done eating breakfast."

After finishing speaking, he looked at Lord Wade and said with a slight courtesy, "Hello, Mr. Wade."

Then, she greeted to Franklin Wade's father Thomas Wade, third uncle Marco Wade, fourth uncle Wilbert Wade, and aunts Cynthia Wade and Claudette Wade one by one.

Seeing that she is so knowledgeable and reasonable, Lord Wade smiled and gratified, "Helena, you don't actually need to have such formal at home, let alone call me Mr. Wade, just like Franklin, just call me grandfather!"

Helena asked a little embarrassedly, "I heard that, according to China's custom, it is necessary to officially change everything after marriage..."

"Yeah!" Franklin Wade's father, Thomas Wade, couldn't help but smile, "Helena, according to the custom, you really have to change after you officially pass the door, but we don't pay much attention to it in private."

"Sooner or later, we will be a family. The change also seems closer."

Cynthia on the side smiled and said, "Oh, brother, you haven't give the monetary gifts for Helena, but you already want to let her call you Dad first?"

Thomas Wade immediately said, "Even if she calls me Dad now, I will definitely give her the gifts!"

After speaking, he looked at Helena and said seriously, "Helena, I have already discussed with Franklin's mother. When the time comes, we will give the gifts to you."

"Each of us will give you 18 million dollars!"

Helena was a little frightened, and quickly said, "This is too much... China people say that there is no merit, I...I..."

Lord Wade smiled and said, "It's okay, in our Chinese tradition, we must first give gifts to you before your wedding."

“Not only your future parents-in-law will give to you, but also me as your future grandfather.”

“And other uncles and aunts will also give to you.”

Helena was startled slightly, and said seriously, “Although I don’t intend to offend, I think this custom doesn’t seem to be suitable for me...”

Helena hurriedly explained, “Mainly in Europe, after most young people go to university, they basically don’t ask for money from their families.”

“For myself and many of my friends, universities rely on scholarships and student loans.”

“After having it, I don’t usually reach out to my family, so can I omit the fee for changing my verbal account?”

Franklin Wade on the side looked dumbfounded, and hurriedly took a step forward, gently grasped Helena’s hand, and said, “My dear, how can this kind of thing be omitted!”

Helena’s beautiful brows wrinkled slightly unconsciously the moment Franklin Wade touched her, and then she immediately pulled her hand back.

She didn’t feel much about Franklin Wade, but couldn’t fight the family arrangement, so she had to accept the marriage.

And she also had her last struggle in her heart.

Chapter 3268

The last struggle was that as long as she had not officially married Franklin Wade, she would never have any close contact with Franklin Wade.

These days when she came to Eastcliff, Franklin Wade always wanted to go further with her intentionally or unintentionally, and even sent her back to the hotel several times, wanting to enter her room, but she declined.

Although Franklin Wade was anxious, he did not dare to press too hard.

Therefore, he can only pretend to be a gentleman with a smile.

But in fact, deep in his heart, Helena had been reserved for a long time, and he had scolded dozens of back and forth.

At this moment, seeing Helena not even letting herself hold hands with her, Franklin Wade's heart was even more angry.

He couldn't help but gritted his teeth secretly, "This Nordic lady doesn't know if it's a real classic or a fake one!"

"We already discussed to give her gifts yet she doesn't even let me touch her hands!"

"On the day of waiting for the bridal chamber, if you are really a d*mn girl, then I will have to bear you, but if you have been with someone else's ruined flower and willow, then you will wait to get married then f*ck you away!"

The scene of Franklin Wade and Helena holding hands and being dodged fell in the eyes of the other Wade family members, and everyone had their own ideas.

As Franklin Wade's father, Thomas Wade was somewhat dissatisfied, thinking that Helena was not giving face to her son.

However, Lord Wade felt more and more that this Helena was a rare good girl.

She was born in an open-minded Europe, but she did not expect to be able to adhere to principles so much.

It is really rare.

The Wade family has such a daughter-in-law, not only can she be famous, but the chances of various scandals breaking out in the future will be relatively small.

If you marry a profligate woman, and then make some cheating scandals, then the Wade family will really be ashamed and thrown home.

Franklin Wade was embarrassed, so he could only quickly turn off the topic and divert everyone's attention.

So he said to Helena, "My dear, whether it's the bride price or the gift, this is the family start-up fund for the two of us after we got married."

"This is the kindness of the elders in the family."

"How can we refuse? So I'm going to do what the locals do, don't care about these details."

Helena said righteously, "If it is the start-up funds given by the elders of the family, then we only receive your family's money, which is definitely not fair, but if both families receive both, we don't have this tradition."

"It's not easy to talk to my parents, so I think we might as well be more flexible and omit these customs."

Franklin Wade's head grew bigger, and he cursed in his heart, "Did you let the donkey kick in your head?"

"When you get married, you can get tens of millions of dollars just for the change of levy, which is equivalent to RMB four to five billion, then you f*cking don't want to do it?!"

Just when Franklin Wade was depressed, Lord Wade checked the time and said, "Okay, Franklin, you should leave to meet Charlie at the airport, otherwise it will be delayed."

"Let's talk about these things later."

"Okay." Franklin Wade could only agree, looked at Helena, thought for a moment, and said with a smile, "My dear, if there is nothing wrong with you, then go to the airport with me!"

Chapter 3269

Hearing that Franklin Wade was about to take herself to the airport suddenly, Helena looked at Franklin Wade with some suspicion, and asked in surprise, "Go to the airport now?"

"What's the matter?"

Franklin Wade explained, "That's it. I have a cousin who has been living and wandering for 20 years."

"It is his first time to return to Eastcliff today, Herbert and I are going to pick him up at the airport."

“You are his future sister-in-law, so come with me to pick him up too.”

When Helena heard this, she nodded without hesitation, and said, "No problem, I'll come with you to the airport."

Lord Wade nodded in relief and said, "Okay, in that case, the three of you will go there together."

After speaking, he instructed Stephen Thompson, "Stephen, hurry up to prepare."

"Okay Master!" Stephen agreed, and hurriedly left the villa first, and began to convene the convoy to prepare for departure.

Franklin Wade said to Lord Wade, "Grandpa, then we should go now and wait for him at the airport."

"Okay!" Lord Wade nodded, and exhorted, "Remember, you must take Charlie back!"

Franklin Wade said hurriedly, "Okay grandpa, I will."

After finishing speaking, he winked at Herbert Wade, and said to Helena, "My dear, let's go."

Helena said apologetically, "I'm sorry, I didn't know that I was going to public places before, so the makeup is a bit light."

“If we go to the airport like this, it does not meet the family's makeup requirements for us in public.”

“May I go to the bathroom first, please wait a few minutes, I'll just put my makeup quickly.”

Franklin Wade nodded very gentlemanly and said, "No problem, we are waiting for you at the door, there is still plenty of time, you don't need to worry."

Helena nodded lightly, and went to the nearest bathroom by herself.

Herbert Wade lowered his voice at this time, and asked Franklin Wade in surprise, "Brother Franklin, is there so much attention to the Nordic royal family?"

"There are special makeup requirements for public places?"

Franklin Wade chuckled and said, "The rules of the European royal family are more than that in our Qing Dynasty palace."

"Each set of their clothes and accessories has a label made by the royal instrument teacher."

"What clothes correspond to what occasions, and what necklaces correspond to what environment."

"Anyone who is cumbersome can publish a book."

"Anyone who doesn't follow the rules and gets caught will be punished in the royal family."

Herbert Wade couldn't help sighing, "This royal family is different."

"Only after hundreds of years of aristocratic education can there be so much exquisiteness."

Franklin Wade curled his lips and said with a little disdain, "Those imperial families of small countries have changed their lives to a constitutional monarchy since modern times."

"As Eastcliff said, it's just f*cking hypocritical!"

Herbert Wade smiled, and said in agreement, "Brother Franklin is right, it's really hypocritical!"

Franklin Wade hurriedly added another sentence, "Hey, I'm talking about the customization of their royal family, but I didn't mention your sister-in-law!"

Herbert Wade hurriedly said, "That's that. I'm talking about their old and corrupt gang."

"It has nothing to do with the sister-in-law."

Franklin Wade nodded, and walked out of the villa while chatting with Herbert Wade, standing in front of the yard and waiting for the convoy to gather.

The thought of picking up Charlie at the airport made Franklin Wade feel very upset, biting his molars and cursing, "This Charlie is really d*mn majestic."

"He haven't returned for 20 years, yet he let us pick him up personally."

"What a f*cking shit! He deserve myself to pick him up too?"

Herbert Wade also hurriedly echoed from the side, "Yes, Brother Franklin, I really don't understand, do you think Grandpa is so confused and pays so much attention to what Charlie does?"

"He is a little vulgar who grew up on the street. It's impossible to get mixed up in Eastcliff."

“If we let the outside world know that our Wade family brought back an immediate family member from Aurous Hill who hadn’t even finished college, I’m afraid it would be a big laugh!”

Speaking of this, Herbert Wade was very angry, and said angrily, "Furthermore, Grandpa gave him the Emgrand Group before he was very generous, isn't it enough to dismiss him?"

“If he is more acquainted, he should take the Emgrand Group.”

“If you get far away, at least never come to Wade's house to recruit people!”

Franklin Wade said coldly, "Don't mention the Emgrand Group to me, I'm f*cking angry when I think of the Emgrand Group!"

After speaking, Franklin Wade gritted his teeth and said, "The Emgrand Group does not say much value, but it is also at least 200 billion in market value!"

Chapter 3270

“As far as the scale of Wade Family's assets is concerned, an Emgrand Group already accounts for nearly one-tenth!”

"Grandchildren like us can only be mixed into middle management positions within the group until now.”

“The salary dividends are quite a lot, but one person can only get hundreds of millions in a year.”

“Grandpa never told us about the market value of our family.”

“With hundreds of billions of companies, let us play freely, why do they directly give Charlie an Emgrand

Group?"

"This is too unfair!"

Herbert Wade was also furious when he thought of it, and said angrily, "During the Chinese New Year this year, the group issued year-end dividends."

"I only distributed more than 87 million, not even one billion!"

"But Charlie has a hundreds of billion-dollar group, and I also remember that Grandpa asked Stephen Thompson to give Charlie a 10 billion-dollar bank card?"

"Yes!" Franklin Wade said fiercely, "10 billion in cash, plus 200 billion in the Emgrand Group, Charlie, this kid is not satisfied, and wants to come back and grab the family inheritance from me!"

Herbert Wade gritted his teeth and said, "Grandpa is also obsessed with ghosts, and he attaches so much importance to Charlie!"

"If this really leaves him in the Wade family, it will probably be greatly affected your status in the future!"

Franklin Wade's most taboo was that someone tried to snatch the position of Wade family heir from him.

Hearing Herbert Wade's words, the irritation towards Charlie in his heart became more intense.

He clenched his fists and said sternly, "You can't let the fellow Charlie stay in the Wade family this time!"

“Wade family must be the same without him!”

Herbert Wade hurriedly asked, "Brother Feng, what are your plans?"

Franklin Wade said coldly, "First give him a chance to let him know who is the master of the Wade family!"

“Then look for opportunities to mess with him and let the old man be completely disappointed in him!”

Herbert Wade said excitedly, "That's great! As long as Grandpa doesn't protect him, the Wade family will never have a place for him!"

"Not only that!" Franklin Wade sneered, and said with a sullen expression, "When the time is right, I will take the Emgrand Group back from him!"

“There is also the 10 billion card, and he must even pay for it.”

“He will spit it out!”

Herbert Wade immediately gave a thumbs up and said excitedly, "Brother Franklin, I believe in your abilities, it will be no problem to deal with him!"

Franklin Wade's expression was extremely gloomy, and he said coldly, "If you don't get rid of him, you and my interests in the Wade family will be affected by him!"

“Herbert, you must join hands with me in this matter, and we will work together as unanimous to the outside world, do you understand?”

Herbert Wade said with a very firm expression, "Brother Franklin, don't worry, I will always stand by your side."

"I will do whatever you ask me to do!"The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3271-3272

Chapter 3271

"Okay!" Franklin Wade nodded, and said with satisfaction, "I will not treat you badly in the future."

Herbert Wade couldn't help but ask him with a puzzled look, "By the way, Brother Franklin, you have already given Charlie a lot of face by picking him up at the airport. Why do you have to bring sister-in-law with us?"

"Anyway, sister-in-law is also the princess of the Nordic royal family. To pick up Charlie, would it be too shameful for him, right?"

Franklin Wade sneered and said, "I just want him to see Helena with his own eyes, and let him understand the gap between him and me! Stefanie from the Sun family is good, but in terms of looks and temperament, she is still worse than Helena!"

"That's natural!" Herbert Wade couldn't help but sighed and said, "Apart from anything else, the figure of sister-in-law is enough to crush Stefanie. To be honest, European women really have an inherent advantage in body shape. Not to mention, the legs of my sister-in-law are thin, straight and long, they are almost as long as the golden ratio point!"

Speaking of this, Herbert Wade looked at Franklin Wade with envy, and said seriously, "Brother Franklin, you will be blessed in the future..."

Franklin Wade was overjoyed when he heard that Herbert Wade praised Helena so much.

Every man is very vain in this respect. Seeing his fiancée being so praised by Herbert Wade, Franklin Wade's heart is full of accomplishment.

Helena is indeed the best in the world.

Herbert Wade is also a top rich second generation like Franklin Wade, who has read countless women. At the first sight of Helena, he immediately surrenders with both hands and sinks completely.

It is precisely because of this that Franklin Wade wanted to take Helena to pick up Charlie.

Only in this way could Charlie realize the ubiquitous gap between him and Franklin Wade as soon as he landed in Eastcliff!

.....

Soon, Stephen Thompson organized a luxury motorcade consisting of eight Rolls-Royces.

Among them, there is also an ultra-long customized concierge sedan.

This extended car was specially customized by the Wade family from Rolls-Royce. The length of the car is nearly eight meters.

And its interior space is simply a mini nightclub, with long sofas, top-notch speakers comparable to nightclubs, and a bar dedicated to wine tasting.

At this moment Helena also walked out of the villa, and Franklin Wade took a step forward and said very gentlemanly, "Helena, let's take the middle extension car together. It's more comfortable inside."

Helena glanced at the lengthened Rolls Royce, frowned slightly, and said, "Sorry, I haven't had a good rest these days because of jet lag. I may need to stay alone for a while. If you don't mind, please trouble to ride this car with Herbert, and I will sit in the back car by myself."

Franklin Wade didn't expect Helena to give up face so much. It would be fine if she didn't ride in this extension car. At least, don't ride it alone, right? What's wrong with letting yourself sit in a car?

However, Helena had already said this, and Franklin Wade couldn't refuse.

Therefore, he could only send Helena to the back car first, and then went into the extended Rolls Royce with Herbert Wade angrily.

.....

Chapter 3272

The convoy drove to the airport neatly and steadily. In the extended Rolls Royce, Franklin Wade said to Herbert Wade with some annoyance, "Go open a bottle of red wine and pour me a glass."

Seeing Franklin Wade's expression slightly displeased, Herbert Wade took a bottle of high-end red wine from the minibar and asked him cautiously, "That...brother Franklin, my future sister-in-law... is she a bit too cold?"

Franklin Wade didn't expect that Herbert Wade's words just hit his heart.

He said with a gloomy expression, "Helena is indeed a little cold. It is said that she is not often involved in the Northern European royal family, so she is not so popular, that she's even deprived by the title as the crown princess."

Herbert Wade nodded along and said, "Hum, it's actually good. If the sister-in-law is the crown princess, she won't marry the Wade family. You don't need to be too anxious. After all, you can't eat hot tofu in a hurry."

Franklin Wade snorted disdainfully, and said with a fierce face, "Why can't you eat hot tofu? It's just farting. Tofu is only damn delicious when it is eaten hot. Who do you see if you let it cool before eating it?"

After that, he impatiently urged, "Where is the wine, pour it on me quickly."

Herbert Wade hurriedly said, "Brother Franklin, the wine isn't ready yet. Would you like to wait for a while?"

Franklin Wade said impatiently, "Just pour me a glass."

"Good, Brother Franklin." Herbert Wade didn't dare to neglect, and quickly poured Franklin Wade a glass of red wine.

Franklin Wade took the wine glass and took a big mouthful. Then the car pulled on the tie and vulture-like eyes, staring silently out the window, and there was a glimmer of coldness that ordinary people could not perceive in his eyes.

He knew very well that although he was obsessed with Helena's appearance and figure, Helena and himself did not actually have any emotional basis, and the two came together only under the benefit of marriage.

Helena will not let him touch her now, and she may not be able to admit her fate after marriage.

Maybe, after marriage, she still shook this indifferent face with him.

Thinking of this, he suddenly changed his mind.

Originally, he wanted to wait until they got married before he touch Helena, but now he plans to wait for the engagement, and immediately cook the uncooked rice.

Regardless if she agrees or not.

Thinking of this, Franklin Wade wiped a sneer at the corner of his mouth and drank the red wine in his glass.

.....

At Eastcliff Airport.

Charlie's Boeing business jet has begun to align with the runway.

With a slight tremor of the fuselage, the landing gear of the aircraft was opened in the air, and the flaps on both sides were opened to the maximum.

A glamorous flight attendant walked in from the front cabin and said respectfully, "Master Wade, our plane is about to land. Miss Sun just called and said that she is already waiting for you in the hangar."

This flight attendant, as well as the crew members in the cockpit, is arranged by Orrin Sun for Charlie when he gave the plane for him. They all knew Charlie's identity, but they also knew very well to keep it a secret.

Charlie nodded slightly, "I see, thank you."

“You are polite.”

The stewardess turned and returned to the front cabin. Isaac Cameron asked Charlie, “Master Wade, are you planning to go to Wade’s house for a while?”

“I won’t go.” Charlie said casually, “I have promised Uncle Orrin to go directly to Sun’s family. Besides, I don’t want to have too much contact with the Wade family.”

“You can go to Wade family by yourself and tell them by the way that I’ll come by tomorrow.”

Isaac Cameron wanted to say something, but after thinking about it, he held it back, and nodded gently and said, “Well, after I get to Wade’s house, I will directly talk to Lord Wade.”

Soon, the plane landed smoothly on the airport runway, and after decelerating by reverse thrust, the plane departed the runway and headed to hangar No. 6 which has been set.

As the plane slowly stopped in the hangar, Charlie had already seen the old Volvo car that Stefanie loved most in the hangar.

This girl has always been low-key. She never drives a luxury car to go out on weekdays. Driving this kind of car is not only low-key, but can also avoid the paparazzi.

At this time, Stefanie, wearing a mask and sunglasses, also got out of the car and ran under the plane door ahead of time, waiting for Charlie expectantly.

After the boarding ladder was docked, the door opened and Charlie stepped out of the cabin.

Stefanie looked up at him, jumping on the spot with joy, waving at him, and shouting excitedly, "Brother Charlie!"The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3273-3274

Chapter 3273

Seeing Stefanie, Charlie was also in a particularly good mood.

He walked a few steps to her and asked with a smile, "How long have you been waiting?"

Stefanie stepped forward and took his arm, shook it slightly, and said with a grin, "It's not a long time, only half of movie has been watched."

As she said, she hurriedly pulled Charlie towards the direction of the car, muttering, "Mom and Dad made a big table of dishes at home, waiting for you to pick up the dust! Let's go back!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Don't worry, Isaac is still behind. Say hello to him."

Stefanie only saw Isaac Cameron, who had just stepped down the boarding ladder, and said embarrassedly, "Sorry, Mr. Isaac, I didn't notice you just now!"

Isaac Cameron said quickly, "Miss Sun, you are serious. At this time, how could there be other people in your eyes."

After hearing this, Stefanie's pretty face was hot, but she still gave Isaac Cameron a thumbs up and praised, "As expected of Mr. Isaac, you really know what to say!"

After saying that, she said again, "Mr. Isaac, my parents are waiting for brother Charlie at home, so we'll go first!"

Isaac Cameron nodded and smiled, "Miss Sun should drive safely on the road."

Just after that, eight black Rolls-Royce cars drove into the hangar one after another.

The eight cars parked horizontally in a row.

The front face of each car is a Rolls-Royce classic temple-shaped grille and a flying goddess made of pure gold.

Then, the doors of the eight cars opened one after another.

In addition to the Wade family bodyguards in black, Stephen Thompson, Franklin Wade, Herbert Wade and Helena also walked out of the car.

When Stephen Thompson saw Charlie, he stepped forward and greeted respectfully, "Young Master, you have worked hard all the way!"

As soon as Stephen Thompson finished, Franklin Wade stepped forward and blocked him with her hand.

He looked at Charlie with a smile and said, "You should be my poor cousin who has been homeless for 20 years, right?"

Charlie frowned and looked at him, blankly asking, "Who are you?"

Franklin Wade smiled and said, "Did, you've been away from home for too long, don't even remember me?"

"I'm your cousin, Franklin Wade!"

With that, he strode to Charlie, stretched out his arms and hugged Charlie vigorously, and said with a smile, "Good brother, you are finally back!"

"You don't know how worried we are about you for so many years!"

"After all these years, you have suffered!"

"But don't worry, after that, the eldest brother will take more care of you and make up for the hardship you have suffered for so many years!"

Charlie said lightly, "That's really a rewarding memory."

Franklin Wade waved his hand, "Oh, family, don't speak these words!"

"We are all very happy that you can come back!"

"So as soon as I heard that you were coming today, Herbert and I rushed to pick you up."

With that, he pulled Herbert Wade over and said with a smile, "This is your brother, the son of your third uncle's family, Herbert Wade. When you left, he was still in kindergarten."

Herbert Wade looked at Charlie and said with a smile, "Second brother, I always thought I had no chance to see you in my life again."

“I didn’t expect that we could meet again one day.”

Franklin Wade laughed and said, “What are you talking about?”

“Charlie is just out of the city, and he is not a guest dead.”

“Yes, right, right!” Herbert Wade hurriedly nodded and said, “Big brother is right.”

“Don’t be surprised by the second brother. I’m a playful person.”

“I came back after studying for an MBA in the United States. I didn’t study for a doctorate again.”

“I don’t have a high education. If you say something wrong, you can be more burdened.”

Charlie nodded with a smile.

Chapter 3274

He knew that the two brothers had no good intentions at all when they came to pick him up today.

One mocked him for wandering for twenty years, and the other mocked him for not having much education.

However, these are nothing to Charlie at all.

Even if the two of them stand here today, Charlie will not look at them again, so naturally he will not pay attention to these two clown-like children.

However, Stefanie couldn't stand it.

She raised her hand and took off her mask and sunglasses.

Looking at Franklin Wade and Herbert Wade, she said with a bad face, "Franklin Wade, Herbert Wade! What the hell are you two doing?"

"As soon as brother Charlie returned to Eastcliff, you two sang like a double reed like a clown, jumping out and singing together."

"Who is deliberately disgusting?"

Only then did Franklin Wade and Herbert Wade see that the woman who stood beside Charlie and covered her face with a mask and sunglasses turned out to be Stefanie, who was popular all over the country and even the world.

Even Helena couldn't help but be surprised to see Stefanie.

Although she is not a fan of Stefanie, she has also heard Stefanie's songs and appreciates Stefanie very much.

She has a feeling of passer-by fans.

Today, she suddenly saw her here, which naturally makes her a little surprised.

Herbert Wade saw Stefanie's angry face in order to stand up for Charlie, and he was really jealous to the extreme.

Originally, Franklin Wade, the eldest brother, found a Nordic royal princess.

Herbert Wade didn't say anything on the surface, and he was already very jealous.

However, he also has a little self-knowledge in his heart.

After all, Franklin Wade is the eldest grandson of the Wade family.

It can be said that among the younger generation of the Wade family, the gold content is the one with the highest.

He certainly can't compare with him.

However, now seeing such a superstar Stefanie not only came to pick up Charlie in person, but she also stood up for him.

Herbert Wade felt a little indignant and felt that even if he could not compare with Franklin Wade, he should not be able to compare with Charlie.

At this time, Franklin Wade opened her mouth and explained, "Oh, don't get me wrong. We knew that Charlie came back today and we were excited, so we ran all the way to meet him in person, with no other meaning."

Knowing that he wanted to fool around here, Stefanie didn't buy his account at all, and said coldly, "What? Did you call it?"

After saying that, Stefanie's health improved a little bit, and said righteously, "I'll tell you Franklin Wade!

Don't think I can't hear the meaning of your words."

"Today, I left the words here. Don't think about bullying my brother Charlie! Who dares to give brother Charlie a white eye? I, Stefanie Sun, won't let you go!"

Franklin Wade didn't expect that she didn't just stood up for Charlie, but Stefanie was also aggressive and refused to give in.

But after all, he was wrong, and it was not easy to fall out with her for a while, so he had to smile and said, "Stefanie, you really misunderstood."

"Charlie and I are a cousins. Blood is thicker than water. How can we bully him?"

Stefanie hugged her shoulder and said coldly, "Don't be careless with me here!"

"If I really can't, I'll go to the Wade family to ask Grandpa Wade for justice!"

"Repeat what you said to Grandpa Wade and see what he'll say!"

Franklin Wade suddenly had difficulty riding a tiger.

He really didn't expect Stefanie to grasp this matter and didn't know what to do for a while.

Charlie open his mouth and say to Stefanie at this time, "Oh, it's all right, don't let go of a little thing."

Hearing Charlie open his mouth, Stefanie immediately nodded obediently, and then said to Franklin Wade, "This time, I'll listen to brother Charlie, I won't care about you!"

“But it’s better not to have another time!”

Franklin Wade was depressed. Who would have thought of after he ridicule Charlie, he had grasp a lot of scolding from Stefanie.

The key was to manage his own fault, and he really didn’t dare to be confront her.

So he quickly changed the topic, pointed to Helena beside him, and said with a smile, “Come on, Charlie, let me introduce you, this is your future sister-in-law, the eldest princess of the Nordic royal family, Helena Iliad!”

With that, he hurriedly said to Helena, “Helena, this is my cousin, my second uncle’s son, Charlie!”

Helena politely nodded to Charlie, then proactively stretched out her hand and said, “Hello Charlie, I am Helena, I’m glad to meet you.”

Charlie also politely reached out and shook her hand gently, then said, “Your situation is not very good. You should pay more attention in the near future.”The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3275-3276

Chapter 3275

Charlie’s first glance at Helena was not like other men that has always been surprised by her beautiful and exotic face, but he was more surprised at her excessively fair complexion.

It is normal for white race to have fairer skin, but Helena is a bit paler.

Her skin color give people the feeling, very much like elven princess in the movie “The Lord of the Rings”, not only white, but also much whiter than the average white person.

Therefore, Charlie paid more attention to her physical condition, and at a glance, he saw that her body was much weaker than ordinary people, and the typical perennial qi and blood were seriously insufficient.

It can be said that the whole person is in a state of wind and rain, and it may collapse at any time.

The moment he shake hands with her just now, Charlie quietly looked through her body with aura, and also found her actual lesions.

In his opinion, Helena's heart and arterial vessels in the heart, brain and lungs have very obvious congenital deficiencies.

On the one hand, it is a ventricular septal defect between the ventricles of the heart, which leads to a large amount of blood reflux from the heart, thus increasing the load of the heart;

On the other hand, because her pulmonary artery is too narrow, the whole cardiopulmonary function is much worse than that of normal people.

In addition, her symptoms are also accompanied by ventricular hypertrophy and aortic displacement.

Charlie doesn't know Western medicine, so he doesn't know what kind of disease her heart problem belongs to in modern medicine.

However, under Reiki perception, he can conclude that Helena is not in good shape now.

She not only has a bad heart, but it is also very weak.

If she continues to develop like this, she may have a few months left to live at most.

This is still under the condition of all stability.

If there are other external disadvantages, or she is too tired or depressed and painful, she is likely to die directly.

Just now, Charlie suddenly said something that scared Helena.

She looked at Charlie with an unbelievable face.

She really couldn't figure out how Charlie saw that her situation was not very good.

At this time, her heart was also particularly nervous, for fear that this matter would be known to the rest of the Wade family.

So, she hurriedly said to Charlie, "Mr. Wade may have misunderstood."

"I'm in good health, but I haven't reversed jet lag recently."

What else did Charlie want to say?

At this time, Franklin Wade was unhappy and said, "Charlie, I know you can point Feng shui fortune-telling and other tricks, but don't talk nonsense in front of your sister-in-law!"

Charlie shrugged his shoulders and said to Helena, "If you can't stand the pain of your heart, just bite your middle finger in your right hand.”

With these words, Charlie stretched out his hand, one hand held her right finger, the other hand gently on her fingertip, and said, “Here, this is it.”

“Remember, only this finger can save your life.”

No one knows that when Charlie was talking just now, he quietly left a trace of aura at the fingertips of Helena’s middle finger in her right hand.

This aura was cleverly sealed at Helena’s fingertips.

Once squeezed vigorously, it could immediately flow into her body, saving her life at a critical moment.

Two days ago, Charlie did not have such a strong ability to control the reiki so cleverly.

But after taking the Enchanted Pill, his reiki in his body not only doubled several times, but also strengthened his ability to control reiki a lot.

However, no one knew that Charlie had just left a life-saving charm for Helena.

On the contrary, Franklin Wade and Herbert Wade thought he was talking nonsense.

Franklin Wade even felt that Charlie grasped Helena’s finger in order to deliberately take advantage of Helena!

So he stepped forward angrily, blocked Helena behind him, and said to Charlie angrily, “Charlie, although you are my brother, if you dare to think anything about your sister-in-law, don't blame me for being rude to you!"

After saying that, he looked at Stefanie and Stephen Thompson again and blurted out angrily, "Miss Sun, Butler Stephen, what Charlie just did, you must have seen it."

"Am I wronged him?"

The reason why he said this so that Stefanie and even Stephen Thompson can hear his words.

Franklin Wade felt that Charlie did take the initiative to touch Helena's finger just now and buckled the shit basin for him.

Stephen Thompson was somewhat embarrassed.

He didn't know why Charlie did this, but Stefanie said firmly with a firm face, "Franklin Wade you're like a dog barking!"

"You don't know my brother Charlie's ability at all!"

"Since he said that she let Miss Helena bite her middle finger in her right hand at a critical moment, there must be a reason for him!"

"There is a fart truth!" Franklin Wade coldly said, "I think you are fascinated by his ghost!"

"I advise you to polish your eyes early!"

Stefanie said angrily, "Don't talk nonsense, you don't have to worry about my business!"

Chapter 3276

Charlie was not angry at all about Franklin Wade's performance, but said lightly, "Ok, you don't have to shout."

"I'm finished what I should say. As for what you think of, it's your freedom, if there's nothing else, I'll go first."

Franklin Wade shouted sharply, "You stand still! You haven't given me a reasonable explanation for this matter!"

Charlie smiled and ignored him. Instead, he looked at Helena and asked her, "Miss Helena, do you think I need to explain it in detail?"

"Helena shook her head nervously and said, "No, no."

After saying that, she turned to Franklin Wade and said firmly, "I believe I'm out of good intentions."

"I'm definitely not what you think."

"I..." Franklin Wade almost didn't fall up in one breath.

He never dreamed that Helena would speak for Charlie.

Although he can't figure out the reason, since Helena has said so, if he still grasps it, he will seem to be playing the topic.

If he goes to Lord Wade to complain, he will not be 100% reasonable.

So he could only nod and coldly said, "Okay! I won't pursue this matter for the time being!"

After saying that, he looked at Charlie and said in a bad tone, "Charlie, Grandpa said, you have been wandering outside for so many years."

"Today, you have just returned to Eastcliff. You must go back to Wade's house first."

"The motorcade is already here. Come back with me!"

Charlie snorted, "Oh... I'm sorry, go back and tell him that I'll go to Wade's house tomorrow."

After saying this, he looked at Stephen Thompson again and said with some respect, "Mr. Stephen, help me explain to grandpa."

"I will come to Uncle Orrin's house today and come to the Wade's house tomorrow morning."

Stephen Thompson dared not say more, nodded respectfully and said, "Okay Young Master, I will tell the master."

"Hmmm." Charlie nodded slightly and said to Stefanie beside him, "Now, let's go."

Stefanie immediately said, "Okay, brother Charlie!"

After speaking, she immediately pulled Charlie and turned to her Volvo.

Franklin Wade sullenly shouted behind him, "Charlie! You have to figure out that if you don't go back with me, it's grandpa who told me to pick you up, you must come with me!"

Charlie said without looking back and said, "It's not my problem!"

After finishing speaking, he pulled Volvo's co-pilot away and sat in directly.

Stefanie started the car, kicked the accelerator, and the car drove out of the gap between the two Rolls-Royce cars...The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3277-3278

Chapter 3277

Looking at the back of that Volvo, Franklin Wade was angry, but couldn't help feeling secretly happy.

The anger he felt was not just because Charlie really didn't give himself any face.

The key is that this guy also touched his fiancée's slender hands!

"It's so f*cking outrageous!"

However, he was secretly delighted in his heart, "Charlie's pretense is a bit too big this time, I don't have to add fuel and jealousy when I go back."

"I will just explain the situation to Grandpa, and Grandpa will definitely be very angry."

"What I most afraid of before was that the old man was very concern to Charlie, but Charlie not only did not pay attention to things this time, but also did not even pay attention to the old man.”

“This time, the old man shouldn’t be concern to him anymore, right?”

“Once the old man is dissatisfied with Charlie, wouldn’t I just win?”

However, Herbert Wade beside him, who had not penetrated through this thought, said angrily, “Brother Franklin, Charlie is too contemptuous! He don’t even give you face!”

Franklin Wade sneered and said, “The buns in the countryside have not read a book and have no culture.”

“Since he like to pretend so much, let him go.”

With that, he waved his hand and said, “Let’s go back. Grandpa is still waiting!”

Herbert Wade nodded and couldn’t help spitting.

He cursed, “D*mn, how did I have such a relative? What a f*cking bad luck!”

Franklin Wade turned her head and looked at Helena.

Seeing that her expression was a little distracted, he asked quickly and gently, “Helena, are you all right?”

Helena has been a little lost.

She came back to her mind after hearing Franklin Wade's words and quickly waved her hand and said, "It's okay, but I'm just a little tired."

"Please send me back to the hotel."

Franklin Wade asked quickly, "It's almost noon. You have to eat when you go back to the hotel, or go home to eat."

"No." Helena said, "I'm really sorry, it's really uncomfortable. I want to go back to rest first."

Franklin Wade saw this and did not insist any more.

Instead, the gentleman said incomparably, "Okay, then I'll take you to the hotel."

"You have a good rest. If you feel better in the afternoon, I'll go out with you for a walk."

"Okay."

Helena answered and then sat directly into the car.

Franklin Wade was a little depressed, but he didn't say much, so he and Herbert Wade sat back into the extended Rolls-Royce.

On the way out of the airport, Helena sat alone in the back row of the Rolls-Royce car, and she was a little lost.

At this time, what she remembered was her bumpy background.

Although Helena was born in the royal family, she had a lot of fate.

Her grandmother is the queen of the Nordic countries, and her father, who had been crown prince since childhood, died in his forties because of congenital heart problems.

In Helena's family, congenital heart disease is relatively common, but different people, and the situation is also prioritized.

This is mainly because in the past few hundred years, intermarriage of close relatives has been common in European royal families.

Therefore, there are many genetic defects, including the famous hemophilia, and various other genetic congenital diseases.

Chapter 3278

Helena's father, who knew that he was not in good health from a young age and that his mother was in her prime, and he might not be able to inherit the throne, so he always pinned his hopes on his children.

What makes him desperate is that Helena was born with congenital heart defects, even more serious than himself.

Helena's disease is a congenital tetraduple disease of Fallot.

This disease, representing her heart system, has four huge defects since birth.

For people with this disease, the mortality rate within the age of three is about 50%, and 90% of patients will not live adulthood.

Helena was born when her father was 25 years old, while her grandmother, the Queen of the Nordic countries, was 60 years old.

At that time, because her father was the crown prince and the first in line to the heir, she was logically appointed as the second in line.

Then Helena's father found Helena's congenital disease, but in order to let Helena inherit the throne someday in the future, he did not tell the royal family about it, but privately found the best doctor for Helena, treated Helena in the best way, and tried to make Helena live longer.

Helena's father believes that although his chance of inheriting the throne is slim, as long as Helena hides her innate defects and tries every means to make Helena live to 25 years old, Helena will have a chance to inherit the throne before she dies.

Because he is only 30 years short of Helena's grandmother, but Helena is 60 years short of her grandmother.

Normally, the current queen lives almost in her 80s.

If Helena could live to be twenty-five years old, her grandmother would be eighty-five years old.

As long as Helena can survive until her grandmother's death, she can ascend the throne smoothly.

As a member of the royal family, the only peak of life is to inherit the throne.

Therefore, in her father's opinion, as long as Helena can ascend the throne smoothly, even if she is a queen for only one year, or even a month, life can be considered perfect.

Helena's physical condition has been hidden very well for more than a decade ago, but when Helena's father died, Helena suddenly had a heart attack at the funeral because of her grief.

She was sent to the hospital for emergency treatment before she turned around.

Helena's grandmother, who is also the current Queen of the Nordic States, realized that she had been cheated, so she resolutely deprived Helena of her inheritance rights and made Helena's uncle's daughter, Helena's cousin, the first in line.

Helena, who lost her father's protection and also lost her inheritance status, was immediately infinitely marginalized within the royal family.

Even if she was seriously ill, Helena still failed to escape the fate of exchanging interests for the royal family and was forced to marry the Wade family.

Even if the royal doctor concluded that she still had a maximum life expectancy of three to five years, the royal family was still unwilling to give her freedom.

In the view of the royal family, three to five years is enough. They plan to make good use of it and try to get some resources and financial support from the Wade family, which will certainly benefit a lot.

Helena also promised all this because the royal family threatened her mother's later years.

If she refuses to agree, after her death, her mother will be expelled from the royal family and lose all royal treatment, which means that her mother will not even have a pension in the future.

Helena was reluctant to die, and her mother was lonely and had nowhere to live, so she was forced to agree.

Recently, she has been walking on thin ice.

While worrying about being discovered by the Wade family, on the other hand, she is also worried that after marrying Franklin Wade, a person without any emotional foundation, I'm afraid that it will only accelerate her death.

In that case, she don't even have a chance to spend time with her mother before she die.

At the thought of this, Helena couldn't help shed two lines of tears.

It's too painful for a person to be manipulated by fate, unable to resist and involuntarily in a foreign country.

At the same time, she couldn't help thinking of Charlie.

So she couldn't help slandering in her heart, "Is that Charlie really able to see my illness?"

"I heard from others say that Chinese medicine has the saying 'look, smell, ask, and cut'."

"It is said that they can see a person's physical condition by just looking at it."

"Could it be that he is a great Chinese medicine practitioner?"

Thinking of this, Helena couldn't help sighing inwardly, thinking, "What is the use of Chinese medicine?"

"Even if he can see my symptoms, it will not be possible to cure me."

“My disease was diagnosed when I was born.”

“More than 20 years have passed, and doctors all over the world can see what disease I am suffering, but there is no way to cure it...”

“My heart, cardiovascular and cerebrovascular, and cardiopulmonary blood vessels have huge defects.”

“Even if I undergo a heart transplant, it still can’t be cured...”The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3279

At the same time, in Stefanie’s Volvo.

Stefanie asked Charlie while driving, “Brother Charlie, you just said that Helena is not doing well, is she sick?”

Charlie nodded, “Yes.”

Stefanie couldn’t help asking, “What is the disease?”

Charlie thought for a while, and said seriously, “It’s hard to say, it’s very complicated.”

“The whole system related to the heart has big problems.”

Stefanie asked in surprise, “Ah? Is it so serious?”

“Yes.” Charlie nodded and said, “Very serious.”

Stefanie asked again, “Then is her life in danger?”

Charlie explained, “She is in a situation like walking on thin ice.”

“It is possible at any time to step on the air and fall into water.”

Stefanie’s eyes widened, “No, she looks so young.”

Charlie said calmly, “Illness never matter whether a person is young or old.”

“Therefore, people who die young or die even before they reach adulthood have always been in the minority.”

“This is...” Stefanie nodded lightly and asked, “Brother Charlie, can you save her?”

After speaking, Stefanie asked, “You must have a way to save her right?”

“My dad was in such a serious condition that you could cure him.”

“This Helena is definitely not a problem. Right?”

Charlie generously admitted, “She can definitely be saved.”

“The medicine I gave your dad only needs half a pill to cure him.”

Speaking of this, Charlie turned around and said seriously, "But this medicine is too precious, and I don't have any relationship with her."

"It's the first time I saw her today."

"Naturally, it is impossible to help her so much in vain."

Stefanie thought for a moment and nodded, "Indeed, there are too many people dying in this world, and cannot even be saved by gods."

Charlie smiled, and said, "But people say that meeting is a fate, so I helped her a little bit earlier."

"If she really had a heart attack, she just have to do what I said, she will definitely be able to save her life."

Stefanie asked in surprise, "Is it the fingertip of the right middle finger you mentioned earlier?"

Charlie nodded, "That's right!"

Stefanie smiled and said, "Is this a trick? Could it be that biting the right middle finger during a heart attack will have a miraculous effect?"

Chapter 3280

Charlie shook his head and said calmly, "It's useless for others to bite, but she can."

"It's weird..." Stefanie asked very puzzled, "People have similar physiological structures."

“Why can her right middle finger save her life, but others can’t?”

Charlie smiled mysteriously, “The secret of heaven must not be revealed!”

After that, he immediately told her, “You don’t have to have so many problems, okay? Concentrate on driving!”

Stefanie stuck out her tongue, “Okay...”

The two came to the Sun’s villa, Orrin and Angie cooked their meals by themselves, and they had prepared a table of food.

Seeing Charlie’s arrival, both husband and wife were overjoyed.

Orrin directly pulled him and sat on the edge of the dining table, took out the fine wine from his collection, and was ready to get drunk with him.

Angie was in a very good mood, and she took out some red wine to accompany him for a drink.

For Charlie, Angie was really satisfied with the effect of rejuvenating pill and when she looked at Charlie, she didn’t treat Charlie as a future son-in-law, but just like her own son.

Charlie also liked the feeling of being in Sun’s family.

The three of Sun’s family treated him very sincerely.

Coupled with the family-like friendship between the two families for so many years, Charlie really feels at home.

Just when Charlie and Orrin's family of three pushed and changed their cups, Franklin Wade sent Helena back to the hotel and returned to Wade's house.

Seeing that Charlie didn't come back, Lord Wade immediately asked, "What's the matter? Where is Charlie?"

"He didn't come back with you?"

Franklin Wade was waiting to come back to complain.

When Lord Wade asked him, he immediately complained in anger, "Grandpa, Charlie is too much!"

"We had so many people who came to pick him up."

"He speaks badly to you!"

"I said to him time and time again, saying that you were at home and waiting for him to go back, and he actually told me who he loved, and he was utterly defiant!"

Lord Wade frowned slightly and asked him, "Where did Charlie go?"

Lord Wade couldn't help frowning, "What's the matter, tell me in detail!"

Franklin Wade immediately told the truth about the situation at that time.

Because Stephen Thompson was there, he didn't dare to add too much fuel and jealousy.

However, he felt that Charlie took the initiative to grab Helena's hand and even talked nonsense, which in itself was already very impolite.

Lord Wade did feel a little uncomfortable after listening.

Helena is Charlie's future sister-in-law, and Charlie should naturally keep her distance and take the initiative to touch other people's hands. It is indeed a bit languid.

So, he frowned and asked Franklin, "You said Charlie was talking nonsense, what did he say?"

Franklin Wade angrily said, "He said that Helena is not doing well."

"He should pay more attention to something in the near future."

"He also touched Helena's hand and said that Helena should bite the fingertip of her right middle finger in a critical moment! Isn't this damn nonsense?"

"I have never heard that biting a finger in a sudden illness can help!"

"I think he deliberately wants to take advantage of Helena!"

At this time, Franklin Wade's father, Thomas Wade, immediately took a step forward and said with a sad face, "Dad! Helena is from the Nordic royal family, and she has more rules and etiquette."

"If today's events make her feel bad about our Wade family, our Wade family is going to cause an international scandal!"

"In that case, our Wade family will lose face!"

Chapter 3281

Lord Wade frowned when he heard this, and asked Stephen Thompson, "Stephen, you were on the scene at the time."

"Do you think Charlie was serious when he said these things, or was he just talking about it?"

Stephen Thompson respectfully said, "I think Young Master is really serious, not like he has any frivolity."

Lord Wade nodded lightly and said, "I think so."

Franklin Wade immediately blurted out, "Grandpa! You're not serious, are you?!"

"Charlie is obviously taking advantage of Helena, why do you think he has no frivolity?!"

Lord Wade said calmly, "In my opinion, Charlie should have seen some kind of physical problem from Helena."

"With my understanding of Charlie, he won't be so boring, racking his brains and making up stories to lighten a girl."

Franklin Wade protested, "Grandpa, you are too far towards him!"

“As the saying goes, knowing people, knowing each other and knowing the heart, besides he has been away from home for so many years, you don't know what kind of character he has in his bones!”

“Besides, Helena is such a world-famous one. Many men would have thought it was normal when they saw it, so why didn't Charlie know it?”

Lord Wade shook his head gently and said seriously, "Franklin, I really lack knowledge about Charlie, but at least I know more or less about him..."

Speaking of this, Lord Wade looked at Franklin Wade and said seriously, "And your understanding of Charlie is really a little too lacking!"

"If you know more about him, you will know that if he wants to flirt with a girl, I don't know how many girls will line up to him."

"And any of them can't be worse than Helena!"

When Franklin Wade heard this, he almost spit out the old blood on his chest.

He scolded to himself, "D*mn it!!! Grandpa, what do you mean by that?"

“Do you mean that Charlie is awesome, that is, there are many women, even many women who are more beautiful than Helena, who took the initiative to throw themselves into his arms?”

At the thought of this, he was even more depressed, "What the f*ck does this mean?"

He almost cried all over, and his voice said with a little bit of gritty, "Grandpa... Even if you are partial, you can't be so biased!"

"Charlie is your grandson, so am I! And Helena is still your future granddaughter-in-law."

"Even if you don't make the decision for me, you have to make the decision for Helena!"

"You can't let her chill before she passes the door, can you?"

Lord Wade did not have the energy to pay attention to Franklin Wade's mood at this time.

When he saw Franklin Wade's emotions, he said impatiently, "Oh! Don't talk about this matter again!"

"I believe Charlie is not like that!"

Chapter 3282

After saying that, he said very seriously, "Since Charlie said that Helena's condition is not very good, I think it's better to arrange a doctor to have a physical examination for her."

"The day after tomorrow, she will attend our ancestor worship ceremony, and then wait two days to get engaged to you."

"If Helena has any disease at this time, not only will it affect our subsequent series of advance rhythms, but it is also difficult for us to explain to the royal family of the Nordic countries."

Franklin Wade almost collapsed and blurted out, "Grandpa! You don't have to be fair for Helena in this matter."

“ How can you still listen to the side of Charlie?”

“ If you take Helena to the medical examination at this time, then Helena will definitely think we are all crazy!”

Lord Wade ignored him, and turned to Stephen Thompson, and said very solemnly, "Stephen, you can arrange some experts from our own hospital to visit the hotel to give Helena a physical examination, rule out the risk of cardiovascular and cerebrovascular diseases, and take some blood samples back to bring all the blood in the laboratory.”

“Do all the chemical tests.”

Stephen Thompson immediately said, "Okay, Master, I'll arrange it."

Franklin Wade hurried forward and said in a very dissatisfied tone, "Grandpa! Do you really want to arrange a large number of doctors to visit Helena because of Charlie's words?"

“Have you considered Helena's mood? What if she herself is very repulsive to this?”

“What if she thinks of our family because of this?”

Lord Wade waved his hand, "This kind of thing is better to believe it than it doesn't.”

“If Helena resists, we won't force it, but if she doesn't have any problem herself, she will be happy to do the physical examination.”

Stephen Thompson nodded immediately and said, "Then I'll prepare for it now.”

"Then try to find a female expert, so that Miss Helena should not be too repulsive."

Franklin Wade was so depressed that he was dying.

However, at this time, he dares not say anything more, but his hatred for Charlie becomes stronger.

Then he hurriedly looked at his father, hoping that he could help him.

He immediately blurted out, "Dad, I think..."

Lord Wade immediately reached out his hand to interrupt him and said very seriously, "I know what you want to say."

"Go back and don't say a word!"

Franklin Wade's expression instantly solidified, and he could only turn back a few steps in frustration and hide behind the crowd without saying a word.

And he was so depressed that he couldn't help scolding, "Ah!!! What the f*ck is this called!!! The old man is always confused?!"

"Unexpectedly, he was determined to stand up for that Charlie!"

Although Cynthia Wade, who was beside him, had never said anything, but the twists and turns in her heart no longer knew how many times she had come and went back.

She felt in her heart, "I thought that they would definitely not make Charlie feel better when he came back to participate in the ancestor sacrifice ceremony this time.”

“They would do everything possible to suppress him.”

“In fact, the eldest brother and Franklin did do the same, but who would have thought that the weight of them in front of the old man could not even compare with Charlie!”

“I originally expected them to help me vent my anger, but now it seems that I want to be blind.”

“If they can't deal with this Charlie, then no one in the Wade family can deal with him...”

Thinking of this, Cynthia Wade suddenly felt that she had to find a way to improve his relationship with Charlie.

Just as Cynthia Wade was thinking about it, Lord Wade suddenly said, "Cynthia, you are Franklin's aunt, go with Stephen Thompson.”

“If Helena has any resistance, you can persuade her.”

“The purpose of knowing reason and moving emotion is to make her willingly undergo a medical examination.”

“We also do it for her good.”

“In case she has any shortcomings, it is difficult for to explain to her family.”

Cynthia quickly agreed and nodded, “Okay Dad, then I'll go with Stephen.”The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3283-3286

Chapter 3283

Soon, eight female experts set off from Wade's private hospital to the Shangri-La Hotel in Eastcliff.

Together with Cynthia Wade and Stephen Thompson, they hurried over from the Wade family.

At this time, Helena was leaning on the soft head of the bed, her face full of weakness.

Holding her mobile phone, she hesitated and sent a video call request to her mother in northern Europe.

There is a six-hour time difference between the Nordic countries and Eastcliff.

One o'clock in the afternoon of Eastcliff time is exactly seven o'clock in the morning of Northern European time.

Based on Helena's knowledge of her mother, she must be up now.

Soon, the video was connected, and Helena's mother at the end of the video was sitting alone at the table eating breakfast.

She looked at Helena and couldn't help but smile, "How do you feel at China? Is there anything wrong with it?"

Helena wanted to say that she wasn't quite comfortable with everything about China, but she was afraid that her mother was worried and distressed, so she could only forcefully smile and said, "There is nothing wrong with it mom, everything is fine here."

After speaking, she saw in the video that her mother's breakfast was just a glass of milk, a few slices of bread and a small piece of butter, and she couldn't help but said in distressed, "Mom, why are you hiding in your room to eat bread by yourself?"

"Why don't you go to the restaurant to eat. "

The direct royal families of the Nordic countries all live inside the palace.

Here, most people doesn't cook for themselves because the royal family has its own restaurant dedicated to serving royal family members.

Helena's mother gave a wry smile and said, "A widow who has no husband is going to be scorned everywhere here."

"I'd rather stay in the room by myself and try not to deal with them."

Then she couldn't help asking, "Helena, how is your body feeling?"

Helena hesitated for a while, smiled slightly, and said, "I'm pretty good, you don't have to worry about me."

After all, Helena struggled for a while, but still couldn't hold back, and said, "By the way, I saw Franklin's cousin today, and he seemed to see that I was not in good health at a glance."

"Really?" Helena's mother suddenly became nervous and blurted out, "If the Wade family knew that you were seriously ill, they would definitely cancel the marriage, right?"

As she said, her eyes flushed, tears couldn't stop flowing down, and she choked up, "Helena, Mom really doesn't want you to go back to this place again."

Chapter 3284

"When you come back here, they will only do everything possible to squeeze you and your life..."

Helena hurriedly comforted, "Mom, don't worry too much."

"Franklin's cousin and the entire Wade family are not very good at dealing with each other, so I guess he won't tell others."

Helena's mother breathed a sigh of relief and said seriously, "That's good... Mom hopes that you can live a good life in China, thousands of kilometers away from the royal family, you can also get rid of their control and live more freely..."

Helena couldn't help but choked up, and nodded again and again, "Mom, you have to take care of your body, don't worry about me."

"Okay..." Helena's mother nodded, remembering something, and then said, "By the way, your grandma is not very healthy recently, so your uncle said that he and your sister should take care of him every step of the way."

"There is no way that she can go to China to attend the engagement ceremony between you and Franklin Wade."

"At that time, your grandma's butler, Wilkins, will be present on behalf of the royal family."

Helena gave a wry smile and said, "I only agreed to marry them with the Wade family."

“They shouldn’t even bother to attend the engagement banquet.”

“This is too snobbery...”

Helena’s mother shook her head and said, “It’s not your problem.”

“She is now bedridden. The medical team has transformed her room into an intensive care unit.”

“There are several doctors every day. The nurses are always watching her condition.”

Helena hurriedly asked, “Is it so serious? What exactly is going on?”

“Very serious” Helena’s mother said, “The specific situation is very complicated, mainly because she is older, and many organs in the body are on the verge of exhaustion.”

“I heard that she has two or three months left at most.”

“In the past few days, in private, your uncle has already begun quietly preparing for your sister’s enthronement ceremony.”

Helena nodded lightly and said seriously, “If Olivia finally inherit the throne, it will be a good thing for us.”

“At least she will remember the sisterhood relationship between me and her for so many years, and be nice to you.”

"I hope." Helena's mother gave a wry smile, and said, "Since your father passed away, the royal family has no longer regarded me as a member of the royal family."

"If Olivia inherits the throne, there may not be much change."

Helena hurriedly said, "When Olivia takes the throne, I will find a chance to talk to Olivia, at least I must restore the standard of living given to you by the royal family every month when his father is alive."

"If it doesn't work, I'll take and bring you here in China."

"Forget it." Helena's mother said in distressed, "You aren't still married into the Wade family now, everything is still unknown, I will not trouble you."

Helena sighed and was about to speak when the doorbell rang suddenly.

She said to her mother, "Mom, someone rings the doorbell, I'll go see it."

"Go." Helena's mother reminded her, "You don't have to worry about me, you must pay attention to your body."

"I know mom."

After hanging up the video, Helena came to the door of the room and observed through the cat's eyes, and found that standing outside the door turned out to be Franklin Wade's aunt Cynthia Wade and the Wade family's butler Stephen Thompson.

She hurriedly opened the door and said politely, "Ms. Wade and Mr. Stephen, why are you here?"

Cynthia Wade looked at Helena, stepped forward, grabbed Helena's hand, and said with a smile, "Oh Helena, Franklin, his grandfather heard that you are not feeling well, so he told me to come and see you quickly. "

With that said, Cynthia Wade asked with a look of concern, "Helena, how are you doing now?"

"Do you want to go to the hospital? If necessary, you can tell me and I will arrange it."

Helena hurriedly shook her head and said, "Thank you, Ms. Wade, for your kindness."

"There is nothing wrong with me. I have not adjusted the jet lag in the past few days."

"I went to the airport again today, so I feel a little tired. It should be no problem to take a break."

Cynthia Wade nodded and smiled, "Yes, yes. This jet lag is really the most painful thing."

"We are also worried that if your body does not get enough rest for a long time, you will definitely be overwhelmed."

"And you know, the day after tomorrow. The ancestor worship ceremony of the Wade Family is about to be held."

"The ancestor worship ceremony of the Wade Family is very cumbersome."

"It is not an exaggeration to say that it will take a whole day, and then you will definitely be more tired."

Speaking of this, Cynthia Wade said with concern, "So Franklin's grandfather asked me to bring a few medical experts from our own hospital, and let them do a systematic and comprehensive examination for you first."

"When you arrive here at China, what symptoms do you have because of fatigue?"

When Helena heard this, her heart suddenly became tense.

She knows her condition very well, and she can't hide it from professional doctors.

The doctor only needs to make an electrocardiogram for herself, and through the abnormalities on the electrocardiogram, she can see the huge hidden problems in her body.

Wade family suddenly wanted to send someone to do a physical examination for herself, of course Helena did not dare to agree.

So she blurted out almost without thinking, "Ms. Wade, thank you for your kindness, but there is really nothing wrong with me, so I won't bother you!"

Chapter 3285

Seeing that Helena refused Cynthia Wade's proposal for examination without hesitation, she couldn't help feeling a little suspicious when she saw that there was a bit of nervousness and anxiety in her expression.

Generally speaking, only the poor, or those with poor financial conditions, are more afraid of seeing a doctor.

Because they knew from an early age that as long as they went to see a doctor, it must be when they were sick.

It is precisely because they have seen a doctor from an early age to either get injections or take medicine, it will leave them with a psychological shadow of the doctor, so that they will feel a little nervous when they talk about the doctor.

Many people from this kind of family have a great fear of doctors even when they are adults.

In their daily life, they follow the basic principle of not going to the hospital as much as possible.

But Helena is not a poor woman, she is a descendant of the Nordic royal family with a history of hundreds of years.

Normally, whether it is the royal family or these wealthy family members, they must have developed the habit of dealing with doctors frequently since they were young.

Take Wade's family as an example. Not only does it have its own team of health doctors, it even has its own comprehensive private hospital.

Except for Charlie, who left the Wade family since childhood, other Wade family members have at least two or three very in-depth comprehensive physical examinations a year.

Especially for those underage offspring, basically every one or two months, there will be a health doctor to do a physical examination and growth and development assessment.

If you feel uncomfortable, you don't need to go to the hospital by yourself, but the whole team of doctors visit the door for service, absolutely considerate and considerate.

Therefore, children who grow up in this environment will not be afraid of doctors, but are highly dependent on doctors.

They have some headaches and brain fever, and they want to call a private doctor over to take care of them 24 hours a day.

Because of this, Cynthia Wade was a little skeptical.

She always felt that there must be something hidden behind Helena's fear of the doctor's performance.

So, she deliberately smiled and said, "Helena, you don't have to be so nervous."

"The doctor will help you to do some routine examinations."

"You don't have to take medicines, what's to be afraid of? The most is to draw a few tubes of blood back."

"Do a laboratory test to see if there are any abnormalities in the biochemical indicators. Just relax, and nothing will happen!"

As she said, she didn't wait for Helena to express her attitude, immediately turned around, and told Stephen Thompson on the side, "Mr. Stephen, please let the doctors come up quickly, let's be faster, and it won't affect Helena's rest. "

Stephen Thompson said without hesitation, "Good eldest lady, I will invite them all to come up now."

Helena became nervous, and said quickly, "Ms. Wade, I really don't have any serious problems, as long as I have more rest, I don't have to bother you so much!"

Cynthia Wade said with a smile, "Oh! You will be the one who is going to enter our family."

“From now on, you will be my nephew and daughter-in-law. What kind of politeness can you have with your aunt?”

Chapter 3286

“Besides, I have come here with those experts, so don’t think about it so much, relax and let them check it for you, it won’t take long.”

With that said, Cynthia Wade said very intimately, “Helena, you must not have any psychological pressure.”

“All of us here today are female experts. When they check you in a while, Stephen Thompson and I will leave.”

The more Cynthia Wade showed meticulousness, the more nervous Helena felt.

She knew the consequences of this very clearly in her heart.

“With the strength and status of the Wade family, if they knew that I was terminally ill and could live for a few more years at most, then they would never agree to this marriage...”

“To put it bluntly, as long as I ask the expert Cynthia Wade brought to do a physical examination today, then I will definitely be retired by the Wade family...”

“In all fairness, I don’t have any feelings about Franklin Wade, and I don’t want to marry him or be his wife...”

“However, I don’t have any right to choose at all right now.”

“If I don’t marry Franklin Wade, then my mother’s life in old age won’t get any protection...”

“She has been married to the royal family for more than 20 years.”

“She has no job, no social insurance, medical insurance, or even any assets in her own name.”

“She stays in the royal family. At least she can have food, clothing, housing and transportation arranged by the royal family.”

“She enjoys free medical care and living allowances, but if she is driven out by the royal family, she will lose all protection in her old age...”

Thinking of this, Helena could only make her attitude tough, and said with a little dissatisfaction, “Ms. Wade, I know you are also kind, but you suddenly brought a bunch of experts over and forced me to have a medical examination.”

“This is really unreasonable, right? Although I am about to marry Franklin Wade and become the Wade family’s daughter-in-law, I must at least have basic human rights.”

Cynthia Wade smiled and said, “Oh, Helena, what you said is too serious, why did you rise to the human rights?”

“No one wants to deprive you of your human rights.”

“I just want to give you a check to your body. What’s the problem.”

Helena said very seriously, “The most direct response to human rights is that if I don’t want to undergo a physical examination, no one can force me to undergo a physical examination.”

“If I don’t even have this freedom and even this basic human right is not respected. If so, then I really have to carefully consider this marriage!”

Seeing Helena’s reaction so strongly and constantly upgrading the nature of the incident, Cynthia Wade couldn’t help but slander in her heart, “Helena, she has also played with me, she’s smart enough. Yes! It seems that she is reluctant to undergo a medical examination!”

Thinking of this, Cynthia Wade also knew that she certainly couldn’t force it now.

Otherwise, maybe the princess of the Nordic royal family will just wave her hand and go home.

And Helena’s attitude also made her firmer in her judgment.

“It seems that this Helena may really have some physical hidden illness...”

Thinking of this, she did not dare to make a random decision, and could only apologize to Helena, “Oh, Helena, I really don’t think you are so sensitive to this matter.”

“I’m sorry! But don’t be angry, There is no meaning to force you.”

“Physical examinations are originally for your health, but the premise is definitely to respect your personal wishes.”

“Since you are unwilling to take the examination, then we will not take the examination!”

Helena finally breathed a sigh of relief, her expression relaxed a little, and she said, "I'm sorry, Ms. Wade, I am not angry, but I just feel that I deserve respect in this matter."

"The words just now were a bit presumptuous. I hope you can understand."

"I understand!" Cynthia Wade nodded repeatedly and smiled, "Of course I understand what you mean."

"That's good." Helena said, "Ms. Wade, I am a little sleepy."

"I want to take a good rest and sleep, so if there is anything else, I will go back to the bedroom."

Cynthia Wade smiled and said, "Well, go back and rest."

"Take a good bath and sleep. At night, I will ask Franklin to pick you up and eat at home."

Helena smiled reluctantly, "Let's talk about it tonight."

"Okay, I'll talk to you tonight." Cynthia Wade said, "If this is the case, then I won't bother you, and you have a good rest."

"Okay." Helena said, "Ms. Wade, go slowly, I won't see you off."

Cynthia Wade waved his hand, "You don't need to send us outside, you go have a good rest, I'm leaving too."

With that said, she saw Helena return to the room and closed the door before she turned around.

Just turning around, the smile on her face disappeared instantly.

After taking a few steps, she happened to meet Stephen Thompson who had brought eight experts from the elevator.

So she immediately said to Stephen Thompson, "Mr. Stephen, don't come here, just go down with this elevator."

Stephen Thompson asked in astonishment, "Miss, what's the matter? Didn't the physical examination be done?"

Cynthia Wade just laughed with Helena for a long time, feeling depressed, and said in a bad tone, "Just be a sh*t!"

"The princess said, let us respect her human rights."

"Her human rights are that she does not want to undergo a medical examination."

As he said, Cynthia Wade sipped and muttered dissatisfiedly, "It's just a princess from a small European country, and it's a f*cking score with me!"

"I think she has such a guilty conscience, there must be some hidden illness that she dare not let us know! "

Stephen Thompson nodded and asked respectfully, "Miss, what should we do now?"

Cynthia Wade waved his hand impatiently, "What else should we do, of course we will go back!"

“I think there must be a fraud on her Royal Highness from Northern Europe, I have to go back and talk to the old man in person!”

Speaking of this, Cynthia Wade continued with an unhappy expression, “It is a good thing to marry the royal family, but if they give us a sick seed, we can’t just continue it casually!”

“If she dies within the three or two years of marriage, wouldn’t the Europeans scold us to heaven by then?”The Amazing Son-In-Law

Chapter 3287-3290

Chapter 3287

After leaving the Shangri-La Hotel, the first thing Cynthia Wade did when she returned to the Wade family’s house was to complaint with Lord Wade.

When Lord Wade saw her, he asked in surprise, “Cynthia, why did you come back so soon?”

“Have you finished the medical examination for Helena?”

Cynthia Wade said in an uncomfortable tone, “The Nordic princess did not give me a chance at all.”

“I said that I would give her a good-hearted examination..”

“But she said that I violated her human rights and gave me this pass on the line.”

“I think she’s very resolute, if I insist on giving her a physical examination, she might go back to Northern Europe and cancel this marriage.”

Upon hearing this, Lord Wade couldn't help furrowing his brows and muttering coldly, "This Helena is so resistant to the medical examination, but it makes me more convinced of Charlie's judgment that there must be something wrong with her, and she knows it herself."

Cynthia Wade immediately said angrily, "Dad! The Nordic royal family is too bullying, right?"

"Sending a sick child to marry us, what are they going to do?"

"What kind of illness do you think Helena has? Will she suddenly die in the future? How does the Wade family explain to the public?"

Lord Wade nodded in agreement, and said seriously, "What you said is really tricky! If Helena is really sick and married our Wade family, then there will be endless troubles in the future!"

Cynthia Wade said immediately, "Dad! Why don't you call Big Brother and Franklin over now, let's make it clear to them, if Helena insists on not having a physical examination, then let's cancel the marriage!"

Lord Wade waved his hand immediately and said, "Forget it, don't say anything in advance."

"The day after tomorrow is the ceremony of ancestor worship."

"At this time, whether it is forcing Helena to undergo a medical examination or we are directly canceling from marriage, it is an extravagance."

"Let's talk about it after the grand ceremony of ancestors is over!"

Cynthia Wade hurriedly nodded and said, "You're right Dad."

“As soon as I am impatient, I can’t wait to talk to the Helena and the Nordic royal family in front of the gongs and drums right away, and I ignore them all at once.”

“With regard to the overall situation, it seems that we will have to learn more from your dad in the future.”

Lord Wade nodded slightly and said, “Okay, you have worked hard, go and rest. Don’t tell your elder brother and Franklin about this matter.”

“Okay.” Cynthia Wade replied and respectfully said, “Dad, then I’ll go first.”

.....

At this time, Helena was still in fear because of her chance of escape.

She knew that the Wade family had already suspected herself now.

Chapter 3288

If the Wade family insisted on giving her a physical examination, then they would know her true condition.

What Helena worries about is what will happen to her mother in the future if the marriage is canceled by the Wade family.

Once she have no use value to the royal family, the royal family cannot afford its own medical expenses in the future, let alone the mother’s pension expenses.

If she died, her mother would definitely be expelled from the royal family.

However, if she want to stay in the Wade family and complete the marriage contract with Franklin Wade, she must pass the medical examination, otherwise, the Wade family will never continue the marriage.

Thinking of this, Helena complained a little bit about Charlie.

Because of Charlie's words, the future of herself and her mother is likely to be ruined.

However, she was also very clear in her heart that Charlie was not malicious when he saw and talk about her problem, and she complained at most, and there was no way to put all this on his head.

Helena, who was in a dilemma, was extremely depressed.

She has even prepared for the worst. If the marriage is canceled, she can only return to Northern Europe, and then go to her cousin Olivia, and beg her to be able to treat herself as a sister so that she and her mom still has a way of life.

However, in a daze, an idea that seemed ridiculous to her also sprouted in her heart.

She thought to herself, "Is that Charlie really a master of medical skills?"

"He can see my illness at a glance, maybe he has the ability to cure my illness..."

Thinking of this, Helena seemed to have caught the only life-saving straw, and she thought to herself, "I will see him at Wade's house tomorrow."

"I must find a way to ask him privately if there is any way to save me."

At this time, Charlie was still in Sun's family villa, and he was changing the cup and drinking with Orrin.

The two of them are happily drinking, even if the dishes on the table are all finished, they are not willing to leave the table, both of them are still having a drink while chatting, and the atmosphere is very happy.

Angie didn't know what to do, and was reluctant to sit at the dinner table and drink, so she could only arrange for someone to get a table of food back.

Orrin was in a very good mood.

After he drank too much, he patted Charlie on the shoulder and said seriously, "Charlie, uncle is so happy today! I am in such a good mood for two reasons!"

"Do you know which two it is?"

Charlie smiled and said, "I'm visiting, is that one?"

Orrin laughed and said, "Of course! You came, it is my happiest thing!"

As he said, he asked again, "The second reason, do you know?"

Charlie couldn't help shook his head, and asked him, "Uncle Orrin, you might as well just say it."

Orrin said seriously, "The second reason is that you are going back to the Wade Family to participate in the ancestor worship ceremony!"

“With your ability, I believe you are absolutely qualified to be the future heir of the Wade Family.”

“They will definitely hand over the Wade Family to you!”

“Only you are qualified to inherit your father’s legacy and carry the Wade Family forward!”

Charlie was silent for a moment, and said, “Uncle Orrin, to tell you the truth, I am actually not interested in inheriting the Wade family.”

Orrin asked with a surprised look, “Why?”

Charlie smiled bitterly and said, “When my father took me away from Eastcliff, he had a lot of complaints against the Wade family.”

“I was young and didn’t know much about many things, but I knew that my father is very disappointed about the Wade family. So, I don’t have any good feelings about the Wade Family either.”

Orrin sighed and said earnestly, “Charlie! Your father is very disappointed with Wade Family because Wade Family is not at the same level with him.”

“What your father wants to do is to revitalize Wade Family and let Wade Family stand in the world.”

“However, what the Wade family worries about is that your father’s development strategy is too radical. If it fails, the entire Wade family will suffer huge losses.”

Speaking of this, Orrin said with emotion, “It’s like a group of people planning to climb Mount Everest.”

“Your dad’s goal is to point to the summit.”

“Other people, because they are afraid of dying on it, only want halfway through the climb.”

“They will not only go down, but also take away all the supplies and materials.”

“They completely cut off your father’s hope of continuing to reach the top.”

“Naturally, your father is disappointed, resentful and contemptuous.”

At this time, Orrin held up the wine glass, drank, and said with red eyes, “Before your father decided to leave Eastcliff, we also sat together and drank all day, just like today.”

“Our mood is completely opposite to what we are now...”

After speaking, Orrin looked at Charlie and said seriously, “Charlie, when your father left Eastcliff, he was unwilling.”

“I believe he was still unwilling in his heart at the last moment when the accident happened.”

“You must inherit your father’s will. Even if you are just fighting for him, you must become the master of the Wade Family!”

Chapter 3289

Orrin’s words made Charlie unable to calm down for a long time.

The thought of his father leaving Eastcliff with such unwillingness, disappointment, and finally died away from home, Charlie felt like a knife was stabbing his heart.

In the past, he didn't want to have too much connection with the Wade family, because he knew that the relationship between his father and the Wade family ended up being very stale, and even the Wade family had to take part of the responsibility for the death of his parents.

Because of this, he kept avoiding the Wade Family, trying not to get entangled with the Wade Family as much as possible.

And Orrin's words made him understand that his father had always been unwilling to be in the Wade family!

Because, back then, it was the Wade family who lost him! Lost his blood! Lost his prosperous years!

Just as Orrin said, his father died with hatred.

As his only son, he should not only seek justice for him, but also should carry his banner and inherit his will!

Only in this way can he really comfort his spirit in the sky!

Otherwise, no matter how strong and rich he is, if at this point, he cannot inherit his will, then he will not be able to make up for the great regret that his father had before his death!

At this point, Charlie silently filled himself with a glass of wine, held the glass with both hands, and solemnly said to Orrin, "Uncle Orrin, thank you for your enlightenment! I will definitely inherit my father's will and become the Lord of Wade family."

"Let the Wade Family stand on top of the world!"

Speaking of this, he said with a somewhat grim expression, "Before achieving the ultimate goal, I want the entire Wade family to surrender to me!"

"I want the entire Wade family to follow my footsteps honestly! No one, no one.....just like 20 years ago, leave my father alone halfway through the mountain!"

"Okay!" Orrin was very excited, shouted, and stood up, "Charlie! Remember that you are Bruce Wade's son! You must carry your father's banner and stand tallest in the world. Let all the top families surrender to you!"

"Let the Wade family, the Banks family, and the Rothschild family all kneel in front of you and respect you!"

Speaking of this, he looked up to the sky and sighed, "I hope that in my lifetime, I can see this moment with my own eyes!"

"Then I can take this message to see your father and mother. By then, I will have no regrets in this life!"

.....

In Eastcliff this night, many people fell into insomnia.

Lying on the bed in the guest room of the Sun family, Charlie thought about how to become the master of the Wade family and how to make the Wade family stand on top of the world.

At the same time, he thought of the Lord of the Dragon Hall, Creighton Krueger, who had not been showing up all the time.

Chapter 3290

He knew that Creighton Krueger's goal was the Wade Family's ancestor worship ceremony this time.

Therefore, he speculated in his heart that the day after tomorrow at the latest, Creighton Krueger would come to the front of the stage from behind the curtain.

Creighton Krueger will definitely show up with the strength he thinks is enough to crush the Wade Family.

This is a disaster for the Wade Family, but for himself, it is an opportunity!

People say they can't break or stand.

Under the leadership of Lord Wade for so many years, the development of the Wade Family can be said to be very stable.

Therefore, if he want to seize the power of his father, he must become famous.

And Creighton Krueger is the best opportunity!

At this point, Charlie thought to himself, "Let Creighton Krueger come on stage first and perform well, and let him shake the Wade Family's shock and faltering, it will be the day when I takes over the power of Wade Family!"

At the same time, Creighton Krueger, who was also in Eastcliff, was also unable to sleep for a long time.

Just after 12 o'clock in the morning, he tore off yesterday's calendar with his own hands and looked at the words "April 4th", losing his senses for a long time.

The failure of Ulysses Eisenhower and more than 10,000 Dragon Hall soldiers in Syria made him angry and heartache, but as April 5 got closer and closer, he no longer thought about Ulysses Eisenhower's life and death, and the blow that the failure brought to the Dragon Hall.

Now he just wants to avenge his parents, so that his parents can peacefully rest in heaven.

At this point, Creighton Krueger, like Charlie, were both filial sons, both harboring the deep hatred of their parents, and both had a determination to subvert everything and recover everything.

At this moment, Creighton Krueger stepped out of the room and stood in the courtyard, looking at the dozens of cheap coffins in the courtyard, his eyes full of murder.

At this moment, Apollo Wainwright, walked up to him and asked, "My Lord, why are you still not resting?"

"Can't sleep." Creighton Krueger murmured, and said unwillingly: "If Bruce Wade was still alive, it would be great."

"I will sit in front of my parents' grave and cut off his head by myself. Consoling their spirit in the sky!"

Apollo Wainwright hurriedly said, "My Lord, you don't have to think about it this way. If Bruce Wade lives to this day, wouldn't he live for another 20 years?"

"That's really cheap for him!"

As he said, Apollo Wainwright said again, "Furthermore, according to my investigation, Bruce Wade was very tragic when he died."

“It is said that when the car crashed, all his internal organs were broken by the steering wheel, and his wife was even more miserable, stuck in the co-pilot and couldn’t escape, and was burned alive.”

“Hmm...” Creighton Krueger nodded lightly, and said lightly, “I feel a little more comfortable thinking about their deaths so miserably.”

Apollo Wainwright said, “My Lord, if you feel unhappy in your heart, I will now take people to Wade’s house with these coffins!”

Creighton Krueger waved his hand and said, “This kind of thing, or doing it in broad daylight, is more shocking to everyone.”

“Tomorrow I will not only let the Wade family realize that the disaster is imminent, but also let all Eastcliff’s family know that Esteban Krueger’s son is back!”

After all, he stared at the coffins and snorted with disdain, “Tonight, let the Wade family have one last good night’s sleep. At ten o’clock tomorrow morning, carry all these coffins to Wade’s house!”

“Yes, My Lord!”

.....

The next day, Charlie got up from bed very early.

Today is the plenary meeting before the Wade Family Ancestor Ceremony, and all the Wade Family members, including the collateral branches outside, will attend.

If it were yesterday, Charlie still felt it didn’t matter, as long as he arrived by himself, it wouldn’t be a big deal sooner or later.

But today, for him, the meaning of all this has changed drastically.

If he want to become the Patriarch of the Wade Family, it is especially important to Charlie today.

Because today is the first time he has officially returned from the Wade family for twenty years.

Therefore, today is very important to him.

Orrin and Angie got up earlier.

Seeing that Charlie came out of the guest room after packing, and wearing jeans and a T-shirt, Angie quickly stepped forward and said, "Charlie, are you here with a suit this time?"

Charlie said hurriedly, "Auntie Angie, Stephen Thompson told me before that the costumes for the ancestor worship ceremony were uniformly customized by the Wade family, so I didn't bring them myself."

Angie nodded, and said seriously, "It is the first time you go back to Wade's house today, what kind of first impression you leave on them is very important."

"You can't wear too casually and let others look down on you!"

As she said, she pulled Charlie and said with a smile, "Auntie asked someone to customize a suit for you a few days ago."

"Come and try if it fits!"
