

Chapter 4129

Hearing this, Rio broke into a sweat.

He secretly said in horror: “Stefanie sun is going to leave? If this really makes her leave, wouldn’t the plans of the young master and Charlson cox be completely lost?”

As Patrick’s most trusted assistant, Rio knew almost everything about Patrick.

Even when Charlson cox quietly flew to New York, it was Rio who went to JFK Airport to take him back to Joules’s house.

Therefore, he has long known all Patrick’s plans today.

At this moment, seeing that Stefanie sun was about to leave, how could he just sit back and watch, so he quickly said, “No signal? Impossible, is there any misunderstanding here?”

charlie said firmly: “Our bodyguard just said that the walkie-talkie signal and mobile phone signal have disappeared strangely, which is absolutely unusual. They have already gone out to negotiate with the bodyguards outside, and they will come and take miss sun away soon.”

Speaking, charlie said with a serious face: “Even if this matter is really misunderstanding, we can’t risk miss sun ‘s safety! Please understand!”

Rio hurriedly said: “That... don’t worry... We are heavily guarded here, and there is absolutely no possibility of any security problems! As for the signal problem you mentioned, I guess it may be a technical fault. There are many kinds of electronic devices, especially audio amplifiers and wireless microphones, it is likely that there is interference between the signals, or you should wait a moment, and I will tell our young master!”

charlie waved his hand: “Well, you go and make it clear to Master Joules, we will go first, if there is any problem, everyone can communicate by phone.”

When Rio heard this, he was so anxious that he blurted out: “No way! Our young master will be on stage to give a speech soon! At that time, we will announce miss sun ‘s VIP status in public. If miss sun leaves like this, our young master will But he can’t come down on stage! He is the eldest young master of the Joules family, you can’t give no face at all, can you?”

charlie thought for a moment with a look of embarrassment, his tone loosened a little, and blurted out: “Well, then you go to inform Master Joules, we will apologize to him face to face, I believe that a reasonable person like Master Joules must be can understand us!”

Stefanie sun also said apologetically, “please ask Master Joules to come over. I will explain to him in person, I’m really sorry about this.”

Knowing that he could no longer control the scene, Rio quickly said, “miss sun , you must wait a moment, and I will inform our young master!”

After all, he quickly ran back to the banquet hall.

Patrick was anxiously waiting for Rio’s news at this time. Seeing Rio running over out of breath, he quickly asked, “What’s the situation over there now?!”

Rio said out of breath, “Young... young master... hurry up... hurry up and have a look! miss sun is clamoring to leave!”

“Let’s go?!” Patrick knew that the ninja hadn’t started yet when he heard this, and he was naturally extremely angry.

But now he can't care about his anger, he subconsciously frowned and asked, "Why did she leave?!"

Rio hurriedly said: "Ms. sun's bodyguard found that the signal was blocked and thought the environment was dangerous, so for safety reasons, they wanted miss sun to leave here first."

"I'll take his uncle!" Patrick shivered with anger.

It was agreed that the ninjas would open the shield when they started, and then make a quick decision. How could the shield be opened for such a long time, and Stefanie sun has not been controlled yet? !

If this made Stefanie sun run away, wouldn't it be a waste of time? !

Thinking of this, he hurriedly said: "Go and keep her, you can't let her go, just say the problem with the signal is that our equipment is faulty, and we are already in the process of repairing it!"

Rio said embarrassedly: "Master, miss sun has already got up and is leaving, I'm going to keep her, I'm afraid they won't give me face at all. Originally, miss sun was going to leave just now, so I'll move you out to suppress that she would explain to you in person, if you don't go there, I think they will definitely leave!"

Chapter 4130

"Damn!" Patrick almost exploded!

He doesn't know what the hell those ninjas are doing now, but he can't let Stefanie sun go like this now. Once Stefanie sun is gone, if he wants to find another opportunity like this, I'm afraid it will be as difficult as going to the sky!

Thinking of this, he could hardly think about it in his mind, and quickly said to Rio: "Come on, you come with me!"

At this time, Patrick only thought about how to stabilize Stefanie sun first, and then find a way to contact those ninjas to see if things could be salvaged.

Therefore, he didn't even think that this might be a trap against himself.

Moreover, this place itself is the Joules family's site, and Patrick is not worried about any danger in his own site.

What's more, in Patrick's opinion, the fewer people who know about it, the better, so he and Rio walked quickly to the VIP room.

As soon as Patrick came to the VIP room, he saw that Stefanie sun was already standing at the door of the VIP room accompanied by charlie and others.

When Patrick saw Stefanie sun, he couldn't help but ask: "Oh, miss sun , what's wrong with you? Why did you suddenly leave without saying goodbye? It's time for me to come on stage to give a speech, and then I will introduce you to all the guests. Dear guest, if you leave at this time, I won't be able to get off the stage..."

Stefanie sun didn't speak, but stared at him angrily, staring at Patrick's heart.

At this time, charlie sneered and said, "Young Master Joules doesn't have to worry about not being able to come down, because, you have no chance to go up!"

Patrick widened his eyes and blurted out, "You... what do you mean?!"

As soon as he finished speaking, he heard a few voices breaking through the air behind him. Before Patrick could come back to his senses, his assistant, Rio, fell straight forward.

With a loud bang, Rio lay on the ground without moving, but Patrick was horrified to discover that there were four dark daggers stuck behind Rio's back.

And this dagger is the shuriken shot by Kazuo Hattori!

Patrick was terrified and was about to call for help when he was instantly subdued from behind, and then he was hit hard on the neck, and he passed out.

Hattori Kazuo immediately stepped forward to support Patrick, who was unconscious, and quickly said to Charlie, "Master Wade, I'll take him away first!"

Charlie nodded and said, "Move those six corpses back!"

Hattori Kazuo didn't dare to disobey, and hurriedly winked at the others who had already appeared.

So, a few people quickly got Patrick into the garbage truck, and quickly dragged the six bodies back and threw them at the door.

At this time, the figure and posture of these six people were almost exactly the same as when they were just killed by Kazuo Hattori.

After Charlie inspected the scene, he gave Wesley's contact information to Kazuo Hattori, and instructed: "Contact him after you go out, and give him the person."

"Okay, Master Wade!" Hattori Kazuo had already given his life, nodded quickly, and hurriedly fled the scene.

At this time, charlie said to Stefanie sun, Hogan, and chloe, "You three go back to your room and sit down. It's time to test everyone's acting skills."

The three of them looked at each other, then hurried back to the sofa and sat down.

At this time, charlie also returned to the room and gently closed the door.

The next second, charlie suddenly opened the door, glanced at the corpses of six bodyguards and an assistant on the ground, and shouted loudly, "Someone! Murder!"

Chapter 4131

Just when Dean, the president of the New York Chinese Chamber of Commerce, had just finished his speech and was about to give up the podium to Patrick, there was a sudden riot at the scene.

The Joules family's subordinates and the hotel staff were attracted by charlie's shouting, and then they saw a scene that made them collapse.

Six of Stefanie sun's bodyguards died on the spot, and Rio, assistant to his young master Patrick, also died tragically on the spot.

In addition, the whereabouts of his young master Patrick are unknown.

Patrick's bodyguards were so frightened that they couldn't sit on the spot. How could they have imagined that their young master had disappeared in their hotel.

Among them, there is a middle-aged man named Bruno. He is the nephew of Harris, the bodyguard of Jian's bodyguard, and a martial arts master who is specially responsible for protecting Patrick's safety.

However, since he personally protected Patrick, Patrick has never regarded him as his own, so he is often chased away by Patrick for various reasons, and even Patrick often changes the activity plan without authorization and throws him away

Over time, Bruno was also somewhat dissatisfied with Patrick, and he even mentioned it to his uncle Harris, asking him to find a brother of the same generation from his division to replace him.

Although Harris agreed to his request, he also repeatedly told him to be patient for the time being and wait until Harris returned from China.

In today's charity dinner, Bruno wanted to protect Patrick, but he didn't expect that Patrick would let him be on duty in the banquet hall, and he was not allowed to leave the banquet hall for half a step. , he will not leave the banquet hall rashly.

Bruno, who rushed to the door of the lounge, saw the seven corpses on the scene, and his heart skipped a beat. He recognized the shuriken on the seven corpses at a glance. This was the ninja's exclusive hidden weapon!

So, he immediately asked, "Who discovered it first?!"

Charlie, who was standing at the door frame, said, "It's me!"

Bruno glanced at Charlie and blurted out, "Come on! What the hell is going on?!"

Seeing that his attitude was so tough, Charlie took a step back and asked angrily: "You still have the face to ask me what's going on? I also want to ask you what's going on! What the hell are you doing?! Invite Sun to participate. At your charity dinner, all six of our bodyguards were killed! How did you do the security work! If you don't give us a reasonable explanation for this matter, we will never let it go!"

Bruno and the other bodyguards were speechless when they heard this.

Only then did they realize that it was all their own mistakes, and that the six bodyguard of Stefanie Sun and the others were also lost their life because of their mistakes.

This made Bruno even more frightened.

My mission is to protect Patrick's safety, but, when such a big thing happened under my nose, this responsibility is too great!

Seeing that these bodyguards seemed undecided, Charlie immediately said, "It's a big deal, I think it's better to call 911!"

After speaking, he immediately turned around and said to Chloe, "Miss Chloe, please call the police."

Chloe nodded and quickly took out his phone.

Bruno said quickly, "Don't worry, sir, please allow me to report this matter to our master and eldest young master."

Charlie said angrily: "We have lost six people, and only one of your died. Don't worry if you do! Who should you report to, but this matter, we must report it to the police!"

After speaking, charlie said again: “In order to ensure sun’s safety, from now on, I will close this door, when will the police come and then it will be opened!”

As soon as the words fell, charlie slammed the door shut.

At this time, the bodyguards left outside by the security company Stefanie sun cooperated with also rushed in. When they saw the death of the six companions, they were all very furious and asked the hotel to give an explanation.

Chapter 4132

The person in charge of the hotel came to hear the news. Although he was scared to death himself, he still tried to calm the bodyguards. After all, once this kind of thing got to the police, it would be a scandal of the Joules family.

But Who Dare to take this responsibility.

However, these Americans didn’t know how to be flexible, and when they saw someone was dead, they immediately called 911.

Seeing that the situation was completely out of control, the person in charge of the hotel quickly withdrew from the crowd and immediately contacted Patrick’s father, Roger.

Roger was hosting a few business partners at a top restaurant in Manhattan at this time. He heard that his son was missing, and he was still in his hotel. Arrive fast by helicopter.

The NYPD, that is, the New York Police Department, quickly dispatched a large number of police forces after learning of the shooting killing of seven people in the Royal Palace Hotel. At the same time, it also sent a high-ranking detective to take a police helicopter to lead the way. survey.

A few minutes later, Roger couldn't hide his panic and rushed over. The person in charge of the hotel and a group of staff rushed to greet him, and said ashamedly: "Eldest young master, this subordinate is not doing well, please punish..."

Roger had a dark face, raised his hand and slapped the person in charge, and scolded in an extremely gloomy tone: "Speak! What the hell is going on!"

The person in charge of the hotel almost collapsed, crying and said: "Eldest young master, I don't know the specific situation right now, I only know that the young master Patrick is missing, his assistant and the bodyguards of the six security companies have been killed, and the murderer has disappeared..."

Roger slapped him in the face again, turned to look at Bruno, went up to slap him, and said angrily: "The surnamed Bruno, our Joules family gives you so much money every year. Funding, let you protect my son's safety, you can't protect it well, what the hell are you doing?!"

Bruno is also a four-star martial artist anyway, and he was naturally very angry when he was slapped in the face like this.

But he also knew very well that even if Roger didn't have any cultivation, he could only be next to him when he hit himself.

So, he looked at a middle-aged man next to Roger, who was Roger's bodyguard, Harris's junior brother, Bruno's uncle Zhang Chuan.

Zhang Chuan's expression was also a little helpless at this time. He knew what Patrick was like, and he, his nephew, followed him, and he was indeed played a lot.

The point is, even if you know you're being tricked, you don't have any way to deal with it.

At this time, Bruno said aggrievedly: "Mr. Joules, to tell you the truth, ever since I was sent by my teacher to protect Young Master Joules, Young Master Joules has always been very wary of me. I follow, and often even leave me alone to act alone, and there is no way I can protect him personally!"

As he said that, Bruno said in a somewhat complaining tone: "A half month ago, he told me to go to Los Angeles for a vacation, and arranged for two helicopters to take off from home to JFK Airport. At that time, he asked me to sit in another. The helicopter took off first. As a result, after his helicopter took off, it suddenly changed direction halfway and went to LaGuardia Airport. I found that his plane was yawing and immediately turned the pilot around, but the pilot didn't listen to me at all. , took me directly to JFK Airport, and by the time I took a taxi to LaGuardia Airport, his plane had already taken off..."

"Take today as an example, he made a three-chapter agreement with me on the way here, so that I must not leave the banquet hall without his orders, otherwise he will complain to my uncle, what can I do?"

Seeing that Bruno's mentality was a little broken, Zhang Chuan quickly said: now is not the time to complain, hurry up and tell me if you found anything at the scene?!"

Bruno adjusted his mentality and said, "The seven deceased have traces of being hit by hidden weapons, and they seem to be Japanese ninja shuriken."

Roger frowned and asked coldly, "What did you say? Japanese ninja?!"
