

Chapter 4133

When he heard the words Japanese ninja, Roger's first thought was impossible.

He had let people under his command deal with Japanese ninjas before. In his opinion, Japanese ninjas would never dare to oppose the Joules family, and how could it be possible to kidnap his son Roger.

So, he looked at Harris and asked coldly, "Are you sure they are Japanese ninja?"

"Sure!" Harris said without hesitation: "The shuriken is a hidden weapon that only the Japanese still use. This kind of poison that seals the throat with blood is also their secret."

Roger said coldly: "Doesn't China have such hidden weapons used for throwing and poison that seals the throat with blood?"

Harris hurriedly said: "Back to the eldest young master, china has it, but it was there before. In the martial arts of the year, there were indeed these things, but after the failure of the Boxer Rebellion, the so-called martial arts basically ceased to exist, and the rest There is only martial arts, so this kind of despicable means of hurting people with secret arrows will not be seen in China."

Speaking of this, Harris said again: "Actually, after the 20th century, there has been a wave of 'removing cold weapons' all over the world. Only Japanese ninjas have survived, so this kind of thing is now only them. still in use."

Roger looked very angry, gritted his teeth and instructed his assistant: "You immediately notify the family, send all the people who can be sent out, be sure to find those ninjas for me, and give me Patrick intact. Bring it back!"

After speaking, he added: “By the way, notify all gangs and organizations in New York, who can provide valuable clues, and the reward varies from 10 million to 50 million dollars depending on the clue; if anyone can save my son. , reward 100 million US dollars! If anyone can save Patrick and catch those ninjas for me, I will reward him with 200 million US dollars!”

The assistant said without hesitation: “Okay, young master, I’ll do it now!”

Roger looked at his bodyguard Zhang Chuan again and said, “Mr. Zhang, please you and your apprentice brother, and also help me check it out to see if you can save Patrick.”

Zhang Chuan nodded, but asked worriedly: “Eldest young master, your safety cannot be guaranteed here, why don’t I take you home first!”

“No.” Roger shook his head and said coldly, “I’m not going anywhere!”

After speaking, he turned to glared at the person in charge of the hotel, and blurted out, “How did you do the security work?! How did you let Japanese ninjas get in?!”

The person in charge of the hotel choked and said: “Master, this time the security work is fully taken over and fully responsible by the subordinates of Master Patrick. Master Patrick... does not allow me to intervene...”

“What do you mean?” Roger frowned and asked, “Patrick won’t let you interfere?!”

“Yeah...” The person in charge of the hotel said aggrievedly: “Master Patrick said that there are important guests at this charity dinner, which is no trivial matter, so he asked Rio to be fully responsible for the overall planning and security, and the specific arrangements and process did not let me ask... “

Roger suddenly fell into contemplation.

So, he looked at the lounge with the door closed and asked, “Is the important guest that Patrick said here?”

The person in charge of the hotel hurriedly said: “Back to the eldest young master, the important guest inside is Miss Stefanie sun, a popular Chinese singer.”

“Stefanie sun?” Roger frowned and said, “If I remember correctly, it should be the only daughter of the china's sun family?”

“Yes...” The person in charge of the hotel nodded and said, “It is indeed the daughter of the sun family.”

Chapter 4134

Roger didn't know why his son held such a charity dinner, but when he heard Stefanie sun's name, he probably had an answer in his heart.

He thought that his son should take the opportunity to pursue this female star surnamed sun, so he would come up with such an abnormal operation, but he did not expect that the Japanese ninja would seize the opportunity.

At this moment, he couldn't help but wonder if Stefanie sun had anything to do with this matter, or whether she was behind all this.

So, he said to the person in charge of the hotel, “Let that Miss sun open the door, I have something to ask her!”

The person in charge of the hotel hurriedly said: "Go back to the young master, the people around Miss sun just said that when the police came, when will the door be opened."

"How unreasonable!" Roger said angrily and furiously: "Don't she know that this is my Joules family's territory?!"

After that, he stepped forward, kicked the door of the VIP lounge, and blurted out, "Open the door!"

charlie opened his mouth and said, "We only talk to the police, nothing to do with others and stay away! As for those unqualified guys, the farther away the better!"

Roger was immediately furious.

The disappearance of his son has already made him angry and anxious. He never thought that an unknown guy would dare to mock him inside the door, and immediately cursed angrily: "How dare you talk to me like that, do you know who I am?"

charlie said disdainfully: "I don't know who you are, and I don't want to know who you are, if you can understand people, please stay away from us, we only communicate with the police, and others can't even be the president. "

Roger was trembling with anger, he could get 200% respect no matter where he was, but he didn't expect to be ignored by an unknown guy. Honestly tell me everything you know, no need to wait for the bullshit cops! What the hell are the New York cops on my Joules's property?!"

As soon as he finished speaking, a middle-aged man said in a bad tone: "Master joules we New York police officers should not offend you on weekdays, right?"

Roger turned around subconsciously, and saw a middle-aged Chinese in a suit walking over with a dozen police officers.

As soon as Roger saw him, he said with an ugly expression: “Oh, it turns out to be Chief Jack Li Sheriff Li is really a detective, but his nose is smart enough to find him so quickly.”

The one called Li Sheriff is Jack Li, a very famous Chinese Sheriff in New York.

Jack Li is very famous in New York. He is not only the largest sub-chief of the New York Police Department, but also the detective with the highest detection rate in New York.

However, Roger and Jack Li have not been very good at dealing with each other. This is mainly because the Joules family has always wanted to cooperate with Jack Li and engage in collusion between officials and businessmen, so as to facilitate their actions in the future.

But Jack Li has never given the Joules family face. Jack Li, no matter whether you are the Hilton family, the Joules family, or the An family, in front of him, you must not become a stumbling block to obstruct justice.

Although the Joules family is very strong, they live in New York after all, so it is inevitable to deal with the police in New York. Jack Li is the one that gives them the most headaches.

At this time, Jack Li walked up to Roger and said lightly, “Master Joules, we came to investigate after we received a report that there was a serious homicide here.”

After that, he pointed to the seven corpses on the ground, looked around for a week, and asked, “Can anyone explain to me what is going on? When did people die, when did they die, and who was the first witness? By?”

charlie opened the door at this time and said, "I called the police. The person died about ten minutes ago. I heard the movement outside, and when I open the door these people were already dead."

At this time, Roger stared at charlie, and his heart was very angry. He heard charlie's voice. It was this kid who was fighting with him across the door just now!

Chapter 4135

Charlie felt Roger's extremely unfriendly gaze, and glanced at him sideways, and found that this guy looked a bit like Jian.

Based on the content of the conversation he heard in the door just now, he could be sure that this person was Jamura's father, Roger.

Roger was extremely angry at this time. With Charlie's eyes facing each other, he almost immediately asked, "I told you to open the door just now, why didn't you open it?!"

Charlie said with a bit of anger: "I don't know you, I know who you are? In such an emergency, I naturally don't believe anyone except the police!"

Roger said angrily, "I'm Roger from the Joules family, you haven't even heard of my name?"

Charlie shook his head: "I'm sorry, I just came from Huaxia, and I haven't heard of you. Besides, your priority now should be to find your son, so there's no need to play with me here, right? If you have the time, go, `` Wouldn't it be better to find your son's whereabouts?"

“You...” Roger was so angry that he didn’t know what to say.

Immediately, Roger suppressed his anger, gritted his teeth and asked, “What did you see just now? Tell me now!”

Charlie said indifferently: “I’m sorry, I only talk to the police with law enforcement powers about these matters. As for you, I have nothing to say!”

Roger had never met anyone who dared to talk to him like this in his life. At this moment, he could not wait to let the bodyguard beat Charlie to death on the spot.

However, when he thought that the Chinese detective Jack Li was by his side, he could only hold back his anger.

At this time, Jack Li looked at Charlie and asked, “Young man, I’m the inspector of the New York Police Department, and I’m the sub-chief of the entire city. You can tell me what you saw.”

Charlie pointed to the seven corpses on the ground, and said with a sullen expression: “What else can you see? Of course, you will see dead people as soon as you open the door! Before I came to the United States, I thought that the law and order here is so f*cking good, ghost. I know that when I push the door, I see dead people all over the place!”

Jack li sneered and asked again, “Have you seen the murderer? And the young master of the Joules family.”

“No.” Charlie shook his head and said, “We were waiting inside, and when we heard movement outside, it seemed that someone had fallen, something was wrong, so I called our bodyguard at the door first, but No one responded. I was afraid of any accident. I waited for a while and made sure that there was no movement outside the door before I opened the door. After opening it, the door was blocked by dead people.”

Jack Li nodded and asked again, “Have you heard anyone speak?”

Charlie nodded and said, “I heard.”

Jack Li asked again, “Did you hear what they were talking about?”

Charlie shook his head and said, “They should speak Japanese, but I don’t understand Japanese.”

Jack Li nodded lightly and said to himself, “It seems that the Japanese ninja did it.”

After that, Jack Li asked again: “You should be able to hear the voices of men and women, right? Are there more men or more women?”

Charlie said without hesitation: “It’s all men, and it sounds like there are at least seven or eight people.”

Jack li nodded, thanked charlie, and said to the police officers beside him: “You guys, immediately block the scene, conduct a comprehensive inspection of each body, and check the surveillance video here to see if there is anything Valuable clues, in addition to this, contact the Immigration Bureau, retrieve the entry records from Japan to New York in the last week, and collect all Japanese male data before the age of 18 to 48!”

After a slight pause, Jack Li said again: “Take all the staff here tonight for investigation. The key point is to check whether the number of people has decreased, and let everyone identify the others to see if there are any shortages or shortages. people!”

Everyone complied immediately, and Jack Li immediately said to Charlie, "Because you are the only indirect witnesses present at the scene, although you can't talk about eyewitnesses, they are of great help to us in solving the case, so we will have to work hard with you later. Our police car will go back and take a note."

Chapter 4136

Charlie said, "Ms. Sun is a public figure. She is in and out of the police station at this time. If it gets out, your American media still don't know how to fabricate fake news to gain attention. It's inconvenient."

After speaking, Charlie said again: "How about this, let's go back to the hotel first. If you want to make a record, come to the hotel, and we will definitely cooperate with you."

Jack Li nodded and said, "That's fine. When I arrange the scene, I'll take someone to visit the hotel."

Charlie asked him, "Then can we go now?"

"Okay."

Roger on the side said, dissatisfied: "My son's whereabouts are still unknown. Before my son is found, everyone must not leave here!"

Charlie frowned and asked, "Why?!"

After all, he didn't talk nonsense with Roger, he immediately looked at Jack Li, and said seriously: "Detective Li, I have serious doubts now that this matter is premeditated, and the Joules family has a lot of suspicion!"

Roger gritted his teeth and roared, "What did you say?!"

Charlie repeated: "I said, the Joules family is very suspicious!"

Roger was annoyed and was about to speak, but Jack Li on the side asked very seriously, "Why do you think so?"

charlie said seriously: "This matter itself is very strange, the young master of the Joules family insisted on inviting Miss sun to the charity dinner, but he also deliberately said that he wanted to invite her to be a mysterious guest, so most people outside did not know that Miss sun is here, and they also deliberately arranged us in this kind of lounge without even a window, they said that they have to wait for the right time to appear on the stage and be a charity. It seems that there is no need to be so troublesome, right? It's like there's some kind of conspiracy."

Having said this, Charlie said again: "And, what's even weirder is that not long after we came in, the mobile phone had no signal, and it still has no signal now! I seriously suspect that someone blocked the wireless communication here!"

When Jack li heard this, he subconsciously took out his mobile phone and saw that there was no signal or service!

He frowned suddenly and blurted out: "Johnson, block the entire banquet hall, use professional equipment to check and see where the shield is!"

At this time, a police officer ran over quickly and said, "Detective, the surveillance records we just confirmed, all surveillance images near this lounge have been replaced in advance, using the last one five days ago. Related pictures of the banquet."

Jack Li frowned and asked, "Didn't the security department find out about such a big problem?!"

The police officer replied: "We consulted the security guards on duty in the monitoring room, they said they didn't know there were important VIPs tonight, and thought the VIP room was free today, so their attention was not near the VIP room at all, so when these surveillance probes played the videos recorded a few days ago, they didn't find anything unusual."

When Charlie heard this, he said in a cold voice: "I just said that this matter was premeditated, and it was simply that someone deliberately wanted to hide the fact that Miss Sun was here from everyone! Moreover, even if those ninjas could get in, they wouldn't be able to. It is impossible to obtain the surveillance video from a few days ago, and it is even more impossible to hack into the surveillance system, which shows that there is an inner ghost!"

Roger asked in astonishment: "Jack li, what does this mean? Do you doubt the Joules family?"

Chapter 4137

Jack li has always been dissatisfied with Roger.

On the one hand, he really looked down on Roger, on the other hand, because he had long heard that Roger's father, Floyd, took the opportunity to seize power, because he had much admiration for Mr. Freddie, so in my heart I despised Floyd and Roger and their sons.

The reason why Roger has no way to take Jack li is that Jack li is really famous and even has a very high political status in the White House.

In the United States, Jack li is known as the light of the Chinese, and even won the award of the current president for breaking a serial murder case that lasted for ten years.

Moreover, his mass base in the United States is very solid, especially in the Chinese field, which is as important as a totem. If he has three strengths and two weaknesses, I am afraid that the Chinese in the United States will create a big parade to seek justice for him.

Therefore, in the face of Jack li, Roger Couldn't afford to offend him at all. If he dared to do anything to Jack li, the Joules family would definitely suffer heavy losses.

At this time, Jack li looked at Roger and said in a cold tone: "Roger, although your son is missing now, in my opinion, your son may not be innocent of these things today!"

As he said that, he looked around for a week and said coldly: "You are a smart person, think about it for yourself, a charity dinner could have been simple and straightforward, but your son has to work so hard to come up with such a trick, doesn't it? What else could he have a good heart for?"

Roger Was suddenly speechless.

Although he is arrogant, he is also considered a smart person. He also feels that it is a bit abnormal for his son to do such a thing.

Moreover, the most abnormal thing is not what Jack li said, but the nature of this incident is very abnormal. He knows that Patrick has always been unfamiliar with charity, and the family usually engages in some charity activities. He always says I'm not interested. But This time, hel donated tens of millions of dollars and take the initiative to organize a charity dinner and a charity foundation, which is very wrong in itself.

Coupled with other strange and unreasonable details, he also vaguely felt that there was a taste of deliberate thinking everywhere, as if his son really had other plans.

However, how could Roger Admit this, so he said to Jack li in a tough tone: "The surnamed Li, don't forget, the victim of this incident is my son! Now he has been kidnapped! You New York police. The top priority right now is to find my son and bring me back safely!"

Jack li smiled and said, "Our police handle cases, we have our police procedures, and we don't need or allow others to point fingers."

After that, he turned around immediately and asked the subordinates beside him, "Are all the staff concentrated?"

One of them nodded and said, "They have been arranged to take notes in different rooms. Once the notes are finished, they will all be gathered in the conference room, and then they will be cross-identified one by one."

"Okay!" Jack li said, "Take me to the conference room!"

After that, he looked at charlie and said, "You can leave a contact for my assistant and go back to the hotel first. If we need your cooperation, I will have someone contact you."

"Okay." charlie nodded and said to chlore, "chlore, leave your contact information to the police officer."

chlore quickly took out a business card and handed it to the police officer beside Jack li.

At this time, Jack li looked at Roger again, and said coldly, "Roger, you can go too. If there is any news, I will let you know."

Roger was so angry that he blurted out, "This is our joules's hotel. You let me go? Where should I go?"

Jack li said impatiently: "Where do you want to go? This is the scene of the crime. From now on, the management will be closed, and irrelevant people must be evacuated!"

After speaking, he instructed the police officer next to him: "Go gather the guests outside and verify everyone's identity. If there are no suspicious persons, let them go home first, but everyone must not leave New York for the next week, and To do it wherever you go."

Chapter 4138

The police officer nodded immediately and said, "Okay Inspector, I'll arrange it!"

Roger's face was ashen.

Several police officers with walkie-talkies on their shoulders and pistols in their trousers stepped forward immediately and said to everyone, "You have heard what the inspector said, please leave the scene immediately."

Roger Had never been so useless, kicked on the wall and cursed angrily, "Jack li, you are so fu*king deceiving!"

A policeman stepped forward immediately and warned loudly: "Sir, if you don't evacuate and continue to destroy the scene, I will take coercive measures against you!"

Roger gritted his teeth and said, "I see who dares to touch me!"

Several policemen also knew Roger's identity.

Jack li turned around and said, "Okay, Roger, since your head is so hard, just stay here."

Rogers Finally felt a little better when he saw Jack li's compromise. He had been pressing him all night. This feeling was too aggrieved.

So, he snorted coldly, and said arrogantly, "Jack li, this time, I'll barely count you as an acquaintance!"

Seeing him so arrogant, Jack li was not angry, and said with a smile: "By the way, Roger, we are obliged to reveal such a big incident to the public. It is estimated that many media will report back in a while, and you just happened to stay and follow The media have a good chat."

After that, Jack li instructed: "Don't leave. We will hold a brief press conference in a while, and you happen to be a special guest."

When Roger Heard this, his whole mentality exploded.

He didn't think that he had to stay here, but Jack li drove him away and let himself take a sigh of relief, so he fought against him.

But who would have thought that this guy would hold a press conference here!

For Roger, even if he was beaten to death, he would never attend any press conference and publicly tell the world that his son was kidnapped.

How could he lose this man? !

Thinking of this, he immediately bit his head and said, "I don't have time to stay here to accompany you! You can hold a conference by yourself, and I have to find my son!"

Jack li sneered twice and said sarcastically: "What? It's too much of a deception for me to let you go. What does it mean for you to go by yourself?"

Rogersaid angrily, "If I want to stay, I can stay, and I can leave if I want. What do I mean and why do I need to explain it to you?"

After saying this, Roger was full of anger, turned around, and left without looking back.

at the same time.

In the Joules family's manor in New York, Charlson cox was staying in the guest room that Patrick had prepared for him, anxiously waiting for news from Kazuo Hattori.

Originally, he thought he was in control of everything tonight, but he didn't expect that it would be unfavorable to get a job as soon as he came up. He still doesn't know whether Hattori Kazuo succeeded in kidnapping Stefanie sun.

He picked up the phone and called Kazuo Hattori, but the other party's phone still couldn't be connected, so he hurriedly contacted Patrick again, only to find that Patrick was also sinking into the sea, and there was no response.

Uneasy, he called Patrick's assistant Rio again, but he still couldn't get in touch.

Just when he didn't know what to do, the bodyguards of the Joules family suddenly exploded, and everyone rushed out.

So he quickly stopped a bodyguard and asked, "What happened?"

The bodyguard said nervously: "Master Patrick is missing, the eldest young master asked us to go out to find clues!"

"What?!" Charlson cox asked in a panic, "Isn't Mr. Joules holding a charity dinner? Why did he disappear?"

The bodyguard explained: "Master disappeared at the charity dinner, and it is said that many people died at the scene!"
