

Chapter 626

Before their car had even stopped properly, Sean looked out the window and saw a middle-aged man hurriedly rushing forward to greet them from outside the car. At this time, the middle-aged man also saluted both the father and son respectfully.

Donald nodded slightly at him before he told Sean, "This is the Cain Lloyd I was telling you about."

Sean was slightly surprised.

As soon as the car stopped, Cain came forward in a hurry as he opened the car door for Donald. After that, he quickly greeted them with a smile on his face, "Cain Lloyd at your service, Mr. Webb and young master Webb..."

Donald nodded before he said, "You've arrived rather early today."

Cain hurriedly replied, "I truly would never have expected you to invite me to come for your banquet dinner tonight. I was afraid that I would be late if I did not come earlier."

Cain originally would not have the opportunity to come to The Heaven Springs in his lifetime.

This was because Albert not only engraved the words 'pathetic jerk' on his son's forehead, but he had also ordered his son to come to The Heaven Springs every Friday to give him a routine report. Besides that, Albert would also check his son's forehead every Friday. Albert had repeatedly given his son a warning stating that if he found out that the scar on his forehead was getting lighter, he would carve it on his forehead again and he would make sure that the words were even more deeply engraved this time. He was simply a beast!

Cain seriously hated Albert because of the humiliation that both he and his son had to endure. Therefore, he refused to step foot into Albert's territory.

However, this time was different.

Cain would never have dreamt that Donald, from the most prestigious and influential Webb family, would actually take the initiative to call him and invite him to attend the banquet dinner that he was hosting at The Heaven Springs.

This was Donald Webb from the top family in the whole of the South Region!

He could easily be the most powerful and influential person in the South Region!

Cain thought that he would never have the opportunity to meet someone like him. Therefore, he was naturally very excited when he received Donald's sudden invitation.

Cain was very eager to establish a relationship and connection with the Webb family through this dinner tonight. This would be the best opportunity for him to try and become the dog of the Webb family. This way, he would finally have the opportunity to exact his revenge on Albert!

Donald nodded in satisfaction before he said, "Cain, you have a very good attitude. I like that. Keep it up."

Cain trembled in excitement when he heard Donald's words, and he quickly bowed in front of Donald before he said, "Mr. Webb, I have already admired and looked up to the Webb family for a very long time. I am also very amazed and in awe of your reputation. If you do not despise me, will you give me the opportunity to work for the Webb family? I will definitely do everything to the best of my ability to serve you and the Webb family!"

Donald glanced slightly at Cain and felt that this man certainly knew how to behave in front of his owner.

However, Donald had the intention to tear him down first. Therefore, he simply replied indifferently, "I don't think that the Lloyd family is qualified enough to become the Webb family's dog. However, I have to admit that I am very impressed with your personality and attitude. It just so happens that I need a runner to run some errands in Aurous Hill for me recently. You can help me carry out some errands for the time being, and if you get those things done well for me, I will not treat you badly in the future."

Cain was very happy and pleased and he replied respectfully, "Thank you, Mr. Webb. I am more than willing to become your slave, and I will definitely do my best for you!"

Donald nodded before he said, "Okay, I think it is almost time for us to go in now. Don Albert should have already made all the necessary preparations for the banquet dinner tonight. You can come in with me."

There was a look of hatred and resentment on Cain's face as soon as he heard Donald mentioning 'Don Albert'. However, he quickly regained his composure and bowed respectfully before he gestured toward Donald and said humbly, "Please, after you, Mr. Webb!"

Chapter 627

Donald was very satisfied with Cain's attitude. He nodded slightly before he walked into The Heaven Springs.

Albert had already arranged for the employees of The Heaven Springs to make all the necessary preparations and prepare all the dishes for the banquet dinner that night. At the same time, all the other people who were invited to the banquet had also arrived early, and they had already been waiting for Donald for quite a long time.

Albert, Graham, and Zeke had the same attitude toward the Webb family. They were not here to flatter Donald or to curry any favor with him, but they also had no intention of offending him and the Webb family.

This was the reason why they accepted the Webb family invitation to attend this banquet dinner tonight.

In fact, the three of them had already thought everything through. They had even met up in private to discuss this matter amongst themselves. They decided to simply give the Webb family some face and to be polite and respectful toward Donald, but they would still follow and abide by Charlie's instructions.

As for the other families' heads, they had come to the banquet dinner tonight simply to get into the Webb family's good books.

After all, no matter what it was, it was an undeniable fact that the Webb family was the top family in the entire South Region. To many of the small and medium-class families, they were simply a towering high tree that was filled with fruits. Moreover, it was only natural that every monkey would hope to be able to hang onto this tree as tightly as they could.

When they saw Donald and his son, Sean, entering the Diamond Room, the other families' heads instantly stood up to greet and welcome them.

Amongst them, the head of the Zimmerman family was the first to flatter Donald. "Mr. Webb, you are truly a very talented and superb person. Your son is also as talented as you are, and he absolutely deserves to be in the most prestigious family in the whole of the South Region! Both of you exude a completely different style and charm!"

The head of the Kline family also nodded as he said, "Yes, I agree! I have not met Mr. Webb in person before, but since I have the honor of meeting you today, I realize that compared to the rumors that I have heard before, you are even more amazing and outstanding in person!"

Donald nodded slightly as he looked around the room with a majestic expression on his face.

Everyone seated in this private room tonight was all famous people in Aurous Hill. It was obvious that the head of the Zimmerman family, the Kline family, and the Lloyd family were all very respectful toward him. Donald could tell that they were trying their best to impress and flatter him at this point.

On the other hand, Zeke, Graham, and Albert remained very calm and composed. They had an indifferent expression on their faces, but they were still very polite toward Donald out of common courtesy. However, they did not bother to praise or give him any heartfelt compliments at all.

Even though Donald did not say anything, he was still secretly very unhappy with Zeke.

Cain continued to follow Donald around as though he was his grandson. As soon as he saw Albert when he entered the private room, Cain could not help but stare at him with extremely resentful eyes.

In his eyes, Albert was the one who had personally forged this feud with him!

His precious son had become one of the two biggest jokes in the whole of Aurous Hill during this time because Albert had carved the words 'pathetic jerk' on his forehead.

The other joke in Aurous Hill was that Kian, the second son of the Webb family, was a poop-eating monster.

However, since everyone was afraid of the strength and power of the Webb family, no one dared to make fun of this matter in public. They could only laugh about this in private. On the contrary, the Lloyd family was not very strong or influential in Aurous Hill. Therefore, the misfortune suffered by Cain's son, Marcus, had been widely spread throughout the entire Aurous Hill and had become a topic of conversation amongst many people who treated this as a joke.

Just the day before yesterday, Cain was out for work when he heard two young children about the age of ten years old arguing with one another. One of the boys scolded his friend and called him a pathetic jerk. However, the other kid had quickly turned around and yelled, "I am not a pathetic jerk! Marcus Lloyd is the real pathetic jerk!"

As soon as Cain heard this, he stepped forward and gave the kid a tight slap across his face. The young boy fell to the ground without knowing what was happening. When the young boy's father came up to confront Cain about this matter, he ordered his driver and bodyguard to beat him up. The man was beaten up so badly that he was eventually sent to the hospital.

However, there were still so many people who were mocking and making fun of Marcus in Aurous Hill. How could he possibly stop them all?

Furthermore, there were many people that Cain simply could not afford to offend in Aurous Hill.

This kind of humiliation made Cain feel as though he wanted to kill someone. If it was not because Albert was much more powerful compared to him, he would have already brought his men over here with him to chop Albert up and make mincemeat out of him.

This was the reason Cain felt as though he was boiling in anger when he saw Albert at this time. There was a fiery expression in his eyes because he was meeting his enemy face to face.

Truthfully, Albert did not expect to see this guy here at all. After all, Donald had simply asked him to set up a table for him to host a dinner here tonight. Donald did not give him the list of guests that would be attending the dinner.

Chapter 628

However, Albert did not care about seeing Cain face to face. When he saw the murderous expression on Cain's face, Albert simply glared coldly at Cain as he deliberately raised his hand to touch his forehead.

Cain trembled in rage when he saw Albert touching his forehead.

However, he could only shake in anger as he did not dare to yell at Albert or take any actions against him whatsoever.

After all, Cain knew that Albert was much stronger compared to him. Moreover, Donald himself had also said that he was still under probation as he was not even qualified to even become the Webb family's dog.

Cain felt extremely uncomfortable as he thought about this.

What kind of world was this? Why did he have to be on probation and go under a damned trial period just to become someone else's dog?

However, he would endure the probationary period if he had to. As long as he passed this probation, things would definitely turn out well for him in the end. When that time came, he would have the strength to fight against Albert and exact his revenge upon him!

As the saying goes, a lack of forbearance in small matters would upset great plans.

He would simply have to endure humiliation to fulfill a greater part of his mission.

As the owner of The Heaven Springs and one of the guests for the banquet tonight, Albert naturally took the initiative to step forward and invite Donald to sit at the main seat of the table tonight. As soon as Donald sat down, Sean sat down at his right side immediately.

Since the seat next to the left of Donald was empty at this time, many people were staring at that seat because they wanted to get as close to Donald as they possibly could.

However, since Cain had been following closely behind Donald this entire time, he was the fastest to make his move. As soon as Donald sat down on the main seat, he quickly rushed forward to sit down at the left seat next to Donald.

At this time, the few of them continued praising and complimenting Donald. Donald did not say much, but he simply sat down with a majestic aura surrounding him.

After everyone had taken the initiative to greet him, Donald finally said, "The reason why I invited all of you to attend this banquet dinner tonight is mainly because I want to get to know all of you better. I am still relatively new in Aurous Hill, and I will inevitably have to trouble all of you if I need any help in Aurous Hill in the future."

Cain was the first to stand up as he laughed and said, "That is only natural, Mr. Webb. The Lloyd family is more than blessed and glad to be able to serve the Webb family. We will definitely pledge our loyalty and support to the Webb family."

Cain knew very well that Donald needed someone to take the lead and speak up as soon as he spoke. Therefore, he mustered up the courage to bravely take the lead and speak up and be the first to pledge his allegiance to him.

Donald glanced at Cain before he nodded in approval. After that, he said, "Cain, I will surely look out for you and give you more benefits if you do things well for me in the future."

Cain was indeed a very sharp person who knew exactly what to do and say at a time like this.

"Thank you, Mr. Webb. I will do my utmost best to serve you well."

At this time, the head of the Zimmerman and Kline family also hurriedly expressed their positions. Both of them were also kneeling and sucking up to Donald as they made it clear that they wanted to be on board the Webb family's big boat.

Only Zeke, Graham, and Albert silently exchanged glances with one another without saying anything at all.

They knew that Donald wanted them to express their positions and pledge their allegiance to him.

If they declared that they would help the Webb family if they ever needed any of their help, this was tantamount to them officially announcing that they were seeking refuge with the Webb family.

However, the three of them only wanted to follow and serve Charlie with all of their hearts. Therefore, they simply could not pledge their allegiance to Donald.

After all, in the eyes of these three people, Charlie was truly the real dragon on earth. Compared to Charlie, even if the Webb family was very strong, Donald was still a mortal. Since he was nothing more than a mortal being, how could he possibly be compared to Charlie?

Donald glanced at the three of them before he said, "It seems as though the three of you are not willing to work for the Webb family, then?"

Chapter 629

When they were faced with Donald's sudden question, Zeke smiled faintly before he said, "Mr. Webb, it is true that the three of us have already pledged our loyalty to someone else. Therefore, it would be very difficult for us to pledge our allegiance to the Webb family instead. We hope that you will understand our difficulties and forgive us..."

Graham touched his nose slightly before he said, "Mr. White's intentions are my intentions too."

Donald looked at Albert before he asked, "What about you, Don Albert?"

Albert smiled before he said, "I am just a nobody amongst the upper class, simply a mobster boss. However, the thing that I pay utmost attention to is the word 'loyalty'. The person that I have pledged my allegiance and loyalty to is treating me very well, thus, I will not turn my back on him and depend on someone else instead."

Donald could not help but frown at this time. He did not expect the three of them to have such a determined attitude.

He really could not understand why the three of them would pledge such allegiance and loyalty to the Moore family. Donald could not help but wonder what kind of benefits the Moore family had given them to make them so loyal toward them.

When Cain heard what the three of them had just said, he stood up immediately. Then, he pointed his finger at them before he cursed, "Don't the three of you know how to give Mr. Webb any face at all? Do you even know anything about the Webb family? Do you know how many people are lining up to become dogs and slaves for the Webb family? You should consider yourselves lucky that Mr. Webb even acknowledged you! How dare you refuse and turn down his request?!"

Donald reached out his hand to stop Cain from questioning them at this time. After that, he said lightly, "Everyone has their own plans and aspirations. I will not force anyone to comply with my requests."

After that, Donald continued speaking, "However, even if you are not going to pledge your allegiance and loyalty to the Webb family, would it be okay for you to offer to help me?"

Albert replied lightly, "Mr. Webb, of course. As long as the matter you are asking for does not violate my principles, I will naturally offer my help to you."

Donald nodded as he said, "There are two main reasons for my visit to Aurous Hill this time. First of all, the Webb family has recently encountered some problems, and I am certain that every one of you here is well aware of it."

No one replied to Donald's question, but the awkward and embarrassed expression on their faces said it all.

Donald knew that the matter relating to his second son was very detrimental to the reputation and dignity of the Webb family. The Webb family had also become a laughingstock in the hearts of countless people because of this incident. However, it was because of this humiliation that he could not help but feel even more eager and determined to catch the culprit who had done this to his son.

Therefore, Donald had a very cold expression on his face as he said, "The first thing I want you to help me with is to find the culprit who did this to my youngest son. I am not very familiar with the situation in Aurous Hill. Therefore, I would like to be able to rely on you for all your help regarding this matter. I would like you to ask your men to help me keep an eye on this matter and notify me as soon as you have any news or clues about this matter. I can personally promise that the Webb family will definitely give a great reward to the person who can provide me with any important leads on this matter. The cash reward will not be less than one hundred million dollars!"

The fact that Donald was willing to give a one hundred million cash reward to anyone who would be able to provide them with a clue proved that the Webb family was indeed very wealthy and powerful.

At this time, Cain blurted out immediately, "Mr. Webb, you can rest assured that the Lloyd family will definitely go all out to help the Webb family with this matter!"

The head of the Zimmerman family and the Kline family did not want to be left behind, and they quickly expressed their positions, one after the other.

Even though this was the case, Zeke, Graham, and Albert still did not say anything at all.

Donald was a little frustrated and asked, "So, are the three of you truly not going to give me any face whatsoever?"

Graham, Zeke, and Albert exchanged glances with one another before they said, "It's not that we are not giving any face to you, Mr. Webb. Since you have already spoken up, we will definitely do our best to help you. It's just that the three of us have relatively solid and realistic personalities, and we do not like to just use our mouths to say everything baselessly."

The other three men who were sucking up to Donald had a very unsightly expression on their faces, but they could not say anything to refute those words at all.

Donald simply nodded slightly at this time.

He already knew and understood their attitudes. It was okay for them to help him, but it was completely impossible for them to become his dog.

Based on Donald's personality, he would have already gotten mad and lost his temper if this was any other situation.

However, today was a very special occasion. He knew that the next topic he wanted to talk about was much more important. Therefore, he simply glanced at them coldly before he continued speaking, "That was the first thing. The second thing that I would like to ask for your help has something to do with Jasmine from the Moore family."

“The Moore family?” Albert echoed as he frowned immediately. After that, Albert said, “Mr. Webb, Miss Moore has always treated all of us very well. If you are going to target Miss Moore, then I, Albert, will never agree to it!”

Chapter 630

Donald replied indifferently, “I am not asking you to help me deal with the Moore family. My son has recently fallen in love with Jasmine, and he would like to marry Jasmine from the Moore family. However, I heard that Jasmine seems to be in love with someone else. Therefore, I would really appreciate it if you could help me to find out the identity of the man Jasmine is in love with. If you can help me find this young man, I will definitely offer you a great reward!”

Zeke and the others immediately exchanged glances with one another again.

If Donald was saying that Jasmine already had someone she was interested in, they believed that this person would be none other than Mr. Wade himself...

However, it was naturally impossible for them to tell Donald about Charlie or to even mention his name to him.

At this time, Cain asked diligently, “Mr. Webb, do you want me to kill this person as soon as I find him?”

Donald waved his hand as he said, “I do not need your help with anything else in this matter. I only need you to help me to find this person. After that, I will decide what I am going to do and how I am going to deal with him.”

Everyone at the dinner table had their own thoughts at this time.

The reason why the Webb family was holding this banquet dinner tonight was because of two matters. Moreover, the two matters that Donald needed help with was to ask them to help him look for someone. He was also offering a big and generous reward to anyone who would be able to look for a clue to help him find the identity of the young man Jasmine was in love with.

At this time, Donald said, “Okay, then. That is all I would like to ask all of you to help me with. We can start eating now. I would like to give a toast to all of you first.”

Everyone picked up their wine glasses as they drank with Donald.

Cain then turned around to look at Donald before he asked, “Mr. Webb, I wonder how your second child, Kian, is doing now?”

Donald could not help but frown instinctively as soon as he heard his question.

What the hell was this man trying to do? Did he have to bring that matter up?

However, since Donald wanted to gather a few dogs for his own use, he could not be too harsh or demanding on these dogs. Therefore, he simply shook his head as he said, “He is not getting any better. I have already sent him back to the Webb family mansion in Sudbury.”

Cain hurriedly replied, "Mr. Webb, I know that a genius doctor has recently arrived in Aurous Hill. It is rumored that he has extremely superb medical skills. He used to treat a lot of wealthy and powerful people in Eastcliff and Raventon! Why don't you seek his help to administer treatment for Kian?"

"Oh?" Donald put down his chopsticks before he hurriedly asked, "Who is this genius doctor you are talking about? What is his name?"

Cain hurriedly replied, "He is a reputable and well-known doctor, Dr. Anthony Simmons. It is said that his medical skills are even greater and of a higher standard compared to all the doctors at the National Medical Center."

Donald was very surprised and he asked again, "The genius doctor, Dr. Simmons, is in Aurous Hill? I thought he was still in Raventon!"

Even though the Webb family was the top family in the entire South Region, this did not include Raventon. Raventon was a municipality with the best economic development in the country. It was also a place where many talented individuals were hidden and concealed. Therefore, no one really knew how many talented and great people were hidden in Raventon.

It had been rumored that Anthony spent most of his time in Raventon. Besides that, he would also travel to Eastcliff occasionally to see some of the wealthier and more powerful patients. Donald had naturally heard about Anthony's medical skills. However, he never expected Anthony to actually be in Aurous Hill. After all, Aurous Hill was just a second-tier city that could not be compared to Raventon or even Eastcliff!

Cain laughed slightly before he hurriedly replied, "I am not too sure why the genius doctor, Dr. Simmons, suddenly decided to come to Aurous Hill. He even opened a medical clinic in Aurous Hill called the Serene World Clinic. That place is always packed with people, and even if you are willing to pay millions in dollars, you might not necessarily be able to see him!"

As he spoke, Cain continued, "I also heard that the genius doctor cured a patient with high paraplegia not too long ago! The whole world was shocked at this medical miracle!"

"Is that true?" Donald instantly felt ecstatic when he heard about this!

He would never have imagined that the genius doctor, Dr. Simmons, would actually be in Aurous Hill!

At this time, Donald could not help but feel that there might be hope for his second son if he looked for Anthony and asked for his help! He might be able to save his second son!

Chapter 631

When Donald learned that Anthony was in Aurous Hill, he became very excited.

He had already heard about Anthony's superb medical skills ever since a long time ago. Since Anthony could even cure the supposedly incurable high paraplegia, it would surely not be impossible for him to cure the strange disease and illness that his second son, Kian, has recently contracted!

As he thought about this, he was in a very good mood. After that, he turned around to look at Sean before he said, "Prepare a generous gift! We will go to the Serene World Clinic to see Dr. Anthony early tomorrow morning!"

Sean simply nodded as he said, "Okay, dad. I will make all the necessary preparations."

"Okay," Donald replied as a rare smile appeared on his face. He was very relaxed and much more relieved when he said, "I think that it would be best if we could solve all these problems at once. First, we can find a cure for your younger brother and find the culprit who did this to your younger brother! After that, we can try to win over Jasmine from the Moore family. I really hope that your brother can be cured and return to his normal self so that he can participate in your wedding with Jasmine as a normal and regular person."

Sean hurriedly replied, "Don't worry, dad. I will make sure that all your expectations and everything you wish for will come true. When I hold my wedding, I will ask my younger brother to be my best man!"

Donald nodded as he heaved a huge sigh of relief. After that, he exclaimed, "I am truly proud to call you my son!"

Sean had a pious smile on his face, but he was secretly feeling a little frustrated in his heart.

When his younger brother was still fine, he did not put too much thought into the future struggle that he would be facing with his younger brother when it came to the Webb family's inheritance. After all, his younger brother had not even graduated from university. Moreover, Kian had not even started learning the ropes and getting to know all the connections that the Webb family had in all of their businesses.

However, now that something unexpected had happened to his younger brother, Sean suddenly realized that this was actually a great thing for him.

Therefore, he did not really want his brother to return to normal at all.

Sean knew that he could not resist his father's instructions. Therefore, he could only secretly hope that Anthony would not be able to cure his younger brother's strange illness.

At this time, the few people who were seated around the dinner table were constantly praising and complimenting Donald. Some of them even took the initiative to stand up and humbly offer a toast to him from time to time.

Albert, Zeke, and Graham could all tell that Donald and his son, Sean, really wanted to discover Charlie's identity. Once they discovered that Charlie was the person that Jasmine was in love with, they would certainly try to take action against him.

As Albert had been in the underground world and since he had been fighting and killing people for decades, he had better eyes and much sharper instincts compared to everyone else.

When he put some careful thought into the entire matter, Albert suddenly had a strong feeling that the person who turned Kian into a poop-eating monster who had to eat shit every hour was none other than Charlie.

After all, Albert really could not think of anyone else in Aurous Hill apart from Charlie who would be able to do this kind of mysterious thing.

The only thing that was bothering him was why would Charlie make an enemy out of Kian?

Kian was just a young adult who was still in his early twenties. Moreover, he was only a few years younger than Charlie.

He was not a member of the underground world and was just an ordinary student in the Aurous University of Finance and Economics. There was no way that Kian could actually be acquainted with Charlie at all. Therefore, it was unlikely that they would become enemies...

At this time, Albert suddenly thought of something.

He suddenly recalled that Graham's daughter, Aurora, was also studying at the Aurous University of Finance and Economics!

He initially felt that there was no connection between Charlie and Kian. However, now, he finally figured out a possible connection between Charlie and Kian.

That link was none other than Aurora.

Did Charlie and Kian cross paths or even have a contradiction with one another because of Aurora?

This was because Albert knew very well that Charlie would not deliberately turn Kian into a poop-eating monster if there were no contradictions between them.

In his opinion, Charlie had always been a very humble and low-key person who would never show off his skills or abilities!

Generally speaking, if the other party did not deliberately provoke or pick a fight with Charlie, he would never take any actions against anyone else.

Therefore, Albert was certain that if his conjecture was right, Charlie must have gotten into a conflict or disagreement with Kian because of Aurora.

Chapter 632

Albert could not help but feel a little worried when he thought about this.

He could tell that Donald truly hated the person who had had a run-in with Kian. Moreover, it was also obvious that he was very extremely angry and frustrated with the man that Jasmine was in love with.

If these two things pointed to two different people, both of them would undoubtedly face a fate worse than death. At the very least, in Donald's eyes, both of these targets would have to be killed.

If these two things pointed toward the same person, Albert believed that the Webb family would definitely do everything in their ability to kill and destroy this person.

Therefore, he could not help but feel a little worried about Charlie.

Even though he knew that Charlie was very strong and capable, he was still worried that Charlie would be facing a lot of trouble when he faced a powerful and influential family such as the Webb family.

After the dinner, everyone walked Donald and his son, Sean, to the ground floor of The Heaven Springs. The several dogs, including Cain, insisted on accompanying Donald and Sean all the way to their parked car in the carpark.

Albert, Zeke, and Graham did not go along with them. After bidding farewell to Donald and Sean, the three of them exchanged glances with one another before they went back into The Heaven Springs.

After they gathered in Albert's office, Graham finally asked in a worried voice, "Brothers, it seems as though the Webb family will surely give their all to look for Mr. Wade and try to deal with him. What should we do?"

Zeke sighed before he said, "Although Jasmine's thoughts and feelings for Mr. Wade are obvious to all of us, I think that only a few of us know about this. No outsiders know about this matter."

Albert waved his hand before he said, "If the Webb family really wants to investigate and look into this matter, I don't think that we will be able to hide this from him for much longer. Furthermore, I think that we are not the only people who know about Miss Moore's feelings and affection for Mr. Wade. Everyone working for the Moore family will definitely know about this matter. Besides, anyone who has seen or witnessed Miss Moore's interactions with Mr. Wade would also be able to tell that she has feelings for him."

At this time, Albert added grimly, "I am not only worried about this matter."

After he spoke, Albert looked at Graham before he asked, "Mr. Quinton, is your daughter, Miss Aurora, currently studying at the Aurous University of Finance and Economics?"

"Yes." Graham smiled as he said, "The Aurous University of Finance and Economics is one of the best financial universities in this country. Among all of their subjects, I heard that the business management major at this university is simply fantastic. I really want her to be able to have a good business management study experience so that she will be able to help me with the family business in the future."

Albert nodded slightly before he said, "Then, did you know that the second son of the Webb family, Kian, also attended the Aurous University of Finance and Economics?"

"Yes, I know that." Graham nodded before he asked, "What's wrong?"

Albert replied, "I suspect that the reason why Kian came down with this sudden illness is all because of Mr. Wade!"

"What?!" Both Graham and Zeke exclaimed in shock.

Graham asked, "What makes you think that?"

Albert replied, "I think that it is possibly because of Aurora. If you truly want to find out the truth behind this matter, perhaps you should make a phone call to your daughter now and ask her whether she knows anything about Kian's condition."

Graham had a very serious expression on his face at this time.

He thought to himself for a brief moment before he nodded and said, "Okay, I will call Aurora right now."

Then, he quickly took out his cell phone and made a phone call to Aurora.

At this time, Aurora was practicing her fighting skills in the villa.

There was a huge room that was specifically reserved as Aurora's gym and exercise room in the Quinton family villa.

Aurora had been obsessed with fighting and exercising ever since she was a young girl. Therefore, she would always be working out and practicing her fighting skills at home whenever she had any free time to herself.

Ever since she had gotten to know Charlie, Aurora had been practicing even harder.

In her opinion, Charlie was a very capable and powerful man, and he would never be interested in a weak woman.

Therefore, she wanted to work hard to improve her own strength and physical abilities. Even if she knew that it would be impossible for her to catch up to Charlie's strength and abilities, she did not want him to look down on her!

Chapter 633

Aurora was sweating profusely and panting from exhaustion at this time.

She had already completed several sets of exercises that she had planned for herself. After she was done with her exercises, she carefully observed herself in the huge mirror in front of her.

In fact, Aurora had a very good figure.

Since she was frequently exercising, her figure was very fit and muscular, and she had a better body line and shape compared to any ordinary girl.

At this time, Aurora was wearing a very tight-fitting shirt and a pair of yoga pants that were hugging her waist, hips, and legs as she tied her hair up in a neat ponytail. She looked extremely hot!

As she was admiring her figure in the mirror, all that was running through her mind was Charlie.

As she thought about Charlie, she suddenly felt very embarrassed and started blushing immediately.

Her father had always asked her to look for ways to get closer to Charlie. However, Charlie was always very mysterious with his whereabouts, and it seemed as though he was always appearing one moment and disappearing in the next. Even if Aurora wanted to look for him, she did not have any suitable reasons at all.

When she asked for Charlie's help to save her best friend the last time, she never expected Charlie to not only help her best friend get rid of the other party's psychological hints and manipulation, but that he would also unexpectedly turn Kian into the laughingstock of the entire country. Aurora could not help but admire and worship Charlie for what he had done.

She had always liked and appreciated powerful men who could not only completely conquer her body and mind, but also a man who would be able to make her love him, believe in him, obey him, and even listen to everything that he said. To Aurora, Charlie was the perfect candidate!

Just as she was thinking about Charlie, her cell phone that was on the floor started ringing.

The cell phone's ringtone disrupted her thoughts immediately. Aurora looked down at her cell phone and realized that it was a phone call from her father. So, she quickly answered the phone without any hesitation.

"Dad!"

Graham quickly asked her solemnly, "Aurora, I have something to ask you, but you have to promise to answer me truthfully!"

Aurora did not know why her father was being so stern and serious. Therefore, she hurriedly replied, "Okay, dad. Please go ahead and ask me anything. I will answer all of your questions truthfully."

Graham asked, "Tell me the truth now. Were you the one who asked Mr. Wade to do whatever he did to Kian?"

"Ahh?!" Aurora was very flustered at this time and she quickly asked, "Dad, how did you find out about it? Did Mr. Wade tell you about it?"

Graham was shocked!

It was indeed her doing!

This girl had truly overstepped her boundaries!

Why had Charlie helped her to deal with the second son of the Webb family?

Wasn't this simply causing trouble for Charlie?

As he thought about this, Graham blurted out, "You little brat! I asked you to go to the Aurous University of Finance and Economics to study! Not to cause any trouble for Mr. Wade! Didn't you know about Kian's family background?!"

Aurora replied in a very aggrieved manner, "I really did not know... I only knew that his family was pretty well off. I did not know everything in detail..."

After that, Aurora continued speaking, "Besides, I did not ask Mr. Wade to deal with Kian at all. Kian was the one who used some psychological hints to control and manipulate my best friend. My best friend nearly committed suicide a couple of times because of him. Therefore, I had no other choice but to go and ask Mr. Wade for help..."

“Furthermore, I only intended to ask Mr. Wade to help me save my best friend. However, Mr. Wade was very dissatisfied with Kian and decided to teach him a lesson instead because he did not want to allow Kian to continue going around and causing harm to others!”

Chapter 634

“Sigh!” Graham could not help but sigh out loud. After that, he said, “You’ve caused quite some harm to Mr. Wade this time! Now, the Webb family is here to look for him! Donald is gathering all the heads of the powerful and prestigious families in Aurous Hill to help him find out more information about Mr. Wade!”

“What?!” Aurora started panicking, and she blurted out immediately, “Dad, will the Webb family try to find fault with Mr. Wade?”

Graham replied, “The Webb family is after Mr. Wade’s life!”

Aurora cried out anxiously, and she hurriedly said, “Dad, this incident happened all because of me. Can you tell the Webb family that the reason why Kian turned out this way was because of me?! I do not want Mr. Wade to get involved and dragged into this matter because of me...”

“Are you honestly that stupid?!” Graham could not help but sigh as he said, “Do you think that the Webb family are really such reasonable people? Since Kian contracted this sudden illness because of Mr. Wade, do you honestly think that the Webb family will let Mr. Wade off just like that even if they find out that you were the one who asked for his help? If they find out the truth, they will definitely get rid of both you and Mr. Wade!”

“What should I do, then?” Aurora cried as she said, “Dad, I truly did not mean to cause any trouble for Mr. Wade. He’s not in danger, right?”

Graham replied, “The Webb family has not found out that Mr. Wade was the one who did this. However, you have to tell me everything clearly now. How many people know about this matter?”

Aurora replied, “Only Mr. Wade and I know about this matter.”

“Only the both of you?” Graham asked puzzledly, “What about your best friend? Doesn’t she know anything about this matter at all?”

Aurora quickly replied, “It’s actually very strange. It seems as though my friend does not remember anything about Mr. Wade at all. When she recalled this incident, she simply remembered that she suddenly had an epiphany that she should live well so that she could serve and make a contribution to society.”

Graham could not help but sigh as he said, “Mr. Wade’s methods and skills are truly superb! Both Kian and your best friend could not remember him at all after this happened.”

As he spoke about this, Graham said again, “If that is the case, I feel much more relieved then. However, you should also take extra caution, and you must remember not to mention or talk about this matter to anyone else. Do you understand?”

Aurora hurriedly replied, “Yes, dad. I understand!”

“Okay.” Graham continued, “To not cause any more trouble for Mr. Wade, you should also attend classes diligently from now onward. Avoid making any contact with Mr. Wade for the time being so that no one will find out about your relationship with him. Do you understand?”

In truth, Aurora felt a little sad and disappointed when her father told her not to contact Charlie.

However, when she thought about it, she knew that her father had only said this because he did not want her to cause any trouble for Charlie. Therefore, she quickly agreed and said, “Dad, I know what I have to do. Don’t worry. I will be obedient and listen to your instructions.”

“Okay, then.” Graham felt a little more relieved at this time. “Okay, then, let’s just do that for the time being. I have something else that I need to do now.”

After he was done speaking, Graham hung up the phone immediately.

As soon as he hung up the phone, Zeke hurriedly asked, “Graham, was Mr. Wade really the one who gave Kian that strange illness?”

Graham nodded with a serious expression on his face. After that, he looked at Albert before he said seriously, “Don Albert, your analysis was right!”

Albert said, “If so, should we talk to Mr. Wade about this matter? Should we tell him everything so that he can be prepared for what’s coming?”

“Of course!” Graham hurriedly said, “We should not only tell him everything, but we also have to clarify the entire situation and let him know our position and attitude. Otherwise, when Mr. Wade finds out that we were having dinner with Donald, it would be very troublesome if he misunderstands us and thinks that we are going to back Donald up.”

As soon as he spoke, Graham sighed before he said, “If I knew that Donald and his son, Sean, were planning to deal with Mr. Wade, I would not have attended the banquet dinner tonight even if it cost me my life!”

“Yes, me too!” Albert cursed, “I thought that I should be considerate and meticulous since the Webb family, the top and most prestigious family in the South Region, wanted to host a banquet dinner at The Heaven Springs. However, I really did not expect that the father and son were actually planning to deal with Mr. Wade! If I knew about this matter, I would rather offend the Webb family than allow Donald to host a banquet at The Heaven Springs. I even allowed him to use the Diamond Room that Mr. Wade previously sat in...”

Zeke blurted out, “Mr. Wade has been very kind and gracious toward the three of us. I am even carrying the magical pill that Mr. Wade gave to me on my body all the time. Therefore, the three of us should always remain loyal and dedicated to Mr. Wade. The most important thing right now is for us to inform Mr. Wade about this matter and explain everything to him so that he knows of our attitude and loyalty toward him.”

Graham nodded before he said, “That’s right. I will give Mr. Wade a call right now!”

Chapter 635

Charlie had just eaten his dinner and was cleaning up the dishes in the kitchen at this time. When he received the phone call from Graham, he quickly answered the call before he asked, "Mr. Quinton, why are you looking for me?"

Graham hurriedly replied, "Mr. Wade, there is something I have to report to you after discussing this matter with Mr. White and Don Albert."

Charlie smiled indifferently before he said, "If there is anything you need to tell me, you can just speak to me directly. You don't have to be so polite toward me."

Graham quickly replied, "Okay, Mr. Wade. I will just say it, then. Today, Donald from the Webb family in Sudbury hosted a banquet dinner at The Heaven Springs. He invited some of the heads of the most wealthy and powerful families in Aurous Hill including Mr. White, Don Albert, and myself to attend the banquet dinner tonight. Then, he asked us for some help to deal with some matters, and we felt that something was not right. Therefore, we decided to report this to you instead."

As soon as he heard that the Webb family had hosted a banquet dinner, Charlie asked, "Why did the Webb family look for you?"

Graham explained, "Kian from the Webb family encountered a terrible situation not too long ago. The Webb family is trying to look for clues and evidence everywhere to find the culprit who placed Kian in this condition. I called Aurora just now and she has already confessed and told me everything that happened. I am afraid that the Webb family will come and look for you..."

Charlie smiled indifferently before he said, "Yes, I am indeed the reason why Kian is in that condition right now. The main reason why I did what I did was because I found that young boy's behavior and attitude very unacceptable. He thinks that it is okay for him to fall in love with girls and start a relationship with them. However, I find it really very unforgivable for him to deliberately play around with these girls and to even manipulate them into hurting themselves because of him. Therefore, I decided to teach him a lesson so that he will not be able to hurt others anymore in the future."

Graham was very surprised at this time.

He was not surprised at what Charlie had done, but he was surprised at Charlie's direct and straight confession.

Graham felt that in Charlie's opinion, turning the second son of the Webb family into a poop-eating monster was no different than simply squeezing an ant to death. He could not help but feel that Charlie was not worried about the consequences of his actions at all.

At this time, he could not help but wonder how Charlie could actually be so confident? How could he not have a care in the world even when he was facing the Webb family?

In the South Region, everyone would be in awe whenever someone mentioned the Webb family, but it seemed as though the Webb family was nothing to Charlie at all.

Once Graham had regained his senses, he quickly said, "Mr. Wade, don't worry. The three of us will be very tight-lipped about this matter, and we will keep this to ourselves. Even if the Webb family finds out that you were the culprit behind this matter and wants to find trouble with you, we will not agree to help them at all!"

Charlie smiled before he said, "You don't have to be so nervous and worried. They can come and try to exact revenge on me if they want to. I am Charlie Wade, and I have never feared anything."

After that, Charlie continued speaking, "In fact, you could even tell them directly that I was the one who did that to Kian. If Donald is not convinced or if he wants to deal with me, he can come and confront me directly then."

Graham quickly replied, "Mr. Wade, I know that you do not think that the Webb family is a threat to you at all. However, the Webb family has a very strong powerful status and strength in the South Region. It will surely be very troublesome for you in the future if you choose to become enemies with them."

After that, Graham continued, "Mr. Wade, in my opinion, I would like to suggest that you keep a low profile and not let the Webb family find out the truth about this matter. Otherwise, you will definitely face a lot of trouble in the future."

Charlie smiled before he said, "Mr. Quinton, thank you for your concern, but you really do not need to worry too much about this matter. There is always a solution to every situation. We will deal with the problem when the time comes."

"Alright, then." After that, Graham continued speaking, "By the way, Mr. Wade, there is another reason why the Webb family decided to host this banquet dinner tonight."

Charlie asked, "What is the second matter?"

Graham replied, "The Webb family seems to be very interested in getting Sean and Jasmine to get married. However, according to Donald, Jasmine has publicly confessed that she is already in love with someone else. Therefore, the Webb family wants us to help them uncover the identity of the man Jasmine is in love with..."

At this time, Graham asked tentatively, "Mr. Wade, are you the person Miss Moore is in love with?"

Charlie paused slightly before he said, "You should not be talking nonsense without any concrete evidence. After all, I am already a married man. If this kind of rumors spread to the public, it will leave a huge impact on the girl's reputation."

Graham hurriedly replied, "Yes, Mr. Wade. You are right to criticize me. I will never say anything like this again in the future!"

"Okay." Charlie said lightly, "The three of you do not have to worry too much about me. Just do what you have to do and don't take anything to heart. The Webb family alone is not a threat to me, and they will not be able to do anything to me."

Chapter 636

Actually, Charlie knew very well in his heart that Jasmine definitely had some feelings for him.

However, he did not know how to deal with this kind of affection. Therefore, he decided to simply pretend that nothing was going on so that he could just deal with this matter in the future.

***

Donald woke up early the next day.

He was unable to sleep well all night because he was very worried and concerned about looking for Anthony to treat his second son, Kian.

Kian's current situation was still relatively pessimistic. His condition of having to eat shit had not been alleviated at all, and Kian's current emotion and mental health were also gradually starting to collapse.

Who wouldn't feel that way? He had to eat shit more than twenty times a day, and it was only inevitable for him to feel as though he was on the verge of collapse.

Furthermore, Kian himself had grown up as a spoiled and pampered child. The thought of having to do this kind of thing for the rest of his life was even more terrifying to him than death itself.

Therefore, Donald really hoped that he would be able to cure his son as soon as possible. He wanted his son to return to normal. At the same time, he also wanted to kill the person who had done this to his son. He was not only doing this for revenge but also so that they would not have to suffer any more consequences in the future.

As he was very determined to get this done, Donald did not even bother to have breakfast at the Moore family mansion. He simply woke his son up and they brought some bodyguards with them before heading directly to the Serene World Clinic.

Donald was filled with excitement and anticipation when they were in the car, but Sean was a little discouraged.

In fact, Sean actually hoped that his brother's condition would never be cured and that he would remain that way for the rest of his life. This way, he would be able to save himself a lot of trouble.

Therefore, he asked his father tentatively, "Dad, do you think Dr. Simmons will truly be able to cure my younger brother?"

"I believe that he will definitely be able to cure him." After that, Donald said calmly, "If Dr. Simmons can cure even high-paraplegia, I believe that it will not be an issue for him to cure your younger brother at all."

Sean nodded as he felt a little discouraged inside.

They arrived at the Serene World Clinic shortly after, and the bodyguard quickly opened the car door for Donald and his son.

As soon as Donald stepped out of his car, he saw that there was already a long line waiting outside the entrance of the Serene World Clinic.

He could not help but sigh as he said, "It seems as though this genius doctor is really amazing and well sought after."

At this time, an assistant walked up before he said respectfully, "Mr. Webb, Dr. Simmons only sees ten patients every day. However, the patients that he chooses to see are not according to the order of the queue, but according to the severity of the patient's illness. Even if you are standing at the front of the line, if Dr. Simmons feels that your illness is not as severe, he will not see you. Instead, he will simply recommend that you go to another hospital to treat your illness.”

“Okay.” Donald looked at the long line once again. When he saw that there were all kinds of people waiting in line, he waved his hand in disgust as he instructed his bodyguard, “Take some cash from the trunk and give each of these people one thousand dollars before asking them to leave the line immediately.”

The bodyguard nodded before he quickly took some cash from the trunk and went to the front of the line and said in a loud voice, “The Serene World Clinic will be closed for the day. Those of you who are already standing in line can come forward and collect one thousand dollars from me now. After that, you can leave and come back another day!”

The crowd of people was all very dissatisfied. At this time, someone from the crowd shouted, “Why should we leave? You should just abide by the rules set up by the genius doctor, Dr. Simmons! Everyone has to line up to wait for treatment!”

The leader of the bodyguards snorted coldly before he cursed and said, “Why are you still fucking making so much noise when we are already giving you one thousand dollars for no reason at all?!”

The man blurted out in response, “One thousand dollars? My mother is seriously ill, and I’ve brought her all the way here today to ask for the genius doctor’s help. Do you truly think these one thousand dollars is that great? How about I give you one thousand dollars and you go as far away from this place as you possibly can instead?!”

“Damn it! You don’t appreciate it when we give you face?” The leader of the bodyguards glared at the man before he sneered and instructed his subordinates, “Beat him up! Beat him up nicely!”

Chapter 637

As soon as they heard his order, a few bodyguards quickly rushed forward before they grabbed the man and started punching and kicking him.

An old lady in her seventies who was standing next to the man started crying and shouting when she saw those men beating her son up. “I beg you, please stop beating him up already. We will just leave, we will leave now, okay?!”

The leader of the bodyguards said, “What the hell? You should have just done so from the very beginning!”

Then, the leader kicked the middle-aged man aside as he took out one thousand dollars and threw it on the man’s face before he cursed, “Get out of here now!”

The old lady continued crying as she used all of her strength and effort to help her son to stand. The people who were gathered outside the Serene World Clinic were all very angry when they witnessed this scene. However, since they saw that the other party was already driving so many luxury cars with so many bodyguards with them, they knew that they could not afford to provoke them. Therefore, they could only keep silent as they swallowed their anger.

At this time, a few other bodyguards stepped forward before they handed one thousand dollars out to each person who was standing in line before they said, "Get lost!"

Some of the people quickly took the money before they ran away immediately. However, some people had more dignity and were unwilling to take the money. Instead, they simply turned around and left because they knew that they could not afford to offend them.

At this time, one of the staff working at the Serene World Clinic rushed out when he heard the noise and commotion outside. As soon as he witnessed this scene, he quickly asked, "What do you think you are doing? Why are you beating people up?"

"Why am I beating him?" The leader of the bodyguards asked as he frowned. "We are from the Webb family in Sudbury, and if anyone does not know their place, we will have no choice but to teach them a lesson to put them in their rightful place."

After he was done speaking, he glanced at the people who were still standing outside the Serene World Clinic before cursing and saying, "Why are you still here? Why don't you hurry up and leave already? Are you itching for a beating? Dr. Simmons is not seeing any other patients today! You'd better leave now while I am still giving you face!"

The staff replied indignantly, "Don't you think that you are being too much? Do you know the rules at the Serene World Clinic? If you want to receive medical treatment from Dr. Simmons, you will have to queue up just like everyone else!"

At this time, Sean replied coldly, "Those rules were administered by the genius doctor for these poor people, but those rules do not apply to the Webb family. In the South Region, whatever the Webb family says is the rule! These people must leave this place today because they are not worthy enough to appear at the same time and place as the Webb family!"

"You..." The staff was very furious at this point. After that, he blurted out, "How can you be so unreasonable and domineering?"

Sean replied icily, "Young man, who gave you the right to talk to a member of the Webb family in this manner? Are you tired of living?"

The staff simply replied in a humble and determined manner, "The Serene World Clinic is a place for the genius doctor to cure diseases and save the lives of his patients! Therefore, everyone who comes here will have to abide by the rules set by the genius doctor, Dr. Simmons!"

"Rules set by the genius doctor?" Sean snorted before he said, "Even the genius doctor will have to obey the rules set by the Webb family! If you don't believe me, you can ask the genius doctor to come out right now and you can see for yourself then!"

In truth, Sean was deliberately acting as arrogant as he possibly could because he felt that it would be best if Anthony refused to see the Webb family due to his arrogance and attitude. In that case, Anthony would surely refuse to treat his younger brother.

In short, he was simply trying to prevent Anthony from treating his brother because he did not want his younger brother to be cured of his strange illness.

Donald had not spoken a word after giving his bodyguards the instruction to pay the people off.

He had not said anything when the bodyguards stepped forward to drive the people away either. This was because he felt that this was the Webb family's usual style of getting things done.

Whenever the Webb family went out in public, they would never allow any ordinary people to be close to them or to be anywhere near them at all.

Even if the Webb family were to visit a store or shop, their bodyguards would always clear and chase all the other guests out of the shops so that the Webb family members could stroll and walk around in the shop freely.

They had already long been accustomed to enjoying this kind of privilege and special treatment. Therefore, even when they came to see Anthony today, they did not want to be associated or in line with all these ordinary people.

However, at this time, Donald could not help but feel that Sean's attitude was a little out of hand.

He felt that Sean could target and attack all these ordinary people, but he should not be targeting Anthony at all!

Chapter 638

After all, Anthony was not any ordinary person.

He was a genius doctor who was very famous and reputable throughout the entire country. Moreover, Anthony also had a lot of connections with a lot of wealthy and powerful people. There were also a lot of powerful and prestigious people who came here to ask for Anthony's diagnosis and treatment. Therefore, Donald knew that he had to be very respectful and polite toward Anthony if he wanted to ask for his help to treat his youngest son.

However, Donald did not realize that Sean was doing this intentionally. He only felt that his son was probably acting this way because he was already used to being spoiled and pampered. Therefore, he might have lost control of his temper because he was already used to being overbearing and domineering.

Donald quickly said, "Sean, the reason why we came here today is to ask for the genius doctor's help to treat your younger brother. We should not be rude and disrespectful toward him!"

Sean hurriedly replied, "I got it, dad. Sorry for losing control of my temper just now. I am willing to accept any punishment you have for me."

Donald waved his hand before he spoke to the staff of the Serene World Clinic, "Young man, please tell the genius doctor, Dr. Simmons, that Donald from the Webb family in Sudbury is here to visit and see him."

Even though the young man was very dissatisfied with this group of people, he did not dare to say anything because the leader of the bodyguards was glaring at him with a deadly expression on his face. Therefore, he could only simply turn around as he hurried back into the clinic to inform Anthony about this matter.

Very soon, Anthony walked out of the clinic with a very cold expression on his face.

He glanced at Donald and Sean who were standing at the entrance of his clinic before he frowned and asked, "Are both of you the ones who drove all my patients away without my consent? Don't you think you are being a little too unreasonable?"

Donald smiled slightly before he said, "Dr. Simmons, I am Donald from the Webb family. I believe you must have heard about me before."

Anthony glared coldly at Donald before he said, "Yes, I have heard about the Webb family who is the top family in Sudbury and the entire South Region. However, I have only just discovered and experienced the true potential and power of the Webb family for myself today!"

Donald smiled as he replied, "Dr. Simmons, please do not be angry anymore. Can we go in and talk?"

Upon saying that, Donald walked into the Serene World Clinic as though he was not an outsider who was not welcomed in this place.

Anthony was furious, and he snorted coldly as he said, "Sorry, but I cannot afford to treat you because the Webb family is simply too powerful. Therefore, I don't think that we have anything to talk about."

Donald continued smiling as he said, "Dr. Simmons, you are a genius doctor that is recognized all around the country. Why do you need to be so angry just because of a bunch of poor people? I know that you are a genius doctor who is recognized by everyone in the upper-class society. Therefore, you should put greater value and attention in treating large and powerful families. Will you even be able to pay your rent if you focus on treating these poor people?"

Anthony replied earnestly, "The reason why I opened the Serene World Clinic is because I want to help people who need my help to cure their illnesses and diseases. I did not open this clinic just because I want to make money. In fact, there are also times where I treat some of my poorer patients without taking a single penny from them! I will just donate medicine and money to them if they are in need. If my intention was just to make more money, why would I even bother opening my clinic in Aurous Hill?!"

Donald was slightly taken aback because he could not believe that Anthony did not open his clinic to make money.

He did not believe that there could be a person who was not doing something for money.

The only possibility he could think of was that the money that had been offered was not high enough!

Therefore, Donald opened his mouth as he said, "Dr. Simmons, I have heard about your name and reputation for a very long time, and I know that there is not a disease or illness in this world that you will not be able to cure. Therefore, I came here today to seek your help to treat my youngest son."

Then, Donald continued speaking, "Why don't we do this instead? You can close your clinic for the day, and I will arrange for a private jet to bring you to Sudbury. I will give you ten million dollars to make a trip there to take a look at my son, and if you manage to cure him of his illness, I will give you another fifty million dollars!"

Anthony waved his hand before he replied faintly, "Excuse me, sorry, but I am only based in the Serene World Clinic now. Aside from my close and old friends, anyone who wants to see me will have to come to the Serene World Clinic to receive treatment."

After that, Anthony added, "In addition to that, anyone who wants to come to the Serene World Clinic to receive treatment will have to abide by the rules that I have already set here. However, I am truly disgusted by your behavior and attitude because you drove all my patients away today. Therefore, you and your family are not welcomed here!"

Chapter 639

Anthony had met with many big and powerful figures before, and some of them had an even more powerful and higher status compared to Donald. However, those big figures actually treated him with reverence and respect.

This was the first time Anthony had met anyone such as the Webb family, who was being so disrespectful toward him.

Even though the Webb family was indeed the top and most influential family in Sudbury and the South Region, Anthony was not afraid of them at all. Therefore, he simply turned down and refused their request flatly.

Donald could not help but frown. He never expected Anthony to blatantly ignore his request. Since he had already made a personal trip to invite the genius doctor to make a trip to see his youngest son, he expected him to immediately agree to his request. He did not expect Anthony to turn down his request without any hesitation whatsoever!

Donald was very annoyed at this time, and he said coldly, "Dr. Simmons, I truly hope that you can speak to me more politely. Do you really need me to remind you how powerful and influential the Webb family is?"

Anthony snorted coldly before he replied arrogantly, "I have already lived to such an old age, my tone and the way I speak has always been like this. If you cannot accept the way I speak, you are free to leave."

"You..."

Donald was extremely furious inside!

Ever since he had arrived at Aurous Hill, he felt that the people here were all a little strange.

He could not understand why there seemed to be obstacles wherever he went. Moreover, it seemed as though it was completely useless for him to bring up the Webb family's name and reputation in Aurous Hill.

The banquet dinner last night was also proof of his suspicions. Even though Zeke, Graham, and Albert were all very polite and respectful toward him on the surface, they did not take any of his requests seriously at all.

However, at this point, even Anthony dared to be so impolite and disrespectful toward him! Did the people in Aurous Hill really have no fear for the Webb family from Sudbury at all?

When Sean saw the anger and rage in his father's eyes, he immediately realized that this was his golden opportunity to perform. Therefore, he quickly yelled, "Old man, how dare you talk to my father in this manner? Do you believe that I will smash your hospital to pieces today?"

Donald quickly stopped Sean before he looked at Anthony and smiled as he said, "I am sorry, Dr. Simmons. Please do not be offended by my son's words. He is just a young man, and young men nowadays are all very impulsive and have a very bad temper."

After that, Donald suppressed the anger that he was feeling in his heart and said, "Dr. Simmons, the reason why I came to look for you today is because I wanted to ask you to make a trip to Sudbury to take a look at my son. Sudbury is not too far away from Aurous Hill, and you can arrive there in one hour on a private jet. I will give you ten million dollars if you just make a trip there to see if you can treat my son's illness. What do you think of this proposal?"

Anthony shook his head before he said lightly, "I have no way to cure your son. So, please leave now..."

"You..." Sean retorted angrily, "You old man! You do not even know what disease or illness my younger brother has! If so, how can you say that you have no way to cure him? Are you simply disregarding the Webb family now?!"

The expression on Donald's face was also very dark. He looked at Anthony before he said coldly, "Dr. Simmons, why do I feel as though you hold a grudge against the Webb family?"

Anthony glared at him coldly as he said, "You came to my clinic today, and you refused to abide by my rules. After that, you drove all my patients away without my consent. Aren't you the one who is finding fault with me in the first place?"

Donald replied coldly, "I've already told you that I was not targeting you! I was only targeting the poor people because they are not worthy of being under the same roof as me!"

Anthony sneered before he said, "What a joke! All beings are equal in this world. Can you control anyone who is under the same sky as you?"

Donald replied, "I might not be able to manage and control everyone under the sky, but I can control everyone under the same roof as me!"

After that, Donald said sharply, "Anthony Simmons, I am already giving you a lot of face by personally making this trip here today. I have also prepared a very generous gift for you. If you agree to come and take a look at my son, I will give you ten million dollars, and I will also give you the gift. However, if you refuse to make the trip to take a look at my son, you will be an enemy of the Webb family!"

Anthony then replied humbly, "I've already told you that I have no way to cure your son. If you really have to regard me as an enemy of your family, you can just do as you please. I have been practicing medicine for a lifetime, and I have already dedicated my life and death to practicing medicine. Don't bother telling me that you are from the Webb family in Sudbury. There is nothing I can do even if you are from the Schulz family in Eastcliff or the Wade family in Eastcliff! I only have this life, and you can take it if you want to!"

Chapter 640

The expression on Donald's face was very ugly at this time.

He never expected Anthony to be so firm.

All he had done was chase those pathetic and poor people away from the clinic, and yet, Anthony was already finding fault with him because of this?

Donald truly felt like giving Anthony a tight slap across his old face when he was faced with Anthony's arrogant attitude. After all, he had never been so humiliated and disrespected before in his entire life.

However, as he thought about it carefully, he still did not dare to offend Anthony.

Anthony was a national expert in Chinese medicine, and he could easily be regarded as one of the top doctors in the country. Donald could not even keep count of the number of powerful and influential people who had been treated and cured by Anthony. Donald knew that many wealthy and powerful people in Eastcliff had already benefited a lot from Anthony. If he really had the guts to beat him up today, he would only bring about a lot of hatred and trouble for himself.

Therefore, he could only endure the urge to do something to Anthony and snort as he said, "Dr. Simmons, you came from a benevolent and gracious generation of famous and reputable doctors. Why are you being so difficult today? You have not even met my youngest son, so how can you possibly say that there is no way for you to cure him at all?"

After that, Donald continued speaking, "I can accept it if you say that there is nothing you can do to treat and cure Kian if you say so after you see him! So, if you are really a genius doctor, I sincerely hope that you will take the initiative to make a trip to Sudbury for my son's sake!"

Anthony replied coldly, "Donald, don't you know anything about your youngest son at all? Don't you know about his personality and character? Even an old man like me has already heard about all his deeds and doings. Just because he has some money, he would go around deceiving and playing with girls' feelings before he slowly controls and manipulates their thoughts. Your youngest son takes pleasure and pride in allowing young girls to harm themselves or even commit suicide because of him! Even if I were to die today, I, Anthony Simmons, will never treat someone like him!"

Donald was extremely furious at this point!

He thought to himself, 'The one with the last name Simmons! I have already tolerated you long enough! It seems as though you are really seeking death today!'

After that, Donald replied coldly, "Anthony Simmons, do you mean to say that you are going to go against the will of the Webb family?"

Anthony replied, "It is your freedom to think and say whatever you want to, but no matter what you say, I will never treat your son! The both of you can walk yourselves out now."

Donald had a very cold and stern expression on his face as he said, "It seems as though the Webb family will have no power or authority in Aurous Hill if I do not show you what we are capable of."

Then, Donald stared at Anthony before he said, "You with the last name Simmons, have you ever thought about the consequences of offending the Webb family?"

"Consequences? What are the consequences?" Anthony sneered before he said, "So, is the Webb family planning to kill me to get rid of me?"

At this time, Donald really had a killing intent in his eyes. He was truly tempted to kill Anthony and dispose of him.

However, he also knew very well that he could not afford to kill Anthony.

If he killed him and someone with high power and influence needed to seek Anthony's medical treatment, he would definitely be in big trouble.

After a moment of silence, Donald replied with a black face, "I will not kill you, but if word spreads out to the public that you do not have any respect for the Webb family, the Webb family will definitely suffer a huge blow to our reputation! Therefore, I am going to let you know the consequence and price you will have to pay for offending the top family in the South Region!"

As soon as his voice fell, Donald turned around and instructed his bodyguards, "Come and tear his clinic apart now! I want you to smash everything in his clinic!"

Anthony rebuked Donald as he yelled out, "Donald, I dare you to do that!"

Donald snorted coldly before he said angrily, "You with the last name Simmons, I know that you are acquainted and connected to a lot of wealthy and powerful people. Therefore, I have no choice but to think twice about killing you. However, I have no worries or fear at all to smash everything in your clinic and tear your clinic apart."

After that, Donald continued yelling, "Let me tell you something. Anthony Simmons, if you dare to open another clinic in the future, I will send my men to smash your clinic again. I will destroy your clinic every time you try to open a new one. I really want to see who can help you out then!"

Chapter 641

As soon as Donald's voice fell, all of his bodyguards swarmed into the clinic immediately!

The bodyguards began kicking all of the medicine racks on the sides of the clinic as they knocked down all the Chinese medical herbs and materials to the ground. After that, they also smashed all the medicine pots into pieces on the ground.

In a blink of an eye, the huge medical hall had turned into a complete mess.

Anthony trembled in anger, but he knew that there was no way he would be able to stop them. Therefore, he could only watch silently as the bodyguards continued smashing and destroying his clinic in front of him.

The clinic was completely in a mess and ruined, and it did not look anything like it did just a short while ago.

Donald snorted coldly before he said, "Dr. Simmons, I will give you another three days to consider my proposal. Before you agree to my request, I will come and smash and destroy your clinic if you dare to reopen your clinic at any time! You'd better think twice before you do anything or make any decisions..."

After that, Donald turned around as he left the clinic with Sean and his bodyguards.

When the young staff working at the Serene World Clinic saw that everything in the medical hall had been smashed and destroyed, he cried out loud as he asked Anthony, "Dr. Simmons, should we call the police?"

Anthony waved his hand slightly before he said, "No. The Webb family is very influential and has connections everywhere. Even if we called the police, we will not be able to solve anything at all."

The young man hurriedly asked, "What should we do, then?"

Anthony replied, "We will just repair and fix all the damages done to the Serene World Clinic so that we can reopen and resume business as soon as possible."

The young man quickly said, "But the guy just now said that if you reopen your clinic, he will send his men over to smash and destroy your clinic again..."

Anthony replied indifferently, "So, does that mean that I will stop opening my clinic and medical hall just because I am afraid that he will send his men here to smash and destroy my clinic? I have been studying medicine my entire life. Should I really stop seeing or treating my patients simply because I am afraid he will send his men to come and destroy my clinic?"

When the young man saw the indifferent expression on Anthony's face, he could not help but sigh. He could feel the courage of the old genius doctor, and he knew that he was a very kindhearted man who was worried about the patients who would not be able to receive his treatments.

At this time, the young man quickly asked, "Should I call Sister Xyla and ask her to come back as soon as possible? She is probably waiting to pick you up so that you can attend Lord Moore's birthday banquet."

Anthony nodded as he suddenly recalled that today was Lord Moore's birthday!

When Lord Moore had come to see him for treatment a few days ago, he had already told him about his upcoming eightieth birthday banquet. Lord Moore had also personally invited him to participate and attend his birthday banquet.

Xyla specifically drove to Raventon yesterday so that she could prepare a birthday gift for Lord Moore. She was planning to drive back to Aurous Hill this morning before coming to the Serene World Clinic to pick him up so that they could go to the Moore family mansion together.

At this time, Anthony suddenly recalled that he had heard rumors stating that Donald and his son were both currently staying at the Moore family mansion!

Therefore, both of them would definitely be attending the birthday banquet that would be held at noon later!

As he thought about this, Anthony suddenly decided not to attend the birthday banquet anymore. If he attended the birthday banquet, he would inevitably run into the father and son from the Webb family. He did not want to end up quarreling with them and causing trouble for the birthday star who was already old.

Anthony felt that it would be better if he did not go instead.

Moreover, he truly did not have the mood to attend the birthday banquet at this time.

The Serene World Clinic had been smashed and destroyed, and all he could think about was how he could restore and reopen his clinic as soon as possible.

Besides, Anthony knew very well that he could not possibly take the Serene World Clinic off his mind at this moment. Even if he forced himself to attend Lord Moore's birthday banquet, he would be very absent-minded at the party because he would not be able to get his mind off the Serene World Clinic.

If Lord Moore noticed that something was amiss, Anthony would be placed in a very difficult position if he had to explain himself.

After putting some thought into it, Anthony gave Lord Moore a call. He excused himself from the party, stating that he couldn't make it because he wasn't feeling too well.

Lord Moore was very worried and concerned about Anthony and was only relieved after Anthony told him that he was merely feeling a little under the weather because he had caught a cold as it was rather chilly nowadays. Lord Moore did not force Anthony to come for his birthday banquet, but he made an appointment to meet up with him in private some other day instead.

At this time, Donald and his son were both driving back to the Moore family mansion after leaving the Serene World Clinic.

Donald's initial plan was to come over and tell Anthony about his youngest son's condition. He was originally certain that Anthony would have definitely agreed to help the Webb family. Therefore, he had already prepared to make the necessary arrangements for a private jet to send Anthony over to Sudbury immediately to treat his youngest son, Kian. After that, he would attend Lord Moore's birthday banquet with Sean before heading back to Sudbury after the party.

Chapter 642

However, Donald never expected reality to be so cruel even though he had already planned everything perfectly.

Anthony had directly rejected Donald's proposal without any hesitation whatsoever. Besides that, he even said that his youngest son could only blame himself for the predicament that he was in. This made him very angry.

After getting into the car, Donald continued cursing as he said, "Anthony, that old dog! He really does not know what's good for himself! I would have taken his life if I did not have to worry about getting into a lot of trouble!"

On the contrary, Sean was secretly feeling very happy.

He had initially been very worried that Anthony would truly be able to cure his younger brother.

Unexpectedly, after visiting his clinic, Anthony had actually completely refused to treat his younger brother. As a result, Sean would not have to worry about having a strong competitor on his path to inheriting the Webb family fortune.

However, he could not publicly display his feelings or emotions. Therefore, he could only say, "Dad, why don't we hire a few hitmen to go over and kill that old man one night?"

"No!" Donald blurted out immediately. "Even though this old man might not have a lot of money, many powerful and influential people actually owe him a lot of favors. They are all expecting him to live a long and healthy life. Killing him would be equivalent to pronouncing the early deaths of many powerful figures in advance. At that time, the Webb family will definitely become the subject of public criticism!"

Sean nodded before he said, "Alright, then. We will just do everything according to what you have decided, dad. We will smash and destroy his clinic as long as he dares to reopen it in the future!"

Donald replied, "That is just a little something to intimidate the old man. It would be best if I can force him to agree to see and treat your younger brother."

Sean felt a little nervous, and he blurted out, "But Dad, that old man simply refused to agree to your request!"

Donald replied, "That is why I am going to ask for Lord Moore's help to intercede on my behalf."

Sean hurriedly said, "Dad, it is Lord Moore's birthday banquet today. So, I think that it would not be appropriate for us to ask him for this favor now, right?"

"You're right." Donald nodded before he said, "We will talk to him about it tonight or tomorrow."

Then, Donald looked at Sean before he said, "You have to hurry up and look for ways to cultivate and build a relationship with Jasmine as soon as you can. You have to get her to agree to marry you as soon as possible!"

Sean nodded before he said, "Dad, don't worry. I have already instructed Cain to help me to carefully prepare a gift for Jasmine. I will give her the gift later. I believe that she will positively like it."

Donald nodded before he said, "This young woman is very capable. If you can marry her, she will surely be of great help to the Webb family in the future. When you inherit the Webb family business, your grandfather and I can rest assured if you have Jasmine by your side to help you."

Sean had a very determined expression on his face as he said, "Dad, don't worry. I will definitely marry Jasmine and make her my woman!"

As they continued chatting, they had already arrived at the entrance of the Moore family mansion.

The lights were already lit up outside the main entrance of the Moore family mansion at this time.

As the head of the top and most influential family in Aurous Hill, Lord Moore was a person of high status and authority. Therefore, it was only natural that his birthday banquet was very grand and luxurious.

Even though the banquet had not officially begun, many guests had already arrived in advance as they waited outside the gate of the mansion.

The Moore family was the top and most influential family in Aurous Hill after all. Thus, many smaller families were still trying to get into their good books.

Consequently, no one dared to neglect Lord Moore's birthday banquet.

At this time, even though Marcus's father, Cain, was not invited to attend Lord Moore's birthday banquet, he had been waiting outside the gate of the Moore family mansion for a very long time.

When he saw Donald and his son arriving back at the Moore family mansion, he quickly rushed forward with a beautiful gift box in his hand.

As soon as Sean rolled the car window down, Cain hurriedly said, "Young Master Webb, I have the gift that you asked me to prepare for you. This is the finest masterpiece of the top Italian jewelry designer, Mr. Fischer. You gave me one hundred million dollars for it, but I only used ninety-eight million dollars!"

Sean took the gift box from his hand and when he opened it, he saw a beautifully shaped bracelet inlaid with dozens of pink natural diamonds which was very valuable.

Donald asked, "Did you prepare this bracelet for Jasmine?"

"Yes." Sean smiled before he said, "The bracelet she is wearing right now looks very cheap and ugly! I believe that bracelet only cost several hundred thousand dollars. I think she will absolutely love this bracelet that I am going to give to her!"

Chapter 643

When Donald saw that Sean had already begun to take action, he nodded in satisfaction as he praised him, "Good job, Sean! You have already learned to observe the fine details so that you can take advantage of the situation to advance forward!"

Sean smiled before he said, "Dad, I have already been following you around for so long, thus, I have learned and picked up some of your skills. However, I still have a lot to learn from you as I am still far behind you."

"No," Donald said seriously, "It is good enough that you noticed that Jasmine's bracelet is relatively old and worthless. That is already a very big improvement. Moreover, you even took the initiative to buy her a nicer and more expensive bracelet. That proves that you are already learning to take action because you are much more mature and stable now! That is not bad at all. You did very well!"

Sean was overjoyed when his father praised him. When he saw Cain looking at him with a desperate expression on his face, Cain smiled before he said in satisfaction, "Cain, this bracelet is truly very beautiful. You did very well this time. If you continue doing things this well for me in the future, I will not treat you badly at all."

Cain replied respectfully, "Yes, sir! I will do my absolute best for you!"

After that, Cain hurriedly handed the remaining two million dollars to Sean as he said, "This is the remaining two million dollars after buying the bracelet."

When Sean saw how sincere Cain was, he was very satisfied and he said, "You can keep the two million dollars for yourself."

Even though Cain did not care about the two million dollars at all, he knew that this was a reward and incentive that Sean was giving to him. Therefore, he nodded in excitement before he said gratefully, "Thank you, sir!"

At this time, Donald was also looking at Cain with a very satisfied expression on his face.

He did not expect Cain to not only have a sufficiently pious attitude, but the latter had also gotten his work done so neatly and perfectly.

Besides, Cain was also the first person who had pledged his allegiance and agreed to become the Webb family's dog after they had come to Aurous Hill.

Therefore, Donald felt that he should reward Cain for his loyalty.

At this time, Donald suddenly asked, "Cain, did Lord Moore invite you to attend his birthday banquet today?"

Cain smiled bitterly before he said, "Mr. Webb, to tell you the truth, how could someone of my status and identity possibly have been invited to attend Lord Moore's birthday banquet?"

In fact, there were many people like Cain who were not qualified enough to participate in Lord Moore's birthday banquet. However, they were all still hoping and dreaming that they could be given the opportunity to participate and attend the banquet.

This was because all the top and most influential people in Aurous Hill would naturally be invited to attend Lord Moore's birthday banquet. Therefore, it would be a perfect and uniquely convenient opportunity for anyone to expand their contacts and connections here today.

Donald looked at Cain before he smiled slightly and said, "I know that you will not be able to get into the birthday banquet by yourself. However, since you are also working for the Webb family now, I will bring you around to meet more people. I would also like the people in Aurous Hill to know that you are working for the Webb family now."

Cain was ecstatic and quickly said, "Thank you, Mr. Webb! Thank you for giving me such a great opportunity. I will definitely continue to do my best for you and your son."

For someone like Cain, he would never have been qualified enough to attend Lord Moore's birthday banquet on his own. However, Donald was actually willing to bring him in so that he could be a part of this party. This alone was enough to make Cain feel extremely grateful toward Donald.

At this time, Donald said lightly, "Alright then, get in the car. We can continue talking after going inside."

Cain hurriedly got into the co-driver seat before he followed Donald and his son as they drove into the Moore family mansion.

The father and son eventually stopped their car in the courtyard of the Moore family mansion. As soon as they stepped out of the car, they saw Jasmine, who was dressed in an extremely dignified and beautiful red dress, running out of the mansion.

Jasmine had put on her makeup even more carefully today, so she looked much more beautiful compared to her usual self.

Sean was stunned, and it took a short while for him to come back to his senses. When he saw Jasmine getting into her car, he rushed forward before he opened Jasmine's car door and asked, "Jasmine, where are you going?"

Jasmine replied indifferently, "I am going to pick up a distinguished guest!"

Sean asked disdainfully, "What kind of distinguished guest is so important that you actually have to go and pick him up in person?"

Jasmine replied lightly, "Of course, he is the most important guest!"

Jasmine then said, "Can you please let go of my car door? I have to leave now."

Chapter 644

Sean felt a little sullen in his heart. Both he and his father were standing in front of Jasmine right now. Yet, unexpectedly, Jasmine had actually said that there was an even more important guest compared to them. Who else in Aurous Hill could be more important than his father and himself?

In other words, who else in Aurous Hill could possibly have even greater status or power compared to the Webb family?

Even though he was feeling a little upset, Kian continued speaking in a very gentlemanly manner as he said, "By the way, Jasmine, I've specially prepared a gift for you. I am not sure whether you will like it or not."

Jasmine frowned before she said, "Mr. Webb, you should keep the gift. I do not need anything, and I do not want you to spend so much on me. Besides, I simply cannot accept your gift for no reason at all."

At this time, Sean hurriedly took out the gift box Cain had given to him before he said earnestly, "Jasmine, why are you being so polite with me? In fact, I noticed that the bracelet you have been wearing is very old and worn out. I couldn't help but feel a little distressed for you. You are the dignified young lady of the Moore family, so how could you possibly be wearing such a simple and cheap piece of jewelry?"

As he spoke, Sean had already taken out the bracelet he had bought as he said, "Jasmine, this bracelet is a masterpiece created by the Italian jewelry designer, Mr. Fischer. It is the only limited edition bracelet in this world and is worth one hundred million dollars. I bought this bracelet especially for you. This bracelet will surely match your identity and temperament. That piece of rubbish on your hand should have been thrown into the trash can a long time ago!"

Sean initially thought that every woman in the world would love any kind of expensive jewelry. Therefore, he believed that Jasmine would be no exception.

Sean was confident that this bracelet that he had bought at a high and expensive price would definitely touch Jasmine's heart.

However, he never expected the expression on Jasmine's face to change as soon as she heard his words. Moreover, she was staring at Sean with unprecedented anger and disgust on her face!

Yes, the bracelet on her hand was not worth a lot of money, and it did look a little old and worn out.

But!

This bracelet was a relic her mother had left behind for her!

Ever since her mother had passed away a long time ago, Jasmine had been wearing this bracelet on her hand because it carried a very precious and extraordinary meaning to her! She truly loved and treasured this bracelet very much.

In the past, when she had been accidentally trapped in the terrifying Feng Shui 'dragon encapsulation formation', she had not even been that upset or afraid when she had almost died in several car accidents. However, she had felt as though she was in extreme pain and that she would rather be dead when she realized that she had lost the bracelet her mother had left to her.

That was also the reason why she had invited Master Lennard to come over to Aurous Hill all the way from Hong Kong to help her to change her fortune. All so she would be able to find her bracelet.

However, she had almost been killed because of that fake Master Lennard!

If Charlie had not stepped in to help her resolve the 'dragon encapsulation formation' she was trapped in because he noticed that something was amiss, she would have already lost her life a long time ago.

The reason why she could retrieve her lost bracelet was all thanks to Charlie!

If Charlie had not broken the 'dragon encapsulation formation', she would never have the luck to retrieve her precious bracelet!

It was obvious that this bracelet was indeed very precious to Jasmine!

However, the important and precious bracelet which carried all her feelings and longings, that was entrusted to her by her mother, was actually regarded as rubbish to Sean! Sean had even asked her to throw her bracelet into the trash can! This made Jasmine so angry that she felt as though she was going to explode in anger.

At this time, Jasmine pushed Sean's hand which was holding the diamond bracelet away as she said coldly, "Sean! This bracelet is a relic that my mother left behind for me. It is even more precious to me than my own life. Who gave you the right to insult my bracelet?"

Sean was stunned.

Fuck! What the hell?

That broken bracelet turned out to be a relic left behind by Jasmine's mother?

Wasn't he merely shooting himself in the foot?!

Sean became very upset, and before he could find a way to salvage the situation, Jasmine had already angrily closed the car door and stepped on the accelerator, driving away immediately.

Sean stood alone in a daze, and the expression on his face at this time was even uglier than the expression his younger brother had whenever he had to eat shit every hour...

Chapter 645

Sean truly felt like dying at this very moment.

He would never have dreamt that the broken bracelet on Jasmine's wrist would turn out to be a relic left behind by her mother...

Moreover, he had even said that the relic left behind by her mother was nothing more than a piece of garbage...

This was a complete disaster!

Jasmine was already originally cold and indifferent toward him. Therefore, he was initially planning to rely on this bracelet to earn himself some points.

Unexpectedly, he had only dug his own grave...

This time, his score in Jasmine's mind had probably been reduced to a negative score.

At this time, Donald, who had been standing not too far away, could not help but feel a little puzzled as he stared at his son who was left standing all alone in a daze.

Didn't his son go over to give Jasmine the gift just now?

Jasmine must have been very happy to receive such an expensive gift.

If so, why did Jasmine drive away in such haste?

As he had some doubts in his heart, Donald walked over to his son before he patted him gently on the shoulder and asked, "How did things go with Jasmine?"

When Donald saw that Sean was still holding the diamond bracelet in his hand, he asked in surprise, "Did Jasmine reject your gift?"

Sean had a very sad and miserable expression on his face as he said, "Dad, the broken bracelet that Jasmine was wearing was actually a relic that her mother left behind to her... I did not know about it. I even said that the bracelet was just a worthless piece of rubbish that was not worthy of someone of her temperament and status..."

"Damn it..."

Donald was also very surprised at this time.

After that, he sighed as he said, "Sean! You should have known that someone of Jasmine's status and identity would never wear such a cheap and shabby bracelet for no reason at all. Since she was wearing the bracelet on her hand, there should have been a deeper and hidden meaning behind it! You are simply too careless!"

Sean was about to cry, and he looked at his father with an aggrieved expression on his face as he said, "Dad, you told me earlier that I was very meticulous and focused, so how could you say that I am careless now..."

Donald flushed and arranged his thoughts before he said seriously, "You have indeed begun to be a little more observant, but your observation is not detailed enough. You should learn a lesson from your mistake this time and make sure that you do not make the same mistakes anymore in the future."

Sean sighed before he said, "Well, I know, dad..."

After that, Sean said, "By the way, dad, Jasmine drove out to pick someone up in person. She even said that the person she was going to pick up was the most distinguished and important guest today. Dad, what kind of distinguished guest could he possibly be that the Moore family actually takes him so seriously?"

Donald frowned before he replied, "I do not know anything about that. As far as I know, apart from us, the guests that the Moore family has invited to attend Lord Moore's birthday banquet today are some of their old friends and business partners in Aurous Hill. I did not hear about them inviting any distinguished guests to participate in the banquet today."

"That's weird," Sean muttered. "Do you think Jasmine went to pick up her sweetheart, then?"

"I'm not too sure about that." Donald said, "You'd better pay attention to see who Jasmine comes back with later."

"Okay."

***

At this time, Jasmine was driving to Charlie's house.

Even though she knew that she should be staying at home to help out since it was her grandfather's eightieth birthday banquet, Jasmine really missed Charlie. Therefore, she decided to come out to pick him up personally so that she could spend some time alone on the road with him.

Once Charlie arrived at the Moore family mansion, she would definitely not have the opportunity to talk to him in private since there would be so many other guests around.

When Lord Moore heard that Jasmine was heading out to pick Charlie up, he naturally agreed without any hesitation. Although Charlie was already a married man, Lord Moore had already long regarded Charlie as the future grandson-in-law of the Moore family.

As Jasmine was on the way to Charlie's house, she took out her cell phone as she prepared to call Charlie.

Since it was a weekend, everyone in the family would wake up later than usual. Therefore, Charlie only prepared and set breakfast on the table at ten o'clock in the morning.
