

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence

Chapter 826

Chapter 826 A minute later, the car stopped by the roadside urgently. Chad got out of the car and ran home!

Mike punched the steering wheel! He could not ask Chad to give up on his family, but he also did not want to be the one that was given up on.

He felt aggrieved, so he took his phone out. He wanted to call Avery to complain. Before dialing, he suddenly remembered that Bridgedale has a time difference. At that hour, Avery must have already been in bed.

He did not want to disturb Avery's sleep, but it would be fine to disturb Elliot. He sent Elliot a message. About an hour later, Elliot gave him a call. "Is Avery asleep?" Mike asked. "She just fell asleep. What's up?" Elliot was having the call in the bathroom. Even so, his voice was very soft. "Chad's mother fainted due to high blood pressure. I caused it." Mike was smoking gloomily. "I'm guessing Chad hates me to death right now." "He told you about this before."

"Yes! But I can't just stay silent about our relationship just because of this right? Is this fair to me?" Mike let out a puff of smoke. "He doesn't want to answer my call right now nor reply to my messages. What does that mean? Is he breaking up with me?"

Elliot said, "Give him some time. Maybe his mother is in the hospital, and he needs to take care of her."

"Oh. Before I told them about my relationship with Chad, his parents liked me a lot." Mike felt terrible. "After announcing to them, their attitude toward me changed very quickly. I'm very lost right now. He doesn't let me go look for him, but I don't want to see you and Avery being all lovey-dovey."

Mike was waiting at the Starry River Villa at that moment.

"You can't ask others to think like you," Elliot said calmly, "His parents are rather conservative. It's normal that they can't accept it. Before they can accept you, you have to bear the so-called unfairness."

"Are you trying to ask me to be Chad's secret lover?" Mike snorted. "I can't f*cking take it! I won't accepted it!"

"Then, break up."

"F*ck off!" Mike was already annoyed. After listening to Elliot, he was even more so.

He should have called Avery instead. Avery would never put it so harshly. Elliot came out from the washroom. On the bed, Avery slept peacefully.

There was only a night lamp by the bed, it was dim, so it would not affect her sleep. He wanted to lay down next to her and fall asleep together, but he could not fall asleep at all. From the day before until that day, he felt enormous joy. The more joyous he felt, the more worried he was. He could lie to himself that this is all a dream. Once the time was up, he could leave, but what would happen to Avery and the children? He could not imagine what Avery's and the children's reactions would be once she finds out that he was marrying Chelsea. They would be in pain. They would be disappointed, and even in despair.

Elliot has regretted it! He should have succumbed to her temptations to come to Bridgedale.

If he was in Aryadelle alone. Even if he was lonely and unhappy, at least he would not be so conflicted and worried as he was at that moment.

He could have settled his issues before asking for forgiveness from Avery and the children, but it was too late! Elliot walked to Avery's desk and stopped in front of it.

Chapter 827

Chapter 827 Having a desk in her bedroom, Elliot guessed that Avery must have spent countless nights there. Her desk was clean and tidy. Her documents were placed in folders. There was only a laptop on her desk Elliot wanted to know what Avery was currently busy on, so he casually took a brown envelope out from her folder. The brown envelope wrote 'Case Files'. He slowly opened it and took a stack of documents out. "Elliot..."

Avery's gentle voice suddenly rang out from behind. "What are you doing?" She suddenly woke up and saw a blurry figure standing by her desk. She thought she was hallucinating, so she looked closer at it for a while. After making sure she was not in a dream, Avery sat up. Elliot quickly placed the brown envelope back into its original place. "Don't you have a study room?" Elliot quickly collected his thoughts and walked over to her. "I noticed you placed a study desk here."

Avery rubbed her eyes. "I do have a study room, but I prefer to stay in the bedroom. I could lie down and rest once I'm tired." "Did I wake you up?" Elliot said apologetically and explained, "I was on a call with Mike. He said that Chad's mother had passed out." "That serious?" Avery took a deep breath. She tugged on Elliot's arm and asked further, "What happened?" "Chad's mother has high blood pressure. She has been admitted to the hospital before."

"Mike is too impulsive! I'm going to call him now!" Avery's chest was heaving. She turned around and took her phone. Elliot pulled her back. "Are you going to call him just to reprimand him? No need. This is their affair. They will settle it on their own." "I'm asking him not to be so impulsive in the future." "Things have already happened. It's pointless for you to say anything right now. Also, sometimes being impulsive is not a bad thing," Elliot said, "Knowing Chad, he will never tell his parents about this."

Avery suddenly felt helpless. She wanted to help but did not know how to do so. Just like Elliot said. This was their matter. Only they could solve it. "Do you think when we fight, they feel that way too? Like they want to help but they can't do anything about it." She smiled helplessly. "Elliot, you carried Layla the entire day, you must be exhausted! She's much heavier than Robert."

| Emot could not lie to her, so he told her honestly, "Yes, but I'm very94 happy." 1. "If this goes on, you're going to spoil her rotten." Avery blushed a little and said, "I just had a dream. More accurately, a nightmare. I was woken up by the nightmare." "What is it?" He noticed the sweat on her forehead, so he went to pour a glass of water for18 her.

"I dreamed that you asked Hayden for forgiveness. Hayden demanded a request. He said that as long as you agree to it, he will forgive you," Avery recounted her nightmare to Elliot. Elliot's back tensed. He asked hoarsely, "What did he askdz for?" If it was real, no matter what Hayden ask for, he would agree to it.

"Hahaha! If I mention it, you won't think that it's a nightmare anymore." Avery chuckled. "He asked you to stretch your neck out so he could strangle you. Hayden would indeed do such acb thing." Seeing how brightly she smiled. Elliot brought the glass of water to her and replied, "Then, I'll strangle him tomorrow?" "I'm teasing you!" Avery accepted the glass of water and took a sip. "Don't worry so much about Hayden. If you're as great as today, he will come to accept you sooner or later." Elliot was in a daze. "What if I can't?"

"Hmm?" Avery was stunned.

"What I mean is I'll be busy after this," Elliot explained. He swallowed his saliva.

"When you go back to work, the children have to go back to school too!" As long as you can be like how you were today when you are with the children." Avery returned the glass to him. "You can do it, right?" . Elliot's words were stuck in his throat. He nonchalantly changed the subject. "It's late. Let's go to bed! I'll hug you to sleep, you won't have nightmares that way."

Chapter 828

Chapter 828 Avery was a little stunned.

Elliot did not reply to her question?

When Elliot reached his arm over, about to hug her, she pushed him away. "Why didn't you answer my question? Can you do it or not? If you can't, don't hug me."

The request she made was not at all too much to ask for.

All she asked was that he spends more time with the children whenever he was free. If she could do it, why could he not? If he could not do such a simple thing, he should not have children at all. "They are my children. Of course, I'm willing to do anything for them." Elliot hugged her around the waist tightly. "Your questions made me feel guilty."

Hearing his explanations, Avery let out a sigh of relief.

"Elliot, next time when I ask you a question, no matter what question is it, you have to answer me." Avery looked at him seriously. "If you don't, my mind goes wild. To others, I can be calm and logical, but to you, I lose control of my emotions easily."

"Hmm." Elliot did not dare to look her in the eyes. He reached out and was about to switch off the lights.

"Elliot, look at me." Avery held his face with both hands, forcing him to look at her. "Why are you being shifty? You didn't do anything bad, why don't you dare to look at me?" Elliot's body temperature suddenly shot up. His breathing turned heavy. "Avery, don't flirt with me at night."

Avery was speechless. She pulled her covers over her head!

How awkward!

She thought that he could not sleep because there was something on his mind. She also thought that because he was not answering her questions and his eyes were shifty, he must have done something. Turns out, he was just thinking about a different matter. Looking at her covering herself with the covers, Elliot chuckled gently. After switching the lights off, he pulled the covers off her head. "Don't suffocate yourself." "I think you're the one suffocating!" Avery retorted, le blushing. After switching off the lights, they could not see each other's face clearly, only the outline of it, so Avery could boldly stare at his face, even if she could not see it clearly. Elliot climbed on top of her and whispered in her ears. "I am indeed suffocating from love. Help me out?"

Avery's ears turned hot. She wanted to push him away, but his kiss landed on her.

Instantly, the energy in her was depleted! She stopped resisting pushing him away. A few seconds later, he hugged his fit body tightly!

The next morning, when Avery woke up, she saw Elliot pacing around with Robert in his hands. The morning glow landed on father and son, making it seem very heartwarming. Avery thought she was dreaming, so she silently lay there and watch. When Elliot saw her face, he shattered her illusion. "You're up? What are you thinking?"

Avery instantly came to her senses. "Why are you carrying Robert?"

"Tammy is here." He walked over to her and sat down. "I think she wouldn't want to see me, so I better not make her angry."

"Oh. What time is it now?" She looked out and the sun was piercing. It did not seem like early morning Elliot looked at his wrist and saw the time. "Eleven. Those that don't know might think that we went a little too hard last night."

Avery lifted the covers and said, "Don't talk about such adult topics in front of our baby." "It's not like he understands."

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence

Chapter 829

Chapter 829 “Even if he doesn’t understand, won’t you be shy?” “If I’m shy, would he be born?” His retort made Avery blush. She put on her clothes and quickly entered the washroom. Downstairs, Tammy and Layla were munching on snacks and chatting. “Does your father not want me around?”

“After I have arrived, he doesn’t even come out,” Tammy teased. Layla immediately shook her head. “Of course, Daddy welcomes you. He must be in Mommy’s room watching her sleep!” Tammy said, “What is there to see? Won’t he be afraid that he would wake your Mommy up?” Layla scratched her head, trying to think of a retort for Elliot.

At that moment, Avery walked over.

“Tammy, since when did you come? I had too much fun last night, so I overslept.” She walked over to Tammy and explained. “All you did was just see fireworks. Why are you so tired?” Tammy looked at her interestingly. “What’s going on with Elliot? Why is he avoiding me?”

“He said that he was afraid you might be unhappy seeing him, so he’s in the room taking care of Robert,” Avery said softly, “I don’t know what he is thinking.”

“Hehe, I know what he is worried about.” Tammy smiled rather tensely. “I heard that Jun had a blind date. The woman is much better than me. Not only is her family richer than mine, but she looks elegant too...” Avery’s expression was plastered on her face. “So quick? Didn’t he cut ties with his family? Since when did he reconciled with them?”

“After our last fight, he went back home to reconcile with his parents. He should thank me. If it were not for me, do you think he would come to his senses so quickly? If he doesn’t come to his senses, would he have such a great fiancée?”

Tammy has made up intricately that day. Although her tone was rather sour, no one could see how upset she was from her expression.

"Fiancee? He is going to marry this woman?" Avery found it progressing too quickly. She could not keep up.

"Hmm. They even set the date already." Tammy smiled and said, "This is the first time since I knew Jun that he does things efficiently. It's an improvement! A good thing!" Avery looked at Tammy's forced smile. She felt terrible. Other people might not understand Tammy, but Avery knew Tammy very well. How could Tammy let go of Jun? Seeing Jun getting married to another woman, she must be in so much pain!

However, it was better to rip the band-aid quickly. Now that Jun was going to get married to another woman, this would let Tammy give up completely too.

After a while, Tammy might be able to start her new life as well.

"Get your man to come out! It's lunchtime! Don't stop him from eating just because of me. Jun and I have completely ended things." Tammy drank a cup of water and said to Avery. Avery immediately got up and went to her room to call Elliot out. During lunch, the atmosphere was rather awkward. The two children understood this. They quickly left the dining table after they finished their meal. Avery looked at Elliot, then looked at Tammy. "Are you guys just going to stay silent? Don't you find it strange?" Avery broke the silence. "Elliot, why didn't you tell me that Jun was getting married?"

"Do you want to attend his wedding?" Elliot asked in retort, "I thought that you wouldn't be interested in it, so I didn't tell you."

Avery said, "Of course, I won't attend his wedding." "Avery, attend his wedding." Tammy put down her utensils. "If he invited me, I would definitely go. But because he didn't invite me, you should go on my behalf!" Avery looked awkward. "Why should I attend? I do not want to wish him happiness." Avery paused for a while before explaining, "Let's swap roles for a while. If Elliot were to get married to another woman, could you calmly wish her?" Avery's words made Elliot suddenly cough violently!

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence

Chapter 830

Chapter 830 Mrs. Scarlet immediately brought some water for him. Avery reached out to pat Elliot on the back

"Eat slower. Did you choke?"

Tammy looked at Elliot suspiciously. She found him strange. Her woman's sixth sense tells her to ask him, "Elliot, I find you shifty. Did you connect fun with his fiancée?" When Tammy asked this, Avery immediately retracted her hands from Elliot's back. Elliot was halfway drinking water, because of this question, he was forced to stop. He forcefully swallowed and denied, "No... I do not know his fiancée."

"Oh, then why are you so worked up?" Tammy harrumphed and looked at Avery. "If Elliot were to get married to another woman, of course, I won't be calm! It would be respectful enough of me to not crash his wedding!"

Avery nodded, "I know, so I don't think I could also see Jun getting married to another woman. Tammy, forgive me!"

"Jun and Elliot are different," Tammy said, "I was the one that dumped Jun, which was why he got married to another woman. I don't blame him. You and Elliot are different."

"How is it different? Every time I break up with him, I was the one that called it." Although it was a little embarrassing discussing this in front of Elliot, her relationship with Elliot was quite good at that moment, so she did not mind.

"Hahaha! You two have children! If Jun and I had children, there would be no other woman!" Tammy almost laughed in tears. "No matter how badly you guys fight, if he were to get married to another woman, he is the dirtbag! Unless you get married to another man before him, then only he can get married to another woman."

Elliot downed the remaining glass of water.

He has already calmed down. From their conversation, he could already guess how big of a sensation this would cause when his marriage to Chelsea was announced. "Why are you not eating?" Avery looked at him holding onto his glass. He seemed to be listening to them chatting attentively. She reminded him, "You have finished your food!" "Hmm." Elliot placed his glass down and picked up his utensils once again. Mrs. Scarlet came over and asked, "Mr. Foster, should I get you another plate?" Elliot shook his head. "No need." "Tammy and I didn't bad mouth Jun, right?" Avery asked confusedly, "You seemie distracted.

Tammy looked at him. "Don't tell me you were the one who put the idea in Jun's head, asking him to look for another woman to marry?"

Elliot looked at her and enunciated, "I am never interested in another person's personal atters Whether he wants to get married to another woman or become a priest, it has nothing to do with me."

to.

His cold gaze and tone made Tammy swallow her saliva.

Tammy is only asking casually, you don't have to take it seriously," Avery said and looked at Tammy, "When is their wedding? Why are you asking me to attend?" "First of April." Tammy lowered her gaze and said, "I wondered who picked the date. First of April, April Fools." Avery looked at the calendar on her phone. It was soon the first of April. It was a little rushed for wedding preparation. Jun's wedding was rather rushed. The first of April was not a holiday. It would make more sense to set it for the first of May.

That meant that Jun was into the wedding. He only agreed to get married because he wanted to infuriate Tammy, or perhaps his parents pressured him to do so.

In the afternoon, Tammy left. Avery found it boring staying at home, so he got Elliot to go out for a walk.
