

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1041 | Simple Silence

Chapter 1041

It seems that Elliot was not completely unprepared for the date. After hanging on the phone, a whistle sounded outside the courtyard.

Tammy has arrived. Avery took the bag and strode out of the villa.

Mid-range community.

Nathan took his children and moved into the finely decorated new house he bought the day before yesterday. After buying the house, Nathan and his son bought a lot of furniture and appliances in the furniture market yesterday.

The family officially moved in today.

Nathan should have been happy to move into the new house, but he felt worried when he saw the low balance left in the card.

Nathan called Zion aside to discuss how to ask Elliot for money again.

Nathan frowned and said wily, "If we can't talk this time, he may kill us in a fit of rage. So we have to contact the media first. You should also bring some self-defense tools with you. Adrian, this fool, you have to be optimistic and can't let him run away."

Zion sneered, "This is the 12th floor, how can he run? He won't take the elevator unless he jumps off the building. Don't look at Adrian as stupid but he is quite afraid of death."

Nathan and Zion laughed while looking at Adrian who was sitting on the sofa in the living room. Adrian was sitting on the sofa. With a serious face, He was watching TV.

There is a period romance show on TV. It was opened by Gwen White, the daughter of the Nathan White.

After Gwen turned on the Romance Show, Suddenly a call came, so she went back to her room to answer the call.

Adrian's eyes stared at the picture on the TV for a moment, and listened carefully to the lines inside.

—Miss, they locked us here, what should we do? If you can't escape, you will marry the second son of the Cooper family!

.....

Tammy took Avery to the mall, first went straight to the clothing store, and bought a Chanel latest dress.

This is a long white dress. The body of the skirt is in the shape of three-dimensional small flowers reflected by various folds. The fringes on the skirt are stacked layer by layer. Wearing this heavy handmade long skirt, it seems that you will be on the show in the next second.

“Aren’t you going to date Elliot tonight? You have to dress up nicely!” Tammy comforted Avery when she saw the embarrassment on Avery’s face.

Avery looked at the skirt on her body, and frowned slightly: “It’s just me who meet with him, there’s no need to dress up like this, right?”

“Why don’t you need to dress up when you meet him?”

“I don’t mean you don’t need to dress up but you don’t need to dress up so grandly, right?” Avery looked at himself in the fitting mirror, “If I really wear this dress to a date, don’t I have to put on makeup and make a style? Or else It doesn’t match this outfit.”

“Yes! You must have makeup and styling, and you have to buy a new pair of shoes!” Tammy took her to the checkout, “Let’s hurry up! There are many more to come. What’s going on !”

“Tammy, don’t you buy new clothes?”

“I’ll buy them later! Let’s dress you up first.” Tammy took over the task today and must dress Avery beautifully to make Elliot’s proposal tonight even more romantic!

Soon, it was afternoon.

After Avery’s makeup was completed, Tammy took a good look at her and sighed with satisfaction.

“I think it’s okay if you are like this now, you can go straight to marriage.” Tammy was amazed by her beauty.

Avery said helplessly, “Tammy, Elliot may not like you when you dress me like this. He said he prefers me without makeup.”

“A man’s mouth is a liar.” Tammy covered her mouth and smiled,
“When Elliot sees you tonight, make sure his eyes glow!”

At this moment, Avery’s cell phone rang. She took out her phone and saw a new message.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1042 | Simple Silence

Chapter 1042

I’m waiting for you at Sinan Mansion, F1, second floor.

It was Elliot who sent her the date tonight.

Avery looked at the text message, and the corners of her mouth couldn’t help rising.

Tammy leaned over and asked deliberately, “Who is it? Oh, Elliot just sent you a message. You are so sweet, you two have already given birth to three children, why are you still with me? Is it the same in love?”

Avery’s cheeks were flushed, and she put the phone in her bag: “What happened to having a baby? Haven’t you ever seen a couple with gray hair who are still in love?”

“Tsk tsk! Although I haven’t seen it in real life. I have seen it in books. It’s about a couple getting old, and their relationship is so good that two people wear a pair of dentures. This is called mutual support.”

Tammy’s words made Avery frown: “It’s very unsanitary.”

“Hahahaha! Are you suffering from an occupational disease? According to what you mean, kissing a man and a woman is unsanitary?”

Avery was speechless.

Mid-range community.

Adrian opened a white medicine bottle and poured out all the pills from it. This was Nathan's antihypertensive drug. Adrian, who brought it secretly.

He looked at the white pill in the palm of his hand and frowned slightly. He wanted to escape from here, but he couldn't.

It was the 12th floor. He couldn't jump off the building and couldn't escape from the door. Gwen was guarding him at home all day long, and even if he broke free of Gwen and ran out, he wouldn't take the elevator.

The new house was clean and beautiful, but he was terrified of it.

If he doesn't want to escape, Avery can't find him. He didn't want to be trapped here. It made him feel hopeless all the time.

To live is not only to breathe, but to live, to have freedom.

He took a deep breath, and without hesitation, put the large amount of pills in his palm into his mouth.

After swallowing all the pills, he immediately lay down on the bed.

If he wants to die, then die! It doesn't make sense for him to be alive anyway. If he didn't die and was sent to the hospital, he could find a way to contact Avery.

In his blank life, only Avery made him feel at ease.

Now Nathan took away his mobile phone, did not let him contact Avery, did not let him go out, and kept laughing at him for being a fool.

If he is really stupid, he can live a little happier.

But now they said he was a fool, and he felt uncomfortable.

Half an hour later, his door was pushed open.

“Adrian! Don’t sleep! I bought a crayfish! Come and help me peel it!”
Gwen strode over to the bed and shouted at Adrian.

Under normal circumstances, Gwen would definitely wake up with such a shout. But Adrian lying on the bed was motionless, and there was no change in expression on his body.

Adrian was peaceful as if he had died.

Gwen didn’t realize that maybe something happened to him. She just thought Adrian was sleeping too deeply, so Gwen immediately started and patted Adrian’s body violently!

“Adrian! You lazy pig! Don’t sleep!”

Adrian still didn’t respond and Gwen’s hand went numb when hse hit him just now.

Only then did Gwen realize that Adrian might be dead. Her hands tremblingly stretched out to Adrian’s nose, probing his breath.

“Ahhh! Dad! Dad! Adrian is dead!”

Gwen ran out of the room like a mad, shouting loudly.

Nathan was awakened from a nap and when he heard that Adrian was dead, his face turned black with fright!

Chapter 1043

How could Adrian die?

The ambulance arrived in the community 10 minutes later!

Adrian was carried onto a stretcher and pushed into the elevator. About a quarter of an hour later, he was taken to a nearby hospital.

Today, on May 1st, the streets were crowded with people. Everyone was enjoying a small holiday with their relatives and friends. No one cares. There is such a 'fool' who seeks freedom in his own way.

Emergency room.

After Adrian was pushed in, the door closed. After two hours of rescue, the doctor pulled Adrian back from the death line.

Just when the doctor was going to inform his family, he stretched out his hand and grabbed the doctor's white coat.

"Doctor..." Adrian said weakly.

"What's wrong? Are you feeling unwell?" the doctor asked, holding his hand.

“Help me find... find Avery... She is my doctor... I want to see her...”
Adrian said this because he was weak. Then, he broke out in a sweat.

“Who are you looking for?” The doctor put his hand to his face.

“Avery Tate...I’m looking for Avery!” Adrian coughed suddenly after saying this.

The doctor put his hand on the hospital bed, “You said Avery! I know her! Do you know her? I will help you to contact her but I may not be able to contact her. You should rest well...”

“If she doesn’t come... I’m going to die...” Adrian stopped coughing, and two lines of clear tears flowed from his eyes.

If Avery didn’t come, even if Adrian could be discharged alive, Nathan would definitely beat him up.

Seeing this, the doctor felt compassion.

“Don’t cry, I’ll go find Dr. Avery for you.”

Tammy finished shopping for clothes and drank coffee with Avery at the coffee shop. After drinking this cup of coffee, they plan to go to their respective men.

It’s already 4:30 p.m. and the day goes by too fast.

“Avery, do you know that the building F1 of Sinan Mansion was designed by Elliot?” Tammy brought the topic to their date tonight.

Avery was startled for a moment, then shook her head: “Elliot didn’t tell me, I don’t know. Tammy, how did you know?”

“Jun told me. I said that the two of you are going on a date at Sinan’s mansion tonight. He said that the building was designed by Elliot.”

“Oh! I didn’t pay attention to it.” Avery rarely hangs out outside. Every time she goes shopping, she is on the side of the commercial street and other areas are not special.

Tammy boasted, “You have passed tonight, so you can take a good look. Elliot’s aesthetics are amazing. Even if Elliot was not the boss of Sterling Group, but an ordinary designer, he would definitely succeed.”

Avery’s cheeks were slightly red and she said, “I’m not used to you praising him like that. I’m used to you hurting him.”

“Hahaha! I didn’t know him well before, so I said a lot of bad things about him.” After Tammy finished speaking, she picked up the phone and glanced at it, “Jun urged me.”

“I’m done. Let’s go!” Avery put down the coffee cup and used the phone to scan the code to check out.

After she settled the bill, a call came her phone.

Caller ID is an unfamiliar number.

After hesitating for a while, she answered the phone. She didn’t know what was said on the phone, but after listening, she just said ‘Okay, I’ll go now’ and hung up.

“Who is it?” Tammy asked.

Avery hesitated for a moment, and said, “Didn’t you say that you should be urged? Then go ahead! I’ll take a taxi to the Sinan mansion. It just so happens that it’s quite close to the Sinan mansion.”

Tammy said, “I I’ll drive you there!”

Avery said, “No, you have been with me for so long today, you should go on a date with Jun!”

After sending Tammy away, Avery immediately stopped a taxi on the street and entered.

After getting in the taxi, she reported the address of the hospital.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1044 | Simple Silence

Chapter 1044

A doctor called her just now and said that a patient named Adrian was looking for her.

The doctor asked her if she could go to the hospital now.

When she heard Adrian’s name, she agreed without thinking.

After the car drove out, she felt uneasy in her heart.

What’s wrong with Adrian? If it is not serious, it will not be taken to the hospital.

Why did the doctor contact her instead of Nathan?

Who instructed the doctor to contact her? Definitely not Nathan. If Nathan wanted to contact her, he didn't need to go through a doctor at all.

Thinking of this, she frowned.

In the hospital.

Adrian was transferred to the general ward.

After Nathan knew that Adrian was poisoned by deliberately swallowing an excessive amount of antihypertensive drugs, he was furious.

This idiot said that he had no brains, and he even knew how to commit suicide by swallowing medicine!

He wanted to die, but Nathan refused to let him die! If he died, how could Nathan threaten Elliot with him? How to get Elliot to corrupt money?

No matter what, Nathan had to ask Elliot for a lot of money.

In this way, even if Elliot doesn't recognize his father, Nathan can guarantee that he will have no worries about food and clothing for the rest of his life.

About 40 minutes later, the ward door was pushed open.

A burly man strode in and drove Nathan out of the ward.

Nathan screamed loudly, "What are you doing?! Who are you? It's my son in the ward! Did you admit the wrong person?!"

The bodyguard looked impatient: “Is the patient’s name Adrian? My boss asked me to protect him!”

“Who is your boss? Adrian is my son!” Nathan said incompetently and furiously.

If Nathan was 20 years old, he would probably fight the bodyguard directly. But he was older and his body was not so tough, and he didn’t dare to confront the bodyguard.

“My boss, Avery!” The bodyguard stood beside the hospital bed and yelled at Nathan, “She is in the doctor’s office now. Go talk to her! If you dare to do anything with my boss, I will kill you tonight.”

Nathan gritted his teeth and rushed towards the doctor’s office with a grim face.

Avery came out of the office after learning about Adrian’s condition from the doctor.

Shee met Nathan, who was looking for trouble.

Seeing him, Avery stopped.

“Nathan, let’s talk!”

Nathan roared angrily, “F*ck! Avery, Are you trying to steal my son directly? Adrian is my son. It’s legal!”

“If he is your biological son, you probably won’t say the word ‘legal’.” Avery grabbed the conversation, “Adrian is not your biological son, but you adopted him?”

The flesh on Nathan's face jumped, "What about the adopted one? That's my son too. If you don't take your bodyguard away, I will call the police!"

Avery was not afraid of his threat at all: "Okay! You call the police now. When the police come, I will call the police. I just wanted to tell them that you abused Adrian!"

Nathan was stunned for a moment: "What abuse? I didn't abuse him! It was he who wanted to kill himself by taking medicine..."

"You didn't abuse him, why did he want to commit suicide by taking medicine? Nathan, you'd better clarify your thinking first, and then quarrel with me." Avery pushed his body away from her, "Adrian is no longer a fool, when he is discharged from the hospital, I will take him for an intelligence test. If he is not a fool in the test, it will be up to him whether he will stay with you or not! I will not let you bully him again!"

Avery's words made Nathan stunned.

Intelligence test?

By his will?

If it is true what Avery said, then Adrian will definitely not stay by his side!

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 1045 | Simple Silence

Chapter 1045

How can this work?

“Avery! Stop.” Nathan strode up to catch up with her and grabbed her arm, “Don’t deceive people too much! The dog will jump over the wall if you are anxious! I know all the secrets of Elliot! If you don’t want me Don’t force me to tear my face off with him! I keep Adrian, I just want to ask Elliot for some money! I don’t want his life! I don’t want Adrian’s life either!”

Avery clenched her fists tightly and coldly said, “You want to ask Elliot for money. But Adrian, I can’t give it to you. What if he goes back to you and continues to commit suicide? I managed to cure him. I can’t let him take such a big risk.”

Her words made Nathan think of killing her.

However, this is a hospital, and many people around are watching this scene, so he can’t do it.

Sinan Mansion.

Elliot had made all the preparations and was waiting for Avery.

Jun sent him a message saying that Tammy and Avery had separated, and Avery should find you soon.

He glanced at the watch, it was 5:30 p.m.

And Jun sent him a message at 5.00 p.m.

It stands to reason that she should have come over after half an hour’s drive.

The marriage proposal is arranged on the open-air balcony on the second floor.

The scene is decorated with flowers of various colors, and when the sky gets dark, there will be a beautiful light show.

In addition, he also invited famous piano masters to perform live. The chef's meal is almost ready.

The sky gradually darkened, but Avery was nowhere to be seen.

Elliot stood by the railing on the second floor, looking at the vehicles coming downstairs, how hoped that Avery would appear downstairs in the next second, looking up and smiling at him.

When the time came to 6 p.m., Elliot didn't wait for a second. He took out his mobile phone and dialed Avery's number.

Avery answered quickly and said, "Elliot, you have to wait a while before I go to find you."

She is now picking up his phone in the ward.

Adrian just woke up and was relatively weak. When he saw her, his emotions were a little intense.

She couldn't go away. She had to wait for Adrian to calm down before going to Elliot.

Elliot frowned slightly: "Why?"

"I..." Avery instinctively wanted to tell him the truth, but she was afraid that she would tell Adrian's whereabouts, which would be detrimental to Adrian, so she was struggling. After a few seconds, he decided to lie, "I want to buy you a gift. I haven't picked it yet."

After hearing her answer, Elliot's eyebrows stretched. "I also prepared a present for you. You can pick it up soon."

Avery listened to his low-mellow and pleasant voice, and felt a little apologetic: "Well. Good. I was coming mall to prepare a gift for you. I'll talk to you later. She hung up the phone immediately."

After hanging up, Avery put the phone back in the bag. She went back to the ward, walked to the bed and sat down.

"Adrian, don't be afraid. I'll let the bodyguards protect you. Nathan doesn't dare to come to you again." Avery looked at Adrian's pale face and assured him again, "I won't let others bully you again. I'll pick you up when you're discharged from the hospital."

Adrian nodded lightly: "Avery, I knew you would come to me."

"I've been looking for you, but I couldn't find it." Avery held his hand said, "You can't do such stupid things again. If you come to the hospital a little later today, you may die."

At 7 p.m.

Sinan Mansion.

Night fell, but Avery still didn't come.

Elliot called her number again –

I'm sorry, the user you dialed has been turned off, please call again later.
