

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2291

Chapter 2291

“Oh... Mom, where did you meet her?” Layla asked curiously.

“I went to G-Temple to pray for blessings today. I saw this Little Lilly in that temple.” Avery said to her daughter, “There were more than 30 girls in that temple! They were all adopted by the temple. Mother next time Would you like to take you to see it?”

Avery wanted her daughter to see the diversity of life.

Let her see how people in different classes live.

“Okay!” Layla agreed without hesitation, “Mom, I’ll go to Lilly and my brother first. I’m afraid my brother will mess up my things.”

“Avery, let’s go to dinner first! I don’t think the children will Hungry.” Elliot took Avery to the dining room.

“I’m not very hungry either. I’m having snacks with Lilly in the afternoon.” Avery accompanies Elliot to the dining room. “I’ll tell Brother Wesley about Lilly’s situation and see if he has any ideas.”

“Tell him if you want to! I can’t help you except to pay for this.” Elliot was very self-aware.

Brook family.

After Wesley received the photo of Lilly sent by Avery, he stared at the picture.

Shea saw that Wesley was fascinated by his mobile phone, so she walked over to him, stared at his mobile phone, and watched with him.

“Wow! It’s so cool!” Shea exclaimed after seeing Lilly’s white hair, “Wesley, this little girl is so cool.”

Wesley pulled Shea and sat beside him: “Shea, this little girl has white hair because she is sick.”

“Ah? Can her disease be cured? She is so beautiful, I really hope she can get better soon.” Shea took Wesley’s mobile phone, Look at the little girl again.

“Her disease can’t be cured. If it can’t be cured, then she can’t bask in the sun. Her eyesight is not as good as normal people.” Wesley explained.

Shea: "It's so pitiful!"

"Well. She was abandoned by her biological parents outside a temple since she was a child. Fortunately, she was adopted by the masters in the temple, so she grew up smoothly. Avery went to the temple today to pick up this little girl down the mountain, planning to treat her."

"Her parents are too cruel! Wesley, can we raise her? I like her very much." Shea suddenly had this idea.

Wesley was stunned for a moment: "This... I have to ask Avery. I think Avery may also want to adopt her."

Shea: "Avery has so many children, isn't it tiring for her to take care of one more child? "

"Let me ask Avery! If you really want to adopt this child, Avery will definitely follow you. It's just that raising a child is not a trivial matter, have you really considered it? And this child is sick, unlike Maria, It's healthy."

"I'm sick too, but am I alive and well? With Mrs. Scarlet taking care of me, it's definitely fine." Shea said firmly.

"Okay, then I'll call Avery and ask." Wesley said, dialing Avery's number.

Avery answered the phone quickly.

After Wesley told her Shea's thoughts, Avery hesitated.

"Brother Wesley, I took Lilly down the mountain to help her find better treatment. If you want to adopt her, you must obtain the consent of Lilly himself and the host of G-Temple. I have no right to do this to her. It's decided." Avery said here, and continued, "I will take her to the hospital tomorrow, you can bring Shea to see her! Lilly has a good personality, as long as she is sincere to her, she is very sensible and obedient."

Wesley: "Okay, then We'll see you at the hospital tomorrow."

The next day.

Bridgedale.

Travis's body was found in a septic tank.

His body was completely decomposed and could not be identified at all.

Travis lived a decent life, and he would never dream of such a miserable death after his death.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2292

Chapter 2292

After Travis's body was found, Emilio was shocked.

When the doctor reported the DNA test to him and confirmed that the body belonged to Travis, his mood gradually calmed down.

In this life-and-death battle between Travis and Norah, whether it was Travis's death or Norah's death, the loser would be miserable.

Because Travis's body was already decomposed and not suitable for further storage, the Jones family's children first sent Travis's body to cremation.

They were busy until it was almost dark before they returned to the Jones's old house with Travis's ashes.

That day, Lawyer Lake had been following them, watching Travis turn from a carrion into a pile of ashes.

Although the body had been cremated, the burial time had to wait for them to discuss.

"Lawyer Lake, publish our father's will first!" Camila Jones looked at Lawyer Lake.

Lawyer Lake naturally turned his attention to Emilio.

"Haha! Lawyer Lake, you don't need to be so obvious, right? Did you tell Emilio the contents of the will long ago?" Camila was angry, "This Jones family, except that Emilio is my father's child, we A few too! Just because we are daughters, don't we deserve to inherit the Jones family's inheritance? If that's the case, why should we give us the surname Jones?!"

"Yes, we are girls, can we choose? We grew up by our father's side. Emilio only returned to Jones's house when he was an adult. Why should the inheritance be given to him instead of us?" The second sister said, "If my father told us early in the morning that the girl didn't deserve to share his property, then he wouldn't let us give birth in the first place! He gave birth to us and didn't give us any property, did he make us suffer in vain?"

The noise was in full swing and Emilio looked at them coldly.

When they said they were tired and stopped, they gestured to Lawyer Lake with their eyes.

“Everyone, calm down. The will was made by Mr. Travis. Before the will was announced, Emilio didn’t know what the contents were. This will, before Mr. Travis’s death, was completely confidential. So if you want to blame, you can only blame to your father. This matter is out of Emilio’s control.” Lawyer Lake spoke for Emilio.

“Haha! you haven’t announced the will yet, and your a-s-s is already sitting on Emilio’s side. You almost said that Emilio is the heir of the Jones family, and we can’t get anything!” Camila roared, “Where’s the Father’s will document! Take it out and show it to us!”

Lawyer Lake blushed: “Miss Jones, the will is in my bag. I’ll take it out for you to see. It has your father’s signature on it. If you don’t believe in this will, I can provide audio and video evidence. I have been in this business for 20 years...”

“Okay, don’t talk about these useless things! Bring out the documents!” Camila hit cut him off.

Lawyer Lake opened the briefcase and took out the documents.

Then a copy was sent to each of Travis’s children.

“I can show you the original. In case you suspect that the copy is fake.” The lawyer handed out the copy and took out the original.

He took the original and showed Travis’s signature and seal.

Camila did not read the original.

A lawyer would definitely not dare to lie about such a thing.

Camila found the property distribution part of the document and looked at it carefully. Soon, she sees clearly, sees clearly!

Sure enough, Norah was right, Travis left nothing for her!

“This will doesn’t count!” Camila threw the document in her hand to the ground with a ‘bang’! “Emilio, don’t be too happy! The Jones family is not yours alone! Before you returned to the Jones family, it was those of us who did our children’s filial piety beside Travis every day!”

“Yeah! Dad just gave me a suite, but it’s still worthless... I’m really going to lose my mind! This is to send beggars!” The second sister was also very dissatisfied when she was assigned a suite.

“Second sister, you still have at least one apartment. Dad only gave me one car! It’s an old car from a few years ago! He might as well give me nothing, as if I took advantage of him!” Camila said and rolled her eyes.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2293

Chapter 2293

Second sister: “Sister, don’t be so angry, Caleb has nothing. Poor! You and Caleb have paid so much for the Jones family, but my father gave you nothing. My father is really too partial! “

I said this will doesn’t count!” Camila’s face turned blue and her teeth clenched, “Emilio, just wait! I can’t let this matter go!”

Camila said, bending over Picked up the copy on the ground, and strode out of the old house.

Other siblings also left.

Seeing that Emilio’s face was not very good, Lawyer Lake immediately patted him on the shoulder and comforted him: “Your father’s will is protected by law, even if they don’t agree, they can only hold it back. Emilio, you’ll be fine next time. Hold your father’s funeral, don’t let outsiders see jokes.”

“Thank you for comforting me. I had expected their reaction would be fierce. Maybe they will join forces and fight with me for the inheritance.” Emilio calmly said, “I have also hired a lawyer who is very good in this field. If I really need to file a lawsuit, I hope to get your help.”

“Of course there is no problem. You can call me at any time if you need it.” Lawyer Lake continued to remind, “Hurry up and contact the other relatives of the Jones family and bring them to your side. This will also help you in the lawsuit at that time.”

Emilio: “Okay. Thank you for reminding me.”

Lawyer Lake: “Remember to notify me.”

Emilio: “Well.”

After Emilio sent Lawyer Lake away, he returned to the living room.

The will had been announced, he had got 99% of Travis’s property, and he could celebrate now.

After all, the will was protected by law, and it was impossible for Camila and the others to change if they refused to accept it.

But Emilio was still vaguely uneasy mainly because of Norah.

If Norah joins other brothers and sisters in a lawsuit against him, then the matter will become more complicated.

Because Norah's ability was recognized by Elliot and Travis.

Emilio was afraid that Norah would be beaten by her with a bad hand like she was chased and killed before.

Although the will seemed to be settled now, he felt that Norah was capable of overturning it.

At this moment, what Avery said suddenly popped into his mind.

Avery said that if Emilio was in need, she would help him.

Thinking of this, Emilio felt a lot more relieved.

Emilio took pictures of the contents of the will and sent it to Avery, as a way of sharing his joy with Avery.

Although he didn't return to the Jones family until he was eighteen years old, he has been in the Jones family for ten years now.

Camila just talked about filial piety, and Emilio has also been filial to Travis for ten years!

It was morning in Aryadelle at that time.

Avery was going to eat breakfast and take Lilly to the hospital. After receiving the message on the phone, she clicked it.

After seeing the picture sent by Emilio, she replied: [Congratulations! You finally got what you wanted, good thing.]

Emilio: [Others are probably going to sue me.]

Avery: [Then file a lawsuit with them. The will was made by Travis, not by you. Find a good lawyer and let the lawyer deal with it. Can you stop your dad's new project?]

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2294

Chapter 2294

Emilio: [When I finish my dad's funeral, I will go to work. Norah has yet to show up or contact me.]

Avery: [Leave her alone. Wait for her to act, and you will think about countermeasures. She might be thinking of a way too.]

Emilio: [She probably killed Travis. I stabbed her a bit. Originally I asked her to join forces, but she ignored me.]

Avery: [She just has no bottom line in being a human being, and is no different from those heinous criminals. This kind of person is scary, but the evil is beyond good, you just need to be careful, don't be afraid of her.]

Emilio: [When will you come back to Bridgedale?]

Avery: [I don't plan to go there for the time being. I'll let you know when I'm ready to go.]

Emilio: [Good.]

After sending the message to Emilio, Avery was a little worried.

Emilio grew up with his mother. Children who grow up in a single-parent home environment will be more sensitive and insecure.

When Emilio sent her a message, he must be more afraid of Norah, otherwise he would not show his cowardice.

Thought about it for a while, Avery sent a message to Mike: [Mike, when you have time, go see Emilio! He got almost all of Travis's property. Norah estimated that she would unite with the rest of the Jones family to deal with him. Emilio helped me before and I don't want to see him alone now.]

Mike: [All right! During Travis's funeral, I went to see it. Did you see the picture of Travis's body? Super disgusting!]

Avery put down the milk cup in her hand, and had already lost her appetite: [I didn't see it. Don't send me pictures! I'm having breakfast!]

Mike: [If I wanted to send it to you, I would have sent it to you already. I'm really afraid that it will make you sick and make you have nightmares at night.]

Avery: [Is it that exaggerated? It's not like I haven't seen a corpse.]

Mike: [He was thrown into the septic tank by Norah. Think about it, soaking in a septic tank for a few days, even if the temperature is not so high, is very scary.]

Avery: [Stop talking...]

Mike: [I heard that you brought a little girl home. Is it right?]

Avery: [Who did you listen to, the news is so well-informed. Is it easy? I didn't tell Chad!]

Mike: [I don't know how Chad knew it, but Chad told me anyway. You said that when Chad's job was transferred to Bridgedale, will your husband let him go?]

Avery: [I... let me ask! Chad is different from ordinary employees to him.]

Mike: [I just knew it was different, so I was worried that he wouldn't let people go. You know Chad, he will never reject Elliot. Avery, you have to help me!]

Avery: [Don't worry. I took the time to chat with him. I have other business today.]

Mike: [Don't you ask him just one sentence? You ask directly!]

Avery: [Oh.]

Her gaze shifted from the screen of the mobile phone to Elliot's face: "If Chad wants to be transferred to work in Bridgedale, would you agree?"

Elliot thought for a while, and replied cautiously, "If he submits an application to me, I will naturally agree."

Avery got the answer, and immediately replied to Mike: [He said that if Chad submitted an application to him, he would agree.]

Mike: [OK.]

G-Temple.

The mother-in-law took Siena to stand outside the meditation room where the masters were doing morning exercises.

Siena was carrying her small schoolbag, with tears in her eyes.

The mother-in-law was going to take her down the mountain. She couldn't live there anymore.

Siena asked her mother-in-law why she was leaving, and her mother-in-law said there were bad people there. Bad guys might take her.

Siena didn't want to leave, but she was also afraid of being captured by the bad guys.

The mother-in-law said that if the bad guys caught Siena, and they might kill Siena.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2295

Chapter 2295

Siena was so frightened that she could only leave there with her mother-in-law.

After the masters finished the morning exercise, the mother-in-law brought Siena into the meditation room.

"Where are you going next?" The host asked.

"I have relatives who can go to defect. When I brought Siena up the mountain, it was also because Siena was weak and sickly. The air on the mountain was good. After living in Siena for more than a year, my body has really improved a lot. I hope the host and the masters will not put Siena on the mountain and not tell anyone about our whereabouts." Mother-in-law brought Siena here, not free food and lodging.

The mother-in-law helped with cooking and cleaning on the mountain, and the nuns in the monastery respected her very much.

When the mother-in-law said goodbye to the host, Siena looked around.

Her eyes were bright and divine, and she exuded a charming aura.

"Mother-in-law, I want to pee." Siena raised her head, said this to her mother-in-law, and ran away immediately.

The mother-in-law didn't think much, and continued to say goodbye to the host.

"After Lilly went down the mountain, Siena was very sad. I was also afraid that Siena would continue to stay here and feel sad. Moreover, Siena has reached the age to go to school. I took her down the mountain and wanted her to go to school and wanted to live like a normal child." said the mother-in-law.

The host has a kind face and said: "Siena is a smart and well-behaved child. As long as she is well educated and guided, she will have a bright future in the future."

The mother-in-law: "Thank you for your praise. If Siena achieves something in the future, I will definitely tell her to come up the mountain to visit you."

The host: "Even if she doesn't succeed in the future, she is welcome to go up the mountain at any time. This place will always be her home."

After a while, Siena ran back from the toilet.

The mother-in-law asked her to hug and say goodbye to the masters.

After Siena hugged and said goodbye to the masters one by one, she was led down the mountain by her mother-in-law.

At the foot of the mountain, a Buick commercial vehicle parked there quietly.

After the mother-in-law and Siena went down the mountain, the people who came to pick up the Buick got off immediately.

After the mother-in-law took Siena to the car, Siena looked at the scenery outside the car window, holding back the tears in her eyes: "Mother-in-law, where are we going?"

"Let's go to Miss first. When we find Miss, we will see how she arranges. Let's go!" After the mother-in-law finished speaking, the driver started the car.

Soon, the scenery on the mountain disappeared before her eyes.

Siena looked at the rear windshield, two strings of hot tears streaming from the corners of her eyes.

She had a hunch that once she left, she might never come back.

She didn't know who the young lady was, and she didn't care.

As long as her mother-in-law was there, her mother-in-law would definitely take care of her.

It's just that she was really reluctant to part with temples and friends on the mountain.

Even if the relationship with other children was not so good, but after all, those people got along day and night, and they were more familiar.

Down the mountain, Siena still didn't know what to do.

By going to the toilet just now, she found another master and asked for Avery's contact information.

With Avery's contact information, she could contact Lilly through Avery in the future.

She was worried that Lilly didn't know that she had left the temple.

If Lilly couldn't see Siena in the mountains in the future, she would definitely be very sad.

Siena wanted to be friends with Lilly for a lifetime.

"Siena, don't cry." The mother-in-law said. She was very distressed when she saw Siena crying silently, "You are different from other children. You are destined to bear a lot of things that you shouldn't bear."

"Mother-in-law, I don't understand. What you're talking about is too profound." Siena sniffed and wiped away the tears on her face, "Even if I'm different from other children, so what? Lilly is also the same as Unlike other children, I played with Lilly and had a lot of fun."

"Someone wants to kill you. If you want to live, you have to be obedient. And Lilly is not like you. No one wants to kill Lilly." Mother-in-law said, "My poor Siena...I just want you to grow up healthy."

"Mother-in-law, who is going to kill me?" Siena asked. Her eyes flashed with timidity, and her body became cold.
