

When His Eyes Opened

Chapter 2451

Chapter 2451

Tammy couldn't help laughing: "Your baby is still just a small embryo, it is not enough. What about the last life! Strictly speaking, your baby is now just an embryonic tissue."

Ben was stunned. He had no idea about this.

Gwen had a child once before, but Ben had no relationship with Gwen at the time, and Gwen quickly aborted the child, so Ben did not check the information about pregnancy and childbirth.

"I mean, Gwen wants to have a child now, so she will definitely be very careful. As long as Gwen pays attention and takes her medicine on time, the child will be fine." Ben reiterated his attitude. In order to find comfort, he looked at Avery, "Avery, do you think so!"

"Well, the mental state of the mother is indeed very important. I believe that the little baby will grow up healthy and give birth smoothly in Gwen's belly." Avery's words are like a booster, to make everyone feel at ease.

The other side.

Hayes returned to Gloria's rental house after working for a while.

Taking the key to open the door, he saw that the ground was strewn with rose petals, the lights in the room were not turned on, and two red candles were lit on the table.

Gloria, wearing a red suspender nightdress, walked in front of him.

"Hayes, have you eaten? I sent you a message, but why didn't you reply?" Gloria took Hayes's arm and walked to the table to sit down.

There were several delicious dishes on the table, which were full of color and flavor.

Hayes glanced at the food on the table, then looked up at Gloria.

Hayes: "Gloria, what's wrong with you tonight?"

"Thinking of how hard you were last night, I'll make up for it today." Gloria said shyly.

Hayes: "Hahahaha!" Hayes didn't expect that he would conquer Gloria after fighting all night last night,

"Gloria, you are so beautiful tonight. I'll take good care of you later."

"Well... I don't know which brand of wine you like to drink, and you didn't reply to the message, so I bought two different brands of wine.” Gloria said, picked up a bottle of wine, opened the lid with a corkscrew.

“I only saw your message when I was about to come back. Today Chad came to the company to talk to me, which caused a lot of work to pile up.” Hayes handed the glass to her, “I can drink anything. Gloria, I didn’t expect you to give me such a surprise. In fact, I’m really not bad. When I do this job well, I can stay by Elliot’s side, and he will definitely not treat me badly.”

“You like this job so much. I believe Elliot will definitely see it in his eyes and will definitely reuse you.” After Gloria poured him a glass of red wine, she poured another for herself.

“I still want to be with you. Even if we don’t get married, it’s not bad for us to live like this for the rest of our lives.” Hayes narrowed his fox eyes and said with a smile, “I never get tired of seeing you. You are not only beautiful, but also have a good temperament. It’s also very good. Your temperament is not inferior to Avery at all. It is even more elegant than Avery.”

Gloria raised her glass and clinked with Hayes.

“Hayes, I also figured it out today. Some people need to know more about him in order to know how good he is. For example, you.” After Gloria finished speaking, she took a sip from her glass.
