Chapter 2588

Aryadelle.

Layla has been busy since the primary selection for marriage.

When she was tired from work every day, and during her lunch break, she would randomly find a man in the mailbox to chat with him via video call.

When talking about the first two, she was still a little uncomfortable. After talking about the first two, she was obviously more at ease and relaxed.

Wasn't it very popular to randomly match netizens' videos on the Internet now? As long as she treated this matter as a similar small game, she would naturally relax.

In the evening, Layla said to Avery.

“Mom, do you know how outrageous the man I talked to at noon today?” Layla laughed when she said this, “I suspect he came after my brother. Because I'm almost done talking with him at that time, he even told me that if I think he is not suitable, I hope to be friends with my brother.”

Avery: “Your brother is indeed better. Your brother did not rely on his family, but he achieved his current achievements entirely on his own. Some people admire him.”

Layla couldn't help laughing: “My brother is so powerful, there should be many women who like him. I really don't know what he thinks, since his career is already stable, why doesn't he fall in love?”

Avery: “Layla, everyone thinks differently. Some people like to be in a relationship, while others like to be alone.”

Elliot interjected, “Before I met your mother, I had never been in a relationship.”

Layla: “Then my brother may be like you! You have already been so successful, but you still have to work so hard every day.”

Elliot: “If you don't advance, you will retreat.”

Layla: “Dad, when will you retire? After retirement, take my mother to travel around the world! My mother has worked hard for most of her life, and she should enjoy her happiness.”

Avery blushed: “Layla, your father likes to go to work, so let him do it. If he doesn't go to work, he feels empty inside.”

After so many years of ups and downs with Elliot, her feelings for Elliot have already grown.

Avery added, "The main reason is that I don't like traveling around too much."

If Avery liked to travel, Elliot would definitely take her out often.

"Mom, you stay at home every day, aren't you bored?" Layla asked.

Elliot only worked half a day a day, going to the company either in the morning or in the afternoon, and his working hours were limited to four hours a day. So he spent a lot of time with Avery.

"It's not boring!" Avery actually just retired not long ago.

After Layla graduated, Avery handed over the company to Layla, and then she retired.

In addition to growing flowers and vegetables, she read books and did exercises, and her time passed very quickly every day.

"Your mother, like me, likes to be clean." Elliot explained to Layla.

"Oh... then, didn't you two get quarreled to death by your children?" Layla wondered, "Why do I prefer to be lively?"

"Your mother was very lively when she was young." Elliot said again, "Lively and patient."

“Hahaha! No wonder you are so fascinated by my mother.” Layla smiled and remembered something, “I talked to that Prince of Carinovelle. He said he would come to Aryadelle. I agreed.”

Avery was a little surprised and asked: “Do you like him?”

Layla blushed slightly: “He is handsome and polite. He said he was on vacation recently and was worried. He doesn’t know where to go, so I invite him to travel to Aryadelle.”

Elliot: “Layla, you have to make it clear to him that if the two of you are together, he must give up his useless prince status and settle in Aryadelle.”
