

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2644

Chapter 2644

The next day, Layla took Hazel to continue choosing dresses.

After picking a few, Hazel still preferred the one she had tried last night.

So Layla and Hazel went to order the three skirts.

Layla knew her mother's size, so she didn't need to ask her.

"Can you change it today?" Layla said to the Owner, "We will wear it tomorrow."

"I will work overtime today and help you change the size." The Owner promised, "Miss Tate, you are our regular customer, We will do our best to meet any needs."

"Okay, I'll pay now!" Layla took out the card from her bag.

Hazel also took out the card from her bag: "Sister, why don't you swipe my card? I haven't swiped the card yet! I don't know how much money is in it."

Layla laughed loudly: "You are my father's deputy. There is no limit on the card. If you go outside to swipe a house, you can swipe it off."

Hazel: "..."

Layla: "Since you want to try the feeling of spending money, then swipe your card!"

Hazel: "Will Dad know about the money I spend here?"

Layla: "Haha! Are you afraid that he will tell you? Don't worry, Dad never cares about our money. Robert also uses Dad's Secondary card, he especially likes to buy cars, and also likes to buy some digital products, all of which are very expensive, and my father never says anything."

After hearing what his sister said, Hazel immediately handed the card to the store Owner.

After the store Owner swiped the card, Hazel entered the password, and soon, the payment was successful.

"Sister, doesn't the card you use belong to Dad?" Hazel put the card back into her bag and asked.

Layla: "I used to use my mother's secondary card. Because I made some money when I was a child, I put it with my mother. But after I turned 18, I used my own card. My mother pays for my card every month. Transfer a sum of money and I will spend it myself. If you don't want to be watched, you can also open the card yourself."

Hazel shook her head: "I can open the card by myself after I make money!"

She didn't have the ability to make money now, so she didn't want to make any demands. Her Dad didn't care about their money, as Layla said.

Layla: "It's okay. But you really don't have to think too much. Our parents can be said to be the best parents in the world. Their requirements for us are actually very simple, that is, to be healthy and happy. Believe it or not Spend more money, dad is actually happier. The money our dad earns, with your ability, you can't spend it all."

Hazel: "Mom said so."

"Hahaha! The most important thing in our family is Money. You can buy whatever you want in the future without thinking too much about it. Just be happy." Layla took Hazel to see the house.

Hazel: "Sister, I still can't stand this kind of consumption habit. I couldn't even eat fruit before."

Layla: "Little sister, I know you have suffered before, but I didn't expect it to be like this. So it will cost more money. Spend back what you owed in the past 18 years. How about you buy a suite too?"

Hazel shook her head fiercely: "Sister, I don't want to buy it. I don't want to be alone. After a while, when I go to college, I still don't know whether to continue to live at home."

Hazel liked Foster villa very much, whether it was the family members or the atmosphere of the home; she especially liked it.

"Have you chosen a good university? If you choose one close to home, you can go home and live every day!"

"I chose N University."

"N University...that's a bit far from our home." Layla thought about the distance from home to N University, "But if you want to live at home, you can just ask the driver to pick you up every day. Many people live very far away. It takes two or three hours to commute every day!"

Hazel: "Mom wants me to live at home. I will live at home first! If I feel too tired then, I can rent a house near the school."

Rilla: "Yes."

The two started to look at the house. After looking at several houses, Layla chose a well-decorated one that could be unpacked and moved into.

In fact, the houses they looked at were all well-decorated, and they could all be rented out. This house was finally settled because the Tate Industries Building could be seen from the balcony.

"Sister, you have really deep feelings for the company." Hazel sighed.
