I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1147

Chapter 1147 When everyone was talking, the head of the family, Derry, spoke.

“Someone go and get me a captive from the prison. We’ll see if Lucifer’s Black Demon palm is working or not.”

Clearly, Derry also realized the seriousness of this, so he needed to test it out on someone.

If Lucifer’s Black Demon Palm were fine, they would have to tell the grandmasters about this.

“Yes, Lord Derry.”

Immediately, someone stood up and answered before leaving the hall.

“Lucifer, if you’re telling the truth, not only will the family forgive you for your mistake, you will even be rewarded,” Derry looked at Lucifer and said in gratification.

Derry was not angry like earlier; he was like a whole other person.

Derry looked gratified, and the other core family elders looked pleased as they looked at Derry.

‘This kid is the family’s lucky star indeed.

CD

The grandmaster, who had been stuck in his realm for many years, suddenly had a breakthrough when Lucifer was born.

Now that he was let out, he immediately noticed their enemy’s huge secret.

‘The Elrod family found a flaw in Black Demon Palm?’

This was useless to the other families, but the value of this information was immeasurable for the Grim family.

In addition, the possibility of Lucifer’s Black Demon Palm not working was too miniscule.

After all, the grandmaster had examined it himself.

“Thank you, Grandpa! It’s my honor to be able to contribute to the family. However, I feel terrible for humiliating the family right after I was let out,” Lucifer said lowly and apologetically.

Even though he was saying that, he was overjoyed on the inside.

He finally dodged this bullet.

Not only did he dodge this bullet, he even gained more recognition from his family, further solidifying his position as the family’s lucky star.

In the future, he would have more rights to speak in the family.

“Master Lucifer, please don’t say that. You’re the family’s lucky star. If it weren’t for you, we wouldn’t know about the Elrod family knowing the flaw of Black Demon Palm. We would suffer greatly if we ever engage in a battle in the future.”

“Yeah! Master Lucifer is our lucky star. When you were born, Grandmaster had a breakthrough, and now, you helped us dodge a bullet.”

“I’m wondering how your injuries are, Master Lucifer. I have some treasures of heaven and earth that are good for treating serious injuries. I bought them with a lot of money, and I hope you can take them.”

“I have a pellet here too. It’s effective for healing the body. Please accept this.”

The core elders were concerned about Lucifer’s injuries and were all giving him any treasures that could heal his injuries.

They knew Lucifer’s position in the family was unshakable now.

In the future, the family would be handed to Lucifer.

Therefore, it would be useful for their future if they wormed their way into a relationship with Lucifer right now.

Derry looked at this scene with a smile on his face.

Lucifer was his biological grandson.

Hence, he loved to see this scene.

“Thank you for your concern, Elders. Since you’re all so passionate, it would be impolite for me to refuse,” Lucifer replied with a grin.

Then, he accepted the treasures the elders gave him.

Those things were precious, so it would be a waste not to take them.

“You’re too humble, Master Lucifer. You got hurt for the sake of the family, so as your elders, this is what we should do.” “Yeah. Master Lucifer, you did so much for the family, so this is nothing.”

After exchanging some pleasantries, everyone went back to their seats.

Lucifer was also asked to sit at one side to wait for the prisoner.

“Lucifer, how are your injuries?” Derry asked. “Grandpa, I was just exhausted. I’m fine now,” Lucifer answered.

Chapter 1148

“Can you use Black Demon Palm now?”

“Of course!”

“Great!”

Soon, two of the Grim family’s guards escorted a disheveled prisoner into the hall.

“Kneel!”

The guard kicked the back of the prisoner’s knees, causing the prisoner to kneel on the ground.

Then, the two guards knelt on the ground and said respectfully, “Greetings, Lord Derry. Greetings, Elders.”

“You may rise. We don’t need you here anymore, so you’re dismissed,” Derry said.

“Yes, Lord Derry.”

The guards left the hall after saying that.

At this moment, Lucifer knew it was his time to shine. He stood up and walked behind the prisoner.

When the prisoner saw someone walking toward him, he struggled with all his might. However, his mouth was taped over, and he could not speak.

Lucifer pressed down on the prisoner with his left hand and used his right hand to use Black Demon Palm. Black smoke was circling his right hand at this moment.

Then, he pressed his right palm on the prisoner's back.

Everyone on the scene watched the prisoner.

When the Black Demon Poison made contact with the prisoner, it penetrated his body.

13

The prisoner felt intense pain overwhelming him. He widened his eyes, and they were bloodshot. Since his mouth was taped over, he could only make grunting noises from his throat.

The prisoner fell on the ground head-first and died more than ten seconds later.

He could not resist Lucifer's Black Demon Palm with his current strength at all.

Derry got up and walked to the prisoner. Then, he flipped the prisoner over with his foot.

Black poison was traveling under the prisoner's exposed skin, including in his face and hands.

Black Demon Poison!

This meant Lucifer's Black Demon Palm was fine.

Then, there was only the second possibility.

The Elrod family did indeed find a flaw in Black Demon Palm, and they could easily resist Black Demon Poison.

They had to tell the grandmasters immediately.

Derry lifted his head to look at the core elders of the family.

“Lucifer’s Black Demon Palm is fine, meaning the Elrod family found the flaw in Black Demon Palm. This means we have lost an important combat skill against the Elrod family.”

Every core elder of the family showed an understanding expression.

“Lord Derry, what should we do now? The Elrod family must also know that their secret has been exposed. They might even attack us soon. If not, they won’t be a threat to us when we finally find a way to combat this.”

“I think it’s possible too! Right now, we should immediately tell the grandmaster about this so we can be prepared when the Elrod family attacks us.”

“I agree!”

“I agree!”

The rest of the core elders expressed their opinions.

“Lucifer, you should go see the grandmasters with me right now. The rest of you should go back to your positions and get ready. At the same time, get the spies to keep an eye on the Elrod family. Immediately report to us if they do anything,” Derry said.

“Yes, Lord Derry!”

“Yes, Grandpa!”

Derry then brought Lucifer to see the grandmasters.

The rest of the core elders nervously prepared themselves.

They did not know that the Elrod family would not come. Instead, they would welcome someone on the same level as the emperor.

David’s Octagon was getting closer and closer to Planet Grim.

Soon, this person equivalent to the emperor would descend on Planet Grim.

It would depend on David’s mood if he wiped out the Grim family or spared them.

Chapter 1149 An Octagon approached Planet Grim. David spread his mind power and scanned the entire Planet Grim.

Immediately, he sensed four intense energies.

One mid-Infinity Ranker, and three beginner Infinity Rankers.

As expected of the fourth-ranked family among the eight prominent families, they were much stronger than the Tuffin family.

However, they were just so-so to David.

Even a large colony of ants could never best an elephant.

After confirming the location of the Grim family's grandmasters, David commanded the Octagon to get ready to descend.

After the four grandmasters learned about the Elrod family finding a flaw in Black Demon Palm and that they might attack at any time, they decided to all come out of seclusion to wait for the Elrod family.

At the same time, they were also discussing countermeasures.

Lucifer should have been a sinner to the Grim family after losing to Callan.

In the end, he discovered a shocking secret and immediately transformed into the Grim family's lucky star again.

Besides, Grandmaster Grim had a breakthrough when he was born.

Therefore, Lucifer's position in the family was even more unshakable.

Even the Grandmaster Grim praised him, calling him the family's lucky star and the hope for the development of the family.

Lucifer never expected things would develop in this direction as well.

This was such a shock to him.

He thought he would not escape calamity and he would surely receive the most severe punishment from his family. Now, he was viewed as the family's savior.

Lucifer was very pleased with himself right now.

He was starting to lose himself in the countless praises.

At this moment, he thought he was the chosen one who God sent to lead the Grim family to glory. He was glowing right now.

Lucifer placed his hands behind his back and walked with his head high in the Grim Manor.

“Hello, Master Lucifer!”

“Hello, Master Lucifer!”

Everyone who saw him on the way would stop and greet him politely, be it a servant, direct descendant, or an elder.

This whole time, Lucifer would only nod and grunt his reply.

He would only exchange pleasantries with some elders who held very high statuses.

Even if the grandmasters acknowledged him and he was sure to become the next head of the family, he could not be too arrogant.

Especially to the elders of the family.

Without their support, or if they worked together to oppose him, Lucifer would not have a day of peace, even if he was the head of the family.

Lucifer knew this in his heart.

Right now, he was enjoying this feeling.

Back then, even if Lucifer was the eldest son and the first heir, a lot of the direct descendants were unconvinced.

They even wanted to fight for the first heir position with him.

However, no one had such thoughts anymore.

Even if they did, they would hide these thoughts inside.

From now on, Lucifer was the head of the family's younger generation.

When he was strong enough, he would take over the Grim family.

However, Lucifer still had a sore spot in his heart: David and Mia.

He had to find those two after he settled this kerfuffle.

David had to die since he dared to touch Mia.

After he killed David, Lucifer would forcefully dominate Mia. "Master Lucifer, the grandmasters are asking for you."

Chapter 1150 A voice interrupted Lucifer as he was deep in thought.

"I got it," Lucifer answered.

Then, he turned around and followed the person to see the grandmasters.

Soon, they came to Grandmaster Grim's study.

Knock knock knock!

Lucifer knocked on the door and said, "Grandmasters, I am here!"

A voice said from inside, "Come in."

Lucifer pushed the door open and went in.

There were five people in the room.

Four grandmasters, all infinity rankers, and the head Derry were inside.

Those five were the ones with the highest status in the family.

"Lucifer is here to greet you all, Grandmasters. Greetings, Grandpa," Lucifer said respectfully.

"Lucifer is here. Come and sit," an old man with white hair said gently.

That person was the strongest grandmaster in the Grim family. He was Marino Grim, a mid-Infinity Ranker.

He managed to improve to mid-Infinity Rank when Lucifer was born.

Therefore, Marino was very fond of Lucifer.

He felt that Lucifer was his and the family's lucky star. If not, how would he have inexplicably broken through the realm he was stuck in for centuries and was starting to feel hopeless when Lucifer was born?

"Thank you, Grandmaster!" Lucifer answered.

Then, he found an empty seat to sit in. "May I know why you summoned me?"

"Lucifer, I need to discuss something with you this time," Marino said.

"Please, go ahead."

"Our family will have a marital partnership with the Callisto family. What do you think about this?" Marino asked.

"This is good! Grandmaster, if we can have a marital partnership with them, it will be like two giants working together. Aside from the Drake family, we have long surpassed the other families. We can't miss such a good chance," Lucifer answered happily.

He was troubled because he could not find that punk Callan.

Callan dared to step on his face in front of so many people. Lucifer would not give up if he did not seek revenge.

However, the two families were almost the same in strength.

In addition, the Elrod family knew the flaw in Black Demon Palm, so it might not be possible for Lucifer to seek revenge for the time being.

Even so, things would be different if the Grim family could have a marriage connection with the Callisto family.

If the second-ranked and fourth-ranked families among the eight prominent families worked together, without exaggerating, aside from the first-ranked Drake family, the other families would be nothing. If that happened, Lucifer would find a chance to kill that punk Callan secretly.

So what if the Elrod family found out? They would not dare to come to seek revenge, and they would only suffer this grievance in silence.

Lucifer felt great as he thought about this.

After the two families worked together, he would wait for his turn to take over the Grim family. Then, his family would definitely go up another level.

“Indeed! However, the Callisto family is second to the Drake family among the eight families. If we propose marriage with them, we must send someone with a higher status.”

“Grandmaster, are you asking me to have a marriage connection with the Callisto family?” Lucifer asked with a frown.

“Yes. After all, you’re the future head of the family. The Callisto family will only consider the marriage because of your status. They will surely not consider the others.”

“Then who am I marrying?”

“We are not sure yet. I have to go and discuss this with Grandmaster Callisto. However, don’t worry. Since we are sending the future head of the family, they will not randomly send someone to deceive us. You can go and check out the unmarried Callisto women. Tell me who you fancy, and then I’ll go and ask for her hand for you,” Marino said.

“Alright, Grandmaster. Since you said that, I’ll accept for the sake of the family’s future development. However, I need to pick the woman myself,” Lucifer agreed after he thought about it.

If he refused, the grandmaster might not force him. Otherwise, they would not ask him to join in the discussion.

However, if he refused, he did not know when he would ever have the chance to seek revenge against Callan.

Lucifer was impetuous.

He did not believe in the saying ‘one should bide one’s time and wait for the right opportunity to seek revenge’.

He could not wait that long and would not miss out on any chance.

Besides, having a marital partnership with the Callisto family was good.

The Callisto family was huge and had many virtuous and gorgeous women.

He should just choose one with high status.

The grandmaster said he could choose a woman for himself anyway.

“No problem!” Marino guffawed and said.
