

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 661

"The King family doesn't live up to its name as the first family at all, it's just so-so. Hahaha..." Arthur's loud laughter could be heard from above.

"Really? Then let's try again," Augustus' calm voice also followed.

Boom boom boom boom boom!

Countless thunder-like voices came down one after another.

Countless people yearned for this.

Was this the strength of a God Rank guardian?

It was so terrifying.

Even the masters who were halfway to the God Rank on the high platform showed envy on their faces.

Although they could also float, it was only for a short time.

They could not carry out such a fierce battle in the air like a God Rank guardian.

These two people might not be as simple as God Rank guardians at the beginner stage.

They were at least at the peak of the beginner stage of God Rank.

Although everyone could not see the situation of the battle in the sky clearly, they still stared up into the sky

Raymond and Selena were a little concerned.

The strength of the Dominic family was nothing to scoff at.

Even if they were not as good as the King family, the between the two difference was not negligible.

Moreover, the strange hidden weapons of the Dominic family were often representative of challenges that bypassed ranks.

When fighting against the people from the Dominic family, one had to be careful not to give the opponent a chance, otherwise, the outcome might be reversed.

Raymond and Selena did not know if their uncle or father could resist the attack of Arthur's strange hidden weapon.

'Father will definitely be able to defeat the people from the Dominic family!' Selena wore a veil in front of her face. She put her hands together, placed them on her chest, and prayed silently in her heart.

Meanwhile, she was surrounded by four maids of the King family. As the proud daughter of the King family and also the first family, no strange men were allowed to touch her.

Many people around Selena felt that if this woman took off her veil, her beauty must be comparable to Lorraine's.

While the others could not see the battle in the sky clearly, David could

Augustus clearly had the upper hand, but he was still careful not to give Arthur any chances.

He might be afraid of the Dominic family's strange unique hidden weapon.

If he was hit with Arthur's unique hidden weapon, it might have lasting effects even if he was at the peak of the beginner stage of God Rank

David was paying close attention to this.

As soon as Augustus was in danger, he would immediately kill Arthur.

After all, Augustus fought Arthur to save him.

He did not know that Augustus saved him to make him the son-in-law of the King family.

He just felt that the King family should represented the protagonist, while the Dominic family represented the antagonist.

Augustus did not want to see David get killed by the antagonist, so that was why he saved David.

Otherwise, he would definitely not want to owe the King family this favor even if he had to expose more of his strength and destroy Arthur.

For someone like him, the debt of favor was sometimes the most difficult to repay.

Furthermore, Augustus' opponent was the guardian of the Dominic family.

Augustus was risking serious injury or even death to save him.

If Augustus was seriously wounded or killed, the debt of gratitude would be huge.

David would never allow such a thing to happen.

Therefore, he was also watching the battle in the sky attentively at this moment so he could take action at any time.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 662

Boom boom boom boom!

The loud noises in the sky came one after another.

The battle was drawing to a close.

David's body was also constantly tense.

Arthur was still at a disadvantage now.

However, one could not slack off even the slightest when they were fighting against the people of the Dominic family.

No one knew if Arthur would use his hidden weapon at the last moment.

While David was concentrating on the fight, he suddenly felt a tap on his shoulder.

David turned his head and saw a familiar face in front of him.

'Elsa?

'Why is she here?

'Sure enough, she was someone from the Dominic family.'

"Mr. Lidell, long time no see!" Elsa greeted David.

"Miss Winters! Hello!" David responded.

"Do you have time? I want to have a chat with you."

"Let's chat later. I'm not free right now," David said after a while.

"Alright, I'll call you after the grand event of the chosen ones."

"Sure."

The moment David finished saying the last word, there was a loud bang in the sky.

Boom!

It was much louder than earlier.

Then came Arthur's loud guffaw.

"Hahaha... The number one King family in Somerland is just so-so. Augustus, enjoy the gift I have prepared for you! We will meet again, all the members of the Dominic family, leave with me."

"Oh no!"

David felt his heart skip a beat and he quickly looked up at the sky.

Arthur had already left.

Meanwhile, Augustus was holding his chest and he was descending slowly with an off-colored look on his face.

'He's too careless!

The Dominic family's hidden weapon was prominent throughout the world, and it was something that would make people feel scared at the mere mention of it. Hence, it was indeed very hard to guard against Augustus was already very careful, but in the end, he still fell into Arthur's trap.

However, Arthur also took Augustus' last strike and was badly injured too.

If not, he would not have left just as Augustus was hit by his hidden weapon which was laced with deadly poison.

This was a battle where both sides lost.

David's expression also looked unpleasant at this moment.

'Damn it, I missed out on the last critical moment.'

If he was not disturbed by Elsa just now and rushed over immediately once he noticed something was off, he would definitely be able to kill Arthur at once so that the latter would not be able to use his hidden weapon.

"Great, I owe the King family a huge favor now.

'Whatever.'

David did not want to split hairs over this.

Then, he quickly ran over to see how Augustus was doing.

At this moment, the rest of the Dominic family also left quickly. No one dared to stop them on their way out.

The Dominic family was very vengeful. In addition to their strange hidden weapons, they were everyone's nightmare, and no one dared to provoke them.

"Father!"

"Uncle Augustus!"

Selena and Ramond quickly ran over as well. "I'm fine. It's just a minor injury," Augustus comforted.

"Cough cough cough!"

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 663

However, just after he finished speaking, he covered his mouth with one hand and began to cough violently.

Then, there was blood on his hands.

"Father! A-Are you okay?" Selena almost cried when she saw that Augustus was coughing up blood.

"Uncle Augustus!" Raymond also cried nervously.

"The Dominic family's hidden weapon is really strange, and it's hard to guard against it. But don't worry too much, I can still bear it! Plus, Arthur suffered a strike from me, so he won't be in much better condition than me. We're both losers."

"Aug-... Mr. Augustus. I'll help you detoxify!" David stood up and said at this time.

With his current strength and status, he originally wanted Augustus to call him directly by name, but he felt it was inappropriate.

'I'll just call him Mr. Augustus then.

'After all, he saved me even though I didn't need it.'

“What’s your name, my friend? Which family are you from?” Augustus asked David while looking at him up and down.

The more Augustus looked at David, the more he liked him.

David had good looks, a good temperament, strong strength, and also magical medical skills.

Hence, Augustus could not find any other adjective to describe David except perfect.

Raymond was already the most outstanding talent in the King family, but compared to David, he paled in comparison

David and Selena were an ideal couple, and they looked perfect together.

“Mr. Augustus, my name is David. I don’t belong to any family, but thank you for helping me just now,” David replied.

“David, don’t be so humble. I couldn’t stand the Dominic family’s behavior for a long time. Are you sure you can get rid of the poison in me?”

“Yes!”

“Well then, thanks for the trouble.”

“Mr. Augustus is too courteous. Please come with me.” David took Augustus and his party away to detoxify.

After watching them leave, Taylor, the third elder of the Krums, stood up and said, “The grand event of the chosen ones in Somerland continues! Next...”

David also used some silver needles to stab some of Augustus’ essential acupoints.

Then, he flicked the silver needles, causing the silver needles to vibrate slightly, expelling the toxins from Augustus.

However, the poison in Augustus was obviously much more powerful than the one in Goldie.

After doing this seven times in a row, it still had not been cleaned up.

It was not until the ninth time that the poison in Augustus’ body was finally eliminated.

“How do you feel, Mr. Augustus? Do you feel any other discomfort?” David asked after removing the needles.

“Father, how do you feel?” Selena also asked nervously.

Augustus opened his eyes and looked at David.

His needle treatment was magical.

In such a short period, the poison in his body had all been flushed out.

The poison of the Dominic family that terrified everyone before had finally met its match.

Arthur was in such a hurry to kill David for two reasons. On one hand, it was to avenge Axel, the eldest son of the Dominic family, but on the other hand, David could detoxify the deadly poison of the Dominic family so quickly.

After all, this could greatly reduce the deterrent effect of their Dominic family.

After the poison was expelled, Augustus felt relieved and recovered at least 80% of his combat power.

The other minor injuries on his body were nothing to worry about

“I’m fine now, the poison in my body has all been expelled,” Augustus stood up and said with vigor.

The feeling of weakness just now was completely gone.

This made all the people of the King family present very happy.

“Thank you, David!” Selena looked at David and said seriously.

The man in front of her might soon be her man.

However, at the moment, she did not have the slightest hint of resentment in her heart, instead, she felt a trace of happiness.

‘Is this the love at first sight mentioned in books?’

Selena’s pretty face was slightly red under the veil.

As a woman, she had to get married anyway, so if she had to choose, she would undoubtedly choose David “You’re welcome, Miss Selena. Mr. Augustus did this to save me so I should be the one to say thank you,” David said.

He did not look at Selena and he did not notice any changes in Selena.

If he observed carefully, with the intensity of his mind power, he could definitely feel what Selena was expressing from her eyes when she looked at him.

However, the two were only meeting for the first time and Selena was also wearing a veil. Therefore, how could he have such thoughts?

I’m A Quadrillionaire chapter 664

When David and the others went back, the battle of the chosen ones was ongoing.

However, now the battle of the chosen ones was not the same anymore.

At first, everyone was feeling expectant, but now everyone was yawning non-stop, listless, and feeling bored

This could not be helped.

They had just seen Axel, someone at the late stage of Dragon Rank, being killed easily by David, and then, there was a high-altitude battle between the two God Rank guardians. Everyone had experienced the shock from these two battles.

Now, everyone was not interested to watch battles between these people who were at the beginner stage of Dragon Rank or mid-Dragon Rank anymore.

It was because they were demanding more.

The ones fighting were bored and the audience below were also feeling very bored.

The arrival of David and the others attracted the attention of most people.

Many people came to greet David so that David would remember them.

There might be a time when they would need David in the future.

This resulted in very few people present watching the battle of the chosen ones.

David was surrounded by people.

“David, I am Troy Coulton of the Coulton family. It’s a pleasure to meet you. I will definitely support you to become the number one among the younger generation in Somerland.”

“David, I’m Christopher Long of the Long family. Let’s exchange contact information so we can chat if there’s a chance. I will also support you to become the number one among the younger generation in Somerland. Who else has this qualification besides you?”

“David, I’m Jamie Davidson of the Davidson family, nice to meet you! You are the number one among the younger generation in Somerland and I give you my full support.”

Countless chosen ones came to try to establish a good relationship with David.

David was most fearful of encountering this kind of situation.

In the face of so much enthusiasm, he could only respond dumbly.

After all, he should not attack someone who was bowing down to him.

He could not just start fighting them, right? “Let’s watch the fight first. When we return to Dark Cape, we’ll find a time to get together, okay? Now is not the time, please return to your original position please, thank you,” David said loudly.

There was no other way choice.

There were dozens of people around him.

“Since David has spoken, let’s stop crowding here. When we get back to Dark Cape, we’ll get together again.”

“Yes, we should listen to David first. He’s our candidate for the number one among the younger generation in Somerland.”

“I agree to support David as number one among the younger generation in Somerland.”

“Me too!”

“Me too!”

The Dragon Rankers at the peak of the beginner stage who were fighting on the stage decided to directly stop and joined the crowd cheering for David.

Taylor, the third elder of the Krums, had a gloomy face as she stood on the high platform.

A perfectly fine grand event between the chosen ones in Somerland had turned into this farce. Hence it was obviously a failure.

The people who were fighting had no desire to continue the fighting, so how could they continue this event?

Lorraine showed a faint smile.

If David became number one among the younger generation in Somerland, he would have to marry her according to the rules.

She had long been convinced by David's magical medical skills and formidable strength.

Therefore, marrying David was also a good choice for her.

Although David was much younger than her, so what?

Besides, she did not think she would be worse than the girls in their twenties. She figured she was even more attractive than them.

As a woman who had been rated as peerless, she was still pretty confident.

If one would compare the current Lorraine with Lorraine when she was 20,99% of men would choose the current Lorraine.

Ten years ago, she was just an unripe apple, but now, she was ripe for harvest.'

At just a glance, it was obvious which one would taste better.

With David's promise and comfort, everyone finally slowly returned to their positions.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 665

As for what they said about supporting him to be the number one among the younger generation in Somerland, he was not interested in this at all.

Would it mean anything for an adult to get first place in a kindergarten?

He was slightly remorseful now.

He should not have killed Axel in seconds.

He should fight him slightly longer and pretend to kill him with all his might in the end.

In doing so, the effect would not be so shocking.

Alas... it was useless to feel remorseful now.

However, he should not have come back after saving Augustus just now. It would be better for him if he had just left.

Now, countless people were looking at him and he could not leave even if he wanted to.

His original plan was to help Clinton win the last round.

Then, when everyone was busy participating in the grand event of the chosen ones, he would leave quietly.

He did not expect that killing Axel in seconds would cause such a big sensation.

“Since everyone believes that David can become the number one among the younger generation in Somerland, as the organizer of the grand event of the chosen ones, I also respect everyone’s opinions. If anyone is unconvinced, you can raise your concerns. As long as you defeat David, you will be the winner of the grand event of the chosen ones and also the number one of the younger generation in Somerland,” Taylor, the third elder of the Krums, stood up and said.

After she finished speaking, there was silence below. No one stood up to challenge David.

Raymond and other chosen ones from the late stage of Dragon Rank were all smiling wryly at that moment.

The scene of David killing Axel, a late-stage Dragon Ranker, just now was still fresh in their minds.

They were also in the late stage of Dragon Rank, but they could not see David’s movement clearly.

If one could not even see what their rival was doing, how could they fight?

Who would have the courage to challenge David?

Was this not courting death?

They originally intended to show off their glory and make a name for themselves at the grand event of the chosen ones.

As a result, they lost their confidence before they even started fighting.

Minutes passed...

Still, no one at the scene raised any questions.

“Does anyone want to challenge David? You can speak up now. If not, I will announce that the winner of the grand event of the chosen ones is David and that he is also the number one among the younger generation in Somerland,” Taylor said again.

“I support David to be the number one among the younger generation in Somerland. His strength is obvious to all. He instantly killed Axel from the Dominic family, a late-stage Dragon Ranker. Besides him, who else among the younger generation at the scene has this strength?”

“Yes, I agree with what this guy just said. I support David!”

“Me too!”

“Me too!”

The voices in favor of David came one after another.

“Um... Can I say something?” David said at this time.

“Go ahead,” Taylor said.

“Actually, I only came here this time to repay the debts of friendship. As for the title of number one among the younger generation in Somerland, I am not interested in it, nor will I participate in the grand event of the chosen ones. You should fight again.”

When David said this, everyone looked at him in shock.

This was a title that all the heirs of different families and sects were competing to the death to obtain, but David said that he had no interest in it at all.

“David, since you came here and participated in the battle, it’s not up to you to decide if you are the number one among the younger generation in Somerland. Instead, it has been decided by everyone.”

‘What?’

David was stunned!

‘I can’t even quit?’

Just when David wanted to continue explaining, he suddenly felt a few strong energies approaching

Then a voice came from the sky.

“The grand event of the chosen ones in Somerland? If I kill all of you here, wouldn't Somerland be left in a mess? Hahaha! Even God is helping me!”
