

Married At First Sight

Chapter 3483

Married At First Sight Chapter 3483-Audrey and Tania sat down on the sofa in the hall.

Audrey asked, "Is Sonny also with the old lady?"

Tania replied, "Yes, Sonny is now the pendant on the old lady's thigh. The old lady takes him with her wherever she goes. Seren also returned to the company today. She said she had something important to deal with. Everything has been arranged. Tomorrow she will take Sonny to FC Manor with the old doctor and others."

At this point, Tania suddenly looked around and then asked Audrey in a low voice, "Audrey, is there something wrong in Jensburg?"

Audrey's expression did not change. "Why do you ask that? What happened in Jensburg? I didn't see it in the news."

Audrey still wanted to pretend to be confused.

Tania glared at her and said, "Audrey, you can coax Seren and other young people, but don't hide it from me. Although I'm not as powerful as you, at least I manage the York family's backyard and have some connections. I know everything I should know and want to know.

Although I didn't deliberately inquire, seeing Zack leaving home early and coming back late, and even Seren couldn't see him, I felt something was wrong. I know how deep Zack's feelings for Seren are. He feels like a long time has passed when he doesn't see his wife for a day.

How can he bear not to see her when we live under the same roof? The only reason he can do this is that he feels guilty and is hiding something from Seren, afraid that Seren will find out, so he deliberately leaves home early and comes back late to avoid meeting the sober Seren.

Ever since it was revealed that Zack and Seren got married without telling anyone, the couple has said that they trust each other and can't hide anything from each other no matter what happens. Now Zack is hiding something from Seren. I think, apart from Liberty's matter, there is nothing else he can deliberately hide."

This was why Tania asked Audrey if something happened in Jensburg.

Liberty was in Jensburg.

The Farrell family in Jensburg was Liberty's maternal family, and they had a feud with Clarissa. Now it is a society ruled by law. No matter who it is, as long as they break the law, they will fall into the law sooner or later and be punished by the law. Clarissa can no longer deal with opponents as rudely as before.

But she was used to being rude. If it didn't work openly, she would do it secretly. If she didn't get rid of her opponents, she was afraid that she wouldn't be able to eat or sleep.

Audrey: "...You are worthy of being the mistress of the York family. I can't hide anything from you. Seren still has to learn from you."

Tania defended her daughter-in-law and said, "Seren is very smart. She is pregnant now, and her energy is not as good as before. She has to take care of Sonny, and everyone is very busy recently. She has always been in contact with Liberty, so she didn't think of it."

After a silence, Tania added, "Pregnancy makes people stupid for three years. We have also experienced this. Seren is much smarter than we were at that time, and she learns things quickly. Now that she is pregnant, I don't want her to be tired, and she doesn't need to learn anything for the time being. She just needs to take care of her company, and when the baby is born and her body recovers, let her take over our family business little by little."

The men of the York family revolved around the York Corporation, and the women of the York family also had their own business empire. Although it couldn't be compared with the York Corporation, it should not be underestimated.

Married At First Sight Chapter 3484-Audrey could tell that Tania was genuinely protecting her niece. As her aunt, she didn't say anything bad about her niece, only that her niece was still young and not as experienced as Tania. Tania didn't like to hear that and immediately spoke up for Serenity.

Audrey was happy for her niece to have such a protective and reasonable mother-in-law. Unlike when she first married into the Stone family, where her mother-in-law didn't like her, was dissatisfied with her, found faults everywhere, and could find stones in rice. Those days were quite sad.

If her husband hadn't been very good to her and her father-in-law hadn't been sensible and stood on her side, she might not have made a big splash in the Stone Group. Additionally, she got pregnant soon after marriage, and she might not have been able to make it from a daughter-in-law to a mother-in-law.

Looking back now, Audrey suspected that her husband was eager to tie her down with a child, fearing that she would not be able to stand her mother-in-law's faults and would divorce.

Fortunately, her mother-in-law accepted her later, and she was considered to have made it in her husband's family. Back then in the Stone family, her name was well-known, and people in the family, even the older patriarchs, were courteous to her. Peers and juniors were very respectful to her.

Audrey's life was bitter before it became sweet.

Serenity was much luckier than her.

Tania didn't like Serenity at first. She couldn't accept that her most outstanding eldest son married a wife who had no father or mother and was from the countryside. But no matter how much she disliked Serenity, she never said bad words in front of Serenity, let alone sow discord.

Instead, she lived in Wildridge Manor, watching her son and daughter-in-law from a distance, keeping her distance. If they didn't live together, there would be no conflicts. At least they could maintain superficial harmony and wouldn't be laughed at by outsiders.

Some wives didn't know how high the sky was and how deep the earth was. They said this and that about Serenity in front of Tania, which made Tania very angry.

Regardless of her status as the wife of the York family, she personally confronted the quarrel, so that the wives of the upper class could see clearly.

No matter whether Tania was satisfied with her eldest daughter-in-law or not, she was still her eldest daughter-in-law. As a mother-in-law, she had never said a bad word about her daughter-in-law. What qualifications did others have to say about her daughter-in-law?

How good were the daughters-in-law of those wives who said Serenity was not good? Would they be able to have peace in their own homes?

Every family is noisy, with big and small conflicts. They can't handle their own family affairs well, but they dare to interfere with the eldest young lady of the York family. Isn't that asking for trouble?

Since Tania confronted those talkative wives, Serenity has been a force to be reckoned with in the upper class of Wiltspoon, walking confidently.

Everyone said privately that if you don't like Serenity or are jealous of Serenity, you can stay away from Serenity and not associate with her, but don't offend or scold Serenity, to avoid attracting the York family's wrath.

There were many members of the York family and many in-laws.

If you provoke the York family to fight, there are very few people who can resist.

Audrey said, "Tania, Seren is lucky to have a mother-in-law like you. As her elder, I am relieved."

Tania said, "The main reason is that Seren is a potential stock. I also believe in the old lady's vision. You all know what kind of person our old lady is. I don't need to tell you. I think the person she chooses can't be bad. Give myself some time to understand Serenity, and give Serenity some time to grow and become stronger. She will complete the transformation and become the next qualified wife of the York family."

Audrey smiled, "That's right, Serenity still has the blood of my Farrell family. The daughters of my Farrell family have never been weak."

Married At First Sight Chapter 3485-Audrey added, "It's good that Liberty is in Jensburg. She is safe for the time being. I will take Uncle Jimenez there tomorrow."

Tania asked with concern, "Are you going to show your cards?"

Audrey was silent for a moment, then said, "Yes, it has to be resolved. She killed my parents, my grandfather, and others, and my aunt was also killed by her. She should pay the price for her behavior.

Now we don't necessarily have to take back the Farrell family, but we will definitely make Clarissa pay the price and be punished by law."

In short, after she, Uncle Jimenez, and several old seniors fly to Jensburg, it would be time for Clarissa to be ruined.

She would gather media reporters to follow.

Expose Clarissa's wolfish heart and dog lungs. She could even kill her own sister who raised her. Clarissa deserved to die!

Tania asked, "Didn't the old seniors say that they would leave tomorrow?"

Audrey said, "They will leave tomorrow. Except for the old doctor who will stay in FC Manor, the others will take a detour to fly to Jensburg."

It's just to make a false impression for everyone to see that they have all left.

Tania said, "Oh," and then asked with concern, "Do you have a chance of winning?"

"Evil cannot defeat good."

"What do you need me to do?"

Tania said, "My nephews from my mother's side can also help."

Her mother's family was very low-key in Wiltspoon, but it didn't mean that her mother's family was incapable. Her nephews were also outstanding. Although the assets of the Reading family were not as many as the hundreds of billions of the York family, they were nearly 10 billion, a real wealthy family.

Audrey said, "Zachary has been helping, and Kevin is still in Jensburg and can help a lot. Don't worry, it's okay."

Tania was still a little worried. She told Audrey, "You must protect Liberty. Don't let anything happen to Liberty. Even a little injury can affect the relationship between Liberty and Seren."

Knowing the relationship between her daughter-in-law and Liberty, and her son hiding it from Serenity, Tania was worried that the young couple would have conflicts again if something happened to Liberty.

Her son would be driven to sleep in the study. Well, that would be more uncomfortable for her son than beating and scolding him.

Audrey said, "Liberty is my niece. I care about her safety more than you do. We will do our best to protect her and try not to hurt any of us."

"You came here today to tell me this, right?" Tania asked.

Audrey wanted her to have some peace of mind.

Audrey said, "Our two families are considered in-laws. We both love Seren and want everyone to be well. Some things are not suitable to be told to Seren now. I will tell you so that you can have some peace of mind. After all, you are the head wife of the York family."

Tania nodded, "I will help keep it a secret from Seren."

She hoped nothing happens to Liberty!

"The biological daughter of Clarissa, I heard from Seren that she is quite good."

Tania suddenly mentioned Kathryn.

Audrey said, "My little cousin, Kathryn, is quite good. She didn't grow up with a cruel mother. Her values are normal. I just don't know whether her acquired values will win over her genes or her genes will win over her acquired values."
