

Chapter 2052 Sonia Is Also A Suspect

Lexi's eyes widened in disbelief at Janet's words. Looking up at Janet, she asked incredulously, "Janet, don't you believe me?"

Despite having made mistakes in the past, she had learned her lesson. How could she possibly repeat such a basic error?

"I don't believe you did it, but it's important for you to get some rest," Janet reminded Lexi gently. "You need to take better care of your belongings in the future and avoid losing them."

Although Janet was well-intentioned, Lexi thought she was being sarcastic.

Just as Lexi was about to speak, she caught sight of a smile on Sonia's face.

An idea began to haunt Lexi.

"Janet, why aren't you suspicious of Sonia?" Lexi exclaimed, pointing at Sonia. "Sonia, too, was here that day! Maybe she did it!"

"I did not do it." Sonia denied any involvement coldly.

Janet regarded Sonia silently, seemingly contemplating the truth of her words.

On the other hand, upon hearing Lexi's accusation, Brandon immediately became suspicious of Sonia.

"Why were you at W Marks that day?" Brandon directed his question at Sonia.

Sonia explained to Brandon, "Everyone was overwhelmed preparing for the fashion show, so I took the initiative to assist, and then..."

"You're lying!" Lexi interrupted Sonia sharply. "I didn't ask for your help that day!"

Sonia didn't deny it; instead, she nodded and said, "True, you didn't want my help, so I left at that time..."

"Did you hear that?" Lexi interjected with fervor, her eyes blazing. "Janet, Sonia is the one we should suspect!"

However, Lexi's words failed to convince those present. Her accusation against Sonia rested solely on speculation, unlike the accusations against her, which were supported by solid evidence.

"It appears Sonia hasn't finished speaking. Lexi, please allow her to finish first." After consoling Lexi, Janet glanced up at Sonia, signaling for her to continue.

"I happened to run into the assistant on my way back. Seeing that she was struggling, I offered to help out."

As if wary of another interruption from Lexi, Sonia swiftly recounted the events.

Brandon listened to each of their explanations in turn. His gaze first rested on Lexi before shifting to Sonia.

"No, someone must have sent you here."

He found it hard to believe that Sonia would simply come here out of kindness to help.

As Brandon suspected, someone had indeed directed Sonia to take action.

But Sonia remained silent, her gaze turning to Janet.

Janet's expression suddenly changed, as if a realization had dawned on her.

Once more, she intervened to support Sonia, saying, "I asked her to go there that day."

Had she not asked Sonia to go there, none of this would have occurred.

It was evident that Sonia had no ill intentions and was innocent.

However, this explanation did not satisfy Lexi. She countered firmly, "No, that can't be! Sonia must have had a purpose!"

"Lexi, I believe in Sonia, and I believe in you too." Janet reassured Lexi. "There seems to be a misunderstanding here. I will investigate thoroughly. My intention in giving you a paid break is simply to show my appreciation for your hard work and offer some support."

Despite Janet reiterating her intentions repeatedly, Lexi still felt unable to earn Janet's trust.

Before Janet could finish speaking, Lexi burst into tears and ran away.
