

A Man Like None Other

Novel

Chapter 2491

David stretched out his hand to push open the bronze door, and found that the bronze door was very light, and there was no formation on it, so he pushed it open easily!

As the bronze door creaked open, a particularly large prison appeared!

On both sides of the corridor, there are small prison cells, and people are detained in the cells, and the light of formations is constantly shining around the cells!

The people in the cell were all chained with thick iron chains, and these people looked very haggard, all with disheveled hair, it seemed that they had been imprisoned for a long time!

Hearing the sound of the copper door being pushed open, several prisoners looked up, but all of these prisoners had fierce eyes, obviously they were not ordinary people!

Besides, this is the dungeon of the Demon Heart Sect, and it is impossible for ordinary people to be imprisoned!

David didn't know what kind of feud these people had with the Moxin Sect, and they were actually imprisoned here.

Originally, David wanted to release these people. After all, the enemy of an enemy is a friend, but seeing the fierce eyes of these people, David hesitated. He was afraid that releasing these people would cause trouble for himself!

David quickly passed through the cells on the first floor and walked towards the second floor. As for these people, let them be locked up here!

David is not a savior, and it is impossible to save everyone, he just needs to rescue Yu Qian and his family as soon as possible!

Passing through the dungeon on the first floor, David and the others came to the second floor, but the second floor is different from the first floor. The second floor is a huge cell, only four people are detained in the four corners of the cell. These four people are also bound by thick chains!

These people are all disheveled, and they can't see their faces clearly, but the thick iron chains pass through their bodies, and these people can still survive. It seems that the strength of these people is definitely not weak!

David just glanced casually, and then quickly walked towards the third floor, but just as David was about to reach the entrance of the third floor, a hoarse voice came!

"How could the sword spirit from Xijiantan come here? Could it be to save the old man?"

At this time, an old man with disheveled hair in the corner spoke!

David followed the voice, only to see that the old man was thin, his face was scorched, and he looked like he was dying!

"Who are you? How do you know about Xijiantan?"

David looked at the old man and asked!

"This old man is the chief elder of the Artifact Refining Sect, how could he not know about Xijian Lake..."

Following the old man's voice, the three people in other corners also raised their heads!

David found that these four people looked almost exactly the same, and was immediately surprised!

And the identity of this person, the Chief Elder of the Artifact Refining Sect?

Since he is the elder of the Artifact Refining Sect in the Celestial Realm, how could he be imprisoned here?

Master Iron Hammer said that their Artifact Refining Sect was exterminated by the Fire Burning Sect, so what happened to these elders of the Artifact Refining Sect?

Could it be that the Demon Heart Sect has a relationship with the Fire Fen Sect?

This time, David was in a mess!

"You are the chief elder of the Artifact Refining Sect in the Celestial Realm? Then why did you appear here?"

David asked the old man!

The old man looked at David, and didn't answer David's words. Instead, he asked David, "This sword spirit has been baptized by Xijiantan. Who are you? How did you get to Xijiantan?"

David stared at The old man looked at it for a while, and then said, "Master Hammer took us there. Jian Lao personally shaped the sword Ling Zhongli in the Dragon Slaying Sword into the avatar."

“Dragon Slaying Sword?” Staring at the sword spirit Zhongli!

“You mean, she is the sword spirit in the Dragon Slaying Sword? The Dragon Slaying Sword is the precious sword of my weapon refining sect. Later, the sword spirit was damaged, and I don’t know where it was lost.” The old man’s expression became very excited!

Seeing the old man’s appearance, David knew that the old man would not lie to him, then he glanced at the sword spirit Zhongli, Zhongli flashed in an instant, and it was replaced by the dragon-slaying sword, which was held by David!