Chapter 2498

David frowned when he heard the words of the Great Elder of the Artifact Refining Sect!

He didn't expect that the monster Ning Zhi recruited belonged to the world of heaven and man, so isn't this black hole a passage from the secular world to the world of heaven and man?

But when David looked at the black hole carefully, it didn't look like a passage. The inside of the black hole was very calm, and there was no turbulence, nor any fluctuations!

Just when David felt unbelievable, Ning Zhi commanded the unicorn to rush towards David!

The unicorn spewed out a huge icy mist towards David, and the icy mist rolled in like a giant wave, surrounding David in an instant!

Frost was rapidly forming around David. At this time, David was like an ice sculpture!

Even some people on the ground were frozen instantly before they had time to dodge!

For a moment, everyone was shocked and tried their best to stay away from the unicorn. Seeing this, the people from the Demon Heart Sect attacked the Great Elder of the Artifact Refining Sect again!

The melee started again, the sounds of fighting, roaring, and the sound of weapons colliding intertwined into a tragic symphony!

Ning Zhi looked at the frozen David with disdain in his eyes. At this time, Ning Zhi had many means, and this unicorn was just one of them!

Just when David was frozen and everyone was fighting, the entire Daoist sect underwent earth-shaking changes!

The surrounding scene has all changed, but no one noticed, they only cared about fighting, only caring about keeping their own lives and killing the enemy!

Looking at the changing scenes around him, the calm Da Neng finally had a faint smile at this moment!

Ning Zhi commanded the unicorn and ran towards David. At this time, David was frozen and had no way to dodge. David was smashed under this collision!

But at the moment when the unicorn was about to hit Dao David, a crisp cry resounded through the world!

Immediately afterwards, a fire phoenix covered with golden wings appeared. The body of the fire phoenix was also huge, and it was still burning with raging flames!

Accompanied by the incitement of the wings of the fire phoenix, waves of heat swept out, where the heat wave passed, the chill disappeared instantly, and those people who were frozen on the ground were also unblocked in an instant!

Ning Zhi's unicorn felt the heat wave and retreated instinctively, while the frozen David also regained his freedom at this moment!

Seeing the sudden appearance of the fire phoenix, the Great Elder of the Artifact Refining Sect couldn't help but gasped and said, "The divine beast, the fire phoenix

? They were all very shocked, they just didn't understand, how could there be so many gods and beasts from the world of heaven and man in this secular world!

Huofeng's body turned around, transformed into a human form, and stood beside David!

In this confrontation, it was obvious that the fire phoenix was superior. Ning Zhi's unicorn did not dare to move forward when it encountered the heat wave breath of the fire phoenix!

"Huofeng, why are you here?"

David was very surprised when he saw Huofeng appearing suddenly!

After all, this Daoist sect secret realm cannot be entered casually, and how did the fire phoenix find the entrance to the Daoist sect secret realm?

"I sensed that your breath was dangerous, so I came..."

Huofeng explained.

"Then how did you enter the Daoist sect's secret realm?" David was very puzzled. You must know that there is no teleportation array in the Daoist sect's secret realm!

"The secret realm of Daoist sect?" Huofeng was stunned for a moment, and then said, "Where are there any secret realms? Now all the secret realms have collapsed, and the secular world has recovered its spiritual energy. The place we are now is not a secret realm..."

Huofeng said like this Said, instantly shocked David, when he looked around, he was stunned!
