

A Man Like None Other

Novel

Chapter 2515

Seeing this, David quickly put away his killing intent, and said to the little boy, "Little friend, what's your name? Now take me there and rescue Yun'er and the others!"

"My name is Zhuzi, just the two of us, sure No, I'm going to find the old village head."

Zhu Zi said and ran towards a house!

Seeing this, David had no choice but to follow. Now only Zhuzi knew the location of Yun'er and the others.

Soon, David followed the pillar into the house, and saw a skinny old man smoking dry cigarettes, sitting on a chair!

This person is the old village head of Dashi Village. Later, because of his advanced age, he passed the position of village head to the young Ali!

However, the old village head is still very prestigious in Dashi Village. If Ali is not around, Dashi Village still needs to ask the old village head for instructions.

The old village head took a look at David, but he didn't show any surprise. It seems that David has been in Dashi Village for a few days, and everyone knows about him!

"Zhuzi, what happened, I heard you yelling outside!" the old village head asked Zhuzi!

"The old village chief, Ali and sister Yun'er hunted and killed a demon tiger, but they were robbed by the people of Daqing Village and injured Ali and sister Yun'er. Now they are all detained. Stop it!"

Zhu Zi said anxiously!

"What?" The old village chief's eyes suddenly shone coldly, and he threw the dry tobacco in his hand on the table. "The beasts in Daqing Village have always opposed us, and now they openly rob things and beat people."

"Immediately gather everyone in Dashi Village and fight them..." After the old village chief finished speaking, he bent down and took out a large knife that had already been rusted from under the table!

"Wait a minute..."

David stopped Zhuzi, and then asked the old village chief, "Old village chief, how is our Dashi Village's strength comparable to that of Daqing Village?"

"What else can we do? The population of Daqing Village is twice as large as ours, and its strength is also strong. They often bully our village and we can only swallow our anger!"

Before the old village chief could speak, Zhuzi said!

"Zhuzi, shut up!" The old village chief yelled at Zhuzi, then looked at David and said, "Although our Dashi Village is not as strong as Daqing Village, we are by no means easy to bully. Rescue Ali and the others from the people of Daqing Village." The old village head seemed to be really anxious, as the saying goes, a rabbit bites people when it is anxious!

"Old village chief, since the strength of our Dashi Village is not as strong as that of Daqing Village, if you take people there rashly, you will definitely suffer a lot of losses. Maybe the people in Dashi Village will suffer heavy casualties!"

David hurriedly said to the old man . The village head persuaded!

"Then what should we do? Don't we just watch Daqing Village bully people and watch them arrest our people without saving them?" The old village head yelled at David angrily!

"Old village chief, I didn't say no, you don't have to take the whole village, let Zhuzi take me to the place where Yun'er and the others were arrested, and I can rescue them myself!"

David said to the old man . said the village head!

"Just you?" The old village chief looked David up and down, "I know you were very powerful before, but now you are like a useless person, how can you save people?"

" The blood burned out, and even the breath was extremely weak!

It's good that David is alive now, but he still wants to save others?

Obviously the old village chief didn't believe it at all!

"Old village chief, are you willing to watch men, women and children in your village die tragically? I hope you can trust me, I will definitely save them for you!"

David promised the old village chief!

Although David only recovered a small portion of his strength, it was more than enough to deal with the nearby villagers!
