

A Man Like None Other Novel

Chapter 2335

"Yes, it's very possible. Let's not be fooled by David. If he still has the strength to kill us easily, he will never let the two of us leave..." The tall man seemed to have reacted, and immediately said, " Let's go, let's go back and have a look..."

Saying that, the two turned around and started to return!

Soon, the two returned to the place just now, but David was no longer there!

"Damn it, I was deceived by him, let's chase after him..." The tall man said with a gloomy face, gnashing his teeth.

Immediately afterwards, the two people's spiritual consciousness spread, and they began to look for David, and they knew that David would not be able to escape far!

After feeling David's position, the two quickly chased after him!

At this time, David was still glad to have cheated those two guys away, but soon, two divine senses covered him, which shocked David, and then he ran quickly!

The tall and short two were chasing behind, and David was running ahead!

Don't mention how angry David is now, he is being chased all over the mountain by sect disciples from the hidden world, it's too embarrassing for him now!

"Which bastard created this secret realm, what kind of heaven did it, and suppressed my strength. If I know who created this secret realm, I will face him and scold his eighth-generation ancestor..."

David scolded while running, venting the depression in his heart!

If it weren't for the power of heaven in this secret realm to suppress his strength, David wouldn't be chasing and running around like a bereaved dog!

"You kid dares to scold anyone, be careful that old monster can hear it, and trouble you..." The old man's voice sounded, it seems that the old man should know who created this secret realm!

It should also be an expert in the world of heaven and man, because no one should have the ability to create secret realms, no matter in the eight secret realms or in this secular world!

Even the powerful Demon Heart Sect, I don't have this ability, otherwise I wouldn't be entrenched in looking for those unowned secret realms, wouldn't it be easy to create one by myself!

"Do you know who created this secret realm?"

David asked in surprise.

"Nonsense, of course I know, and this secret realm was specially created for me to summon my soul, otherwise why would there be an entrance in the depths of the sea!"

"It's all your fault, take my skull Let's go, or else I have completed my summoning and returned to the world of heaven and man!" The old man complained to David!

David looked embarrassed, he just saw the treasure map on the bone, in order to get the treasure map, he took the skull away, but he didn't want to delay such a big event!

However, in order for this guy to summon the soul and return to the celestial world, he actually created a secret realm for him, which shows that this old man is by no means an ordinary person in the celestial world!

"Who the hell are you? Someone created a secret realm for you, isn't that amazing?"

"Who is the guy who created the secret realm? Tell me, and I'll scold him, or you can go back Heaven and Human Realm, give me a word and scold him..."

"No other secret realm can be suppressed by the power of heaven, but he created a secret realm with the power of heaven to show off his strength on purpose?"

David was very worried. It's dissatisfied nagging!

"Hahaha, the person who dared to scold that old monster has not yet been born. You dare to scold him. Maybe he can really hear it. Then you will die a miserable death..." The old man laughed loudly!

"If you scold him or not, he will die. Why don't you scold me? Now I'm being chased everywhere like a lost dog."

David said very depressed!

Just as David finished speaking, suddenly an extremely dangerous aura came towards David!

David instinctively jumped forward, then rolled on the spot, dodging the blow!

Chapter 2336

David thought that those two guys had just caught up, but when he got up to look, he found a ferocious giant lion staring at him!

Mouth full of fangs exudes a bloody breath, and the mouth keeps roaring!

“Hahaha, let you scold me, here comes trouble...”

Looking at the giant lion, the old man burst out laughing!

As for David, he had a gloomy expression on his face, he was just complaining, this guy who created the secret realm is not good, is he really so stingy?

He actually let a monster beast deal with him. Looking at the monster beast in front of him, David felt very helpless. Now he wanted to run away, but it would be impossible!

The giant lion looked at David, but did not launch an attack, but kept circling around David!

The giant lion didn't attack, but David couldn't wait, otherwise those two guys would catch up soon, and facing the monster beast in front of him and those two guys, David would definitely die!

But when David was about to attack the giant lion, the tall and short guy had already caught up!

When they saw that David was stopped by a monster, they immediately burst out laughing!

"Brother, today we are very lucky. Not only can we kill David to get resources, but we can also get a beast pill!" The short man looked at the giant lion and said excitedly.

"Today we two are really lucky, but should we kill that monster first, or this David first?"

said the tall man.

Now that the short man has a broken arm, his strength has been greatly reduced. If the two of them deal with the giant lion and David at the same time, it is estimated that it will be difficult to win quickly, so they need two people to join forces and deal with one first!

"Kill David first, he will break my arm, and I will make him suffer..." The short man looked at David coldly and said.

"it is good....."

The tall man nodded, without any hesitation, he jumped up, and the long knife in his hand swung countless sharp edges in an instant, and went straight to David.go!

Seeing this, David let go of the Dragon Slaying Sword in his hand. Along with the continuous humming of the Dragon Slaying Sword, streams of sword energy shot out, directly blocking the tall man's blade!

Seeing this, the short man swung a knife with one hand, and came straight to David. Now that David was not protected by the dragon sword, the short man was confident that he could kill David with one hand!

David looked at the short man rushing over, and fell into helplessness for a moment. His strength was suppressed, and he couldn't fight with the short man!

Just when the short man rushed to him, David suddenly saw that giant lion was still staring at him!

Suddenly there was an idea in my heart, and I swung my palm at the giant lion!

He had to find a way to make the short man fight with the giant lion, so as to have a chance of survival.

So David provoked the giant lion first, and then got into a melee, so that he could find a chance to slip away!

David slapped the giant lion with his palm. He thought that the giant lion would go mad and attack him, but who would have thought that the giant lion dodged and avoided David's attack. Then he rolled his eyes and looked at David contemptuously. One glance!

Seeing the look in the eyes of the giant lion, David was dumbfounded. He didn't expect a monster to guess his intentions, so the giant lion dodged and didn't plan to make a move at all!

"Go to hell..."

Just as David was stunned, the short man had already arrived in front of him, and the long knife in his hand slashed fiercely on David's back!

Dang...

With a crisp sound, David's body flew out in an instant, and there was a deep bone wound on his back, bleeding continuously!

David, who was severely injured, spurted blood from his mouth, the scene in front of him became more and more blurred, and finally passed out!

The short man looked at his path, and couldn't help but curse secretly, "Damn, how did this guy train his body to be so hard..."

The short man raised his knife and walked towards David. David had passed out, and the short man was not at all on guard.
