

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1669 –

Chapter 1669

The tense atmosphere did not last long.

Just as Alba was wondering what David was doing now and why he did not show up.

Two old men suddenly rushed out from the luxurious spaceship belonging to the Lightfoot family,

They were very fast and disappeared in the blink of an eye.

One of them came to the rear of the Fellowes family's merchant ship to prevent anyone on board from escaping.

The other went directly to the front.

Stretching out his right hand, a gigantic golden arm appeared and grabbed the merchant ship.

If one was at Eternal Realm Sovereign Rank, one could use the Eternal Golden Body as one liked and selectively use only certain parts of it.

That was to say, every part of a Sovereign Ranker's body could instantly transform into the Eternal Golden Body and also control the size according to the specific situation.

This was unlike Ruler Ranks who could only turn their entire body into a golden giant if they wanted to use the power of the Eternal Golden Body.

At this time, the old man transformed his right hand into the appearance of the Eternal Golden Body.

The rest of his body remained unchanged.

That way, it would be more flexible in combat and could be retracted freely.

At the same time, he could concentrate his power in one place without being scattered.

The size of the golden palm was just right, and it was just large enough to grab the Fellowes family's merchant ship.

Alba was startled when she saw the old men.

'Oh no!'

They were Sovereign Rankers.

That scoundrel Cornelius actually wanted to take action.

'What should I do?'

None of the people she brought along on this trip could stop these two Sovereign Rankers.

Was it really necessary for her to commit suicide to maintain her innocence and the stability of the Fellowes family?

Alba did not want to die just yet.

Although she was a woman, she was ambitious.

Ever since she was young, Alba had been the best of her generation in the Fellowes family.

However, because she was a daughter, the elders of the Fellowes family never valued her.

No matter how good she was, she was still unable to become the heir of the Fellowes family Alba was not happy about this, so she wanted to change the status quo.

She wanted to make the dinosaurs of the Fellowes family regret not taking her seriously.

However, now that she had run into that scoundrel today, all her ideas and aspirations were shattered.

Alba now only had two ways to proceed.

One was to commit suicide before Cornelius caught her, which could also ensure the temporary stability of the Fellowes family.

The other was to be forced to board Cornelius' ship.

In the future, not only would she be accused of infidelity, but the Fellowes family would also suffer accordingly.

Those guys had always been eyeing the Fellowes family, so they would surely not let go of this opportunity to completely annex them.

During Alba's brief internal struggle, the old man's golden giant grabbed the merchant ship. They cranked up the merchant ship's defense to block the giant golden hand from the outside. When the old man's giant golden hand was blocked, he smiled contemptuously.

"They want to block the Eternal Golden Body of Sovereign Ranker with this little strength? 'What wishful thinking!'

The old man tightened his giant golden hand slightly.

Crash!

A voice that terrified everyone on the merchant ship could be heard.

Then, the entire ship's defense system collapsed completely.

The defense of the merchant ship was so vulnerable in front of the old man that it was easily broken.

After crushing the defense of the merchant ship, the old man did not continue to destroy it. If he wanted to kill these people, he would have destroyed the ship without hesitation. After this blow, no one on board the merchant ship would survive.

However, the purpose of the old man's trip was to capture Alba, the third young mistress of the Fellowes family, instead of killing everyone.

He retracted his giant golden hand and rushed to the control room of the merchant ship in an instant.

The hard body was like tofu in front of this old man.

Bang!

The old man smashed through the body of the ship.

He had come into the control room to grab Alba from the crowd.

He was very fast.

After receiving the order from Cornelius to capture Alba alive, the old man only took a moment to destroy the defense system of the Fellowes family's merchant ship and finally appear in the control room.

By the time Alba and her maids and guards reacted, the old man had already appeared in the control room.

The strength of a Sovereign Ranker was indeed terrifying.

“Miss, run away! We will block him for you!” a guard shouted.

The other guards and maids also reacted immediately.

Immediately, they took out a pill and prepared to swallow it.

This was the Blood Bursting Pill.

Once eaten, it would immediately detonate the blood inside one’s entire body.

The consumer would have their power amplified several times over for a short time.

Of course, the price they had to pay was also quite large as they would have to give up their life.

The Blood Bursting Pill allowed its consumer to overdraw their lives to fight.

They would use their life in order to get their power to skyrocket for a short time.

Even so, how would the old man give them a chance?

Even if they took the Blood Bursting Pill, they would not pose any threat to the old man.

However, if they were to take the Blood Bursting Pill, it would be troublesome to deal with the several Immortal Rank guards.

If he was slightly slow and they created an opening for Miss Alba Fellowes to kill herself, it would be very spell unnecessary trouble.

In order to prevent any accidents, the old man yelled.

“You want to take the Blood Bursting Pill? No way in hell!”

Then, he exuded the strength of a Sovereign Ranker.

Boom!

The merchant ship shook violently. It was as if it could not handle the old man’s energy.

If this merchant ship was not Alba's primary means of transportation and had undergone a special transformation by Treasure Trove, it would have already disintegrated.

Despite this, it was still a bit shaky and in danger of disintegrating at any moment.

The control room was in a mess, and everything shattered from the shock.

The guards and maids who were about to take the Blood Bursting Pill were all interrupted by the old man's sudden outburst.

Following this, they could only give up taking the Blood Bursting Pill. Then, they stood next to each other to form a human wall to block Alba.

Several Immortal Rank guards stood at the front while exuding their energy to defend Alba.

As Alba's maids and bodyguards, the task of these people was to protect the safety of Alba even at the expense of their own life.

However, they had underestimated the strength of the Sovereign Ranker.

After the old man exuded his energy and it reached the Immortal Rank guards, it directly smashed through their combined defense and sent all the maids and guards standing in front of Alba flying.

Only Alba was left standing in place alone.

It was as if she was under a freezing spell.

If Alba wanted to kill herself now, it would be too late.

This was because the old man was already in front of her and was about to catch her.

How would she have the chance to kill herself when a Sovereign Ranker got close to her?

Alba did not expect Cornelius to be so decisive as to take action against her so quickly.

He did not even give her a chance to react.

If she killed herself at the beginning, it would surely have worked.

However, she had hesitated.

No one wanted to die if they were not driven to desperation.

At this moment, as Miss Alba Fellowes stood in front of the Sovereign Ranker, she had no choice at all.

All conspiracies were futile in front of true strength.

She knew the other party would not listen to her no matter what she said.

As for other methods?

As the third young mistress of one of the top five trading companies in the Central Sacred Continent, she surely had a lot of treasures.

However, she would also need time to use it.

Would the other party give her a chance to do so?

Clearly, this would be impossible.
