Chapter 1621

"David, are you willing to sell this sword?" Alba stared at the Evil-Splitting Sword and asked.

She liked this sword a lot.

Its whole body was red, exuding a charming aura.

It looked very stunning.

Even though it was just lying there quietly, it was still shrouded in piercing energy.

One's skin would tingle from its energy even from such a distance.

Alba was the young mistress of Treasure Trove.

Although she could not keep the various weapons handled by Treasure Trove as her own, she could still study them..

So far, she had seen at least hundreds of Soulbound Weapons.

However, none of them could compare to the shock that David's Evil-Splitting Sword gave her.

Even if she had seen a few high-level Soulbound Weapons before, they were far worse than this sword

"Could this be a first-rate Soulbound Weapon?"

Alba thought in shock.

A first-rate Soulbound Weapon!

There are not many of those in the entire Star Kingdom.

'They are all in the hands of a few major forces.

'Ordinary Eternals only use low-level Soulbound Weapons.

'Only certain direct descendants of major forces or Sovereign Rankers can own mid-level Soulbound Weapons

'As for high-level Soulbound Weapons, it is exclusive to those who are in Saint Realm.

'Needless to say, Pre-Saints shouldn't even dream about having a first-rate Soulbound Weapon

'Only True Saints or above will have them.'

Alba never thought that she would see a first-rate Soulbound Weapon in the hands of a young man about her age today

If this sword was really given to David by his master just as he said, then David's master may not be a True Saint, but a Sacred Saint

It was because True Saints would not just give away a first-rate Soulbound Weapon.

Even so, there were only a few known Sacred Saints in Star Kingdom.

'Who is David's master?

'According to David, he and his master have been living together, and he was only recently released from training.

"Could it be that there is still a strong Sacred Saint hiding in Star Kingdom?

"Probably!

'Grandpa once said that Star Kingdom is not as simple as it appears. What you see is only superficial and there are a lot of things happening below the surface.

"Miss Fellowes, I told you that this sword is not only my weapon but also my friend and partner. It has been with me for a very long time. If you were me, would you sell your partner?" David refused.

"I can offer a very high price!" Alba was still unwilling to give up.

"No matter how high the price is, I won't sell it. Miss Fellowes, you should just give up." David remained unmoved.

He could not even spend all his own money, why would he sell the Evil-Splitting Sword?

"Since Mr. Lidell is not willing to sell, then I will not force you," Alba said sadly.

Her eyes slowly moved away from the Evil-Splitting Sword.

She also knew that no one would be willing to sell a first-rate Soulbound Weapon.

She still had to try, which was why she asked.

This kind of thing was hard to come by.

Besides, even if David wanted to sell it, he would not dare to.

Chapter 1622

Since it had been bestowed to him by his master, David would be skinned alive by his master when he went back if he sold it.

“Then Miss Fellowes, what about the auction?” David was most concerned about this now.

“Mr. Lidell, you might as well rest here for a few days and then go back with me. When the time comes, will let you enter the auction site,” Alba said.

“Thank you, Miss Fellowes! If you need anything in the future, I will help you as long as it's within my power,” David said excitedly immediately.

He could now enter the auction.

If he bid on a few treasures at random, he could quickly improve his strength.

After that, he would no longer be as weak as he was now. He was weak and had too many restrictions. “Okay! Then it's settled. I will let you enter the auction, and you will owe me a favor. Of course, I won't use it indiscriminately and make you do something that violates your principles.”

“It's a deal!”

“It's a deal!”

David put away the Evil-Splitting Sword and left contentedly.

Alba had someone arrange a place for him.

Now, only Alba and Elmer were left in the room.

“Elmer, based on your judgment, can you see what's special about this sword?” Alba asked suddenly.

“Miss Alba, I can discuss other treasures with you, after all, I have so many years of experience, but in terms of weapons, it’s best for me not to try to show off. Who doesn’t know that you have studied countless weapons and even studied hundreds of Soulbound Weapons? I am ashamed to say that I have never seen as many Soulbound Weapons in my life, let alone studied them,” Elmer replied honestly.

He was not being modest, nor was he exaggerating or trying to suck up to Miss Alba.

This was genuinely the case.

Who on the Central Sacred Continent did not know that Miss Alba from Treasure Trove was a weapons junkie?

There were very few Soulbound Weapons handled by Treasure Trove that had not been studied by Miss Alba beforehand.

Although Elmer had rich experience in appraising treasures, he was inferior to Miss Alba when it came to weapons.

“Based on your years of experience, what do you think of that sword?” Alba continued to ask.

“Miss Alba, this sword is red and it’s amazingly sharp. It has a very piercing energy that lingered in the air before it was even used. If I am correct, this should be a rare high-level Soulbound Weapon.” Elmer first said how he felt and finally expressed his own judgment.

“A high-level Soulbound Weapon? Elmer, you’ve made a misjudgment this time,” Alba said with a grin.

“Misjudged?”

Elmer was a little reluctant to admit this.

This sword was the best quality he had ever seen.

Elmer had seen more than one mid-level Soulbound Weapons, and he could guarantee that they did not look like the Evil-Splitting Sword.

However, since Miss Alba said he was wrong, he might have indeed overlooked something.

After all, he was so far away from the sword, and he could not get a close look at it, so it was normal for him to misjudge.

Elmer still believed in Miss Alba's words

In terms of weapons research, very few people in the Central Sacred Continent could compare to Miss Alba.

This was due to talent and the result of Miss Alba's hard work for so many years.

As the saying went, practice made perfect.

Miss Alba had studied many Soulbound Weapons, so she had a lot of experience.

"Miss Alba, although I haven't been able to get a close look at it, based on my years of experience, there is no doubt that this is a peerless sword. Even if it is not a high-level Soulbound Weapon, it is also the best among mid-level Soulbound Weapons that is comparable to high-level Soulbound Weapons," Elmer said affirmatively

"Elmer, your vision is a bit narrow. Why did you think lower of it and not higher after I told you that you've made a misjudgment?"

"Think higher?"

Elmer did not understand what Alba meant for a while.

"Miss Alba, I was too foolish."

"Are there only mid-level and low-level Soulbound Weapons in this world? Alba asked meaningfully.

Chapter 1623

As soon as Alba said this, Elmer was instantly enlightened.

'Yes indeed!

'Since David's Evil-Splitting Sword looks so good, and Miss Alba said that I've misjudged by saying it's a high-level Soulbound Weapon.

"Why didn't I think higher?"

"What's better than a high-level Soulbound Weapon?"

Elmer was shocked at this moment

'Aren't first-rate Soulbound Weapons above high-level Soulbound Weapons?

'That's something only True Saints and above can possess.

'David is just a weak Ruler Ranker, so how did he get a first-rate Soulbound Weapon?

'Something's not right!

'David's master sounds fishy.

"Even if this person is a True Saint, he can't randomly give a first-rate Soulbound Weapon to his disciple. 'Could it be...'

Elmer did not dare to think about it anymore as this was likely to involve the secrets of Star Kingdom. Elmer was a mid-Sovereign Ranker, so he was not qualified to understand this at all.

Only by crossing Eternal Realm and stepping into Saint Realm could he learn some of the secrets surrounding Star Kingdom.

"Miss Alba, are you saying that David's sword is a first-rate Soulbound Weapon?" Elmer asked in disbelief. "I should be right. I have also studied high-level Soulbound Weapons, and they don't look like that. It has a sharp edge before it's even used. Once used, it's hard to imagine how powerful this sword will be. David can definitely leapfrog the battle with it," Alba confirmed.

"Then David's master..

Before Elmer finished speaking, he was interrupted by Alba.

"Careful! These things are not something that Eternals like us can ask."

"Yes, Miss Alba, I understand!"

Elmer let out a deep breath.

'How shocking.

"I didn't expect a young man to possess a first-rate Soulbound Weapon and also have a Sacred Saint behind him."

“Isn’t the woman with David here to sell raw nuclear magnetic ore? They should have a good relationship. I’ll increase the price for her later. We must build a good relationship with David and can’t be negligent in the slightest,” Alba instructed.

“Miss Alba, don’t worry, I’ll do it right away!” Elmer replied.

“Also, we mustn’t leak news of today’s incident. Since David was sent by his master to practice, he certainly doesn’t want to be in the spotlight. If we lure his master out, who can bear his anger?”

“I understand.”

David did not know that Alba and Elmer’s imagination had run wild after he took out his sword.

If he knew of this he would surely have burst into laughter.

He wanted to achieve this effect, and it was why he had created the idea of a mysterious master

He wanted others to think that he had someone powerful supporting him.

That way, other people would not cause trouble for him.

However, he did not expect such a good result.

David also understood that an external force was always an external force, and his lies would eventually be exposed one day.

However, most important thing now was to improve his strength.

Therefore, he attached great importance to this auction.

Marlee brought the inspector from Treasure Trove to the merchant ship to inspect all the raw nuclear magnetic ore.

Just as he was about to leave, Elmer came over

“Mr Whitlock,” the inspector said respectfully.

Elmer was in charge here.

Except for Miss Alba who just arrived, Elmer had the most authority here.

“How’s this batch of raw nuclear magnetic ore?” Elmer asked casually.

The quality is very good, so we can purchase them," the inspector replied truthfully.
