

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1635 –

Chapter 1635

“David, can you decide yourself? Or can you represent your master?” Alba asked seriously

“Of course! I’m his only disciple so no matter what I do, he will support me unconditionally,” David replied. “So you’re telling the truth, right? If I help you grow the trading company, you will help the Fellowes family change their situation, right? You will help the Fellowes family get out of their current predicament, right?” “Miss Fellowes, if a Sacred Saint can solve the troubles of your family just like you said, then yes. After all, there are only me and Master in my lineage, unlike other sects where there are a lot of people. I don’t have any seniors or grandmasters, so I can only get my master to come.”

Alba was speechless.

‘Does this kid not know the deterrent power of a Sacred Saint?’

‘How many Sacred Saints are there in the entire Star Kingdom?’

‘Including David’s master who is hiding in secret, there are not many

They are Star Kingdom’s strongest combat power

“Okay! Then we will make a deal, but I need to know how big you want your since company to be. It’s unrealistic to get to the level of the top five trading companies and I don’t have the ability to do so. Even if I do, there isn’t enough time.”

“I don’t have any requirements for this, so just do your best! I will provide you with funds and you just need to use your network and do your best.”

“How much money can you provide?”

“I’ll give you as much as you want! But I have to hide behind this trading company, so you and Marlee will be in charge on the surface.”

“Okay! But David, are you sure you can provide me with as much funds as I want?”

“Of course, I’m sure! Our sect has a long tradition and has accumulated countless wealth. In addition to training, spending money is also very important when I come out this time,” David said seriously.

Spending money was indeed the most important thing to him right now.

Everything else was unimportant compared to this.

“Understood! Then when do we start? Are you still going to participate in this auction?”

“I must participate in the auction! And I want to establish the trading company as quickly as possible.”

“That’s good! I’ll hand over the establishment of the trading company to other people. When we come back from the auction, I’ll start immediately. I promise you that I will surely satisfy you. I hope you won’t let me down, as this is my last chance,” Alba said solemnly.

“Miss Fellowes, don’t worry! I, David Lidell, am a man of my word and will never break my promise”

“I hope so!”.

The two discussed the next steps before David left contentedly.

Alba immediately ordered the establishment of a new trading company and handed it over to Elmer

Elmer was very puzzled Why does Miss Alba suddenly want to establish a new trading company?

However, he did not ask.

Elmer’s style was always to observe and do his job without asking too many questions.

After David left, Alba slowly calmed down.

In reality, if the Fellowes family wanted to break their current predicament, the best way was for one member of the Fellowes family to stand up and become a Sacred Saint.

This was the most effective and once-for-all method.

Otherwise, it would be very likely for them to fall into another predicament after getting out of one.

There were three grandmasters in the Fellowes family that were at True Saint Rank, but none of them could get to Sacred Saint.

To control her destiny, Alba could only bet on David.

Because there was not much time left for her.

Once that man came out, it would be time for Alba to get married.

She had to hurry up.

David's appearance was definitely a chance given to her by God.

If she did not seize it, Alba would never forgive herself.

Although she had only met David not long ago, he gave Alba a pretty good impression.

At least she did not feel disgusted by him.

Moreover, he also said that his sect had accumulated untold wealth.

Alba would slowly test how much this actually was.

If it was indeed a lot, he would not go after the Fellowes family's wealth.

This was mainly because that man's family's appetite has grown over the years.

If the Fellowes family did not think of a plan soon, it was very likely that they would lose Treasure Trove

Chapter 1636

This was the real tragedy of the Fellowes family.

Alba hoped David could keep his word and help the Fellowes family get out of their current predicament.

Even if David and his master led to more trouble, they could not ruin the Fellowes family so quickly, thus the Fellowes family would have time to react.

What Alba was most afraid of now was that Treasure Trove would still fall into the man's after he married him.

The Fellowes family would fall from grace after that.

By then, what would Alba become?

The Fellowes family who raised her would not want to see her.

She would also have no right to speak in her husband's house.

At that time, she, Alba Fellowes, might live a life worse than a maid's. Hence, she had to save herself.

After David left Alba contentedly, he started wandering the streets.

He was in an excellent mood now.

David planned to spend trillions of Star Dollars in the auction and tens of thousands of lavish points to upgrade from beginner Ruler Rank to peak Sovereign Ranker or partial Saint.

After returning, he would ask Alba to use her identity as Treasure Trove's third young mistress to quickly develop the newly established trading company.

After reaching a certain level, he could then break through Saint Realm and reach Pre-Saint

That was not all.

Being a Pre-Saint was far from enough.

At that time, he would need to slowly accumulate lavish points.

David made a rough calculation.

If he wanted to increase his strength to Sacred Saint Rank, he would require 10 million lavish points for his body and mind just to get from True Saint to Sacred Saint.

It would be 20 million lavish points in total.

Converted to Star Dollars, it would be 2 quadrillion Star Dollars.

Moreover, this amount did not include the previous points required to get to that point

He still had no idea about how to spend this much money

"What should I do?"

Time waits for no man!

The longer Celeste was in the ice cavern, the more it would affect her personality

He did not want to become a stranger whom she lost all feelings for after he resealed, please

This was not the result he wanted

As he was walking on the street, David realized that there was a lot of noise in front of him. The sound of an argument soon filled his ears.

“You can leave. My master has bought this place. From then on, this place belongs to my master, and you will have nothing to do with this place anymore.”

“You are talking nonsense! The Allen family has been running this tavern for hundreds of years, so how could we sell this place to you?”

“I’m talking nonsense? Look at this. It’s clearly written on this deed that the Allen family’s tavern has been sold to my master by Mosi Allen. It also has Mosi Allen’s autograph and fingerprint on it.”

“Impossible! Absolutely impossible! My father would not sell you the tavern.”

David listened to the conversation between the two.

There was a sudden flash of inspiration in my mind.

“Wait!

“Acquisition!”

He thought of a bold plan.

A plan that would allow him to spend quadrillions of Star Dollars at once.

Once this plan was successful.

He, David Lidell, would soon become a Sacred Saint and one of the top combat forces in Star Kingdom!

Chapter 1637

When he heard the words ‘acquisition’ and ‘deed’ in the argument on the street, a bold and crazy plan suddenly appeared in David’s mind.

If he accumulated it step by step, he would need more than ten million lavish points to become a Sacred Saint.

He would not know how long he would have to wait.

However, if this plan was successful, then it would no longer be a dream for him to spend quadrillions of Star Dollars, obtain tens of millions of lavish points, and reach Sacred Saint Rank.

It was just that it was still too early to do this now

Alba had to first make the trading company bigger, and this plan would only work after it had a certain amount of capital and strength.

Moreover, it would also require the cooperation of Alba and the entire Fellowes family.

It was easy to tell from Alba's words that things were not going too well for the Fellowes family.

Their wealth was in the top three in the entire Star Kingdom, but their strength was only in the top twenty. There was indeed a severe imbalance.

In addition, Alba fully believed that there was a Sacred Saint behind David.

This gave him a lot of maneuverability in the way he would implement his plan.

Didn't the Fellowes family want to break their current situation and get out of their current predicament?

They should just cooperate with David to complete the plan.

From now on, David would guarantee the stability of the Fellowes family.

David was a grateful man.

If the Fellowes family could help him with that plan and make him a Sacred Saint, he would not mind taking care of the Fellowes family from now on.

The Fellowes family would also not need to carefully maintain their status through marriage.

He would help them unconditionally.

David silently thought about the feasibility of this plan.

The key point was Alba.

During this period, Alba had to believe David fully so that she could go back and persuade the Fellowes family

The system had regulations, and each item had a price

The premium could not be counted as lavish points.

Therefore, it was a little difficult for David to obtain the corresponding lavish points if David wanted to spend quadrillions Star Dollars or even more

Even if his strength gradually improved and he tried his best it would be difficult period

David would be fine if he did not

He would not mind spending a little more time accumulating strength.

After all, safety was the most important factor!

However, the current situation did not allow him to procrastinate.

He had to rescue Celeste as soon as possible.

Otherwise, it would be too late once her character was affected by the icy air in the ice cavern.

Even if she was rescued at that time, she would no longer be the original Celeste.

In any case, David was not too relieved to leave Celia and the others in a sect like the Iridescent Sect.

Nova was a pretty good head.

However, she was not the decision-maker of the Iridescent Sect.

The reputable elders were the ones who had the final say.

After David rescued Celeste, he planned to take them away to another place.

He would have to get them all to Eternal Realm even if he had to use infinite resources.

A louder noise pulled David back from his thoughts.

He walked through the crowd and saw two groups of people arguing fiercely.

There were about a dozen people on one side who came to take over the tavern with a contract.

On the other side were the three members of the Allen family who wanted to desperately protect their tavern. There was a middle-aged woman and a brother and sister duo.

As things continued to develop, David also understood what was going on.

Chapter 1638

The dozen or so people who came to collect the tavern belonged to a nearby entertainment center called Black Water.

They had some authority over here.

They probably used some unknown method to get Mosi Allen, the father of the siblings and the husband of the middle-aged woman, to mortgage the tavern to them.

Now that the time was up, they still could not pay the money.

Therefore, they came straight to the tavern.

David had witnessed many similar instances in the past.

It often happened even on Earth, let alone in this place.

As for whether Mosi spent the money or was framed, perhaps only the active parties themselves knew. Until now, Mosi had not shown up.

It was estimated that he was also unwilling to face his family.

Emotions on both sides were rising.

The young man was standing at the entrance of the tavern with a long knife in his hand. If these people dared to enter, he would just go all out.

His sister and mother stood beside him, one on the left and one on the right.

This tavern was the lifeblood of their family.

Whoever dared to take away the tavern would be taking away their lives.

“Boy, it’s written in black and white on the contract. If you don’t pay up, you will have to use the tavern as mortgage. Your father Mosi’s signature and thumbprint are also here. You’d better get out of the way and don’t force us to use violence on you,” the man in the lead said viciously.

“I don’t believe you! You must have forged this contract! The tavern is the result of the hard work of several generations of our family. My father would never mortgage it to you!” The young man yelled angrily

“You don’t believe me? Then ask your father Mosi to confront us face to face and see if he signed and put his fingerprints himself. Black Water is a legitimate company.”

“No way in hell you’re legitimate! Who around here doesn’t know that Black Water scams people for a living? My father must have been set up by you, and he signed the contract as a last resort”

“Even if it’s a last resort, he signed it himself. Hurry up and get out of the way Don’t delay our work.

“You want to come in? Then you have to step over my dead body!” The young man was unmoved

His mother and sister beside him also said at the same time “Durs too!”

To be honest, the family of three knew it was true when the other party took out the contract

if it was false Black Water would not have approached them

Because doing so would violate would be severely punished

rules and regulations on the Croh al

and Thay

In addition, the siblings’ father had recently become obsessed with gambling.

Not only did he steal all the family savings, but he also owed a lot of debt.

Black Water should be the creditor.

However, the family did not expect their father to use the tavern as a mortgage.

This tavern was their home.

If it was taken away by Black Water, their savings would be gone and the three of them would be homeless.

Thus, they could not let these scoundrels from Black Water take the tavern away.

“Hehe... Are you sure you want to do this with me? Don’t you know what Black Water’s job is? Go, pull them away. If they dare to resist, just cripple them,” the man in the lead barked.

He did not have the patience to waste time here.

There were more and more onlookers gathering around.

Black Water’s reputation around here was not very good in the first place.

He also felt embarrassed to be criticized by all these people.

“Don’t you dare! If anyone dares to come close, I will kill them!” The young man roared.

At the same time, he raised the long knife in his hand into the air

“Why would we be scared of you? It’s written in black and white in the contract. We are only protecting our legal rights. Even if a law enforcer were here, we would not be afraid.”

Just when both sides were getting tense and were ready to strike, someone in the crowd shouted suddenly.

“They’re here! The law enforcers are here.”
