

I'm A Quadrillionaire

Chapter 1808

• • •

Chapter 1808

At first, she would respond politely.

After getting used to her identity, Selena stopped responding and would only nod.

After walking past the disciples of the Iridescent Sect, Selena heard the disciples behind her discussing among themselves before she could walk far.

“Have you heard? Anders, one of the Star Kingdom Six, came out of seclusion because he’s broken through to partial Saint Realm and broke the record of Arion, another one of the Six. He pushed the age forward by 50 years.”

“Of course, I have! This news has spread throughout Star Kingdom. Anders even invited the younger generation to attend his party. I’m sure someone from the iridescent Sect was invited too. Too bad we won’t have a chance. I really want to get to know the geniuses.”

“Forget it! We shouldn’t have any hopes for this. The people who can attend that kind of party are only geniuses of Star Kingdom. We’re only the most ordinary disciples in the sect, so I think only the seven high priestesses are qualified.”

“The Six are indeed worthy of their name. They are all so talented. After Anders, I wonder whether Domingo or Nithe will break through first.”

‘They are two to three hundred years younger than Anders. So, if they can break through in a hundred years, then they will have broken Anders’ record.’”

“I think the very rare golden age of Star Kingdom is coming soon. Not only do we have geniuses like the Six, but the head of the seven high priestesses of the sect this year, Lorraine, is also loved by the four reputable elders. They came out together to take her as their personal disciple, so I think she’ll be as good as the Six in the future.”

“I know, right? I heard that Lorraine is the disciple with the most potential in the history of the Iridescent Sect. She’s going to have a very promising future.”

‘The Central Sacred Continent is not peaceful lately either. The Lightfoot family issued a warrant to find a young man who was not even a thousand years old. I think his name is David Lidell. I’d like to know who he is and how he can escape the Lightfoot family’s pursuit.’”

“I know about this! I saw the warrant too! To be honest, David looks quite cool. I think he’s not someone ordinary. I heard he raised the price of a mid level Soulbound Weapon to 11 trillion Star Dollars just to p*ss off the first-in -line, Archimedes off. After a while, Archimedes dies and the Lightfoot family then starts looking for David.”

‘Where is the warrant? I want to see it!’”

“Me too!”

“Me too!”

The others chimed in.

“Alright, alright, I’ll send a copy to each of you. He’s pretty handsome, but too bad he offended the Lightfoot family so I don’t know if he can make it through this.”

As the disciples were walking and chatting, a voice said behind them.

“Ladies, can you send me a copy as well?” It was Selena.

She was not interested in the Star Kingdom Six or the golden age.

She only wanted to cultivate and get to Eternal Realm as soon as possible so that David would not see her age. If she had a chance, she wanted to fight alongside David.

In the end, she heard a name that she, Celia, and the other women yearned for day and night.

‘David!’

Even if she did not know whether this David was the David they were waiting for, Selena still chased after the disciples to ask them about this.

To be honest, she hoped they were not the same person.

It was because the man the disciples mentioned sounded like he was in a horrible situation.

He was being pursued by a big family and there was even a warrant for his capture.

Selena tried her best to suppress the anxiety in her heart, waiting for a response from the women.

“Selena! I’ll send you the warrant now,” one of them said quickly.

‘Thank you!’ Selena replied politely.

‘You’re welcome! It’s just a slight effort from my part so you don’t have to thank me.’

The two then exchanged contacts.

After that, the disciple sent the digital copy of the warrant to Selena.

Selena turned around and left immediately before she could even look at it.

She was worried that she would see what she was the most worried about. She did not want the disciples to see her reaction.

‘I’ll look at it when I get to Celia and the others’ place.’

Selena walked faster and faster.

In the end, she sped to her destination at the fastest speed possible. A lot of the disciples of the sect were looking at her while she was on her way.

• • •

