Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1640 -Elisa was affectionate to him.

In her words, she was not in a hurry to agree to his pursuit because she wanted to experience what it was like to be pursued and held in the palm of his hand.

Elisa smiled and said: "Mr. Reading may not necessarily fall in love with me. It was my mother's tossing around. If I don't cooperate, it's useless to my mother's tossing. Whom I love, I can still make the decision." Tang Andrew, Zachary's cousin, even though she and Andrew had never met, the other party must know that she was once infatuated with Zachary.

Although she had given up on Zachary and let go of her feelings for Zachary, could Andrew really not mind?

It's useless for the mother to toss like that, she won't cooperate, and Andrew won't jump in.

Elisa's words were like a reassurance, reassuring Remy.

Remy secretly rejoiced that he had targeted Elisa early on, deliberately approached her, preconceived it first, occupied a favorable position, and developed a relationship with Elisa.

Otherwise, if he started to act now, he might not be able to win Andrew.

Mrs. Stone would be here soon.

"Auntie."

Seeing Mrs. Stone coming in, Remy immediately got up to greet her, with a smile on her face.

Mrs. Stone used to think that Remy was gentle and polite. Every time she saw him, he always smiled. Now when she saw his smile, she thought he was a cunning fox and she never thought that he was a gentle and kind-hearted person.

Being able to be entrusted with a heavy responsibility by Young-Johnson to manage FC & Co.'s branch in Wiltspoon alone, and to make the branch bigger and bigger, so that the head office could continuously increase the investment here showed that Remy Of course it's a formidable one.

Of course, it couldn't be said that Remy was a bad person, it was just that he was not as kind-hearted as everyone imagined.

How many people who were mixed in the business world and who looked like human beings were not a little bit cruel?

“Mmm.”

Mrs. Stone didn't like to see Remy now, so she was still polite. When Remy said hello, she hummed lightly.

After she sat down, she said to Elisa who was just about to sit down: “Elisa, Mr. Reading will be here soon, you wait for him at the entrance of the hotel. He seldom steps into our hotel. I'm afraid he won't find us.”

“I'll meet Mr. Reading.” Remy wanted to go.

Mrs. Stone said indifferently: “Young Master Johnson, sit down. Mr. Reading is a guest I invited, and he should be received by Stone family. How can I trouble you, Remy?”

It meant that this was Stone family's business and Remy was an outsider, so he didn't have to interfere.

Elisa had no choice but to say: “Mom, I'll wait outside the hotel for Mr. Reading.”

The Reading family and the York family were related by marriage, and they usually went to Wiltspoon Hotel for consumption in hotels, and they would not go to the York family. Consumption in the hotel of business rivals.

Mrs. Stone used this as an excuse to ask Elisa to wait for Andrew.

Elisa blinked at Remy, then obediently went outside the hotel to wait for Andrew.

As soon as she left, Mrs. Stone said to Remy: “Young Master Johnson, you must know what our family means. It's useless if you insist on it. If I don't agree, then it's final and there is no change after that.” Why should you love only my daughter alone?”

“Whether it's Annenburg or Wiltspoon, there are still many good girls, as long as I take a look at them, I will find that they are not suitable for me.”

“Our Elisa was spoiled by me when she was a child. She is headstrong, unruly, and has a hot temper. I think she is not suitable for you.”

In order to make Remy give up, Mrs. Stone did not hesitate to mention the outside world's evaluation of Elisa.

Remy said with a good temper: “Auntie, no matter how much I say, you won't listen to me now. Let time prove whether I am suitable for Elisa or not.”

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1641 -Remy continued: "Even if Elisa is like what you said, I have a good temper and a strong tolerance, which is the most suitable for someone with Elisa's temperament."

Mrs. Stone was dumbfounded by Remy's words.

Remy was indeed a good-tempered man. He was also very tolerant.

"Auntie, apart from not being from Wiltspoon, what else dissatisfies you? I can change it."

Since Mrs. Stone said it outright, Remy also asked Mrs. Stone bluntly.

Mrs. Stone: "You are good at everything, you are very good. I admired you very much when you were not pursuing my daughter. I also said that I only have one daughter. I am reluctant to marry my daughter far away. You and my daughter have just started. Swinging a sword There is still time to break the relationship, and it will not cause such serious harm to each other."

Remy: "I have been working in Wiltspoon for a long time, and I live in Wiltspoon, and almost all my friends are in Wiltspoon. The newly bought house is still next door to yours. Auntie, I except that the registered permanent residence is not in Wiltspoon, it is no different from the people of Wiltspoon. For Elisa's sake, I can also transfer my registered permanent residence to Wiltspoon."

Mrs. Stone remained silent.

Elisa loved Zachary stubbornly back then, but her stubborn side was actually inherited from her mother.

Mrs. Stone was also very stubborn in certain matters. No matter how others persuade or say, she would stick to her own opinion, just like at this moment.

No matter how much Remy did and how much she promised, Mrs. Stone did not agree with her daughter marrying Remy.

"Ding!"

Remy received a new message from WhatsApp.

He took out his mobile phone and clicked on WhatsApp to read.

It was Elisa who sent it to him, asking if he had been made things difficult by her mother, if so, please ask him for her sake and not to hold grudges against her mother.

Remy's eyebrows and eyes were tender. He had long regarded Mrs. Stone as his mother-in-law, so how could he hold grudges against his future mother-in-law?

It's because he hadn't done enough, not good enough, and couldn't give the future mother-in-law a sense of security, so Mrs. Stone won't let go.

In short, he still needed to continue to work hard.

It's not easy to chase after a wife, and he would cherish Elisa even more if he embraced a beautiful woman in the future.

Remy replied to Elisa: "Auntie didn't make things difficult for me, so you don't have to worry."

After receiving Remy's reply, Elisa felt relieved when she thought that her mother was a bit strong but still reasonable.

She was waiting for Andrew at the entrance of the hotel. Fortunately, Andrew didn't keep her waiting and arrived soon.

As soon as Andrew came, he saw Elisa standing at the door.

He found a parking space first and parked the car.

Unexpectedly, when he got out of the car, Elisa was already standing in front of his car, looking at him with a smile, and said to him: "Mr. Reading, good evening."

Andrew's eyes flashed. He thought Elisa had changed a lot.

In the past, she was supercilious, except for his cousin Zachary, everyone else was worthless in Elisa's eyes.

Now she was generous and decent, with a gentle attitude.

The last time Andrew saw Elisa at the store, he felt that Elisa seemed to have changed, and was no longer as difficult to get along with as rumored outside.

Of course, Andrew didn't think the outside world's evaluation of Elisa was true.

Elisa's background was so good, she had the capital to be arrogant even if she was arrogant, too many people who were not as good as her envy and hate her.

It was estimated that many people in those comments were deliberately discrediting Elisa's reputation, but Elisa was a person who didn't care about her reputation. She did her own way and was very willful. Over time, her reputation in this circle would be damaged.

Andrew felt that Elisa was very beautiful now, which was different from the ostentatious beauty of the past.

Now he changed his mind about her.

"Good evening, Ms. Stone." Andrew responded to Elisa's greeting with a smile.

Andrew looked behind Elisa but Mrs. Stone was not seen.

It was Mrs. Stone who invited Andrew to eat here, and he thought Mrs. Stone would be there.

Mrs. Stone was too polite, he just stopped by and saw Mrs. Stone sitting on the ground, so he stopped to ask the reason, and sent Mrs. Stone home by the way. For him, it was a trivial matter.

But Mrs. Stone treated him like a savior, her excessive enthusiasm and gratitude put Andrew under great pressure.

Elisa also called him several times, saying that she would treat him to dinner and repay him.

He declined all of them.

Today was really invited by Mrs. Stone time and time again. In order to keep his ears quiet, Andrew thought he would have a meal just once, so that Mrs. Stone would feel that she had repaid him and would not bother him again, so he agreed.

"My mother is waiting for you in the private room." Elisa explained.

Andrew breathed a sigh of relief.

As long as he and Elisa were not asked to eat alone, it would be fine.

Although Andrew felt that Elisa had changed a lot now, but he didn't want to have dinner with Elisa alone, for fear of being photographed by people and causing scandals to become hot searches.

His identity was too sensitive in Wiltspoon.

The Reading family were all low-key, and Andrew didn't want to be the first Reading family to hit the trending searches.

"Mr. Reading, please." Elisa invited Andrew into the hotel.

Andrew nodded politely, and followed Elisa into the hotel.

The two soon came to the private room, Elisa pushed the door open and invited Andrew in.

As soon as Andrew entered, seeing Mrs. Stone and Remy, he completely relaxed his nerves.

"Auntie, Remy." Andrew greeted.

Remy stood up to greet him and asked him to sit down.

Mrs. Stone also greeted Andrew with a smile, and she was very warm to Andrew.

Andrew chose to sit next to Remy, and after he sat down, he smiled and said to Mrs. Stone, "Auntie, you are too polite. It is a matter of little effort for me."

"Mr. Reading, don't be so polite with auntie in the future. If you don't give auntie a chance to repay you, auntie won't be able to eat."

The Stone family and the York family were now considered relatives. Even with the Reading family, it's normal.

Mrs. Stone was looking at Andrew now, it was the mother-in-law looking at her son-in-law, and the more she watched, the more she liked him.

It's her precious daughter who didn't understand the good intentions of her mother.

"Auntie, I'm not here. I'm not being polite to you. I'm really busy." Andrew explained for himself.

Even if he deliberately declined, he couldn't admit it.

"No matter how busy you are, you still have to eat. This time, eat here. Next time, you go to our house to eat. I will cook some of my special dishes for you to try." She looked at Elisa again, and said to Andrew: "Elisa's soup is the most delicious, and I will let Elisa cook good soup for you to drink."

When Elisa used to pursue Zachary, she often prepared love breakfast for Zachary. She cooked love soup and practiced the good skill of making soup with one hand.

When Elisa pursued Zachary, she often gave soup, Andrew still knew about it.

Mrs. Stone maintained her smile and said, "You have never tasted the soup made by Elisa. You will like it after you have tasted it. It's settled like this. Next time, please invite you to come to our house to eat."

Andrew smiled: "If I have time, I must go."

Mrs. Stone then withdrew her troops in satisfaction.

She asked Elisa to order.

Elisa asked the waiter to bring the recipe, and she handed it to Andrew, "Mr. Reading, you order."

Andrew smiled and said: "This is your business's hotel, and Ms. Stone knows what is the best dish. Ms. Stone, come here, I am not a picky eater except that I don't like soup."

In fact, Andrew liked to drink soup, and people in Wiltspoon liked soup very much, and some people couldn't eat without soup.

Andrew just said that he didn't like soup, in case Mrs. Stone really asked Elisa to cook soup for him, that's all he could say now.

"Then I'll just order a few dishes at random." Elisa ordered her hotel's signature dish, and naturally also ordered a delicious soup.

During the meal, Mrs. Stone was very warm to Mr. Reading, and kept calling Mr. Reading to add some food. To Remy who was next to Mr. Reading, she never greeted him once, forming a stark contrast. Remy had a good temper and patience, and he knew that Mrs. Stone did this on purpose and wanted him to quit voluntarily.

After finally falling in love with Elisa, how could Remy withdraw voluntarily?

Not to mention that Andrew didn't seem to like Elisa, even if Andrew finally fell in love, Remy still had the confidence to defeat Andrew.

As long as Elisa's heart was on Remy, any difficulty could be overcome.

After the meal, Andrew excused that he still had important matters to deal with and wanted to leave.

"Elisa, send Mr. Reading off." Mrs. Stone ordered.

Andrew hurriedly said: "Remy and I hit it off right away, and we want to chat. Auntie, just ask Remy to take me out."

"Remy is also a guest." Mrs. Stone said a word, excluding Remy from the business within the range of people.

In fact, the current Remy was indeed not from her business.

As for the future, she hoped not to.

"Auntie, Elisa and I will take Mr. Reading out together." Remy used a compromise.

Mrs. Stone pursed her lips and stopped talking.

In the end, it was Remy and Elisa who sent Andrew out together.

A few minutes later, Andrew walked to his car, turned his head and said to the two people: "Remy, Ms. Stone, I'm leaving first, and we will have dinner together when we are free."

"Okay. Mr. Reading, go slowly." They waved goodbye to Andrew.

Andrew drove away quickly.

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1644 -After losing sight of his car, the two of them were about to go back to the hotel, but Mrs. Stone came out of the hotel.

"Auntie." Remy called Mrs. Stone.

Mrs. Stone nodded as a response to him, and then said to Elisa, "Elisa, go shopping with me at the night market. I haven't been to the night market for a long time."

Elisa looked at Remy.

Remy said tactfully: "Auntie, Elisa, I have something else to do, so I'm leaving first."

Elisa said apologetically and in a low voice: "Remy, don't take what my mother says or does, don't take it to heart."

Remy gave her a reassuring look. He was very generous and would not take all kinds of troubles from his future mother-in-law to heart.

Mrs. Stone walked towards her car, and Elisa had no choice but to follow her mother.

The mother and daughter were sitting in the same car, while Elisa's car was left in the parking lot of her hotel.

After getting in the car, Mrs. Stone poked her daughter's forehead with her hand, and said to her, "How many times has Mom told you to keep a distance from Remy? He's a cunning fox. You don't even know if you've been tricked to death by him. He's not suitable for you, so let's break it up while you two don't have a deep relationship."

Elisa called out displeasably: "Mom, I have liked two men since I grew up, but you didn't support me. I liked Zachary before, but you also said that Zachary is not suitable for me, and you said that he is our deadly enemy. Okay, Zachary and Serenity got married, I gave up my heart, finally got along well with Remy, and I was also relaxed with him. I don't care if he is cunning or not, I just know that he is sincere to me. Mom If you object any more, I will tell Remy that I agree to be his girlfriend and disclose my relationship with him!"

Elisa really felt aggrieved. She didn't think she had poor eyesight.

Both Zachary and Remy were excellent men.

But when she liked the former, she couldn't get the support of her family, and when she liked the latter, her family still opposed it.

"Mom, can you let me decide on my own affairs about my marriage? I don't like being led by the nose by you, and I don't like to walk the avenue you paved for me. I won't agree to marriage. Unless I marry a man I like."

Mrs. Stone stared at Elisa, and after a while, she said: "Remy is too cunning, he will steal your heart away without making a sound, and even deceived me."

When Remy came to visit, Mrs. Stone really did not expect that Remy was targeting her precious daughter.

She thought that Remy was using the identity of a neighbor to get closer.

The FC & Co. had business dealings with the York Corporation, and Remy and the Zachary brothers also had a good personal relationship. Because of Serenity, Elisa and Remy had also been in contact a lot. The two get along very well, and Mrs. Stone didn't think much about it .

It was because Remy and Elisa had been together for a long time, and Remy often came over for dinner, that Mrs. Stone realized that something was wrong.

She blamed herself for being too slow for not discovering Remy's ambition earlier.

If she had found out earlier, she would have definitely cut off Remy when it was just sprouting.

"Elisa, Mr. Reading is also a high-quality man. Don't hang yourself on a single tree, but choose from the whole forest, and choose the strongest, tallest and most lush tree." Mrs. Stone persuaded: "You have also met Mr. Reading. Is he very good? He is handsome, has a good family background, and is polite and courteous. He is not inferior to Remy. The most important thing is that he is from Wiltspoon. You With Mr. Reading, it will be convenient for you to go back to your family in the future. If you are bullied at your in-law's family, our family can help you to seek justice at any time. But the Reading family has always had a good family style, so you don't have to worry about your in-law's bullying you."

If the Reading family's style was not good, Tania Reading would not be able to marry into the York family and became the head wife.

It seemed that the old lady choosed her granddaughter-in-law very casually, but in fact, she valued character very much.
