Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1661 -The conversation between Liberty and Mrs. Lewis. Liberty didn't tell Duncan a word.

But Duncan still knew it from his mother.

Knowing that his mother actually asked Liberty to quit the rent and move out, and even wanted Liberty to leave Wiltspoon with Sonny, Duncan was so angry that he had a big fight with his mother.

Mrs. Lewis was angry, and Duncan was also angry.

In other words, the mother and son refused to let go of anyone else and refused to give up.

Liberty glanced at Duncan, and was busy with her again, saying: "It's not my problem, I won't sacrifice so much."

Duncan smiled, he liked Liberty like this.

Sonny, who entered the room with his mobile phone, called Serenity.

He knew that the first number in his mother's address book belonged to his aunt.

Serenity quickly answered the call.

"Sister, what's the matter?" Serenity thought it was Liberty who called her.

"Auntie, it's me, Sonny."

Hearing Sonny's voice, Serenity smiled and said, "It's Sonny, did Sonny call Auntie by himself?"

Sonny: "Yes, I took the phone from my mother and talked with you on the phone while hiding in the room."

Serenity: "Sonny, What do you want to say to your aunt?"

Sonny actually hid in the room to call her, and Serenity felt that her nephew was getting weirder and weirder.

Learning martial arts from the martial arts teacher also made Sonny a lot more courageous.

At a young age, he could speak well and was becoming more and more likable.

Sonny: "Auntie, Uncle Duncan is here again."

"Don't Uncle Duncan go every day?" As far as Serenity knew, Duncan went to see her sister every day.

Sonny replied: "He came every day, but my father told me that Uncle Duncan came to rob my mother. My father said that as long as Uncle Duncan comes, I will call him."

Hearing what his nephew said, Serenity scolded Hank in her heart.

As soon as Hank and Liberty divorced, he couldn't wait to marry Jessica as his wife.

Now Hank and Jessica were looking forward to the birth of their child with great joy. Her sister was being pursued, but Hank was bent on sabotaging her.

Hank Just allowed himself to remarry and not allowed her sister to remarry?

Regardless of whether Liberty wanted to remarry or not, Hank's teaching Sonny like this showed that he was small-minded.

A scmbag is a scmbag, and he couldn't change his true nature as a sc*mbag.

"Auntie, do you think I should call Dad?" Sonny asked Serenity.

The people Sonny trusted most are his mother and aunt Serenity. He dared not ask his mother such a question because his mother and father were separated.

He now understood what divorce was.

So he could only ask his aunt Serenity.

"Sonny, do you think Uncle Duncan is here to snatch your mother from you?" Serenity asked Sonny.

After thinking for a while, Sonny answered honestly: "Uncle Duncan told me last time that he came to join me and my mother. Uncle Duncan is not a bad person."

Serenity: "Since you think that Uncle Duncan is not here to snatch your mother, don't worry about what your dad said."

Sonny: "Why did dad say that?"

After Serenity was silent for a while, she said, "Your father is out of balance. You don't need to worry about him. As long as you and your mother don't hate Uncle Duncan, it's fine. Does Uncle Duncan treat you well?"

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1662 -“Okay, very good.”

Sonny’s heart was pure. Although he’s very young, he’s very clear in his heart who was sincerely kind to him, or fake.

It’s just that sometimes, because of age restrictions, he couldn’t express it in words.

The first thing Duncan paid attention to was the child Sonny. He also really liked Sonny, and he always wanted to hug him before.

At that time, Sonny was still a little younger, and he was also afraid of the scar on his face, so he didn’t want to hug him.

After getting acquainted with each other slowly, he could hug Sonny as he wished.

Because he liked Sonny, he paid attention to the mother and son. Gradually, he fell in love with Liberty.

“Uncle Duncan is so good to you and he likes you so much, how could he be willing to take away your mother? So, believe me, Uncle Duncan only love you with your mother, and he will not take away your mother.”

“Yes.” Sonny was relieved, and he said: “Auntie, then I won’t call Dad. Dad always says that Uncle Duncan is not good, that Uncle Duncan is a bad guy.”

Duncan was undoubtedly a good man, so Sonny didn’t understand why his father had claimed that he was a villain.

Duncan stayed with Sonny longer than his father.

His father was always with Aunt Jessica, and Aunt Jessica didn’t like him.

When his father wanted to accompany him, Auntie Jessica would say that her stomach hurts, and then father would leave him behind and take Auntie Jessica away quickly.

Duncan, his uncle was different. Uncle Duncan said that to accompany him was to accompany him. He promised to buy things for him, and he never broke his promise, unlike his father.

Serenity: “Sonny, as you grow up, you have to slowly learn to distinguish between good and bad. Although your father is your father, what he said and his evaluation of a person may not be true. His selfishness is to evaluate Uncle Duncan. You don’t have to worry about how bad your father says Uncle Duncan is, as long as you think Uncle Duncan is a good person and treats you and your mother well.”

Sonny said old-fashionedly: “Me too I told my father like this, I said Uncle Duncan is not a bad person, and my father still looks very angry.”

Serenity scolded Hank hundreds of times in her heart.

Fortunately, Sonny was a smart child, and Hank spent very little time with Sonny, so Sonny was not badly taught by Hank.

Sonny: “Auntie, I won’t call dad anymore. Auntie, it’s okay. You should be busy. I’ll hang up.”

After Sonny got the answer from his auntie, he quickly hung up the phone, then he climbed onto the bed and sat down. On the bed, he clicked on the browser, and then clicked on those videos to watch.

He was very proficient, and he could tell at a glance that he was a veteran of playing with mobile phones.

Seeing that Sonny hadn’t come out for a long time outside, Liberty immediately thought of her son’s ability to play with the mobile phone. She yelled: “Sonny, haven’t you finished calling yet? Return the mobile phone to mother after the call.”

Sonny didn’t respond.

Liberty got up and walked towards the room, pushed open the door, and saw Sonny crawling on the bed, turning on the small fan, watching the video, and laughing from time to time.

“Sonny!” Liberty strode in and grabbed the phone back.

Sonny sat up, looked up at his mother, his big eyes twinkled, and he said timidly: “Mom, I-I just played for a while, just now, I was really on the phone with my aunt.”

Putting the mobile phone back into her trouser pocket, Liberty hugged him out of bed and said to him: “From now on, you must talk on the phone with your aunt in front of your mother, and you can’t hide in the room anymore.”

Sonny played with the mobile phone without paying attention.

Sonny walked out and whispered: “My aunt and I also have something to say in a whisper, so mom can’t hear the whisper.”

Liberty didn’t know whether to laugh or cry.

Sonny was becoming more and more like a little adult.

“Mom, you used to play with your phone, why couldn’t I?” Sonny asked.

Liberty glared at Sonny, and Sonny immediately ran to Duncan’s side, hid beside Duncan, and hugged Duncan’s leg.

It was clear that he regarded Duncan as a backer.

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1663 -Sonny regarded Duncan as a backer, his act of trust amused Duncan, he grinned and let Liberty couldn’t laugh or cry.

“Uncle Duncan, Mom stared at me.”

Sonny would still sue.

Duncan hugged Sonny with a smile, and asked him: “Look for the reason, why does your mother stare at you? Uncle Duncan is so big standing here, your mother doesn’t stare at you, but stares at you little person, what is the reason?”

Liberty walked over.

Sonny looked at his mother and said honestly: “After I called my aunt, I played with my mobile phone, and mother snatched the mobile phone.”

Duncan: “That’s not your mobile phone, it’s you mother’s mobile phone.”

Sonny flashed Big eyes, dare not argue, because the phone was indeed mother’s.

“I said mom can play with the phone, why can’t Sonny? Mom just stared at me.” Sonny whispered more and more. He knew it was wrong to play with the phone.

Duncan said gently: “Sonny, you’re still young, playing with mobile phones all the time will hurt your eyes, You’re short-sighted. Mom is also doing it for your own good. and Your mother doesn’t usually play with mobile phones, she uses mobile phones to communicate with others.”

Sonny remained silent. After a long while, he asked, “Uncle Duncan, when can I play with my phone?”

Duncan: “Occasionally, you can play for ten minutes. Of course, it’s better not to play. You can read books and play with your building blocks. Uncle Duncan gave it to you.

You have assembled all your building blocks, right? Next time Uncle Duncan comes over, he will buy you some sets of building blocks.”

Sonny nodded, “Okay.”

He struggled to slide down from Duncan’s arms, walked around the table and returned to Liberty’s side, hugged Liberty’s leg, raised his handsome face, and said to Liberty: “Mom, I know I’m wrong. I won’t play with phone secretly anymore.”

Liberty knelt down and hugged her son, “Mom is not angry anymore, forgive Sonny.”

Sonny also hugged Liberty, “Mom, I like you so much.”

Liberty smiled, “Mom likes Sonny very much. Go and play, Mom still has to finish making these dumplings.”

Sonny let go of her mother and went to play with toys by himself.

Liberty stood up, looked at her son, and continued making her dumplings.

While helping her make dumplings, Duncan said, “Sonny was taught very well by you.”

“Children’s education must be started from an early age. Sonny is a happy child. There are so many people pampering him. If I don’t hurry up, he will be spoiled.”

Duncan said with a smile: “Sonny is likable and cute, everyone can’t help but want to spoil him when he sees him, but he made a mistake, and we all will correct it in time and educate him properly, don’t worry, we won’t spoil him.”

Liberty looked at him, smiled, and didn’t speak.

Now the people around him were all people with excellent family conditions, highly educated, and well-cultivated people. They did not spoil Sonny.

“Ring ring ring...”

Duncan’s cell phone rang.

He finished making a dumpling before taking out his mobile phone to answer the call.

“Duncan, where have you been?” Mrs. Lewis questioned from the phone.

Duncan frowned, “Is there something wrong?”

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1664 -“I asked where have you been? Mom is in your company, in your office, and you are not there during working hours, not in the company, where did you go? Don't tell me you went out to discuss business, your secretary is still here. Have you gone to find Liberty again? How many times has Mom told you, Liberty is not suitable for you, she is a divorced woman, and she has a three-year-old child, and She has still a son, you are willing to help her raise a son, and your mother is not willing to be a cheap grandma! Duncan, there are so many young and beautiful girls in Wiltspoon. Wouldn't it be better for you to pick any one than Liberty?” Mrs. Lewis was really mad at Duncan.

Duncan will not listen no matter what Mrs. Lewis says.

Her words became more and more ugly.

Duncan said in a deep voice: “You don't need to worry about my affairs. My life is up to me. I'm not my brothers.”

After finishing speaking, he directly hung up on his mother's phone.

Mrs. Lewis over there was half dead from anger.

She walked back and forth in Duncan's office, and the secretary watched her carefully, not daring to breathe.

After walking back and forth a few times, Mrs. Lewis went back to the sofa, rolled up her bag, and said to the secretary: “You are busy, I am leaving.”

The secretary respectfully said: “I will take you downstairs.”

Mrs. Lewis Walking out, she said: “No need.”

The secretary still escorted her to the elevator entrance, watched Mrs. Lewis enter the elevator, and the elevator door closed, before the secretary walked back, and then hurriedly sent a message to Duncan.

“Mr. Lewis, your mother may have gone to look for you.”

Mrs. Lewis was so angry that she clearly wouldn't give up. The secretary dared to say that Mrs. Lewis must have gone to Miss Liberty to find her.

The matter of Duncan's pursuit of Liberty was now known to the entire Lewis & Co..

Everyone was taken aback and couldn't believe it was true, but it happened to be true.

Some people knew that Liberty had lost weight successfully, and after losing weight, Liberty had become beautiful and had a good temperament. They think it was not surprising that Duncan always liked Liberty.

Although Liberty had been divorced and had a three-year-old son, she had the mature charm of a young woman, which added a bit of charm to her. Mr. Duncan often came into contact with Liberty, so it was normal for him to like Liberty.

After Duncan received the secretary's news, he calculated in his heart how long it would take for his mother to really find this place.

In order to prevent his mother from saying harsh words in front of Liberty, Duncan said to Liberty when his mother was about to arrive: "Liberty, I have something to do, so I'm leaving first."

Liberty knew it well. After she talked with Mrs. Lewis, rejected Mrs. Lewis's request, and was unwilling to leave Wiltspoon quietly with her son, as long as Duncan came to look for her, Mrs. Lewis's phone calls would be killed soon.

Sometimes, Mrs. Lewis herself would come here too.

Although, Mrs. Lewis was still polite to Liberty, she never insulted Liberty in front of her.

Liberty knew that when Duncan was on the phone with his mother, Mrs. Lewis said a lot of nasty things on the phone, and she could guess a little bit from Duncan's black face.

It just meant that she was a divorced woman with a three-year-old son who was not worthy of Duncan.

"Duncan, go get busy."

Liberty didn't send Duncan out.

After washing his hands, Duncan hugged Sonny before leaving reluctantly.

After he left, Liberty asked his son: "Sonny, can we live in a different place?"

For a high-end community where they couldn't enter the community without an access card and people in the community bring it with them.

She could afford a house like that now too.

In this way, without her guidance and access card, Duncan could no longer come to her home.

After all, she took the first step to escape.

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1665 -Sonny asked puzzledly: "Mom, why do we want to live in another place?"

He and his mother are here were lived for more than half a year and got used to it.

Liberty lied and said: "Sonny, you will go to kindergarten in September, and here is a bit far from the kindergarten that you attend, so we will move to a place close to the kindergarten, so that it will be convenient for me to send you to kindergarten."

How could a three-year-old have an opinion.

When Liberty said this, Sonny nodded.

So, Liberty called the agency, told the agency about her request for renting a house, and asked the agency to introduce her to a house, and she wanted to change the rented house.

If she wanted to buy a house, she shouldn't worry, just take her time, and she can still do so if she wants to.

Besides, her first priority now was to send her son to kindergarten first.

Sonny went to the best kindergarten in Wiltspoon, and the annual tuition fee was more than $100,000 to $200,000. When she got divorced, she got a sum of money from Hank.

She took out part of it and invested it in All You Can Eat. Although the business of All You Can Eat was good and she could make money, she also bought a car. After deducting the money for the car, the money earned by All You Can Eat had not yet returned to its capital.

After another month of hard work, She would be able to pay back her capital and make a profit.

Liberty wanted to wait for Sonny to go to school, and to determine where his son went to school, before thinking about buying a house.

It was best to be able to buy in the area between kindergarten and school, which was convenient.

Here, Liberty asked a real estate agency to help her find a house, while Duncan over there saw his mother get out of the car as soon as he walked out of the apartment building.

He was fortunate that he had calculated the time accurately and was able to successfully stop his mother from appearing in front of Liberty.

“Duncan.” Mrs. Lewis came over and pulled Duncan’s arm with her hand, “Let’s go, let’s go with you Mom.”

Duncan: “Where are we going?”

Mrs. Lewis said as she pulled her son along, “While I was coming here. I was talking with your aunt Felicia. She knows a girl who would be good. Now you have to meet her and go on a blind date.”

Duncan shook off his mother’s hand.

He stopped and said seriously: “Mom, how many times do you want me to tell you? My marriage is up to me, and I don’t need you and my father to intervene.”

Mrs. Lewis: “Duncan, let me tell you, I will not agree with you and Liberty. Look at how many things you have done, is Liberty moved? She is not moved, she does not like you! You are always pestering her, she is annoying Quite, if it wasn’t because of your friendship with Zachary, maybe Liberty wouldn’t even open the door for you, and would let wolf dogs bite you. I admit that Liberty is good, but she is not suitable for you.”

Duncan said in a deep voice, “I just like Liberty. It’s fine if she doesn’t accept me now. I’m willing to wait. As long as she doesn’t marry someone else, I won’t marry her. I will give up, one year, two years, or even ten years, I am willing to wait for her.”

Mrs. Lewis was angry.

“Ten years? You will be almost fifty years old in ten years!”

Duncan said nonchalantly, “I’m willing to wait until my hair turns gray.”

“You, you really want to piss me off!” Mrs. Lewis was so angry with her son that she was half dead.

“Duncan, even if you can successfully marry Liberty, I don’t like this daughter-in-law, and you won’t be happy after marriage. I will definitely find trouble with Liberty and create troubles for you and your wife. It’s a contradiction, a misunderstanding. Unless you can sever the mother-child relationship with me!”
