Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1806 -Donald was drunk, and Kevin had a good drinker, and he was enjoying himself.

Mrs. Queen scolded her husband, "Kevin is a generation younger than you, and he can be our son. You still call Kevin your younger brother. This is wrong, and the generation is messed up."

Kevin originally wanted to say that it didn't matter. But thinking that grandma May wanted him to marry Hayden, if he called brother to his future father-in-law, it would be a mess of generations.

He smiled and said nothing, and let Mrs. Queen scold her husband.

Donald laughed and said: "Kevin and I really didn't meet each other too late. Kevin, uncle regards you as a friend. We are friends who forget the year. When we are free, we come to eat and drink every day."

Kevin: "Okay, As long as Uncle Queen invites me, no matter how busy I am, I will turn off work and come over to drink with Uncle Queen."

Hayden's mouth twitched.

"Dad, Mr. York is very busy with work, unlike Dad who is now a shopkeeper." Hayden said to her father.

On the surface, Queen Enterprise was still managed by her father. In fact, her father had long been a shopkeeper, and Hayden took care of everything in the company.

Donald: "Your Dad is able to be the hands-off shopkeeper, that's because you are such an excellent son."

Donald praised his daughter to Kevin, "Kevin, uncle can retire at such a young age, and I don't have to worry about anything when I'm a hands-off shopkeeper. Queen Enterprise can also thrive, it's Hayden's ability, my son is ten sons of others."

"Hayden and Hugh are twins, and their ability is a bit weaker, but Hayden alone Worthy of other people's five sons."

The best thing that ever happened to Donald was that he and his wife had twins. Both kids were wonderful. Hugh, his son, was not as stable as Hayden he was only able to take care of himself.

If his daughter got married in the future and didn't want to manage the Queen Enterprise, Hugh could also take over the Queen Enterprise.

As a parent, the happiest thing was the success of his children.

Kevin said: "The Second Young Master Queen is also very good, Uncle Queen, you just wait to enjoy the blessings. In the future, Mr. Queen and the Second Young Master Queen will both get married and have children. Uncle and Auntie, You just need to care about your grandchildren."

After hearing what Kevin said, Donald's smile froze, and soon returned to normal.

"Dad, Mr. York just came here today. There should be many things waiting for him to deal with. I'll send Mr. York back first." Hayden interrupted the conversation between her father and Kevin.

If her parents hadn't asked her to send Kevin off, she would have left after dinner. Her father became the shopkeeper, and she and her younger brother had a heavy burden on her shoulders, especially she was actually the head of the family.

There were many things waiting for her to deal with.

But she didn't have so much time to listen to her father and Kevin chatting about family affairs.

Kevin was less than 30 years old, and he could chat so happily with uncle and aunt. Most of the parents were worried about the marriage of their children. Whose marriage did Kevin worry about? Worried about his own!

"That's right, Kevin, you are busy first, come here when you are free, let's have a few drinks, or I will go to you, can you play chess?"

Donald and his wife personally sent Kevin out of the main house. He also asked Kevin if he could play chess.

Kevin smiled and boasted: "Uncle, I know everything. I'm still very good at chess. If my older brother and I play chess, my older brother will lose. Uncle, if you like to play chess and are free, I'd like to play a few games with you."

Donald: "Okay, okay, you know everything? Then you like fishing, right? Uncle likes fishing very much, but your aunt won't let me go, saying that once I go, I won't come back all day, oh."

Mrs. Queen Quietly pinched her husband's thigh.

Donald was in pain, and then he didn't dare to speak.
