Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1821 -Serenity: "If you want me to make room for you, you go to Zachary, as long as Zachary tells me to make room for you, I will immediately give you the position of the eldest mistress of the York family."

Analia: "Miss Hunt, you are not worthy of Zachary."

Serenity: "Zachary is going to marry me. I am his wife, and the law says so. My husband and I are the only ones who know if you are worthy or not. And you're an outsider."

Those who aspire to be mistresses and want to meddle in other people's marriages, once they put their morality aside, it would be really shameless.

"Ms. Dawson, It's not your turn to say whether Zachary and I are compatible. I don't know who Ms. Dawson belongs to Zachary? Which onion or garlic? Zachary's grandma, his parents, never told me If that's the case, what right does Ms. Dawson have to say such a thing?"

Analia was speechless by Serenity's refutation, so she simply hung up the phone.

After she hung up the phone, Serenity scolded: "The family background is so good, and the conditions are so excellent in all aspects, but the brain is not clear, and the door is trapped, and she want to be a mistress!"

Analia made a comparison, and Serenity became more and more angry. She felt that her cousin was very rare, and Elisa was the real daughter of a famous family, excellent, and three views were upright.

"The typical mistress I know is Jessica, and she can't get out in the bureau now."
Serenity muttered, wondering what those women who wanted to be mistresses thought.

Wasn't it good to be aboveboard?

If you insist on being the shady mistress who has been scolded all your life, even the children born to them will be discriminated against by others once it is known that their child was born to the mistress.

After rubbing her pantothenic waist, Serenity went to wash up, changed her clothes, and went downstairs.

She got up late, Grandma May had already had breakfast, and she was watching a TV series in the lobby on the first floor.

Hearing the sound of footsteps, Grandma May turned her head to look, and saw that it was Serenity. She laughed first, and when Serenity approached, she smiled and asked, "Serenity, You're awake, are you hungry?"

"Hungry, wake up from hunger. Grandma, did you come over last night? I don't even know."

Serenity sat down next to Grandma May, and held her arm affectionately.

"I'm afraid you didn't know a lot of things last night."

Grandma May smiled ambiguously, "Let's go have breakfast first, it's a loving breakfast specially prepared by your man. Serenity, I'm very lucky, I am Zack's grandma, and I rarely have the opportunity to eat the breakfast he made. He also specially made you a pot of tonic soup."

Serenity said with a smile: "Grandma, if you want to eat, just say that Zachary rushed to cook breakfast for you; if you think it doesn't taste good, I can make something delicious for you."

Grandma May took her hand and said: "Your hands are soft and slender, with delicate skin and tender meat, grandma is reluctant to let you cook, so let him cook. Grandma has worked hard to train him to be able to live in the hall and enter the kitchen, so that you can enjoy yourself."

Serenity: "Grandma, did something happen to me last night? I only remember a little bit about what happened last night."

"It's okay; even if something happened, Zack took care of it. It won't do you much harm; at most, it will let your waist be just a little sore. It's fine; hurry up and have breakfast, and remember to drink that tonic soup."

Serenity: "..."

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1822 -Serenity suddenly understood the reason.

She must have been calculated by someone, and then her man became her antidote, no wonder she felt a little sore when she woke up today.

It was not easy for Serenity to discuss this topic with Grandma May, so she had to go to have breakfast first, and planned to ask Zachary about it when Zachary came back.

At the same time, the York Corporation.

The president's office welcomed a rare visitor, Andrew.

Just as Zachary put down his signature pen, he picked up the cup of coffee on the desk with one hand, and took out his mobile phone from his trouser pocket with the other, thinking of calling his beloved wife, Andrew knocked on the door and came in.

Seeing that it was Andrew, Zachary didn't call his beloved wife for the time being. He sipped his coffee and watched Andrew approaching.

"Brother." Andrew called Zachary, and sat down opposite Zachary.

"What do you want to drink?" Zachary asked his cousin.

"I don't feel thirsty. I'll pour water myself if I'm thirsty."

Zachary was not polite to Andrew, since he said he wasn't thirsty, Zachary really didn't even pour him a glass of warm water.

Zachary: "It's rare to come to me, do you want to ask for something?"

The Reading family kept a low profile, even though Andrew and others had close contacts with Zachary, but on the bright side, the Reading family rarely came to disturb Zachary's work, so Andrew came over suddenly, Zachary thought he was asking for something.

"It's not because of Elisa."

Zachary put down his coffee cup, looked straight at Andrew, and asked him: "Why, I haven't seen you for a while, and you actually fell in love with Elisa?"

Andrew quickly denied: "I didn't fall in love with her, it was Remy who fell in love with her. Mrs. Stone came to me and asked me to help her, let me pretend to like Elisa, and pursue Elisa, saying that this would make Remy quit in spite of difficulties. Remy likes Elisa and is willing to marry her daughter, she should be laughing. Elisa's reputation in Wiltspoon is not very good, and she has admired you a lot. No one would think about her."

Elisa was madly in love with Zachary, and even though she had let go of Zachary, no one in Wiltspoon would think about Elisa for fear of Elisa comparing them to Zachary. They couldn't compete with Zachary, and they didn't want to be compared to him.

"The Johnsons are the wealthiest family in Annenburg, and they are billionaires. Although Remy is not the family's head, his brother is the family's head. He runs FC & Co.'s business in Wiltspoon and makes a lot of money. It is more than sufficient.

Remy also owns several properties in Wiltspoon, and the house he bought later is next to the Stone's villa, and both of them are neighbors. I don't know what Mrs. Stone is worried about?

After seeing Brother Duncan's car accident, Mrs. Stone didn't dare to stop Elisa and Remy from being together as strongly as Mrs. Lewis, so she thought of something heresy and came to me again and again to match Elisa and me. Brother, I am so annoyed by Mrs. Stone.

I'm afraid, I really promised her and helped her, what if Elisa finally abandons Remy and falls in love with me? I married her? If I can't keep my heart and fall in love with Elisa, what should I do if she doesn't love me? Wouldn't I have to suffer a love injury that cannot be loved?"

Zachary: "...My aunt is still entangled in this matter."

Andrew said: "No, brother, she is my sister-in-law's aunt, and also values me as a son-in-law. Brother, can you go and persuade Mrs. Stone?"

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1823 -Andrew couldn't figure it out; the Stones were so persistent that they weren't afraid of really breaking up Elisa and Remy; would Elisa never marry again for the rest of his life?

That woman, Elisa was not the type to let her parents and family dictate her marriage.

Who in her family initially encouraged her to pursue Zachary? She was still adamant about not hitting the south wall and not looking back.

In other words, Elisa inherited her stubbornness from her family, who were all similarly obstinate and unwilling to yield.

Zachary also said rather helplessly: "I can't persuade my aunt, even your sister-in-law's persuasion has failed countless times, what do you think? Have you agreed to Mrs. Stone's help?"

Andrew said: "I haven't agreed yet, I'm not worried, I came to talk to you, brother. I'm just afraid...I'm afraid that I won't be able to control my heart, and I will fall in love with Elisa."

Elisa was very persistent in dealing with feelings. Zachary could see it.

Now she liked Remy, but her family didn't support her, she was still in a relationship with Remy, and wanted to get her family's approval through time.

Andrew was not too worried that Elisa would empathize with him, but he was afraid that if he couldn't control his heart and fell in love with Elisa, he would be the one who would be hurt in the end.

Did Mrs. Stone think he had good concentration?

He discovered that Elisa was not as bad as the rumors said, on the contrary, she was quite to his liking because of her willfulness.

Zachary was stunned. He looked at Andrew for a long time, laughed, and jokingly said: "Andrew, this is the first time I've seen you so unconfident, you're afraid to like Elisa."

Andrew's face was a little red, and he explained: "I don't like her now, I mean, if I agree to Mrs. Stone and help her, I'm afraid that after getting along for a long time, I will like Elisa."

Zachary suggested: "Elisa is very persistent in dealing with feelings. Don't enter into this muddy water. Elisa only has Remy in her eyes now. Go to Remy and tell Remy about this. This is Remy's business. It should give Remy a headache.

If my aunt still looks for you, you can recommend a gay man to her, don't recommend the kind who is only interested in men and has no feelings for women. Only such a person can help Mrs. Stone and get out of it."

The old man of the Ormond family in Annenburg once used this trick to deal with Yves, forcing out Yves's feelings for Iris, without knowing it. Really destroy Yves and Iris, because the other party was a real gay man who only liked men.

Andrew had a dark face, and said: "No one of my friends is gay, how can I recommend it? Besides, Mrs. Stone intends to pair me with Elisa and simply separate Elisa and Remy." After finishing speaking, he asked Zachary again: "Is there any man you know?"

Zachary hurriedly said: "I don't know each other either. Your brother and I are normal men. Your sister-in-law is interested, but the men and women outside are not interested. If it doesn't work, you can go to Julian for help. Julian is sick, so he won't like Elisa, but the price may be higher if you let him act. One point, after all, Julian's identity is there."

Julian's status could crush Remy, if Julian pretended to pursue Elisa, Remy would be under great pressure.

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1824 -With competition and pressure, you will cherish Elisa even more. I am testing you as a relative of Elisa's natal family. And for Remy...These days, it is too difficult to marry a girl!"

"Julian is sick?" Andrew seemed to have discovered a new world, and suddenly became interested, and asked Zachary: "Brother, what's wrong with Julian? Not good in that aspect? No wonder he is similar to Brother Duncan. At this age, he is still single. I thought he hasn't met someone he likes, so he is sick."

Julian had always been at the forefront of eating melons, he never imagined that one day, he had become the protagonist in other people's eating melons.

"It's not impossible, it means that there is a lack of affection, that is, he can become a real man only when he meets a girl who is destined for him. If he doesn't meet him, he is no different from a eunuch. I don't know if it is true or not. When dealing with Julian's urging marriage, he said it in front of our faces."

After Zachary finished speaking, Andrew let out a groan, his interest was not so high, and said: "It must be fake, he is already old, It's normal for Julian to urge marriage, but he doesn't want to get married, so he will definitely find a reason to refuse his parents' urging marriage.

But Julian has approached my grandma, didn't my grandma know a very powerful master, that master said I have a relationship with your sister-in-law. My grandma forced me to repay her favor and marry your sister-in-law. I don't know what the master said to Julian, but Julian really didn't urge me later. It's past Julian."

Andrew blinked, "Could it be that what Julian said is true? What kind of disease is that? I've never heard of it."

Zachary: "I'm not a doctor, so I don't understand these things. I'll just listen to what Julian said."

Andrew got up and poured himself a cup of warm water. After he drank half a cup of warm water to moisten his throat, he said: "Mrs. Stone dare not make ideas on Julian.

"I'd better find Julian by myself, what kind of luck am I getting involved, I have to spend a lot of money to invite Julian, help me get out of trouble."

Andrew felt that he was too innocent.

If Elisa didn't like Remy and Mrs. Stone wanted to match Andrew and Elisa, Andrew was willing to give himself a chance. After meeting Elisa a few times, he changed his mind about that girl and spent a long time with her. It's hard to guarantee that he won't fall in love.

But Elisa had her own heart, and Andrew didn't want to accept Mrs. Stone's matchmaking. Even though Elisa and Remy were not engaged or married yet, he could compete fairly with Remy, but he didn't want to.

His advantage was that he was a native of Wiltspoon. Even if he won and Elisa married him, would they really be happy?

He also couldn't accept that his wife had another man in her heart.

So staying out of the matter was better for him.

Zachary said to him: "This is the trouble with being single. If you fell in love earlier, got married, and had children, you wouldn't have such troubles. My uncle doesn't have to worry about your life. If you stay single like this again and go down, my uncle will definitely ask my grandma for help. You know who my grandma is; none of us brothers can find out the palm of my grandma, let alone you."

Andrew: "... How can I get married and have children if I didn't meet the right person at the right time?"

Zachary choked, unable to refute.

Andrew got up and said goodbye.

Zachary: "So anxious? Julian may not be at home, you can ask Josh before going to the Bucham's house, so as not to be in vain."

Andrew hummed when he thought of Julian's sudden appearance. He said: "I don't want to be in a hurry, but I'm really afraid of Mrs. Stone's matchmaking. When she plots people, she always hides it without a trace. She usually only reacts when she jumps into her pit. When she reacts, she wants to climb up. It's a bit difficult to get out of the hole she dug."

Zachary smiled: "Being able to be counted against by your aunt shows that you are very good. Everyone in Wiltspoon knows how much their family loves Elisa but their family still doesn't like it."

Andrew: "Brother, are you praising me, or are you gloating?"

Zachary: "Both."

Andrew turned black and said, "I'll go to Josh to ask, Because of Mrs. Stone's matchmaking, I can't work with peace of mind recently. I have to find Clive to make up for this loss. I have a project recently and I want to ask Clive to take over and earn some money from him. There is a good project."

Zachary: "Remember to call your brother, and I promise to invest heavily, cooperate, and win-win."

Andrew: "Does that matter?"

Andrew smiled, and continued to walk outside without stopping.

Zachary got up, but instead of sending Andrew out, he walked around the office, and finally swayed to the window, looking at the blue sky and white clouds outside the window, he took out his mobile phone and called Serenity.

Serenity quickly answered his call.

Zachary: "Honey, are you awake?"

Serenity smiled and said, "Not yet, I answered your call in my dream."

"Have you eaten yet?" Zachary laughed and asked her with concern, "You must drink that cup of soup to nourish your body."

Serenity: "Drink it. Husband, did I get tricked last night? I don't remember anything after drinking. I woke up today feeling sore back, and I was dreaming all night last night, dreaming that we were turning upside down."

Zachary's eyes were full of smiles, "I thought you had no impression at all. Wife, I-I acted as an antidote for you once, and you have to thank me well."

Serenity: "...you plotted against me!"

She hadn't scolded anyone for a long time, and she knew who it was... She was plotting against her, and she promised to beat him all over the place, and then treat him in the same way as others.

Zachary suppressed his smile and said, "I'll hand it over to Josh, who quickly found out that it was an old pervert who wanted to plot against a young subordinate, so he asked the waiter to deliver the glass of wine to his subordinate. In the end, you asked for those two glasses of wine on the way. What a coincidence, the glass of wine I drank was fine, and the glass of wine you drank was drugged."

Serenity: "... Is there any Beat up that old pervert?"

Even if she was unlucky enough to drink that glass of fortified wine, that old pervert should still be beaten up for being so scheming at the banquet.

"Wife, we are all gentlemen. A gentleman does not move his mouth, and there is no need to do it. I warned the old pervert and scared him enough. His subordinates knew the truth, so they slapped him on the spot and resigned, and his reputation in the circle has also been ruined."
