Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1836 -Sam: "Young Master, breakfast is ready."

Zachary didn't speak, but he was walking towards the dining room. When he entered dining room, he saw that the breakfast prepared for him by the kitchen was his usual favorite, but there was something missing on the dining table. Being alone made him very uncomfortable and had no appetite.

After sitting down, he didn't want to eat without taking two bites.

He got up and went straight outside.

Sam glanced at the dining table, then followed Zachary, and asked with concern as he walked: "Master, is it because you have a bad appetite, or they don't cook well?"

Zachary: "My wife is not at home."

Sam: "..."

Sam: "Young master, where are you going?"

Zachary didn't answer.

A few minutes later, he drove out alone without letting the bodyguards follow him, but Sam still let Jim and another bodyguard drive the car and follow secretly.

Jim was driving, and he followed Zachary's car unhurriedly while driving, and said to the colleague in the passenger seat: "Recently, let's be a little nervous, don't make mistakes, and don't be in the big car when you are fine. Shaking in front of the young master."

The colleague said: "Anyone who wants to shake in front of the young master is looking for death. When the young mistress is at home, so we don't have to worry about it. The sky falls, and the young mistress can support it with one hand. Now the young mistress is not at home. I can't wait to be invisible and hide far away."

"The young master is used to being accompanied by the young mistress, and the old lady took the young mistress on a long trip without saying hello. The young master has nowhere to vent his anger."

"I don't know where the young master is going."

Jim Said: "Young master must have complained to Ms. Liberty."

Colleague: "..."

Zachary didn't go to complain, but he did go to All You Can Eat.

Liberty happened to be serving food at the time. When Liberty saw her brother-in-law approaching, she and asked, "Why are you free?"

"Sister, I don't go to work today, Saturday. I came and see if sister needs help here."

Liberty: "It's six, time flies so fast. I don't need any help here."

Liberty seldom cooked breakfast for the guests herself, leaving it to the two small shareholders.

There were not many customers in the store, after all, it was past the time for breakfast.

Zachary sat down in front of a clean table, and said after sitting down: "Sister, please bring me a bowl of soup and noodles, I haven't had breakfast yet, I'm very hungry."

"Okay."

Liberty immediately went to prepare it for him, and didn't ask him why he didn't eat it until now.

After Liberty cooked a bowl of noodles for him, Zachary took a bite and put down his chopsticks.

Liberty: "It's not delicious?"

Zachary: "Sister, I can't eat, I miss Seren so much."

He didn't complain; he sold himself miserably and let Liberty witness that his wife was not at home and he didn't like anything to eat.

Serenity took Sonny to go out. After all, Sonny was only three years old, and he was still very clingy to his mother. Hee would contact Liberty sooner or later. As long as Zachary let Liberty know that he couldn't eat, when Serenity called back, Liberty would rush Serenity back for him.

After that heartless girl, Serenity came back, he would "teach" her well so that she couldn't get out of bed for three days!

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1837 -Zachary said this several times.

There was no other way but to comfort her brother-in-law like this.

When her younger sister went on a long trip, her brother-in-law looked like he couldn't make it through, which made Liberty a little bit dumbfounded, but she also knew that the couple had such a good relationship, and Zachary was used to having a wife to accompany him.

The young couple have a good relationship, and Liberty would only be happy for her younger sister.

"Why don't you sister change it for you?" Liberty thought about whether to cook a bowl of wonton for her brother-in-law.

Zachary shook his head and said: "No need, it's not that my sister's cooking is not delicious, it's that I have no appetite. When I think of Serenity ruthlessly abandoning me and going on a trip with grandma, she doesn't even let me know that her mobile phone has a new number, I feel very uncomfortable. Sister, do you think I have dark circles? I can't sleep well either."

Liberty: "..."

"Sister, tell me, did I do something wrong?" Zachary always felt that he had done something wrong to be punished by his grandma.

Otherwise, grandma wouldn't have persuaded Serenity to run around with her.

Grandma knew very well that he had a strong desire to monopolize Serenity, and she wished she could stick to Serenity's side twenty-four hours a day.

"I saw it, but I didn't realize that you were wrong. If I couldn't see it, I don't know."

Zachary sighed, "My grandma is like this. She shoots suddenly and likes to kill people. She is caught off guard and can't figure it out."

Where was he wrong?

Liberty said: "Maybe Grandma just wants to go out and have fun and let Serenity accompany her. Zachary, don't think too much."

Zachary didn't speak.

Liberty didn't understand Grandma May.

Zachary was brought up by his grandma, Grandma and grandson had the best relationship, and Liberty knew best what kind of person grandma was.

Grandma must be messing with him.

Now, Zachary only hoped that when his wife was playing crazy with grandma, she would still remember him as her husband.

“Ring ring ring...”

Liberty’s cell phone rang suddenly.

She took out her mobile phone and saw that it was an unfamiliar mobile phone number, and immediately said to Zachary: “Zachary, it may be that Serenity called me, it is an unfamiliar mobile phone number.”

Zachary: “Sister, answer the phone quickly and see if it’s Serenity.”

Liberty hummed, and she answered the phone.

“Mom.” Sonny’s immature voice came over.

Liberty laughed immediately, “Sonny, do you miss mom? Why are you calling mom now? Mom misses you.”

“Call Mom.” Sonny said this with a guilty conscience. He forgot to call his mother because he had too much fun, and now he remembered, so he quickly borrowed the third uncle’s mobile phone and called his mother.

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1838 -“Are you at your third uncle’s place now?” Liberty knew that the third uncle in his son’s mouth was Kevin.

Sonny hummed, “Now I’m here with third uncle, and I’m going to fly soon. I don’t know where to go. Grandma and auntie have the final say.”

Sonny ate, drank and played with his aunt and grandma.

Liberty asked him again: “Are you using your aunt’s new mobile phone to call mother?”

Sonny: “No, it’s third uncle’s, and my aunt’s mobile phone is charging.”

Liberty said, “Where is your aunt? Let you Auntie, listen to the phone.”

Sonny: “I’ll go find my auntie, Mom, wait for a while.”

Sonny went to find Serenity while talking, and Kevin followed him, for fear that he would run too fast and fall down.

“Auntie, Mom wants to talk to you.” Sonny found Serenity, and immediately handed the phone to Serenity.

Serenity answered the phone and called her sister.

“Serenity, you use your newly bought mobile phone to send messages or make calls to Zachary, and you are the same. You don’t tell Zachary in advance when you go on a trip. You are not at home. He seems to have lost his soul. On the big weekend, he’s not in the mood to play, he can’t eat, can’t sleep well, and have dark circles under his eyes. He’s here with your sister, and I cooked noodles for him, but he can’t eat, and he says he misses you.”

Liberty first said something to her sister, then walked away a few steps, distanced herself from Zachary, and asked her sister in a low voice: “Serenity, you and Zachary have no conflicts, right? Zachary is always guessing. Did you do something wrong? Grandma vented her anger for you, just treat him like this.”

Serenity heard that her husband couldn’t eat or sleep well, so she first asked with concern: “Is it true that Zachary can’t eat? It’s not the first time for me to travel far, and I often travel on business.”

Liberty” “You usually go on business trips every now and then. Within a few days, he can talk to you, send messages, and make videos. This time, if you didn’t tell him, he would be upset. He still doesn’t know your return date, and even if you change your mobile phone and go out, he will feel uncomfortable. It’s true that he has no appetite, and he can’t eat the noodles his sister made for him. There are also dark circles under his eyes, and it’s because he didn’t sleep well. He still looks like a resentful husband, and you know that he has such a temper and I don’t know how to tell him in advance.”

Serenity said: “He complained in front of grandma that I was only focused on making money and ignored him, so grandma took me out, let me really ignore him once, let me try to ignore him. The real taste of this, so as not to always complain about me in the future. I have never complained that he is busy with work and has no time to accompany me. When I am busy, he complains about me, always like a resentful husband.”

Thinking of her husband’s resentful face, Serenity couldn’t help laughing.

“For a man falling in love for the first time, it is like that. Zachary is a domineering and self-centered man. For you, he has undergone a lot of change, and you simply leave him alone for two days. To avoid getting hurt, don’t forget to get in touch with him. He does not feel like going to work today.”

Serenity: "Sister, I got it."

"Zachary wants to talk to you now." After Liberty finished speaking, she walked back to Zachary, handed the phone to Zachary, and said to Zachary: "Sonny used Kevin's cell phone and called, Serenity and the others are now at Kevin's place,

Zachary: "where is Kevin?"

Liberty: "He is in Jensburg now."

Zachary knew the whereabouts of his beloved wife, and planned to fly to Jensburg later, but who knew Liberty added a sentence: "Sonny said that they will leave Jensburg soon."

Zachary immediately took the mobile phone from Liberty.

Liberty walked away knowingly, and let the young couple chat with each other on the phone.

"Seren, you are so cruel, you don't tell me when you go on a trip, so that I can arrange the company's affairs in advance and go out with you to play."

Zachary complained on the phone that Serenity left him and ran away.

"Grandma brought me up temporarily, so we went on a casual trip. Thinking that you've been so busy recently, it's not easy to take up your working time, so I didn't tell you."

Zachary muttered something in a low voice, and called Serenity over there couldn't hear what he said clearly.

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1839 -"Husband, sister said you don't eat, right? If you have a stomach, I won't help you take care of your stomach." Serenity threatened him, "When I'm not at home, you should eat well, drink well, and sleep well."

Zachary said bitterly: "Seren, you abandoned me and threatened me, you are so cruel."

"Yes, yes, I am cruel, who told you to always complain I ignore you, now let you taste the real feeling of being ignored. I'm going to go out, I won't chat with you anymore, you honestly finish the bowl of noodles my sister cooked for you, and then, honestly work, When I go home, I will definitely go back before September 1st, Sonny has to go to school."

After finishing speaking, Serenity whispered: "Husband, I love you so much."

After Zachary could hear it clearly, Serenity hung up the phone and returned the phone to Kevin.

"Sonny, let's go." Serenity greeted his nephew.

Sonny immediately carried his small schoolbag on his back, trotted over, and responded as he ran: "Auntie, I'm ready."

Kevin put the phone back into his trouser pocket, then hugged Sonny, smiling: "Third Uncle will take you to the airport to take the plane."

He said to Serenity again: "Sister-in-law, you and grandma just arrived yesterday, and you haven't had a good time in Jensburg yet, and you have to leave again."

Serenity: "Grandma is getting old, can you bear this torment?"

The old lady took the words: "Grandma has to keep tossing to keep her healthy. If she sits and eats at home every day, she will not be in good health because of lack of exercise. Don't worry, grandma will definitely have to toss until she can hold her great-grandson."

Serenity knew the physical condition of her elderly person best.

While she could toss and play, she really couldn't walk in the future, and she had no chance to play if she wanted to.

Kevin: "Grandma, I feel sorry for you. It's the same if you stay for a few more days before going to other places to play."

Of course, Kevin knew that grandma was in good health, and they always paid attention to grandma's body, if she felt a little uncomfortable, They hurriedly took grandma to see a doctor, so as not to let a minor illness become a serious one.

Grandma May: "Don't worry, your sister-in-law and I will return to Jensburg in a few days. At that time, you can help me make an appointment with Hayden, and say that I invite her to dinner."

Kevin's black eyes flickered a few times, and he smiled: "Hayden always says that Grandma is a distinguished guest, and she will take care of you."

Grandma May: "It's fine, anyway, grandma just wants to have dinner with her. Grandma's treats are fine, and she can also treat guests."

Grandma was quite blunt.

Hayden was her future granddaughter-in-law, so her character was naturally good.

Grandma May: "By the way, have you bought your house yet?"

Kevin: "I bought it. With the help of a geomancy master arranged by my grandma, I bought that villa with a little less money, which is closer to Hayden's house."

Grandma May chuckled, "That's fine. You get the moon first if you are close to the water, and it depends on when you can get the moon."

The corners of Kevin's mouth twitched.

He still couldn't help complaining to his grandma: "Grandma, every time I see her, I feel that I'm mentally abnormal, which makes me want to see a psychiatrist. Moreover, she has been disguised for more than 20 years, and she has no flaw."

He didn't even know what to say to Hayden.

When others chased their wives, they could send flowers and various gifts to make the girls happy. But he couldn't give girls the luxuries that girls like, because Hayden didn't use those things, so she probably didn't like them either.

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1840 -It's not impossible to give a man a gift that he liked, but it's just that he gave gifts to Hayden from time to time, which was easy to cause misunderstandings. At that time, the entertainment reporters in Jensburg would definitely become suspicious and think that he was gay.

Kevin felt that sooner or later he would be labeled as a homos*xual.

"Grandma."

Kevin put down Sonny and let Sonny go with Serenity, and then he asked grandma in a low voice: "Grandma, how did you find out that she is a woman? Is there any evidence?"

"Don't worry about how I find out. I have evidence, but I can't tell you; you have to figure out a way."

If Kevin wanted to trick Grandma, there was no way.

Kevin: "Grandma, I'm your grandson. If you think about your grandson like this, why don't you just be a good person and do it to the end? Grandma, look, I'm ready to do what you ask. As long as you tell me, I dare to say New Year's Eve and I can bring my fiancée back to pay New Year's greetings to you."

"It's too easy to get and I don't know how to cherish it."

The old lady refused to tell Kevin how she found out that Hayden was a woman.

Kevin deliberately delayed his action for half a year. It was because his second brother was engaged to Camryn, and he was nagged by his parents, and they nagged him a lot. He got annoyed, so he ran to Jensburg to seek refuge on the pretext of a business trip.

He decided to act, otherwise he wouldn't have come to Jensburg.

Kevin: "...I think it's the easiest for the eldest brother to get it and he doesn't have to do anything, and he can get the certificate with my sister-in-law directly."

Grandma still loved elder brother the most.

They had to chase their wives by themselves, and the elder brother didn't need to chase his wife, he just got a marriage certificate.

Grandma squinted at him, "When I asked you in the group, who would be willing to repay grandma's favor?"

Kevin suddenly had nothing to say.

"Your elder brother and Serenity were not so sweet at the beginning. They have experienced ups and downs along the way. Because you have gone through storms together, your brother and sister-in-law have a good relationship. As long as your sister-in-law travels far away, your elder brother will be happy."

Kevin hurriedly said: "Grandma, I understand, I won't take shortcuts, and I won't complain that grandma favors big brother."

Grandma snorted twice.

"Grandma didn't just put a woman on your bed, it's already giving you a lot of face."

Kevin: "...Yes, yes, thank you grandma for your generosity. Are you always short of money? I'll give you some money, grandma and my sister-in-law can play with peace of mind, have fun, eat well and live well. If there is anything interesting and delicious, bring me some when you come back."

The old lady said bluntly: "You want to be filial to grandma, grandma will always give you a chance to be filial, you know grandma's account number."

Kevin: "Grandma, after I send you to the airport and come back, I will transfer the money to you."

After leaving the hotel, Kevin's car has already parked at the hotel entrance. He helped grandma and sister-in-law put their things in the car, and then helped grandma into the car. Grandma didn't need Kevin's help.

After a little help, Kevin picked up Sonny and kissed Sonny on the face.

Sonny said: "Third Uncle, I have no time to think about you when I'm having fun, so don't be angry."

When he was having fun, he didn't even think about his mother, how could he miss third uncle.

Kevin: "..."
