Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1876 -Everyone knew her as Audrey Stone, ignoring her surname, like her boudoir name, Audrey Farrell, which even Old Mrs. Johnson didn't know.

Audrey might have something to do with the Farrell family in Jensburg.

Audrey was so powerful when she was young. Those who grew up in an orphanage could rely on their excellence to marry into a wealthy family and she became the head mistress of Stone family. Her excellence might be inherited from the family blood.

The women of the Farrell family, especially the eldest daughter, were very powerful.

Due to the nature of the old Mrs. York's previous work, when she was interested in the Farrell family, she also found out some of the past of the Farrell family.

For example, the current head of the family took the position of head of the family only after killing the elder sister and younger sister.

The eldest sister of the head of the Farrell family was much older than her, at least twenty years older than her. Her mother gave birth to her in her forties, and her younger sister was born a year later.

Therefore, there was a big age gap between her and her elder sister.

The eldest sister of the Farrell Patriarch was a workaholic. She married late and had children late. After the current Farrell Patriarch became an adult, her elder sister got married and had a daughter. She gave birth to two daughters in a row. They may be older daughters. Her elder sister's health gradually deteriorated, and the matter was handed over to her younger sister to take care of it.

After tasting the sweetness of power, the current head of the Farrell family became ambitious and wanted to replace her eldest sister as the head of the Farrell family, so she secretly planned and plotted to kill the eldest sister's family and successfully picked herself out to marry her. Disaster for the younger sister.

When the eldest sister died, her two nieces were only a few years old. Afterwards, the two daughters of the previous head of the Farrell family disappeared in Jensburg.

Decades had passed, and no one had paid attention to whether the two daughters of the former head of the Farrell family were alive or dead. Many people even dared not mention the matter of the head of the Farrell family for fear of causing death.

The current head of the Farrell family was 70 years old. After she won the position of head of the family, she also married and had children late like her sister. The ones she gave birth to before were all sons. There was an heir, the head of the Farrell family only got a daughter at the age of 42 after giving birth to four sons in a row.

She didn't know if it was because she was too ruthless and the housekeeper secretly hated her or because the housekeeper was too ambitious. When the head of the Farrell family gave birth to a daughter, the housekeeper's wife also gave birth to a daughter. The baby had switched.

If the housekeeper could change the package, it must have been planned and arranged long ago. Otherwise, it would be difficult for him to transfer packages successfully.

The head of the Farrell family found out a year ago that the daughter she had loved for more than 20 years was actually the housekeeper's daughter, and that her own daughter had been raised by the housekeeper's parents. Even though she lived in a different place, Kathryn Farrell, the real daughter of the Farrell family, was still a good person. Kathryn was several times better than Shiloh, the fake daughter who grew up in the Farrell family.

At the beginning, they didn't know about the true and false daughters, and the people in Jensburg were discussing in private. The Farrell family was afraid that they would lose, because the next successor was too incompetent, petty, self-willed and savage, embarrassing.

Old people who knew the history of the current head of the Farrell family said that this was retribution.

Who knew, there would be real and fake daughters.

The real daughter of the Farrell family, Kathryn, was found back, which really shocked the jaws of the crowd.

It also made Jensburg people sigh that the eldest daughter (or only daughter) of the Farrell family was always very powerful.

Kathryn had only returned to the Farrell family for a year, and she had already secretly controlled half of the Farrell family's business, and she managed to win it bit by bit under the circumstances of her mother's reluctance.

In the eyes of outsiders, Kathryn looked like a steamed stuffed bun. Didn't Hugh regard her as a steamed stuffed bun?
