

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 1879

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1879 -After knowing Serenity's identity, Dr. Carden said to Serenity: "When you go back, tell Second Young master York that when I reach forty days, I will help his fiancée's eyes."

Serenity smiled and said: "Dr. Carden, I will definitely bring you, and Callum has been looking forward to you for a long time."

Tim, who was holding his son beside him, had a dark face.

Tim pretended to be casual while coaxing his son, as Lilian squinted at him.

The old genius doctor whispered to Titus: "Boy, you will inherit your master's toughness from now on, don't learn from your fourth uncle's fear of his wife."

Titus was referred to as Jane's son. He used to call Tim his fourth uncle. After his master became the fourth aunt, he couldn't change his mouth. Lilian told Titus not to change his mouth, and he could call him whatever he wanted. If his fourth uncle dared to disagree with him, he could tell his master.

The master would settle up with his fourth uncle, and his master could teach him how to be polite.

For this reason, Tim complained that his wife was not with him, but with other men.

As expected of a man from a jealous family, he always liked to be jealous.

Tim defended himself in a low voice: "Old master, I'm not afraid of my wife, I just love my wife, she has worked hard for me to raise children."

The little baby in his arms pursed his mouth again.

Tim hurriedly coaxed him again, but the little baby still started crying.

He walked up and down the room holding his crying son, and finally handed his son to the old genius doctor to hold him, and the boy stopped crying.

The old genius doctor complained about Tim again: "Look at you, you can't even hold a baby, and he cries because he feels uncomfortable in your arms, and you always blame my grandson for crying. You're thinking wildly again, suspecting that he's abnormal."

"No, Avah doesn't like to cry, she's so cute." Tim said instinctively.

Both the couple were looking forward to having a baby as obedient as Avah. After their baby was born, they didn't cry much on the day of birth. They sleep when they were full, and cry when they were full. Tim's nephew, Enzo, was very good. Unexpectedly, he gradually fell in love with crying.

Neither of the couple could have imagined that in the days to come, in order not to bring their crying son with them, one would seek medical treatment everywhere after confinement, making it look like he was busy with work, and the other would try to hide in the company if he could.

The old genius doctor became the savior of the couple. As soon as he came back, the couple would be the shopkeepers, and the old genius doctor complained that they were the most irresponsible parents.

The old genius doctor said: "Avah is a girl, delicate and quiet. Who told you that you can't have a daughter? Don't dislike my precious grandson? You want a delicate and quiet baby, try to have a second child, see if you can give birth to a daughter, and I can bring it up for you."

The old doctor was a genius, but he never got married, and he treated Lilian like his daughter. Lilian's children were all his grandchildren. He wanted a granddaughter because he already had a grandson. The little girl was white, soft, and so cute.

When his grandchildren grew up, he would teach them medicine and martial arts so that the old immortals would be jealous of him and hate him, which would make his school grow over time.

By the way, there was also Titus, he couldn't ignore this kid.

Jane and Serenity talked with Lilian, until Serenity received a call from Grandma May, telling her that Sonny woke up, and when she woke up, she cried and clamored to find her aunt.

Serenity: "Grandma, I'll be back soon."

grandma May: "Well, you'll be back earlier, Sonny is crying."

Sonny was usually very obedient, but now he was crying, probably because he was in an unfamiliar environment.

"Lilian, Serenity and I will go back first. You should have a good rest. Tell your family what you want to eat, and someone will bring it to you." Jane said to Lilian, and then greeted Titus: "Titus, come with me, don't bother your master to rest here, there is a new friend at home, about your age."

Titus walked up to Jane and put out his hands to her. After Jane gave him a hug, he said goodbye to the master. After saying, she asked Jane curiously: "Mom, who is my new friend?"

“Little distinguished guest of the family, you are the little master, you must show the demeanor of the master’s house and treat the little distinguished guest well.”

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-