Married at First Sight Chapter 1939—“If our Mr. Queen is a woman, standing with Mr. York, it is really a match made in heaven. Even if they are both men and men, standing together, it will give people a feeling that they are husband and wife.”

“No wonder Mr. York fell in love with Mr. Queen after meeting Mr. Queen a few times. Tell me, Mr. Queen will accept Mr. York’s pursuit in the end?”

Her colleague said: “How is it possible? Mr. Queen is a normal man. He won’t accept Mr. York, and Mr. York may not really like Mr. Queen. I heard from the second young master Queen that Mr. York was urged by his elders. He didn’t like the famous daughter arranged for him by his elders, so he came to Jensburg on a business trip as an excuse.”

“Then use Mr. Queen to create a topic that he likes men.”

Hayden didn’t know about the low-pitched discussion between the two receptionists.

When she walked out of the office building, she instinctively looked at the door of the company first, and she did not see Kevin’s figure, so she was relieved.

A few minutes later, Hayden’s special car drove out of the Queen Enterprise under the escort of several bodyguard cars.

Where was Kevin, who was so guarded by Hayden?

He was waiting for Hayden’s return at the gate of Hayden’s private villa.

And the house he bought just happened to be in this villa area, so he could come and go freely.

Thanks to Hayden who introduced the house to him, he was able to buy a house here. Although the house hadn’t been renovated and he didn’t move in, after buying the house, he got an access card and could come in and out freely.

For the decoration of the house, Kevin also contacted the decoration company and handed it over to the decoration company. It is fine for him to come over occasionally to see the progress.

Kevin didn’t ring the doorbell, and didn’t disturb the housekeeper in the villa for the time being.

Hayden liked to be quiet, and because of the secret of her disguise as a man, there were not many servants in her villa. If Kevin didn’t ring the doorbell, the people in the villa would not know that there was someone at the door.

Besides, Kevin's car was not parked in front, and he was sitting in the car waiting for Hayden to come back.

As the sun went down, the man Kevin had been waiting for finally appeared.

Seeing Hayden's car approaching surrounded by several bodyguard cars, Kevin said to himself: "The ostentation is as big as my big brother."

His elder brother brought a team of bodyguards with him when he went in and out.

After having a sister-in-law, the elder brother reduced the number of bodyguards for a while, so that so many people didn't need to follow him.

Recently, the previous number of bodyguards had been restored. As before, young women other than family members were still not allowed to approach him.

Kevin heard that sister-in-law had added two new rivals in love, one in the open and one in the dark.

His elder brother had to be on guard, afraid of being taken advantage of by those admirers and causing unnecessary misunderstandings.

"Master." Hayden's driver saw Kevin's car, he slowed down and said to Hayden: "Master, Mr. York's car is parked at the entrance of the villa."

He was Hayden's full-time driver, and when Hayden was dealing with Kevin, he memorized Kevin's license plate number.

Hearing this, Hayden closed her eyes and opened her eyes suddenly.

She sat upright, looked forward, frowned, and said, "No wonder my eyebrows are always jumping, that scoundrel is waiting for me here, how did he get in, the security personnel at the gate of the villa area... .."

Hayden complained that the security guard on duty in the villa area didn't guard the gate, and let Kevin in.

Before she finished her complaints, she remembered that Kevin was also a resident of this villa area, and she introduced him to the house he was able to buy here.

Kevin must have planned it long ago.

Fortunately, she helped Kevin like that, never thought that Kevin was to deal with her!

Hayden scolded Kevin for being cunning in her heart.

Seeing that he was smiling all day long and easy to get along with, he was not polite at all when he was planning people.

Hayden was calculated by Kevin.

No wonder everyone said Kevin was a smiling tiger.
