Married at First Sight Chapter 1954-Kevin slowly unfastened his belt, and said: "Mr. Queen, you're not willing to take off your clothes in front of me to prove that you're a man, but I am very happy to let Mr. Queen verify whether I am a man."

Seeing that he was about to take off his pants, Hayden said with a dark face: "Mr. York, I apologized, I said something wrong. You're always a real man!"

Kevin frightened her.

He wouldn't really take off his pants in front of her.

Now that she apologized, Kevin fastened the belt, and said: "I am much more straightforward than you, Mr. Queen. Mr. Queen, you usually act in an open and aboveboard manner, and you're not sloppy. When it comes to taking off your pants, you're not as straightforward as me, you look like a woman."

Hayden's face was dark.

"Mr. Queen, you are not really a woman, are you? You are the woman." Kevin giggled, "If I were a woman, I would pester you even more until you marry me."

"Mr. York, I'm not interested in you, please stop following me lingeringly. You have seriously affected my life and work." Hayden slowed down, trying to reason with Kevin.

In the matter of chasing his wife, Kevin was an unreasonable person.

He looked at Hayden with burning eyes, and said, "I told everyone that I'm going to pursue you, Mr. Queen, and it's only been a day. If I give up, who will believe that I'm gay?"

Hayden: "Mr. York, you just want people to believe that you are gay? You want people to believe that you are gay, you can find other men, why do you have to find me?"

"I just like you, Mr. Queen. You're prettier than them all. I like someone who is as handsome as me."

Hayden: "...There are so many young talents in Wiltspoon, and there are many who are better than me. Why don't you go to them?"

"I've known them for a long time. I'm so familiar that I can't talk. Besides, I'm too familiar with them. I can't even feel admiration for them. But it's different for you. When I see you, I will miss my whole life, and I will depend on you for the rest of my life."

Hayden stared at him. She absolutely did not believe his nonsense.

After a while, Hayden said coldly: “Whatever you think, I will put the ugly words first, no matter how many things you have done for me, I will not accept you, Mr. York.”

Kevin: “Mr. Queen, If you have a girl you like and marry her as your wife, I will not pursue you again. Although I like you very much, I will not interfere in other people’s marriages and become a third party.”

Hayden won’t marry a wife if he eats to death.

For a moment, Hayden wanted to find a woman to pretend to be her girlfriend, so as to cut off Kevin’s pursuit.

But she’s also afraid that those women who didn’t know would make a fake show, and it would be a troublesome thing if they insisted on marrying her.

“Mr. Queen, do you have any girls you like? There are many girls who like you. When I first arrived, your admirers surrounded me as soon as I got out of the car. They accused me to rob you.

What do you mean they are already very competitive, and I want to join them to make them more competitive, and even scold me for ruining your reputation, saying that you are a normal man and you won’t like me as a man, tell me to hurry and harm others.

In the end, they were all speechless by me. Really, my parents don’t care about me, why should they control my pursuit? I can pursue whoever I like, and it’s not their turn.”

Hayden: “...”

She walked to the door of the room, opened it silently, and made a gesture of invitation to Kevin.

She wanted to ask Kevin to go out, but she couldn’t say no to Kevin.

Kevin seemed to be unreasonable but reasonable, and he could silence her.

After Kevin was silent, he walked towards the door of the room.

When passing by Hayden, he smiled: “Mr. Queen, I will not give up pursuing you. If you want me to give up on you, unless you marry a wife and have children, if you really have a wife, remember to ask me to be your best man.”
