Married at First Sight Chapter 1979—"Husband, rest early after returning home. I will go back soon." Serenity told her husband.

Zachary deliberately wronged and said: "wife, I was almost misunderstood by you, and you didn't come back early to comfort me and accompany me, my heart was hurt."

A man who cared about him took advantage of him because he wanted to turn him into a playboy.

He was wronged.

He needed his wife's company as well as her comfort.

Serenity smiled and said: "That's fine, I will take Sonny back tomorrow night, grandma not go back with me."

Zachary said: "Even though Grandma is old, she still flies here all day. Running there is not at all obeying, and if she is more than ten years younger, the sky will be pierced."

Serenity: "Grandma said that there are too many pigs in her family, and she needs to find cabbage for the pigs."

Zachary: " ..."

He was the big pig in grandma's mouth!

The cabbage he made was also found by grandma for him!

Zachary: "Can't come back tomorrow morning?"

"I made an appointment with Jane to take the children to the zoo. Sonny is so happy. If I tell him not to go, he will be very disappointed. Going back tomorrow morning is also so early."

Zachary curled his lips and said, "You always put men from other people's families ahead of me, and you don't consider my feelings. When Sonny grows up and marries a wife, he will be a man from other people's families. You don't care about him anymore. It's good to help other people take care of men."

Serenity smiled and said: "This sour taste is even more sour than sauerkraut."

Zachary: "I'm just jealous, as long as you treat your husband well, I will be jealous, no matter if the husband is an adult or a child, as long as the husband is not me, I will be jealous and it's sour."

Serenity: "You're so sour, your teeth are so sour that you can't even eat tofu."

Zachary: "I don't eat tofu, I'll eat you."

Serenity smiled and scolded him: "Don't say these things because Sonny is still with me."

Zachary felt sour again.

Zachary: "Tomorrow evening, I will go to FC Manor to pick you up."

Serenity did not refuse him.

Serenity: "Then, I hung up the phone and took Sonny to sleep."

Zachary: "My wife doesn't sleep with me, but sleeps with Sonny. I'm sore, I'm sore, I'm still sour."

Serenity: "..."

She quickly ended the call and stopped listening to the sour man's words.

After the couple finished talking, Zachary contacted Josh again.

In short, this evening, Zachary was not in a good mood.

Compared to the eldest brother who was not in a good mood, Kevin was in a sleepless night.

At dawn, Kevin came back from Drowsiness, and he walked to the window. Fortress Hotel was more than 20 floors high, and his presidential suite was located on the top floor. Standing in front of the window, he could have a panoramic view of the bustling city.

After standing for a few minutes, Kevin turned and walked towards the bathroom.

Twenty minutes later.

A refreshed Kevin came out of the presidential suite.

"Mr. York."

The manager held a bouquet of flowers and several bags and stood at the door waiting for Kevin.

"Manager Dax," Kevin greeted with a smile, "Good morning."
