Married at First Sight Chapter 1982-“I like you, and I want to pursue you, Mr, Queen.”

The distance between the top floor of the Queen Enterprise’s office building and the ground was so high, even if Kevin has a loud voice, his shouts can’t reach the top floor.

Unfortunately, Hayden heard it.

Not only she heard it, but also the senior managers. They all looked out the window, and then looked at Hayden.

Hayden’s face was as dark as the bottom of a casserole.

She suspended the meeting, got up, and went to the window.

She couldn’t see clearly because of the distance, but after listening carefully, she could hear that Kevin used a tweeter.

He used a tweeter to amplify his voice to her ears, so that everyone nearby could hear him shouting.

Hayden cursed in a low voice.

She immediately took out her mobile phone and wanted to call the police to report Kevin for making noise and disturbing the people. After thinking about it, she finally gave up calling the police.

Instead, she returned to her seat and told the secretary: “Call the security department and ask them to go out and tell Mr. York that he can come in.”

So as not to make noise outside and affect the public at the same time, let her become everyone again. topic of.

Although the noise would disappear if the police were called, Kevin would probably be criticized and educated, but that would only treat the symptoms, not the root cause.

This man had too many tricks, who knew what method he would think of to disturb her next time?

Kevin was the most unpredictable man Hayden had ever met.

“Yes, Mr. Queen.”

The secretary hurriedly informed the security captain to let Kevin in, and didn’t let Kevin use a tweeter to yell at Mr. Queen to express his love.

The security captain was also having a headache.

After receiving the internal call from the secretary, the security captain rushed to Kevin at the fastest speed.

“Mr. York, Mr. York.”

The security captain pulled Kevin’s hand with both hands, and at the same time prevented Kevin from shouting with the tweeter.

Kevin stopped shouting, turned his head to look at the security captain, and asked with a smile: “What’s the matter? Is Mr. Queen free to entertain me?”

The security captain smiled, “Mr. York, I just received a call from Mr. Queen’s Secretary. Mr. Queen said to let you in, don’t shout here anymore. Making noise and disturb the people, people can call the police to deal with you.”

Kevin said: “I don’t have to work so hard to shout here if Hayden let me in at the beginning.”

He then said to Manager Dax who was standing not far away: “Manager Dax, you can take the tweeter home and keep it for now. If I can’t enter Queen Enterprise another day, I’ll continue to use it.”

He was the one who called Manager Dax to send him a tweeter.

Manager Dax hurried over to pick up the tweeter.

Manager Dax’s face was red.

He didn’t know why it’s red, might be it’s flushed from laughing.

The security captain felt that Manager Dax was blushing because of such a shameless boss as Kevin.

How shameless!

If Mr. Queen’s female suitors dared to ignore them like Mr. York, it is estimated that Mr. Queen would have been taken down by a certain daughter long ago.

Mr. York should be shameless in order to win them.

Well!

No, York was always a man, and Mr. Queen was also a man. The two of them couldn’t be together, that’s not accepted and seen by the world.
