

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 1953

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1953-Alba listened to Anders' maniacal laughter as she looked at the many wounded family members around him. At that moment, she felt a pang of grief in her heart.

Her eyes also began to slowly turn red.

What could a woman like her do as she was faced with the current desperate situation?

"Anders! What do you want?" Alba raised her head, trying not to let her tears fall.

However, her choked voice had already betrayed her.

"Haha! What do I want? I want everyone in your family to die!" Anders looked down at Alba and said word by word.

"Are you sure you want to be so ruthless?" Alba asked.

"No, no, no! How am I ruthless? The rest of the Fellowes family will die, but you won't. I will keep you alive and let you watch all your family members die. After that, I will slowly torture you, making you wish you were dead." Anders grinned.

After getting a positive answer from Anders, Alba stopped having any wishful thoughts.

As she looked around, all the direct descendants of the family showed a look of fear, and their eyes were filled with horror.

Their hearts were probably also filled with despair.

Valerio was holding back his anger. He wanted to charge over and die with Anders, but he knew this was impossible.

Ignoring that Anders was also a partial Saint, he must have brought many powerhouses along when he came to chase down the genius direct descendant sent by the family this time.

If he went over, he would only be courting death.

If he died, what would happen to the direct descendants?

Now, he could only hope that David could come forward.

After Alba looked around, she suddenly shouted, "Master David, these are the genius direct descendants of my family, and they are our last hope. Please help me. From today on, I, Alba Fellowes, will be your servant and I will work hard to repay you. Please help the Fellowes family!"

"Haha!" Anders laughed even more maniacally.

"Alba, you are so naive. Do you think that David still cares about the life and death of your family? Now that I'm here, it's too late for him to run away! How could he save you? The moment my grandmaster became the head of the Saints Association, no force in Star Kingdom would dare to oppose us. Otherwise, there will only meet one end, and that is death!"

Alba ignored Anders' words and waited quietly.

She believed that David was not like this.

However, time passed by slowly.

After the scene was quiet for more than ten seconds, David still did not appear.

Both Alba's and Valerio's hearts sank slowly.

Both attacks by the Palmore family were very loud and they also destroyed countless structures in Treasure Trove.

Therefore, there was no way David did not hear them. '

However, he had not shown up yet.

Was he afraid of offending the Palmore family?

This possibility of this was not zero. On the contrary, it was very large.

After all, the enemy was the head of the Saints Association.

Even if David was willing to help, his master would definitely stop him when he found out the reality of the situation.

Ten seconds passed again. Alba and Valerio glanced at each other, both showing bitter expressions.

'Master David's master probably stopped him.

'I guess it's hard to go against his master's order.

'He won't be helping the Fellowes family anymore.

'Is the Fellowes family really doomed?'

"Hahaha! Alba, where is your Master David? It's been so long, so why hasn't he come out to save you? It seems that he doesn't even want you to be his servant. Why don't you be my servant? Maybe I'll get in a better mood and allow your family to die a more pleasant death." Anders started to laugh again when nothing happened after some time.

It was exactly as he thought.

No matter how awesome David was, he was nothing more than a True Saint.

'How dare he challenge the Palmore family?

'Grandmaster has already defeated Sid, the number one in Star Kingdom, and has replaced him. i

'Furthermore, he also got the support of other four deputy heads.

'From now on, Star Kingdom will only be dominated by the Palmore family.

'Anyone who dares to offend the Palmore family is asking to die.'

Anders started to get more and more insolent.

"Hahaha!"

The sound of Anders' laugh filled the air.

He wanted to vent all the unhappiness in his heart during this time.

The others did not dare to even breathe.

The Fellowes family members among the ruins on the ground were all ashen, including Alba and Valerio.

Recommended Novels