I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1964-“Master David, to tell you the truth, we don’t actually hold the illusion that you can save the entire Fellowes family. As long as you can help protect these direct descendants and preserve the bloodline of the Fellowes family, we will be satisfied. After all, no one would have thought that Zenon could defeat Sid and become the head of the Saints Association. Even if you stand by and watch, we won’t have any objections,” Alba continued.

“Miss Fellowes, you are looking down on me! I, David Lidell, am not ungrateful. I was very sorry for breaking my promise last time, and I will not do it again this time.” David said a little unhappily.

“No! Master David, don’t get me wrong, we didn’t mean that. It’s just that the enemy is too powerful, so we dare not have any high hopes,” Alba quickly explained.

She was afraid that David would misunderstand her.

“In that case, just listen to me! I’ll send you back to the Fellowes Residence first, and I can guarantee that you and everyone in your family will not suffer any harm.”

‘Um...’

Alba looked at Valerio.

She was actually willing to believe David’s words, but she could not decide on this matter herself.

“Master David! May I take the liberty to ask you a question?” Valerio said suddenly.

“Go ahead, Mr. Valerio.”

“The doomsday scene just now was longer and sadder than when Nek died last time. Could it be that Anders and the two True Saints of the Palmore family have fallen?”

Valerio stared at David carefully after asking, waiting for his answer.

Alba was shocked when she heard this.

She looked at David in disbelief.

She naturally knew why that happened.

She was still discussing with Valerio just now, wondering who had died. Could the Palmore family have possibly taken action and killed the Saint Realm grandmaster of the Fellowes family?

In the end, they contacted the family and learned that no Saints had died.

Alba did not understand why Valerio would ask such a question.

Judging from the situation when Anders and his gang escaped, David only injured them, so they would not die.

One must know that the two people who protected Anders were both True Saints of the Palmore family.

David was not a Sacred Saint, so how could he easily eliminate two True Saints with just a swing of his sword?

Alba did not quite believe it.

However, David's next answer challenged everything she knew.

"Yes!" David spat out a word.

In an instant, Alba and Valerio's eyes widened, their faces full of shock.

Since Valerio heard that David was so sure that he could protect the Fellowes family, he dared to link the doomsday scene just now with the two True Saints of the Palmore family.

Unexpectedly, it turned out to be true.

Although he was prepared, Valerio was still taken aback.

David's ability to kill two True Saints from the Palmore family was not surprising.

The main surprise was that David had the courage to do this, which was unbelievable.

News that Zenon had become the head of the Saints Association had spread throughout the Star Kingdom.

David already killed the two True Saints of the Palmore family, so would they spare him?

A True Saint was not so easy to cultivate. It would require a lot of resources and time. Furthermore, they would also need someone with sufficient talent in the first place.

They would be filled with endless hatred.

From now on, the Palmore family's first target would change from the Fellowes family to David.

As long as David was alive, the Palmore family would not be in the mood to deal with the Fellowes family.

"M-Master David, you... You..." Alba stuttered and could not speak.

"Don't get me wrong, Anders and his gang are indeed dead, but I didn't do it. Besides, don't have the ability to do so. It was my master who did it in secret. I am eager to send you back to the Fellowes Residence because I need to take care of some business with Master. When we are done, we will go to your house together to discuss with your grandmasters how to deal with the Palmore family. As for why he killed the three of them, I told you my master would not just watch everything our sect had accumulated over so many years be destroyed just like that."
